CONTESTED ELECTION OF CURTIN vs. YOCUM.

P A P E R S

IN THE CASE OF

ANDREW G. CURTIN vs. SETH H. YOCUM.

TWENTIETH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

MAY 22, 1879.—Ordered to be printed.

DEPOSITION OF FELIX D. FOGLEMAN.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is Felix D. Fogleman; my age is 27 years; my residence is Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th of November last, and how long before that time have you lived there?—A. Benner Township, and I have lived there for about the last 20 years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed more than two months thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

FELIX D. FOGLEMAN.

DEPOSITION OF CONRAD FOGLEMAN.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name, Conrad Fogleman; my age, 23 years, was 23 the 20th of June, 1876; my residence is Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I lived in Benner Township at that time, and have lived there for the last 20 years except I lived in Half Moon Township for about eighteen months.

Q. When did you come back from Half Moon to live again in Benner Township?—A. About the 1st of October last.

Q. What were you doing in Half Moon Township?—A. I was working on the farm by the month, but I always made my home with my father in Benner Township.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township, held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted at that election and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. To whom did you pay State and county taxes?—A. George Gensaman.

Q. For what township was he collector for State and county taxes?—A. Half Moon Township.

Q. You lived in Half Moon Township did you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. During what period of time did you live in Half Moon Township?—A. Fourteen months or one and a half years.

Q. What time did you go to Half Moon Township?—A. Some time in March, 1877.

Q. What time did you come back to Benner Township?—A. About the 1st of October, right after the fair.

Q. Were you down to the fair?—A. No, sir; I was not.

Q. About how many days after the fair did you come down?—A. I don't know. I think it was on Saturday; the fair closed on Friday and I came down Saturday.

Q. Did you have your washing and mending done where you worked in Half Moon Township, while you were there?—A. I had the last year at home and the year before at Half Moon.

Q. How often did you come to Benner Township to your father's the last year you worked in Half Moon?—A. I don't know how often I was at home, but I was at home every two weeks.

Q. For how long had you hired with Thomas Way in Half Moon Township?—A. I had hired for eight months. I worked eight months; then he hired me until spring of 1878.

Q. Who did you work for then?—A. I worked for the same men.

Q. For how long did you hire this time?—A. I hired for eight months; but I only worked seven months.

Q. When did your time for which you had hired for eight months commence?—A. It commenced the 1st of April.

Q. Did you lose any time while you were working for Mr. Way, and about how much?—A. I don't know how much I lost. If I had my book here I could soon tell you.

Q. Did you pay any State or county taxes to any other collector within two years previous to the election of November, 1878?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Were you registered or assessed for Benner Township for 1878?—A. No, sir; I was not.

Q. What evidence did you furnish the board of Benner Township that you were a legal voter for that precinct?—A. I made affidavits.

Q. Where did you make this affidavit?—A. Here in Bellefonte.

Redirect examination by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Q. When were you married?—A. Last April, 1878.

Q. Where has your wife lived ever since you were married?—A. With my father in Benner Township.

Q. How often did you come home to your wife in Benner Township, while you were working in Half Moon Township?—A. Every two weeks and sometimes a little oftener.

Q. Did your wife do washing and mending for you at your home in Benner Township, during the time you were away working in Half Moon Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your wife living in Benner Township, did you not consider Benner Township your home?

(Council for contestant objects to the question, because it is too leading and in this case irrelevant.)

A. Yes, sir; I did consider Benner Township my home.

Recross-examination by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. When did you and your wife go to housekeeping?—A. I don't think it's any of your business.

Q. Where did your wife live before you married her?—A. In Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did your wife come from Huntingdon County to Benner Township?—A. In May, 1878.

Q. Have you and your wife kept house any place prior to the election held in November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you pay any boarding for your wife, or did she work for her boarding at your father's place?—A. I did not pay her boarding, but that has nothing to do with this.

CONRAD FOGLEMAN.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN FOGLEMAN.

Examination in chief by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. Are you the father of Conrad Fogleman?

(The counsel for contestee at the request of counsel for contestant states that the purpose for which this witness is recalled is to give evidence that Conrad Fogleman was a legal resident of Benner Township on November 5, 1878, and a legally qualified voter of that township at the time he voted.)

Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness because Conrad Fogleman, the witness just called, is the best evidence of his qualifications as a voter; 2d, and that this witness is called to swear to facts that he does not know and that are not in existence.)

Answer. I am.

Q. When was your son Conrad Fogleman married?—A. He was married in April of 1878.

Q. Where have Conrad Fogleman and his wife made their home since they were married?—A. They have made their home at my place, in Benner Township.

Q. Where has your son been working since he was married?—A. He was working in Half Moon until the 1st of October, and in the fall he helped me put away my corn, and after that he went to Bald Eagle Valley to chop wood for McCoy & Linn (iron-works).

Q. During the time he was working in Half Moon, how often was he in the habit of coming home to Benner Township?—A. He came home about every two weeks.

Q. State whether or not he got mending done, and also washing at his home in Benner Township.—A. He did get some done there, but I don't know whether he got it all done there or not.

Q. Have they had any other home since they were married?—A. They have not.

Q. Have they ever kept house since they were married?—A. No, sir.

(Counsel for the contestant objects to the testimony of this witness because the testimony of Conrad Fogleman, the voter in question, is the best evidence; 2d, because the testimony of this witness is secondary, and in this case wholly irrelevant and untrue, as it contradicts the witness and voter in question, Conrad Fogleman, upon every material objection.)

JOHN FOGLEMAN.

DEPOSITION OF SAMUEL GLENN.

Examination by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is Samuel Glenn; my age is 30 years; my residence is Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I was a resident of Benner Township at that time, and I have lived there for the last three years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. I have paid.

Q. Where were you born and raised?—A. Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township on the 5th of November last; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

SAMUEL GLENN.

DEPOSITION OF D. W. ROOP.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—A. My name, D. W. Roop; my age, twenty-two years on the 19th day of December, 1878; my residence is Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in Benner Township on the 5th of November last; and how long immediately before that time did you reside there?—A. Yes, sir; I did reside there on the 5th November last, and have lived there all my life.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir, I did; I paid my tax the day of the Granger picnic, in September, 1878.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. Where did you get your ticket on the day of the election?—A. At W. F. Reynolds' bank.

Q. Did you read over the names on your ticket before you voted it?—A. I did.

Q. Are you sure that the name of Seth H. Yocum was on your ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I am.

D. W. ROOP.

DEPOSITION OF JAMES FANNING.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Q. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is James Fanning; my age is about 30 years; my residence, Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I did reside there at that time, and have lived there for the last three years.

Q. Are you a naturalized citizen of the United States, and when were you naturalized?—A. I am a naturalized citizen, and was naturalized about twelve years.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Mr. Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. To whom did you pay your State and county taxes assessed for 1878?—A. I paid my tax to Thomas Purdue.

Q. When did you pay your tax to Thomas Purdue?—A. I paid it some time before the election of 1878 (November).

Q. How long before the November election, 1878, did you pay this tax to Purdue?—A. About two months.

Q. Have you a receipt from Purdue?—A. He gave me a receipt, but it got burned when my house burned down.

Q. When did he give you this receipt?—A. About two months before the election.

Q. When did you pay your tax to Stover?—A. I could not say; I have it in my tax-book.

Q. Didn't you pay this tax since the November election, 1878?—A. I don't remember.

Q. When did you pay your tax to Mr. Garbrick?—A. I don't remember, sir; I have it in my book.

Q. Can you tell about the time you paid this tax to Garbrick?—A. No, sir.

Y. Did you not pay your 1876 tax to Charles Smith some time in last December?—A. I don't know; I have got it in my book.

Q. Don't you know that you paid your tax to Uriah Stover since the election of November, 1878?—A. I do not know; I got it in my tax-receipt book.

Q. Didn't Amos Garbrick have to sue you for your tax of 1876 before Justice Smith, since the November election of 1878?—A. He sued me for some road tax.

Q. Was not your State and county tax included in the amount Amos Garbrick sued you for?—A. If I had my tax-book here I could tell you.

Adjourned until 8½ o'clock a. m., March 14, 1879.

Met as per adjournment at 8½ o'clock a. m.

D. H. Hastings, esq., appears as attorney for the contestee and W. C. Heinle, esq., appears as attorney for contestant.

DEPOSITION OF ROBERT GLENN.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is Robert Glenn: my age is forty-four years; my residence is Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you become a naturalized citizen of the United States?—A. In the year 1855.

Q. Were you a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I was a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and I have lived in it ever since it has been a township, some twenty years.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for Benner Township on November 5, 1878; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. When did you pay your State and county tax to Uriah Stover?—A. I could not exactly tell when, whether it was December, 1878, or January, 1879.

Q. When did you pay Mr. Purdue?—A. I have not paid him yet.

Q. On what day do you say you paid your 1876 taxes to Garbrick?—A. On the 20th of March, 1877.

ROBERT GLENN.

DEPOSITION OF JAMES ROWAN.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—A. My name is James Rowan; my age is 27 years almost; my residence is Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I was a resident of said township on the 5th of November, 1878, and have lived there all my life.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before the 5th day of November, 1878, which had been assessed at least two months before that time?—A. I paid my State and county tax to Amos Garbrick on the 25th November, 1876.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township, held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. When did Amos Garbrick give you that receipt?—A. He gave me the receipt on the day that I paid him, November 25, 1876.

Q. Do you remember where you paid him this tax?—A. Yes, sir; I paid him at Reynolds' Bank.

Q. Then you only know by the date of the receipt that you paid Amos Garbrick your tax on the 25th of November, 1876?—A. When he went to write the receipt he said this was the 25th, and then he wrote it.

Q. Do you know whether this was before or after the Presidential election in 1876?—A. It was after.

Q. On what tax-receipt did you vote at the election in 1876?—A. I don't know if I had any or not; they didn't ask me.

Q. Did you vote on this tax-receipt dated November 25, 1876, at November election, 1878?—A. No; they did not ask me for a receipt at this last election.

Q. When did you pay your State and county taxes to Uriah Stover?—A. The first of February, 1879.

Q. Then you paid no other tax that would have entitled you to vote at the November election, 1878, excepting the one for which you have a receipt dated November 25, 1876?—A. No; I paid no other.

JAMES ROWAN.

DEPOSITION OF ABNER RIDER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is Abner Rider; my age is 53 years; my residence Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you live in Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I did live in said township on the 5th of November last, and have lived there for the last 25 years.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in Benner Township on November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and I could not read my ticket, and Lawyer Alexander gave it to me.

Q. Who did you intend to vote for Congress?—A. I intended to vote for Seth H. Yocum; I couldn't read the ticket.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. Did you vote the ticket that Cyrus T. Alexander gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you tell Mr. Alexander that you wanted a Yocum ticket?—A. I just asked him for a Democratic ticket and he gave me one.

Q. Was not Cyrus T. Alexander the Democratic candidate for State senator?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you are sure that you voted the ticket that Cyrus Alexander gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN M. BROWER.

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is John M. Brower and my age is 45 years; my residence is in Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. I did live in said township on the 5th of November, 1878, and have resided in the township since the year 1874.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years before November 5, 1878, and more than one month previous thereto, which had been assessed more than two months before that time?—A. Yes, sir; I paid my tax.

Q. To whom did you pay your tax?—A. To Thomas Purdue, collector.

Q. What is the date of the receipt?—A. October 3, 1878.

Q. State if you paid your tax before the day of the date of the receipt.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER, Esq.:

Q. What time in the day you voted?—A. I think it was in the forenoon.

Q. From whom did you get the ticket?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did anybody vote with you?—A. I went alone, I think.

Q. What is your politics?—A. Republican.

Q. Can you tell to what number you voted?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. Where did you get the ticket that you voted?—A. I am unable to say where I got it.

Q. State whether you selected your own ticket or allowed somebody to do it for you.—A. I made up my own ticket.

Q. Whose name did you write on for Congress, if it was written?—A. It was printed; Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you sure that it was either written or printed on your ticket?—A. I am not certain whether it was written or printed. I am inclined to the opinion that it was printed.

Q. Would you know your ticket if you saw it now?—A. I cannot answer that question, whether I could or not.

Q. Do you know whether the name of either Yocum or Curtin was on your ticket at all?—A. Yes, sir; I think Seth H. Yocum's name was on the ticket.

Q. Do you swear positively that you voted for Congress?—A. That is the supposition of it; at least, I feel pretty certain I did.

Q. State whether you have examined your ticket, marked number 46, in the possession of Evan Blanchard, a commissioner taking testimony on the part of the contestee; and, if so, how did you vote for Congress?—A. I looked at the ticket. I can scarcely say. I believe there is no Congressman on that.

Redirect by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge the number of the ticket you voted?—A. No, sir.

JNO. M. BROWER.

B. F. LEITZELL recalled:

Q. Are you acquainted with William Myers, and, if so, where does he live and where has he lived for the last two years or more?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness he is called out of order, as he has been called before to testify to his qualifications, and his testimony with reference to qualification of any other voter than himself is merely secondary.)

A. I am acquainted with William Myers; he was born and raised in Benner Township and has lived there all his life.

Q. State his age as near as you can.—A. He is near about 24 years old.

Q. State whether or not his State or county tax has been paid within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months prior thereto; also state if he had a receipt, and to whom, and by whom his taxes were paid.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because the witness is testifying things which he only knows from hearsay, and the tax-receipt being the best evidence of the paying of this taxes, and the testimony of that is merely secondary.)

A. Yes, sir; his State and county taxes has been paid, and he had a receipt, and they were paid to Thomas A. J. Purdue, collector, by myself.

Q. Did he vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878, and, if so, for whom did he vote for Congress?—A. He did vote at that election, and he says he voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Did he tell you he voted for Seth H. Yocum?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

(Counsel for contestant refuse to cross-examine this witness because his testimony in this instance is not sufficient to prove the legality or illegality of the vote in question, and that the witness knows only from hearsay who this man voted for for the office of Congress, which declarations were not made under oath, and, therefore, irrelevant.)

Q. Are you acquainted with Edward J. Purdue?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether or not you were with him on the 5th day of November last when he prepared his ballot, and whether you went with him to the polls when he voted.—A. Yes, sir; I was with him when he made up his ticket, and I was with him at the polls when he voted.

Q. Did you see the ticket that he voted, and had it Seth H. Yocum's name on for Congress?—A. I saw the ticket that he voted, and it had Seth H. Yocum's name on for Congress.

Cross-examination by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. How long have you known Edward J. Purdue?—A. I was acquainted with him for about 10 years.

Q. Did you and Edward J. Purdue come together to the election in the morning?—A. Yes, sir; I came with him to the election.

Q. Where did you get your tickets?—A. At Seth H. Yocum's office.

Q. What time during the day did you vote?—A. It was near about dinner time.

Q. When did you look at Edward J. Purdue's ticket the last time before he voted it?—A. I saw him take it from the window-sill of Seth H. Yocum's office, and he took it in his hand and voted; he folded it when he first got it.

Q. Did he keep his ticket in his hand all the way up to the polls, or did he put it in his pocket at any time after he folded it?—A. I can say that he did not put it in his pocket.

Q. Do you know that he did not put it in his pocket?—A. He did not put it in his pocket.

Q. Did you see the ticket in his hand all the way going from Yocum's office to the polls?—A. He had one in his hand and he didn't throw it down, and I saw him put it in the window.

Q. Then you didn't see the ticket in his hand the entire time that you went to the polls?—A. I didn't see it all the time in his hand; no, sir.

Q. What candidate did Edward J. Purdue vote for for prothonotary?—
A. I can't answer that; I haven't got a very good memory on that.

Q. Whom did he vote for for the office of register?—A. I can't explain. I remember the outside of the ticket.

Q. What do you mean by the outside of the ticket?—A. Congress, the county ticket. I guess it was the State ticket that was folded on the outside.

Q. Did you see the inside of Edward J. Purdue's county ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Whose name had he on his ticket for the office of recorder?—A. I can't explain that.

Q. Did you not say you saw his ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did you not take notice for whom he voted for the different offices on the county ticket?—A. Well, I don't keep much memory of the county ticket.

Redirect by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Q. Did Edward J. Purdue tell you after the election that he had voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I heard him say a couple of times that he voted for Seth H. Yocum, after the election.

Recross-examination, by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. How soon after the election did he tell you he voted for Yocum?—
A. A couple of days after the election.

Q. Was it after you had heard that Yocum was elected?—A. I can't say about that; it was a couple of days after the election.

B. F. LEITZEL.

DEPOSITION OF THOMAS G. PURDUE.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. You are the same witness that was examined in this contest before Mr. Blanchard, the commissioner?—Answer. I am.

Q. Were you a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time did you live there?—

A. I was a resident of said township at that time, and have lived in what is now Benner Township for the last forty-eight years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Benner Township on November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Are you the father of Edward J. Purdue?—A. I am.

Q. What is his age and where is he at the present time, if you know?—

A. He is going on his twenty-third year, and is in Lincoln County, Kansas; he went there from here on the 18th of February, 1879.

Q. State whether or not he paid a State or county tax in Benner Township within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed more than two months prior thereto.—

A. He did.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. To whom did your son pay a State and county tax?—A. To myself.

Q. Did you give him a receipt?—A. I did.

Q. On what day did you give him this receipt?—A. On the 2d or 3d day of October.

Q. Was the receipt only dated on that day or was it given and dated on that day?—A. I gave it and dated on one of those days.

Q. Did he pay you his State and county taxes in money?—A. I was owing him the amount and over it, and I considered it just the same as though I gave him the money and he gave it to me.

Q. When did you charge your son in your account for the amount of his State and county taxes?—A. At that time when I gave him the receipt.

Q. Did you pay a State and county tax to Amos Garbrick?—A. I arranged it with Mr. Garbrick the week of the November court, 1876.

Q. Have you paid any State or county taxes to any one else 30 days before the November election and within two years prior thereto?—A. There was a difference between Stover and I and I would not cancel his tax because mine was more than Stover's.

Q. Then you have really not paid any State or county taxes, excepting to Amos Garbrick, 30 days before the November election, 1878, and within two years prior thereto, have you?—A. I have not.

THOS. G. PURDUE.

J. B. ROAN recalled:

Question. Are you acquainted with Daniel Powers?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he a resident of Benner Township on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before that time did he live in Benner Township?—A. About thirteen years, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Were you with him at the polls on the 5th of November, 1878, at the election for Benner Township, and did you see him cast his ballot?—A. I was with him at the polls and saw him cast his ballot.

Q. Did you hand him the ticket?—A. I gave him his ticket.

Q. Was the name of Seth H. Yocum on that ticket?—A. It was, and was what he asked for.

Q. Did he tell you before he voted that he was going to vote for Seth H. Yocum?—A. He told me he wanted to vote for Seth H. Yocum on the Greenback ticket.

Q. Did he tell you after he voted that he had cast his ballot for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. He said he didn't vote for Curtin.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. Do you know whether Daniel Powers paid State or county tax thirty days before the November election, 1878, and within two years prior thereto?—A. I can't tell without examining my books. I paid them, but I cannot tell the exact time. It may be within a year and not outside of twenty months.

Q. You do say, then, that Daniel Powers paid a State or county tax within two years, and thirty days before the November election last?—A. No, not State and county tax; I meant road and poor tax that I had against him.

Q. When did Daniel Powers ask you for a Yocum ticket?—A. He asked me the day before the election; in the first place, he said he could not read and wanted a neighbor to give him his ticket.

Q. Did you give him his ticket?—A. I did.

Q. How far away from him were you when he voted?—A. Well, about three or four feet when I gave him the ticket.

Q. What did he say to you the first time you saw him after the election with reference to voting for Congress?—A. Nothing. It was some time after the excitement had raised that he said he had not voted for Curtin anyhow.

Q. What is Daniel Powers's politics, Democrat or Republican?—A. Democrat generally.

Q. Were there on the day of the election any Democratic tickets that had no name for Congress printed on?—A. I did not see any.

Q. Do you know whether there were any?—A. I can't tell you positively; there was a great many mixed tickets.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge that Daniel Powers voted for Congress at all?—A. To the best of my knowledge he did.

J. B. ROAN.

DEPOSITION OF HENRY J. TRESSLER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. Are you acquainted with George W. Tressler?—Answer. Yes, sir; I am. I have known him for about twenty years; he was an apprentice to me at the shoemaker trade.

Q. How old was George W. Tressler on the 5th day of November last?—A. He was twenty-one years past.

Q. How long had he been a resident of Benner Township immediately before November 5, 1878?—A. Four months; before that he had been away about two weeks harvesting; he had his home with me for three years in Benner Township.

Q. Did he vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Who gave him the ticket that he voted?—A. I gave it to him.

Q. Did you see him vote the ticket that you gave to him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the name of Seth H. Yocum on that ticket for the office of Congress?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

Q. Where did you give him the ticket?—A. At the court-house where he voted.

Q. When you gave him the ticket did he vote it immediately?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE, Esq.:

Q. Do you know whether George W. Tressler paid any State or county taxes?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Did he make out the proper papers as required by law to vote on age and present them to the board before he voted?—A. No, sir; he was not called on for any papers; he swore to his age.

Q. Where and before whom did he swear that he was of age?—A. He swore before the election-board.

Q. Who administered the oath?—A. I think it was Mr. Searson.

Q. Where were you when the oath was administered?—A. I was right with him.

Q. Did George W. Tressler vote at the window of the election-room?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Who did you get the tickets from?—A. I don't know who gave me the tickets—some one here in the borough.

Q. At what particular place did you hand him this ticket spoken of?—A. At the court-house, when we were handy at the window.

Q. Did you hand him this ticket before he took his oath before the election-board?—A. Yes, sir; I gave him the ticket before he took the oath.

Q. Where did he put the ticket you gave him when you went before the election-board?—A. He kept it.

Q. Do you know whether he kept it in his hand or whether he put it in his pocket while the oath was administered to him?—A. I don't.

Q. Was the ticket you gave to him folded or did he fold it himself?—A. I folded it for him.

Q. Did he open his ticket and show it to you after you came out of the room and before he voted it?—A. I asked him to show me the ticket, and he did.

Q. Where did he show you his ticket?—A. Right by the window, before he voted it.

Q. Did he open or unfold his ticket so that you could see the names on it for the different offices?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far away from him were you when he voted?—A. I don't know how many feet, but I was close up with him up to the window.

Q. Did you see this ticket in his hand all the time after you say he showed it to you until he handed it in at the window?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did he hold it?—A. He held it in his hand.

Q. How much of this ticket did you see when he had it in his hand?—A. I seen no more than the one side of it, the top part of it.

Q. Do you know whether George W. Tressler had any other tickets in his possession at that time?—A. Well, I think he had a couple more of the same kind.

Q. Do you know whether he had any tickets of any other kind?—A. He hadn't at that time.

Q. How do you know he hadn't?—A. I didn't see any one giving him any.

Q. Did you and he come to town together?—A. We did, in the buggy.

Q. Where did you stop?—A. Stopped here in town on the street down here; I don't mind where.

Q. What time in the day did you vote?—A. In the forenoon.

Q. Did you and he stay together all the time until you both had voted?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then he could of had other tickets in his possession and you not know it, could he not?—A. He might of had, but I don't think he had.

Q. Could he not have voted a ticket if he had it folded and ready to vote, other than the one you gave him, without you knowing it?—A. Well, I think he could of done so, but he didn't.

Q. Did your father go into the election room with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your father questioned as to your age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did the election board require you to make any written or printed affidavit?—A. They did not.

Recross-examination by GEO. R. BARRETT, Jr.:

Q. Then all the proof the election board required of your being of sufficient age was the unsworn statement of your father?—A. Yes, sir.

MARTIN DALE.

DEPOSITION OF BENJAMIN JONES.

Examined by J. G. LOVE, Esq.:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 55 years; and I reside in the borough of Philipsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. About how long have you resided in Philipsburg?—A. Nineteen years.

Q. State what position you held on the election board for the election held in the borough of Philipsburg held on the 5th of November last?—A. I was judge of the election.

Q. Were the election board sworn on the morning of the election before opening the polls, and, if so, by whom?—A. They were sworn by Thomas M. Crisman, justice of the peace.

Q. About what time in the morning were the polls opened?—A. A little after seven o'clock; it was not long after seven.

Q. Who composed the election board who held the election?—A. James Test and Henry Southard, inspectors, and J. H. Wagoner and John S. Gray, clerks, and Albert Owens and J. J. Lingle, overseers.

Q. What was the politics of James Test, John S. Gray, Albert Owen, and J. J. Lingle?—A. I have always understood them to be Democrats. I don't know how they voted.

Q. Have they co-operated with and been identified with the Democratic party?—A. To the best of my knowledge they always have.

Q. What inspector received the ballots at the window that day?—A. James Test.

Q. When he received the ballot what did he do with it?—A. He handed it over to the other inspector, who numbered them, and Test put them in the box.

Q. Did Mr. Test announce the name of the voter each time from whom he received the ballot?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you have a register of voters for the borough of Philipsburg present in the room while you were conducting the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was there any register of voters furnished the election board by the county commissioners either on the morning of the election or prior thereto?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was there any objection made to the presence of the overseers of that election in the election room?—A. No, sir; not particularly. When the polls opened we intended to keep the room clear. Mr. Owens was in the room when the polls opened. I told Mr. Owens that I guessed we would have to use everybody alike and would have to ask him to get out. He said he had authority to be in. I asked him to show it, and he did, and I said nothing more.

Q. Was there anything said about both the overseers being Democrats, and, if so, what?—A. There was some of them objected to it because they were both Democrats, and some said Mr. Lingle was a Green-backer.

Q. Was there any person interfered or prevented them exercising their rights or duties as overseers at that election?—A. No, sir; I think not.

Q. Were the members of the election board well acquainted with all the voters who voted at that election?—A. I think they was, principally. There were some that I was not personally acquainted with, but I knew they lived here in town.

Q. Were there any persons voted at that election whose right to vote was challenged?—A. There was some challenged.

Q. What did the election board require of every voter who voted at that election?—A. They were all required to show a tax-receipt or be sworn to it, as to the payment of their taxes.

Q. Were there any persons voted at that election who were not registered that you know of?—A. I don't know that there was.

Q. When a person's right to vote was challenged, what proofs were required by the board of his right to vote?—A. He was qualified as to his right; sworn and examined as to his qualifications.

Q. Do you remember whether or not the vote of Reuben Freeman was challenged that day?—A. It was.

Q. Who questioned him as to his right to vote?—A. Mr. Owens done the most of it.

Q. Was he examined more than once that day as to his right to vote before his vote was received?—A. He was.

Q. Was Mr. Owens present when he was examined the second time?—A. He was.

Q. Did Reuben Freeman bring any other persons with him as witnesses as to his qualifications to vote?—A. He did; Elijah Only and his father.

Q. Were they examined as to Reuben's right to vote, and, if so, by whom?—A. By Mr. Owens and some of the board; they were examined.

Q. After the examination of Mr. Only and Reuben's father, was his vote received?—A. It was.

Q. Was Mr. Owen present when the election board received Reuben Freeman's vote?—A. I think so; we put the vote in right after the examination. Mr. Owens was present at the examination.

Q. For what office were the votes polled at that election that were polled for Seth H. Yocum?—A. For Congress.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. I voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before the election held on the 5th of November last, which was assessed two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER, Esq :

Q. Who swore the members of the election board on November 5, 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge, it was Thomas M. Crissman. He swore me I know.

Q. Who was Thomas M. Crissman?—A. He was a justice of the peace.

Q. Was the minority inspector present at the organization of the board?—A. He was the last coming, and there was no tickets taken until he came.

Q. Who received the tickets at the window?—A. Mr. Test received all the tickets, except while he was eating his dinner. I took in the tickets while he was eating, probably four or five.

Q. Did you see a register tacked on the door of the school-house in which you were holding the election?—A. I believe I did not see it; if I did, I didn't take any notice to it. Some of them mentioned in the room that there was an old register on the outside of the house; they said it was of no use—some of the board—and Mr. Owen said it was of no use.

Q. Did you use any register at all?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who brought the election blanks for the board to the school-house on the morning of the election?—A. I took them there.

Q. Where did you get them from?—A. They were sent from Bellefonte.

Q. What did you take to the school-house that morning for the use of the board?—A. I believe it was all the election papers, all that was necessary to hold the election, except the register list.

Q. Why did you not use the register at the school-house?—A. Because we thought it wasn't of any use.

Q. Did you use a list of voters at all at that election?—A. No, sir; I think not.

Q. How many votes were cast at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. Between three and four hundred.

Q. State how many of these were registered?—A. I don't know.

Q. State whether you held that election without reference to any registry?—A. Yes, sir; we didn't refer to any.

Q. Was any person challenged for the reason that his name was not upon the registry, during that day?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. Was any person challenged for non-payment of taxes?—A. I don't remember of any. There was challenging done.

Q. Upon what grounds were these challenges made?—A. In regard to their right to vote.

Q. What allegations were made against their right to vote?—A. I can hardly mind, only to Freeman's and Hemphill's; I challenged Hemphill's to see where he did live.

Q. Did the board accept the vote of Hemphill?—A. Yes, they accepted it.

Q. State whether he made proof of his right to vote?—A. He didn't make any proof outside of himself; he was qualified as to his residence.

Q. State whether Hemphill lived in the township or borough at that time.—A. He swore he had his home in the borough.

Q. How long has Mr. Hemphill resided in the borough of Philipsburg?—A. I suppose he has been here ten or twelve years.

Q. Has he always voted in the borough?—A. To the best of my knowledge he has. I have been on the board several times, and he has always voted when I have been on the board.

Q. With whom does he make his home in the borough?—A. Well, he said it was with his daughter.

Q. State for what reason Reuben Freeman's vote was challenged?—A. About the same that Hemphill's was. He wasn't living in the borough.

Q. Who is Reuben Freeman?—A. He is a darkey here in town.

Q. How many days had he been in the borough prior to the election held November, 1878?—A. I don't know; he was working here all the time, and he was boarding with his sister over in Clearfield County.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE, esq.:

Q. When did you first learn that Albert Owen and J. J. Lingle were appointed overseers of the election held November last, 1878?—A. On the morning of the election.

Q. Were they sworn?—A. I think not. I did not see them sworn.

Q. You have stated in your cross-examination that Mr. Test, the minority inspector, was the last member of the board getting to the polls; had the rest of the board been sworn before he got there?—A. Yes; I think they had.

Q. What light had the election-board in the room in which they held the election after it grew dark on the evening of the election?—A. We had two coal-oil lamps; one was at the window, the other on the table; they both sat on the table, but the end was up against the window-sill.

Q. Did the one sit at the window at which the ballots were received?—A. It did.

Q. Were there any votes received by the board at that election, after dark, from unknown persons?—A. Not to the best of my knowledge. We could see their faces as they came to vote; there was a big wood fire outside.

Q. You have stated in your cross-examination that Mr. Hemphill has been living here some ten or twelve years; has he always lived where he was living last fall at the time of the election?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. With whom, or in whose house was he living last fall at the time of the election?—A. He has a shanty across the railroad; I don't know whether he sleeps there or not.

Q. Was the election honestly and legally held so far as you know?—A. I believe it was.

Q. What, if anything, did you hear Mr. Lingle, one of the overseers, say concerning the manner in which the election was held?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because it calls for hearsay testimony.)

A. Mr. Lingle, after the polls closed, I told him that we was going to keep him there all night. Mr. Lingle said that he had been at a good many elections, and that this was as fair an election as ever he had been at.

Recross-examination by J. L. SPANGLER :

Q. Was Mr. Lingle there during the entire day?—A. No, sir; he was away for his dinner and supper. I think he was away twice, and am not positive whether he was there after supper or not.

Re-redirect examination by J. G. LOVE, Esq. :

Q. Was Mr. Lingle in the election-room at or about the time the polls closed on the day of the election?—A. I feel very positive that he was.

BENJAMIN JONES.

DEPOSITION OF HENRY SOUTHARD.

Examined by J. G. LOVE, Esq. :

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 49 years; my residence, Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you been a resident of the borough of Philipsburg?—A. At least sixteen years.

Q. What position did you hold on the election board at the election for the borough of Philipsburg, held on the 5th of November last?—A. I was majority inspector.

Q. State who composed the members of that election board.—A. Benjamin Jones was judge; James Test, minority inspector; John S. Gray, clerk; John H. Wagoner, clerk; J. J. Lingle and Albert Owen were the overseers.

Q. What was the politics of Albert Owen, J. J. Lingle, James Test, and John S. Gray?—A. I always supposed them to be Democrats. I never saw their ballot, and don't know how they voted.

Q. With what political party have they always acted and been identified?—A. With Democratic party, as far as I have known them.

Q. Were all the members of the election board sworn on the morning of the election before the polls were opened; and if so, by whom?—A. They were all sworn but the overseers, by Squire Crissman.

Q. Were the overseers sworn?—A. They were not, to my recollection.

Q. What duties did you perform as majority inspector in holding the election?—A. I numbered the ballots.

Q. Did the election board have a register of voters for the borough of Philipsburg for the conduct of that election?—A. They had not.

Q. Was any furnished them by the county commissioner?—A. They did not that I know of.

Q. Were the voters who voted at that election generally well known to the members of the election board?—A. They were not to me; there were a great many of them that I didn't know.

Q. What proof was required by the board from voters at that election as to the payment of taxes?—A. They were required to produce a receipt or make oath.

Q. Were all persons that voted at that election required to do so?—A. Yes, sir; without any exception.

Q. When a person's right to vote was challenged, what proof of his qualifications was required?—A. There was challenges made on different grounds. They were called in and sworn and examined as to their qualifications.

Q. Was there any interference on the part of the board with the overseers of that election in the discharge of their rights or duties?—A. I think not.

Q. When voters were challenged and brought into the election-room for examination, who generally conducted the examination on the part of the Democrats?—A. Albert Owen did the most of it.

Q. Do you remember whether Albert Owen took part in the examination of Reuben Freeman as to his right to vote?—A. He did.

Q. Was Reuben examined more than once that day, as to his right to vote that day, by the election board?—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Was Mr. Owen present at both examinations?—A. I will not be certain, but I think not.

Q. Who put the tickets into the ballot-box after they were numbered?—A. I laid the tickets on the box and Mr. Test pushed them in.

Q. At what time after the polls closed did you commence counting off the vote?—A. As soon as we could arrange the tables.

Q. Will you state the manner in which the vote was counted?—A. I took them out of the boxes, unfolded them and read them, handed them to Mr. Jones; he strung them a part of the time, Mr. Test the balance of the time.

Q. When you read the tickets what did the clerks do?—A. They tallied them.

Q. For what office were the votes polled that were polled for Seth H. Yocum at that election?—A. For Congress.

Q. On the evening, after dark, what light did you have in the election room?—A. Two coal-oil lamps.

Q. Where were they placed?—A. On the table; one, I think, upon the top of the ballot-box.

Q. How near to the window at which the ballots were taken in was one of the lamps placed?—A. Not over three feet, I suppose.

Q. Was there any light or fire outside of the building where the polls were held?—A. There was.

Q. In proving the qualifications of voters at that election did or did not the board use any printed or partly printed affidavits?—A. I think they did.

Q. Whose clerk was J. H. Wagner?—A. He was mine.

Q. Did he do anything on the day of the election to interfere either with the presence or the rights of the overseers at that election?—A. Not to amount to anything.

Q. Was that election, so far as you know, honestly and fairly conducted?—A. It was.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before the election held on the 5th of November last, which was assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. I had.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER, Esq.:

Q. Were the members of the board all present when you were sworn on the morning of the election?—A. I think the minority inspector was not present.

Q. Did you take any votes before he came in?—A. We did not.

Q. Who swore the minority inspector when he came?—A. Squire Crissman, I think.

Q. What time in the morning was he sworn?—A. I suppose near quarter past seven.

Q. At what time was the board sworn?—A. After seven.

Q. Did the minority inspector receive all the ballots at the window?—A. He did not.

Q. Who received ballots at the window besides the minority inspector?—A. The judge.

Q. About how many ballots did the judge receive at the window?—A. He took the ballots while the minority inspector took dinner.

Q. What part did you take in this election?—A. I numbered the ballots.

Q. Who assigned you to that duty, if anybody?—A. I don't know that anybody did.

Q. Who assigned the duty of receiving the ballots at the window to the minority inspector?—A. I don't know that anyone did.

Q. Did you use a register?—A. We had none.

Q. What was said about the use of a register at the time the board organized in the morning?—A. There was inquiry made for it; none could be found.

Q. Was any search made for a register?—A. All the blanks were presented there that commissioners had sent, I understood.

Q. Do you know whether the commissioners sent a register or not?—A. I think not; I understood the constable to say not.

Q. Did you examine the register that was hanging in the building in which you held the election?—A. I did not.

Q. Was there one there?—A. Not that I am aware of.

Q. You stated in your examination-in-chief that the board had taken partly printed and partly written affidavits from the voters, did you not?—A. I did.

Q. State how many.—A. I could not do it; I have no idea how many.

Q. State what class of voters made these affidavits.—A. Men who were voting on age; I don't remember of any others.

Q. How many votes were cast at the election of November of 1878?—A. I don't remember; over three hundred.

Q. How many of that number voted on age?—A. Two I remember of. I don't know whether there was any others or not.

Q. How many voted on naturalization papers, if any?—A. There was three or four, at least.

Q. What proof did the board require of the right of a naturalized citizen to vote?—A. To produce his papers, unless the board had known him to be a voter for five consecutive years.

Q. Did the board require an affidavit, partly written and partly printed, from such naturalized citizens not registered, so far as you know, but claiming a right to vote?—A. We did not; they presented their tax receipt; we required that from every one.

Q. Did the board require such naturalized citizens to state under oath when and where they were born?—A. They did not.

Q. Did the board require such naturalized citizens to state under oath when and in what court they were naturalized?—A. They did not.

Q. Did the board require such naturalized citizens to state under oath that they were citizens of the State of Pennsylvania and had been for one month citizens of the United States?—A. I think not.

Q. Did the board require such naturalized citizens to state under oath that they had resided in the State of Pennsylvania for one year and in the borough of Philipsburg for two months immediately preceding said election and that they had not removed into the borough of Philipsburg for the purpose of voting therein?—A. Not to my recollection.

Q. Did the board require a tax-receipt for the payment of the taxes of such naturalized citizens within two years preceding said election which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. We required that from every voter.

Q. In case such naturalized citizen had no tax-receipt, did or did not the board require him to state under oath when the tax was assessed, where it was assessed, when and where and to whom the tax was paid?—A. We did not make such inquiries as that.

Q. In the absence of a register, did the board require the voter to state under oath when and where he was born?—A. No; I think not, unless he was voting on age.

Q. Did the board require an affidavit partly written and partly printed setting forth that the voter was a citizen of the United States for one month and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that he resided in this State for one year immediately preceding said election and that he had resided in the borough of Philipsburg at least two months preceding said election, that he had not removed into the district for the purpose of voting, that he had paid a State or county tax within two years which was assessed two months and paid one month before the election, stating further, when and where the tax was assessed, and to whom the tax was paid?—A. I could not say; I don't know how those affidavits were worded.

Q. Did you take any affidavits setting forth the facts as above stated, and if so, how many?—A. There were required to sign an affidavit, but I could not say how many.

Q. What kind of an affidavit did the board require in the case of a non-registered voter?—A. We put him under oath, asked him the question whether he had paid a State or county tax within two years which had been assessed two months previously to the election.

Q. Did the board ask such a voter for any other information than what you have just stated?—A. I don't remember of any.

Q. Where was the voter sworn, and by whom?—A. In the room, in the presence of the board, by the judge.

Q. Have you stated all that either the judge or the other members of the board required from such unregistered voter or voters?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question because it assumes, as a matter of fact, that non-registered persons voted at that election, of which there has been no evidence or proof.)

A. That's all that I remember being asked.

Q. Did the board require, in addition to the oath of the voter himself, the testimony of another qualified voter of the district, stating that the voter who claimed a right to vote was well known to the affiant, and that he had resided two months in the borough of Philipsburg preceding such election?—A. I don't remember.

Adjourned until 7 o'clock this p. m.

Met as per adjournment this p. m.

J. G. Love and D. H. Hastings, esq., appear as counsel for contestee, and J. L. Spangler, esq., as counsel for contestant.

Q. How many challenges were made on the election day in November, 1878?—A. Four or five; can't say positive.

Q. Who conducted the examinations?—A. The overseers and the inspectors both.

Q. What part did the judge take in such examinations?—A. He administered the oath.

Q. What part did the inspectors take?—A. They questioned concerning their right to vote.

Q. How was a decision reached?—A. By mutual agreement.

Q. With how many of the three hundred voters and upwards who voted at that election have you a personal acquaintance?—A. I suppose I would be acquainted with two-thirds of them at least.

Q. How many ballots were cast after dark?—A. I could not say; there were some.

Q. Who received these ballots from the voters from the window?—A. Minority inspector.

Q. Were you present at the sealing of the ballot-box at the close of the count?—A. I was.

Q. State how the box was sealed?—A. It was tied with red tape; the tape was sealed in three or four places with sealing-wax.

Q. State whether you placed the signatures of the election officers on paper and fastened on the outside of the box?—A. I don't remember of that being done.

Q. Who took charge of the box?—A. The judge.

Q. State how many affidavits, partly written and partly printed, the board took from voters that day other than those which they took from persons voting on age?—A. I cannot say.

Q. Can you mention any?—A. I am not positive of any.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE:

Q. Were there any non-registered person, either naturalized or native-born, voted at that election that you know of?—A. We could not tell anything about that. We had no registered list, and there were none voted that I know of. We suppose that all who voted were registered.

Q. You stated in your cross-examination that you thought that there were some three or four persons who voted on naturalization papers. Can you state the names of any persons who so voted?—A. Michael Carey and, I think, Daniel Ryan.

Q. You stated in your cross-examination when a voter was called and examined in relation to the payment of his tax that he was asked whether he had paid a State or county tax within two years that was assessed at least two months before the election. Was he also asked what length of time before the election he paid his tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because it is preceded by a statement from counsel in which the counsel testifies instead of the witness.)

A. I believe not, not that I remember of.

Q. If it would appear from the examination that the voter had paid his tax less than one month before the election would the board receive his vote?—A. I would not, and the board did not; nearly every man that voted said he had a receipt at home, if he did not have it with him; some said they could not find it.

Q. Did the election board receive votes from any persons at that election who did not fully satisfy them on examination, either by tax receipt or under oath, that they had paid a State or county tax within two years and one month before the election which was assessed at least two months prior thereto except those who voted on age?—A. No; I think not.

Recross-examination by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. In your examination of voters for non-payment of taxes state whether the board would ask when the taxes were paid?—A. No.

Q. Did the board ask when and where the taxes were assessed.

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question, because it is a mere repetition of the cross-examination previously made of the witness.)

A. The question invariably asked was, did you pay a State or county tax within two years and had been assessed two months prior to the election.

Q. Was this all the information that the board required from voters?—

A. That was all the information we thought necessary; we supposed that was equivalent to a receipt.

Q. State whether this course was pursued with all voters who did not have a tax receipt?—A. It was invariably.

Q. Can you tell how many of the three hundred voters and upwards were not registered?—A. We had no registered list, and couldn't say anything about that; we suppose that all that voted were registered. They presented their tax receipt or were put under oath that they had paid their tax.

Q. You required no other proof to entitle a voter to his vote than what you have stated in your answer to questions already asked, did you or did you not?—A. None that I can remember of.

HENRY SOUTHARD.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN H. WAGONER.

Sworn and examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence?—Answer. My name is John H. Wagoner; my age, forty-one years; my occupation, lumberman; my residence, Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pa.

Q. Were you a resident of Philipsburg Borough on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately preceding that time did you live there?—A. I was a resident of Philipsburg Borough at that time and have lived here since November, 1877, excepting eighteen months before that; I have been a resident for the last twenty years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month prior to November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months before that time?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough, held November 5, 1878, and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Were you a member of the election board of Philipsburg Borough, at the election held on the 5th of November last, and, if so, what position did you occupy?—A. I was a member of that election board and was clerk to Henry Southard, one of the inspectors.

Q. Were you sworn as a member of the board, and, if so, by whom?—

A. I was sworn, and by Thomas M. Crissman, justice of the peace.

Q. Were the other members of the election board sworn, and by whom?—A. They were all sworn, and by Thos. M. Crissman.

Q. Were all the members of the board present at the time you were sworn?—A. All present except James Test, the minority inspector.

Q. State whether or not all the other members of the board were sworn before the arrival of the minority inspector?—A. They were.

Q. Was there a registry-list supplied the election board for that election?—A. There was not.

Q. State, if you know, whose duty it was to supply the election board with the proper registry-list.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because it asks the witness to give a legal construction of the law in reference to the duties of public officers, and further, the witness being a clerk to one of the inspectors, the law does not make it the duty of public officers to furnish the election papers to any member of the board except the judge.)

A. I am not a lawyer and have never read law, but I have read the election laws carefully, and know it is the duty, so laid down in the law, of the commissioners of the county to furnish each election board with a full and complete registry list.

Q. What duties did you perform as clerk at that election?—A. I was clerk; the duties I performed were to keep register of the votes as they were polled. I numbered them, as they were polled, on the margin. I also made out the papers for those who voted on age; and at the close of the election I filled out the blanks.

Q. Who received the tickets from the voters at the window?—A. James Test, the minority inspector, excepting at meal-time, when Benjamin Jones, the judge, took his place.

Q. What did the minority inspector do with the ballot when he received it?—A. He would ask for the voter's tax-receipt, would examine the receipt, pass the receipt to Henry Southard, the other inspector; if all right, he would announce the name, and pass the ballot to Henry Southard, who placed the numbers on the ballot; after being numbered, Southard would place the State and judiciary and county ticket on the lid of their proper boxes; then James Test, minority inspector, would shove them off into the box.

Q. What other persons besides the regular election officers took part in that election?—A. Two Democratic lawyers, Albert Owens and J. J. Lingle.

Q. In what capacity did they act at that election?—A. Overseers, or supervisors, as you may term it.

Q. What authority did they furnish the board for acting as overseers or supervisors?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because the petition of sundry citizens of Philipsburg Borough to the court of common pleas of Centre County, together with a decree thereon, has been offered in evidence, and is the best evidence of the authority under which they acted as overseers of the election in November, 1878.)

A. They had an instrument of writing from the court, setting forth Albert Owens and J. J. Lingle appointed to oversee the election in Philipsburg Borough, signed J. H. O., or J. A. O., I cannot say which; it was not the name in full.

Q. Were these two overseers sworn before they entered upon their duties as overseers?—A. If they were, it was not done in the presence of the election board.

Q. Was there any registry list about the election room, and, if so, why was it not used by the board?—A. There was a registry list tacked up at the school-house door where the election was held. I suggested that we would take that registry list. Jackson Gorton, constable, was instructed to go out and take it down. He found it defaced and mutilated and torn; came back into the room and stated as above, when J. J. Lingle or James Test, or perhaps both, went out with him and examined the same, came back and reported to the board that it was no good; could not use it; it was defaced. Albert Owens spoke up and said it did not matter; we could get along without it, or something to that effect.

Q. State whether or not any challenges were made during the day.—A. There was some challenges made.

Q. Give the number of persons that were challenged as near as you can, and for what causes they were challenged.—A. I suppose there were twenty-five or thirty challenges made during the day; the causes were non-residence and non-payment of taxes.

Q. By whom were these challenges mostly made?—A. J. N. Casanova, C. G. Herlinger, and on the election board by Albert Owens; there were other challenges made during the day, but they were the men that did the most of it.

Q. State if you know the politics of the persons you have just named.—A. I know them to be avowed Democrats, dyed in the wool.

Q. When a voter was challenged, state where he was taken to, whether he was sworn, and what investigation was made of his qualifications as a voter.—A. He was brought into the election room, sworn by the judge, Benjamin Jones. He was questioned by the inspectors touching his right to vote; if a Republican, he was questioned very closely by Albert Owens upon all his rights to vote; if a Democrat, the overseers, Albert Owens and J. J. Lingle, were satisfied with the questions asked by the inspectors or judge, which was not very rigid.

Q. What investigation was made of voters who did not have tax receipts with them?—A. They were brought into the room and sworn, asked the usual questions whether they had paid a State or county tax that had been assessed within two years, a resident of the borough sixty days previous to said election, and paid a tax thirty days previous to the same.

Q. State whether or not any persons were permitted to vote who had not furnished proof that they had paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before the day of election and which had been assessed at least two months previous thereto?—A. No, sir; not one.

Q. What proof did you require from persons voting on age?—A. They were brought into the room and sworn that they were between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years. Some few had witnesses, all voting on age; the proper blanks were filled out and signed and those blanks were all returned with the election papers to Bellefonte.

Q. Give the name or names of any person or persons who voted on age at that election who did not satisfy the board of their legal qualifications.—A. There was none, I believe; the majority voting on age were known by the board from boyhood up.

Q. State whether or not the members of the election board treated the overseers you have named in a proper and respectful manner.—A. They were treated very respectfully, very courteously; had all the rights of any of the sworn officers of the board, and examined all witnesses and receipts more particularly than did the sworn officers of the board, and tried to usurp authority.

Q. How many persons voted at that election, if you remember, and what proportion of them are you acquainted and know to be legally qualified electors?—A. Three hundred and forty odd votes were polled; I know the majority of them, and I would say nearly all of them, and would say further that I have voted for years with a majority of them at this poll, and the way that I know the majority of these men as legal voters, have been for years an outside or window man at the election.

Q. Please state what time in the morning the overseers took their place with the election board, whether or not they remained with the board throughout the day, and what time they took their departure.—A. The election board was organized ready for business about $\frac{1}{4}$ of eight o'clock or thereabouts; they presented their credentials from the court; they remained there until the polls closed at 7 o'clock p. m. with the exception of the time they were at their meals, and as soon as the polls closed they left and did not return to see the count.

Q. State whether or not the overseers were present when Reuben Freeman offered his vote.—A. They were present when he offered his vote; when he came the first time to vote it was challenged, and was sent to get proof of certain things he was qualified to; in the afternoon he brought his witnesses, Elijah Only and Philip Freeman; they were sworn and were questioned by Albert Owens, J. J. Lingle, J. N. Casanova, very closely; his vote was accepted by the approval of the overseers.

Q. State whether or not these overseers displayed any bias or partiality; and, if so, in what manner.—A. They did show partiality which was perceptible to all. If a Republican, they were closely questioned, and being learned men of the law, tried to dictate to the sworn officers of the board what their duties was, and in every way that they could, by language and expression, prevent, if possible, the man from voting, if they had a shadow of a show; if a Democrat, very seldom were questions asked by them, and then only such questions as "Have you paid a State or county tax assessed within two years and paid thirty days or one month previously to said election?"

Q. In counting off please state who took the ballots from the box and what was done with them, and how the counting was conducted.—A. When we first commenced to count, Benjamin Jones, the judge, took the ballots from the box and handed them to Henry Southard, who announced the same, and tallied by John S. Gray and myself, as clerks, and as each ballot was finished passed it to James Test, minority inspector, who examined the same, then placed it on the file or a string with a darning needle. I omitted something there, to state that after a while Benjamin Jones tired; then Henry Southard took the ballots from the box himself and announced them.

Q. State for what office the ballots for Seth H. Yocum were cast at that election.—A. For Congress.

Q. Are you acquainted with William Hemphill; and, if so, how long have you known him?—A. I am acquainted, and have known him for the last fifteen years or more.

Q. Where did he reside on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately preceding that time did he live there?—A. He resided in Rush Township, and has lived there ever since my return in 1877.

Q. State how close to the line separating Philipsburg Borough and Rush Township is the place where he lived during the period you have just stated.—A. From two to three hundred feet; it's not less.

Q. State how you know that his residence as above stated was in Rush Township.—A. The borough proper, the line is the south line of a piece of ground owned by E. I. Dupont & Co., for whom Wagoner & Bro. were agents, and we paid the taxes on said property assessed in Rush Township, and his (Hemphill's) residence is on the adjacent lot north; I have been to his residence and saw him cook, saw his bed, and also his washing on a line at his door.

Q. State, if you know, at what poll he voted at the election held November 5, 1878.—A. He voted in Philipsburg Borough.

Q. State, if you know, to what political party he belongs.—A. He is a Democrat, and has been ever since I am here.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER, Esq.:

Q. State your politics.—A. I am a Republican, and proud of it.

Q. Have you been taking a leading part in the politics of this section?—A. Not particularly so.

Q. Have you served as a window man at the Philipsburg polls for your party?—A. I have served at the window.

Q. State whether you took part in the examinations made by the board at the election of November, 1878.—A. I did not. When a voter was called in before the board, when he was being questioned touching his right to vote at said election, said questions were expounded or were asked by the inspector, judge, and overseers; discussions arose as to the law, which all participated in, the challenger, the officers of the board, the overseers, John S. Gray, clerk. I, with the rest, gave my views, but never asked a man a question touching his right to vote.

Q. In case a voter was challenged for non-payment of taxes, who conducted the examination on the part of the board?—A. The questions were asked by the inspectors, Henry Southard and James Test; not often by the judge; but if a Republican, the inspectors and judge were ignored and the questions were propounded by this learned man of the law, Albert Owens, overseer.

Q. Were the relations existing between you and Albert Owens, on November 5, 1878, pleasant and friendly?—A. We are on speaking terms. We have had some business transactions, and thought we were getting along swimmingly; one of our projects in business transactions was immense; it amounted to over three hundred thousand dollars, and before or about the time of election the prospects were favorable.

Q. You have stated that there was a registry at the school house in which you held the election, did you not?—A. Yes, sir; I did; it was nailed up at the school house door.

Q. State whether that was a registry of voters for the borough of Philipsburg.—A. So said to be.

Q. State for what year.—A. 1878.

Q. State, if you know of your own knowledge the clerk to the county commissioners sent the judge of the election board a registry for the use of the board?—A. He told me not (the judge).

Q. Who assigned James Test to receive the ballots at the window, if anybody?—A. It was arranged by themselves, the inspectors and the judge, the duties they were to perform.

Q. Did the judge during the day assume and perform any of the duties of the minority inspector?—A. At dinner time, by the consent of the overseer, because there was but one (Mr Lingle was at his dinner), and the board, Benjamin Jones, the judge, took the ballots in at the window in place of the minority inspector; each tax receipt was closely scrutinized by the overseer present, Albert Owens.

Q. Were you present at the sealing of the ballot-box at the close of the count?—A. I was, and sealed it up myself.

Q. State the manner in which you sealed it?—A. We closed the box, tied it round with red tape tied securely with knots, and sealed it with sealing-wax, which was pressed with a knife to make it solid and secure.

Q. State if you placed the names of the election officers on paper and affixed them on the outside of the box?—A. To the best of my knowledge and belief they was not; they might of been, but was not that I remember.

Q. What proof did the board require from voters in the absence of the register?—A. All the proofs that was required was to their residence, payment of taxes. Not having a registry-list it was not known to the board who were or who were not registered, but being acquainted as the board were with those who presented their votes at the polls, and so being decided in the morning by the board and the overseers that it made no difference, no man was questioned whether he was registered or not.

Q. How many of the 342 votes cast at that election is Henry Southard, majority inspector, personally acquainted with?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question for the reason that Henry Southard, who has just left the witness stand, has testified in answer to a question similar to the above, and stating specifically that he was acquainted with about two-thirds of the number. Second, because the testimony of the witness on the stand is not the best evidence of the number of such persons with whom Southard is acquainted; and, third, because it is not proper cross-examination.)

A. I cannot say.

Q. How many of the 342 persons who voted at that election was James Test, minority inspector, personally acquainted with?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question for the reasons given in objections to the last preceding question, given in objections 2 and 3.)

A. I cannot say; possibly he may know them all.

Q. How many of the 342 voters who voted at that election did Benjamin Jones, the judge, know personally?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question for the reasons referred to in the objection to the last question.)

A. I cannot say; he may know them all for all I know.

Q. What proportion of the voters at that election were personally known to the two inspectors and the judge?

(Counsel for the contestee objects to the question for the reasons referred to in objection to the last question.)

A. They may know them all for all I know; I don't know anything about it, what they know or how many they know.

Q. Are you personally acquainted with the 342 voters who voted at that election?—A. With the exception of a very few; I know a majority of them and am personally acquainted with a majority of them.

Q. What proof did the board require from persons whom the board were not personally acquainted with?—A. They treated one and all alike; had to produce tax-receipts of taxes paid one month or 30 days prior to the election which had been assessed within two years; those not having receipts were qualified as to having paid taxes and being duly qualified electors.

Q. In such a case above referred to, state whether the board would ask the voter when and where he was born?—A. Such questions were not asked to voters who the board knew to be American-born citizens; those of foreign birth were asked for their papers, which were produced and marked "voted" at said election.

Q. In the absence of a registry, state whether or not you have given all the proof which the board required from a naturalized citizen before receiving his vote?—A. They didn't require anything more except to produce their tax-receipts and such evidence of paying taxes as all other voters.

Q. Did the board require partly written and partly printed affidavits from voters other than those who voted on age?—A. There was other affidavits made out, but what they were I don't remember.

Q. How many of such affidavits were taken?—A. I cannot say how many; but few, and cannot tell the cases they covered.

Q. What proof did the board require of William Hemphill before receiving his vote?—A. William Hemphill's vote was challenged; he came inside, was sworn, and claimed his residence in Philipsburg, and, if you will allow me the expression, using the words that learned man of the law, Albert Owens, overseer, he was bull-dozed through by his magnificent interpretations of the law, and the disposition that was shown by the judge of the election, the majority inspector to give every man a vote who they knew had lived in Philipsburg Borough at some time, and in every instance they were more or less influenced by what he did say as to their qualifications to vote.

Q. How long have you known Hemphill?—A. Fifteen years or more.

Q. How long has he voted in the borough?—A. I have known him to vote here for years; can't say positive how long.

Q. Were the board satisfied with the proof of residence which Hemphill made before the board received his vote?—A. They received his vote, but do not think in their own minds the majority were satisfied as to his having a residence in the borough, but as I stated before, Judge of the Election Benjamin Jones, Henry Southard showing disposition to give every man a vote, were influenced by these fine illustrations of the law and remarks, it wouldn't make any difference anyhow.

Q. Are Benjamin Jones and Henry Southard Republicans?—A. They are, and known as such here.

JOHN H. WAGONER.

Adjourned until 8½ o'clock a. m., on Friday, March 21, A. D. 1879.

Met as per adjournment, Friday, March 21, A. D. 1879.

D. H. Hastings and J. G. Love appear as counsel for contestee, and J. L. Spangler as counsel for contestant.

DEPOSITION OF E. O. MATTERN.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, 23 years; my residence is Philipsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you been a resident of Philipsburg?—A. Twelve years this spring, I believe.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and one month before the election held on the 5th of November last which was assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for the borough of Philipsburg on the 5th of November last?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Are you collector of State and county tax for the year 1878?—A. I am.

Q. Are you acquainted with Lewis Frank?—A. I am.

Q. Is he assessed with a State or county tax on your duplicate for the year 1878?—A. He is not.

Q. Are you acquainted with J. N. Casanova?—A. I am.

Q. State whether or not he came to you at any time prior to the election of last November to purchase any blank tax-receipts; and, if so, when it was and how many he got.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, first, because the witness has not stated that he sold tax-receipts; the question should be, Did you sell any tax-receipts; and, if so, to whom? Second, it is leading.)

A. He did not.

Q. Are you acquainted with William Hemphill?—A. I am.

Q. How long have you known him?—A. I have known him about eight or nine years.

Q. Where did he reside on the 5th of November last?—A. I believe he resided in Rush Township.

Q. How long previous to the 5th of November last had he been residing in Rush Township?—A. To the best of my knowledge he resided there four months previous to the election.

Q. Does he still reside there?—A. To the best of my knowledge he does.

Q. What tax-receipts, if any, did J. N. Casanova get from you prior to the election on the 5th of November last?—A. I could not tell exactly what number he got, but he got some; in the neighborhood of thirty, I think.

Q. For whom did he get these receipts; for Democratic or Republican voters?—A. For Democrats and Republicans.

Q. About what proportion of them were for Republicans?—A. About one-tenth; about two or three.

Q. Are you acquainted with Albert Owen and J. J. Lingle, esquires?—A. I am.

Q. How long have you known them?—A. I have known Mr. Owens in the neighborhood of eleven years and Mr. Lingle something over two years.

Q. What are their politics?—A. Democratic, I believe.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER, esq.:

Q. What ticket did J. J. Lingle vote at the election of November, 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge, Democratic.

Q. State how you have obtained your knowledge of the ticket he voted at that election?—A. Only by his advocating Democratic principles.

Q. Did he vote a straight or mixed ticket?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Is he an advocate of the Greenback theory of finance?—A. I never heard him talk on the question.

Q. What taxes did you collect?—A. State and county for 1878.

Q. How many tax-receipts did you issue to Republican leaders before the election of 1878?—A. Just about the same number that I furnished the Democrats.

Q. To whom did you issue them?—A. Henry Stockbridge.

Q. How many?—A. In the neighborhood of thirty.

Q. When did he pay you for them?—A. On the 3d and 4th day of October, 1878.

Q. Where did William Hemphill vote in November, 1878?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. State whether he had been voting in the borough.—A. To the best of my knowledge he voted in the borough; he resided here quite a length of time, and I presume there is where he voted.

Q. State whether he has a daughter living in the borough of Philipsburg.—A. I think he has.

Q. Had he a wife living in November, 1878?—A. I don't know anything about whether he had or not; I don't know if he had a wife or not.

Q. Has he a shop just across the line dividing Philipsburg Borough from Rush Township?—A. He has a shop near the borough line.

Q. State whether he divides his time between his shop or shanty and the house of his daughter.—A. I think he stays at his shop. I imply by that that he boards there.

Q. What information had you concerning his affairs on November 5, 1878?—A. Had no particular information at that time.

Q. Did you know at that time whether he made his home with his daughter or in his shop?—A. To the best of my knowledge, in his shop.

Q. What information had you at that time concerning his affairs?—A. Nothing particular.

Q. Have you examined your duplicate to find the name of Lewis Frank?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Do you find any name that corresponds either to the first or second part of his name?—A. There is a name on the sixty-day list or the duplicate corresponding with either.

Q. State those names.—A. Frank Lewis; just reverse his name and you have got it either way.

Q. Do you know Lewis Frank?—A. I do.

Q. To the best of your knowledge and information, state if the name Frank Lewis on the duplicate is the name of the person called Lewis Frank.—A. They are two different persons. I know Frank Lewis and Lewis Frank both.

Q. Did Frank Lewis pay you a State or county tax for the year 1878?—A. His State and county tax is paid; was paid for him for the year 1878.

Q. When, and by whom?—A. By Henry Stockbridge.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE:

Q. Were the persons for whom Henry Stockbridge paid taxes to you on the 3d and 4th of October last, regularly assessed with the taxes on your duplicate?—A. They were to the best of my knowledge, and so were those that Mr. Casanova got, with the exception of one, Lewis Frank.

E. O. MATTERN.

DEPOSITION OF WILLIAM R. HEMPHILL.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS, Esq.:

Question. State your name and age.—Answer. My name is William R. Hemphill; my age is 52 years.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because counsel for contestee has no right to ask the witness for whom he voted for Congress until it shall have been shown that he had no legal right to vote in the borough of Philipsburg on November 5, 1878; 2d, because it is a privileged question which the witness can answer or decline to answer as he sees proper; any question as to the propriety or impropriety of his answer will have to be determined by the committee of Congress.)

A. I did vote at that election, and Andrew G. Curtin's name was on the ticket I voted.

Q. What business do you follow?—A. I am a butcher by trade.

Q. Where is your butcher-shop, if you have one?—A. I have nothing but a slaughter-shop; have no meat-market.

Q. Where is your slaughter-shop?—A. A short distance below the railroad freight depot.

Q. Is this shop in Philipsburg Borough or in Rush Township?—A. Rush Township.

Q. Did you build the shop; and, if so, when?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because it is immaterial in this, that it makes no difference, so far as this contest is concerned, when the witness built his shop.)

A. I did build the shop in the summer and fall of 1877.

Q. State whether or not you have a bed in the shop and if you sleep there?—A. I have a bed in another building adjoining the shop and I sleep there.

Q. How long have you been sleeping there?—A. Something over a year.

Q. Who stays with you in the building adjoining the shop?—A. Nobody staid with me over night there except my youngest son, who has staid with me since some time in January, 1879.

Q. If you are a widower please state the fact.—A. I am a widower since the 18th of July, 1875.

Q. Who does the cooking for you, and where do you take your meals?—A. I do the cooking sometimes, my son sometimes, since he's been there, and I take my meals in the same building I have my bed in.

Q. State where you have your washing done.—A. I get that done at my daughter's; she lives in the borough.

Q. State whether or not you have been taking your meals and having your cooking done at the place where you sleep since you have lived there?—A. I have taken the most of them there, of course; any time I have been working out day's work I took my meals at my daughter's. I didn't have time to cook my meals. I would of slept there too if their house had of been a little larger.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. When and where were you born?—A. I was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, on the 12th of October, 1826.

Q. When did you come to Centre County, and where did you first locate?—A. I came here on the 26th of October, 1864, but I didn't make my home here at that time until about a year afterwards.

Q. When did you first make your home in Philipsburg?—A. In 1865 I was married the second time and have made my home here ever since.

Q. Where did you live in 1865; on what street in Philipsburg?—A. I lived in Philipsburg, on Pine street.

Q. How long did you live on Pine street?—A. About 12 years; I was there from 1865 to 1877.

Q. When did your wife die?—A. On the 18th of July, 1875.

Q. Where did you make your home after the death of your wife?—A. On the same place that my wife owned at the time of her death until June, 1877.

Q. Where did you make your home after June, 1877?—A. On Front street until the December following of the same year.

Q. How much of a family had you at that time?—A. I had five children living.

Q. How many of your children were living with you in December, 1877?—A. None of them directly.

Q. Where did you make your home after December, 1877?—A. The only place that I could claim any home was with my daughter that was married.

Q. Give the name of your daughter.—A. Mary E. Cramer.

Q. Where is she residing at present?—A. On North Third street, Philipsburg. I am mistaken, it is Fourth street.

Q. Have you regarded her house as your home since December, 1877?—A. I have.

Q. Did you regard her house as your home on November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Did you have any other home?—A. Not unless you would count my slaughter-house my home, which I never did.

Q. Did you ever abandon the home with your daughter for the purpose of making your home in your slaughter-house?—A. No.

Q. Who does your mending and washing, mostly?—A. My daughter, Mary E. Cramer.

Q. Do you divide your time between your slaughter-shop and the residence of your daughter?—A. Yes; I am down there frequently; I am at my slaughter-shop most, because there is where I have my work.

Q. Why do you sleep at the slaughter-shop?—A. Because the house that my daughter lives in is too small for the family without any addition; I did not sleep there from choice, but from necessity; I was not able to rent a room any place else.

Q. Do you take your meals at the shop because you wish to be handy to your work?—A. That's been the main reason for it, because I have my household furniture there; my cooking-stove, for one thing, and cooking utensils; I mean at the shop; part of my furniture is at my shop, and part at my daughter's.

Q. Which of the two places, the shop or the house of your daughter, do you consider and regard as your home?—A. My daughter's.

Q. Where have you paid your taxes mostly, since 1865?—A. Borough of Philipsburg alone.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years?—A. I have.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. To Jackson Gorten; I think it was November, 1877.

Q. Where have you voted since 1865?—A. Never any place in Centre County, except in the borough of Philipsburg.

Q. Who challenged your vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Henry Stockbridge.

Q. State the politics of Henry Stockbridge?—A. I believe he is a Republican; at least I always understood so.

Q. What proof did you make of your right to vote?—A. That is a question I don't really know how to answer; I was qualified and claimed the borough as my residence.

Q. Was your vote accepted?—A. It was.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE:

Q. In whose house did you live on Front street in June, 1877, until December, 1877?—A. Jacob Mock's.

Q. Did you have the house rented?—A. No; I paid no rent; there was no agreement to pay rent; the house was vacant, and I went in to save his insurance.

Q. Did you keep house while you lived there?—A. I kept what you might call bachelor's hall a part of the time.

Q. Did you have your household furniture moved into the house of Jacob Mock?—A. A part of it.

Q. Where was the other part of it?—A. With my daughter, Mary E. Cramer.

Q. When you left the house of Jacob Mock in December, 1877, where did you go?—A. To the same place that I am now—my slaughter-shop.

Q. Did you take with you the household furniture that you had been using while in the house of Jacob Mock?—A. The most of it.

Q. How many apartments has the building in which you now live?—A. Three apartments.

Q. How are they occupied?—A. The first as you go in is occupied for butchering and cutting and manufacturing all kinds of meat—a regular slaughter-shop; the next is where I have my cook-stove and do my cooking in; the next is a small room at the end which I built for a sleeping apartment, which is occupied as such.

Q. When was your daughter married?—A. I think it will be three years next June, if am not mistaken.

Q. Have you ever since her marriage occupied a separate room in her house for any stated or particular length of time?—A. No.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax in the borough of Philipsburg for the year 1878?—A. Not yet I haven't.

Recross-examination by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. Did you vote at the election held February 18, 1879, in the borough of Philipsburg?—A. I did.

Q. Did the same election officers hold the election in February that held it in November, 1878?—A. I believe they did.

Q. Was your vote accepted without any examination as to your legal right to vote?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the examination of the witness in relation to his vote at the election in February last, because it is wholly immaterial, irrelevant, and not proper cross-examination.)

A. It was contested. My vote was challenged at the spring election by Stockbridge. I will not be positive that he challenged it in November, 1878. It was accepted at the February election.

W. R. HEMPHILL.

DEPOSITION OF LEWIS FRANK.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, occupation, and residence.—Answer. My name is Lewis Frank; my age, I was born in 1837; my occupation, I am a days' laborer; my residence is Slabtown, Philipsburg Borough.

Q. State whether your residence is in the new addition to the borough of Philipsburg.—A. I suppose it is.

Q. How long have you lived in Philipsburg Borough?—A. I have lived at the tannery for near two years.

Q. During the time you have lived at the tannery was the place where you reside taken into Philipsburg Borough; and, if so, when?—A. The place where I live was taken into the borough since I lived there; that part was taken into the borough about last fall some time.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. What is your politics?—A. My politics is Democratic.

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir.

Q. What time during the election day did you vote?—A. I think it was before dinner.

Q. From whom did you receive the ticket that you voted?—A. Boyd Beemer.

Q. What is Boyd Beemer's politics?—A. Democrat, as far as I know.

Q. Did Boyd Beemer inform you what kind of a ticket it was that he gave you?—A. Yes; he told me that it was a straight-out Democratic ticket.

Q. State whether or not you showed your ticket to any person or persons at the time you voted; and, if so, to whom?—A. To J. N. Casanova and Harry Simler.

Q. To whom did you show your ticket last before you voted?—A. J. N. Casanova.

Q. State whether or not the ticket was changed and Harry Simler's name put on it?—A. Yes, sir; Harry Simler put his name on.

Q. State whether or not you had any conversation with J. N. Casanova at the time he handed you the ticket back, about what kind of a ticket it was.—A. I think it was the same ticket. I had no conversation with him about the kind of ticket.

Q. State whether or not Mr. Casanova said anything at that time about the ticket being all right, or words to that effect.—A. Yes; he said it was all right when he gave it to me.

Q. Did you vote that ticket immediately after Mr. Casanova handed it back to you?—A. I did within, I suppose, twenty minutes afterward.

Q. State whether or not any person gave you a tax receipt; and, if so, tell who?—A. Yes, sir; Mr. Casanova.

Q. Have you that tax receipt, and will you please produce it?—A. Yes, sir, I have, and herewith produce it.

Q. (The paper shown witness.) Is this the receipt that Mr. Casanova gave you?—A. Yes, sir, it is.

(Paper marked Exhibit A, W. E. I., N. P., March 21, 1879, offered in evidence.)

A true and attested copy of the original and designated as above is hereto attached:

“E. O. MATTERN,

Q. State the time, as near as you can, when Mr. Casanova gave you this receipt?—A. He gave it to me on the election day, I suppose about an hour before I voted.

Q. Did you know before he handed you the receipt that he had paid any taxes for you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before the election day did you know that he had paid any taxes for you?—A. As near as I can get at it it must have been a week or more.

Q. Please state if E. O. Mattern, the tax-collector, ever called on you for any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. State if you know whether there was any State or county taxes assessed against you on his duplicate?—A. I couldn't say that.

Q. State if you know whether you have been assessed in Philipsburg Borough since the time that the place where you have lived for about the last two years, as you have stated, was taken into the borough of Philipsburg?—A. No, sir, not that I know of; if they did they must have done it without coming to my house. They were not there to assess me that I know of.

Adjourned to meet at 1.30 o'clock this p. m.

Met as per adjournment this p. m.

LEWIS FRANK recalled for cross-examination by J. L. SPANGLER, on the part of the contestant.

Question. Give your full name?—Answer. Lewis Frank.

Q. Is there any other Lewis Frank in this neighborhood?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did you vote on the name of Lewis Frank?—A. Yes, sir; I voted on that name.

Q. Did you have a tax receipt, and were you required to produce it?—A. Yes, sir, I had a tax receipt, and handed it and the ticket in together, and there was no questions asked.

Q. Do you know Jack Mason?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. State whether or not he was the assessor for Rush Township for the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Did he assess your property in Rush Township?—A. He wanted to, and I was not there; he wanted to assess it to me, and my father said he should not.

Q. Do you live on that property now?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did the assessor assess you in Rush Township in 1878?—A. Yes, sir, he did.

Q. Were you assessed in Rush Township in 1877?—A. I suppose I have been assessed ever since I have been here.

Q. Where are you working at the present?—A. At the tannery.

Q. Where do you reside now?—A. Still at the tannery, with my family.

Q. State if you live on the addition which has been made to the borough from the township of Rush?—A. I suppose I do.

Q. What tax receipt had you when you voted at the November election, 1878?—A. The one in evidence.

Q. Did you vote at the election in the fall of 1877?—A. I think I did.

Q. Had you paid a tax or had you a tax receipt for the tax of 1877?—A. I don't know whether I have.

Q. Do you know whether you paid a State or county tax for the year 1877?—A. I do not know whether I did or not.

Q. Do you know that your tax for 1877 was paid?—A. No; there was nobody asked me for tax, not for that year.

Q. State whether you had lived in the borough of Philipsburg for two months before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir, I think I have.

LEWIS FRANK.

DEPOSITION OF ROBERT LOYD.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 53 years; my residence, Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided in Philipsburg?—A. I have lived here since 1840.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and one month before the election held on the 5th of November last, which was assessed two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for the borough of Philipsburg held on the 5th of November last; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

ROBERT LOYD.

• E. O. MATTERN recalled.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State whether you gave a receipt in the name of Lewis Frank for the payment of a State or county tax for the year 1878; and, if so, to whom you gave it, and how you came to give it.—Answer. I gave a tax-receipt to J. N. Casanova, at his instance; told him his name was not on the duplicate. He said it didn't make any difference. I gave it to him and told him that I did not think it would amount to anything to him, owing to the fact that he was not assessed.

Q. (Original receipt, of which certified copy marked Exhibit A, W. E. I., N. P., March 21, 1879, offered in evidence, shown witness.) Is this the receipt that you gave J. N. Casanova?—A. It is.

Cross-examination by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. Are you acquainted with Lewis Frank?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is the name of Frank Lewis on your duplicate?—A. It is on the sixty-day list.

Q. How are the names on the duplicate arranged as to lettering?—A. In alphabetical order; the last name first.

Q. Then the name of Frank Lewis as it stands on your duplicate would correspond to the name of Lewis Frank, for whom you made a receipt?—A. It stands as Lewis Frank.

Q. How does the name stand on the sixty-day list?—A. It stands Lewis Frank.

Q. Is it marked paid?—A. It is.

Q. Who paid it?—A. Henry Stockbridge.

Q. When did he pay it?—A. On or about the 3d or 4th of October, 1878.

Q. For whom did J. N. Casanova pay about that time?—A. He paid for Lewis Frank.

Q. What kind of a receipt did you give him?—A. A written receipt.

Q. State if you gave him (J. N. Casanova) a receipt of which the following is a copy:

“PHILIPSBURG, October 5th, 1878.

“Received of Lewis Frank $.10, county, in full for tax for the year 1878.

(Signed)

“E. O. MATTERN, Coll.”

A. I wrote him such a receipt.

Q. State if the following is a copy of the receipt you gave to Harry Stockbridge on or about October 4, 1878:

(Copy.)

“PHILIPSBURG, October 4th, '78.

“Received of Frank Lewis $.16, county tax in full for the year 1878.

(Signed)

“E. O. MATTERN, Coll.”

A. To the best of my recollection it is.

Q. Do you know two persons, one by the name of Lewis Frank and the other by the name of Frank Lewis, in this neighborhood?—A. I did about October 5, 1878.

Q. Where did Lewis Frank reside in October, 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge, in Lloydsville, in the borough extension of Philipsburg.

Q. Where at that time did Frank Lewis reside?—A. I believe he staid with his brother-in-law (Mr. Blake) in the borough of Philipsburg.

Q. Was Frank Lewis a single or married man?—A. Single.

Q. Was Lewis Frank a single or married man?—A. Married.

Q. How long has Lewis Frank resided in this neighborhood?—A. I think about five years.

Q. How long has Frank Lewis resided in this neighborhood?—A. I could not say how long he has resided here.

Q. Had Lewis Frank any property in this neighborhood?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Had Frank Lewis any property in this neighborhood?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Who was the assessor in the year 1878 for the borough?—A. H. H. Gunter.

Q. Can you tell us whether the assessor assessed Lewis Frank or Frank Lewis?—A. To the best of my knowledge it was Frank Lewis.

Q. How are the names on the list of sixty-days' tax of Philipsburg Borough arranged?—A. Alphabetically, to correspond with the last name of the person assessed.

Q. How are the names punctuated on that list?—A. They are all punctuated with a period after the last name, except two.

Q. Give the names of the two who stand on your sixty-day list without punctuation?—A. Lewis Frank and Test Harry.

Q. Did Frank Lewis vote in the borough of Philipsburg at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Did Lewis Frank vote at that election?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. To what political party did Frank Lewis belong in the fall of 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge a Republican.

Q. To what political party did Lewis Frank belong in the fall of 1878?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Did you knowingly issue a receipt to J. N. Casanova for Lewis Frank in October, 1878, when you believed that the Lewis Frank that was assessed on your sixty day list was intended for Frank Lewis, or was it rather a mistake occasioned by a confusion of the names of two persons which you proposed to remedy by issuing two tax-receipts, one for J. N. Casanova, a Democrat, and the other for Harry Stockbridge, a Republican, one receipt to Lewis Frank the other to Frank Lewis?—A. I issued a receipt to Harry Stockbridge, for Frank Lewis, the name corresponding with that on the sixty-day list, believing it to be the party intended. I issued a receipt at the instance of J. N. Casanova for Lewis Frank, knowing his name not to be on the duplicate, and that if any trouble arose he would have to stand good for it himself; he said he would see me through.

Q. Give the name as it stands on the sixty-day list.—A. Lewis Frank.

Q. How did you issue the receipt to Casanova?—A. I issued to him in the name of Lewis Frank.

Q. If the assessor assessed Lewis Frank under the name of Lewis Frank then your receipt to Casanova would be correct?—A. It would be, if he assessed it under the name of Lewis Frank, except as to the amount.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE :

Q. Will you please state whom the person is that is assessed on your sixty-day list, the name appearing thereon "Lewis Frank"?—A. Frank Lewis.

Q. Does his name appear in alphabetical order thereon, the last name first, the same as the names of all persons assessed and appearing thereon?—A. It does.

Q. What is the amount of tax assessed against Frank Lewis on the sixty-day list?—A. Sixteen cents.

Q. Was that the amount of tax that was paid you for him by Harry Stockbridge?—A. It was.

E. O. MATTERN.

DEPOSITION OF T. B. POTTER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Q. Did you vote at the election held for Philipsburg Borough on November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Were you present at the time that J. N. Casanova bought and paid for a number of tax-receipts to E. O. Mattern, collector? and, if so, tell what occurred at that time.—A. I was present and saw him pay for a number of tax-receipts to E. O. Mattern, and saw him receive the tax-receipts; also saw him give to E. O. Mattern $5 as a contingent fund, remarking at the time, "Take this $5, and if I have forgotten or neglected to pay any taxes, consider this as a payment, and mark them paid, as I shall give you the names hereafter." E. O. Mattern took the money in the presence of D. W. Holt, H. C. Williams, and myself.

Q. State when the facts you have above related took place.—A. The 5th of October, 1878.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. Did E. O. Mattern, the collector for taxes for 1878, issue any tax-receipts to J. W. Casanova, or any of the party leaders, after October 5, 1878, to the best of your knowledge?—A. I do not know whether he did or did not.

GEO. H. ZEIGLER.

Q. Did you vote at the election for the borough of Philipsburg, held on the 5th of November last; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

E. A. RYMAN.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN W. MATTERN.

Examined by JAMES LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is fifty-three years; my residence, Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived here—I think it's ten years past.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and one month before the election held on the 5th of November last, and which had been assessed two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. State whether you voted at the election for the borough of Philipsburg, held on the 5th of November last, and, if so, for whom you voted for Congress.—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

J. W. MATTERN.

DEPOSITION OF H. C. WARFEL.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is thirty-four years, and my residence Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and I have lived here continuously for the last ten years.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before the 5th of November, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months prior thereto; had you?—A. I had.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough, held November 5, 1878, and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. To whom did you pay the State and county taxes for the year 1878?—A. E. O. Mattern.

Q. When?—A. I don't recollect when it was.

Q. How long was it before the election?—A. Well, I suppose it was two or three weeks before the election.

Q. To whom and when did you pay the State and county taxes for 1877?—A. To Jackson Gorton, in 1877.

H. C. WARFEL.

DEPOSITION OF H. H. HEWITT.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is thirty-two years, and my residence is Philipsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived here continuously for the last twelve years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough, held November 5, 1878, and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Are you acquainted with Albert Owen, esq., and J. J. Lingle, esq., and, if so, please state to what profession they belong, and what their politics are.—A. I am acquainted with them both; Mr. Owen is a farmer, as much as anything, and Mr. Lingle is a lawyer; to the best of my knowledge, I believe them to be Democrats of the deepest dye.

Q. Were you present at a conversation between J. J. Lingle, esq., and other parties, shortly after the election of November 5, 1878, and, if so, please state what J. J. Lingle, esq., said as to the conduct of the election held on November 5, 1878?—A. I was present the morning after the election, in Flegal's store; there were several parties in there, Mr. Flegal for one; Harry Test, I believe, was there; I heard Mr. Lingle say there that he considered the election in this borough one of the fairest that was ever held. They were talking of the election of November 5, 1878, of this borough.

H. H. HEWITT.

DEPOSITION OF GEORGE SIMLER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is fifty-nine years, and I reside in the borough of Philipsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have resided continuously in the borough since August, 1878, which was the time the new addition was made to the borough; before that time I lived in the adjoining township of Rush for about eleven years.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER :

Q. When and to whom did you pay the State and county taxes for 1878?—A. I haven't paid the taxes for 1878 yet. The taxes for 1877 were paid within two years of the election. I showed my tax receipt when I voted.

G. B. SIMLER.

DEPOSITION OF HENRY SIMLER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS :

Question. State your age and residence.—A. My age is 31 years, and my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived here continuously for the last nine years.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Are you acquainted with Albert Owen, esq., and J. J. Lingle, esq.; and, if so, state what their professional business, and to what political parties they both belong?—A. I am acquainted with them both. Lingle is an attorney at law; Mr. Owen also acts as attorney for some parties here; and they belong to the Democratic party, both of them.

Q. Are you acquainted with Lewis Frank?—A. I am.

Q. Did you give him a ticket to vote on the day of election held November 5, 1878?—A. I don't remember whether I gave him a ticket, but I had his ticket in my hands.

Q. Did you examine his ticket? And, if so, tell what kind of a ticket it was.—A. I looked at his ticket, and it was a Democratic ticket.

Q. Whose name was on it for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin or A. G. Curtin.

Q. Did you alter the ticket in any way; and, if you did, in what particular?—A. I crossed out Murray's name for assembly, and inserted the name H. Simler.

Q. Did you then return the ticket to Lewis Frank?—A. I did.

Q. When and where did you do this?—A. At the Philipsburg Borough school-house, where the election was held, on the day of the election.

Q. Did Lewis Frank vote that ticket?—A. He did, to the best of my knowledge; he went right up to the window and voted.

Q. Are you acquainted with William R. Hemphill; and, if so, where did he reside on the 5th of November last?—A. I am acquainted with William R. Hemphill, and he resided in Rush Township on the 5th of November last.

Q. How long before the 5th of November, 1878, did William R. Hemphill reside in Rush Township?—A. He lived there for some time; can't tell how long, but for six months anyhow.

Q. In what part of Rush Township did William R. Hemphill live?—A. He lived close to the borough line; I mean Philipsburg Borough.

Q. What kind of a house does William R. Hemphill live in?—A. It's a one-story frame house.

Q. How many apartments are there in his house, if you know?—A. There are three apartments, I think.

Q. What occupation does William R. Hemphill follow in Rush Township?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because the question assumes the very fact in dispute, to wit, his residence, which the counsel in the question assumes to be in Rush Township.)

A. He follows butchering.

Adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock this p. m.

Met as per adjournment at 7 o'clock p. m.

HARRY SIMLER recalled for examination-in-chief by D. H. HASTINGS, esq., as counsel for contestee.

Question. Where is your place of business, and how far is it from the residence of Wm. R. Hemphill?—Answer. My place of business is at the freight warehouse of the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is about one square or about twenty-five rods from my place of business to the residence of Wm. R. Hemphill.

Q. State as near as you can how often you have seen Mr. Hemphill about his residence during the last six months.—A. Well, I have seen him there every day.

Q. State whether or not Wm. R. Hemphill has been taking his meals and sleeping there for the last six months.—A. He has.

Q. State whether or not you have seen him taking provisions to his house, and doing cooking there, during the last six months.—A. I have.

Q. State whether or not you have seen his washing hanging about his residence during the last six months, and if so, at what intervals during that time?—A. I have seen washing hanging out there at different times.

Q. Has any one been living with him there, and if so, who was it, and when?—A. His son, Ira B., has been living with him.

H. SIMLER.

DEPOSITION OF OSCAR ADAMS.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 46 years, and my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and I have lived in this borough since 1859.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough, held November 5, 1878, and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and I voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

O. ADAMS.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN GOWLAND.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence?—Answer. My age is 31 years, and my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived here for the last ten years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough, held November 5, 1878, and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Are you acquainted with Daniel McFall, Wm. Starratt, Warren Sterratt, Thomas Only, Jno. Peightal, Jesse Peightal, Jacob Plumber, Levi Yingling, A. E. Zeigler, Hamer Sankey, George Thomas, Richard Fitzhugh, Wm. P. Furey, Daniel Ayres, Wm. Ayres, E. A. Davis, Neil Davis, Frank Duke, Thornton Dunkle, Wm. Adams, T. D. Adams, J. C. Braden, A. B. Flood, M. Gowland, Frank D. Gowland, Joshua Beck, Frank Beck, Andrew Beck, Charles Heeman, William Johnsonbaugh, Charles Lloyd, Jacob Gunter, Lewis Hess, Fred. Hart, Charles Long, Benjamin Hart, Samuel Miller, Amos Newman, John Shontz, Jeremiah Sankey, W. D. A. Nangle, Wm. Pleasant, Charles Taylor, William H. Wilson, Harry Williams, Wm. Dixon, H. C. DeHass, Wm. Blake, H. P. Blair, Reuben Freeman, Wm. Spear, A. H. Smith, Ed. Runk, Ed. Robinson, John Robinson, Wm. Roberts, Charles Reeder, John Blane, John Funk, Jeremiah Funk, S. S. Crissman, T. J. Myers, J. B. Iches, Wm. Myers, Dorsey Myers, James Matley, James Moore, Robt. Musser, Hayworth, O. Penn Jones, J. W. Jones, Saml. Jones, Jefferson Jones, O. B. Jones, Wm. J. Lowther, Jonathan Forcey, Alfred Johnston, Wm. Jones, Mithias Plank, W. B. Torrence, and John Braden?—A. I am acquainted with them.

Q. State whether or not the persons I have named were residents of the borough of Philipsburg on the 5th of November last, and had been residents thereof for two months immediately preceding that time.—A. They were, I believe.

Q. State if you know whether or not the persons you have named had paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto.—A. I believe they have.

Q. State whether or not the persons you have named above voted at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878.—A. They did.

Q. State if you know for whom the persons you have named above voted for for the office of Congress.—A. They voted for Seth H. Yocum.

Q. What is the number of the voters whom you have named above as voting for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. The number is eighty-one.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. Where was Daniel McFall born?—A. I do not know.

Q. Where and by whom was he assessed?—A. I do not know.

Q. Where and to whom did he pay a State or county tax within two years and one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I do not know.

Q. When was he born?—A. I do not know.

Q. How do you know that Daniel McFall paid a State or county tax within two years and one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I was at the window when he voted, and the board required of each and every voter that voted whether they had paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months prior to said election and paid at least one month prior to said election, for which he had to show a receipt or go inside and be qualified to the same before his vote was accepted. That is the proof I have of him having a right to vote.

Q. What did the board require in the case of Daniel McFall?—A. They asked him the same question as stated above: "Have you lived in this election precinct at least two months, and have you paid a State or county tax at least one month prior to this election?" "Show your receipt," and if a man or voter had his receipt he handed it to the inspector. If not, he had to come inside and be qualified to the same by the election-board. This is what the inspector said to voters in general.

Q. Did McFall produce a tax-receipt or qualify to the payment of a tax before the board?—A. I do not know which he did; he did one or the other; I cannot remember which.

Q. Did Daniel McFall make any other proof than what you have mentioned?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. For whom did Daniel McFall vote for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. How do you know?—A. He told me so personally himself.

Q. When did he tell you so?—A. Yesterday.

Q. Did you make it your business to inquire?—A. I did.

Q. What time in the day did he vote?—A. I think in the forenoon.

Q. Where and when was William Starrett born?—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and by whom he was assessed.—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and to whom he paid taxes which would entitle him to vote at the election of November 5, 1878.—A. I do not know.

Q. State where, when, and by whom he was registered.—A. I believe he was registered by H. H. Gunter.

Q. What reasons have you to believe that he was registered by H. H. Gunter?—A. Because H. H. Gunter was the assessor for Philipsburg Borough for the year 1878, and he (William Starrett) has lived in the borough the past ten years to my knowledge.

Q. You presume, do you not, that H. H. Gunter, the assessor for Philipsburg Borough for 1878, would perform his duties by assessing all the voters in said borough, and is it on this presumption that you state that William Starratt was assessed?—A. I believe he would, to the best of his knowledge and ability.

Q. What proof did the board require before accepting his vote?—A. The same as in the case of Daniel McFall.

Q. What receipt for the payment of taxes did Wm. Starratt produce?—A. I do not know.

Q. How do you know that Wm. Starratt voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. He told me so personally himself, yesterday.

Q. Did you make it your business to inquire?—A. I did.

Q. State when and where Warren Starrett was born.—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and by whom he was assessed.—A. I believe he was assessed by H. H. Gunter.

Q. State the grounds of your belief.—A. He has lived in the borough of Philipsburg at least ten years, to my knowledge, and I believe that the assessor would assess and register all voters to the best of his knowledge and ability.

Q. Do you know positively whether the assessor did assess Warren Starratt?—A. I do not.

Q. State when and where Thos. Only was born.—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and by whom he was assessed.—A. I cannot say.

Q. State when, where, and to whom he paid a State or county tax which would entitle him to vote at the election of November 5, 1878.—A. I do not know.

Q. What proof did the board require from Thomas Only before accepting his vote?—A. He had to show a tax receipt or be qualified the same as Daniel McFall.

Q. What time in the day did he vote?—A. I do not remember.

Q. How do you know he voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. He told me so himself, personally, yesterday.

Q. Did you make it your business to inquire?—A. I did.

Q. Did Thos. Only produce a tax receipt or qualify to the payment of a tax before the board accepted his vote?—A. He did one or the other. I cannot say which.

Q. State when and where John Peightal was born.—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and by whom he was assessed.—A. I believe he was assessed by H. H. Gunter.

Q. Why?—A. I have known him to live in the borough of Philipsburg for the last eight or ten years, to my knowledge.

Q. State when, where, and to whom he has paid a State or county tax which would entitle him to a vote at the election of November 5, 1878.—A. I do not know.

Q. What time in the day did he vote?—A. I cannot answer that positively as to the time of day.

Q. Did you see him vote?—A. I did.

Q. Who voted immediately before John Peightal?—A. I cannot say positive.

Q. Who voted immediately after he did?—A. I cannot say.

Q. Did John Peightal vote before or after Daniel McFall?—A. I cannot say.

Q. How do you know that John Peightal voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. He told me so personally himself, yesterday.

Q. Did you know before yesterday that Jno. Peightal had voted for Seth H. Yocum?—A. I believed he had.

Q. State the grounds of your belief.—A. That he voted the Republican ticket were my grounds.

Q. Did you see his ticket before he voted?—A. I did not.

Q. State when and where Jesse Peightal was born.—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and by whom he was assessed.—A. I do not know.

Q. State when, where, and to whom he paid a State or county tax which would entitle him to vote at the November election, 1878.—A. I do not know at what time he paid a State or county tax; I believe he told me that he had paid his taxes; I think I asked in regard to his taxes on the 4th or 5th day of October, 1878; he told me he was all right for a vote.

Q. What time in the day did he vote?—A. I cannot say positively at what time.

Q. Did you see him vote?—A. I did.

Q. Did he produce a tax-receipt?—A. He either did or was qualified to the same.

Q. Did he vote before or after Jno. Peightal?—A. I do not know which.

Q. How do you know that he voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I believed he had and I asked him the question yesterday, and he told me he voted for Yocum.

Q. To what political party did he belong in the fall of 1878?—A. To the Republican party.

Q. State when and where the eighty-one persons you have mentioned were born.—A. I do not know as to all of them; I do know about my father and brother.

Q. State where and when your father was born.—A. I believe he was born in England; I do not know when.

Q. State when and where your brother was born.—A. In Williamsport, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State when, where, and by whom the eighty-one persons you have named were assessed.—A. I cannot say positively.

Q. State when, where, and to whom they paid State or county taxes which were assessed at least two months and paid at least one month immediately preceding the November election of 1878.—A. I cannot say as to all of them; I can say as to M. Gowland and Frank Gowland paying their taxes to Jackson Gorten for the year 1877, and to George Thomas and Frank Duke paying taxes, I believe, to E. O. Mattern, tax-collector, for 1878; I gave them their receipts myself; that is all I can swear to positively.

Q. When did you give the tax receipts to George Thomas and Frank Duke?—A. I gave George Thomas his the day before the election; Frank Duke's on election day, before he voted.

Q. Where did you get the tax-receipts of Frank Duke and George Thomas?—A. From Henry Stockbridge.

Q. What taxes did these two receipts call for?—A. I am not positive whether it was for the State or county, for the year 1878; it was one or the other.

Q. Had you any other receipts for any of the persons you have named; and, if so, who were they?—A. I had no other tax-receipts for any other persons except those named.

Q. Were any or all of the persons you have named registered in the borough of Philipsburg on November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot say positively, not having examined the register.

Q. Did all or any of them produce a tax-receipt before the board when they voted?—A. All of them either produced a tax-receipt or was qualified to having paid a tax at least one month and which had been assessed at least two months prior to said election.

Q. Name those who produced tax-receipts before their ballots were accepted by the board.—A. I cannot say as to who presented receipts or who did not, positively.

Q. Name those who made proof of the payment of taxes before the board, prior to their voting.—A. I cannot say, positive.

Q. State the time when the persons you have named voted.—A. Between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m.; I will not say what time during the day they voted, positive.

Q. State when and where was born.—A. I do not know; I believe he is an Englishman.

Q. State how you know that the eighty-one persons that you have named voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.—A. They all of them told me personally, themselves, that they cast their vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress, at various times from the 5th day of November up to the present day.

Q. Did you see every man personally?—A. I did.

Q. Did you see all of them vote?—A. I did.

Q. Did you see their tickets before they voted?—A. Quite a number of them; would not say positive as to how many of them.

JOHN GOWLAND.

Met as per adjournment March 22, A. D. 1879.

DEPOSITION OF R. M. MUSSER.

Examined by J. G. LOVE :

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, 45 years ; my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have resided here twenty-two years.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and one month before the election held on the 5th November last which was assessed two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir ; I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for the borough of Philipsburg, on the 5th of November last ; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

ROBT. M. MUSSER.

DEPOSITION OF ALEXANDER WATSON.

Examined by J. G. LOVE :

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, 43 years ; my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have resided here since 1864 with the exception of about 15 months, and continuously for since 1874.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and one month before the election held on the 5th of November last which was assessed two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for the borough of Philipsburg, on the 5th November last ; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

ALEX. WATSON.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN A. MULL.

Examined by J. G. LOVE :

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, 29 years ; my residence, Rush Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you acquainted with Frederick Dale of Rush Township?—A. I am.

Q. Has he been collector of State and county tax for Rush Township ; and if so, for what years?—A. I think for 1876, and I know he was 1877 and 1878.

Q. Did he at any time leave his duplicates in your possession, and authorize you to collect and receive any State or county taxes for him ; and if so, when?—A. He did leave his duplicate with me. I had the duplicate from the 20th of September, 1878, to, I think, the day before the election.

Q. State whether or not by virtue of this authority you collected and received for Mr. Dale State or county tax from Mr. John Stout, of Rush Township.—A. I did.

Q. When did Jno. Stout pay a State or county tax, and for what year was it?—A. It was on or before the 4th or 5th day of October, 1878.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER :

Q. State whether you regard yourself as a subcollector of State and county taxes to Fred. Dale of Rush Township.—A. He authorized me to collect taxes on the duplicates he gave me.

Q. Was the authority to collect and receive for the collector of Rush Township verbal or written?—A. He sent the duplicates down with his son, and wrote a letter and sent with him stating that I should collect the taxes for him until he came for the books; he also told me verbally; and that is all the authority he gave me.

Q. What kind of receipts did you issue to those who paid you taxes?—A. He sent me his receipt-book with the receipts signed by him, and the balance (that is, when they were all exhausted) I signed his name as collector by me; they were signed F. H. Dale, collector, per John A. Mull. The greater number of them were dates September 20 or 27, I am not sure which, and I think I changed some of the dated that were paid the 1st or 2d of October, or 3d, to the day they were paid. I filled in the name of the person who paid the tax at the time he paid it, and the amount, and I stated whether it was State or county tax.

Q. How many of those receipts did you get from Collector Dale?—A. I cannot tell you that; I did not count them. All that I signed had F. H. Dale, collector, per John A. Mull.

Q. Estimate the number of tax-receipts which you received from Tax-Collector Dale, signed F. H. Dale, collector, and dated September 20 or 27, 1878.—A. I think fifteen would cover the number signed by him individually.

Q. Estimate the number of tax-receipts which you issued and signed F. H. Dale, collector, per John A. Mull.—A. I suppose I issued twenty-five or thirty, and all that paid me are marked paid in his duplicates. I don't think I missed one.

Q. Did you continue to collect and receive taxes for Collector Dale from September 20, 1878, to the day before the election?—A. I collected taxes from the time I received the duplicates, 20th or 27th of September, until October 5, 1878, was the last I collected before the election. I don't think I collected any on Monday.

Q. Did you give any receipts for taxes signed either F. H. Dale, collector, and dated by him, or signed by yourself F. H. Dale, collector, per John A. Mull, and also dated by you, after October 5, 1878?—A. I have given receipts since October 5, 1878, signed F. H. Dale, collector, by John A. Mull. Those receipts were given by written authority, and the amounts of taxes, State and county, for the years they were intended stated in the written authority. I have no recollection of giving out any receipts after the 5th of October signed by him F. H. Dale, collector.

Q. State how many tax-receipts you issued after October 5, 1878.—A. I don't recollect whether I issued any tax-receipts between October 5 and the election of November, 1878; if I did, they were by his authority written.

Q. State whether or not you gave to any persons tax-receipts after October 5, 1878, by direction or authority of Collector Dale, no matter by whom signed or dated.—A. I don't recollect. I certainly have.

Q. State whether you gave out any tax-receipts to any persons after October 5, 1878, and November 5, 1878, by direction of Collector Dale; did you give such receipts between those two dates, October 5 to November 5?—A. I am not certain whether I did between those two dates (October 5 to November 5). I gave some receipts out after November 5.

Q. Will you swear that you did not give a receipt or receipts to any person or persons, no matter how signed or when dated, between October 5, 1878, and November 5, 1878?—A. I could not answer any better than I have answered before.

Q. What is your best recollection on the subject?—A. My best recollection is I do not recollect whether I did or did not.

Q. When did you settle the taxes with Collector Dale which you had received from tax-payers or party managers up to October 5, 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge I made out the check on the 5th of October, 1878, for the amount I had received.

Q. Have you that check?—A. I think I have. The check has been paid.

Q. When did you hand it over to Collector Dale?—A. When he called for it.

Q. State the time.—A. I cannot do that.

Q. Was it on or after October 5, 1878?—A. After.

Q. How long?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Did that check include the tax for John Stout?—A. It did.

Q. When did John Stout pay you his taxes?—A. It was on or before October 5, 1878.

Q. Did he pay it himself?—A. He brought shingle bolts to us (Jones, Allport & Co.), and I paid him for bolts less the taxes, by his instructions.

Q. When did he deliver the bolts?—A. The bolts were in the yard before they were paid for.

Q. Did you hand over the duplicate or duplicates to Collector Dale on the day of the election?—A. It was the day before—I think it was the day before.

Q. State your politics.—A. I am a Republican.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE, Esq.:

Q. Where does Fred. Dale, collector, live in Rush Township?—A. He lives in Rush Township, about one mile from Osceola, or about five miles from Philipsburg, in the woods.

Q. Where is your place of business?—A. Philipsburg.

Q. State whether or not Mr. Dale, collector, left his duplicates with you as a matter of convenience to tax-payers?—A. He did.

Q. State whether or not you collected and received taxes for him from both Democrats and Republicans and Greenbackers.—A. I did, from any persons that wanted to pay their taxes.

Q. Did the receipts that you gave out and issued for Collector Dale correspond in date with the time of the payment of the taxes?—A. They did, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Did you give out any receipts to any person or persons whose names or name did not appear on the duplicates of Collector Dale, charged with a State or county tax, and who did not pay the same?—A. I did not give out any receipts to any persons whose names did not appear on the duplicate or sixty-day list, and who did not pay the tax.

Recross-examination by J. L. SPANGLER, Esq.:

Q. Did any person pay you any taxes between October 5, 1878, and November 5, 1878?—A. I don't recollect.

JNO. A. MULL.

DEPOSITION OF EDWARD DILL.

Examined by D. L. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, thirty-seven years. My residence is Rush Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State whether or not you paid the taxes of Ed. Brookens, of Rush Township; and, if so, when, and to whom did you pay the same?—A. I did pay his taxes on the 3d day of October, 1878, to Fred. Dale, collector.

Q. State whether or not Ed. Brookens gave you the money to pay his taxes and requested you to pay them; and, if so, how long before you paid the taxes did he give you the money?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because it is leading.)

A. He gave me the money about thirteen days before I paid the taxes. He requested me to pay the taxes.

Q. State whether or not you paid the taxes of James Keith—I mean State and county taxes; and, if so, when?—A. I paid his taxes October 3, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay them?—A. Fred. Dale, collector.

Q. State whether or not you paid the State and county taxes of Robert M. Keith; and, if so, when?—A. I did pay his taxes same day, October 3, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay them?—A. Fred. Dale, collector.

Q. State whether or not you paid the taxes of John Rose, of Rush Township—I mean State or county tax.—A. I did, on the 3d day of October, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay them?—A. Fred. Dale, collector.

Q. State whether or not you were requested to pay the taxes of John Rose, and by whom.—A. Mr. Rose came to me and gave me 5 cents, and asked if I couldn't lend him the money to pay the balance. I told him I would pay his taxes, and the next time I saw him he paid me back the money.

Q. What was the amount of his tax, if you remember?—A. I can't remember exactly. I think it was 10 cents—not over 15 cents.

Q. State what you know about his age and mental condition.—A. He's pretty old man, and I think him a little childish.

Q. State what you know about his being a temperate or intemperate man.—A. He drinks a little once and a while when he gets away from home. One or two drinks will make him foolish.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER :

Q. Where did you pay the taxes you have mentioned over to Collector Dale?—A. I offered to pay him in the field where he was harrowing in wheat; he told me to keep the money, and he would bring me the money the next day, and he brought them on the next day, and I paid him the money.

Q. Where did he bring the tax receipts to?—A. To my house.

Q. What was the amount of the tax of Ed. Brookens, James Keath, Robert M. Keath, and Jno. Rose?—A. Ten or fifteen cents apiece; not over that.

Q. How much money did you give Collector Dale?—A. Somewheres in the neighborhood of two dollars. I can't remember exactly.

Q. How many tax receipts did you get?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question, for the reason that the witness has only been interrogated in chief as to the taxes and tax receipts of Ed. Brooken, James Keith, Robert M. Keith, and John Rose, and it is not proper cross-examination, and the witness has no right to answer on cross-examination any questions about any tax receipts except the ones for the persons above named.)

Counsel for contestant instructs the witness on the stand to answer no question on cross-examination but such as he, the witness, in his judgment and opinion, under instruction of counsel for contestee, believes to be proper and legitimate cross-examination, thereby making the witness the committee to determine what is and what is not cross-examination. The above statement is placed upon these notes by J. L. Spangler, counsel for contestant.

Counsel for contestee hereby requests the witness on the stand to answer any and all questions touching the taxes, tax-receipts, and legal qualifications of Ed. Brookens, James Keith, Robert M. Keith, and John Rose, these being the only persons about whom he has been examined in chief; and counsel for contestee hereby instructs the witness not to answer any questions touching the taxes, tax-receipts, or legal qualifications of any other persons, because such answers are not proper cross-examination. The above statement made by D. H. Hastings, of counsel for contestee.

Counsel for contestee has interrogated the witness in reference to the payment to Collector Dale of the taxes for a certain number of persons. On cross-examination, counsel for contestant has asked the witness the following question, "How many tax-receipts did you get?" Counsel for contestant submits that the question is proper on cross-examination, and as the witness is made the judge as to what is and what is not cross-examination, propounds to the witness the following question: How many tax receipts did you get from Collector Dale at the time you got the receipts for the persons hereinbefore named by you? and state if this question is proper or improper on cross-examination. Counsel for contestee: That question as a whole is a very improper one.)

A. I don't know how many receipts I got. I can't recollect. I paid for all I got.

Q. State about how many you got.—A. About 15 or 16 I got.

Q. Just state the names of the persons for whom you got the receipts.—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you get receipts at the rate of 10 or 15 cents apiece for the value of $2?—A. I can't remember the amount I paid, but the most of them were 10 cents apiece.

Q. Tell us as near as you can how many you got at 10 cents apiece. (Counsel for contestee objects to the question, because its form is improper, and should be as follows: Tell us as near as you can for how many persons you paid the taxes whose tax was assessed at 10 cents apiece.)

A. I don't remember how many.

Q. How were the receipts made that you got at that time?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question, for the reason that the witness has only been asked as to the tax-receipts of the four persons above named, and any questions about any other tax-receipts is improper cross-examination.)

A. They were a printed form; the dates were all on the receipts; the names was on some of them, a majority of them. Mr. Dale stated that he was a poor writer, and read off the names to me to write on the receipts.

Q. How many receipts were not filled out by you at that time?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question because it is improper cross-examination.)

A. I could not tell that.

Adjourned to meet at 1 o'clock this p. m.

Met as per adjournment this p. m.

D. H. Hastings and J. G. Love, esqs., appear as counsel for contestee, and J. L. Spangler and W. C. Heinle, esqs., as counsel for contestant.

EDWARD DILL recalled for cross-examination by counsel for contestant:

Q. State if you obtained any receipts at that time which did not have the names of any persons written in?—A. The receipts I got at that time had the names written in except those I wrote in myself at that time by Fred Dale's orders.

Q. State the time when you received these receipts?—A. On the 5th of October, 1878.

Q. Was Fred Dale present when you wrote the names of persons in the receipts for whom they were intended?—A. He was; he had the list of the persons for whom I wanted tax receipts.

Q. Did you get other receipts from Fred Dale before or after the time you mention?—A. Not for that year; I got receipts from him for 1877.

Q. On what day of the week did October 5, 1878, come?—A. Sunday.

Q. Was it on Sunday that you saw Fred Dale at your house?—A. I saw him first on Friday the 3d, and he brought the receipts to my house on Sunday following the Friday before.

Q. Was it on that day, Sunday, that you gave Collector Dale a list of the persons for whom you wanted to pay?—A. No, sir; I gave it to him on Friday preceding the Sunday.

Q. Did you get any receipts from him on Friday?—A. I did not; he promised then to bring them over.

Q. Did you give him the money on Friday or on Sunday?—A. I handed him the money on Friday, and he told me to keep it until he brought the receipts, that that was all right; I gave it to him on Sunday when he brought the receipts.

Q. How much money did you give him on Sunday?—A. About $2.

Q. About how many receipts could you get at the rate of 10 cents apiece?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question for the reason that it asks the result of an arithmetical calculation and is improper in form. The question should be, How many receipts did you get on which the amount of taxes was 10 cents each?)

A. For $2 I suppose I could get twenty receipts—10-cent receipts.

Q. State how many 10-cent receipts you did get?—A. I cannot tell you that; I told him before that I got some fifteen receipts in all. I cannot tell how many of them, how many were 10 cents or how many were 15 cents.

Q. Did you and the collector make out these receipts on Sunday?—A. I cannot say what the collector did; he had the receipts made out, a majority of them. I did not make any receipts out; I only wrote a few names on them as he dictated.

Q. To whom did you give the fifteen or sixteen receipts that you obtained from the collector at that time?—A. I cannot remember all their names.

Q. Did you obtain them for Democrats, Republicans, or Greenbackers?—A. I obtained some of them for Greenbackers and Democrats. I do not know whether I gave any to Republicans or not.

Q. State what Democrats you furnished with receipts?—A. James Dixon was one; I do not know whether any others or not; I suppose I did; I could not state positively.

Q. State the names of the Greenbackers to whom you gave receipts?—A. Ed Brookens, John Rose, James Keith, Robt. Keith, Pat Vail, and others. I can't go over the whole list.

Q. When did you give the tax receipt to Ed Brookens?—A. The first day I saw him after I had it.

Q. How long before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Not further than a week after I got it.

Q. When did you give a tax receipt to James Keith?—A. I sent it to him by another man.

Q. By whom did you send it?—A. By Kennedy.

Q. Had James Keith paid you any money?—A. He did not, but told me to get him a receipt.

Q. Has he paid you back?—A. No; he never did, or never promised to. The same thing as to Robert M. Keith.

Redirect examination by JAMES LOVE:

Q. You have stated in your cross-examination that you handed to Collector Dale, on Friday, October 3, 1878, the money to pay the taxes for the list of persons for whom you wanted the receipts. Was the money that you handed him on the 5th of October the same that you tendered him on Friday, October 3, 1878?—A. It was the same identical money.

Q. You have stated in your cross-examination that when the collector brought you the tax receipts on the 5th of October the majority of them were all filled up. State whether or not they were all dated and signed at the time he brought them.—A. They were.

Q. What was the date of the receipts that you obtained from Collector Dale?—A. I cannot tell what the date was, I don't remember.

ED. DILL.

DEPOSITION OF D. H. BARTOE.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, 37 years; my residence is Rush Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for Rush Township on the 5th of November last?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. I made it myself, the one I voted.

Q. What time in the day did you vote?—A. I cannot be positive as to the time; to the best of my knowledge it was in the forenoon before dinner time.

Q. How long have you resided in Rush Township?—A. I moved to Rush Township in the fall of 1877.

Q. Have you resided there ever since?—A. I have.

Q. Please state when and where you were born?—A. I was born at Haumah Furnace, in Centre County, in 1841, on 22d December, according to my father's say-so.

Q. Had you resided one year in the State and two months in Rush Township immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I was a resident of the State for one year, and two months a resident of Rush Township before that election.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. I didn't, but I had it paid for me, and have the receipt to show that it was paid.

Q. Who paid it for you?—A. Thomas Dunkle.

Q. When was it paid?—A. It was paid on October 2, 1878.

Q. Did you direct Thomas J. Dunkle to pay your tax?—A. I did. I asked him to pay my tax for me and he said he would.

Q. When did you have this conversation with Thomas J. Dunkle?—A. It was before the sixty-day assessment.

Q. Where did you have this conversation?—A. Him and I was working at the Sterling chutes loading a car with lumber. I asked him to pay my tax and get my receipt, and he said he would.

Q. For whom did you work at that time?—A. Thomas Dunkle.

Q. Is the following a copy of your receipt?

“Received of David Bartoe ten cents, county tax, $\frac{100}{100}$ dollars, for 1878.

“F. H. DALE, Col.”

A. It is the receipt that I got for my taxes.

Q. Did you vote at the election in the fall of 1877?—A. I did not vote in 1877.

Q. Do you know whether your name was on the register in Rush Township for 1878?—A. I don't know; I cannot say whether it was or was not. The assessor was at Powelton. I was in the office when he was there assessing. I can't say whether he got my name or not.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE:

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax for the year 1877; and, if so, to whom did you pay it?—A. I did not pay any.

Q. When did you get this receipt dated October, 1878, from Thomas J. Dunkle?—A. Well, I suppose it was on the 5th, 1878; the day of the election.

D. H. BARTOE.

DEPOSITION OF LEWIS FIKE.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, fifty-five years; my residence is Rush Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania and have been living there for the last eleven years.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for Rush Township on the 5th of November last?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted the Democratic ticket out and out, and voted for A. G. Curtin for Congress.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. State when and where you were born.—A. I was born near Bellefonte, Pennsylvania; I am fifty-five years old.

Q. State whether you paid a State or county tax preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did not pay it myself two years ago, and last year Jack Nason paid it for me.

Q. How did he come to pay it?—A. I was talking to him about some money to pay my tax, and there were several of them by, and he says, “I'll pay your tax and get you a receipt.”

Q. When did you have this talk with Jack Nason?—A. Two months before the election, out at his place.

Q. State whether you worked for him at the time.—A. I was working for Daniel Butler at the time.

Q. Did you have a tax receipt when you voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you get it?—A. I got it on the day of the election.

Q. When, to the best of your knowledge, was your tax paid for 1878?—A. I could not just tell you when it was paid.

Q. Did you and Nason have an agreement by which he, Nason, would pay your tax?—A. When he and I was talking about it he said, “I will pay your tax." I said, "All right." This was two months before the election of 1878.

Q. Have you that tax receipt in your possession?—A. It is in my possession at my house; I have it at home.

Q. Did you vote at the election in the fall of 1877?—A. Yes, sir. I haven't missed an election, spring or fall, since I have been here.

Q. Did you vote at this spring election, February, 1879?—A. I did.

Q. Did you show the same tax receipt at the spring election on which you voted at the fall election?—A. They did not require me to show a tax receipt at the spring election.

Q. State whether or not Ed. Dill was on the election-board at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. When I went to the window to vote he (Ed. Dill) handed me the receipt, and then he took my ticket.

Redirect examination by J. G. LOVE:

Q. Did you get a tax receipt from Jack Nason last fall?—A. No, not from Jack.

LEWIS FIKE.

DEPOSITION OF FRED DALE.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 50 years; my residence is in Rush Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State whether or not you were collector of State and county taxes for Rush Township; and, if so, for what years?—A. I was collector for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878.

Q. Are you acquainted with M. Brewer?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does he stand assessed with a tax on your duplicates for the years 1876 and 1877?—A. He does not.

Q. Does he stand assessed with a tax on your duplicate for the year 1878?—A. He does.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for the year 1878?—A. No; I never received any tax from him.

Q. Do you know Smith Baldin?—A. I do.

Q. How long has he lived in Rush Township?—A. He is on all my county duplicates.

Q. Is he assessed with State or county tax for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. He is on all of them.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for either or any of those years?—A. I never could get any tax out of the man; he has not paid any.

Q. Are you acquainted with Lewis Fike?—A. I know the man when I see him, that's about all.

Q. How long has he been living in Rush Township?—A. I have heard of them for several years, and can't say positively how long they have lived here.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for either or any of the years 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. I never received any money from any of the Fikes that I remember of, and he has never paid any taxes to me.

Q. Has any person else paid his State or county taxes to you for either of those years?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with Michael Moyer?—A. I am not.

Q. Does his name appear upon your duplicates for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878, or either of them?—A. His name is on the 1876 duplicate. I cannot find him on the 1877 or 1878.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for either of those years?—A. He has not.

Q. Has any person paid his State or county tax to you for either of those years?—A. Not that I know of; I don't recollect getting any from him.

Q. Are you acquainted with David Bartoe?—A. No, sir; I am not acquainted with him.

Q. Does his name appear on any of your duplicates or sixty-day list for the years 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. No, sir; I can't find his name on the duplicates or the sixty-day list.

Q. Has he ever paid you a State or county tax?—A. He has not.

Q. Has any person else paid you a State or county tax for him?—A. I have never heard the name mentioned. No one has ever paid me a State or county tax for him.

Q. Are you acquainted with Thomas Cameron?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long has he been living in Rush Township?—A. His name is on the 1876, 1877, and 1878 duplicates.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for either of the years 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. I don't recollect of ever getting money from Cameron for tax.

Q. Has any person paid you a State or county tax for him for either of those years?—A. Not that I can recollect.

Q. Are you acquainted with James Holes?—A. I have seen the man, I ain't acquainted with him.

Q. How long has he been living in Rush Township?—A. I do not know.

Q. Does his name appear upon any of your tax duplicates for the years 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. His name is on the duplicate for 1877 and 1878, but not on his duplicate for 1876.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for either of the years 1877 or 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has any person paid you his State or county tax for either of those two years?—A. Not that I recollect of.

Q. Are you acquainted with John McCord?—A. Yes, sir, I am.

Q. How long has he lived in Rush Township?—A. I suppose some eight or ten years, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Has he paid you a State or county tax for either of the years 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. Yes, he paid me tax.

Q. When and for what years?—A. He paid me his county tax on the day of election on the 5th of November last.

Q. Has he paid you his State or county tax for the years 1876 or 1878?—A. I think he paid his tax for the year 1876; he has not paid me his tax for the year 1878.

Q. When did he pay you his State or county tax for the year 1876?—A. It was about the beginning of the year 1877.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. Please produce your duplicates for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878, together with the sixty-day list for 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. I have not got my duplicate coat on to-day—I mean the one in which I carry my duplicates—and I have not got them with me.

Q. Are you acquainted with M. Brewer?—A. I am.

Q. Did he vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I was told he did.

Q. Did the board require everybody to produce a tax-receipt or qualify to the payment of a tax?—A. They pretended to do so.

Q. Did they carry out this rule with all the voters, so far as you know?—A. I believe they did.

Q. Did you see M. Brewer vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Is he assessed on your duplicate for 1877?—A. He is not.

Q. Was he living in the township in 1877?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know where he was assessed in 1877?—A. In the borough of Philipsburg I suppose.

Q. Do you know whether he paid his State or county taxes for 1877 to the collector for the borough?—A. I do not.

Q. State whether he was assessed in the borough of Philipsburg for the year 1878.—A. He was assessed in the township for the year 1878.

Q. How long have you known Smith Baldin?—A. Three years.

Q. Were his taxes for 1878, on your duplicate, paid, and if so, by whom?—A. They are not paid, or they would be marked paid.

Q. Did anybody pay them for him either to yourself or to others who were receiving taxes for you?—A. Not that I recollect of.

Q. Did he vote at the spring election of 1879?—A. I believe he did.

Q. Were you acting as a member of the election board which held the election on February 18, 1879?—A. I was one of the inspectors.

Q. What proof did Smith Baldin make of his right to vote at the last election?—A. I believe there was no questions asked.

Q. Did Thomas J. Dunkle ever pay you any taxes for Smith Baldin?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. What proof did Smith Baldin make of his right to vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. There was not any questions asked him.

Q. If Thomas J. Dunkle gave Smith Baldin a receipt for either of the taxes for 1876, 1877, or 1878, state if such receipt would be a payment to you.—A. I would consider it a payment to me.

Q. If Thomas J. Dunkle gave a receipt to Lewis Fike, state if you would consider it a payment to you.—A. If I could see the receipt it would. I don't know whether he gave him a receipt or not.

Q. Does David Bartoe have a receipt of payment of taxes to you for either 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. He has one for 1878. If David Bartoe got a receipt from Thomas J. Dunkle I would consider it a payment to me.

Q. If Thomas Cameron holds a receipt for the payment of any taxes signed by me, state whether you would consider it a payment to yourself, no matter whether it was paid to Dunkle, Dill, or Mull.

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question for the reason, 1st, that it is improper to ask the question about what he considers, the witness having already testified that there had been no payment of Cameron's taxes.)

A. I would.

Q. State whether Thomas J. Dunkle received any taxes from taxpayers for you and paid them over.—A. He has.

Q. Can you give the names of those for whom Thomas J. Dunkle paid taxes to you in 1878?—A. Frank Beaty, Charles Beaty, Frank Edmundson, John Rosencranz, Jack Test, and a number of others; I cannot recall them all now.

Q. How long has Thomas Cameron lived in Rush Township?—A. Three years, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Has he voted at that election, and if so, how often?—A. I have seen him there at three different elections. I seen him vote at one election.

Q. Did anybody pay you a tax for James Holes?—A. Not that I recollect of.

Q. If James Holes holds your receipt for the payment of taxes for 1877 or 1878, no matter who received the money for you, would you consider it a payment to yourself?—A. If my name is signed on the receipt by myself or John A. Mull, I would consider it a payment.

Q. If the following persons hold your receipt for the payment of the taxes for either 1876, 1877, or 1878, signed by yourself, or any person authorized by you to sign a receipt, to wit, M. Brewer, Smith Baldin, Lewis Fike, Michael Moyer, David Bartoe, Thomas Cameron, James Holes, and John McCord, state whether you would consider it a good payment of taxes, the same as if you had received it yourself.—A. I would consider it a payment to me, any receipt signed by me or John A. Mull.

DEPOSITION OF THOMAS CARTWRIGHT.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is Thomas Cartwright; my age is 46 years; my residence is Rush Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Rush Township held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Have you any objection to state for whom you voted for Congress?—A. No, sir; I voted for A. G. Curtin.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878?—A. No; I had not.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. Where were you working on November 5, 1878?—A. I was working at Morrisdale.

Q. For whom?—A. William H. Wigton.

Q. State whether Wigton paid the taxes of the men through the office.—A. No, sir; he did not; he did not pay mine.

Q. How long have you resided in Rush Township?—A. I have lived in Rush Township over eight years. I own a house and lot there, and live in it.

Q. How long have you voted in Rush Township?—A. I voted in Rush Township, I guess, over ten years.

Q. How long have you paid taxes in Rush Township?—A. I suppose about six years.

Q. Did you pay taxes anywhere else?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know that you voted for A. G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I think I got my ticket from Jack Nason, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Where did he give it to you?—A. He gave it to me at the corner of the school-house where I voted.

Q. What time in the day did you vote?—A. I think it was about two o'clock, as near as I can tell you.

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you other tickets at the time Jack Nason gave you a ticket?—A. No, sir; I had no tickets at all.

Q. For whom did you vote for governor?—A. I don't recollect the man's name I voted for governor.

Q. For whom did you vote for lieutenant-governor?—A. I don't know; I can't read at all.

Q. Did you get persons to read the ticket for you?—A. I would get a ticket; I would ask the man to read it for me; when I got my ticket I went to the poll and stuck it in.

Q. Who was present when you voted?—A. Jack Nason was there; I guess there was no one standing close by but the board; when I went to put my ticket in, some one on the board asked me if I had paid my State and county tax; I told him I didn't know; I walked away from the window then; they said that Fred. Dale was there; Fred. Dale came to me and told me I could vote; Fred. Dale went up to the window, and said to the board, "Cartwright's vote is all right."

Q. Is Fred. Dale the tax collector for Rush Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Fred. Dale go to the board and say, "Cartwright's vote is all right" before you voted?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Give the exact words which Dale used when he came to you and said, "You can vote."—A. He told me, "You can vote."

Q. If your taxes for 1878 or 1877 were paid by anybody else, you were not aware of it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the fall election in 1877?—A. No, sir; not as I recollect of.

Q. How long after you got the ticket from Nason did you vote?—A. I went right straight and voted.

Q. What did the board say about your taxes when you went there the second time to vote?—A. They did not say anything to me then.

Q. Did you vote the ticket which Nason gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he read it to you?—A. Yes, he read the ticket to me; I did not know what ticket to vote if he did not read it to me.

Q. You only know for whom you voted from the fact that Nason read you a ticket, do you not?—A. That's all I know, from what Nason told me; he read me the ticket.

Q. If he gave you a Curtin ticket, then you voted for Curtin?—A. If he gave me a ticket I wanted, I voted for Curtin for Congress.

DEPOSITION OF ELIJAH ONLY.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is Elijah Only; my age is fifty-seven years; my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you acquainted with Reuben Freeman?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you known him?—A. I have known him between ten and eleven years; since he was a little boy.

Q. Did he ever board with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long ago did he begin boarding with you?—A. Last February two years ago.

Q. How long did he board with you?—A. He boarded with me up until last August.

Q. Where did he go then?—A. He went over to Wesley Johnson's on the other side of the creek.

Q. While he was at Wesley Johnson's, where did he sleep?—A. At his father's, as far as I know.

Q. Where was his father's place where he slept?—A. In Philipsburg Borough.

Q. Was he living with his father in Philipsburg Borough on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he have his washing done for six months or more before the election?—A. In the borough of Philipsburg.

Q. Do I understand you to say that he had been sleeping and having his washing done in the borough of Philipsburg for six months or more before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; he had been sleeping and having his washing done in the borough of Philipsburg for that time.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE:

Q. What time in last August did Reuben Freeman leave your place and go to Clearfield—Clearfield County I mean?—A. I don't know exactly what day, but it was the fore part of August I think.

Q. Did he tell you where he was going when he left?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he say he was going?—A. Going to his sister's, Mary Johnson.

Q. What did he say he was going to do there?—A. He was going to stay over there a while, while he worked at Hoover's mill.

Q. Why did he leave your place and go to live with his sister in Clearfield County?—A. Because I wanted to repair my house and it was a little inconvenient for me to have him there, and he told me that he owed me $6; that as soon as I had my house repaired he would come back and live with me, as it was so unhandy for me to live and work at the planing-mill.

Q. Did he take his clothes along with him to his sister's?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. How long did he live with his sister, that is, up to what time?—A. I cannot say that.

Q. Where did he go to when he left his sister's?—A. To Wm. Jones's, right above my house.

Q. Where did he work after he came back to Wm. Jones's place?—A. At George Hoover's mill, at the planing mill, in the borough of Philipsburg.

Q. How do you know where Reuben Freeman slept?—A. I have got his word and his father's word for it.

Q. Where did he sleep when he boarded with you?—A. He slept in my house.

DEPOSITION OF T. L. SCEURMAN.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is T. L. Sceurman; my age, 43 years; my residence is Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a resident of Philipsburg Borough on the 5th of November last, and how long immediately before that time have you lived there?—A. I was a resident and have lived here for the last twelve years in said borough of Philipsburg.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

THOS. L. SCEURMAN.

DEPOSITION OF W. G. BREADY.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, 41 years; my residence, Philipsburg Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived for nearly a year in the borough.

Q. Are you acquainted with Jackson Gorten; and, if so, what official position did he hold on or about the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I have had some acquaintance with him for something over a year, and he was constable of the borough about the 5th of November, 1878.

Q. State whether or not you were arrested some time in November, 1878.—A. Yes, sir; I was arrested on the 7th of November; it was on Monday before the election of November, 1878.

Q. By whom were you arrested?—A. By Jackson Gorten.

Q. Where were you taken to, and when?—A. I was taken to Bellefonte on Monday before the election.

Q. By whom were you taken to Bellefonte?—A. By Jackson Gorten.

Q. Where were you taken to in Bellefonte?—A. To jail.

Q. How long did you remain in jail?—A. As near as I can tell you, it was about two hours and a half.

Q. On what day were you released from custody?—A. It was on the same Monday I was put there.

Q. Did you return to Phillipsburg that same day; and, if so, by what conveyance?—A. I came to Port Matilda in the train, and from there in the stage,

Q. State whether or not Jackson Gorten returned with you on that train.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question and all other questions preceding this one, because it is immaterial to the issue made by the notice and answer.)

A. Yes, sir; to Port Matilda.

Q. State whether or not you had a conversation with Jackson Gorten on the train; and, if so, state what it was.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because it is hearsay.)

A. We had some conversation on the road. He told me when I went home that I had best look out for other bail; and he told me if I would vote the right way that he would sacrifice his property and all he was worth if I would come and vote the Democratic ticket; he said that he knew Casanova would go with him to bail me and see me through with the scrape I had at court. He told me that I should keep it a secret and not to make it publicly known.

Cross-examined by J. L. SPANGLER:

Q. State with what you were charged.—A. I was charged with adultery.

Q. State who swore out the warrant against you.

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question because it is not proper cross-examination, and impertinent.)

A. I can't tell that exactly; I was told that it was Adam Walker.

Q. Were you tried at court November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I was tried.

Q. Who became your bail for your appearance at November court?—A. George H. Zeigler, of Philipsburg.

Q. Did he come to Bellefonte to enter bail for you?—A. I cannot answer that.

Q. Before whom did he enter bail?—A. I cannot say who.

Q. Who was on the train from Philipsburg, coming from Bellefonte to Philipsburg, besides yourself and Jackson Gorten?—A. I did not notice any one, except S. L. Callahan.

Q. Was George H. Zeigler the first and only bail you had?—A. That's the only one, I was told.

Q. Did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I voted.

Q. Have you any objection to saying for whom you voted for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Please state them.—A. I think a man can vote as he pleases, and can either tell it or keep it to himself.

Q. To what political party did you belong, November 5, 1878?—A. The one that I always belonged to.

Q. Which is that?—A. That I don't think I will tell.

Q. Why do you decline to tell?—A. I don't think it's any person's business.

Q. Are you a Democrat?—A. You will have to find that out.

Q. Are you a Greenbacker?—A. You will have to find that out.

Q. What time in the day did you vote?—A. Some time in the forenoon.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. Mr. E. O. Mattern.

Q. When did you pay it?—A. In September or the first of October, 1878.

Q. Where did you pay it to him?—A. In his office.

Q. Did you get a receipt from him?—A. Yes, sir; I got a receipt.

Q. Did you pay it yourself?—A. Yes, sir; I paid it myself.

Q. When Jackson Gorten told you that you should get other bail, and that he would sacrifice his property if you would vote the Democratic ticket, what, if anything, did you say to him?—A. I said I hadn't voted yet.

Q. Have you told us all that passed between you and Gorten in relation to your voting?—A. That was about all I told him in answer. He wanted to know how I voted. I told him that those who would be there would see.

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. I got from different ones.

Q. Mention the name of those from whom you got tickets?—A. I can't do that; for some I don't know their names.

Q. State those you do know.—A. I got one from Abe Jackson, and Stockbridge handed me one.

Q. Who gave you the ticket that you voted?—A. That I won't tell.

Q. Why won't you tell?—A. I don't think I have any right to tell.

Q. How long have you lived in Philipsburg Borough?—A. Near about a year since I lived in the borough.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. I am married.

Q. When were you married?—A. Between ten and eleven years ago.

Q. Are you living with your wife at this time?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where is your wife living at this time, and where was she living October 5, 1878?—A. That you will have to find out. No, sir; I do not know.

Q. Are you or were you keeping house with your wife on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you living with a woman now who is not your wife?—A. I have a woman keeping house for me.

Q. Is your wife living?—A. I can't say.

Q. Did you tell Harry Stockbridge that you had voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I don't think I did.

Q. Did you or did you not tell Squire Crissman that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I don't think I told any of them that I mind of.

Q. Did you or did you not show your ticket to Harry Stockbridge on the day of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you or did you not tell any person at any time for whom you voted for Congress?—A. That I ain't going to tell whether I did or not.

Q. Did you ever promise Jackson Gorten that you would vote the Democratic ticket if he would procure you new bail?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Are you acquainted with Alton Nelson, Rev. H. C. Pardoe, S. J. Pardoe, William Shelow, William Wilson, Adam Walker, Frank Dixon, William Dixon, Thomas Hanlin, J. B. Laporte, Henry Linthurst, Orlando Weston, William Yingling, Daniel Ayres, E. C. Blackburn, B. Crabtree, Milligan Blake, O. P. Galer, David Kinkade, L. G. Kessler, S. F. Lytle, E. W. Hale, Henry Imboden, Thomas Jackson, Austin Atherton, J. L. Buzzell, A. W. Adams, R. D. McKinney, Millard Pightal, Oscar Runk, Thomas H. Switzer, J. A. Walters, J. H. Huffington, C. C. Holder, William Lloyd, Frank Lewis, W. C. Lehr, Joseph M. Way, W. T. Olewine, John Gonder, Owen Hancock, D. H. Parkér, James Blair, Scott Erb, James Brown, H. A. Campbell, John Erb, J. W. Blackburn, E. P. McCormick, J. F. Plummer, Charles Lego, J. H. Peirce, Charles Long, Peter Cushard, John McCloskey, and William E. Irwin?—A. I am acquainted with them.

Q. State whether or not the persons you have named above were qualified electors of Philipsburg Borough on the 5th of November, 1878.—A. I have every reason to think they were.

Q. Had they been residents and legally qualified citizens of Philipsburg Borough for at least two months before November 5, 1878?—A. They had.

Q. Had they paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I think they had. To the best of my knowledge they had.

Q. Did they vote at the election for Philipsburg Borough held November 5, 1878; and if so, for whom did they vote for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because the witness is testifying as to how the before-mentioned parties voted for Congress entirely from hearsay and not of his own knowledge, and therefore it is not evidence as to how the parties mentioned before voted for Congress.)

A. They did vote at that election and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE :

Q. How do you know they voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. Because the most of them have told me so since the election, and what haven't told me so since the election are known Yocum men, and from conversation I have had with them left me under the impression they had voted for Mr. Yocum.

Q. In what way are the parties who have told you they voted for Yocum known Yocum men, as you say?—A. From their talk,

Q. From their talk since or their talk before the election of November, 1878?—A. Both before and after.

Q. Then you do not know of your own knowledge for whom they voted for Congress, do you?—A. I gave part of them their tickets and seen them deposit them in the window; the others I have explained before.

Q. Name the parties to whom you gave tickets?—A. J. H. Huffington, Wm. Lloyd, Scott Erb, Alfred Johnston, J. W. Blackburn, Wm. Yingling, Oscar Runk; those are the only parties that I gave tickets to that I can recollect on this or above list.

Q. Where did you give them the tickets?—A. At the polls.

Q. What time during the day did they vote?—A. Between the hours of 7.30 a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m.

Q. To whom of these seven parties did you give the first ticket?—A. I do not recollect.

Q. What time during the day did J. H. Huffington vote?—A. I do not recollect.

Q. What time during the day did Wm. Lloyd vote?—A. About 4 o'clock p. m.

Q. What time during the day did Oscar Runk vote?—A. I cannot recollect.

Q. Can you recollect at what time any of these parties voted excepting Wm. Lloyd?—A. No, I cannot state the time.

Q. What reason can you give for knowing how these seven parties before mentioned voted for Congress, if you cannot state at what time during that day they voted, nor can tell which of these parties voted first or last?—A. The reason that I know that they voted for Mr. Yocum is, that I gave them tickets with Mr. Yocum's name on and see them deposit them at the window; and the reason that I cannot recollect the time that each man voted is, that I was at the polls all day and supplied a great many voters with tickets. I was giving tickets out all day and checking their names as they voted. It would be impossible now to give the exact hour that they were voted; besides, these men that I have mentioned are known to be Yocum men.

Q. Could these parties have had other tickets about them and you not know it?—A. They could.

Q. If either of them wanted to vote for Curtin for Congress, could he not have had another ticket prepared and vote it without your knowing it?—A. He might; but these parties came to me and asked me for tickets, which they would not have done had they their tickets prepared.

Q. Where and when were these seven parties you say you gave tickets to born?—A. I do not know.

Q. State, if you know of your own knowledge, to whom they paid a State or county tax thirty days before the November election, 1878, and within two years prior thereto?—A. I do not know of their paying such taxes only from the fact that the election board received their votes and the election board required all voters to show their tax receipts or be qualified to the same.

Q. Did these seven parties present tax receipts to the board or were they qualified to the payment of the same?—A. I do not remember which. I would not of seen them if they had been sworn.

Q. Did you see them present their tax receipts to the board?—A. I do not recollect.

Q. You stated that of the 56 persons in your list only 7 of them, to the best of your recollection, you gave tickets and saw them vote; then the balance of them, 49 in number, you do not know of your own knowledge for whom they voted, do you?—A. I know only that they voted for Mr. Yocum, for the reason that they are known to be Yocum men, and that the most of them told me that they had voted for Mr. Yocum, and I have every reason to believe that they did.

Q. About how many of these parties told you they voted for Yocum, and how many do you only presume did?—A. I would say that nearly all of them did tell me.

Q. Where and when was Rev. H. C. Pardoe born?—A. I don't know.

Q. Do you know whether H. C. Pardoe was registered and assessed in the burough of Philipsburg for 1878?—A. I do.

Q. Do you know whether he has paid any State or county tax thirty days before the November election, 1878, and within two years prior thereto?—A. I do.

Q. When and to whom?—A. In the year 1878, and more than one month previous to the election, and to Mr. E. O. Mattern.

Q. State when and where the 49 persons on your list, some of whom you say told you they voted for Yocum, and some you have every reason to believe did, were born?—A. I believe they were all born in the United States with the exception of Charles Long, whom I believe to be a foreigner; also H. A. Campbell I am not certain about.

Q. How do you know that all on your list were born in the United States excepting Charles Long and H. A. Campbell?—A. From the fact that the election board required all foreigners to show their naturalization papers before voting, where they had not been shown the number of times required by law. I do not know where any of them were born.

Q. When did Frank Lewis tell you he voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. He told me the day before the election that he was going to vote for Yocum; he did not tell me anything after the election.

Q. How do you know he voted for Yocum?—A. The only reason that I know is that he said he was going to.

Q. What conversation, if any, had you with Frank Lewis, about the candidate for whom he voted for Congress?—A. I asked him if he was going to vote for Mr. Hoyt for governor; he said he did not know that he would, but he thought he would vote for Mr. Mason. I said to him then that you will vote for Mr. Yocum and he said he would.

Q. Have you talked with him since in reference to the candidate for whom he voted for Congress since the election?—A. I have not.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax for Frank Lewis for the year 1878?—A. I did.

Q. When did you pay it?—A. About the first of October.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To E. O. Mattern.

Q. Did Frank Lewis authorize you to pay it?—A. I think he did. I gave him the receipt the day I paid it, and he paid me at that time.

HENRY STOCKBRIDGE.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. Was the tax-receipt given to you at the time it bears date, and were the taxes paid on that day by you to Swartz?—A. Yes, sir.

NICHOLAS MIESS.

DEPOSITION OF T. HARVEY WHITE.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, twenty-two years on the 25th of February, 1879; and my residence is Spring Township, and have lived there continuously for the last ten years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Mifflin County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on November 5, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in Spring Township, November 5, 1878, and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Did you sign and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit, setting forth your age, residence, &c.?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did any person else sign and swear to a similar affidavit in your behalf?—A. Yes, sir; Mathew Riddle did.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. The affidavit you made was to your age, was it not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did any one else make an affidavit as to your age?—A. Mathew Riddle.

Q. How did Mathew Riddle know your age?—A. He knew me ever since I was a child.

T. HARVEY WHITE.

DEPOSITION OF WILLIAM H. CLOSE.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Benner Township.

Q. Are you acquainted with John Letterman?—A. I am.

Q. How long have you known him?—A. I have known him for the last sixteen years.

Q. How long have you known John Letterman to have been a resident of Benner Township?—A. For the last sixteen years.

Q. State the age of John Letterman as near as you can?—A. The age I could not say exactly, but suppose him to be about eighty years old.

Q. Did he vote at the election for Benner Township held November 5, 1878?—A. He did.

Q. For whom did he vote for Congress?—A. He told me he voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question and answer, because it is not competent for the witness to testify to the declarations of another for the purpose of showing how such person voted; 2d, because, according to section 271 of McCrary on Election Laws, the testimony is hearsay.)

Q. Why is John Letterman not here to testify for himself?—A. He said on account of his old age and sickness he was not able to be out of the house, and could not come.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above question and answer for the reasons just stated.)

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. All you know, Mr. Close, as to how John Letterman voted, is what he told you about it, is it not?—A. Yes; what he told me when I subpoenaed him.

Q. When did you serve the subpoena on him?—A. I don't remember when I served the first one; the last one I served on him on Saturday last, March 22, 1879.

Q. Do you know whether Mr. Letterman could read or not?—A. I don't know whether he can or not.

WM. H. CLOSE.

DEPOSITION OF ALBERT F. LANDIS.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name and residence.—Answer. My name is Albert F. Landis, and my residence is Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there continuously for the last fifteen years.

Q. What is your age?—A. I was twenty-one years old on the 6th of October, 1878.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Reading, Pa.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Did you vote on age at the election for Spring Township held November 5, 1878?—A. I did vote at that election.

Q. State whether or not you signed and swore to a partly written and partly printed affidavit setting forth your age, residence, &c.—A. I did.

Q. Who made out the affidavits for you and went with you to the polls to vote?—A. Mr. W. A. Tobias, "recorder," made out my affidavit, and Hon. C. T. Alexander went with me to the polls when I voted.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote for Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. Did any other person make an affidavit as to your age or residence and your right to vote on that day, and before you voted?—A. No, sir.

A. F. LANDIS.

DEPOSITION OF JAMES SYMMONDS.

Examined by JOHN G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, twenty-five years old on the 24th day of next May; my residence is Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and was born there and have lived there all my life.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years and one month before the election held on the 5th of November last, which was assessed two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir, I have; and I paid a State and county tax in 1877.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in Spring Township, held on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. To whom did you pay the last State and county taxes that you have paid, and when did you pay it?—A. It was collected off me at Valentine's Works, at the office, for the year 1877. It was paid long enough before the election to entitle me to a vote last fall.

Q. The tax you speak of being paid for 1877, was it paid by Valentines, or by their clerk, to the collector?—A. I am not sure whether it was done by the clerk or the company.

Q. Had the amount of the tax for the year 1877 been settled for by you with them and deducted from your wages one month before the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I would not be certain whether it was one month or longer, and am not certain whether it was that long or not.

Redirect by J. G. LOVE:

Q. Were you in the employ of Valentines & Co.?—A. I was, and am still.

Q. Were your taxes, State and county, for the year 1877 paid by them for you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they charge the amount of the taxes to your account at the time they paid them?—A. Yes, sir.

JAMES SYMMONDS.

DEPOSITION OF DANIEL SHILLING:

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is forty-five years, and my residence is Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived in Spring Township for the last year, and before that I lived in the borough of Bellefonte since 1870.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November last?—A. I was.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I had.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Spring Township held November 5, 1878, and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE:

Q. What time during the day did you vote?—A. I voted in the evening, between six and seven o'clock.

Q. Where did you get your ticket?—A. From James Alexander.

Q. Did you read over the names on your ticket before you voted it?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did James Alexander tell you what kind of a ticket it was that he gave you?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. For whom did you vote for register?—A. That I can't tell you, for I don't mind. There was only two men that I voted for that I can mind of.

DANIEL SHILLING.

DEPOSITION OF GEORGE CHAPMAN.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is fifty-one years. I live in Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there for the last two years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Lycoming County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before the 5th of November, 1878, and which had been assessed more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Spring Township held November 5, 1878, and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE:

Q. To whom did you pay your taxes, 1878?—A. I don't know to whom; Valentines paid them for me.

Q. When did they pay them?—A. I could not tell you that.

Q. To whom did you pay your State or county taxes in 1877?—A. I cannot tell you that either.

Q. Then you don't know of your own knowledge that you have paid any State or county taxes thirty days before the November election, and within two years prior thereto, do you?—A. No, sir.

Redirect examination by D. H. HASTINGS:

Q. Did you vote at the fall election of 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I think I have a receipt of that.

Q. Had you a receipt for the payment of your State and county tax for the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I think I have one at home.

Q. Were your taxes for 1877 paid through the office of Valentines' Iron Company?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where were your taxes for 1877 paid?—A. They were paid at the office of James H. Rankin, in Bellefonte, Pa.; he paid them himself and gave me the receipt.

Q. What time in the year 1877 was it that James H. Rankin paid your taxes and gave you the receipt?—A. I could not tell you; I think it was in the fall.

Q. Who informed you that your taxes for 1878 were paid?—A. Richard Thomas.

Q. Who is Richard Thomas?—A. The book-keeper at Valentines' iron works.

Q. When did Richard Thomas inform you that your State and county taxes for 1878 were paid?—A. The day of the election, if I recollect right.

Q. Are the taxes of the hands employed at Valentines' iron work paid through the office of the company?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because the witness is no member of the firm of Valentines & Co., and has no knowledge of the business affairs outside of his own, and his answer would be mere supposition and no evidence.)

A. I could not tell whether they are or not.

Q. How do you know that your taxes were paid through the office of Valentines & Co.?—A. The tax collector never asked me for them, and Richard Thomas told me they were paid.

Recross-examination by W. C. HEINLE:

Q. Did you see Richard Thomas before or after you voted on the day of the election?—A. Before I came in to the election.

Q. Was it not in the fall of 1876 that your taxes were paid by James H. Rankin, or the man that was then in the office under the National Bank?—A. I think my receipt was for 1877, but I would not be certain.

GEORGE CHAPMAN.

DEPOSITION OF LEWIS HASSINGER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age.—Answer. I will be 22 years old on the 22d December, 1879.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I resided at Fredrich Houser's, in Benner Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, at that time, and had lived there continuously for two years before that.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I was born in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November last?—A. I was.

Q. Did you vote on age at the election of Benner Township held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Before you voted at that election did you sign and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit, setting forth your age, residence and qualifications as a voter?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Before whom did you make the affidavit?—A. Before Wm. A. Tobias, recorder of the county.

Q. Did any other person swear and subscribe to a similar affidavit on your behalf?—A. No, sir.

Q. What did you do with this affidavit you made?—A. I handed it to the board in the window along with my ticket when I went to vote.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Q. How do you know that the name of Seth H. Yocum was on your ticket?—A. Because I put a sticker over Curtin's name which had Yocum's name on it.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. Do you know whether or not your name was on the registry list for Benner Township?—A. So far as I know; I do not know.

Q. Was your father with you when you voted, and did he make an affidavit to your age?—A. No, sir.

LEWIS HASSINGER.

DEPOSITION OF CHARLES HALL.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. What is your age?—Answer. I am 40 years old.

Q. Where did you live on the 5th of November last?—A. In the borough of Bellefonte, west ward.

Q. How long immediately before that time did you live in Bellefonte?—A. I came here some time in December, 1877, and have lived here ever since.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I was born in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. On the 5th of November, 1878, were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years?—A. I paid my State and county tax to Easton Robb, collector for 1877 of Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, in 1877.

Q. What time was it in the year 1877 that you paid your taxes to Easton Robb, collector?—A. I paid it thirty days before the election of 1877.

Q. Did you vote at the election for the west ward of the borough of Bellefonte, on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Were you required by the election board to swear and subscribe to an affidavit setting forth your age, residence and other qualifications as a voter?—A. I was.

Q. What did you do with this affidavit?—A. I handed it in to the election board when I voted.

Q. Who did you vote for for Congress at that election?—A. For Mr. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you read your ticket before you voted it?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. How do you know you voted for Yocum?—A. I got my ticket from an honest man, and I read it.

Q. Who did you get your ticket from?—A. From Mr. D. H. Hastings.

Q. Where did you live before December 5, 1877?—A. I lived in Huntingdon County.

Q. Did you move from Huntingdon County to Centre County in December, 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who did you pay your taxes to, and when did you pay them?—A. I paid my taxes in 1877, to Easton Robb, in Huntingdon County.

Q. Did you not say a while ago that you had paid taxes for 1877 in Hastings' office?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. How do you know you paid it thirty days before the election?—A. I paid it on the 1st day of October, 1877.

Q. Did you take a receipt?—A. I did take receipt; I have not got it with me; I lost it.

Q. How do you recollect now that you paid your taxes on the 1st of October, 1877?—A. He came to me (Easton Robb) and notified and told me if I paid my tax on the 1st day of October he would not charge me any percentage.

Q. Do you recollect any one else you voted for?—A. No; I don't recollect.

Q. How do you recollect, then, that you voted for Mr. Yocum?—A. Because he's a man I had on my mind for to vote for.

Q. Has anybody been talking to you about who you voted for for Congress?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make any written or printed, or partly written and partly printed affidavit before you voted on the day of the election?—A. There was an affidavit made out for me; I was sworn before Mr. Cheeseman, notary public.

Q. You say that you now live in the west ward in the borough of Bellefonte; where did you live before you moved there?—A. I lived in the north ward, back of Daniel Derr's.

Q. When did you move to the west ward?—A. I moved on the 2d day of September, 1878.

Q. How do you recollect that it was on the 2d day of September, 1878, that you moved?—A. Because I paid my tax on the 2d day of September, 1878, and I moved the same day—I meant my rent.

Q. Who did you pay your rent to in the north ward?—A. James Fanning.

CHARLES HALL.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN MILLER.

Examined by D. S. KELLER:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. Between the age of 21 and 22 years; I was 21 years old on the 29th March, 1878; and I live in the south ward in the borough of Bellefonte, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and I have lived there since April, 1878, continuously.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I am; I was born in Blair County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you lived continuously in Pennsylvania?—A. All my life.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in Bellefonte borough on November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Did you vote on age at that election?—A. I did.

Q. Were you qualified as to your age?—A. I was. I made affidavit before R. C. Cheeseman, notary public, and I think George Whippo went with me to the polls, and I gave my affidavit in to the election board with my ticket.

Q. Who was the witness that swore to your residence?—A. Wm. McCaferty.

Q. Did he make and sign an affidavit?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you read your ticket before you voted?—A. I did.

JOHN MILLER.

DEPOSITION OF R. S. CRAIG.

Examined by D. S. KELLER:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is forty-two years, and my residence is Bellefonte Borough, and I have lived here since May, 1878.

Q. Do you know Roland Craig, and how long have you known him?—A. Yes, sir, I do; and I have known him all his life-time.

Q. What relation are you to him?—A. I am his uncle.

Q. What is his age?—A. Between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years.

Q. Where did Roland Craig live on the 5th day of November, 1878, and how long had he lived there previously?—A. He lived in the west ward, Bellefonte Borough, on November 5, 1878, and he had lived there from July 2, 1878.

Q. Where does he now live?—A. He lives in Montour County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did Roland Craig vote at the election for the west ward of Bellefonte held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did he vote for Congress?—A. He did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Were you present when he voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he vote on age or tax?—A. On age.

Q. Did he make out the usual affidavits of those voting on age, and who was the witness?—A. He did make out the usual affidavits, and I was the witness.

Q. What was done with the affidavits?—A. They were given to the election-board with the tickets.

Q. Was Roland Craig a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Where was he born?—A. He was born in Montour County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What was his age on November 5, 1878?—A. Between twenty-one and twenty-two years.

Q. How do you know he voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I gave him his ticket and saw him vote it.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. How do you know that Roland Craig was between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years from the 5th of November last?—A. By a general history or belief of the family and his own knowledge of the fact.

Q. Do you know when he was born?—A. I don't know the date he was born.

Q. What was he doing in Bellefonte?—A. He was working for Mr. Glenn and Mr. Garbrick part of the time, and with myself, and part of the time we were out of work.

Q. Is Roland Craig in good health now?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did he go to Montour County?—A. Some time in January, 1879.

Q. Did you read his ticket before you gave it to him and before he voted?—A. I read the ticket before he voted it and before I gave it to him; it was the same ticket he voted.

Q. Where did you give him the ticket?—A. I think I gave him the ticket at the window of the election-poll.

R. S. CRAIG.

DEPOSITION OF WALTER S. STEWART.

Examined by D. S. KELLER:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. I am now between the — of twenty-two and twenty-three years. I was born in Burnside Township, Centre County, on the 16th day of November, 1857, and I have lived there ever since.

Q. What is your father's name?—A. Dr. M. Stewart.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I am.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Burnside Township held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. How did you vote?—A. On age.

Q. Were you sworn to your age and residence by the election board before voting?—A. I was.

Q. Who was present to vouch for you?—A. My father was present and vouched for me.

W. S. STEWART.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN B. NEWCOMER.

Examined by D. S. KELLER:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is fifty-eight years, and my residence is Burnside Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there about twenty years continuously, except the year 1874.

Q. Are you a voter in Burnside Township?—A. I am.

Q. Do you know William Craft, Walter S. Stewart, George Rosencranz, and John C. T. Barger, and how long have you known them?—A. I have known the first three since childhood, and have known Barger some three or four years or more, and know him intimately.

Q. Where have these young men lived?—A. They all live in Burnside Township; the first three were born there, and Barger, to the best of my knowledge, was born in Snow Shoe Township, Centre County.

Q. Did these young men vote at the election held for Burnside Township November 5, 1878?—A. They did.

Q. What was the age of William Craft on November 5, 1878?—A. Between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years.

Q. What was the age of John C. T. Barger on November 5, 1878?—A. Between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years.

Q. What was the age of George Rosencrans on November 5, 1878?—A. I am not certain about his age.

Q. Were Craft and Barger sworn to their ages and residences by the election board?—A. They were.

Q. Did they produce witnesses?—A. They did, their respective fathers.

Q. What position did you hold on the election board?—A. I was a clerk, and, as a justice of the peace qualified the voters.

Q. Did you personally know William Craft and John C. T. Barger to be qualified voters of Burnside Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and citizens of the United States and of this State?—A. I did.

Q. To what political party did Craft and Barger belong?—A. Craft belonged to the Republican party, Barger belonged to the Greenback party, at that election.

Q. For whom did they vote for Congress?—A. They voted for Seth H. Yocum; so they told me that they were going to vote for him, and they have also told me since the election that they voted for him.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question and the answer because it is not competent for the witness to testify to what another person or persons may have told him about their votes, the evidence being mere hearsay and secondary, the ticket itself being the best evidence, or the parties themselves can be called to testify for themselves how they voted.)

Q. How did the total vote for Congress in Burnside Township compare with the total of the poll-list?—A. To the best of my knowledge the total for Congress was equal to the poll-list. There may of been a difference of a vote or two, but am not certain.

Q. What business are Craft and Rosencrans engaged in this spring?—A. Craft is working for his father, rafting; Rosencrans is driving logs for Boak, George R.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. Where is Mr. Barger?—A. He is working for George R. Boak.

Q. Craft and Barger are both well, and living in Burnside Township, so far as you know to-day, are they not?—A. Craft is well, and living in Burnside Township to-day to the best of my knowledge, and John C. T. Barger is living in Burnside Township; he has his home there; I can't say that he is home to-day.

Q. How do you fix the ages of Craft and Barger between 21 and 22 years on the 5th day of November last?—A. By their oaths taken before me on the day of election, and their respective fathers' assertions at the time.

Q. Did these young men swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit, setting forth their qualifications to vote on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. They did not; the board was not aware that it was necessary; we were burnt out and had no copy of the election laws to guide us.

Q. Did their respective fathers make and sign a partly written and partly printed affidavit, setting forth the residence and other qualifications of the right of these young men to vote?—A. They did not, for the same reasons that the voters themselves did not make affidavit.

Q. Were the blank election papers that were furnished by the commissioners of Centre County to the election board of Burnside Township burned?—A. All that were sealed up in the ballot-box were. Those that were received for holding the election of November 5, 1878, were not burned.

Q. When was the ballot-box burned?—A. Some time between the election of 1877 and 1878.

Q. When you held the election on the 5th of November, 1878, had you not all the blanks that are furnished to election boards by the county commissioners?—A. We may of had them, but I had so much to do with preparing the papers for opening the election that I had not time to examine them.

Q. Were there not blank affidavits furnished to the election board of Burnside Township, by the commissioners of Centre County, to be used by nonregistered voters, and persons voting on age, as to their right to vote at that election?—A. I cannot say whether the commissioners furnished any at that election or not. I opened the papers and do not remember seeing any such papers among them.

Q. All you know about for whom Wm. Craft and Jno. C. T. Barger voted is what they told you, is it?—A. Yes, sir; and what others told me.

Q. Were the election board sworn?—A. They were.

Q. Explain how they were sworn.—A. To the best of my recollection the minority inspector swore the judge and the judge swore the rest of the officers.

Redirect examination by D. S. KELLER:

Q. Was there a Democrat on the election board?—A. Yes, sir; three Democrats: John Thomas, judge; Jacob Hinkston, inspector; and David Mullholland, clerk.

Q. Was the whole board satisfied as to the qualifications to the non-registered voters in Burnside Township?—A. They were.

DEPOSITION OF CHARLES W. GRAY.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 21 years. I was 21 years old on 22d August, 1878; I have lived in Patton Township all my life-time.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Patton Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in Patton Township on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

CHARLES W. GRAY.

DEPOSITION OF W. H. CRISSMAN.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is 28 years, and my residence Snow Shoe Township, and have lived there since 1860.

Q. Are you acquainted with Frank Oswalt?—A. I am.

Q. How long have you known him?—A. Ever since I have lived there.

Q. Do you know where he was born?—A. I think he was born in Snow Shoe Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where does he reside?—A. He resides in Snow Shoe Township, and has for a number of years.

Q. Where is he at the present time?—A. I do not know; he went over to Beech Creek to work.

Q. Did he vote at the election held in Snow Shoe Township held on the 5th of November last?—A. He did.

Q. Did he vote on age?—A. He did.

Q. Was he qualified by the election board? And, if so, just state how.—A. He was sworn, and Samuel Y. Lucas was witness. Samuel Y. Lucas brought him into the room and had him sworn.

Q. What was his age at the time of the election?—A. He was between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years.

Q. For whom did he vote for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because the evidence of his vote given by this witness on Congress is based upon hearsay and such other information as is not evidence as to how Mr. Oswalt voted for Congress, Mr. Oswalt's evidence being the best evidence while this is only secondary.)

A. He told me he voted the Greenback ticket, and for Yocum for Congress.

Q. Were you a member of the election board that held and conducted the election in Snow Shoe Township on the 5th of November last; and, if so, in what capacity did you serve?—A. I was one of the clerks of that election.

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE:

Q. On what day did Mr. Oswalt say he had been twenty-one years of age?—A. I don't remember; he was sworn to his age.

Q. By whom was the oath administered to him?—A. By D. H. Yeager, the judge of election.

Q. Did D. H. Yeager, the judge of the election, swear him to his age, or did Mr. Oswalt make out the proper affidavit, which was partly written and partly printed, and swear to it?—A. D. H. Yeager swore him to his age; I saw no papers made out.

Q. Did Samuel Y. Lucas, or any other citizen of Snow Shoe Township, sign an affidavit in connection with Mr. Oswalt as to his residence?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. When did you see Mr. Oswalt last?—A. I saw him yesterday or day before; I don't remember.

Q. Where did you see him?—A. In Snow Shoe, Centre County.

Q. Where is he to-day?—A. I do not know.

Q. When did he leave Snow Shoe?—A. I do not know.

Q. Do you know whether Mr. Oswalt has left Snow Shoe Township at all?—A. That I don't know.

Q. Did he say to you yesterday or day before that he would leave?—A. He did not.

W. H. CRISSMAN.

DEPOSITION OF W. E. RUMBERGER.

Examined by D. S. KELLER:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, twenty-three years old in December, 1878; and my residence is Patton Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there ever since he was a small boy.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I am, and was born in Half Moon Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which was assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I did pay a State and county tax to Geo. W. F. Gray, collector of Patton Township, August, 1877.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for Patton Township on November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Did you read your ticket before voting?—A. I did.

W. E. RUMBERGER.

DEPOSITION OF HENRY HEBBERN YARNELL.

Examined by D. S. KELLER:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, thirty-four years, and my residence Taylor Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there since the second of last September.

Q. How long have you lived in Centre County, Pennsylvania?—A. I have lived in Centre County ever since I was born, except about five years; that was from the fall of 1862 to the summer of 1865, while I was in the Army; then, in 1871, I moved to Blair County, Pennsylvania, and moved back to Centre County in 1873, and have lived in Centre ever since.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I am.

Q. Are you registered in the sixty-day list for Taylor Township; and, if so, under what name?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question; the registry list is the best evidence.)

A. I am, under the name of "Heb Arnold," a mistake in the assessor. I gave him my name on the day that I moved into the township, and he said he would attend to having me assessed, and put it on the sixty-day list in that way.

Q. Is there any other man in Taylor Township by the name of "Heb Arnold?"—A. No, sir; there is not. On the day of the election, when I was going to vote, I went to the window and gave in my name; my name is on the list as "Heb Arnold." Mr. Beckwith, the assessor, was there at the time, and said it was a mistake of his in not knowing how to spell my name.

Q. How do you generally write your name?—A. I generally write my name "H. H. Yarnell."

Q. How are you generally called?—A. At home I go by the name of Hepbern, and is frequently shortened to "Heb" and "Teb."

Q. Had you within two years prior to November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid one month before November 5, 1878?—A. On the 5th day of October, 1878, I paid my State and county tax to Samuel Hoover, collector of Taylor Township, for 1878.

Q. Was this same tax which Beckwith assessed to you on the 2d or 3d day of September, 1873?—A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Taylor Township held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Do you know Heb Blowers?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he vote at the election for Taylor Township held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes sir.,

Q. For whom did he vote for Congress?—A. He told me he voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question and answer above given because it is hearsay entirely and therefore not evidence.)

Cross-examined by W. C. HEINLE:

Q. How many days did you live in Taylor Township before you saw Beckwith, the assessor?—A. I saw him the same day I voted.

Q. Do you know every man in Taylor Township?—A. I know the voters of Taylor Township by seeing the list; I do not know every man personally.

Q. Have you ever lived in Taylor Township before you moved there this last time?—A. I have never lived there, but I have worked there.

Q. When, and how long, did you work there?—A. I commenced working there in July, 1870, and worked there until some time in September that same year; that is all that I worked there until I moved there.

Q. Could there be a man living in Taylor Township by the name of "Heb Arnold" and you not know it?—A. There could be at this time, but not on the assessor's list and me voting at the time and him rectifying the mistake when I went to vote.

Q. How do you know that no one by the name of "Heb Arnold" lived in Taylor Township on November 5, 1878?—A. By the list of the voters of the township. I got a list of the voters of the township the third week that I lived there.

Q. Was your name on that list?—A. My name was not on the assessor's list; this was the spring list that I got.

Q. On what list was your name?—A. My name was put on the sixty-day list.

Q. Did you vote on your name on the sixty-day list?—A. When I came to the window to vote, and giving my correct name, it not being on the sixty-day list the way I gave it in at the window, I told them that Mr. Beckweth said he would put me on the sixty-day list, and he was there, the man who wrote the name, and he, the assessor, said I was the man who was assessed for that name.

Q. Did you vote on that name?—A. I voted for that name.

Q. When did you see Heb Blowers?—A. On the day of the election.

Q. Before or after he voted?—A. Before and after, both.

Q. What time during the day did he vote?—A. In the afternoon.

Q. When did you see him since?—A. The last time I saw him was on the 6th day of this month.

Q. Did you ask him who he voted for Congress?—A. I had tickets at the election with Mr. Yocum's name on; I offered him one of them to put over Curtin's name; I thought it would look better—I mean a Yocum paster—and he told me that he would vote the solid Democratic ticket with A. G. Curtin's name for Congress. After he had voted I went to him and asked him if he had voted for A. G. Curtin for Congress and he said he had.

H. H. YARNELL.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN HEVERLY.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your name, age, and residence.—Answer. My name is John Heverly; my age, thirty-seven years; and my residence is Howard Borough, Centre County, and have lived there continuously for the last thirty-five years; continuously excepting three years I was in the Army, from the fall of 1861 to the fall of 1864.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I was born in the State of Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Howard Borough held November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined by H. C. HEINLE:

Q. To whom did you pay your State and county tax for 1878?—A. I don't know whether it was to Jackson Gardner or Conrad Deihl.

Q. When did you pay it?—A. I could not just say at what time I paid it.

Q. Was it thirty days before the November election, last?—A. It was.
JOHN HEVERLY.

DEPOSITION OF JOSEPH ROYER.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State age and residence.—Answer. My age is forty-six years, and my residence is Howard Borough, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you acquainted with Frank Confer, of Howard Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he vote at the election for Howard Township held November 5, 1878?—A. He told me so.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question and answer because it is hearsay, therefore not evidence in this case.)

Q. For whom did Frank Confer vote for Congress at that election?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because the witness testifies only as to how Confer voted from hearsay, which is not evidence.)

A. He told me he voted for A. G. Curtin for Congress.

JOSEPH ROYER.

Adjourned to meet at 8½ o'clock a. m. on Friday, March 28, A. D. 1879.

Met, as per adjournment, at 8½ o'clock a. m., Friday, March 28, A. D. 1879.

John G. Love, esq., appears as counsel for contestee, and W. J. Kealsh, esq., as counsel for contestant.

DEPOSITION OF ABRAHAM BAIRD.

Examined by J. G. LOVE:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, as near as I can tell, thirty-seven years; my residence, Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, and one month before the election held on the 5th of November last, which was assessed two months prior thereto?—A. I don't think I have.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Spring Township held on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted for A. G. Curtin.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax to A. J. Swartz, collector of State and county tax for Spring Township, for the year 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax to Henry J. Tibins, collector of Spring Township, for the year 1877?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax to Jno. S. Noll, collector of Spring Township, for the year 1876?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long have you been living in Spring Township?—A. Between eight and nine years.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above testimony, because the witness cannot now be examined as to his vote, his evidence not being the best evidence, and because the presumption is that the election board did their duty and received the witness's vote in a legal manner.)

ABRAHAM BAIRD.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN HOUTS.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. Where were you born?—Answer. In George's Valley, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What is your age?—A. I was twenty-two years old the 9th March, 1879.

Q. Where did you live on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Patton Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long immediately before that time did you live there?—A. About six months.

Q. Where did you live before you came to Patton Township?—A. From Ferguson Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long had you lived in Ferguson Township?—A. About three months.

Q. Did you vote at the election for Patton Township held November 5th, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote at that election, and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

JOHN HOUTS.

DEPOSITION OF JAMES GLASGOW.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age, thirty years, and my residence Ferguson Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have resided there for the last six years, about.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I was born at Lewistown, Pennsylvania.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month before November 5, 1878, and which had been assessed at least two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election held for Ferguson Township held for November, 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

JAMES GLASGOW.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN HALE ROSS.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. My age is twenty-one years on the 12th day of last July, 1878, and I reside in Ferguson

Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there all my life.

Q. Were you a citizen of the commonwealth and of the State of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. Did you vote on age at the election for Ferguson Township held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether or not you were called into the election-room to certify to your age?—A. I was.

Q. Who was also called into the room to testify to your age before the election board?—A. My father was.

Q. Was your father sworn as to your age?—A. No, sir.

Q. State whether or not any of the members of the election board testified to your age.—A. There was.

Q. Which one was it?—A. James Miller, constable.

Q. Did you sign any written or printed affidavits about your age?—A. No, sir.

Q. Whom did you vote for for Congress?—A. For Mr. Yocum.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. Did you or your father, or any one else, make a partly written and partly printed or a written or printed affidavit to your residence, your age, and other qualifications of your right to vote at the election held on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, sir; I did not sign, or any one else. I was not requested to sign any papers.

Q. You say you certified to your age. What do you mean by that?—A. I mean that I was called before the board, and stated my age to them.

Redirect examination by D. H. HASTINGS:

Q. Was your father along with you before the board, and was he questioned about your age?—A. He was.

Q. Did the election board require either yourself or your father to swear to your age?—A. No, sir; they did not.

Q. Did James Miller, the constable, in the presence of the board, state in your presence to the board that he knew you to be of age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has it been the custom in your township to require persons voting on age, when they come before the board in company with their father, to be sworn as to their age?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because the witness, never having cast more than one vote, and that on the 5th of November, 1878, is not competent to testify what has been the custom of the election board of that district.)

A. It was not required that day while I was there.

J. H. ROSS.

DEPOSITION OF A. R. MARKEL.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence.—Answer. I was born September 8, 1857, in Ferguson Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there ever since.

Q. Did you vote on age at the election for Ferguson Township, held on November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Were you required by the election board to swear and subscribe to any affidavit as to your age, residence, and other qualifications as a voter?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you interrogated by the board as to your qualifications as a voter?—A. No, sir; I was asked no question.

Q. State whether or not your father was with you at the time you voted?—A. He was.

Q. Was he interrogated by the election board as to your qualifications as a voter?—A. He was.

Q. With how many of the members of that election board were you personally acquainted?—A. I was acquainted with all of them.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined by D. F. FORTNEY.

Q. Do you know whether or not your name was on the registry list for the eastern precinct of Ferguson Township?—A. I do not know as it was.

A. R. MARKEL.

DEPOSITION OF P. F. BOTTORF.

Examined by D. H. HASTINGS:

Question. State your age and residence?—Answer. My age, 37 years; my residence is Ferguson Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania; and have lived there for the last 33 years, except the year 1870, when I was out of the county.

Q. Are you acquainted with James Archey and W. H. Miller?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where do they reside?—A. In Ferguson Township.

Q. Did they vote at the election for Ferguson Township held November 5, 1878?—A. They told me they did.

Q. At that election, for whom did they vote for Congress?—A. For A. G. Curtin.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question and answer, because the testimony is hearsay, therefore irrelevant.)

Cross examined by D. F. FORTNEY:

Q. Is your knowledge as to whom the two persons named voted for for Congress based on what they have told you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You did not see either of them vote or their tickets, before they voted on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, I did not see their tickets.

Q. Is A. G. Archey and Wm. H. Miller well, and still living in Ferguson Township, so far as you know?—A. Mr. Archey is well and is teaching school in Ferguson Township to-day. Mr. Miller is living in Ferguson Township, but he is sick with consumption and is not able to come out of the house.

P. F. BOTTORF.

Centre County, ss :

I, William E. Irwin, a notary public, in and for the said State and county, before whom the depositions of the above-named witnesses were taken, do hereby certify that said witnesses were duly qualified and examined at the times and places as stated in the caption to these depositions, and subscribed their names to their respective depositions in my presence; and that the questions and answers in said depositions were taken down by me truly and correctly as they fell from the lips of the respective counsel and witnesses; and I do further certify that the erasures and interlineations made thereon, and particularly set forth on pages 11, 15, 26, 41, 62, 72, 134, 148, 154, 189, 219, 226, 234, 257, 273, 274, 281, 313, 324, 335, 359, and 406, were made by me on the lines and pages thereon noted, before the respective depositions in which they were made were signed by the witnesses.

Witness my hand and seal this 15th day of April, A. D. 1879.

WM. E. IRWIN,

Notary Public.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

In the matter of the contested election in the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania for a seat to represent said district in the House of Representatives of the United States of America in the Forty-sixth Congress.

Depositions of witnesses taken before William Radebaugh, a notary public of the borough of Clearfield, in the county of Clearfield, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, at the court-house in the borough of Clearfield, on the part of Seth H. Yocum, contestee, on the 20th day of February, 1879, at 3.20 p. m.

ELI BLOOM affirmed.

D. L. Kochs and J. F. Snyder, of counsel for contestant, protest against the taking of testimony of this witness before William Radebaugh, notary public, or any other person or persons on this twentieth day of February, 1879, for the reason that no notice, as required by the act of Congress, has been issued upon the contestant or upon any of his counsel that the testimony of this witness now sworn or any other witness would be taken before the said notary on this day mentioned; that the only notice served for taking testimony on this day was a notice that testimony would be taken before John W. Wrigley, a notary public, at the court-house in the borough of Clearfield on the 20th, 21st, 22d, and 24th days of February, 1879, and that the only notice that testimony would be taken in the contest of the right of Seth H. Yocum to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, and to be taken before William Radebaugh, notary public, was served on the 18th or 19th of February, 1879, in which the time fixed was named as of the 24th of February, 1879; that contestant has not had sufficient time to appear by himself or to direct and consult with his counsel, nor is the time such as is required by the act of Congress governing and regulating the taking of testimony in contestant rights to seats in the United States Congress.

Question. Are you the prothonotary of Clearfield County; and, if so, how long have you held that office?—A. I am the prothonotary, and have held the office four years and one month.

Q. Are the returns for the general election of November 5, 1878, for the districts of Clearfield County filed in your office?—A. They are.

Q. Have you the returns for the districts of Newburg Borough, Walaceton Borough, Bell, Boggs, Chest, Knox, and Morris Townships before you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether you were requested to prepare copies of the oaths filed by the officers and clerks who conducted the said election in the said districts?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were copies of the said oaths, in all the said districts in which oaths had been returned, prepared under your direction, and by whom were they so prepared?—A. They were prepared by my son, A. M. Bloom.

Q. Is your son your deputy, and how long has he been acting in that capacity?—A. It is about three years and four months he has been acting as such.

Q. State whether you have before you the copies of oaths so prepared by him, and do you believe them to be correct copies?—A. I have the copies before me, and I believe they are correct to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Are they certified by you?—A. They are.

Q. Are they copies of oaths for all the districts named, or are no oaths returned or on file for any of the districts named?—A. Oaths have been copied for all the districts named, except Chest Township, for which no oaths were returned and none are on file.

Q. Have you had prepared by A. M. Bloom, deputy, a certificate that there are no oaths on file for Chest Township?—A. I did.

Q. Have you that certificate before you with the copies of the oaths, and is it certified by you?—A. I have, and it is.

(Papers marked Copy of oaths for Newburg Borough, Exhibit A; Wallaceton Borough, Exhibit B; Bell Township, Exhibit C; Chest Township, certificate of no oaths, Exhibit D; copies of oaths for Knox Township, Exhibit E; Morris Township, Exhibit F; Boggs Township, Exhibit G.)

Cross-examined :

(Counsel for contestant, reserving expressly all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony before the committee who shall hear the cause, for the reason stated in the objection to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Did you do anything in the preparation of the copies of the oaths of the election officers in the several named districts except to direct your deputy, A. M. Bloom, to make them?—A. Not any.

Q. Did you examine, read, and compare the copies to which your attention has been called by the counsel for Mr. Yocum?—A. Only partially.

And further saith not.

A. M. BLOOM sworn.

Counsel for contestant protest against the taking of the testimony of this witness before William Radebaugh, notary public, or any other person or persons, on this the 20th day of February, 1879, for the reason that no notice, as required by the act of Congress, has been served upon the contestant or upon any of his counsel that the testimony of this witness now sworn, or any other witness, would be taken before the said notary on this day mentioned; that the only notice served for taking testimony on this day was a notice that testimony would be taken before John W. Wrigley, a notary public, at the court-house, in the borough of Clearfield, on the 20th, 21st, 22d, and 24th days of February, 1879, and that the only notice that testimony would be taken in the contest of the right of Seth H. Yocum to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, and to be taken before William Radebaugh, notary public, was served on the 18th or 19th of February, 1879, in which the time fixed was named as of the 24th February, 1879; that contestant has not had sufficient time to appear by himself or to direct and consult with his counsel, nor is the time such as is required by the act of Congress governing and regulating the taking of testimony in contested rights to seats in the United States Congress.

Question. Are you the deputy of Eli Bloom, the prothonotary of Clearfield County, and how long have you held that position?—Answer. I am the deputy, and have held the position for something over three years.

Q. Have you been present during your father's examination to-day?—
A. Yes, sir.

Q. As such deputy, have you before you the official returns of the general election of November 5, 1878, for the following election districts in Clearfield County: Newburg and Wallaceton Boroughs; Bell, Boggs, Chest, Knox, and Morris Townships?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you, under your father's direction, made and compared copies of the oaths returned of the election officers and clerks for said districts who conducted said election?—A. I compared them all.

Q. Who made them?—A. My brother, J. M. Bloom, made all but one, which was Newburg Borough. I wrote the certificates to each of them and my father signed them.

Q. Is your brother, J. M. Bloom, also a deputy prothonotary of your father; and, if so, how long has he held that position?—A. He is deputy prothonotary, but I don't know how long he has acted as such. It is something over a year.

Q. Did he write out these copies in the prothonotary's office, and from the originals on file there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you compare these copies with the originals?—A. I had both the original and copy before me.

Q. Were you careful in making this comparison, and did you or not compare them word by word?—A. I was careful in comparing them. I compared the written matter word for word. I didn't think it was necessary to go over the printed matter word for word. It was printed in blank form, and was struck off at the same time as the original, I suppose.

Q. Are you satisfied from the comparison you made that these copies are correct word for word with the originals on file in the prothonotary's office?—A. I am.

Q. Where did you get the blanks upon which these copies were made out?—A. At the commissioners' office.

Q. Are they or not, in so far as the printed part is concerned, precisely the same as those sent out by them to the election officers and which are afterwards returned by the election officers with the election returns?

(Objected to in so far as witness' knowledge of what papers are sent out by the commissioners to election officers is derived from hearsay, and that the witness' testimony in answer to the question propounded it is asked to be confined to what the witness knows and can answer from his own knowledge.)

A. I believe they are.

Q. Did you or not compare the copies of oaths and other returns offered in evidence by the contestant in this case?—A. I did.

Q. Will you state whether you find oaths returned or on file for each of the election districts named; and if not, for which of the townships named were no oaths returned or on file?—A. I find oaths returned and on file for each township named, except Chest Township, in which there are no oaths on file.

Q. Do you find oaths returned for each of the election districts named, except Chest Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you examined carefully among the proper papers in the office to see if there are oaths returned or on file for Chest Township, and what do you find?—A. I have examined carefully, and I find there are none.

Q. (Papers marked Exhibits A, B, C, D, E, F, G shown witness.) Are these the copies compared by you of the oaths of the election officers and clerks on file and the certificate of no oaths referred to?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are these papers duly certified under the seal of the court?—A. They are.

(Counsel for contestant, expressly reserving all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony before the committee who shall hear the cause for the reason stated in the objection to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Were or were not the envelopes containing the papers returned by the election officers to the prothonotary's office, and relating to the election held on the 5th of November, 1878, handled by persons of both parties before the meeting of the return judges at Clearfield for that election?—A. I think not.

Q. Were not the envelopes containing the election papers in many instances opened and looked at by different persons before the returns were actually counted by the return judges?—A. I think not.

Q. Were you present in the meeting of return judges when the envelope containing the election papers for Chest Township were opened?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you say whether or not the envelope for Chest Township had in it the oaths of the election officers when it was opened at the meeting of return judges?—A. I cannot say.

Q. Do I understand, then, your testimony to be that there is not now any oaths of election officers for Chest Township on file in the prothonotary's office?—A. That's my testimony.

Q. Do you testify, then, that no oaths for election officers in Chest Township for the election of November, 1878, ever were returned?—A. No; I testify that they are not on file. I have no knowledge of them having been returned.

Q. How long after the return of the election papers for said township was it until you discovered that there were no oaths of election officers among the papers for said township, on file?—A. Not until last week some time.

Q. Was it not more than three months after the papers were returned until your attention was called to this?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had not these papers passed through the hands of those who opened, examined the papers at the meeting of return-judges, as well as the counsel for both parties, before you discovered that the oaths in said township were not on file?—A. I believe they had.

Q. Did you ever assist in sending out blanks from the commissioners' office to election officers?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not there is any difference between the forms that were sent to election officers prior to 1874 and those sent out now?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Are these forms those in use now for sending out from the commissioners' office to the election boards?—A. I believe they are.

(Counsel for contestee offers the following papers, to which witness' testimony relates, to wit: Exhibits A, B, C, D, E, F, G.

Objected to, for the reason that the certificate does not correspond to the testimony of the witness who certifies the same.)

Q. State whether you recollect the day upon which the court adjourned at January term, 1879.—A. It was on Saturday; I don't remember the date.

Q. Do you remember whether it was the last Saturday of the month?—

A. It was about the 25th or 26th of January, 1879.

Q. Do you remember that Thomas H. Murray, of counsel for contestee, on the day preceding the adjournment of that court sine die, presented to the court a petition in behalf of the contestee, Hon. S. H. Yocum, asking an order to be made by the court for the preservation of the ballots cast at the general election of November 5, 1878, in the disputed districts to which this contest relates, in Clearfield County, on the ground that at the approaching district election for township and borough officers then to be held, and which was held on February 18, 1879; and were you not requested by Mr. Murray, at the time of presenting the petition, to mark it "Filed," and did you not mark it "Filed" before it was presented to the court?

(Objected to as leading, irrelevant, incompetent, immaterial, and contestant will ask the committee to strike out the testimony.)

A. I answer "Yes" to all of that.

Q. Do you recollect what attorney opposed that petition and the making of the order asked for?—A. I believe Mr. Wallace made some opposition to it.

Q. Do you or not mean Mr. Wallace, of the United States Senate, who is the partner of D. L. Kebs, esq., who conducts the cross-examination for the contestant, and is of counsel for contestant?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember any of the reasons urged by Mr. Wallace against this application?—A. There were several reasons. I believe one of them was it would be too expensive to furnish new ballot-boxes.

Q. Do you remember whether the court then made that or any other order relative to the preservation of the ballots?—A. I believe they did not, as I have no knowledge of his ever making any.

Q. Who was the presiding judge?—A. Hon. C. A. Mayer.

Q. Do you recollect what, if anything, Judge Mayer said in reference to taking the petition home with him and considering it before making any order?—A. I remember that he said he would take the petition home and look up the law on the subject; that he was not sure that he had the power to make such an order, or something to that effect.

Q. Do you remember when the petition was first presented to him, and before any opposition was made to it, he stated that he had no question or doubt as to his power to make the order?—A. No, sir; I don't remember that.

Q. Was it not after the opposition was made that he said he would take the petition home with him?—A. I believe it was after the attorneys had a say on both sides.

Q. Were you not sitting immediately in front of the judge's bench at your desk when the petition was presented and the arguments made?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where does Judge Mayer reside, and how far is it from this place?—A. He resides in Lock Haven. I don't know the distance.

Q. About how far is it, as near as you can tell?—A. I suppose it is about one hundred miles, as near as I can tell.

Q. Has Judge Mayer ever been here since then that you know of?—A. He has not, that I know of.

Q. Has that petition ever been returned, or any order made, that you know of?—A. It has not.

(Contestant objects to all the foregoing testimony as irrelevant, immaterial, and incompetent; that the questions are leading and improper; that he, by counsel, protests against the method of examination and the filtering of counsel's unsworn declarations through this witness; while the witness no doubt testifies to the best of his recollection truthfully, he has been unfairly led to say things as said and done by Mr. Wallace that were not said by him, and that the whole testimony will be asked to be stricken out.

Counsel for contestee objects and protests against the foregoing unsworn, unfair, and incorrect statement of counsel for contestant, made under the pretext of objection to the sworn testimony of a witness, and that witness having been previously called by contestant, and being an intelligent witness, and his testimony being reduced, questions and answers, to writing by the duly-qualified officer of the law.)

And further saith not.

FEBRUARY 21, 1879—8.50 a. m.

JOHN W. SHUGERT affirmed.

(Counsel for contestant protest against the taking of the testimony of this witness before William Radebaugh, notary public, or any other person or persons, on this the 21st day of February, 1879, for the reason that no notice, as required by the act of Congress, has been served upon the contestant or upon any of his counsel that the testimony of this witness now sworn or of any other witness would be taken before the said notary on this day mentioned; that the only notice served for taking testimony on this day was a notice that testimony would be taken before John W. Wrigley, a notary public, at the court-house, in the borough of Clearfield, on the 20th, 21st, 22d, and 24th days of February, 1879; and that the only notice that testimony would be taken in the contest of the right of Seth H. Yocum to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, and to be taken before William Radebaugh, notary public, was served on the 18th or 19th of February, 1879, in which the time fixed was named as of the 24th of February, 1879; that contestant has not had a sufficient time to appear by himself or to direct and consult with his counsel, nor is the time such as is required by the act of Congress governing and regulating the taking of testimony in contested rights to seats in the United States Congress.

Counsel for contestee protests against the foregoing statement, copied from two like statements already upon the record and put upon the record under pretext of an objection, for the reason that they are made for the evident purpose, and for the only purpose, of delaying the contestee, and for the further reason that the facts therein stated are untrue.

Counsel for contestant deny the truthfulness of the allegations made by counsel for contestee in the foregoing objection to the objection made by counsel for the contestant to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn, and deny that the same is made for the reason or purpose of delaying the contestee in the taking of the testimony on his part.)

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. I reside in Clearfield; my age is fifty-six the 12th day of this month.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?
—A. In the borough of Clearfield.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. A. G. Curtin.

Q. Had you within two years preceding said election paid a State or county tax which was paid at least one month and assessed at least two months before said election?—A. It was assessed over two months, but not paid over one month.

Q. How long before said election was it paid, and was it less than thirty days?—A. It was less than thirty days, and I can't swear to the time, as the tax was paid by a friend. The county has the money, I suppose, and it don't make any difference.

Q. About how long was it before the election, as near as you can fix it?—A. I don't think it was more than a day before the election; anyway, not longer than that; I don't think it was.

Q. Was that the only State or county tax which you had paid within two years preceding said election?—A. That was all that was against me; it was the 1876 and 1877 taxes.

Q. It was all you had paid, then, within two years preceding said election, was it not?—A. I was.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving expressly all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause, for the reason stated in objection to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. How long have you resided and voted in Clearfield Borough?—A. On the 29th day of March I will have resided in the borough thirty-eight years. I came in the spring of 1841. I voted the first time in 1844, thirty-four years last fall.

Q. Have you or have you not voted at the general elections ever since 1844, when you cast your first vote?—A. I have, every one, I believe.

Q. Did you or did you not pay your State and county taxes for the years 1874 or 1875, or either of them, after the 7th day of November, 1876?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your name upon the registry of voters at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I didn't see the registry at all. I didn't look for it, but suppose it was.

Q. Was your vote challenged at said election?—A. No; it was not.

Q. Was your vote challenged at any general election since you became a voter?—A. It never was.

Q. Were you born in the United States?—A. I was.

Q. Were you born in Pennsylvania?—A. I was born in Centre County, Pennsylvania. Upon thinking over the matter, I believe it was in Huntingdon County, near where Warriors' Mark now stands.

Q. Have you resided in Pennsylvania ever since?—A. I have. I never was out of the State in my life.

Q. Did you reside in Clearfield Borough more than sixty days before the general election of November 5, 1878, and immediately preceding the same?—A. I did.

And further saith not.

Mrs. ANNA MULLEN sworn.

(The counsel for contestant made same objections to taking the evidence of this witness as those made to the preceding witnesses.)

Question. Where do you reside, and how long have you resided there?—Answer. In Clearfield; fourteen years since I came here.

Q. Have you been keeping house here during that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is James Mullen your husband?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where does he reside, and with whom?—A. In Bellefonte, Centre County, with his father and mother.

Q. Is that his native place?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has he or not resided there and made that his home during the last ten years?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long is it since he has resided with you, or made his home with you in Clearfield?—A. About seven years.

Q. State how long it is since he has contributed to your support.—A. I can't say for the last ten years that he has contributed anything toward us, but when he would come here he would provide enough for himself. He has not contributed anything to my support for ten years.

Q. How often during the last seven years has he been to see you at your home?—A. I think it is three times.

Q. How long has he staid at those times?—A. I can't just remember how long, but the last time he was out he was two days at home.

Q. When was the last time he was to see you?—A. The day of the election.

Q. Was it the November election of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was he here before that?—A. A year before that, at the election; he generally comes to the election to vote.

Q. Do you remember whether he voted at the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because the question, unless the witness can answer of her own personal knowledge, must depend upon hearsay for her answer.)

A. He did.

Q. What did he say about his voting?—A. Why, he said he come to vote for Curtin, and that he had a fifty dollar check of Curtin's in his pocket; and that I had challenged his vote at the last election; that I couldn't do it this time, as his taxes was paid.

Q. Did he or not say, after he had voted, who he had voted for for Congress?—A. Yes, Andy Curtin, he said.

Q. Did he or not say that his only purpose in coming here was to vote?

(Objected to, because the witness cannot answer of her own knowledge what the purposes and intentions of her husband were in coming to Clearfield in November, 1878, and her answer therefore must depend upon hearsay. And it is further objected to, for the reason that her husband resides within the twentieth Congressional district, and is a competent witness, and his testimony can be had relative to his purposes and intentions in coming to Clearfield in November last, and on all matters tending to impeach his right to vote in Clearfield Borough.)

A. He said he came here for that purpose, and nothing else would have brought him here.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving expressly all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause, for the reason stated in the objection to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Were you and your husband, James Mullen, ever legally separated?—A. We were not.

Q. When your husband, James Mullen, came to Clearfield, did he or did he not make his home with you and your family?—A. No, he would stop at the hotel, and come up to see them; not that he cared anything for the family, as he always expressed himself.

Q. For how many years has he come to Clearfield to vote at the general elections?—A. I think it is only for the last three years that he made it a general point.

Q. On what day in 1878 did he come to Clearfield, and how long did he remain, and when did he go away?—A. I made a mistake; he came the day before the election; he came up that evening; I mean he sent for me, and I went down to the hotel, and he came up home; he came to my house—it ought to be, for he don't call it home—and went to the Shaw House on Wednesday evening, and staid till Friday, and went home to Bellefonte; he did not come back to the house after he left on Wednesday.

And further saith not.

JOHN KITTELBERGER sworn.

(Same objections as those made before.)

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age, and how long have you resided there?—Answer. In Clearfield; fifty three years; born in 1826; have resided here twelve years.

Q. Were you born in this country? And, if not, state if you are naturalized and when.—A. I was not born here; came to this country in 1847 from Germany; I was naturalized about 1855.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Voted in Clearfield Borough.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andy Curtin.

Q. Did you yourself pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election, which was paid at least thirty days before said election, and assessed at least sixty days before said election?—A. My tax was paid pretty near a year before the election; me and John McClellan, collector, had a settlement; I went down, and Billy McClellan, son of John McClellan; he owed me three dollars and thirty-five cents; finally John McClellan came home, and Billy said to him "Pap, have you any money; you owe John Kittelberger three dollars and thirty-five cents"; then John said, he had no money, but he said would pay it some of these days. Last summer I met John McClellan on the street, and I said to him that he should pay that tax of mine with that money that was coming to me.

Q. Was that or not the last time you spoke to him on the subject until within a few days of the election?—A. I talked to him about it the first time they had it in the paper that taxes had to be paid.

Q. Did you then request him to pay your taxes?—A. Yes; and he said all right; and I told him to mark my tax paid, and he said he would.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of those taxes?—A. I had one;

Al. Walters had it; he was judge of the election and looked at it. I don't know where it is now.

Q. When did you get that receipt?—A. John McClellan gave it to me on the day of the election.

Q. You don't know when John McClellan gave you credit for the amount of your taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you in any other way paid any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes; I paid my tax, all except in 1878; that is not paid yet.

Q. Your State and county tax for 1878 is not paid?—A. No.

Q. For what year's taxes was this arrangement with McClellan?—A. For 1877.

Q. When did you pay your State and county taxes for 1876, and to whom?—A. In 1876; I can't tell whether it was to David Wise or John McClellan.

Q. Was that the payment of tax upon which you voted at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes.

Q. How long had you paid that tax before the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I paid that in the summer of 1876.

Q. Have you paid or arranged any other State or county tax since then except the arrangement with John McClellan and Willie McClellan, which you have testified to in regard to your taxes of 1877?—A. I had no other taxes to arrange.

Q. Were all your State and county taxes for the years prior the year of 1876 paid before the summer of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Adjourned at 12 o'clock to 1 o'clock p. m. of this day.

Now, 1.20 o'clock p. m.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving expressly all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause, for the reason stated in the objection to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. You say, do you, that you were born in Germany, that you came to this country in 1847, and that you were naturalized about the year 1855?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you resided in the State of Pennsylvania during the whole year immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Clearfield Borough, Clearfield County, for more than two months immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was John McClellan a collector of State and county taxes for Clearfield Borough for the years 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, and 1877, or for either or any of these years?—A. Yes; for 1873 I know.

Q. When, that is, in what year did you have the settlement with him of which you have spoken in your direct examination?—A. I don't know exactly when that was.

Q. Was it or was it not in the year 1877?—A. I don't know whether it was or not; I don't think it was in 1877.

Q. When was it, to the best of your knowledge and recollection?—A. I don't know when it was.

Q. Was there or was there not a balance coming to you at said settlement of somewhat over three dollars?—A. There was three dollars and sixty-five cents. Since testifying this morning, I have consulted my book, and find this to be the balance coming to me, instead of three dollars and thirty-five cents, as testified in my direct examination.

Q. Did you at any time receive payment of this balance in any other way than by crediting the same upon your taxes, that is, State and county taxes which were in the hands of John McClellan, constable, for collection?—A. I never got anything; he paid that State and county tax for me.

Q. Did you at any time during 1878, and more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878, request John McClellan, constable and collector of State and county taxes for the year 1876, to pay your State and county taxes for you out of the money which he owed you as a balance unsettled?—A. Yes; I did.

Q. Have you, since you testified this morning, made diligent search for your tax-receipts?—A. Yes; I found one this morning, and I think I was mistaken when I said I paid my State and county taxes for 1877 to John McClellan.

Q. When you requested John McClellan to pay your State and county taxes for you out of the balance coming to you at settlement did he or did he not agree to do so?—A. Yes; he said he would.

Q. Did he say he would mark the same satisfied on the duplicate?—A. He said he was going to mark it paid.

Q. You said in your direct examination that you spoke to him in reference to the payment of your taxes about the time the first notice appeared in the papers that taxes should be paid by a certain time; did he tell you at this time that he had marked your taxes paid; and was this conversation more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to as incompetent, immaterial, and hearsay.)

A. It was the first time I saw him after the notice in the paper, and I told him that he should pay my taxes, and he said he marked them paid.

Q. Do you think it was more than one month before the general election of 1878 that he said to you that he had marked your taxes paid?

(Objected to as immaterial and improper; the witness should confine himself to facts, and not testify to his thoughts.)

A. Yes, it was more than a month.

Q. Did you, and do you now, allow him a credit in your account against him of the amount of State and county taxes which he paid for you, or marked paid on his duplicate, or agreed to mark paid on the same?—A. I did.

Q. Did he afterwards give you a receipt for the payment of the taxes which he agreed, more than one month before the said election, to pay or mark paid in his duplicate?—A. He gave me a receipt; yes.

Q. Have you found that receipt since your direct examination this morning?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For what year's taxes is it a receipt?—A. It is receipted for 1876.

Q. Will you let me see that receipt?—A. Yes.

Q. Will you read this receipt?—A. I can't read it.

(Witness produces receipt for notary to copy; and the following is a true copy of the same:)

“Received Clearfield, October 1st, 1878, of John Kittleberger, two and $\frac{27}{100}$ dollars in full, being his State & county tax for the year 1876, situated and assessed in Clearfield Borough.

“JOHN McCLELLAN,
“Collector.”

Q. Did you yourself receive this receipt, which has been copied by the notary, from John McClellan, collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. You got this receipt, did you, on the day of election, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you when you got it?—A. Down here at the court-house corner. A. A. Adams had challenged my vote before dinner, and I went home; about two or three o'clock Bill Tucker came up and told me to come down and vote; that John McClellan had said my taxes were paid.

Q. What time in the afternoon was it that you voted?—A. It was about two or three o'clock.

Q. When your vote was challenged, and you had gone home without voting, had you not abandoned the idea of voting on that day; and would you not have remained at home had Tucker not come after you?—A. I would have come down after a while if he hadn't of come up; I had some work to do.

Q. Did Tucker have this receipt with him?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did not or did Tucker tell you that he had seen McClellan, and that your taxes were arranged?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because the counsel for contestee assumes by his question that witness has stated that Tucker came for him and told him to come down and vote, that he had seen McClellan and that his taxes had been arranged, whilst witness did not so testify, but said that Tucker came to him and told him to come down and vote, that McClellan had said that his taxes were paid; and therefore the question is an improper one, because it has a tendency to mislead the witness in his answer.)

A. Tucker came up and told me to come down and vote.

Q. Did he say he had seen McClellan, and that your taxes were arranged?—A. He said that he heard that John McClellan said that his taxes were paid; he said that they had no right to challenge my vote.

Q. Did Tucker tell you to come down and vote?—A. He told me to come down and vote; he said, "You ought not to lose your vote." He was afraid I was not coming down.

Q. Did you come down with him?—A. No; I came down by myself.

Q. When you came down did John McClellan hand you this receipt?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you see John McClellan in the forenoon?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was he not present when you offered to vote?—A. No, sir; he was not there.

Q. When your vote was challenged did you not say in the presence of A. A. Adams, Al. Walters, and Jas. E. Watson, that you had not paid a State or county tax for two years?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Do you know who wrote this receipt?—A. No; I don't know who wrote it.

Q. At the time you settled with McClellan and made the arrangement to credit the ballance on your taxes what amount of taxes did he hold against you?—A. There it is on that receipt.

Q. Is this all the tax he held against you?—A. At that time it was.

Q. Have you not got with you a statement from him of taxes?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because the question does not state in particular for what years or to what time the statement asked for refers.)

A. Yes; I have got a paper here.

Q. Will you produce it?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever enter upon your books a credit for the amount of this tax receipt in your account against McClellan; and, if so, when was it?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that it is immaterial whether the witness has entered a credit upon his books or not, for the amount of the receipt which has been produced and copied into his testimony, in favor of John McClellan, collector, since he has testified in his cross-examination that he gave McClellan credit on the amount coming from him to witness more than one month preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, for the amount of said receipt.)

A. I gave him credit at the time I told him, when the tax was noticed in the paper; he said he would mark it paid, and that I should give him credit on my books, and I went right home and done it.

Q. Have you seen this entry in your book since you were here this forenoon?—A. No, sir; I didn't look. The credit's there, I know that.

Q. When did you last see that entry?—A. I often see it in making out bills.

Q. Do you know when it is dated?—A. No.

Q. Your State and county taxes now are all paid, are they not, except for the year 1878?—A. No, that ain't right; my 1877 taxes are not paid. I made a mistake this morning.

Q. Did anyone talk to you about this matter of your taxes and what your testimony would be, between the times you were examined this forenoon and your being called this afternoon?—A. Nobody talked to me about it; Mr. Snyder told me at noon to look up my tax receipts and bring them along this afternoon.

Recross-examined:

Q. Would you or would you not have come down to town on the day of the general election of 1878, and have endeavored the second time to get your vote in, even if Tucker had not come up after you and told you what he did in reference to your taxes?—A. I would have come down anyhow, if he had of come up or not.

Q. You had not, had you, given up the idea of voting when your vote was challenged by A. A. Adams and rejected by the election board?—A. No; I didn't give it up.

Q. Then Tucker's coming up to your house did not in any way change your intentions to vote at said election?—A. I had my mind made up that I was going to vote.

And further saith not.

JOHN KITTLEBERGER.

SILAS CAREY affirmed.

(Same objections made by counsel for contestant as before.)

Question. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—Answer. I voted in the borough of Clearfield.

Q. Did you vote at the polls of Clearfield Borough or Lawrence Township?—A. Clearfield Borough.

Q. You reside in that borough, do you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Had you yourself within two years preceding said election paid a State or county tax which was paid at least one month, and assessed at least two months, prior to said election?—A. Well, that would be pretty hard for me to answer. I was assessed two months or over.

Q. Can you yourself swear that you paid a State or county tax as long as one month and within two years of said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you pay that tax, and to whom?—A. I paid it in October to McGaughey.

Q. On what day of October?—A. I don't recollect just the day. I paid it in time to vote.

Q. Give the date as near as you can?—A. Near the first of October.

Q. Have you a receipt for said taxes?—A. I think I have at home.

Q. When did you get that receipt, and from whom?—A. I got that at the time I paid my taxes from McGaughey.

Q. Did you receive it direct from McGaughey?—A. I don't think I did. It was from the clerk; I don't know who it was.

Q. Did you pay the money yourself at that time?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because witness has already answered the question.)

A. I did.

Q. What was the amount of the taxes?—A. I think it was two dollars and something; I don't recollect exactly.

Q. Did you pay it by money or check?—A. Money.

(Counsel for contestant reserving expressly all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony of witness before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause or the reasons stated in the objection to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Were you born in the United States and in the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you resided in the State of Pennsylvania, and in the county of Clearfield, and in the borough of Clearfield in said State, for more than one year immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you or have you not, for a number of years past, voted in Clearfield Borough at the general elections?—A. I have.

Q. Did you or did you not, after November 7, 1876, and before the time at which you paid State and county taxes to McGaughey, pay other State and county taxes?—A. I did.

Q. Were these other taxes paid more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. They were paid one month before.

Q. When you say they were paid one month before the election of November 5, 1878, do you not refer to the taxes of which you testified in your direct examination?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were not the other State and county taxes which you paid paid before that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the McGaughey to whom you paid these taxes David McGaughey, the treasurer of Clearfield County?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. When did you pay those other State and county taxes, and to whom?—A. I paid them in 1877, to McGaughey, the treasurer.

Q. What time in 1877, as near as you can tell?—A. About the middle of September, I think.

And further saith not.

F. O. REED sworn.

(Same objections made by counsel for contestant.)

Question. Where did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—

* Answer. In Lawrence Township.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Curtin, I suppose.

Q. Don't you know who you voted for?—A. Certainly, I voted for Curtin for Congress.

Q. Did you not pay a State or county tax a few days before the said election to E. M. Shaw?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Was that not less than thirty days before said election?—A. Yes, sir; I think it was.

Q. Had you paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom had you paid any other State or county tax?—A. I paid John Smith, over the river there, my school tax.

Q. Did you pay taxes to anybody else within said two years?—A. Yes; I think I did.

Q. To whom?—A. I don't mind.

Q. When did you pay such other tax?—A. It was inside two years; it was my poor-tax.

Q. Did you pay any other taxes within the said two years than those you have mentioned?—A. My road-taxes; I worked them out. Those are all the taxes I know of.

Q. Then, the only taxes you have paid within two years preceding said election were the taxes paid E. M. Shaw a few days before the election, and the school-tax to Smith, and the poor-tax and road-tax, are they not?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the question is leading and framed in such a way as to mislead the witness, and is therefore an improper question.)

A. Yes.

Q. Where was E. M. Shaw when you paid him the taxes a few days before the election?—A. He was down the main street by Leonard's; somewhere along that street. He was coming up with a team, and I was going down.

Q. What were you doing at that time?—A. I was not doing anything that day.

Q. Did you pay those taxes in money?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. You speak of E. M. Shaw as the collector. Does he not sign his name R. E. Shaw?—A. Whatever is on the paper; isn't it R. E. Shaw?

Q. Is that the only tax you ever paid R. E. Shaw?—A. I paid him two taxes.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes; I did.

Q. Was not the first tax you paid R. E. Shaw paid before said election, and did you not vote on that tax?—A. I don't mind whether I did or not.

Q. Was not that the payment of tax on which you voted at that election?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. I don't mind.

Q. What is your best recollection as to whether it was or not?—A. I don't mind much about it.

Q. Can't you remember when you paid the first tax to R. E. Shaw?—A. When he was constable the first year, and I paid taxes to him last year.

Q. Did R. E. Shaw give you a receipt when you paid him the taxes a few days before the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did he give you a receipt?—A. This morning I got the receipt.

Q. Did any one speak to you about seeing him for a receipt?—A. Some one; I can't remember who.

Q. Were you present when Shaw wrote the receipt?—A. Yes; I was there at Mr. Leonard's house when he wrote it.

Q. Did you see him write it?—A. No; he went up stairs to write it.

Q. Is the receipt you handed the one you got from him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much tax was it you paid him a few days before the election?—A. I think it was thirty-seven cents.

Q. Was it not forty-two cents?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the question is leading, unfair, and calculated to deceive the witness and mislead him in his answer.)

A. Yes; I think it was forty-two cents, when I come to think about it.

Q. Did you ever see this paper before this morning, when Shaw gave it to you?—A. No, sir; I didn't see it until he handed it to me this morning.

Q. How many days was it before the election of November, 1878, that you paid him this forty-two cents tax?—A. I don't mind how many days; it wasn't more than about five or six days anyhow.

Adjourned at 6.15 to 7 o'clock p. m.

Now, 7 o'clock and 45 minutes p. m.

Q. Did you not pay but one State and county tax to R. E. Shaw, collector, before the one you paid a few days previous to the last general election?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the question is unfair and calculated to mislead the witness, and is leading, and is therefore an improper question.)

A. Yes.

(Counsel for contestant here objects and protests to the taking of the testimony of this witness relative to or concerning any fraud or illegality in the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the reason that in the answer of the contestee to the notice of contest for his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States as Representative of the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, no frauds or irregularities are alleged in the holding of the election in Lawrence Township, and no notice was given and no allegation made that fraudulent votes were cast for contestant in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. This objection is made to the testimony which has already been taken, and which may hereafter be taken, of the witness now sworn, and the contestant by his counsel reserves the right to move for the committee who shall hear the cause to strike out the testimony of the witness so far as the same relates to frauds and irregularities in the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township.)

Q. Did or did you not pay that tax to him some time during the Centennial in 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it or was it not paid prior to November of that year?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the question is leading.)

A. Yes.

Q. Are these the only two State and county taxes you paid to Collector Shaw?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because the question is leading, is therefore an improper question to ask the witness.)

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever pay any State or county taxes to any other person than Shaw?—A. Yes. I don't mind who was in before Shaw.

Q. Did or did you not pay them before you paid any taxes to Shaw?—A. Yes.

Q. Were you or were you not told by J. F. Snyder, esq., or any other person, to go and get a tax-receipt from Collector Shaw?—A. It was not Mr. Snyder, when I come to think about it.

Q. By whom were you so directed?

(Objected to for the reason that the question assumes that the witness was directed to go to Collector R. E. Shaw and get a tax-receipt, whilst the witness has not so testified.)

A. I say it was Mr. Krebs.

Q. Do you or do you not mean D. L. Krebs, esq., one of the counsel in this contest?—A. Yes.

Q. Is or is not the wife of Mr. Krebs related to Collector Shaw?

Counsel for contestee deem it just and proper, after the foregoing objection, to state that nothing more is intended by the question than to show the relationship between said counsel and the tax-collector, the same to be followed by proof that the receipt thus procured was dated back.

Counsel for contestant still objects to the question, for the reason that the relationship of the party named in the question is immaterial and irrelevant as evidence in the contest by Hon. A. G. Curtin for a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, and for the further reason that it is not attempted or intended by the statement of the counsel for contestee to show that the person named in the question had anything whatever to do in the procuring of the receipt mentioned, and the testimony of the witness is therefore immaterial and irrelevant, and based upon hearsay. This objection is made by J. F. Snyder, of counsel, in the absence of Mr. Krebs.)

A. If she is a Shaw, she is; of course the boy is related to her; I mean the collector, R. E. Shaw.

Q. Is or is not R. E. Shaw, the collector, a Democrat?—A. I think he is.

Q. Will you produce and read the receipt which you got from Collector Shaw this morning?—A. I will; but I can't read it.

Q. Will you hand it to the notary for the purpose of having it copied?—A. Yes.

(Witness produces the receipt, which reads on its face as follows:)

“LAWRENCE TOWNSHIP,
“Clearfield Co., Pa., Aug. 24th, 1878.

“Received of Otto Reed the sum of $\frac{42}{100}$ dollars, being his county and State taxes for the year 1878 on his property situate and assessed in Lawrence Township.

$0.42.

“R. E. SHAW,
“Collector.”

Endorsed on the back in lead pencil (as is the unprinted portion of the face of the receipt, also the figure 7 written over the figure 8 in the date, and the figure 6 written over the figure 7 in the 1877 in the body of the face of the receipt, changing it from 1877 to 1876, as the date is changed from 1878 to 1877) as follows:

"His State and county taxes for 1877 was paid the last of August or the first of Sept., 1878, which I am willing to be qualified to, but cannot remember the date.

"R. E. SHAW,
"Collector."

(Counsel for contestant reserving, expressly, all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause to the objections to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Were you or were you not born in the United States?—A. Yes.

Q. Were you or were you not born in Clearfield County in the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or did you not reside in Lawrence Township, in Clearfield County, and in the State of Pennsylvania, more than six months preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. When were you born?—A. In 1854.

Q. Where were you in the year 1875?—A. In Nebraska.

Q. When did you return to Pennsylvania, and were you in Nebraska when the general election of 1876, at which Tilden and Hayes were candidates for the Presidency of the United States, was held?—A. It was in 1875 sometime when I returned.

Q. In what month were you born?—A. On the 4th day of March.

Q. Did you or did you not in the year 1876 pay a State or county tax to Nathaniel Rishel, collector for Lawrence Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was not this the tax which you paid before the election of 1876, and upon which payment you voted at the election of November, 1876?—A. Yes.

Q. Then you were mistaken, were you not, when you said in your direct examination that you had paid R. E. Shaw during the Centennial in 1876 your State and county tax for the year 1876?—A. No; I paid it in 1876.

Q. What time in 1876 did you pay it to R. E. Shaw?—A. That's more than I can tell you.

Q. Was it before the first of September in 1876?—A. That's more than I can tell you.

Q. Did you or did you not pay to R. E. Shaw, during the year 1877, a State and county tax?—A. If he was constable I did.

Q. Do you not know that you paid him such taxes in 1877, and have you not told persons that you paid him taxes in that year?

(Objected to because the witness has already stated that he paid the taxes referred to in 1876 and not in 1877.

Counsel for contestant objects to the foregoing objection of counsel for contestee for the reason that the objection states that the witness testified that he had paid the taxes referred to in 1876 and not in 1877, while the question asked does not refer to taxes which witness testifies were paid in 1876, but simply asks whether or not he did not pay a State or county tax without mention of the year for which the same were assessed in 1877.)

A. No; I haven't told any person. No; I don't mind who I paid it to in 1877; I don't think he was constable in 1877.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in 1877?—A. I did.

Q. If R. E. Shaw was collector of State and county taxes for the year 1877, in Lawrence Township, then did you pay the same to him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you not remember that during the latter part of the summer of 1877 and during the month either of August or September, 1877, you paid R. E. Shaw 42 cents, or near that amount, your State and county taxes, for which you received no receipt at that time?—A. I do not.

Q. If R. E. Shaw would say that you paid him taxes at that time, would you rely more upon him and his saying that you had paid said taxes at said time more than you would upon your own recollection?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee because the question is unfair to the witness and is designed to mislead him, and also because it asks the witness to pass upon the credibility of R. E. Shaw, and to say whether R. E. Shaw's recollection is better than the recollection of the witness, and also because it is hearsay, and for the further reason that it is not cross-examination.)

A. Yes.

Q. Did you or did you not pay a State or county tax to R. E. Shaw, collector, in the year 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. Was or was not this tax paid to him about two weeks before the September term of court?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. Was it not paid to him before the September court of 1878.

(Objected to by counsel for contestee for the reason that the witness has already sworn that the taxes which he paid to R. E. Shaw in 1878 were paid a few days before the election of November 5, 1878, and not more than five or six days before said election.)

A. I don't remember whether it was or not.

Q. Was it not paid to him four or five weeks before the election, and was it not paid to him before the Dill Club was organized at Montgomery and Mount Joy school houses?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Then you cannot remember positively, can you, when you paid the taxes to R. E. Shaw in 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. If R. E. Shaw would swear that you paid your State and county taxes to him in August or September 1878, would you depend more upon what he would say as to the date when you paid said taxes than you would upon your own recollection, would you?

(Objected to for same reason as stated in objection to last question of like character.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you first speak to R. E. Shaw and ask him for a statement of the State and county taxes which you had paid him?—A. This morning.

Q. What time this morning?—A. About ten or eleven o'clock.

Q. Did he hand you the statement which you handed to the notary, and which was copied into your testimony?—A. Yes.

Q. Can you or can you not read the statement, and did you not read the statement which he gave you?—A. No, he read it to me this morning.

Q. Was what he read to you the truth, so far as it related to the payment of State and county taxes in the years 1877 and 1878, so far as you know?—A. Yes.

Q. When you asked R. E. Shaw for this statement, what did you say to him?—A. I told him I wanted a receipt for my taxes.

Q. Did you or did you not ask R. E. Shaw to date back your receipt?
—A. No, I didn't.

Q. What did R. E. Shaw say to you when he handed you this statement?—A. He said he did not recollect the day and date when I paid him.

Q. Did or did not he say that he did not recollect the day and date when you paid him your taxes last fall, that is, 1878?—A. He said he didn't recollect the day and date.

Q. Did he not make this remark to the taxes which you paid in 1878, that is, last fall?—A. No.

Adjourned at 11 o'clock p. m. to 8 a. m., February 22, 1878.

8 O'CLOCK 30 MINUTES A. M.

Question. Were not the taxes you paid R. E. Shaw in 1878 paid to him some time during the summer or early part of the fall.

(Objected to because the witness has already been asked whether these taxes were not paid about two weeks before the September court.)

Answer. Yes.

Q. Have you, since you were last on the stand, consulted with R. E. Shaw, and from what you learned from him and from your own recollection, do you believe that you paid him a State or county tax on or about August 24, 1877, as is stated in the receipt or statement given you yesterday by R. E. Shaw.

(Objected to as leading and designed to mislead the witness.)

A. Yes.

Q. Did you or did you not ask R. E. Shaw to give you a receipt for your State and county taxes, and to date it in such a way as to show as near as possible when you paid your taxes to him?—A. Yes.

Q. Did he then hand you the receipts or statements which you handed to the notary yesterday, and which was copied by him into your testimony?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. In your examination you said that Mr. Krebs told you to go to R. E. Shaw, collector, and get a receipt for your taxes; will you please state just what Mr. Krebs told you.—A. I was down in the sheriff's office. He told me I should go and see Mr. Shaw to get a receipt for my taxes.

Q. Were there not a number of other persons in the sheriff's office at the same time when Mr. Krebs made the remark to you?—A. Yes.

Q. Had or had not Mr. Gordon, counsel for contestee in this case, your receipt before you had shown it to any other person, and did you not go to him before you were called to testify and ask him for it?—A. When I first came to town here I seen Mr. Gordon and showed him the receipt.

Q. Did you not hand it to him and did he not have it for a short time?—A. Yes, sir; he had it for a few minutes. Mr. Snyder told me I was very foolish for giving it to him. He told me to go and get it, to get the receipt back. I went to him and asked him for the receipt, and he gave it to me. He had it but a few minutes; a very short time, anyhow.

Q. Did you not then put the receipt in your pocket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did either Mr. Krebs or J. F. Snyder have the receipt until it was handed to them yesterday while you were testifying?—A. I think Mr. Snyder had it when I came in the room.

Q. In answering the last question, did you not state that you handed the receipt, you thought, to Mr. Snyder when you came in this room to testify, and was the answer taken down by the notary a mistake?—A.

When I first came in the room, when I was sworn, I pulled my receipt out of my pocket and threw it over on the notary's table, and the notary copied it. I don't know who else read it. I don't mind.

Q. Did you not shortly after you came into the room yesterday afternoon hand the receipt to Mr. Murray or to Mr. Gordon, counsel for contestee, and did they not keep it until last night, when it was handed to you and by you handed to the notary and by him copied?—A. Well, I don't remember.

Q. Then neither Mr. Krebs nor Mr. Snyder had the receipt until after it was copied by the notary, had they?—A. I think I showed it to Mr. Snyder before it was copied.

Q. Mr. Snyder did not take it out of your presence, did he, until after it was copied?

(Objected to as leading, and also it is a question by J. F. Snyder as to the conduct of J. F. Snyder, the same individual, during this examination, instead of the cross-examination of the witness.)

A. I think I gave it to him, and he read it and handed it back to me.

Q. Did you see R. E. Shaw on the day of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I don't recollect whether I did or not.

Re-examined:

Q. You were subpoenaed on Mr. Yocum's side of the case, were you not?—A. Yes; I think I was.

Q. Did any of Mr. Yocum's counsel speak to you about this receipt before you got the receipt from R. E. Shaw and gave it to them?—A. There was nobody said anything to me about it, but Mr. Krebs told me I had better go and get a receipt.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you not say that you did not remember the exact time when you paid your taxes to Shaw?—A. Yes.

Q. Were you not asked by some one—either Mr. Krebs or some other person present, whether Shaw had given you a receipt at the time?—A. Yes.

Q. Are you sure that Mr. Krebs said you should get a receipt from Mr. Shaw or a statement of the time when Shaw said the taxes were paid?—A. Yes, sir; I think he said a receipt.

Re-re-examined:

Q. Did Mr. Krebs speak to you first or you to him on the subject of a receipt?—A. I think I spoke to him first, and showed him the receipt.

Q. I mean at the time he told you to see R. E. Shaw and get a receipt.—A. I think I spoke first to Mr. Krebs.

And further saith not.

J. MITCHELL REED sworn.

(Counsel for the contestant make same objections as before, and that the 22d day of February is a legal holiday; and for the further reason that under the act of general assembly of Pennsylvania of 2d of April, 1873, and under the supplements thereto, and under the general Statutes of the United States, the 22d day of February is declared to be a legal holiday, and counsel for contestant reserve the right to move the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause to strike out the testimony for the reason stated in the foregoing objections.)

Question. Are you the J. Mitchell Reed who was called as a witness and testified on behalf of the contestant some time during last week or the week before?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Since you before testified have you considered what State or county taxes you paid within two years immediately preceding the general election of 1878, and did you pay any such taxes other than those testified to?

(Counsel for the contestant objects to the witness further testifying since it is evident that the witness sworn is J. Mitchell Reed of Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, and the counsel for the contestant protest and object to the taking of the testimony of this witness relative to or concerning any fraud or illegality in the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the reason that in the answer of the contestee to the notice of contest for his right to a seat, by A. G. Curtin in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, no frauds are alleged in the holding of the election in Lawrence Township, and no notice was given, and no allegations made that fraudulent votes were cast in Lawrence Township in said county; and the contestant, by his counsel, reserve the right to move before the committee who shall hear the cause to strike out the testimony of the witness so far as the same relates to frauds and irregularities in the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township.)

A. Yes.

Q. To whom did you pay such tax and when, as near as you can tell?—A. To Launsberry; I don't recollect his first name; he was the son of Robert Launsberry who was collector for Lawrence Township, and he died.

Q. Did he die while he was collector of State and county taxes for Lawrence Township?—A. Well, I suppose he did; his son told me so.

Q. Did his son act as collector and collect the taxes on his duplicate after his death?—A. Yes.

Q. When did you pay the said State or county tax to him?—A. On the last of June or first of July, 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt for it?—A. I had a receipt but I have lost it; at least I can't find it.

Q. Were you personally acquainted with Collector Launsberry, who died?—A. No; I don't know that I ever saw him to know him but once.

Q. Are you sure his first name was Robert, or might you be mistaken as to that?—A. I am not sure only from hearsay.

Q. Might or might not his name have been David Launsberry?

(Objected to for the reason that it is leading and irrelevant and immaterial.)

A. It might have been; I don't know what his name was; I know it is Launsberry.

(Counsel for contestant, reserving expressly all legal exceptions to the foregoing testimony, and particularly reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony of witness before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause, for the reasons stated in the objections to the witness testifying, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. What do you now say was the name of Collector Launsberry?—A. I say it was Launsberry, but whether it was David, Samuel, Robert or William, I can't say.

Q. Were you personally acquainted with the man to whom you paid the taxes; if so, what was his name?—A. I am not personally acquainted with him; I don't know what his first name was.

Q. When did you last see the receipt?—A. I don't know that I ever saw it after the day he gave it to me.

Q. Are you certain it was for a State or county tax?—A. Yes.

Q. Why are you certain?—A. He showed me a letter from the commissioners' counsel stating that they must have the tax before the next court.

Q. Will you please give the name of the counsel to the commissioners, whose name was signed to the letter?—A. I think it was Mr. Test.

Q. For what year was this tax assessed?—A. I don't know what year. It might have been two or three years before that, that it was assessed.

Q. Was it not for 1873?—A. I don't know.

Q. When did Collector Launsberry die?

Q. What led you to consider this matter since you last testified on part of contestant, and what leads you now to swear that you paid these taxes in 1877, whilst in your testimony before John W. Wrigley, notary, you swore that you had not paid any other State or county taxes than the taxes you mentioned in your testimony before said notary?—A. When I left the court-house on the day I testified I met Nathaniel Rishel, and I spoke to him about taxes, asked him what year he was collector for State and county taxes, and he named over the last three collectors, Launsberry, Rishel, and Shaw. It was that that made me recollect that Launsberry was the collector. It escaped my memory when I testified in the court-house.

Q. Do you not now remember that it was in the year 1876, and during the Centennial, when the person representing himself to be the son of Collector Launsberry came to you and said that he was his father's administrator, and that he wanted you to pay some old taxes which his father had had against you for collection?—A. No, I don't recollect anything of the kind; but I do recollect that it was in 1877 he came to my house. That was the first time I knew that he was collector.

Q. Did you pay the money to young Launsberry for your taxes?—A. Yes.

Q. How long, if you know, after the duplicate is placed in the hands of the collector is it that his warrant expires?

(Objected to because the question asked is one of law and not of fact.)

A. I never studied law, but I think it is two years.

Q. Do you not know for what year Launsberry was collector?—A. I said before I didn't know.

Q. Is the tax you now speak of the only State and county tax which you now claim to have paid during the collectorship of Rishel, Launsberry, Shaw and Owens?—A. The only State and county tax I claim to have paid was to Launsberry, Rishel, and Shaw, within two years.

Q. Will you please state in what year you paid a State or county tax to Nathaniel Rishel?

(Objected to because it is not cross-examination.)

A. Well, I think it was in May, 1877. I am not altogether certain that it was in 1877 or 1878. He was collector of school tax, poor tax, and State and county tax. He had all the duplicates at the same time.

Q. Now, if Nathaniel Rishel was not collector of State and county taxes after the 1st of November, 1876, did you pay him as collector a State or county tax?—A. Yes; I paid State and county and poor tax at the same time. I put in railroad ties in both 1876 and 1877, and run them down the river from Hog Back to the railroad bridge, and out of the money I got from them in May, 1877, I paid Nathaniel Rishel on the court-house steps all the tax, except school tax, that he had against me.

Q. May you not have made this payment in 1876, in May, instead of May, 1877?—A. No; I didn't make a mistake.

(Counsel for contestee objects to the last question, for the reason that the witness has not said that he paid the taxes in May, 1877, as we understand his testimony, but that he then got the money to pay it.)

Q. With what person did you consult in reference to your testimony immediately after you had testified on the part of the contestant some two weeks ago?—A. I stated before, it was Rishel. I talked to Mr. Gordon afterwards. I spoke to him about Launsberry's tax, and told him I had forgotten it, and if he would have me called that afternoon I would make the correction.

Q. Do you not depend upon what Nathaniel Rishel told you in your fixing the date when you paid Launsberry his tax?—A. No, I don't; my attention was called to it by Rishel; then I recollected the whole circumstance.

Re-examined:

Q. State whether you spoke to Mr. Gordon first, or he to you, after you were sworn on the other side in this case.—A. I spoke to Mr. Gordon first; asked him I would like to be recalled.

Q. What was his reply?—A. His reply was that he would have me recalled if he could, but did not know whether they would let him or not, but if they didn't "we would subpoena you again."

Q. Between the time you were subpoenaed on Curtin's side and the time you were sworn for them did any of Yocum's counsel approach you and talk to you on the subject of your testimony?—A. No, sir; I didn't see any of Yocum's counsel from that day till yesterday.

And further saith not.

(Counsel for contestant protest against the taking of the testimony of this witness before William Radebaugh, notary public, or any other person or persons, on this the 22d day of February, 1879, for the reason that under the laws of Pennsylvania and of the United States the 22d day of February is declared to be a legal holiday, and counsel for contestant further object and protest to the taking of the testimony of this witness relative to or concerning any fraud or illegality or irregularities in the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, for the reason that in the answer of the contestee to the notice of contest for his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania no frauds are alleged in the holding of the election in Lawrence Township, and no notice was given, and no allegations made in said answer that fraudulent votes were cast for contestant in said township.)

The counsel for contestant reserve the right to move the committee who shall hear the cause to strike out the testimony of the witness now sworn, so far as the same relates to frauds, irregularities, and to fraudulent votes cast at the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township.)

Q. Where do you reside?—A. In Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in said township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Did you yourself pay a State or county tax within two years and more than one month preceding said election?—A. I did not myself, but it was paid.

Q. By whom?—A. By Israel Test.

Q. Did you ever pay to Mr. Test the amount of said tax; and, if so, when?—A. I paid him about a week before the election, as near as I can tell.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge when Mr. Test paid that tax?—A. Not any more than what the receipt shows.

Q. When did you receive that receipt and from whom?—A. From Mr. Test when I paid him the tax.

Q. Was or was not that within thirty days preceding the election?—A. About a week before the election.

Q. When did you first learn that your taxes had been paid?—A. I believe it was on the evening of the 6th of October.

Q. Who told you?—A. John Howe.

Q. Was or was not that the first conversation you ever had with any one in regard to that tax?—A. I think it was.

Q. Had you ever paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you pay the last State and county tax prior to the one paid by Mr. Test?—A. In 1876, October the 5th or 6th.

Q. Did or did you not vote on that payment of tax at the general election of 1876?—A. I did vote on that tax of 1876.

Q. Did you ever authorize Mr. Test to pay your State and county taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. When and where were you born?—A. I was born in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in 1849.

Q. Did you reside in said township with your wife for more than one year immediately preceding the general election of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the same exceptions and objections as in the case of preceding witnesses, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Have you the receipt of which you spoke in your examination-in-chief?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please produce and read it.

“TREASURER’S OFFICE,

Q. Do you know David McGaughey, the treasurer?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is his politics if you know?—A. I don’t know.

Q. Was he elected county treasurer in opposition to the candidate of the Democratic party?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you live in Lawrence Township with your family the sixty days immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I think so.

“D. McGAUGHEY, Treasurer.

Q. Did you move into Lawrence Township for the purpose of voting in that township?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. What is the politics, if you know, of Mr. Wright, whose name appears upon the receipt you have read and by whom it purports to have been written?—A. I think he is a Democrat; I don't know.

Q. Do you know why the word duplicate is written across the face of your receipt?—A. No, I don't, unless it is a duplicate receipt.

Q. Is this the only receipt you ever received for this tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. When, and from whom, did you receive it—I mean the duplicate?—A. From Mr. Test, about a week before the election.

Q. Did you ever have an original of which this purports to be a duplicate?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you get this original receipt?—A. The day of the township election of February 18, 1879.

Q. From whom?—A. John McBride.

Q. When did you last move into Lawrence Township preceding the general election of 1878?—A. I never was out of the township.

Recross-examined:

Q. Will you please read the receipt you got from John McBride?—A. Yes, sir.

(Contestant reserves the objections and exceptions as made heretofore to the preceding witnesses, reserving the same rights.)

Question. Since you were last examined as a witness in this contest, have you compared, word for word and figure for figure, the copies of oaths which you testified to for Newburg and Wallacetown Boroughs, and Bell, Boggs, Knox, and Morris Townships, and which were offered in evidence and marked Exhibits A, B, C, E, F, and G, and having found them to be correct, full, and complete copies?—Answer. I have, and found them to be correct.

Cross-examined:

Q. How did you make the examination?—A. By having the original and copy before me.

Q. When was the examination made?—A. This forenoon.

Q. Did you retain possession of the papers or are you sufficiently familiar with them so as to enable you to say the papers now presented are the same papers you compared this forenoon in the manner you have stated?—A. I did not retain possession of them, but I know they are the papers.

WILLIAM McCLELLAN sworn.

(Contestant, as to this witness, reserves the same exceptions and objections, on account of notice, time, and examination, as were made to the examination of all the preceding witnesses.)

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. In the borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, and State of Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you a son of John McClellan?—A. I am.

Q. Is he a collector of State and county taxes for Clearfield Borough, and if so, for what years assessed?—A. He is. I can't state all the years; he was collector for a number of years.

Q. Have you not been attending to the collection of taxes and giving receipts for him?—A. I have, until the last ten months. I gave some receipts to some persons that came to the store.

Q. Did you, in November, 1878, draw a receipt for the State and county tax, for the year 1876, for John Kittlebarger?—A. I gave John Kittlebarger a receipt, but as to the year 1876 or 1877, I cannot state.

Q. When did you write that receipt?—A. On the 5th of November, 1878.

Q. What date did you put in it?—A. I cannot swear to that, but think it was October 4.

Q. Then you drew the receipt, did you, on November 5, 1878, and you think you dated it October 4, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Are you sure that the date you put in it was at least one month before the day it was written?—A. I am.

Q. By whose direction did you thus draw that receipt?—A. I cannot swear to that. Kittlebarger came into the store. I think father told me to write it; I did so.

Q. Did Kittlebarger say they had challenged his vote for non-payment of taxes?—A. I think he did; I would not be positive.

Q. To whom did you give the receipt?—A. I can't remember; think it was to Kittlebarger.

Cross-examined:

(Contestant, reserving the same exceptions as to the other witnesses, proceeds to cross-examine:)

Q. Did you, at any time, settle with Mr. Kittlebarger an account between your father and Kittlebarger.

(Objected to because it is not cross-examination; nothing was asked the witness in his direct examination about any settlement.)

A. I did.

Q. When, as near as you can tell?—A. As near as I can tell it was in the spring of 1876.

Q. Was there not a balance due Kittlebarger?—A. There was.

Q. Do you know whether or not several months before the election of November, 1878, it was agreed between your father and Kittlebarger that your father should mark the taxes he had against Kittlebarger paid, and Kittlebarger credit him with the amount on the account he owed Kittlebarger?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the witness answering said question, unless he was present at and heard said conversation; objects to all hearsay.)

A. I know nothing of that transaction.

Q. Did not your father, who was collector, tell you to draw the receipt because Kittlebarger had, in some way, paid the tax before October 1, 1878?

(Objected to as hearsay, incompetent, and immaterial.)

A. I think he told me to write the receipt; cannot say what he said about the tax being paid.

Q. Did not Kittlebarger claim that he had paid the tax by some arrangement at the time your father and he came to you for the receipt?

(Objected to the same as last objection.)

A. I cannot answer that question.

Q. Did you draw this receipt because your father directed you?—A. I cannot state whether he directed me or not.

Q. Would you have drawn a receipt and dated it back without instructions from your father?—A. I cannot swear to that.

Q. What do you mean by that answer?—A. I might and I might not.

Q. Have you not heard your father say that Kittlebarger had paid his taxes long before the election?—A. I have.

Q. Do you know how they were paid to your father?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the witness testifying to anything that he does not know of his own knowledge, and because it is not cross-examination and is hearsay.)

A. At the time Kittlebarger and I settled there was a balance coming to Kittlebarger. I cannot state the amount.

Q. Was the amount more than the State and county tax your father as collector had against Kittlebarger?—A. I cannot answer that question.

Q. What is your recollection?—A. I think it was in the neighborhood of $3. I mean the amount he had against father.

Q. Was not his tax less than $3?—A. I think it was.

Re-examined:

Q. Did Kittlebarger come to see you at the store immediately after his vote was challenged?—A. I do not know what time his vote was challenged.

Q. Was it in the forenoon or afternoon of election day that he came to see you?—A. I do not remember what time in the day he came there.

Q. Did William Tucker, or any other person, come with him?—A. Do not recollect of William Tucker being in the store at the time Kittlebarger was there.

Q. Had he, Tucker, spoken to you about it before?—A. He may have, but do not recollect.

Q. Did you have the duplicate with you when you drew the receipt?—A. I think it was there.

Q. Did you mark the taxes paid on the duplicate at the time you gave the receipt?—A. I do not remember.

Q. Did you look at the duplicate to ascertain the amount of the taxes before drawing the receipt?—A. I think I did.

Q. Did you or did you not mark the taxes paid as of the date you put in the receipt?—A. I can't swear whether I marked them paid or not.

Q. Do you know whether they were marked paid by any one?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom were they marked paid, and was it done in your presence, and when?—A. I marked them paid myself. I cannot state when.

Q. Was it on election day?—A. I think it was some time after.

Q. Have you any idea how long after the election they were marked paid?—A. I cannot state the time.

Q. Was it or was it not some time during this year, 1879?—A. I think it was, to the best of my recollection.

Q. On the day of election, then, those taxes were not marked paid, were they?—A. I believe not.

Q. Are the taxes you have referred to those for which you gave Kittlebarger the receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. You do not know anything of the arrangement between your father and Kittlebarger for the payment of this tax, nor when it was made?—A. I did not before Kittlebarger was subpoenaed.

And further saith not.

Copies of oaths for Newburg and Wallaceeton Boroughs, and Bell, Boggs, Knox, and Morris Townships, marked Exhibits A, B, C, E, F, and G, and certificate as to Chest Township oaths, marked Exhibit D, reoffered in evidence.

Contestant, by counsel, renews the objections before made to the admission of these papers.

JAMES E. WATSON sworn.

Contestant, by counsel, makes the same objections as to the preceding witnesses.

Question. Mr. Watson, state if you were the Republican inspector of Clearfield Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878.—Answer. I was.

Q. State if you observed a difference between the Republican and Democratic tickets voted at that election, by which you could distinguish their outside appearance without unfolding them, and state, as nearly as you can, what this difference was.—A. There was a marked difference; after handling them the first hour I got so accustomed to them I could tell them without trouble. The difference in them that I distinguished them by was that the Democratic tickets were cut shorter, and the printing of the heading that is on the outside was a smaller style of print.

Q. Do you know James Mullen, of Centre County, or who is now in Centre County, and how long have you known him, and did he vote at that election in Clearfield Borough?—A. I have known him since 1844, and he voted at that election in Clearfield Borough in last November. I took his tickets at the window.

Q. Which of the two tickets did he vote that you described, and about what time of day did he vote?—A. He voted the short-cut ticket, which was the Democratic or Curtin ticket; I think it was about five o'clock in the evening. The reason I know, we were looking for him all day; were surprised that he didn't come sooner; we had been discussing his case all day, and expected a general time when he came.

Q. What were the politics of the other members of the board; that is, the judge and inspector?—A. Democrats.

Q. Did you oppose his right to vote, or express any opinion that he was not entitled to vote?—A. When we talked about his voting in the morning I said that I would not be satisfied to let him vote. The balance of the board said we had no power to prevent his voting. When he came to the window and offered his vote I asked the other members of the board what I should do; they said, "Take his vote," and I took it.

Q. Did he not state to you, on the day after the general election of November, 1878, who he had voted for at that election, and what else did he say in that connection?—A. He said that he had "come out to give old Andy a hoist"; he expected to have trouble to get his vote, as he had been deprived of his vote, I think he said, in 1876.

Q. Who did you understand him to mean by old Andy?—A. Andrew G. Curtin. He was pregnant with Andy that morning. He spoke of conversation he had with Andy and his wife the day before.

Q. What took place when John Kittlebarger first offered to vote at said election?—A. The first thing that took place, Lon Adams, a Republican, challenged his vote. The next thing was, the ground stated was, the non-payment of taxes. The board offered to swear John Kittlebarger as to the payment of his taxes. John swore that if he was going to have so much trouble to get his vote, he wouldn't vote at all, and went off mad. The board called John McClellan, the tax collector; asked him if Kittlebarger had paid a tax—a State or county tax—within two years, and I think it was said more than thirty days previous to the election. John said first, that is, John McClellan, that Kittlebarger had not paid him any tax within two years. Then McClellan came back afterwards, and said he had paid part of his tax. The board said to McClellan, paying part of his tax would not entitle him to a vote, and McClellan came back a short time afterwards, and said that him and Kittlebarger had dealings to about the amount of Kittlebarger's taxes; that he considered his taxes were paid in that way. Towards evening Kittlebarger came back to vote, and handed a receipt for his taxes. The receipt looked as though it had been freshly written. My recollection of the receipt is that it was signed John McClellan, per Will; am not positive. We had asked Kittlebarger for a receipt in the morning, and he said he had none. I asked him the question as to when he got the receipt. The balance of the board called out loudly to me, "Let him vote, and have no more trouble with him." He made no answer when I asked him when he got the receipt.

Q. If any active Democrats of Clearfield Borough had anything to do with this transaction, and what they did.—A. I don't know of anything; there was some talk and figuring outside, but don't know what it was.

Q. Has James Mullen during the last five years or more been a resident of Clearfield Borough?—A. In 1873 was the last time I knew of his being here more than a day or two at a time.

Q. Where has been his residence and home since that time?—A. Bellefonte, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long since he and his wife lived together as man and wife?—A. Not since 1873, when he was here for two or three months.

Q. State, if you know, whether he boarded or lived with her during that time.—A. No; not of my knowledge.

Q. How long have you resided in Clearfield Borough continuously, and has James Mullen had or conducted any kind of business whatever since 1873 in said borough?—A. I have resided in this borough since August, 1869. The only business or work of any kind that I have known Mullen to do in Clearfield Borough since 1873 was to attend store for my brother one week.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you not vote the Democratic ticket for governor ; Greenback ticket for legislature and Congress, and in this way discovered the difference between the tickets that you have spoken of?—A. I voted for Mr. A. H. Dill for personal reasons. I voted for Reed and Yocum. I did not discover the difference in the tickets through voting for them.

Q. Was the difference in the tickets made in your opinion to perpetrate fraud on part of the Democrats, or do you charge that fraud was perpetrated at the Clearfield Borough poll, at the November election of 1878, by reason of the difference in the tickets that you speak of?—A. My answer to the first part of the question is that they were not with intention of fraud. The difference is accounted for by the different styles of type, paper, and printing ; and to the second part of question, there was no intentional fraud perpetrated by any one.

Q. Do James Mullen's wife and children now reside in Clearfield Borough, and did they for more than two months prior to 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. Do you know the age of their youngest child?—A. I do not.

Q. Could he, to the best of your opinion, from what you know of his whereabouts on the 4th and 5th days of November, 1878, have voted at any other poll outside of Clearfield County?—A. He could not.

And further saith not.

FEBRUARY 24, 1879—1 p. m.

Counsel present on both sides.

William Radebaugh, the notary public aforesaid, who hath thus far written all the testimony, hereby appoints Fred. O'Leary Buck a clerk to write down the testimony in the aforestated matter, that is, on the part of the contestee in the election contest between A. G. Curtin, contestant, and Seth H. Yocum, contestee, the reason for this appointment being, among other things, the inability of the notary to take down the testimony as fast as the circumstances and exigencies of the investigation require. Appointment is made at request of contestee, and clerk named by notary.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA,
County of Clearfield, ss :

Fred. O'Leary Buck, being duly sworn, did depose and say that as clerk for William Radebaugh, a notary public for the county of Clearfield, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, and before whom the testimony of witnesses has been and is to be taken in the matter of the contest for a seat in the House of Representatives of the United States of America in the Forty-sixth Congress, between A. G. Curtin, contestant, and Seth H. Yocum, contestee, he would impartially and truly write down the whole of the evidence of each and every witness produced, sworn, or affirmed and examined in relation to any matter touching said contest, and in all things truly and faithfully perform his duty as clerk to the best of his ability.

FRED'K O'L. BUCK.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 24th day of February, 1879.

WM. RADEBAUGH,
Notary Public.

Contestant by counsel object to the right and power of the notary to appoint the person designated, or any other person, to take the testimony of witnesses in the cause pending, the act of Congress not authorizing such appointment. This objection is made to the taking of the testimony of each and every witness who may be called, and whose testimony may or shall be taken down by the person designated, without formally renewing this objection to each and every witness.

JAMES BRADLEY SWORN :

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. Houtzdale, Clearfield County.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?
—A. Houtzdale Borough.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Have you within two years preceding said election paid a State or county tax?—A. No.

Cross-examination :

Q. Where were you born?—A. Ireland.

Q. Are you naturalized?—A. No ; but I am a citizen.

Q. How?—A. I came to this country in 1837. I was then eight or nine years of age ; my father was a citizen long before I became of age.

Q. Was your father naturalized before you came of age?—A. He was.

Q. How long have you resided in Houtzdale Borough?—A. About nine years.

Q. Have you voted in the borough or since it became a borough?—A. Only twice to the best of my recollection.

Q. When was that?—A. I voted for Hayes at Hayes's election, and at last fall's election.

Q. Did you live in the borough more than two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I did ; I lived two years.

Q. When did you pay your last State and county tax?—A. Before Hayes's election.

Q. Did any one pay State and county tax for you before the election of 1878?—A. That I cannot say.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was you informed that your tax had been duly and legally paid?
—A. No.

Q. How did you come to vote?—A. There was a tax-receipt handed to me on the morning of the election.

Q. What was the date of that receipt?—A. The date was right as required by law.

Q. Was the receipt examined by the board?—A. They looked at it, and I then voted.

Q. Who was the receipt signed by?—A. Patrick Dugan.

Q. Was he collector of State and county tax for Houtzdale Borough?
—A. Yes.

Q. Do you know whether or not you were registered?—A. I was told I was.

Q. Was there any objection to your voting on the grounds that you were not registered?—A. No.

Q. Did the members of the board or any of them know you personally?—A. They all knew me.

Q. Did they require you to produce your father's papers?—A. No.

Q. Do you know whether or not they required anybody to produce papers?

(Objected to because it is not cross-examination, and also incompetent as not the best evidence.)

A. I do not know.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. No.

Q. Who did you vote for for governor?—A. I told a man to make up my papers; I told him all I cared about to vote for was Andrew G. Curtin, and he says, "Here is the ticket," and that is all I looked at.

Q. Do you know any other name on the ticket you voted?—A. I do not.

Q. Did you read the ticket?—A. None but Curtin.

Q. Who subpoenaed you?—A. Mr. Chase, of Houtzdale.

Re-examined:

Q. Who made up your ticket?—A. Mr. Patterson, of Houtzdale, an attorney.

Q. Is he or not an active Democrat, and did he or not work for Curtin and the Democratic ticket?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because it is immaterial and witness's answer would be irrelevant, as Mr. Patterson is a competent witness, and Mr. Patterson resides in the twentieth Congressional district and his testimony can be had.)

A. He appeared to be very active on the Democratic side.

Q. Is he not the man who gave you the receipt on the morning of the election?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because the question is leading and immaterial.)

A. He is.

Q. Where is that receipt now?—A. About three weeks or a month after the election, Patterson asked me to see the receipt; he allowed there was something wrong with it. He put the receipt in his pocket and I have not seen it since.

Q. Did you or did you not, after you were subpoenaed to come here, ask Patterson for the receipt, and if so, what did he say?—A. The morning of the election, last Tuesday, I asked him for the receipt; he told me that he lost it; that was previous to me being subpoenaed to come here.

Q. Do you mean the borough election of last Tuesday?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you pay to Patterson or any one else the taxes called for in that receipt?—A. No.

Q. How long was it before the Presidential election of 1876, when Hayes was elected, that you paid the taxes that you voted on that election?—A. I don't remember the exact time, but I paid it in the right time, that is the legal time.

Q. Was it or not a month or more before that election?—A. It was some days before the time had expired for paying it that I paid it.

Q. About how many days before the election?—A. I cannot tell how many days is the legal time.

Q. About how many days was it before the legal time required for paying it in order to vote at that election?—A. I cannot remember exactly the number of days, but I can remember that I said to the collector that I was all right for a vote at the coming election.

Q. Was it or not over fifteen days before that election of 1876?—
A. I do not remember.

Q. Was it or not over five days before that election?—A. I paid it a few days before the time was up so that I could vote at that election.

Q. If the law required it to be paid over one month before that election, did you pay it over one month before the election?

(Objected to because the question is improper in form, the witness having been called by contestee.)

A. I did.

Q. Are you satisfied that it was over a week before that election?—
A. I am.

Q. Was or was not that the last tax you paid?—A. It was the last.

Q. What, if anything, did Matt McAteer, of Houtzdale, say to you a few days before the election of November 5, 1878, in reference to your voting at that election and his paying your taxes?

(Objected to because McAteer resides in the county of Clearfield, and within the twentieth Congressional district, and is a competent witness, and the declarations of McAteer are not competent evidence unless duly subpoenaed by the contestee and he fails to appear and testify.)

Counsel for contestee would state that he proposes to follow this question by proof that Matt McAteer was an active worker for contestant at that election and that he was prolific in distributing ante-dated tax receipts in contestant's interest.)

A. A few days after the time had expired for paying the tax, he was standing outside of the corner of his house in Houtzdale (office, I mean); Pat Dugan was standing by the side of him; McAteer said to me, "Jimmy, if you vote the Democratic ticket at this coming election, I will pay your tax and give you a receipt."

Q. What did you say in reply?—A. "All right," or something to that effect.

Q. Did you then understand and so say to McAteer or not, that you were not entitled to vote?—A. I said nothing to him. I passed on.

Q. Was McAteer or not an active worker for Curtin and the Democratic ticket at that election?—A. He was.

Recross-examination:

Q. Was anybody else present at this conversation but Dugan, McAteer, and yourself?—A. No.

Q. What day of the week was this, if you can tell?—A. I cannot remember.

Q. Did you get a tax receipt from McAteer?—A. No.

Q. Do you know whether or not it was arranged with Dugan in the time required by law by some one to pay your tax?—A. I do not know.

Q. What did McAteer do that constituted him an active Democrat?—
A. His talk would make him an active Democrat.

Q. How long have you known McAteer?—A. About three years.

Q. Does he not do the principal part of his work with his mouth?—A. In politics I suppose he does.

Re-examined:

Q. What was the date of this tax receipt, if you can remember?—A. I do not remember the date, but the date was so fixed on it that it made it legal for me to vote on.

Q. Was it not dated prior to the time at which you had that conversation with McAteer?—A. It was.

Recross-examination :

Q. What was the date of the conversation with McAteer?—A. It was either two or three days after the time for paying the tax.

Q. What day of the month was it?—A. I do not remember.

Q. What day of the month did the time for paying taxes expire?—A. I do not know any more than I heard people talk. I remember Dugan said that that was the last day for paying tax. I did not pay my tax; I did not think I would be there at the election.

Q. Cannot you tell now the date at which Dugan said this?—A. I cannot.

Q. Do you know, of your own knowledge, whether that was the last day or not?—A. Only as he told me.

Q. If he was mistaken, then, as to the last day, you do not know what the last day was?—A. I heard several say it was the last day besides Dugan.

Q. Your only knowledge of the time is what you heard other persons say on that subject?—A. That is all.

Re-examined :

Q. How long was this; that is, how many days before the conversation with McAteer that you heard Dugan say it was the last day for paying tax?—A. It was two or three days before the conversation with McAteer that I heard Dugan say that the time was up for any man who wanted to vote.

Q. Were many persons paying tax that day?—A. I did not see any person pay tax.

Recross-examined :

Q. Where was it that you and Dugan had the talk?—A. It was standing in front of Liveright's store, close to the station.

Q. Who did he say it to?—A. He said it to me. There were others there listening, too. I cannot say who the others were.

Re-examined :

Q. Is or is not Patterson's office in the same building and adjoining the office of McAteer?—A. At that time they both occupied the same room.

Q. Did they not work together in politics?—A. They appeared to be both Democrats.

Recross-examined :

Q. Did you see or know of Patterson working together with McAteer, other than the fact, as you are informed, that they are both Democrats?—A. All there was that I know is that McAteer gave me the promise to give me a tax receipt, and Patterson gave it to me.

Q. Did you not know that prior to last fall Patterson was a Republican, or were you not so informed?

(Objected to as not cross-examination, incompetent, and hearsay.)

A. I never heard?

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. In Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andy Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. I could not tell the day it was paid. I got my receipt on the day of the election.

Q. From whom?—A. Mr. McAteer, the squire.

Q. Did you ever pay McAteer the amount of that tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever request McAteer or any other person to pay said tax for you?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Have you that tax-receipt with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where is it?—A. I gave it to McAteer; I don't know what he did with it.

Q. Did or did not McAteer come to you for the receipt after you voted?—A. Yes, sir; I gave it to him; McAteer came to me in the morning and said, "Lilley, you go and vote; your tax is paid." He gave me the receipt, and I went and voted; I did not know anything about it.

Q. Had you intended to vote at said election before McAteer gave you that receipt?—A. No, sir; because I was not able to pay my tax to get a vote.

Q. How long before the general election of 1878 was it since you paid a State or county tax?—A. I have not paid any State or county tax for eight or ten years. The last I paid was in Centre County.

Q. About how long ago is it since you moved from Centre County?—A. It must be eight or ten years.

Q. Whose name was signed to this tax-receipt—what collector's?—A. I can't read; Dugan was tax-collector.

Cross-examination:

Q. How long have you lived in Houtzdale Borough?—A. I have lived in the borough, I suppose, about five years.

Q. Did you live there more than two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I can't tell; my family lived there for the last fourteen years; ten years, I know.

Q. How long before the election was it that you were last out of the borough to stay for any length of time?—A. I think it was about August I came home the last time, and have been home ever since except when I went out to work.

Q. Did you present your tax-receipt to the election board?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell which one of the board looked at your receipt?—A. I cannot, sir.

Q. Did not the board examine your receipt before they took your ballot?—A. They did, sir; they examined it and took my ticket, and gave me the receipt back.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. No, sir; I can't read none.

Q. Did you have any person read it for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. You got your ticket from McAteer?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where he got it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did not McAteer at the last election (I refer to the February election, 1879) work against the straight Democratic ticket?—A. I do not know anything about that.

Q. Did McAteer read the ticket to you?—A. No, sir; he did not. I told him I wanted to vote for Curtin, and he handed me a Democratic ticket and I voted it.

Q. How do you know, when the ticket was not read to you, what ticket it was?—A. I might have voted for a jackass or a mule for what I know.

Q. Can you swear, then, that you voted for Curtin?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you swear that you voted the whole or part of the Democratic ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was there what they call sticker tickets used at that election, or did you hear of such tickets?—A. No, sir; I don't know anything about it. I was not at the election polls five minutes after I voted.

Q. The only thing that makes you think you voted the Democratic ticket is that you got your ticket from McAteer?

(Objected to as improper and calculated to mislead the witness.)

A. The reason I thought I voted it was because I wanted to vote for Curtin, and I thought he would not give me any other ticket. I had worked for Curtin for a great many years; I wanted to give the old man a hoist, and I did so to the best of my knowledge.

Q. If McAteer may have made a mistake in giving you a ticket, for all you know you may have voted for Mr. Yocum, or may not have voted for Congressman at all?

(Objected to as leading and calculated to mislead the witness.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was it that you met McAteer and got your ticket?—

A. Right before the house where the election was held.

Q. Was it a short time before the polls were closed?—A. It was about six o'clock, as near as I can tell.

Q. Was it in a building or out on the street that you met him?—

A. Right on the board walk.

Q. As I understand you, then, your purpose was to vote for Mr. Curtin, but you do not know whether you did or not, or whether you voted for Congress at all or not?

(Objected to as leading and misstating the substance of the witness's testimony.)

A. I may have voted for some of the girls in town for what I know. I intended to vote for Curtin, but I am no scholar.

Q. Of how many parts was your ticket made up?—A. I could not tell that, it was wrapped up with a little string around it.

Q. Was not McAteer working principally for Dill for governor, and did not Dill for governor have more votes than Curtin for Congress?—

A. I could not tell anything about that.

Q. Don't you know that Dill had a majority in Houtzdale while Curtin came out behind?

(Objected to as immaterial, incompetent, and not the best evidence.)

A. No, sir; I don't know it.

Re-examined:

Q. What has been your politics for the last twenty years?—A. Democrat for the last fifty years.

Q. You have always voted for Curtin have you not, including the times he was on the Republican ticket?—A. I voted for him when he was on the Republican ticket, the only time I ever voted the Republican ticket.

Q. How far were you from the window where you voted, when McAteer gave you the ticket?—A. About the length of this room, I suppose—about 20 feet.

Q. What ticket did McAteer say it was when he gave it to you?—A. The Democratic ticket, and for Curtin.

Q. You had asked him for a ticket for Curtin, had you not?—A. No, sir; he came to me in the morning and said: "Liley, are you going to vote," and he said, "Your tax is paid." I told him I intended to vote for Curtin, and he said, "Meet me at the polls."

Q. Where had you been when you returned home in August?—A. Over at Hollidaysburg, driving team for a man by the name of Wilson.

Q. Did or did not McAteer keep the tax receipt until you came to him and got the ticket as stated?—A. Yes, sir; he gave me the ticket and the receipt both at the same time.

Recross-examination:

Q. Did McAteer open and examine the ticket he gave you to see what it was?—A. It was tied up with a string when he gave it to me, and I went and stuck it in.

Q. Do you know whether or not it was a full ticket?—A. No, sir; I don't know anything about it.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. I live in Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you vote at the November 5, 1878, election?—A. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted the Democratic ticket.

Q. Was it the whole Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you the ticket?—A. McAteer.

Q. You mean Matt. McAteer?—A. Yes, sir; the 'squire.

Q. Is it the one who had his office in the same building with Patterson, the lawyer?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was he when he gave you the ticket?—A. About 20 yards from the polls.

Q. Did he give you anything else with the ticket, and what was it?—A. A tax receipt.

Q. What kind of a ticket did you ask him for?—A. A Democratic ticket.

Q. What is your age?—A. About twenty-six next birthday—the last of the year.

Q. Have you ever paid a State or county tax.—A. No, sir?

Cross-examined:

Q. Has any one ever paid a State or county tax for you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When?—A. I could not tell you when exactly.

Q. Was it before the 1st of October, 1878?—A. I could not tell you that, but I know that it was a good while before the election. My father told me my tax receipt was paid. He paid his and he said mine was paid.

Q. Have you with you your receipt for the payment of that tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you please produce it and read it?—A. I cannot read it.

Witness gives receipt to notary to copy, which reads as follows:

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 3rd, 1878.

“Recd. of Thomas Gibbons 50 cents State and county tax in full for 1878.

“PAT DUGAN,
“Collector.”

Q. Did you know, and how long before the election, that this tax had been paid for you?—A. I could not tell you. It was a good while before the election that my father told me it was paid.

Q. Was it as much as six weeks?—A. I could not tell how long it was.

Q. Was it in September?—A. I could not tell. I don't know one month from the other.

Q. After your father paid your taxes for you, or told you it was paid, did you ever give them any more attention until the day of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever go for this receipt until the day of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you know before the day of the election that you could get your receipt by going for it, and about how long before the election did you know this?—A. Yes, sir; but I can't tell how long.

Q. Did you go for your receipt on the day of the election or did you intend to go for it?—A. I went for it.

Q. From whom did you get it?—A. From Mr. McAteer, the squire.

Q. You did not get your ticket from Mr. McAteer, did you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not ask Mr. McAteer for your receipt and also for a ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you went to McAteer, did you, for the purpose of getting your receipt and to have him make up your ticket because of your inability to read, did you?

(Objected to as improper and designed to mislead the witness, in that it attempts to put the answer in the witness' mouth.)

A. I went to him to get my ticket, but did not tell him to make up my ticket.

Q. You went to him, did you, and told him for whom you wanted to vote and asked him for a ticket?—A. I did not tell him for whom I wanted to vote, but I told him I wanted a Democratic ticket.

Q. Were you on the registry of voters for Houtzdale Borough, if you know?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examination:

Q. Did you vote the ticket McAteer gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you first see McAteer on the day of election?—A. The first time I saw him was when he gave me the receipt.

Q. Have you paid McAteer or any one else the taxes called for in that receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever authorize or direct or ask McAteer, or any one else, to pay your taxes?—A. No; I did not. I had no money to pay my taxes. My father paid his; and McAteer paid mine; he knew I had no money to pay them.

Q. When did you first hear that McAteer was going to pay your taxes?—A. I could not tell you that; I know it was a good while before the election.

Q. Was it or was it not your father who first told you that McAteer was going to pay your taxes?—A. My father told me.

Q. Did your father tell you that McAteer had paid your taxes or that McAteer was going to pay your taxes?—A. My father told me he had paid them.

Q. Have you any knowledge as to when your taxes were paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you hear that McAteer had a receipt for you?—A. A good while before the election.

Q. Who first told you that?—A. My father.

Q. Did he tell you that at the time that he told you about McAteer going to pay your taxes?—A. He told me that McAteer had paid my taxes.

Q. Did your father ever tell you that McAteer had a receipt for you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he tell you that at the time he told you that McAteer had paid or was going to pay your taxes?—A. Yes, sir; he told me he had paid them and had a receipt for them.

Q. Can you tell how long that was before the election?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. Can you say if it was over three weeks before that election?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. Do you think it was as much as two months before the election?—A. No, sir; it was not that much, but it was a good while before.

Q. What time did you get here to-day in answer to the subpoena?—A. I could not tell; I have no time-piece. By the time I came up here, according to what Dugan told me, it was between one and two.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you reside with your father in Houtzdale?—A. No, sir; I have a wife and family.

Q. Do you and your father work together?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. In Houtzdale; aged thirty years.

A. Where did you vote at the November 5th election, 1878?—A. In Houtzdale Borough.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Have you within two years preceding said election, and more than thirty days before said election, paid a State or county tax?—A. No.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding said election; and, if so, when was it paid, and to whom?—A. Yes; I paid some time before the election; I could not say how many days.

Q. Was it as much as one month before the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay said tax?—A. To Pat Dugan, collector.

Q. Was it as much as twenty days before the election when you paid those taxes?—A. I don't think it was hardly that much.

Q. Was or was not that the only tax which you had paid within two years preceding said election?—A. That was all.

Q. Did you get a receipt for said taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you the receipt?—A. Pat Dugan.

Q. Have you the receipt with you?—A. No, sir; I forgot it this morning.

Q. What date had that receipt?—A. I believe it was October 4.

Q. Was it or was it not dated back so as to entitle you to vote?—A. I believe it was.

Cross-examination :

Q. How long have you resided in Houtzdale?—A. About two years and five months. I will be there three years next July.

Q. Had anybody within two years paid a tax for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you any arrangement with the collector about your tax more than thirty days before the election?—A. Well, he had asked me for the tax several times, and I told him I would give it to him after pay-day.

Q. Did he say to you anything about marking it paid or considering it paid, and you could hand him the money afterwards and he would give you a receipt?

(Objected to as leading and calculated to mislead the witness in his testimony.)

A. Well, I know it was understood I was to get a receipt the way I got it.

Q. Did Dugan say that anybody else had arranged your taxes?—A. No.

Q. Had you voted in Houtzdale before the last general election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have any special desire to vote at that election; and, if so, why did you not pay your tax before thirty days from the election?—

A. I did not care whether I voted or not, and I did not care much about paying the taxes.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Houtzdale; am over forty years of age.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin, I believe.

Q. Had you paid within two years preceding said election, and one month or more before said election, a State or county tax?—A. I had paid before that election.

Q. When did you pay your State and county tax?—A. Before I voted.

Q. How long before you voted, as near as you can tell?—A. I could not tell you, sir.

Q. Was it as much as two weeks?—A. I could not exactly say, sir.

Q. Say as nearly as you can, according to the best of your recollection?—A. I could not say, unless I tell a lie.

Q. Do you think it was over two weeks?—A. I don't know, sir; I could not exactly say.

Q. Can't you answer more nearly than that?—A. I cannot.

Q. To whom did you pay those taxes?—A. The constable they call Mr. Dugan.

Q. When did you get your tax receipt?—A. At the time I paid it.

Q. Who was present when you paid Dugan?—A. No one; he came to where I was working.

Q. What were you working at?—A. On the repairs on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's road.

Q. What repairs were you making?—A. Just fixing the road generally.

Q. Cannot you recall nearly the time those taxes were paid?—A. I cannot, sir.

Q. Cannot you say whether it was less than thirty days or more than thirty days?—A. No, sir.

Q. What is your opinion?—A. I do not know, sir.

Cross-examination:

Q. Were you required to show your receipt to the election-board?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. They examined it, did they?—A. Yes, sir; and permitted me to vote.

Re-examination:

Q. Was it or was it not about pay-day when you paid Dugan these taxes?—A. I don't know.

And further saith not.

Question. Was that the only tax you had paid within two years preceding said election?—Answer. Yes, I had my tax-papers till then, my tax-papers run out then.

Q. When was the last tax that you had paid before you paid that tax to Dugan?—A. That I cannot tell, sir.

Q. Was not the tax you paid Dugan the only tax you had paid for two years before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examination:

Q. Did you pay any tax after the Presidential election of 1876, when Hayes and Tilden were candidates for the Presidency except what you paid to Dugan. That is in 1877 or 1876?—A. No, I don't think I paid any in 1877.

Q. Did not you pay State or county tax after the Presidential election of 1876 other than the one you paid Dugan?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. I live in Houtzdale; I am 28 years old.

Q. Did you or not vote in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the November election of 1878?—A. I did.

Q. You mean the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State for whom you voted for Congress at said election?—A. For the Democrat, I don't remember his name.

Q. Was it for Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. State whether you had paid any State or county tax within two years preceding said election and more than one month before said election.—A. No, sir.

Q. State whether you got a receipt for the payment of taxes, and when, and from whom?—A. I did get a receipt from Pat Dugan on the day of the election.

Q. Did you ever pay those taxes or authorize any one to pay the taxes called for in that receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where is that receipt?—A. The receipt is at home in Houtzdale.

Q. What was the date of that receipt?—A. I do not remember what the date was.

Cross-examination:

Q. Were you required by the election-board at the general election of November 5, 1878, to produce your receipt before voting?—A. I was.

Q. Did they examine it?—A. They did not.

Q. Were you permitted to vote upon it?—A. I was.

Q. Was Pat Dugan present when you offered to vote?—A. He was.

Q. Did he say your taxes were not paid?—A. He did not.

Re-examined:

Q. Was he asked whether your taxes were paid or his attention called to the matter by the board?—A. No, sir.

Recross-examination:

Q. Did you read your ticket before voting?—A. I looked at it.

And further saith not.

PATRICK DUGAN sworn.

Question. Where do you live, Mr. Dugan?—Answer. At Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you the collector of taxes for Houtzdale in 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether James Bradley, who was sworn yesterday, paid you any taxes before the election of November 5, 1878, or at any other time.—

A. No, sir.

Q. How long have you known James Bradley?—A. About ten years.

Q. What was he doing when you first knew him?—A. He was cutting props for the Moshannon coal bank.

Q. Was he then a full grown man?—A. Yes, sir; he was done growing many a day then.

Q. What is his age as nearly as you can tell now?—A. Between forty-five and fifty.

Q. State if Richard Lilley, who was sworn yesterday, paid you a State or county tax, or any other tax, before the election, or at any other time.—

A. No, sir.

Q. State if Thomas Gibbons, who was sworn yesterday, paid you a State or county tax, or any other tax, before the election, or at any other time.—A. No, sir.

Q. State if John D. McCloskey, who was sworn yesterday, paid you a State or county tax, or any other tax, before the election, or at any other time.—A. No, sir.

Q. State when the taxes of James Bradley, Richard Lilley, Thomas Gibbons, and John D. McCloskey were paid?—A. The day before the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Where were they paid? At whose office?—A. At Matt. McAteer's office.

Q. To whom were the receipts given?—A. To Lawyer Patterson; he got part, and Matt. McAteer got the other part; they were divided between them.

Q. Were these the only taxes that were ever paid to you for these four persons named, or any of them?—A. Yes, they were the only taxes.

Q. State when Michael Gouldin paid his taxes, who was sworn yesterday, and how you fix the time.—A. On the 14th or 15th of October, 1878, I forget which day.

Q. What was he working at when he paid his taxes to you? Was he or not working on the Pennsylvania Valley Railroad?—A. Yes, sir, he was.

Q. How near was it to the October pay-day?—A. About the same time they pay on the railroad.

Q. Do you remember that it was after the time for payment of tax had expired?—A. Yes.

Q. Was that or was it not the only State or county tax that Michael Gouldin had paid, and the only kind of tax that he ever paid you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you go to him for that tax?—A. I asked him about the time the tax was coming due; he said he had no money then, but he would give it me on pay-day.

Q. Did you go to him about the October pay-day, and was that about the time he paid you, as stated?—A. I was going up the railroad and he called me and said "Here is that tax for you."

Q. State at what time Edward Blake, who was sworn yesterday, paid you his tax.—A. About the 20th or 21st of October.

Q. What was he doing?—A. He was standing around the corner.

Q. Did you ask him for it, or did he offer to pay you?—A. Not at that time I did not ask him.

Q. Had you asked him for it before?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What had he said?—A. He told me he had no money at that time.

Q. What, if anything, did he say about after pay-day?—A. He told me he would give it to me on pay-day.

Q. Was it after pay-day when he paid you?—A. Well, I can't say whether it was after, but I think it was the same day.

Q. Did his pay-day and Michael Gouldin's pay-day come on the same day?—A. No; there was generally between four and five days' difference in the pay-day of the mines and the railroad.

Q. Where did Edward Blake work, and which pay-day came last?—A. He worked at Eureka Colliery; the mines pay-day came last.

Q. State if you were present at a conversation between James Bradley and Matt. McAteer a few days after the time had expired for payment of taxes, in which Matt. McAteer proposed to pay Bradley's taxes; and when was that, and what was said?—A. At the corner of Matt. McAteer's office he asked James Bradley if he would vote the Democratic ticket he would pay his tax.

Q. What did James Bradley say?—A. Yes.

Q. How long was that after the time expired for payment of taxes?—A. I can't tell that.

Q. Was it many days or a few days?—A. About three or four days after the time expired.

Q. Had Ed. Blake or Michael Gouldin ever paid you any other tax except the taxes you speak of?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examination:

Q. Did you mark on your duplicate the different dates at which taxes were paid to you by persons against whom you had taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make any memorandum elsewhere of the date?—A. I made it on the receipts.

Q. Do you mean that you marked the receipt of the date of the payment?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. What do you mean by saying you marked it upon the receipts?—A. I dated back the receipts.

Q. How did you come to date the receipts different from the day on which the taxes were paid?—A. To give the men a chance to vote.

Q. When did Thomas Gibbon's father pay his taxes?—Q. He paid them in due time to vote, but I could not tell the date.

Q. May it have been as early as the 3d of September, 1878?—A. It might be about that time.

Q. Did he come to you or did you go to him about his taxes?—A. I informed him one time what his taxes were against him and he came to my house and paid them.

Q. What was said about the taxes of his son, Thomas Gibbons, by you or Mr. Gibbons?—A. I said nothing about them except to tell him the amount of the taxes against his son.

Q. Was that all that you and Thomas Gibbons said about his son's taxes?—A. That was all.

Q. Who else was present when the old man paid his own taxes?—A. No person except my woman.

Q. How do you fix the time at which McAteer paid Thomas Gibbons' jr., taxes?—A. I did not say McAteer paid his taxes.

Q. When his taxes were paid, then?—A. The day before the election.

Q. How do you fix the time? is the question.—A. I know it because I came down town the day before the election and I was working all the time before; I was idle that day; the people were so anxious to pay their taxes the day before the election. McAteer was so busy running around, I mean, and Patterson also.

Q. Were these receipts which you signed the day before the election all dated by the same person? if you know.—A. Well, I don't know. I dated all of them myself except one or so which were changed. I don't know who changed them; one was all I saw.

Q. What date, if you remember, did you put on the receipts?—A. I dated them back time enough to vote, but could not tell exactly what time it was.

Q. Was not the date either the 3d or 4th of October, 1878?—A. It might be; I cannot tell.

Q. What receipt do you know was changed from the date you put in it?—A. I did not say it was changed in the date.

Q. What did you mean when you spoke of one of the receipts being changed?—A. The receipt was wrote for a man and the man could not be found, and the man's name was changed.

Q. You don't say, then, that any of these receipts were changed in date?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can't you tell from your recollection what date you put upon the receipts you signed?—A. I cannot do it.

Q. Were they dated back one, two, or three months?—A. Well, I'm sure they were not less than one, and more than that I cannot tell.

Q. Had any of these men who were examined here yesterday any arrangement with you or talk with you before the time for paying taxes had elapsed about their tax, and that you was to mark them paid and they would hand you the money in a short time or the next pay-day?—A. I did not trust any on that duplicate.

Q. What do you mean when you say you had seen Michael Gouldin about his tax and was to go to him for them, and did go, as you testify on the 14th or 15th of the month and get your pay?—A. I did not go to Michael Gouldin on the 14th or 15th for it. I was going to serve some writs up the road—this was in Houtzville—and he said, "Here is the tax for you." I was not after him.

Q. Do you say that Michael Gouldin or some other person other than McAteer or Patterson had not been to see you to arrange Gouldin's tax more than thirty days before the election?—A. Pat. Shields asked me if Gouldin was on the duplicate. I said yes; and he said he would pay those taxes some of those days. That was all I seen him until I saw him on the railroad.

Q. Do you swear that you did not agree to mark Gouldin's tax as paid before the time had elapsed for payment?—A. I did not, sir, agree to anything of the kind.

Q. Did you date these receipts all of the same day?—A. Certainly not; I could not date them all on the same day.

Q. I mean, did you date them back all to the same day?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Can't you tell now the date of any one of the six receipts of the persons who testified here yesterday?—A. I could not exactly tell one from the other. I know they were dated back.

Q. As near as you can recollect, what date or dates did you put in them?—A. I think some of them were September 5. I can hardly tell.

Q. Were not the most of them or all of them dated between the 1st and 5th of October, A. D. 1878?—A. I cannot answer that question for sure.

Q. Did you write the receipts, except the name that was put in them in blank, and have them ready for signing when called on?—A. There were some receipts wrote that I did not write, but I signed them.

Q. When did you write those which you yourself wrote?—A. I cannot answer when I wrote them.

Q. Did you or not have a number of blank receipts ready for this fearful emergency, so that all that was necessary was to pay the cash and sign the names?—A. No, sir; I had not.

Q. Have you a receipt from either of the parties called yesterday that will enable you to fix the time?—A. No, sir, I have not. O, yes, sir, I have the receipt of Richard Lilley.

Q. Say what date is on it.—A. It is dated September 3d, Houtzdale. (Witness reads the receipt):

“HOUTZDALE, Sept. 3d, 1878.

“Received of Richard Lilley fifty cents, State and county tax, in full for 1878.

“PAT. DUGAN, Collector.”

Q. Now, were these six receipts all dated the same day?—A. I can't tell, for I did not write these receipts; I only signed them.

Q. Who else besides McAteer and Patterson got tax-receipts from you for other persons than themselves within thirty days preceding the election?—A. There was J. B. Black, the butcher, got one for himself; it may be B. V. Black.

Q. Did not Black get more than one?—A. There was one more; the man had a receipt a few days short of the time and wanted me to date it back, and I did so. I can't tell who he was.

Q. Who else besides Black and the persons you have named here got receipts from you within thirty days of the election?—A. I can't tell you that. I can't remember of any getting from me.

Q. How was your memory refreshed as to these persons?—A. Well, I can't tell you how it was refreshed; they were the last men and the only men got receipts.

Q. Did you and Mr. Vandusen have any talk on this subject since the election? I refer now to these tax-receipts about which you have testified.—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Can't you say whether you and Van Dusen talked about this or not?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Did you give to Van Dusen or any one else since the election the names of these parties about which you have testified?—A. I gave none to Van Dusen or no other person in Houtzdale.

Q. Were you or not by Mr. Vandusen paid for the information you gave concerning these taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you swear that there were no other persons got tax receipts from you within thirty days from the election to be voted on by themselves or any one else?—A. There was no other person but Jesse Williams.

Q. When Did Jesse Williams get his receipt?—A. I could not tell. I owed him the 50 cents that his taxes were a couple of years or more.

Q. What was said at the time you gave him the receipt about this tax?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. Was it agreed that day you gave him the receipt that you was to mark his tax paid and give him a receipt, and he was to satisfy the claim he had against you, or what agreement, if any, was there between you and Jesse Williams, and how long before the election was it made?—A. There was no agreement of that kind to my knowledge; it was in the store I told him I would pay the half dollar for him; he did not know he was registered until a few days before the election.

Q. Was the talk in the store a few days before the election?

(Objected to as unfair to the witness; the question should be when was the talk in the store.)

A. I could not tell you what time it was; that was the only talk I had.

Q. Do you know whether you gave him the receipt that day that you had the talk with him in the store?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can't you think of somebody else that got a receipt within thirty days before the election?—A. I cannot.

Re-examined:

Q. How long was it before the election when you promised and agreed with Jesse Williams that you would settle his 50-cent tax out of the indebtedness that you owed him; and was it not more than one month before the election?—A. I can't tell you that.

Q. Did Jesse Williams, before the time expired for paying taxes, that is, one month or more before the election, request you to settle his taxes on account of your indebtedness to him; and, if so, did you then agree to settle his taxes?—A. Yes; but I gave him no receipt then.

Q. Do you mean to state, as you have stated in your cross-examination, that the giving of the receipt and your agreement to settle the taxes for Jesse were both at the same time, or had you agreed to settle his taxes before you gave him the taxes receipt, and did you so agree before one month from the November 5, 1878, election?—A. No; the tax receipt was given to him in the store some time before the election. The agreement was made more than two or three months before the election.

Q. Where was this agreement made?—A. Some place up about the drug-store.

Q. Are you sure it was within two years preceding the election of 1878 that the agreement was made?—A. Yes; it was since the June registry was made. Jesse was not on the first duplicate I got, and they made an assessment of single men in June and sent it down here, and Jesse's name was on that; he was no stranger, but he was missed on the first registry.

Q. At the time of this talk, two or three months before the election, what was said by you and what was said by Jesse (I mean at the time the agreement was made) for you to settle his tax?—A. Jesse asked me if I was going to pay that little bill. I told him he had a dollar too much on him. He told me to show him the duplicate. I showed it to him, and he said, "you better pay that tax for me anyhow." I said, "I will do that, Jesse."

Q. When you said that, how long was it before the election of 1878?—
A. I don't know how long it was after I got the June duplicate. I can't say exactly; about August, or some time.

Q. How long do you think it was after you got the duplicate?—A. It was between the duplicate coming to me and the September court, for I was collecting the money to bring down here at court time.

Q. Did you understand that his taxes were settled at that date?—A. Why, certainly.

Q. Did you account for those taxes in your settlement at September court?—A. Yes; I paid all I collected.

Q. Did you pay in the 50 cents for Jesse Williams at that time?—A. Yes; I did.

Q. How did it come that Jesse did not call for his receipt sooner?—A. I don't know.

Q. Was it or not because he only then discovered that he was on the September registry?—A. I don't know.

Q. What did he say to you at the time you gave him the receipt, if he said anything, as to whether you had settled those taxes?—A. He asked me if I had paid those taxes. I said yes. He said, "You had better give me a receipt now." I gave him the receipt. One of the clerks, when I was writing the receipt on the desk, said he would stop Jesse's vote. I said, "Never mind; that tax is paid long ago."

Q. Will you produce again Richard Lilley's receipt?—A. I will.
(Witness produces receipt.)

Q. In whose handwriting is that receipt?—A. W. H. Patterson, the lawyer.

Q. Did you see him write this with other receipts?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you write any of the receipts, or date or put the date on any of the receipts which were written in the office of McAteer and Patterson on the day before the November election of 1878?—A. I cannot answer that; I don't know. I believe I dated a few, but I can't tell whose they were; I did sign them.

Q. Who wrote and dated the principal portion of them?—A. W. H. Patterson.

Q. Who directed you to write and date those which you did write and date on that day?—A. Patterson & McAteer directed me.

Q. Had you received word from Patterson or McAteer to be at that office that day?—A. Yes; they, that is Patterson, told me to go down to the office, that they wanted to see me.

Q. Where were you when he told you that?—A. Going down street.

Q. Did you go there at his request?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you in your possession the receipt of John Farrell, and will you produce it?—A. Yes.

(Witness produces receipt, which reads as follows:)

"HOUTZDALE, Sep. 3rd, 1878.

"Rec'd of John Farrol 50 cents, State and county tax, in full for 1878.

"PAT. DUGAN,
"Collector."

Q. Will you also produce the receipt of Martin Miller? (Objected to, because no such name appears upon the notices served upon the contestant for Houtzdale Borough or Woodward Township. The testimony is therefore improper.) And will you also produce the receipts of Michael Butler and Thomas Sincock?

(Contestant, by counsel, renews the objection as to the names of Michael Butler and Thomas Sincock for the same reason assigned to that of Martin Miller.)

A. Yes, I will.

(Witness produces receipts which read as follows:)

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 3rd, 1878.

“Rec’d of Martin Miller 50 cents, State & county tax for 1878.

“PAT. DUGAN,

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 3rd, 1878.

“Received of Michael Butler 50 cents, State and county tax, in full for year 1878.

“PAT. DUGAN,

“HOUTZDALE, Sepr. 3rd, 1878.

“Received of Thomas Sincock 50 cents, in full of State and county tax for 1878.

“PAT. DUGAN,
“Collector.”

Q. Are or are not these five receipts all dated and written by the same person?—A. Yes.

Q. Who is the person who wrote them and dated them?—A. W. H. Patterson.

Q. Did he or not write and date them on the day before the election of November 5, 1878, in the office of McAteer and Patterson and in your presence after he had requested you to go to that office?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had any one of these five persons named in these receipts paid you any State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were or were not the receipts of James Bradley, Thomas Gibbons, jr., and John D. McCloskey written and dated at the same place and at the same time, and in your presence, and by Mr. Patterson?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had these persons paid you any State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were any of these eight persons, Richard Selley, John Farrell, Martin Miller, Michael Butler, Thomas Sincock, James Bradly, Thomas Gibbons, jr., or John D. McCloskey, present when these receipts were dated and written?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you sure that Thomas Gibbons, jr., paid you no State or county tax except what was paid in that office on that day, the 4th of November, 1878?—A. I am sure he did not.

Q. Do you think and are you sure that no person ever paid any State or county tax to you for him except that?—A. I am sure they did not.

Q. Do you think that his father, Thomas Gibbons, sr., paid his own taxes to you as early as September 3, 1878?—A. About that time, to the best of my opinion.

Q. Have you any recollection of saying to Thomas Gibbons, sr., when he paid his tax, that McAteer or any one else was going to pay the taxes of Thomas Gibbons, jr., his son?—A. Don’t recollect anything about it.

Q. May you have said so and forgotten?—A. I did not know that his tax was paid until the day before the election.

Q. His taxes were not paid until that day, were they?—A. No, sir.

Q. When Michael Gouldin paid you his taxes on or about the 14th or 15th of October, 1878, did you or not yourself give him a tax receipt?—

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you date back that tax receipt, and, if so, at whose request?—

A. At Michael Gouldin's request.

Q. When Edwin Blake paid his taxes on or about the 20th of October, 1878, did you give him yourself a tax receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you date it back, and, if so, at whose request?—A. Yes; at Edward Blake's request.

Q. Can you say how far back you dated either Gouldin or Blake's receipt?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. Was the taxes which you settled with Jesse L. Williams, and for which you subsequently gave him a receipt, a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Theodore Van Dusen, J. S. Berkshesser, the postmaster, or any other active Republican pay you any tax within thirty days of the election or ask you to antedate tax receipts for them or any one else?—

A. None but Black, as I mentioned before.

Q. Was there any transaction of that kind except what took place at McAteer and Patterson's office when you went there at Patterson's request, with the exceptions you have already stated?—A. No, sir.

Recross-examination :

Q. Had any one else but Patterson and McAteer written tax receipts within thirty days of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Van Dusen at any time within a month of the election say to you that certain persons wanted to see you about their taxes?—A. No, sir; he told me about Black, and that was all.

Q. When did he tell you about Black, and what did he say?—A. He told me at the election-polls that Black wanted to see me.

Q. Did he say anything more, and did you go to see Black?—A. He said nothing more, and I went to see Black.

Q. What did Black want with you?—A. To date back a man's receipt. I forget the man's name.

Q. Did he speak to you about his own receipt at that time?—A. He had his receipt at that time.

Q. Who had written this receipt Black wanted you to date back?—A. I wrote it myself.

Q. When?—A. About two or three weeks before that. The man thought he had another receipt at home. He is a property-holder.

Q. Was he an old man or a young one?—A. Middling. I know the man when I see him.

Q. Was his name Cameron?—A. No, sir; I think his name was Scott; that is the man.

Q. John Scott, miner?—A. John Scott, a single man. He is not a miner. He lives by himself.

Q. Did not Black get a receipt from you for a man by the name of Cameron at the time he got his own?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did not Black get other receipts for other persons besides Scott?—A. Not from me.

Q. How much money did Black pay you for taxes or any other purpose within one month of the election, as near as you can tell?—A. Don't know him to pay any more than the 50 cents for himself.

Q. Who, then, paid you for Scott's tax?—A. He paid me himself.

Q. When?—A. Some time inside of the thirty days. He could not vote on it, he said. He came to me again in Black's butcher-shop.

Q. When did Scott pay his tax?—A. He could not vote on it when he paid it first.

Q. Who requested him to date back his tax-receipts?—A. Black, the butcher.

Q. What was Black's politics?—A. He was a Republican.
And further saith not.

Adjourned at 12.47 to meet at 2 o'clock.

Met again at 2 o'clock p. m.

A. MENTER BLOOM, deputy prothonotary of Clearfield County, sworn (recalled).

It is agreed by counsel on both sides that this witness's testimony shall be taken with the same effect as though notice had been served on counsel for contestant.

Question. Are you the deputy prothonotary of Clearfield County?—Answer. I am.

Q. Have you charge of the continuance docket of 1854, containing the entries to September term, 1854, among other records in your office?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you that book before you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does it contain a list and a record of the persons who took the oath of allegiance and were admitted by the court of Clearfield County to become citizens at September term, 1854?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you read the record without enumerating the names in the list?—A. "The following persons took the oath of allegiance and were admitted to become citizens of the United States, viz."

Q. Among others, is there not the name of Lawrence Billote, and does it give the country of which he was a native, and does it give the date of his naturalization?—A. There is the name of Lawrence Bellote, native of France, naturalized on the 18th of September, 1854.

Q. Are or are not these entries in the handwriting of Wm. Porter, who was then prothonotary of the county?—A. They are in the handwriting of Wm. Porter, and I am acquainted with his handwriting.

And further saith not.

A. M. BLOOM.

JOSEPH JONES sworn.

Objected to the testimony of the witness being taken, for the reason that there are no specifications in contestee's answer relating to the borough of Clearfield.

Counsel for contestee states that this objection is made under a misapprehension, as there are specifications as to Clearfield Borough in the answer of contestee.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Clearfield Borough. My age is 63.

Q. State if you voted at November election held on the 5th of said month in 1878, in the election district of Clearfield Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. A. G. Curtin.

Q. Had you yourself within two years preceding said election paid a State or county tax?—A. Not according to this receipt, I had not.

Q. State when you had paid the last State or county tax before the election of November 5, 1878.—A. March 30, 1876.

Q. State whether you received a tax-receipt on or about the day of election of November 5, 1878.—A. I did.

Q. And what day did you receive it and from whom?—A. On election day, from A. J. Jackson.

Q. Was A. J. Jackson a Democrat and an active supporter of A. G. Curtin?—A. I do not know.

Q. State whether that was the first knowledge you had of the payment of any tax for you since the tax you paid March 30, 1876.—A. That day, that is, election day, was the first knowledge I had.

Q. Who first told you on November 5, 1878, that the taxes called for by the receipt that was handed to you that day had been paid?—A. Mr. Israel Test.

Q. Was Mr. Israel Test chairman of the Democratic county committee?—A. I don't know except what I saw in the paper.

Q. Did you ever ask, authorize, or direct any one to pay these taxes for you?—A. I did not.

Q. Had you any knowledge of their payment before November 5, 1878?—A. I had not.

Q. Have you ever paid these taxes to any one?—A. I suppose if I had got my just dues from Test it would have paid five times that tax in the way of justice's fees.

Q. Do you mean by that that you were a justice of the peace?—A. I was.

Q. Do you claim that when you were a justice of the peace that there were moneys coming from him that he refused to pay you?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. How long is it since you were a justice of the peace?—A. Thirteen or fourteen years ago.

Q. Did you ask him for those fees lately?—A. No, sir; not lately.

Q. How long is it since you asked him?—A. I have no recollection of that.

Q. Have you asked him for them in the last seven years?—A. I did not.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did not Israel Test inform you that he had paid your tax in time so as to enable you to vote?—A. He asked me in front of the court-house, "Why don't you get your receipt?"

Q. When was that?—A. On election day.

Q. Did he tell you when he paid the tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he tell you to whom he had given your receipt?—A. I think not; there was nothing said but what I have just stated.

Q. Is that the receipt that you received from Mr. Jackson?—A. It is.

Q. Please to read the receipt.

(Witness reads:)

"TREASURER'S OFFICE,
"Clearfield, Pa., Oct. 5th, 1878.

"Received of Joseph H. Jones the sum of $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars, being county and State taxes for the year 1878 on his property situated and assessed in Clearfield Bor'o."

\$ $\frac{31}{100}$

"D. McGAUGHEY, Treas.,
"Per WRIGHT."

Q. Was not D. McGaughey county treasurer at that time?—A. He was.

Q. Was not Wm. V. Wright his clerk or in his employ at that time?—A. I cannot say.

Q. Was your receipt examined by the election board before they received your vote?—A. It was not.

Q. Was your vote challenged at all?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was not D. McGaughey, county treasurer, a Republican? (Objected to as irrelevant and not cross-examination.)

A. I cannot say of my certain knowledge.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you any knowledge as to when or by whom the taxes called for in that receipt were paid, or whether they were paid at all or not except as the receipt shows?—A. I cannot say.

Recross-examined:

Q. Is not the receipt a genuine receipt and not a forgery?—A. I don't know anything about that.

And further saith not.

N. L. ROBINS sworn.

It is agreed by the counsel on both sides that the testimony of this witness be taken with the same effect as if notice thereof had been regularly served on counsel for contestant.

Question. State where you reside, and what is your age.—Answer. Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; aged thirty-three years.

Q. State if you voted at the general election of November 5, 1878, at the election district of Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.—A. I did.

Q. State for whom you voted for Congress at said election.—A. A. G. Curtin.

Q. State if you yourself paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election which was assessed at least two months and paid within one month from said election.—A. I paid my tax some time in May, May 30, to the county treasurer, and have his receipt for it.

Q. State if you received from any person within thirty days of the election any tax receipts to distribute or hand out to Democratic voters.—A. I did not.

Q. Did you receive any tax receipts to hand out to any persons within thirty days of the election, or on election day?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you during that time have in your possession any tax receipt or receipts other than the one you have here?—A. I did not.

Q. Do you recollect if on election day or some day near that time in the morning you saw Mordecai Shirk or any of his sons and stated to him or them or any one else that you had, or were going to get, or had been requested to take tax receipts and deliver to certain parties?—A. I saw Mordecai Shirk and part of his family that morning, but I do not recollect of making any such statement; I mean election morning.

Q. Can you say what members of his family you saw that morning?—A. I think I saw Alfred and Richard and Robert.

Q. Have you no recollection of any conversation on the subject referred to with them or any of them?—A. I believe I did have some such conversation.

Q. State what that conversation was as nearly as you can recollect it.—A. Some one of them asked me what I was doing up at Jones's. I told them I was trying to get old Jones to come down and vote. One of them said something about his taxes not being paid, and I told him I thought his taxes were paid and he could have it by coming down town.

Q. Are you quite sure that you did not say to them or any of them anything about giving out a tax receipt or tax receipts to any one?—A. I did not, as I had no tax receipts.

Q. Do you mean by Jones Joseph H. Jones, the last witness?—A. I do.

Cross-examination:

Q. Was your name on the registry of voters for Lawrence election district, as required by law?

(Objected to as not cross-examination, incompetent, and not the best evidence.)

A. The assessor told me I was assessed; I saw it afterward myself on the list.

Q. Had you not resided for two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878, in Lawrence Township, and one year preceding said date in Pennsylvania?—A. I had.

Q. Are you a native-born citizen?—A. I am.

And further saith not.

F. B. WILLIAMS sworn.

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the witness appears to be from Curwinsville Borough, while the specifications in contestee's answer make no mention of said district of Curwinsville.)

Question. State where you now reside, and what your age is?—Answer. I reside in Curwinsville, this county. My age is 26 past.

Q. State where you did reside on November 5, 1878, and how long you had resided there?—A. I resided at Du Bois, Brady Township, Clearfield County, and had resided there over two years preceding that date.

Q. State whether you had resided there two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878.—A. Yes, sir, I had; I was not away.

Q. State whether you voted in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878.—A. Yes, sir; I voted in Brady Township at that time.

Q. State for whom you voted for Congress at said election.—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. State if you had paid a State or county tax within two years preceding that election.—A. No, sir; I had not.

Cross-examined:

Q. To whom did you pay the last State and county tax?—A. I never paid any in my life.

Q. Why did you not pay a State and county tax?—A. Because I never was assessed, I suppose.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. I am a single man.

Q. Was your vote questioned or challenged?—A. I was questioned, but not challenged.

Q. By whom were you questioned?—A. By the election-board.

Q. What questions were asked you?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did they ask you whether you had paid tax?—A. I think they did; I won't be sure of it.

Q. What did you answer?—A. I don't remember what my answer was. They made me promise to vote the Democratic ticket from that time forward, on my word and honor.

Q. Who required you to make that promise?—A. The board; I don't know the man's name.

Q. Who was present when this promise was exacted from you?—A. Al Johnson; he took me in where the board was.

Q. Who else besides you and Al Johnson and the election-board were in that room?—A. I cannot tell you who was in there besides the election-board, Al Johnson, and myself.

Q. Were you sworn?—A. No, sir.

Q. The only qualification they required of you was that you should pledge yourself as you have stated?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you describe the appearance of the man who required this pledge from you?—A. I would know him if I would see him. He had some beard. I can't tell whether it was moustache, whiskers, or beard. He appeared to be the head man of the board. He was a tall, slim man, about 5 feet 8 inches.

Q. Were there other persons of the board present and heard this conversation?—A. The board was there. I don't know whether there were any more about.

Q. Was this conversation in a whisper or in ordinary talk?—A. In ordinary talk.

Q. What time of day was this?—A. It was in the afternoon. I can't say the exact time.

Q. Were you taken away from the other members of the board when the person exacted this promise from you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was it done in the presence of the other members of the board?—A. Yes, sir; during their hours.

Q. Did you ever speak of this before to-day?—A. Yes.

Q. Whom to?—A. I don't remember who to.

Q. Did you say it to William D. Irvin or William C. Arnold?—A. I don't remember. I know I did not say it to W. D. Irvin; but I believe I did say something to William C. Arnold in regard to it.

Re-examined:

Q. Will you state whether you know of any other of the members of the board of Brady than the one you have referred to heard the conversation between you and that one when he required you to make that pledge?—A. I spoke loud enough. I suppose they all heard me.

Q. Did you vote the Democratic ticket straight through at that election?—A. I suppose it was. Bennett was on it.

Q. You voted for Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You cannot recall the man's name who required this pledge of you?—A. I think his name was Kirk. I won't say positively.

And further saith not.

ALBERT MCGARY sworn:

Question. How are you generally called, McGary or Gary?—Answer. I am generally called Gary here, and so registered and assessed. I was not raised here.

Q. Is that the name by which you are known by in Pike Township, Albert Gary?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State if you voted in the election-district of Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State for whom you voted for Congress at said election?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have you lived in Pike Township?—A. Four years.

Q. Did you live there more than two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Were you born in the United States?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you pay your last State and county tax?—A. The last tax I can be qualified that I paid was paid on October 5, 1876.

Q. Did you pay or did any one for you pay State and county tax since that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. If you have a receipt read it.

Witness produces receipt which reads as follows:

“PIKE TOWNSHIP, Sept. 2, 1877.

“Received of Albert Gearry his State and county tax for the year 1877.

“LEWIS I. BLOOM, Collector.”

The name, Albert Garrey, and the date, are in different handwriting and different ink.

Q. Did you vote on that receipt?—A. I was not asked for any receipt by the board.

Q. Was your vote questioned or challenged by anybody?—A. No, sir; was not.

Q. Had you within two years of the 5th of November, 1878, paid taxes in Pike Township?—A. The last tax was paid on October 5, 1876, as the receipt says.

Re-examined.

Q. When did you receive this receipt which has been offered in evidence on cross-examination?—A. I received it the day of the election, November 5, 1878.

Q. From whom did you receive that receipt?—A. I received it from Calvin Bloom.

Q. What are Calvin Bloom's politics?—A. He is a minor, not of age.

Q. What is his father's name?—A. Lewis I. Bloom.

Q. Was it Lewis I. Bloom, the collector, you mean?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge, who paid the taxes called for by that receipt?—A. Well, of my own knowledge, I have none, who paid it.

Q. State if you ever asked, authorized, or directed, any one to pay the taxes called for in that receipt.—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. When?—A. I could not tell the day or date, but I first asked about the latter part of July. I asked Lewis I. Bloom to pay my taxes, and he said his son Cortes Bloom had the duplicate.

Q. Was that the first time you said anything to any one about the payment of those taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was in the latter part of July, 1878, was it not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you next speak to him, or any one else, about the taxes?—A. As near as I can remember, it was about two weeks after when I saw Cortes. That was at Bloomington. He told me the duplicate was at home.

Q. Was or was not that the last time you spoke to him or any one else about those taxes until the November election of 1878?—A. I believe that was the last time.

Q. If these taxes called for in this receipt were paid at all, were they not paid after you saw Cortis Bloom in Bloomington, as stated?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did Calvin Bloom say to you when he handed you the receipt on the day of the election?

(Objected to as immaterial.)

A. I cannot remember. The way I came to get the receipt, I was working for Thaddeus Cross, and they asked me if I was going to the election, and I told them I was not, and they asked me why, and I told them there was no use in going to elections any more, as they did not amount to anything; and then there was another man came along the road and asked me if I was going to the election, and I told him I guessed not, as I could not vote, and he asked me if I had not a tax receipt within two years. I told him I could not remember, as my receipt was at home. He asked me if I could remember anyways near the time, and I told him as near as I could tell, was when Jake Ritter was collector, in 1876. Then he asked me about what time I paid it, whether it was near the end of the year when Ritter's time was out. I told him I thought it was. I don't remember this man's name, but there were several others came along and asked me the same question. I told them all about the same story. Among the rest that came along was Calvin Bloom, and he asked me if I was coming. I told him the same story. He said, "Are your taxes paid?" He says, "Pap paid them." I told him I had no receipt. He says, "I am going to town and will bring you up your receipt." That was on the forenoon of election day, and I told him to be back by noon, and he said he would, but he did not come. After I got my dinner I started to the election and met Calvin on the way. He said, "I tried to get back by noon but I could not, but here is your receipt; I told you I would bring it."

Q. Which direction were these people going who inquired so anxiously about your going to the election to vote?—A. Some going to the election and some from. I did not ask them.

Q. Which way was Calvin going when he came to you first?—A. If I remember right he was going toward Curwinsville.

Q. Were you working along the road?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Close to the road, was it?—A. About ten feet off.

Q. When Calvin said he would go and get the receipt did he not say that his father, Lewis I. Bloom, was in Curwinsville, and he would go to him and get it?—A. I don't know whether he named his father or not.

Q. He was going towards Curwinsville when he told you he would get you your receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. He was coming from Curwinsville when he brought the receipt, was he not?—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. How far do you live or how far were you working from Curwinsville on that day?—A. I was working about two or three miles.

Q. Does Lewis I. Bloom live on the same road you were working on, or near the same road?—A. Yes, sir; he lives near the road.

Q. Does he live farther from Curwinsville or nearer than where you were working?—A. Further.

Q. Did you notice when you got this receipt from Calvin Bloom that a portion of the writing was fresher looking and in different ink from the balance or not?—A. I don't remember as I did; as I can't read writing I did not look at the receipt.

Q. Look at the receipt now and state whether you notice that difference in the name and in the date as compared with the balance of the writing?—A. Yes, sir; I see a difference in the color of the ink.

Q. Does not the date in the first line and the name in the second look much fresher and as if it had been written since than the balance of the writing?—A. The difference of the color of the ink makes it look fresher.

Q. Do you know whether the tax called for in this receipt was ever paid, of your own knowledge, I mean?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Have you any idea this tax was paid as long ago as September 2, 1877, the date of the receipt?—A. I could not say; I had offered to pay it later than that time.

Q. You had offered Lewis Bloom to pay it nearly a year after that, had you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he claim then that it was paid?—A. He said when I asked to pay it he did not know how much it was; that Cortes had the duplicate.

Q. About two weeks later you offered to pay it to Cortes Bloom, did you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Cortes Bloom claim then that it was paid?—A. He just said the duplicate was at home in his other coat pocket.

Q. Did you ask either Lewis I. Bloom or Cortes Bloom to pay these taxes for you?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Then when you said a while ago you asked Lewis I. Bloom to pay your taxes and a short time afterwards had asked Cortes to pay them, did you not mean that you went to them to pay the taxes yourself?—A. Yes, sir; that was what I meant to say.

Q. Did you ever ask, authorize, or direct any one to pay the taxes called for in that receipt for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. I asked you before this same question and your answer was, "Yes, sir; I did." Did you mean to answer that question in that way?—A. No, sir; did not understand the question.

Q. Have you ever paid any State or county tax since October 5, 1876?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. Have you ever authorized any one to pay any State or county tax for you since October 5, 1876?—A. I could not say whether I did or not within two years.

Q. You have no recollection of doing so, have you?—A. No, sir; to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Have you any objection to giving this receipt to the notary to attach to the deposition?—A. I have not if I get a copy of it.

(Paper marked Exhibit H identified by witness and offered in evidence.)

Cross-examined:

Q. Did Calvin Bloom, before giving you that receipt, and before he had gone to Curwinsville, inform you that your tax was paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know anything about it, except that your tax, as he said, was paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. If Lewis I. Bloom paid your tax himself because you had been there in time to pay them, and they were not paid by you because the duplicate was away, was there anything wrong about it?—A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Q. Had anybody else besides Calvin Bloom told you your taxes were paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who?—A. Lewis I. Bloom.

Q. Do you mean Lewis I. Bloom, the collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. If any person else saw proper to pay your taxes so that you could vote, do you think it was anybody else's business?—A. No, sir; I don't; it helped me along.

Q. Don't you know that the signature to the receipt you have is Bloom's own?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Re-examined:

Q. When did Lewis I. Bloom tell you that your tax was paid?—A. It was the day of the show at Clearfield.

Q. How long was that before the election?—A. It was a month before, anyway, if not more.

Q. If the show was on the 10th of October, 1878, then it was less than a month before the election, was it not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you mean the animal show and circus that was exhibited below the town here?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Lewis I. Bloom say when the taxes were paid?—A. No, sir; all he said, "Your taxes are paid; you need not be anyways alarmed about the election.

And further saith not.

Q. State if you voted in the election district of Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State for whom you voted for Congress at said election.—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. State if you had paid a State or county tax within two years preceding that election.—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. How long was it before that election that you paid a State or county tax?—A. Well, I can't recollect. I could have brought the receipt along if I had known it was necessary, but I have not paid any within two years.

Q. Have you paid any since the election in which Tilden and Hayes were candidates?—A. Yes, my taxes are paid up within two years. I think they are.

Q. Do you mean that you had paid any State or county tax within two years of the election of November, 5, 1878?—A. I stated to you before that I had not paid any taxes within two years.

Q. Was it or not more than two years before the election of November 5, 1878, that you had paid any State or county tax?—A. I can't tell as close as that.

Q. State who you paid the last State or county tax to?—A. I don't know; I won't say till I get my receipts.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who did you vote for at that election, Tilden or Hayes?—A. I voted for Hayes.

Q. Had you paid your tax in time to vote at that election?—A. Yes; I had paid all tax to within the last two years.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax since that election?—A. I think I did; I know I have; my receipt will show.

Q. Can you recollect whether you have or not without seeing your receipts?—A. I can't testify certainly without seeing my receipts.

Q. State what time of day you first offered to vote at Curwinsville, in Pike Township.—A. I can't testify to that; I don't know.

Q. Was not your vote challenged when you first offered to vote on November 5, 1878, by W. A. Arnold?—A. Yes.

Q. Was your vote received when he challenged you?—A. Yes, sir; after he challenged me my vote was received afterwards.

Q. How long after he challenged you was it that your vote was received?—A. O, I can't recollect.

Q. Did you not go away from the polls after he challenged you, and come back and vote afterward?—A. I was not at the window when he challenged me; he challenged me on the sidewalk. I got mad and went down street, and then a short time afterward I came back and voted.

Q. Did you offer your ticket the first time?—A. I did not go to the window; I did not offer my ticket at all.

Q. Did you not remember that it was in the forenoon when you went up to vote first, and that it was in the afternoon or evening when you came back and voted?—A. It was in the forenoon when I first went up and not far from noon the first time, and I think it was in the afternoon I voted as near as I can recollect.

Q. Was W. C. Arnold at the window when you voted?—A. He was not there; they had put him out of that.

Q. Did you present your ticket after he had left?—A. Yes, sir; he was not allowed to come back or he would get his a—e kicked.

Q. State who came back with you when you came back and voted.—A. I came back alone.

Q. Was not Arnold Bloom with you when you put in your ticket?—A. No, sir; he was not.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long had you lived in Pike Township, Clearfield County?—A. Twenty-one years past.

Q. Did you live there two months immediately preceding the November election of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you a native born?—A. Yes, sir; I am.

Q. Have you always paid your State and county and other taxes?—A. Yes, sir; always except the last two years.

Q. According to the best of your recollection, without having seen your receipts, have you not paid State and county taxes since the last Presidential election?—A. I told you they were all paid up to the last two years.

Q. Can you not say whether it was before you voted for Hayes, or since, you paid the last tax?—A. I voted for Hayes, and paid tax after that.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you mean that you paid State and county tax after you voted for Hayes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not Lewis I. Bloom, or some one else, hand you a tax receipt on the November election day of 1878 or near that time?—A. No, I think not; there was nothing of that kind handed to me; they are not that liberal.

Q. If you did pay a State or county tax since you voted for Hayes for President have you the receipt for it at home?—A. I am not certain whether I have or not.

Q. Did you pay all your State and county taxes up to and including 1876 before the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I had paid my taxes up to and back of two years.

Q. Do you mean that you paid your taxes, State and county, up to within two years preceding the last general election?—A. Yes, up to within two years of the last election or about that time.

Q. Did you pay your State and county tax for the year 1876 that is assessed for 1876?—A. Why, of course I did.

Q. Did you pay those taxes during the year 1876?—A. Yes.

Q. When you speak of paying up to within two years do you mean two years from this date or two years from the last general election?—A. Two years from the last general election is what I mean.

And further saith not.

DANIEL FAUST affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Curwinsville Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Do you know William Piles?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he reside on the day of the general election of November 5, 1878 and for some time prior thereto?—A. With W. C. Arnold, in Curwinsville Borough.

Q. For what length of time had he resided there before said election?—A. I could not say what length of time; I know he was there some time.

Q. Are his parents living?—A. His father is dead, his mother is living.

Q. Is she married again and where does she reside?—A. She is married again and resides in Pike Township.

Q. Has or has not William Piles for some time been supporting himself?—A. I do not know of his supporting himself; he has been making his home wherever he could get employment and a home.

Q. Did he make his home in Curwinsville Borough while living with W. C. Arnold?—A. I think so, for the time being.

Q. Do you know where he voted at the last general election?—A. All I know about it I was told he voted in the borough.

Q. Do you know anything about it except what you were told?—A. No, I do not.

Q. Did you hear, or were you present at, a conversation with Lewis I. Bloom, collector of State and county taxes for Pike Township, in regard to taxes paid by W. C. Arnold, and, if so, relate the same as near as you can?—A. Yes; I did hear a conversation, the substance of which was that William C. Arnold had assumed taxes and that he considered them paid as to the parties they were charged against. I did not hear who they were or what amount there was; nothing was said about the parties. It appeared from the conversation that W. C. Arnold wanted Bloom to go somewhere at some time that he wanted to pay those taxes, and he would settle them. Bloom had not time to go then, and accepted Arnold's assumption or liability for them.

Q. When was this conversation?—A. I don't remember the time; it was after the election, in December some time.

Q. Did Bloom say that the arrangement with Arnold was that he had accepted Arnold's obligation for the amount of those taxes, and that they were paid in that way?—A. From the conversation I understood that they were settled, and that Bloom held Arnold personally for them.

Q. Did not Bloom say, in so many words, that the taxes were paid in that way?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was that conversation between?—A. Between W. C. Arnold and Lewis I. Bloom, in my presence.

Q. Did Bloom say when the arrangement had been made by Arnold in regard to the payment of those taxes as stated?—A. The first of October, 1878, or a little before that, he said.

Cross-examined:

Q. No names were mentioned by Arnold in this conversation?—A. No, sir.

Q. No amount of taxes specified?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who began the conversation?—A. I don't know; I think W. C. Arnold.

Q. Had he said anything to you, just before Bloom came up, that he was going to talk to Bloom on that subject?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where did the conversation take place?—A. In the wareroom of my store.

Q. Did Arnold call Bloom off the street, or call him out of your store into the wareroom?—A. He did not, I believe; it was the time the mail was being changed and the store was very full of people.

Q. How did you come to be present?—A. Well, I just happened to go there; I think, probably, I went in to see who had gone into that room.

Q. Were you requested by either of them to remain or did you remain?—A. I did remain; I don't remember of being requested to remain.

Q. Were you particularly interested or concerned about what they were talking?—A. No, sir; I was not. At that time there was a little talk about the receipt business.

Q. Do you pretend to remember accurately what either party said?—A. I don't pretend to remember verbatim et literatim, but I remember clearly the substance.

Q. Do you know how long they had been there, or what they had said before you went in?—A. I don't know what they said before I went in; I went in shortly after they did.

Q. Did not William Piles stay at his mother's when he was not working or employed by other persons?—A. I do not know.

Q. Don't you know that his mother did his washing?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did not Arnold, chairman, tell you he had paid taxes to Bloom on the day before the election for such persons as he thought would vote for Yocum?—A. I don't think he did; if he did, I have forgotten it.

Q. Did he not tell you, just a few days before the election, that he was going to Brady and Dubois to pay some taxes and leave some money to be used in the interest of Yocum?—A. He did not, that I remember; he may have told me he was going out there, but did not tell me his business.

Q. Did he not consult you about the payment of taxes after the time had expired for paying them?—A. I believe not.

Q. Was there any arrangement between you by which you should accept orders given by him to persons who would vote as he directed them?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did not Bloom say that the arrangement with Arnold was an honest transaction?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

And further saith not.

PORTER PILES sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. At Chestnut Ridge, Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What relation are you to William Piles?—A. I am his brother.

Q. Where did William Piles reside on the day of election, November, 1878, and for some time prior thereto?—A. At William C. Arnold's.

Q. Where?—A. At Curwinsville Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did he or not make his home there at that time?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Do you know where William Piles voted at that election?

(Objected to for the reason that the records are the best evidence of where William Piles voted.)

A. He voted in Curwinsville Borough; I mean that is where he ought to have voted.

Q. Where did he vote?—A. He voted in the county.

Q. Did he or did he not vote in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Did he tell you for whom he voted at said election for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; he did; I understood he voted for Curtin; he told me he voted for Curtin.

Q. Where is William Piles now?—A. He is in the penitentiary.

Q. About how long ago was he sent there?—A. About four weeks ago as near as I can tell.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you reside with your father in Pike Township?—A. My father is dead.

Q. With whom do you reside?—A. John Starr.

Q. With whom did your brother reside when living in Pike Township?—A. He had no regular place; he did stay at Sam Moore's, off and on, when he had no work.

Q. Did he have his clothes and things at Samuel Moore's?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he go there frequently?—A. No; not very often.

Q. Did he go there every week or so?—A. No, sir.

Q. How far do you live from Samuel Moore's?—A. About four miles.

Q. Might he not have been there often without you seeing him?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you see Samuel Moore's from where you live?—A. No, sir; but I worked handy there when he was there.

Q. Did you ever hear him say that he had left Samuel Moore's and never intended to return again?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you see him vote on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Do you know that he did vote?—A. He told me so.

Q. When did he tell you he had voted?—A. The evening of the election.

Q. Are you certain he told you he voted for Curtin?—A. Yes, sir; I am certain.

Q. Do you know of him getting a suit of clothes just before or right after the election?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Did he ever say to you he was to get a suit of clothes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he say to you that W. C. Arnold had offered to get him a suit of clothes if he would vote for Yocum?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did he come to tell you he voted for Curtin?—A. We got to talking of the election, who we voted for; I asked him who he voted for and he said Curtin.

Q. Who did you tell that he had said to you he had voted for Curtin?—A. William C. Arnold, and everybody asked me.

Q. When did you tell W. C. Arnold first?—A. About a week and a half ago, I guess.

Q. Did he ask you to tell him or did you tell him without him asking you?—A. He asked me if I knew who Bill had voted for; I told him he had told me he voted for Curtin.

Q. Was he working for Arnold by the day or by the month?—A. He told me he was working by the month.

Q. What did Mr. Arnold tell you when you told him William said he had voted for Curtin?—A. He did not tell me anything.

Re-examined:

Q. With whom do you live in Pike Township, and how are they related to you?—A. I live with John Starr and my mother. John Starr is my stepfather.

Q. How long has your father been dead?—A. Eight years.

Q. Did William Piles ever make his home with your stepfather?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has or has he not since the death of your father been making his own living, and making his home wherever he could get work?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far does Samuel Moore live from Curwinsville?—A. It is not a quarter of a mile.

Recross-examined :

Q. When William Piles had no work he made his home with Samuel Moore, did he?—A. No, sir; not always; he mostly after he had done working went around among his uncles.

And further saith not.

GEORGE D. MURPHY sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Lumber City Borough, now.

Q. Where did you reside on the day of the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. In Pike Township.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the testimony of this witness for the reason that the contestant or his counsel have not received such notice as is required by the act of Congress regulating contested elections, in that they have notice that George D. Murphy, a resident of Pike Township, Clearfield County, would be called on this the 26th day of February, whilst George D. Murphy, the witness, testifies that he resides in Lumber City Borough, of the taking of whose testimony contestant has no notice whatever.)

Q. When did you move from Pike Township to Lumber City Borough?—A. On the 10th of this month.

Q. Did you present your ticket and offer to vote at said election in Pike Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote; and, if not, why not?—A. No, sir; I did not; they would not let me. I handed my vote to the window and they refused to take it. They asked me if I had paid taxes inside of two years, and I told them I had; they asked me if I had a receipt; I told them I had not, and they refused to take my vote then.

Q. Were these questions asked you by members of the election board?—A. No, sir.

Q. By whom?—A. By Joe Dale, who was one of the clerks of the board.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that had been assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you offer to swear to such payment of tax, and did you request the election board to qualify you in regard to it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they or not refuse to do so?—A. They did refuse.

Q. For whom did you intend to vote for Congress at said election?—A. Seth Yocum and the Republican ticket.

Q. Was the name of Seth H. Yocum on the ticket which you presented and claimed the right to vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. I will be thirty-three years old by the 21st of July next.

Q. Were you born in this country?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Pike Township with your wife and family for more than one whole year immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Well, I don't know whether it was a year or not.

Q. Did you reside in the State during that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Pike Township with your wife and family for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined :

Q. Where was your father born?—A. He was born in the United States.

Q. When you presented your vote and were asked if you had paid any taxes by the election board, what did you say?—A. I told them I had.

Q. Did they ask you whether you had a tax-receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you tell them?—A. I told them "yes, sir," of course.

Q. Did you not tell the election board that you had a tax-receipt for the payment of your taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not tell the election officers that you had a tax-receipt, and did they not tell you to go and get it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not say to the election officers that you had a tax-receipt, and did they not send you for it, and did you not return without it and offer to vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you swear to this now?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. When did you pay the taxes you say you had paid?—A. I paid them in the fall of 1877.

Q. To whom?—A. To John McClellan.

Q. Did you pay them before or after the general election of 1877, November 7?—A. I paid them about a month before.

Q. Do you swear that the taxes you paid John McClellan were paid more than one month before November 7, 1877, and that they were State and county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, on November 5, 1878, offer to vote in Pike Township, and when your vote was refused did you tell the election officers that you had lost your receipt, and wanted to make an affidavit that you had paid your taxes—that is, State and county taxes—within two years preceding said election and at least one month before the same?—A. I did not tell them I had lost my receipt, but I offered to be qualified that I had paid my tax.

Q. Did you offer to make an affidavit in which you would swear when and where the tax claimed to have been paid by you was assessed, and when and where and to whom it was paid, and also that the receipt had been lost or destroyed; and did you have any qualified elector present to swear that you had resided in Pike Township for a period of at least two months immediately preceding such election?—A. I offered to make an affidavit that I had paid a State and county tax within two years preceding said election, and told them I would swear when, where, and to whom I paid it, and where and when it was assessed, but I did not offer to swear I had lost my receipt, and I did not offer to have another man, a qualified voter, swear that I had resided in Pike Township for more than two months immediately preceding said election.

Q. Did you ask the election officers to fill out such affidavit and let you swear to it?—A. I did not ask them to fill out one, but I told them I would swear as I have stated in the preceding question.

Q. How far did you live from the polls?—A. About a half a mile.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you owe John McClellan other taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you certain about that?—A. No, sir. But I suppose if I did he would have been after them.

Q. Might he not have had school tax or other borough taxes against you?—A. If he had he never asked me for them.

Q. I asked you might he not have had school-tax or other borough taxes against you?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Was your vote questioned on any other ground than payment of taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you offer to make such affidavit as the law required in such cases?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you requested to have any qualified elector to vouch for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who were the judge and inspectors of election in Pike Township?
A. I believe Farewell was judge, and John Holden and a man called Hartshorn the other. I am not positive that Holden's first name was John.

Q. What was their politics?—A. Farewell was a Democrat and Holden a Democrat, and Hartshorn was a Republican, I suppose. He is considered one.

Q. Was John McClellan collector of State and county taxes for 1877?
—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not reside in Clearfield Borough before removing to Pike Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was Collector McClellan when you paid him your State and county taxes in 1877, and did he give you a receipt?—A. He was about half way between where a man named Brown lives and Goodfellow's Bridge, and did not give me a receipt.

Q. Was he or not driving on the public road?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did he not give you a receipt?—A. He had no pen and ink.

Q. Did you tell the election board that you did not have a receipt?
—A. Yes, sir.

Q. If you stated before that you did not tell the election board you did not have a tax receipt, did you or did you not mean that you did not offer to swear to that fact?—A. That is what I mean.

Q. Where are you working?—A. With Mr. McNaul, at Curwinsville.

Q. Is or is not Curwinsville your post-office address?—A. All the letters I have received since I moved have been at Curwinsville. I suppose my post-office address would properly be at either place.

Q. Did you not continue to work at McNaul's, after you moved, the same as you did before?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was not John McClellan the collector of taxes other than State and county taxes?—A. I suppose he was.

Q. You suppose, then, you do, do you, that when you paid your taxes to McClellan in 1877 that he was collector of other taxes besides the State and county taxes?—A. I suppose he was.

And further saith not.

SEYMOUR ROSS affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Pike Township, about three or four miles from Curwinsville.

Q. How old are you?—A. I am thirty-one.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—
A. At Curwinsville Borough.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax at any time since 1876?—A.
Not that I remember.

Q. To whom did you pay the last State or county tax?—A. To Jacob
Ritter.

Q. Was or was not that the tax upon which you voted at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was or was it not paid long enough before said election to entitle you to a vote at it?—A. That I don't know. I got a vote on it. I was not asked any questions about it.

Q. Was Collector Ritter present at the 1876 election when you voted?
—A. That I don't know.

Q. Did you have a receipt for the payment of those taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you it with you?—A. No, sir; I had it when I started from home, but I lost it.

Q. Was or was not that receipt dated October 1, 1876?—A. I could not just say the date, but I remember it was on the last day before taxes could be paid at the election in 1876, thirty days before that election.

Q. Do you mean that you paid those taxes thirty days before the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was not that the last State and county tax you paid?—A. I think it was.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at the general election of 1878?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you reside in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one year immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you offered any money by any one in consideration of your vote for Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom?—A. Arnold Bloom.

Q. How much?—A. One dollar.

Cross-examination:

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you positive Curtin's name was on it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you not paid other taxes within two years preceding said election?—A. I don't remember of paying any since I paid those to Ritter.

Q. Did you pay any in 1877?—A. Not that I remember.

Q. Did you ever pay any to L. I. Bloom?—A. I don't remember of paying any.

Q. Did any person pay any State or county tax for you within two years preceding said election?—A. Some one must have paid it. I have a receipt. I don't know who it was.

Q. Have you that receipt here?—A. No, sir.

Q. What is the date?—A. Don't remember the date.

Q. Was it dated 1877?—A. I don't remember. I did not look at it particular.

Q. Was it given to you in 1877?—A. It was given to me on the day of the election.

Q. Was it the election of 1877 or 1878?—A. On the day of the last election, when Curtin ran.

Q. Were you ever asked to pay your State or county taxes during 1877 or 1878 that you remember of?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did Arnold Bloom offer you $1 for your vote?—A. The day of the election.

Q. Where was he?—A. He was at the election polls.

Q. How close to the window?—A. As close as he could get.

Q. Was there any one else with you?—A. There was no one with me. There were several standing right there.

Q. Could they hear him talk and say what he did to you?—A. No, sir. He spoke to me there, and they heard that.

Q. Name some of the persons who were standing about you?—A. I can only remember of one man, Henry Best.

Q. What time of day was it when you voted?—A. I could not say what time; some time about the middle of the day.

Q. Who was present when you voted?—A. I don't remember who was present. There were several standing there, but I can't give their names.

Q. Did not some one offer you money or other valuable thing to vote for Seth H. Yocum?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you swear that you were not offered money or any other valuable thing to vote for Yocum and the Republican ticket?—A. I do.

Q. You have voted the Democratic ticket before last fall, have you not?—A. Yes, sir. I never pay attention to Democrats or Republican. I vote for the man. I vote as much one side as the other.

Q. What time of day was it when you say Bloom offered you $1 for your vote?—A. I don't remember the time; it was along about the middle of the day.

Q. Whom did you first tell that Arnold Bloom had offered you money for your vote?—A. I told it in this room the first time.

Q. Did you never tell it to W. C. Arnold?—A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever tell it to Ed. Livingstone?—A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever tell it to any person whatever until you came into this room for the purpose of testifying in the Curtin-Yocum contest?—A. Well, my wife and me had a little talk; I don't remember whether I told it to her or not, but if I did she was the only one.

Q. Did you have any talk with any person as to what your testimony should be, before or since you were subpoenaed to testify here?—A. No; I never told any one.

Q. Did any one approach you and talk to you on the subject?—A. Well, I don't know; people have approached me and asked what I should testify to, but I never told any one; these were persons since I came here, who knew I was subpoenaed.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you or do you not think Henry Best was present when Bloom offered you this money, and could he have heard the conversation about it?—A. No, he did not hear the conversation at all; he was not present when it was offered.

Q. You have stated that you voted in Curwinsville Borough; did you mean that?—A. I meant that I went to Curwinsville to the election. I voted in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you ever authorize or request any one to pay the taxes called for by the receipt you got on the day of the election?—A. Well, I don't know whether you call it authorizing or not. Some time before the election I was in Wm. Arnold's office and he spoke something to me about settling my taxes, but I cannot just say what.

Q. He spoke to you about it?—A. Well, he asked me if my taxes was paid, and I told him not, and I ain't sure but he told me not to trouble myself anything about the taxes, that they would be paid in time.

Q. Was or was not the name of Lewis I. Bloom signed to that receipt as collector?—A. It was.

Q. Do you know how many days before the election it was that you had the conversation with W. C. Arnold in his office, or was it before the election at all?—A. Well, it was some time before the election, a month or two.

Q. Then, as I understand it, you did not authorize any one to pay those taxes for you, but that W. C. Arnold spoke to you about them?—A. He merely spoke to me about it, and I paid no further attention to it; I did not know whether it was paid or not; I supposed from the talk we had that he would pay it.

Q. You don't know whether he paid those taxes or not, do you?—A. I don't know whether William Arnold paid them or not; I got the receipt, and that is all I know about it.

And further saith not.

JOHN ANDERSON recalled and sworn.

Question. State, Mr. Anderson, if you have been home since you testified this morning and made search for the tax receipts.—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. State—can you say now whether you have paid any State and county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. There is the receipt. (Witness produces receipt.)

Q. Will you read it?—A. Will you read it yourself? (Witness hands the receipt to the notary, who reads as follows:

“CURWINSVILLE, Sep. 22, A. D. 1877.

“Received of John Anderson eighty cents in full for school tax for A. D. 1875, and also ten cents in full for poor tax for A. D. 1876, and also one dollar and sixty cents in full for school tax for A. D. 1877. Total, two dollars and fifty cents.

J. F. RITTER, Col.”

Q. Is that the only tax which you paid within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is not that the receipt which you wanted to see when on the stand before, in order to testify correctly?—A. This receipt here now is the latest one I have paid.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you any other receipt dated in 1876 or 1877?—A. I cannot recollect of any.

Q. Can you say when you paid your State and county tax for 1876?—A. I can't tell you the day of the week or the month, but I have not paid, as I stated before, within two years.

Q. Is this receipt from Ritter the only taxes you paid to Ritter?—A. This tax I paid him at the post-office there, and the postmaster handed me the receipt from Ritter.

Q. The question is, did you pay any other tax to Ritter?—A. That was the only tax he had against me.

A. What taxes was Ritter collecting?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you always get receipts or take receipts when you paid taxes?—A. No; I did not.

Q. Do you know who was collector of State and county taxes for 1876 in Pike Township?—A. Well, I hain't certain, but I think it was Hiles.

Q. Did you pay any taxes to Lew Bloom?—A. Well, I won't affirm that, but I think that I did.

Q. Do you recollect of his asking you for taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recollect when it was that he asked you?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Were you not under the impression that you had a receipt from Bloom?—A. I can't affirm that.

Q. Do you mean that you are not sure whether you had or not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember what took place between you and Bloom when he asked you for your taxes?—A. No, sir; I don't remember.

And further saith not.

BENJAMIN HARTSHORN, Jr., affirmed:

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you present at the Pike Township poll at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at said election, and what ticket did you vote?—A. I voted the Republican ticket, except for Congressman. Yes, sir; I voted there.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Were you present at the polls when Seymour Ross and Almstead Lewis voted?—A. I was present when Ross voted.

Q. Did you see Arnold Bloom there that day?—A. Between two and three o'clock, when I came down, I saw him.

Q. Did he or not seem to be actively engaged in working for the interests of the Democratic party?—A. He was actively engaged; I don't know on which side he was working. I supposed it was on the Democratic side, as he was a Democrat. I did not know anything else.

Q. Did you see him in intimate conversation with Seymour Ross and Almstead Lewis, or either of them, just before they voted?—A. I saw him talking with Seymour Ross; it was before he voted.

Q. Did you see Almstead Lewis there that day?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see Arnold Bloom talk to him?—A. I can't say I did.

Q. Did you see him with him?—A. Can't say I did see him with him.

Q. Did you see Lewis I. Bloom, tax collector of State and county taxes of Pike Township, at the poll on that day?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him?—A. In the election-house, where the board was.

Q. Did you see him (Lewis I. Bloom), the collector, have any tax receipts?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he have them, and about how many did he have?—A. He pulled them out of his pocket when I saw them. He had about twenty-five or thirty, or thereabouts—quite a bunch of them.

Q. Did you have any of them in your hand, and did you look at them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Describe them as near as you can.—A. They were receipts for State and county tax, without stating the amount.

Q. Were they signed by Lewis I. Bloom?—A. Yes, sir; I did not examine them all.

Q. Was the name of the party against whom the tax was inserted in the receipts, or was there a blank left for the insertion of the name?—

A. No, sir—yes, sir; there was a blank left for the insertion of the name.

Q. Were the receipts dated?—A. I did not notice the dates.

(Receipt marked exhibit H, and already offered in evidence, being the one testified to by Albert McGary, shown to witness by the notary.)

Q. Were the receipts which Bloom had similar to this one, with the date and name blank?—A. Yes sir; they were similar to that.

Q. Is or is not Lewis I. Bloom, collector, a Democrat?—A. Supposed to be a Democrat.

Cross-examined:

Q. How many of these blank tax-receipts that Bloom showed you were filled up and voted on by any one?

(Counsel for contestee objects to witness testifying to hearsay or anything but what he knows of his own knowledge; also, it is not cross-examination.)

A. I could not say that any of them were voted on. His son came in and asked him for some of those receipts; he pulled a handfull out of his pocket and laid them down on a desk before me; his son picked up some of them and walked out; we were sitting on a school desk.

Q. Were any of them dated at all?—A. I don't know that I examined more than one.

Q. Was it dated?—A. No, sir; I don't remember about the date.

Q. Is it an unusual thing for the tax collector to have with him blank receipts, with the name and date blank?—A. It didn't use to be, but of late I have noticed it.

Q. Do you know William C. Arnold, and was he chairman of the Republican county committee during the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not hear him say, since this examination began, that he had a number of such tax receipts in his office or possession which he had not used?—A. All I heard him say was what he mentioned a minute ago.

Q. Is not that what he said to me a moment ago?—A. I was not paying particular attention to what he was saying about the tax-receipts, whether they were like them or not.

Q. Did you say to any one that you saw tax receipts in Arnold's office?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you say so, or anything of that kind, in presence of Gideon Goodfellow?—A. No, sir; I did not mention that to Goodfellow.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Chairman Arnold before the election on the subject of tax receipts, or of getting votes by the use of money or other things?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you tell Mrs. Moore, of this place, that Arnold was buying votes for Yocum, and that you told Arnold he had better be careful, or something of that kind?—A. No, sir; I had no conversation of that kind with Mr. Arnold, and none of that kind with Mrs. Moore; I had not spoken to Mr. Arnold about the election during that campaign.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mrs. Moore?—A. She was up at my place. I might have had some conversation with her; she is a politician and talks politics.

Q. Was it not a matter of current talk in Pike Township and Curwinsville Borough that Arnold was buying tax-receipts and votes?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the question as hearsay and not cross-examination, and further objects to all that the witness has testified to or may testify to as to anything to which he did not testify in chief.)

A. I don't know about the tax-receipts; I heard the conversation about the votes.

Q. Were you at Pike Township polls a considerable part of the day of election?—A. From between two or three o'clock until evening.

Q. Were you in the election house a part of the time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. So far as you observed, was the election conducted according to law?—A. Yes, sir; so far as the board was concerned.

Q. Was there anything done by the board that had the appearance of fraud or illegality?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote any part of the Democratic ticket at that election but for Congress?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

JOB CURRY affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. I reside in Lumber City Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I am 25 on April last.

Q. State if you voted in the election district of Lumber City Borough at the election of November 5, 1878.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State for whom you voted at said election for Congress.—A. I think I voted for Andrew G. Curtin, if I can spell right. His name was on the top of the ticket when I voted.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have you resided in Lumber City Borough?—A. I can't tell exactly. I think I have had my residence there since last February, when I came from Cameron County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you have your place of residence in Lumber City Borough for at least two months preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I had, with the exception of moving one bed and a stove to do a job of work.

Q. What was the job of work to which you refer?—A. The job of work was making square timber.

Q. Was your household goods and property, with the exception of your one bed and stove, in Lumber City Borough?—A. The household goods were; the house was a rented house.

Q. Is it not a common thing in Clearfield County for men who work in the woods in the manufacture of timber and logs to remain there while engaged at their work?

(Objected to because not cross-examination and because residence cannot be shown by custom.)

A. I believe it is the custom.

Q. Did you move one bed and stove to the camp in which you were working because you were abandoning your residence in Lumber City Borough, and intending to make the camp your permanent residence?

—A. I would call it only a temporary residence.

Q. As soon as your work was done, did you or did you not take up your residence in Lumber City Borough?

(Objected to for the reason that it is an attempt to put a desired answer in the mouth of the witness.)

A. My work is not done yet; but I have been moved back since the Monday before Christmas.

Q. What part of the work remains unfinished?—A. One raft that I took the contract of making after I moved back.

Q. Did you vote at any other poll than in Lumber City Borough?—

A. No, sir; because I had gained no residence any place else.

Q. Did you attempt to vote anywhere else?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. Not in particular; they just called me inside the election house to have a talk with me; it was done, I believe, to see whether I thought I had a right to vote or whether I had voted anywhere else.

Q. Was not the majority of the election board Republican in politics?—A. I believe there was but one of them Republican; there was one a Democrat formerly, but whether he voted it or not I cannot say.

Q. Did the board, so far as you know, have any knowledge of who you were voting for for Congress?—A. It was more than likely they knew I was a Democrat and would vote that ticket.

Q. Was your vote questioned for any other reason except this matter of residence?—A. I believe not as I heard of.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you know whether your ballots were numbered?—A. I could not say whether they all were; I know some of them were.

Q. State whether there was not some trouble in regard to numbering your ballots.—A. I believe there was; when they told me to come in, Mr. Hips went in, and they were jangling over whether I should get a vote or not.

Q. Do you not mean by Mr. Hips Mr. John Hips?—A. Yes.

Q. Was he not an active supporter of Curtin at that election?—A. I believe he was; he said nothing to me before; he was only watching my vote while they were challenging me.

Q. Did he or not go into the house when your vote was questioned?—A. He did; he got in before I did.

Q. What did he say when in there, if anything, as to your residence?—A. He said he thought my residence was all right; I had a right to vote; I did not pay much attention to what he did say.

Q. Did he or did he not go up with you to the window when you went to vote?—A. He did not go to the window that I noticed.

Q. Was he or not with you before you got to the window?—A. I believe I talked a few minutes to him on the porch; he asked me whether I thought I had a right to vote or not; I told him I thought I had.

Q. State whether you saw him that day, before when you saw him on the porch, to speak to?—A. I did not, for a week before, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. State how many beds you had in your house when you went into Ferguson Township?—A. I believe I had three with the one I took out.

Q. How many children have you?—A. Not any.

Q. State who, if any one, you left in charge of your house in Lumber City, when you went into Ferguson Township?—A. There was no one left in charge in particular, except to air the house.

Q. Who was to do that?—A. Mrs. Jameson, a neighbor, and my sister-in-law.

Q. State when you went back to Lumber City, and when you moved out?—A. I moved out on the 18th September, 1878, and came back the Monday before Christmas, 1878.

Q. You were then gone over three months?—A. That was the time, be what it will.

Q. State what kind of a house you lived in in Ferguson Township; what was the size, as near as you can tell?—A. It was only a shanty, and built for only making timber; it was 16 by 12, I think.

Q. Was it built of logs?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they round logs?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it one or two stories?—A. It was one and a half, I believe, but they were very small ones; I could not stand straight in the lower one.

Q. State whether you slept upstairs or downstairs in that shanty?—A. My wife and I slept down, the other men up stairs.

Q. Did you not first make an effort to get boarding in Ferguson Township?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did not you say to Luther Ferguson that you would have to move out?—A. Yes; but at that time I expected to get a good house so that I could move out; I did not call this moving out.

Q. If you did not call it moving when you went out, how do you come to call it moving, on your oath, when you came back?—A. Because I had to hire a team coming back, and going out I did not.

Q. Was not that the only difference?—A. I had more stuff to move back.

Q. Did you have more than one load?—A. No, sir; but I had a pretty good load.

Q. Had you, within two years of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax, which was paid at least one month and assessed at least two months before the election?—A. Yes; here is my receipt, dated 1878, with the county treasurer's name to it.

And further saith not.

D. L. FERGUSON sworn.

Question. State if you were one of the inspectors of the election held in the election district of Lumber City Borough, at the general election of November 5, 1878.—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. State if Mr. Job Curry voted at that election.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State who came with him when he came up to vote.—A. John Hips.

Q. State if John Hips was or was not an active worker for A. G. Curtin.—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. How long had Hips and Curry been together before Curry's vote was offered, if you can say?—A. That I can't definitely answer; he voted in the afternoon.

Q. State if Hips manifested much anxiety or not to get Curry's vote in.

(Objected to, unless he will testify what Hips said and did, so that the committee can judge whether he did or not.

Question withdrawn.)

Q. State what Hips did and said, and if he manifested much anxiety to get Curry's vote in?—A. When Curry came to the window to vote, Mr. Hips was with him. We told Mr. Curry to come into the school-room, and Mr. Hips next rushed into the school-room, ahead of Curry, very much excited, and wanted to know why Curry could not have a vote. There was a great deal said by Hips and fuss made by him and the board. I finally asked him what business he had in the room; he said he acknowledged he had no business there.

Q. State whether the fuss that was made in there was or was not caused by Hips' boisterous manner in attempting to get Curry's vote in.—A. It was entirely.

Q. State what your politics are.—A. I am a Republican.

Q. State what were the politics of the other members of the board.—A. The judge was a Democrat, and the other inspector was a Democrat.

Q. Were they active Democrats?—A. Anthony Hile is an active Democrat; the other inspector is a young man, and does not take much part in politics.

Q. State if the ballot of Job Curry was numbered.—A. He voted four tickets; two were numbered and two were not. "State," "Judiciary," "County," and "Sheep law" made the four tickets.

Q. Which two were not numbered, if you can say?—A. I believe it was "County" and "Sheep law" were not numbered.

Q. State if Job Curry resided in Lumber City Borough for two months immediately preceding that election?—A. No, sir; I don't think he did.

Q. When did he and his family move out of Lumber City Borough, and when did they return?—A. About one month before they moved out, and they returned about Christmas.

Q. Who was he working for while he was out of the borough?—A. He was working making timber for me.

Q. State whether he had a contract with you or was working by the day.—A. He had a contract.

Q. Had he finished his contract when he moved into the borough?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did he come to move back into the borough as early as he did?—A. Well, his wife got sick, I believe, was the reason.

Q. How long did he expect or intend to remain in the township when he moved out there from four to six weeks before the election, if you know?—A. He intended to stay until the job was finished.

Q. When will the job be finished?—A. In four or five days from now.

Q. Will that be earlier or later than he expected to complete the job when he first moved out of the borough?—A. Well, I presume it will be later; not more than a month later.

Q. He expected to be out of the borough about four months, then, before he could finish the job?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What kind of a house did he live in when out there? Was it a shanty or not?—A. I never saw the house, but I understand families have lived in it before.

Q. Do you know—can you name any families who have lived in it?—
A. I cannot give any names.

Q. Did he transact any business in the borough while he lived in the township?—A. He did not carry on any business, except coming to the store.

Q. Is this house in the township near to where others dwell?—A. Yes; it is, to within a few rods.

Q. Is it in the woods or upon farm land?—A. I think it is just on the edge of the woods. I have heard them say so.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you ever seen this magnificent mansion in which Curry resided while working on your square timber?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Do you know, of your own knowledge, how far it is from other dwellings in that vicinity?—A. No, sir; nothing more than what other people told me—a few rods.

Q. Do you know, then, whether it is built on the fertile plain or in the howling wilderness?—A. Neither; a happy medium.

Q. Did Curry go there to cultivate the soil or cut down the primeval forest?—A. He went to cut down trees and make square timber.

Q. Did not Curry have a contract from you to make square timber for you?—A. Yes, sir; he had.

Q. Did he not take his wife with a bed and stove to the place mentioned for the purpose of enabling him to do that work?—A. I don't know what he took. He told me he was going to move out there.

Q. Did he not, after he had partially finished his job, get from you an additional contract or an enlargement of the first one?—A. We first artied for two rafts. He had worked a short time before he moved out. He then moved out, and about that time and before he moved out he artied for the additional rafts.

Q. Was the understanding when you gave him the contract for the two rafts that he should make the additional third raft, and was not the contract for the third raft reduced to writing some time after this?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had not Curry rented a property in Lumber City Borough and resided there for some time before he began work on this timber, and does not his wife occupy that same property now while he is at work in the woods?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he not regularly assessed and registered in Lumber City Borough?—A. I believe so.

Q. Is not Curry a man who makes his living and supports his family by taking contracts of this kind, or day labor wherever he can get it?—
A. He is generally a day laborer. He don't take many contracts.

Q. Was the failure to number all of the different parts of his ticket Curry's failure?—A. Curry had nothing to do with numbering tickets.

Q. Who did number the tickets?—A. The inspectors both did it; one inspector numbered two, and the other the other two.

Q. Did you on account of the talk about Curry's right to vote forget to number those two parts of his ticket that you otherwise would have numbered?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Were there any other tickets not numbered?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was the election of Lumber City Borough in other respects legally conducted?—A. It was, to the best of my knowledge.

And further saith not.

H. P. TOWNS produced and sworn.

Question. Were you the Republican inspector for the general election of November 5, 1878, for the election district of Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. State if you required persons who voted at that election, whose names were not on the registry-list, to make affidavits in writing.—A. We did, sir.

Q. Did the persons who were over 22 years of age, and did not vote on age, make such affidavits, and were they required, in addition to their own affidavit, to produce a qualified voter of the district, who made affidavit also as to their residence in the district for two months preceding the election?—A. Every man who we did not know was an actual resident had to swear himself, and produce another witness to do so also.

Q. By an actual resident, what length of time do you mean?—A. I mean men who we knew or did not know to be a resident of the township at least two months before the election.

Q. Did you not have in the room the registry-list?—A. We did so.

Q. Were not the names of voters checked off on the list as they voted?—A. They were not. That was never done in that township.

Q. State whether every person whose name was not found on that registry list was or was not required to make an affidavit in writing, either as to his age and residence or as to his payment of tax and residence.—A. I think there were some men who we knew had been in the township a year that we did not require to swear, but we made them produce their tax receipts.

Q. Was there a small or large proportion of the non-registered voters who were permitted to vote in this way?—A. Very few indeed, and they were prominent citizens well known in the township.

Q. What was done with these written affidavits taken from the other non-registered voters?—A. They were all put in the ballot-box and sealed up, and are there now.

Q. Were any returned to Clearfield with the return?—A. No, sir; they were not, I think.

Q. Do you remember of Jacob F. Cox voting at that election?—A. I do, sir.

Q. Did he vote on age or on payment of tax?—A. To the best of my knowledge, he voted on age.

Q. Did he or not make an affidavit that he was within the ages of 21 and 22 years?—A. He made affidavit that he was 21 years old last June.

Q. Is that affidavit with the others in the box, and will it be preserved?—A. It is, sir; and know it will now.

Q. What aged man was he, apparently?—A. I should not judge he was more than 22 or 23 years old.

Q. Do you believe that he was over 22 when he voted?—A. I can't swear whether he was or not.

Q. Who brought him to the polls to vote—to the window?—A. I can't say; he came into the room and swore first.

Q. Have you any knowledge as to how he voted, or are there any circumstances within your knowledge to indicate how he voted?—A. I have my opinion, that is all.

Q. What circumstances are your opinion based on?—A. On the class of voters that were around him when he came there and were with him when he voted.

Q. What were the politics of those persons surrounding him?—A. Democratic and Curtin voters.

Q. What was the conduct of these persons towards him?—A. I cannot say further on that subject than it was good.

Q. Did they talk to him or him to them?—A. I don't know; I was in a room.

Q. Was he not considered a Democrat?—A. Yes; he was.

Q. Was he not considered a Curtin Democrat?—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. From these circumstances, what is your opinion as to how he voted for Congress?

(Objected to as incompetent.)

A. I think he voted for Curtin, of course. I have no doubt of it in my mind.

Q. Has or has not Jacob T. Cox left Huston Township since the election?—A. Yes, sir; he left immediately after the election.

Q. Do you know where he is now?—A. He is supposed to be in the State of Michigan.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you swear that Cox was over 22 years of age when he voted?—A. I do not, sir.

Q. Do you swear that he voted for Curtin?—A. I do not; I say to the best of my judgment.

And further saith not.

A. A. KELLEY affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. At Lumber City Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Lumber City Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. How old are you?—A. I was born March 7, 1838.

Q. Did you pay in money, and yourself, any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I can't say I handled the money myself; the tax was paid in money, but I did not pay it myself with my own hands in money; I worked the tax out.

Q. Who was the tax collector?—A. John P. Hile.

Q. Have you a receipt for your taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have any receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. What were you working at for Hile, and when?—A. When he agreed to pay my tax I was rafting in timber, in March, 1878.

Q. Was Collector Hile present when you voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your right to vote called in question by any one on account of non-payment of taxes?—A. It was by the board.

Q. Did you pay any State or county taxes within two years preceding said election, other than this one you paid to Hile in work?—A. I paid my 1876 tax.

Q. Did you pay your 1876 tax before the general election of 1876, and did you then vote on that tax?—A. I can't recollect when I did pay it.

Q. Don't you know whether or not you paid it before said election of 1876?—A. I could not say positively.

Q. Have you a receipt for your 1876 tax with you?—A. Yes, sir; but not with me.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. I sent it with my father to the treasurer.

Q. Do you mean the county treasurer; and, if so, what was his name?—A. Yes, I suppose it was the county treasurer; it was the man went around collecting the tax.

Q. Was it either Treasurer Wise or Treasurer McGaughey?—A. I can't tell which; I suppose it was one or the other.

Q. You are sure that was the tax for 1876, that your father paid?—A. I think so.

Q. Where was the county treasurer when your father paid him the tax—in Clearfield, or when he was going through the county?—A. I don't know certain.

Q. Give us the best of your recollection on the subject.—A. I think it was in Lumber City.

Q. Was it while the county treasurer was at Lumber City on his collection tour through the county?—A. If it was paid then, he was making a tour through the county.

Q. Who was collector of State and county taxes for 1876 for Lumber City Borough?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. What years' taxes was it you paid to Collector Hile in work?—A. 1877.

Q. Did you pay your State and county taxes for 1878 to any one?—A. No, sir.

Q. Other than your 1876 tax which you paid to the county treasurer, and your 1877 taxes which you paid in work to Hile, did you pay any State and county taxes within two years preceding said election of 1878?—A. No, I did not pay any other at that time.

Q. Are you not sure that your 1876 State and county tax was paid to the county treasurer?—A. I sent the money with my father, and he brought me the treasurer's receipt.

Q. Don't you know that that tax was paid in the early part of the year 1876, and before the unpaid State and county taxes were sent to a constable for collection?—A. Yes; it was.

Q. What was the amount of your work for John P. Hile by which you paid your State and county taxes for 1877?—A. Well, at that time I worked seven days and a half, at a dollar and a quarter a day.

Q. What was the amount of your State and county taxes for that year?—A. I was charged with 30 cents for 1877.

Q. Did you give him credit with that amount in your books against him?—A. Yes, sir; I gave him credit with it.

Q. When did you enter that credit?—A. About three weeks ago.

Q. Did you see Hile's duplicate for 1877, on the day of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not your taxes are marked paid on that duplicate?—A. Yes; they are.

Q. Did you see them so marked?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When?—A. About three weeks ago.

Q. By whom were they marked paid?—A. By Grier Hile, for his father.

Q. Did you see him mark them paid and was it at the time stated, three weeks ago?—A. Yes, sir; I see him mark it paid about that time; it was when we settled; the book had been left open till that time.

Q. Then on the day of the election of November 5, 1878, your State and county taxes for 1877 were not marked paid on the duplicate, were they?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you request Grier Hile to mark them paid when you settled?—A. I did not ask him to.

Q. If at that settlement you had come out in Hile's debt, would not the collector have still held those taxes against you?—A. No, sir; I think not, by the contract we had.

Q. Was that contract that Hile was to pay your taxes?—A. Yes, sir; that was it.

Q. Had you not been working for Hile off and on during the greater part of the year 1878?—A. I think I only worked seven days and a half.

Q. When was that?—A. It was all in March.

Q. Did not Hile during that year pay you in money or otherwise more than the amount of that work?—A. Well, yes; he brought me out a little in debt.

Q. Did you settle with him during the year 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you work for him during this year of 1879?—A. No, sir.

Q. At your settlement two weeks ago, in whose favor was the balance?—A. In his favor.

Q. Did you not then know of this Curtin-Yocum contest, and that an effort would be made to throw out your vote on account of non-payment of tax?—A. No, sir. I had some talk about the contest, but did not know they would try my vote.

Q. Had you not heard that they were throwing out the votes of those who had not paid their taxes?—A. I heard no one say so, I believe.

Q. Had you not heard at the time of this settlement and the marking of these taxes paid that they were taking testimony in this contest?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were these taxes marked paid because Hile had agreed to pay them?—A. Yes, sir; because the book was left open between us, and when we settled they were marked paid, according to the agreement.

Q. When was the arrangement you had with Hile to pay your taxes for 1877 made?—A. It was made in March, 1878.

Q. State what the arrangement was.—A. Well, I offered to pay my tax; he told me not to mind it, that he owed me and would pay it.

Q. Had you offered to pay him in money at that time?—A. I told him I had best settle my tax. Of course, it would have to be money.

Q. Can you say now about how much Hile owed you when you spoke to him about paying your tax?—A. He owed me over four dollars for 1875, work done in 1875; then there was about 6 days of work of the last time when the contract was made.

Q. Did he not, then, owe you about ten dollars at the time he agreed to pay your thirty-eight cents tax?—A. Yes, sir; he owed me that or more.

Q. Was he not the collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When your vote was challenged, was Hile or you called before the election board?—A. I was called in.

Q. What did the board say?—A. They said my tax was not marked paid, and then I went to the collector and I told him that my tax was not marked out. He said it was all right; that he had paid the money over. Then one of the clerks came in (the collector is a cripple and cannot be moved without assistance); he told the clerk to write a notice in the shape of a receipt, and notify the board that my tax was paid.

Q. Was the collector able to go to the election house without being carried or assisted to go there?—A. No, sir; two of us led him up.

Q. Which one of the clerks was it that came to his house?—A. J. J. Sterling.

Q. Was the notice or paper writing that the collector signed taken to the election house and shown the board?—A. It was.

Q. After that, was your vote received?—A. Yes, sir; it satisfied the board.

Q. Was you ready and willing to be sworn, if they had required it, that your taxes were paid as you have stated?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Do you know what was written on this paper; whether the collector said anything about testifying that your taxes were paid?—A. I don't remember word for word what was on the paper, but I do remember it said that my taxes were paid in March, 1878.

Q. How long had you lived in Lumber City Borough?—A. About four years.

Q. Did you live there more than two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you a native born?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. What became of that receipt of Collector Hile sent to the election board?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did or did not Hile on the day of the election agree to mark your taxes paid?—A. I did not ask him. He did not.

Q. Did Hile have any other taxes against you except these State and county taxes for 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were any other of such other taxes marked paid at the time of your settlement about three weeks ago?—A. They were all marked that he had against me.

Q. What other taxes did he have against you?—A. School tax.

Q. Did you hear Hile agree on the day of the election to mark any other person's taxes paid?—A. No, sir; I did not hear him say he would mark any.

Q. You swear, then, do you, that in March, 1878, that Hile agreed to mark your State and county taxes for 1877 paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is Hile's politics?—A. He is a Democrat.

Recross-examination:

Q. Did you go to Hile in June, 1878, about your taxes, and what did he say to you then?—A. I went to him; he told me not to bother myself, that my taxes were paid.

Re-examined:

Q. Is not Hile now such a cripple as it is impossible he can leave home?—A. He can't leave home.

And further saith not.

A. A. KELLY.

F. I. THOMPSON affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Curwinsville Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State if you have knowledge of any men who illegally voted for A. G. Curtin for Congress at the general election of November 5, 1878.

—A. I do not know of any person.

Q. Did you state in the presence of W. C. Arnold and H. L. Henderson or any other persons that you knew of six or any other number of illegal Curtin voters at that election?—A. I don't remember whether I stated that; if I did I heard it from other people; but I think I never said so at all; I knew nothing at all of my own knowledge; I heard other people talk.

Q. Did you not serve the subpoenas for the contestant in this case?—A. I served some of them—all that were sent to me.

Q. Did you say to any one that while engaged in that work you had discovered that certain persons had illegally voted for Curtin?—A. No, sir; I did not discover it; I heard some talk; no, sir.

Q. Did you say that you had heard of illegal Curtin voters?—A. O, yes.

Q. Give us the names of such persons as you have heard had voted illegally for Curtin.—A. Olmstead Lewis, Seymour Ross, Woods Appleton; that is all I can remember; I heard of Robert Addleman; that is all but Ben Johnson.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was there any talk between you and W. C. Arnold, and Arnold Bloom, about getting money from Chairman Arnold?

(Objected to because not cross-examination.)

A. Not with W. C. Arnold about getting money.

Q. What was the talk between you and either of the parties named? (Objected to because not cross-examination; Arnold Bloom's name was not mentioned in examination-in-chief; incompetent and heresay.)

A. Arnold Bloom asked me if I would accept of some Yocum money, to work for Yocum in the borough, from William C. Arnold, as he wanted them in the borough.

Q. Was that all?—A. I did not get it. I wanted it bad enough, but did not get it.

Q. Was you present at a conversation between W. C. Arnold and Arnold Bloom, in which Chairman Arnold said that Bloom's testimony, as given by him in this investigation, was correct?—A. I was present at such a conversation. W. C. Arnold said it was all correct except some little matter that he believed he thought was true, but W. C. Arnold said it was not correct.

Re-examined:

Q. Did not W. C. Arnold say that Bloom's testimony was correct in general, but that there were some matters that needed explanation, and that he, W. C. Arnold, would like to have been present to cross-examine said Bloom?—A. I believe he did.

And further saith not.

And now, February 28, 1879, 4.45 p. m.—

A. A. WRIGHT affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in Pike Township during the two months immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-four, past.

Q. Have you paid your State and county taxes for the years 1876 and 1877?—A. I have.

Q. Did you pay those State and county taxes more than one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you born in this country, viz, the United States?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you at the general election held November 5, 1878, offer to vote at the election polls of Pike Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you offer at that time to offer due proof of your qualifications as a voter?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you so offered was your vote challenged?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you offered to make said proof of your qualifications, what did the election board do or say?—A. They did not do anything but hand back my ticket without giving any reasons why.

Q. Did you not ask them the reasons why they refused to take your vote?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. I did.

Q. Did or did they not make any reply?—A. They did not.

Q. Did the ticket or tickets which you offered to vote and which you presented as your ballot to the board contain the names of the Republican candidates?—A. They did.

Q. Was the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress on one of the tickets you offered to vote?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you desire to vote, and offer to vote, for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you move into Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. I think it was two years last spring, or three.

Q. With whom do you reside?—A. With my mother.

Q. Where does she live?—A. In Pike Township.

Q. In what part of Pike Township with reference to Curwinsville Borough?—A. Along the pike, about two rods from the borough line, on this side of Curwinsville.

Q. On whose property?—A. Thomas Ralston's.

Q. Adjoining whose property?—A. Benjamin Hartshorn's; but he is in the borough.

Q. Are you certain you know where the borough line is?—A. Well, I don't know exactly where the line is, but I know it is not over two rods away from the house.

Q. When did you first discover it was not more than two rods away from the house?—A. I am not exactly sure whether it is two rods; I discovered it about three years ago.

Q. By whom were you told where the borough line was?—A. I can't recollect who told me first.

Q. By whom were you told at any time?—A. By Benj. Hartshorn, sr., for one, Samuel Hulligan, and some others.

Q. When did you hear them talk about it?—A. I can't recollect the time.

Q. Did Wm. C. Arnold not tell you you were in the township since you were subpœnaed?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. For whom did you want to vote at the election of November 5, 1878, for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you certain?—A. I think I was.

Q. When did you pay your State and county taxes?—A. They were paid in time to get a vote; I can't just name the time.

Q. In what year?—A. I have paid three years—1876, 1877, and 1878.

Q. When did you pay your 1876 State and county tax?—A. I paid it in time to get a vote.

Q. State the month and year when you paid it?—A. October 6, 1876.

Q. To whom?—A. F. B. Caldwell, I guess.

Q. When did you pay your 1877 tax?—A. I can't tell the exact time; I could not find my receipt.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To F. B. Caldwell.

Q. When did you pay your 1878 State and county taxes?—A. October 5, 1878.

Q. To whom?—A. To T. J. Robinson.

Q. Have you resided in Pike Township since 1876, or since what time have you resided there?—A. I have resided there, as near as I can tell you, about two years.

Q. Have you made your home, and did you consider your home at your mother's house since she resided in Pike Township?—A. That has been my home, certainly; I have not staid in the township all the time; I have been working out.

Q. Have you, within the two or three years you say you have resided with your mother in Pike Township, ever left her residence with the intention of permanently remaining away or making your home elsewhere?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was F. B. Caldwell collector of taxes for Curwinsville Borough?—A. Yes, sir, he was; he was constable.

Q. Was T. J. Robinson collector of State and county taxes for Curwinsville Borough at the time you paid him your taxes?—A. He must have been, or I would not have got a receipt from him.

Q. Did you pay those taxes yourself?—A. I did not exactly myself pay them, but I paid the party who paid them.

Q. Who paid them?—A. Vergil Stephenson.

Q. Have you since paid him?—A. I have satisfied him.

Q. Who was with you when you offered to vote on November 5, 1878, in Pike Township?—A. There was no one went up with me to the polls.

Q. Are you certain there was no one with you?—A. There was no one with me when I went up to vote; there were parties standing around.

Q. Had you offered to vote in any other election district in Clearfield County, on November 5, 1878, before you offered to vote in Pike Township?—A. I had.

Q. In what district?—A. I had tried to vote in the borough of Curwinsville.

Q. Who was with you when you tried to vote in Curwinsville? A. There was no one with me.

Q. Who told you to try to vote in Curwinsville?—A. No one; I thought I would try and vote where I had paid my taxes.

Q. Then you thought, on November 5, 1878, that you had a right to vote in Curwinsville, did you?—A. I did; because I was assessed there and paid my taxes there.

Q. Was not W. C. Arnold with you when you offered to vote in Curwinsville Borough, or just before you offered to vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Wm. C. Arnold offer you any money or other valuable thing if you would vote the Republican ticket or vote for Seth H. Yocum?—A. No, sir.

Q. When were you subpoenaed?—A. Last Monday, I think.

Q. Were you here ready to testify before to-day?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have any conversation with any person with reference to your testifying in the Curtin-Yocum contest since you were subpoenaed?—A. I have told I was subpoenaed. I only told I could testify that I did not get a vote.

Q. Did you tell anything else?—A. Nothing else to my knowledge.

Q. Did you tell any person that they did not want you down here, for you would convict W. C. Arnold by your testimony?—A. I think I did not, for I don't know anything that would convict him.

Q. Are you certain you did not say so to any one?—A. I might have said they did not want me down here, but I am certain I did not say I should convict Arnold.

Q. Was your vote refused when you offered to vote in Curwinsville Borough?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did or did not the election board of Curwinsville Borough, when they refused your vote, say that you could not vote in the borough but had a right to vote in Pike Township?—A. They did.

Q. Did or did you not, while living with your mother in Pike Township, frequently work by the day in Curwinsville Borough, and is not that why you were assessed and paid taxes in the borough?

(Objected to as incompetent, being the mere opinion of the witness.)

A. That was why.

Q. Did you not or did you pay to F. B. Caldwell, the collector of State and county taxes for the year 1877, sometime during the year 1877, yourself, and in money, your State and county taxes for 1877?—A. I did.

Q. Have you resided in this State during the last three years continuously?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Arnold Bloom, or any one else, try to induce you to vote the Democratic ticket at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Recross:

Q. Where did you vote in 1876?—A. In Curwinsville Borough.

Q. Where did you vote at the November election in 1877?—A. Curwinsville Borough.

Re-examined:

Q. Have not you and your mother lived in and out of Curwinsville Borough and Pike Township, but always lived in either district during the last three years?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did you live in 1876 on the first day of November?—A. My home was in the township. I was boarding and working there for John Hill in the borough.

Q. Did you consider John Hill's your home when you were working there about November 1, 1876?—A. I did not consider my permanent home. I was there from April till near Christmas.

Q. Where did you live about November 1, 1877?—A. I was living and working at John Hill's, in the borough, and boarding there.

Q. Where were you working and boarding about November 1, 1878?—A. I was working in the borough and boarding at home.

Re-examined :

Q. Did you board and have your washing done and make your home with your mother in Pike Township during the two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did; that was my home; I was away a few days during the time.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was you on the registry of votes for Curwinsville Borough for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge, I was.

Q. When you offered to vote in Pike Township, did you offer to make an affidavit that you had paid a State or county tax that had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election, and that you had resided in Pike Township at least two months preceding said election; and had you a qualified voter with you who offered to swear that you had resided in Pike Township for at least two months before November 5, 1878?—A. I had the tax-receipt, but I don't know that I said exactly I would swear. I had no party with me to swear, I had no chance for that.

And further saith not.

MARCH 1, 1879—2.10 p. m.

JOSIAH R. DUNLAP affirmed.

Contestant, by counsel, objects to the examination of this witness, for the reason that no notice has been served that he would be called.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did the officer serving the subpoena on you supposing your name to be Joseph Dunlap, and did he subpoena you by that name?—A. That name was on the subpoena; I was away at Clearfield; he read the subpoena to pap, and he told him that was not my name, he had no son Joseph; he afterwards read the subpoena to me as Josiah, but it was written Joseph.

Q. Do you know if your name was supposed to be Joseph and not Josiah?—A. I never saw it wrote Josiah; my name is Josiah Ross and they always call me Joe.

Q. Is there any Joseph Dunlap living in Pike Township?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. If there were any there would you not be likely to know?—A. I think I would.

Q. You then are known as Joe Dunlap?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. For A. G. Curtin.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-three on the 23d of August next.

Q. Did you yourself pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; there was never any tax against me before this last election.

Q. Did you ever pay a State or county tax?—A. I did; I paid it; I had the fever, and Arnold Bloom paid it for me, and I afterwards paid Arnold Bloom.

Q. Did you ever pay a State or county tax to a tax collector?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you go to the election of last November expecting to vote?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Why?—A. I knew I had never paid any tax and could not vote without I had.

Q. Were you told when in Curwinsville on election day that your taxes were paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom?—A. Arnold Bloom.

Q. Had you ever requested or authorized Arnold Bloom or any other person to pay those taxes for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any knowledge now that your State and county tax was paid except what you have been told?—A. When I reached my hand into the window I heard the tax collector say it was all right.

Q. Who was the tax collector?—A. Lewis I. Bloom.

Q. Did you ever have a receipt for those taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ask the collector there whether they were paid or did he volunteer the information?—A. The board asked me for my receipt, and Lewis I. Bloom was in the school-house and spoke up and said it was all right.

Q. Do you know whether or no the taxes are now marked paid on the duplicate?—A. Yes, sir; they are; I saw the duplicate myself.

Q. When did you see it?—A. About a week after the election.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you live in the State more than one year before the election of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you live in Pike Township more than two months before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was you born in the State?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did the collector of taxes tell you, when your taxes were paid, at what date they were paid?—A. He told me he thought they were paid on the 25th of September.

Q. Lewis I. Bloom was the tax collector of Pike Township at the time Arnold Bloom paid these taxes, was he not?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you know anything about the taxes being paid, or whether they were paid at all, except what Arnold Bloom and Lewis I. Bloom told you?—A. I don't, more than when I saw the duplicate they were marked paid. This was about a week after the election.

And further saith not.

J. B. CLOUSER affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you collector of tax (State and county) for Union Township, and have you been, and for what years?—A. I was collector of Union Township for State and county taxes for the year 1874.

Q. Have you been collector since that time?—A. I collected something over fifty dollars for Jacob Hess last summer.

Q. Do you know Elias Doney?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he ever pay you any State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant objects to the testimony of the witness now sworn, so far as the same is intended to contradict the testimony of Elias Doney, because counsel for contestee has called Elias Doney and made a witness of him, and therefore cannot contradict his own witness. This objection is made to the foregoing questions and answers, and to all that may follow. Counsel for contestant, reserving the right to move the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause to strike out the testimony of the witness for the reasons set forth in the foregoing objections, now proceeds to cross-examine the witness.)

Q. Were there not unpaid State and county taxes in your hands for collection during the year 1876?—A. No, sir; there was not. There was no duplicate in my hands for 1876.

Q. Have you had any duplicate for State and county taxes since the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I had one last summer awhile, and the same one was given to me the other day again.

Q. Might not Elias Doney have paid a State or county tax to your wife or you after the Presidential election in 1876?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Re-examined:

Q. When did you settle up the duplicate you had in 1874?—A. I think I settled it about the time my office expired, in March court, 1875.

Q. Did you collect any State and county taxes after that, except what you stated, on Hess's duplicate?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Are you the wife of J. B. Clouser, who has just testified here?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you reside in Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with Elias Doney?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he pay you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, or pay such tax to you for your husband?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of this witness, for the reason that it is attempted to contradict the testimony of Elias Doney, of Union Township, who was made a witness by contestee, and it is therefore improper and contrary to the rules of evidence for contestee to contradict his own witness.)

A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Did he pay any taxes whatever to you within that time?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had he paid any taxes to you before November 5, 1876; and, if so, what taxes were they?—A. Yes, sir, he did; but they were school taxes.

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the right to move to strike out the testimony of the witness before the committee who shall hear the cause, for the reason set forth in the objection to the witness testifying to anything that might tend to contradict Elias Doney, of Union Township, witness for contestee, now proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Did not Elias Doney leave money with you about or during the month of November or December, 1876, for your husband, in payment of certain taxes which he had for collection against said Doney?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he leave anything with you at that time which was to be appropriated by your husband in the payment of taxes he had against said Doney?—A. No, sir; he did not.

And further saith not.

THOMAS LORD affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside, Mr. Lord?—Answer. In Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you one of the inspectors of election at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was done with the ballot-box used at said election after the votes were counted?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant. Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn relating to any irregularities or frauds in conducting the election of November 5, 1878, in Knox Township, also in relation to the custody of the ballot-box, and all other things which tend to impeach the legality or conduct of the election officers who held the general election of November 5, 1878, in Knox Township, for the reason that contestee, in his answer to the notice of contestant served upon him by A. G. Curtin, that his seat

(that is, of Seth H. Yocum) as Representative of the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania of the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, no frauds or other irregularities were alleged; and for the further reason that it is immaterial what was done with the ballot-box after the votes were counted, since no recount of the same has been ordered of said township; and for the further reason that the witness now sworn, being an inspector of said election, had nothing to do with the ballot-boxes after the vote was counted, under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.)

A. I took it home with me.

Q. How long did you keep it in your custody?—A. I kept it until the last of January, and then I took it to the squire's, the nearest justice of the peace, J. M. McKee.

Q. Were you a justice of the peace?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was the box locked, or was it sealed with any kind of wax or any other adhesive material?—A. It was not locked or sealed; there was red tape tied around it.

Q. Was it so that the red tape could be removed and the box opened without difficulty?—A. The tape was tied around it several times and tied in a box-knot.

Q. While this ballot-box was in your custody did any persons come to your house to examine its contents; and, if so, state who they were and what authority they claimed to be acting under?—A. Yes, sir; they did. I was not at home. John Witherow and Robert Witherow came there and told my wife they had authority. They showed her a blank book that had a few names on it.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the admission of all that part of the answer given to the last question asked witness of which he has not testified of his own knowledge, but which was told him by his wife, because the same is hearsay, incompetent, and irrelevant to the matter at issue so far as Knox Township is concerned.)

Q. Who did they say they had authority from?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, for the reason that, from his last answer, the witness cannot testify to his own knowledge, but only to what others have told him; and, therefore, his answer must be hearsay, and is incompetent as evidence.)

A. I believe she did not tell me, only they said they had authority; they did not say who from.

Q. Did they open the ballot-box and peruse and examine its contents?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the witness answering this question, and to his answer to the same, unless he can answer it of his own personal knowledge, and not depend upon what others have told him, for the reason his answer would be hearsay and incompetent evidence.)

A. She told me they did.

Q. When your wife asked them if they had authority to open and examine the ballot-box, did they produce the blank book to convince her they had?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, and also to the answer of witness to the same, unless witness can answer the same from his own personal knowledge, and not depend upon what his wife or any one else may have told him, because his wife is a competent witness; and, therefore, his testimony is hearsay and incompetent.)

A. I believe she told me they did.

Q. Do you know whether or not they took any of the papers or ballots out of the box and away with them?—A. Not that I know of.

Cross-examined :

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the right particularly to move to strike out the testimony of witness before the committee who shall hear the cause, for the reasons set forth in the several objections made to his testifying, and especially for the reason set forth in the objection to his testifying to anything that would impeach the holding of said election and to the custody of the ballot-box after the votes were counted of the election of November 5, 1878, now proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Were you minority inspector in Knox Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You did not see, did you, the ballot-box opened?—A. No, sir.

Q. You did not see, did you, any person who came after the ballot-box?—A. No, sir; not that day.

Q. You do not know, do you, that any papers or ballots were removed from the same before the day of the February election of 1879?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. As soon as the polls were closed on November 5, 1878, did the officers of election proceed to count all the votes cast?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did the officers holding the election make a full, true, and correct return of the votes cast for each candidate voted for?—A. To the best of my knowledge they did.

Q. Were these returns signed and certified to by all of said officers holding said election, so far as you know?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not the best evidence, as the return of the election officers, which is already in evidence, is the best evidence of what was done; and further objects to all the witness has or may testify to in regard to the matter, to which his attention was not called in chief.)

A. To the best of my knowledge they were.

Q. Were all of these certified returns, excepting the copy placed in the ballot-box, inclosed in envelopes and sealed in the presence of the officers, and one envelope, with an unsealed return-sheet, containing also a list of voters, tally-paper, and oaths of election officers, given to the judge of said election board?—A. They were, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Was the vote, as soon as counted, publicly and fully declared from the window to the citizens present?—A. I believe not, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Was a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate made and signed by the election officers, and posted on the election house for the information of the public?—A. Yes, sir; it was made out and posted up. I can't say for sure whether it was signed.

Q. Was this statement, so far as you know, a correct statement of the number of votes cast at said election for each of the candidates voted for?—A. It was, to the best of my knowledge; all but one vote.

Re-examined :

Q. What are the politics of John and Robert Witherow?—A. To the best of my knowledge they are Democrats.

Q. Are they not known in Knox Township as Democrats, and engaged actively in working for the Democratic party?

(Objected to, because it is immaterial and irrelevant, hearsay, incompetent as evidence in the matter at issue.)

A. I don't know that I can tell you whether they are or not.

Q. What is your politics?—A. A Republican.

Q. Did Jack Bloom vote at the election of November 5, 1878, in Knox Township, and what are his politics?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because a list of voters of Knox Township of the general election of November 5, 1878, on file in the office of the prothonotary of Clearfield County, is the best evidence as to whether Jack Bloom voted at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Knox Township; and for the further reason that the witness's knowledge of the politics of Jack Bloom is based upon what others have told him, and is therefore hearsay; and for the further reason that Jack Bloom is the best evidence as to what his politics are.)

A. He voted in Knox Township. I can't tell his politics.

Q. Did or did he not reside with his father in Lawrence Township?—

A. I can't tell that.

And further saith not.

ALFRED C. WISE affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you collector of State and county taxes for Knox Township, and for what years?—A. I am, for 1877 and 1878.

Q. Were any State and county taxes paid to you within one month of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; there was none paid to me after the 5th of October.

Q. Were you present in the election house while the votes were being counted?—A. I was present until about one o'clock at night, and then left.

Q. While the election officers were counting the votes, did you see any stickers containing the names of candidates dropped from the tickets and the ballots counted as if no stickers were on?

(Counsel for contestant object to the witness testifying to anything tending to show frauds or irregularities on the part of the members of the election board of Knox Township, at the general election of November 5, 1878, for the reason that in his answer to the notice that his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States would be contested by A. G. Curtin, contestee did not allege any frauds or irregularities in the conduct of the election officers in the holding of said election in said township.)

A. Not any, except the Bard ticket.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you constable, in November 5, 1878, of Knox Township?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Were you present at the polls in Knox Township on November 5, 1878, in pursuance of your duty as constable under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Did you make proclamation publicly from the window of the election house, to the citizens present, of the vote as soon as it was counted, as you were required by the laws of Pennsylvania?—A. I did; I did not make it from the window, I made it from the door.

Q. Did you see a ticket which had been cast, and which was rolled up, and when the count was being made was torn apart by the election officers.

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. I saw the ticket, but did not see it torn apart.

Q. Did this ticket contain the names of the candidates for State, judiciary, and county officers?—A. That I could not be qualified to; I did not read the ticket.

Q. From its appearance did it contain the names of more candidates than there were in the field for State officers?—A. It contained the State, county, and judiciary.

Q. Were they all on one unseparated sheet or ballot?—A. Yes, sir; they were.

Q. Did you see the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress on the same?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was this vote counted for Seth H. Yocum?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you know that it was thrown out and not counted?—A. I could not say.

And further saith not.

DAVID MCCracken affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Knox Township at November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did; I voted for A. G. Curtin.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the witness testifying to anything which shall show, or by which shall be attempted to show, that he was not a resident in said township on August 5, 1878, for the reason that contestee, in his answer to notice of contest, does not allege that any non-residents voted at the general election on November 5, 1878, in said township for contestant.)

Q. Did you and your family, in the early part of the year 1878, remove from Knox Township and go to Virginia?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you do so with the intention of not again returning to Knox Township, and of making your permanent home in Virginia, providing you were successful in making advantageous purchases when you arrived there?—A. I went with the calculation of staying if it suited me, and if not I would return.

Q. Would you not have remained there had you been able to buy land at the right figure, and other things suited you?—A. More than likely I would.

Q. Did you not go there with that intention?—A. I did, providing it suited me.

Q. When you left Knox Township did you not expect it would suit you?—A. I could not tell; I did not know anything about it; I did not know anything more about it than the rest of you.

Q. Did you take all of your family with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have an auction or vendue before you left, or did you dispose of your goods in any other way?—A. I sold them at private sale, what I did sell.

Q. Do you know exactly when you returned?—A. I could not say positively.

Q. Can you state positively whether or not it was two months before the election?—A. No; I can't tell.

Q. Was it not after September 5, 1878?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. I could not say now.

Q. Do or do you not think it was after that date?—A. I think it was in August I came back.

Q. Have you any way of telling exactly at what time you did return?—

A. I don't think I have for sure.

Cross-examined :

(Counsel for contestant, reserving all the rights to exceptions, now proceeds to cross-examine:)

Q. You say, do you, that you moved to Virginia in 1878, expecting to remain there if it would suit you; did it suit you?—A. No, sir.

Q. You left Knox Township, did you, intending to return thereto, if Virginia should not suit?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you return to Knox Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Knox Township, and was it the home of yourself and family for more than two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I think it was.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you removed from Knox Township, did you leave any of your personal goods in said township, and did they remain there until your return?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then I understand you that you have not had any other permanent residence than that of Knox Township for more than one year preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir, I had no other residence.

Re-examined :

Q. What were you engaged in in Virginia?—A. I was working on a steam saw-mill.

Q. Were you housekeeping?—A. Yes, sir, in a kind of a way.

Q. For what length of time did you have your house rented?—A. I can't tell exactly what length of time.

Q. About how long?—A. I had it rented for no particular length of time. I was there about three months and a half.

Q. Why did you leave there?—A. Because it did not suit me. The country did not suit, it was not as good a country as I thought it was.

Recross-examination :

Q. Whilst in Virginia, did you go to housekeeping permanently?—A. No, sir; I did not.

And further saith not.

CHRISTOPHER STAFFORD sworn.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. In Lawrence, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

(Counsel for contestant objects and protests against the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn, so far as the same related to frauds or irregularities or to illegal votes cast at the election of November 5, 1878, for A. G. Curtin for Congress in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the reason that, in his answer to the notice of contest served by A. G. Curtin that his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States would be contested, contestee made no allegation of fraud or irregularities, and has not alleged that any fraudulent votes were cast in Lawrence Township for contestant.)

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I did; for A. G. Curtin.

Q. Did you vote in Lawrence Township for A. G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I did.

Q. How old are you?—A. I am forty-five years past.

Q. Did you yourself pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, I have not.

Q. Have you a receipt for taxes paid by any other person, and will you produce it?—A. I have and will.

Q. When did you get this receipt?—A. I received it on the day of the election.

Q. From whom did you receive it?—A. Clark Brown.

Q. By whom was the tax paid?—A. By Israel Test.

Q. Was Israel Test chairman of the Democratic county committee. (Objected to as immaterial.)

A. He was.

Q. When did he tell you he had paid the tax?—A. He never told me.

Q. Who first told you your tax had been paid?—A. Mr. Test.

Q. When did he tell you?—A. Within thirty days of the election, I think.

Q. Did you ever pay Mr. Test or any other person the amount of this tax?—A. I have not; I owe him that much yet.

Q. When Clark Brown handed you this receipt on the day of the election, was that the first you knew of it?—A. No, sir; Mr. Test told me before.

Q. Had Mr. Test seen you before he paid this tax, and did he tell you that your taxes were unpaid, and that you had better pay them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before the election was this?—A. Five or six weeks before the election. I don't know the exact date.

Q. Did you tell him you would pay them?—A. I believe I did.

Q. When next did you see Mr. Test?—A. A day or two afterward.

Q. Did he again ask you whether you had paid them?—A. He did.

Q. Did you again tell him you would pay them?—A. No, sir; he told me he had paid them.

Q. Were these all the conversations you ever had with Mr. Test about this matter?—A. That was all.

Q. Did he not in all the conversations with you before he paid them tell you to pay them, and did you not always tell him you would?—A. I had no conversation with him only the one.

Q. Then you never gave him any authority, did you, to pay those taxes?—A. Well, I was not prepared to pay them myself and he would have to pay them.

Q. Do you swear that you authorized Mr. Test to pay those taxes for you?—A. I authorized him that far; I told him I was not able to pay them; I requested him to pay them because I was not able to pay them.

Q. Then, as I understand it, you had but one conversation with Mr.

Test before he paid this tax for you?—A. I only had one conversation with him about the tax.

Q. And in that conversation did not Mr. Test tell you that your taxes were not paid and request you to pay them?—A. He said I should attend to my taxes.

Q. Did you not reply to Mr. Test that you would attend to them?—A. Yes; at that time.

Q. When you told Mr. Test that you were not able to pay your taxes was it not in a conversation after he had paid them?—A. It was a day or two afterward.

Q. Was not that the time that you told him to pay them?—A. He said they were paid.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving all right to exceptions to the testimony of witness as set forth in the objection to his testifying to all things concerning the election of November 5, 1878, so far as the same relates to Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, now proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of your State and county taxes for the year 1878 with you?—A. I have got it here.

Q. Will you read it?

Witness reads:

“TREASURER’S OFFICE, Clf., Pa., Oct. 5th, 1878.

“Received of C. D. Stafford the sum of $\frac{32}{100}$ dollars, being county and State tax for the year 1878, on his property situated and assessed in the township of Lawrence.

\$ $\frac{32}{100}$

(Signed)

“D. McGAUGHEY, Treas.,
“—— WRIGHT.”

Q. Were these taxes paid for you and upon your request?—A. They were.

Q. Did you, when they were paid, and do you yet consider yourself indebted to Mr. Test in the sum of 32 cents, the amount of said taxes which he paid for you?—A. I did, and I do.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you thus request him in the manner you have testified to?—A. I answer that a good many times, I think.

Recross-examined:

Q. When Mr. Test spoke to you about your taxes and you told him you were not able to pay them, did you not ask him to pay them for you, and in substance tell him that you would fix it with him?—A. Yes.

Re-examined:

Q. When did you tell him you would pay him?—A. Whenever I was able.

Q. Did you thus agree to pay him in the conversation when he told you he had paid the taxes?—A. I said I would fix it with him; I told him this in the last conversation.

Q. Did you tell him that in the first conversation he had with you?—A. The first conversation was nothing more than to find out if I had paid my taxes or not.

Q. Then in that first conversation there was nothing said about him paying the taxes for you and you paying him again, was there?—A. There was not.

Recross-examined:

Q. You have, have you, since Mr. Test paid your taxes in October, 1878, considered the payment made by him made for you and at your request?—A. I do.

And further saith not.

JACOB GEARHEART reproduced and sworn.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. In Clearfield Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you a wife and family?—A. Yes, sir; a wife and one child.

Q. Where did you live before moving to Clearfield?—A. In Bloom Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Bloom Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. As near as I can tell you I intended to vote for Curtin. I cannot read. I am no scholar.

Q. Are you a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir; I am, and always have been.

Q. Did you vote the Democratic ticket at said election?—A. As near as I can tell you I think it was. I got it from a Democrat. I cannot tell any more who gave it to me.

Q. Did you intend to vote for A. G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you request the Democrat from whom you got your ticket to give you a Curtin ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When he handed you the ticket did he tell you it was that kind of a ticket?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Did you vote the ticket he gave you?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Have you any idea whatever that you did not vote for Curtin?

(Objected to for the reason that it is sought to obtain the witness' opinion, and not the fact as for whom the witness voted, and is therefore incompetent.)

A. No, sir; to tell the truth, I could not have any idea whether I did or did not; it was my intention to do so. I was led astray once. There was a man last fall gave me a hand for a Democratic hand, and it was a Republican hand out and out.

Q. After you were thus deceived were you not more careful about the party from whom you got your ticket?—A. I was careful of that man. I never got my ticket from that man any more. Certainly I was more careful after that.

Q. Did the party from you got your ticket read it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when?—A. To Ellwood Walls, the first, or about the first, of September, 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt?—A. No, sir; it was not customary to get a receipt. In Penn Township they never asked a man for a receipt. I lived there three years.

Q. Was that the only tax you paid within two years?—A. No, sir; I paid the 1878 tax to Greeley Anderson, constable, or George Bloom paid it for me.

Q. Did you see him pay it?—A. No, sir; I saw Greeley Anderson last court, and I asked him if he had got the tax from Bloom, and he said he had.

Q. Do you know when it was paid?—A. No, sir; the paper shows when it was paid, and out of my hands.

Q. When did you repay Bloom for it?—A. It was coming to me from Bloom at the time he paid it; the paper says on the 10th of October, 1878.

Q. Are these two taxes the only State or county taxes which you paid or were paid for you within two years?—A. Yes, sir; within those two years.

Q. When did you commence to move to Clearfield Borough?—A. On Monday, the day before the election.

Q. Do you mean the day before the general election of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not on that day take your wife and family from Bloom Township, together with a portion of your goods?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you come to the borough of Clearfield on that day with your family and goods?—A. Only part of the goods. I had not the one-third here.

Q. Did you come with your family?—A. Yes, sir; my wife and child came, and after she came she would not go along back.

Q. Did she from that time remain in Clearfield and vicinity?—A. Yes, sir; she remained in Clearfield, but I can't tell whether she staid in the house or not.

Q. Has she or not been making her home in Clearfield ever since?—A. No, sir; she is not in Clearfield at the present time, and won't be any more.

Q. Did she or not make her home here until a short time ago?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you move the balance of your goods?—A. I moved one load the day after the election, and I did not get the balance moved for two weeks afterwards.

Q. Did you intend to vote at all at the election?—A. I had no idea at all of voting until just before the election, but still I was not paid or hired to vote.

Q. Were you in Clearfield on the morning of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. What time of day was it when you left Clearfield the day before the election?—A. Between two and three o'clock, sir.

Q. Did you not say to parties in Clearfield on that day that you did not intend to vote?—A. No, sir; I don't think I did.

Q. Did you not say that to parties elsewhere?—A. No, sir; I don't tell my business to everybody.

Q. Were you or not requested by parties to go back to Bloom Township and vote?—A. Yes, sir; by the two men who helped move me.

Q. Had you not told those two men that you did not intend to vote?—A. I told them I had a notion not to.

Q. Where and when did you tell them that?—A. Here at Clearfield, the day they moved me; George Bloom and his son were the men.

Q. Did you go back to Bloom Township with those two men?—A. Yes, sir; and staid all night at George A. Bloom's.

Q. How far does he live from where you moved?—A. About a quarter of a mile.

Q. Did you take your supper and breakfast at George A. Bloom's house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time of the day did you vote in Bloom Township?—A. It was just before they went to dinner. I did not get there until about eleven o'clock. I staid at George Bloom's until that time.

Q. When did you bring the next load of goods?—A. The day after the election.

Q. Who brought that load down?—A. George A. Bloom's sons Isaac and Joseph. I fetched the cow down and they brought a load of feed. I carried the key of the house until after the election; that shows I did not give up possession.

Q. When did you bring the next load to Clearfield?—A. It was a week or two; I can't exactly tell.

Q. Was that the last load?—A. No, sir; after the election I had four loads.

Q. Who hauled them?—A. George A. Bloom's team hauled them.

Q. What was brought down on the second load after the election?—A. Some chairs, a cradle, some barrels, and some straw.

Q. What was brought down on the third load?—A. A cupboard, a churn, and some harness, a meat barrel and some straw.

Q. What was brought down on the last load?—A. Some straw.

Q. How many chairs were on the second load after the election?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Were not all of your beds and bedding, clothing, and some of your chairs and provision brought on the first load?—A. No, sir; the provision, some of them, was brought down, and one pair of bedsteads; of bed-clothes we had mighty little.

Q. Were all the bed-clothes you had brought on that load?—A. Yes, sir; we only have two quilts.

Q. Were all of your beds and bedding on that load?—A. No, sir.

Q. How many beds were on it?—A. No, sir; only one; one was left back in the house.

Q. Where is that bed now?—A. It is up in my house here.

Q. Did you bring your stove (cook stove) on the first load?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is George A. Bloom's politics?—A. A Democrat, sir.

Q. When he told you the day before the election that you had better vote did he say who had requested him to ask you to vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he say that any body had told him to ask you to vote?—A. No, sir; he did not coax me to vote.

Adjourned at 12.22 p. m. to meet at 1 o'clock p. m.

Examination continued.

Q. How old was your child when you moved here?

(Objected to as immaterial.)

A. The child was three years old the 6th of December last.

Q. Was your wife and child back to Bloom Township after you moved here?

(Objected to as immaterial.)

A. No, sir; they never went back.

Q. Did you or did you not go back to Bloom Township to vote?—A. I went back the same night and voted the next day.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you reside in Bloom Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I moved there in November, 1877, and moved out in November, 1878, about one year.

Q. Was Bloom Township your place of residence until after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it the home of yourself and family until after said date and for more than two months preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir; except the election was on the 5th and my wife came to Clearfield on the 4th.

Q. You did not leave Bloom Township, did you, with the intention of remaining permanently out of said township until November 6, 1878, the day after the election?

(Objected to as leading and grossly improper as such.)

A. No, sir; my woman was to go back with me, but she was tired and the child was tired and they would not go back; she was to have gone back with me; she did not intend to stay, she merely came along to cook the dinners of the men who were moving us.

Q. Who had possession of the house in which you lived in Bloom Township until after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I had, sir, myself; I carried the key and was in the house after I went back.

Q. What was in the house?—A. I had, as I stated before, some chairs, a cradle, a bed-tick, a pair of bedsteads, some harness, a churn, some barrels, a sack of flour, and some corn, some cooking utensils, boiler and things belonging to my stove; and more than that I have not lost my residence there yet; I have a plow, a harrow, a cultivator, and a timber sled at George Bloom's house yet.

Q. These things that were left in the house were left there so that you could still occupy it, were they?—A. Yes, sir; my rent is paid there until the 1st of April.

Q. Does Bloom, with whom you staid all night, keep hotel?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you stop at George Bloom's and remain there until after the election because your wife did not go back to cook for you?—A. Yes, sir; I staid the one night at George Bloom's and paid him for my boarding, and the next night I was at John Bilger's, his nearest neighbor.

Q. Did you remain in Bloom Township from the day before the election to the day after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did after I went back from Clearfield that day.

Q. Did you vote in any other district in the county on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; that is not my principle.

Q. Have you resided in Pennsylvania for more than one year, and in Bloom Township for more than six months preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I was born in Clearfield County, and was never out of the State in my life.

Q. Can you read writing or printing?—A. No, sir; I can't read writing or printed matter.

Q. You say, do you, that your ticket was not read to you?—A. No, sir; it was not read to me.

Q. When you say that you voted for Curtin do you base your answer upon belief that the ticket that was handed to you had the name of Curtin for Congress upon it?—A. He was the man I intended to vote for, and I took the word of the man that handed me the ticket that it was correct; I never unfolded the ticket at all.

Q. Might not the ticket given you have had the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress on it for all you know?—A. Just as like as not, as easy as for the other man, for all I know.

Q. You do not know, do you, who gave you the ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. You say that you paid a State or county tax to Elwood Wall in 1877. Was he collector of State and county taxes for Penn Township?—A. I believe he was; he had the duplicate, anyhow.

Q. You paid these taxes in 1877 to him, did you?—A. Yes, sir; for I left Penn Township in 1877; he was thrashing at my place when I paid them.

Q. You say that George Bloom paid a State and county tax for you in 1878, do you? Did he pay those taxes for you upon your request?—A. Yes, sir; I went with the constable to his place; I had not the money, and the constable was going to make a levy.

Q. How long before the election was it that you went to George Bloom with the constable and got him to arrange your taxes for you? Was it as much as one month?—A. I don't know the day; according to what George Bloom had it, it was about the 10th of October. I suppose he dated it the day he charged me with it.

Q. Might not Bloom have paid these taxes before the 10th of October?—A. The constable notified me about a month before he came around, and when he came for it he said he had to collect the tax a certain time before the election, and when he came he asked me for the money. I said I did not have it. He said he must have it, as that was the last day he had, "and I must levy on your horse and sell it." I said, "Don't do that; it will go for a mere nothing; George Bloom owes me, and," I said, "let us go to George Bloom and get him to pay it." He said, "All right; I will take George Bloom for it, if he agrees to pay it." Then we went to Bloom, and he agreed to pay it, and he said it was all right, and George Bloom kept it off me.

Q. Did George Bloom owe you at the time he became responsible for your taxes in 1878?—A. Yes; he did, and does yet.

Q. Did he say at the time he agreed to pay your taxes that he owed you?—A. Yes, sir; he told the constable he owed me.

Q. Do you know he paid the taxes he agreed to pay?—A. I seen Greeley Anderson, the constable, here last court, and I asked him if he had got the tax. He said yes, it was all right; that George Bloom had paid it.

Q. You did not stay overnight in Clearfield, did you, until after the election?—A. No, sir; and I did not stop to fix up a thing, except to fix the stove to cook the dinner for the men.

Q. Were you out of Bloom Township overnight at any time within two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I was at my brother's two nights the time of the Philipsburg meeting. My brother lives in West Clearfield; I was at the meeting and could not get home. West Clearfield is in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you know that Bloom had paid your 1878 taxes to Greeley Anderson until you saw him at court?—A. No, sir; I did not, because I never saw him until that time.

Q. Then it was not paid on the day that the constable went with you to Bloom?—A. No, sir; he had not the money just then.

Q. Did Bloom on that day assume the payment of your taxes to Anderson?—A. Yes, sir; he did, and I have his paper to show it.

Q. How soon did Bloom say he would pay those taxes?—A. He told Greeley he would pay him the next day.

Q. Did you go away from Bloom's with the collector?—A. No, sir; I left the collector there and went home.

Q. You don't know then when Bloom paid the taxes?—A. No, sir; I don't; I don't think it was my business after Bloom assumed it; I had nothing to do with Greeley Anderson after that. My taxes were paid that day, and Greeley Anderson did not hold me any more.

Q. You paid it by giving Bloom credit on his account with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Bloom present you with his account against you?—A. Yes; he presented me with a statement of his charges against me.

Q. What is the date of the charge for the payment of this tax?—A. They say the paper says the 10th of October.

Q. Look at the paper and give us the date of the charge and the amount.

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has already stated he cannot read, and therefore must depend upon what others tell him as to what the date is in the account presented to him by Bloom, and the evidence would, therefore, be hearsay.)

A. I will give you the paper and you can read it; I can't read it.

Q. Can't you read figures?—A. I know figures when I see them.

Q. Look at the statement of Bloom's account and read the amount and the date.—A. Well, that is a 2 and 60; I want to know if that is it; I can't read it well; there is a 1 and a 0; what is that?

(Witness hands the statement to notary and requests him to copy the item.)

“Copy of item: To paying tax October 10, 2.60.”

Q. Did not George Bloom, on the day before the election, tell you that srael Test, chairman of the county committee, had sent him to you to tell you that if you moved that day you would lose your vote?

(Objected to because it is hearsay.)

A. Bloom said that Test said my vote would be lost.

Q. Who told you that?—A. Bloom did not tell me; I don't know who told me. I heard after that Test should have told Bloom that if my family was there I could not vote.

Q. Did you come here on the day before the election expecting to stay?—A. No, sir; I did not; I expected my wife to go back with me.

And further saith not.

M. D. REIDY affirmed.

Question. Are you a justice of the peace for Wallaceton Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you present at the organization of the election board for that borough on November 5, 1878?—A. I am certain I was.

Q. Did you administer the oaths to the judge, inspectors, and clerks of said board?—A. My impression is I did; I have been in the habit of doing that.

(Counsel for contestant having made this objection immediately after the question was asked, the same not having been taken down, now objects to taking any testimony of witness now sworn so far as the same relates to the qualifications of the election board of Wallaceton Borough, as in contestee's answer no charges were made that said board had not been legally qualified.)

Q. Are you not sure that you administered the oaths to the board as a justice of the peace?

(Objected to as not the best evidence.)

A. My impression is that I did.

Q. Were any other oaths administered to those officers besides what you administered, so far as you know?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you present with the board before they organized, and did you remain until after they commenced to receive votes?—A. No; I am not positive as to that; I was present before they were organized; it was necessary in order to administer the oaths.

Q. Did you remain for some time after they were organized?—A. Yes, sir; for some time.

Q. For what length of time did you remain?—A. I cannot say.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were all of the officers of the election board of Wallaceton Borough who held the election of November 5, 1878, duly sworn to perform their respective duties by you as justice of the peace in and for the county of Clearfield?—A. My impression is they were.

Q. Do you know Abraham Hummel?—A. I know two Abraham Hummels.

Q. Do you know Abraham Hummel of Wallaceton Borough, and did he reside in said borough more than two months preceding the election of November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the foregoing as not cross-examination, and to everything else witness was not asked in his examination-in-chief.)

A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Are you the only man of the name of Reidy living in Wallaceton Borough?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is there any M. B. Reidy living in Wallaceton Borough?—A. No, sir; my name is M. D. Reidy.

And further saith not.

M. D. REIDY.

The witness having been called, and the counsel for the contestant being under the impression until the closing of the re-examination that the name of the witness was M. B. Reidy instead of M. D. Reidy, and having made objection to his testimony before he signed the same, and being prevented from having this objection put on the record before he signed his testimony, now, by consent of counsel for contestee, objects to the testimony of M. D. Reidy, witness just sworn and examined, for the reason that the contestant or his counsel had no notice of the taking of the testimony of M. D. Reidy, such as is required by the act of Congress regulating the taking of testimony in contested election cases.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn, for the reason that the contestant or his counsel have not had such notice, and has not had any notice of the taking of the testimony of the witness, as is required by the act of Congress regulating the taking of testimony in cases wherein the right to seats in the Congress of the United States are contested, and that the contestant has not had such notice as to enable him to be present himself, or to consult his counsel in reference to the testimony of witness.)

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

(Counsel for contestant here objects to the witness now sworn testifying to anything relative to any frauds or irregularities in the election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and also to any illegal votes which may have been cast in said township at said election, for the reason that in his answer to notice of contest served upon him by A. G. Curtin that his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States would be contested, the contestee, Seth H. Yocum, made no charges or allegations of any frauds or irregularities, or that any illegal votes had been cast for contestant for Congress in said Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and the testimony of witness must therefore be irrelevant and immaterial.)

Q. Did you vote in Lawrence Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. How old are you?—A. About thirty-four next May.

Q. Did you yourself pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. When and to whom?—A. To R. H. Shaw, on June 8, 1878.

Q. Have you a receipt for the same, and, if so, will you produce it?—A. I have.

Q. Was this tax paid by you and at the time the receipt bears date?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you get this receipt at that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is this the only State or county tax you have paid within said two years?—A. Yes, sir; it is.

Q. Read the receipt.

“LAWRENCE TOWNSHIP,
“Clearfield Co., Pa., June 8th, 1878.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you been a citizen of the United States for one month immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and have you resided in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one year, and have you been a resident of Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, for at least two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you within two years immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your name upon the registry of voters upon the registry-list of November 5, 1878, for Lawrence Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Lawrence Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-two years old in December, 1878.

Q. When were you born?—A. I was born on the 24th day of December, 1856.

Q. What evidence have you that you were born in December of that year?—A. Well, that is what the old folks tell me; they have it down in the Bible; I suppose they know.

Q. Did you ever see the entry in the Bible?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you positive it was December 24, 1856?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever pay a State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of this witness, for the same reasons as stated in the objections made to the testimony of J. L. Conklin, of Lawrence Township.)

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Lawrence Township at the election of November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did; for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. On the 30th of June, 1877, to R. E. Shaw.

Q. Have you a receipt therefor, and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay the tax to R. E. Shaw in money, and on the day of the date of this receipt?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom; and have you a receipt for it?—A. I can't just mind when I paid it; my father paid it, and I don't know who he paid it to; I have a receipt for it at home.

Q. Was it paid before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I can't just remember.

Q. Did you or not vote on that payment of tax at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir, I did; on the one my father paid.

Q. Was it not paid, then, more than one month before the election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

Q. Will you read the receipt which you got from Collector Shaw on the 30th of June, 1877?

Q. Have you paid any taxes assessed since this one paid to Shaw?—A. I paid my 1877 tax; my father paid them for me; I am working for him.

Q. Are you sure he paid your State and county taxes for that year?—A. I am pretty sure he did.

Q. To whom?—A. I don't know to whom he paid the taxes and got the receipt; he told me he paid them.

Q. Did he pay them more than thirty days before the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Are you passenger and freight agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you examined the records and papers in your custody as agent to ascertain when circuses or shows visited this town during 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the testimony of witness, as well as the question just asked, for the reason, 1st, that the records of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which are implied by the question to be in the custody of the witness, are the best evidence; 2d, because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I have, as far as the Sells' Circus was here.

Q. When was that circus here?

(Objected to as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. Tenth of October, 1878.

Q. Have you with you any document belonging to the railroad company, giving information as to when said circus visited this town? And, if so, state what it is.—A. I have a forwarding report-book in my possession, showing the date of the manifest made for Sells Brothers' circus wagons and troupe from Clearfield to Emporium, Pa., dated October 10, 1878, made that day. I also have the card manifest, showing the shipment of Sells Brothers' wagons and troupe from Tyrone to Clearfield, dated October 9, 1878.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the answer of witness so far as the same is based from the card manifest, the date of which he has given, for the reason that he depends upon the correctness of others for the correctness of the date of the same, not having made it himself, and it is, therefore, hearsay, incompetent, and irrelevant.)

Q. Was that the only show or circus that visited or exhibited in Clearfield during the year 1878?—A. It was, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. On account of being ticket agent at Clearfield, would you not be in a position to know if any other show had visited Clearfield during that year?—A. Yes; if they were traveling troupes.

Q. Would you not know by the increase in the number of travelers?—A. Yes, sir.

Adjourned at 6 o'clock p. m. to meet at 7 p. m.

MARCH 4, 1879—7.25 p. m.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant reserving the right to all legal exceptions proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Was the circus or show of which you have testified in your direct examination the only show or circus that exhibited on the grounds north of Clearfield Borough during 1878?—A. Yes; it was the only circus or show that exhibited there.

Q. You are certain, are you, that it was not later than the 10th of October when that circus was here?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you with you the books and records of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company containing the information as to the date when the circus was here, and have you produced them for examination and inspection by counsel on both sides?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Have you shown the entries in these books to the counsel for contestant?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the witness answering this question until it shall have been shown by whom the entries in the books were made and denies that he has seen the records as made by witness, as counsel do not believe that the books were wholly prepared by witness himself.)

A. I have so far as relates to the show.

Q. Are these records kept by you and made under your direct supervision?—A. They are.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was the entry in the books referred to and which you have shown to counsel for contestant made by yourself individually?—A. No, sir; they were made by my assistant under my supervision.

Q. Was you present when the entry was made?—A. Yes; I was present, and I saw it so made.

Re-examined:

Q. Was Sells Brothers' show the only circus or annual show that exhibited in Clearfield or vicinity during 1878?—A. It was.

JOSEPH REDINGER sworn.

(Counsel for contestant objects and protests to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn, viz, Joseph Redinger, for the reason that the contestant or his counsel have not had notice that the testimony of the witness would be taken on this the 5th day of March, 1879, before William Radebaugh or any other person in the matter of the contested election of Andrew G. Curtin for the right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, and the contestant has not had time or notice such as would permit him to consult with his counsel or to direct them to be present and cross-examine the witness, and, therefore, has not had such notice of the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn as is required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings in contested rights for seats in the Congress of the United States, he having been notified that the witness's name was Joseph Radager.)

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn so far as the same relates to any frauds or irregularities at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, or to any illegal votes which were cast at said election in said Township for contestant, because, in his answer to notice that his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania would be contested by Hon. A. G. Curtin, contestee, Seth H. Yocum did not allege or charge that any frauds or irregularities were committed at said election in said township, and for the further reason that he does not allege in said answer that any fraudulent or illegal votes were cast for contestant at said election in said township; the evidence will, therefore, be irrelevant.)

Q. Are you or not generally known by the name of Joseph Radaker?—A. No; in the whole town it is Redinger.

Q. Are you not often called Radaker by mistake, or are you not?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has already testified that he is known by his right name, Joseph Redinger; the question is therefore improper.)

A. No; nobody calls me Radaker. O, yes; sometimes they do by mistake; people around town here all call me Redinger.

Q. Did you vote in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not vote the Democratic ticket at said election?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you or did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin, the Democratic candidate for Congress?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. McPherson gave me the ticket; I asked him what kind of things they were, and he said the whole Democratic ticket.

Q. What is McPherson's first name, and what is his politics?

(Counsel for contestant objects for the reason that the witness cannot testify to the politics of McPherson from his own knowledge; his evidence would therefore be hearsay.)

A. I don't know; he lives up at the saw-mill; that is all I know. I can't tell his politics either; I expect he is a Democrat.

Q. Did you ask him for the whole Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I asked Wrigley for a ticket and he said, "There is McPherson; he will give you one."

Q. Do you or not mean Wrigley who is in Wallace & Krebs' office?—A. Yes, sir; I mean him.

Q. Is he a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you intend to vote for Curtin, the Democratic candidate for Congress?—A. That was my calculation. Yes; there was no other fellow running on the Democratic ticket but him.

Q. Did McPherson tell you that was the ticket he gave you?—A. Yes; he said it was the right ticket.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I ought to have had it paid; I thought it was, but it turns out I paid the wrong tax.

Q. Have you with you the receipts for the taxes which you paid and upon which you voted at that election?—A. I heard that Shaw was tax collector, and I asked him how much tax there was against me, and he told me a dollar and fifty cents, and I paid it, and it turns out to be school and poor tax. I cannot read English and did not know what kind of tax it was.

Q. Will you hand that receipt to the notary public to be copied?—A. I will.

(Witness hands receipt to notary of which the following is a copy:)

"CLEARFIELD, June 18th, 1878.

"Rec. of Joseph Radicer, school tax and poor, 1876 and 1877, 1.50 cents.

"JOHN SHAW, Col."

Q. Was this the payment of tax upon which you voted at last election?—A. Yes, sir, it was; I thought it was the right tax. I can't read English.

Q. Did you vote at the last Presidential election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay the taxes upon which you voted at that election?—A. I have forgot; Blake Wallis paid my tax and he gave me the receipt.

Q. Did you pay any tax within two years of the election of November 5, 1878, except those you paid to Shaw as stated?—A. No; I did not pay any other tax since 1876 tax.

Q. Would you have gone to the election had you known the taxes you paid to John Shaw were not State and county taxes?—A. I would have paid my other tax then if I had known. I would have paid my other taxes if I had known the taxes I paid to Shaw were school and poor taxes. I thought they were the right ones I paid Shaw.

Q. How long before the election of November 5, 1878, was it since you had paid any taxes other than those you had paid to John Shaw?—

A. The last ones were for 1876.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. That is the tax Blake Wallers paid for me.

Q. Was that the tax upon which you voted at the last Presidential election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it paid long enough before that election to entitle you to vote?

A. Ninety days before the election.

Q. How old are you?—A. Forty-three years.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—

A. No, sir.

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the right to all legal exceptions, further proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Can you read English?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?

—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you do not know that you voted for A. G. Curtin for Congress, for certain, do you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you pay any taxes in 1877?—A. Nothing but what is on the receipt I gave to notary to copy.

Q. Did you vote in Lawrence Township in 1877?—A. I have voted there 1876, 1877, and 1878.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in said township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. I will be 61 by 22d of July next.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket that you voted at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you not paid some tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have or have you not paid any tax since the Presidential election?—A. I have not paid any tax for four years except what I paid the day after the election, neither State, county, school, or any other.

Q. Did or did you not see the name of Curtin on your ticket?—A. No, sir ; I did not read it or look at it. If I had looked at it I could not read it, as I am no scholar.

Q. Then, you cannot swear positively, can you, that you did vote for A. G. Curtin ?—A. No, I could not exactly. A Democrat gave me the ticket, a brother-in-law of mine.

Q. Can you read either written or printed matter ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then may not your brother-in-law have given you a ticket with the name of Seth H. Yocum on it ?—A. No, sir ; he did not do it, I know.

Q. Do you mean to say that your brother-in-law might not have done so ?—A. I say he did not do it ; but he might have done so, of course.

Q. Then, you cannot swear, can you, that you did not vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress, so far as your own personal knowledge of the ticket you voted is concerned ?—A. No ; I could not swear positive.

Q. What is your politics ?—A. A Republican, and always was.

Re-examined :

Q. How many times have you voted for A. G. Curtin previous to the last election, near as you can tell ?

(Objected to as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I voted twice for him, I think.

Q. Did you or not tell your brother-in-law who gave you your ticket that you intended to vote for Curtin and request him to give you a ticket with his name on it ?—A. I did.

Q. Did he read the ticket to you when he gave it to you ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he read the name of Curtin ?—A. Yes, sir ; he read all the names on it. I will vote for him again if ever I get a chance.

Q. Did you vote the ticket your brother-in-law gave you ?—A. I did.

Cross-examined :

Q. What other names were on your ticket ?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Cannot you give some of them ?—A. No, sir ; I cannot.

Q. Was the name of Hoyt upon it ?—A. I don't recollect ; he read the names of several candidates, but I do not recollect the names of any but Curtin. It was a full ticket.

Q. He read other names, did he, upon your ticket ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Cannot you remember one of them ?—A. No, sir ; I cannot. My memory is short.

Re-examined :

Q. Have you any reason for remembering the name of Curtin better than the others ?—A. Because I cared so little about the other parties. I wanted to vote for Andy Curtin.

Q. What ticket did you vote, Democratic or Republican, at that election ?—A. I voted the Democratic ticket, the first I ever voted.

Cross-examined :

Q. When you say you voted the Democratic ticket, do you not depend upon what others have told you ?—A. There was nobody told me anything about the election. I voted that ticket.

Q. How do you know you did ?—A. Because my brother-in-law read it to me.

Q. You depend then, do you, upon what your brother-in-law read to you for your knowledge of the ticket you voted ?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. I was 23 years old on 26th of January, 1879.

Q. Did you vote in Osceola Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom was that tax paid?—A. To Wm. Hamilton, on the 7th of May, 1878.

Q. Was that the only State or county tax you paid within two years preceding said election?—A. That is the only State and county tax.

Q. Was or was not that tax assessed on property in Osceola Borough?—A. Yes, sir; it was assessed to me. I built the house myself.

Q. By whom was that tax paid to the collector?—A. My mother.

Q. Have you a receipt for that tax, and will you produce it and read it? (Witness read receipt.)

“OSCEOLA, May 7th, 1878.

“Received of Mrs. Geo. Richards eighty-four cents & $\frac{84}{100}$ dollars, State and county tax for 1876.

\$ $\frac{84}{100}$.

“D. HAMILTON,

“W. B. HAMILTON.”

Q. Is or is not your mother now residing in the property on which this tax was assessed, and is she interested in it?—A. Yes, sir; all she is interested in it is she lives in it and I allow her to have a home in it. I built it for her to live in.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you sure this money was paid at the time this tax receipt bears date?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you known in Osceola Borough as George Richards, jr.?—Yes, sir.

Q. Whose property was it upon which the tax, the receipt for the payment of which has been copied by the notary?—A. It is mine.

Q. You say it belongs to you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you give your mother the money to pay these taxes, and did she pay them for you at your request?—A. I don't remember whether I gave her the money or not. I never charged my memory with it. I either gave it to her then or she had it there. I gave her money along to buy things with. She paid them, however, for me and at my request.

Q. Then the property upon which these taxes were paid belonged to you, and the money that paid them was your money, was it?—A. I could not say that. The property belongs to me. There are two of us, my brother Alfred and I; we work together and give money to my mother to keep her. It would be hard for me to tell whether it was his or mine. It might have been half and half; the money, I mean.

Q. Have you had any conversation with Mr. D. Hamilton, collector, or W. B. Hamilton in reference to the payment of these taxes, the receipt for which has been read and copied?—A. Yes, sir. Only Mr. D. Hamilton told me he had some taxes against me; he asked if I could pay; I told him I could; I had not the money with me, and I told him I would pay him some time again.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—
A. One of the board objected and called me in.

Q. Was D. Hamilton present when you voted?—A. No, sir; he might have been outside of the polls.

Q. Was W. D. Hamilton present?—A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Q. Has D. Hamilton, collector, ever told you since May 7, 1878, that the State and county taxes for which he asked you had been paid?

(Objected to as hearsay and incompetent.)

A. I never mind of him saying anything about them since.

Q. Is the property upon which these State and county taxes were assessed and paid the place of your residence?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does your mother, yourself, and brothers and sisters make your home together on this property?—A. All except one that is married.

Q. Do you and your brother support your mother?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has your mother rented this property from you, or is she making her home there with you?—A. No, sir; she has not rented it; she is making her home with me.

Re-examined :

Q. Did you direct your mother to pay the taxes?—A. Yes, sir; I did

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Bellefonte, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of the witness now sworn so far as relates to any frauds or irregularities in the election of November 5, 1878, in Bellefonte, Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, or to any illegal votes cast in said township at said election, or to any fraud or irregularities alleged to have been committed in said Centre County, Pennsylvania, for the reason that contestant has not had such notice of the taking of the testimony of Wm. McGowan of Spring Township, Centre County, as is required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings in contested rights for seats in the Congress of the United States; and for the further reason that Andrew G. Curtin contestant, or his counsel, have had no notice whatever of the taking of the testimony of Wm. McGowan, resident of Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Where are you working?—A. For Sheriff Pie, of Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you been working in Osceola?—A. I came there last Monday week.

Q. Is or is not that your residence now?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you a married man?—A. I am.

Q. With whom are you boarding at Osceola?—A. George Lane.

Q. Is he a hotel-keeper residing in the borough of Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you a permanent job of work in Osceola?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. In giving your residence in answer to a former question, did you not mean your residence at the time of November 5, 1878?—A. It was in Spring Township when I voted.

Q. Do you consider that your residence yet, and is it the abode of your family?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878, in Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania; and, if so, for whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted there, for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I think I did.

Q. Did you pay any such tax yourself?—A. Irvin Taylor paid it for me.

Q. Have you a receipt for it?—A. Not here.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax within two years, or was any other such tax paid for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. When and to whom was the tax paid that Taylor paid for you?—A. It was paid to John Morrison, but I cannot tell when.

Q. Did you authorize Irvin Taylor to pay this tax before he paid it?—A. I did.

Q. Was that tax paid before the last Presidential election, and did you vote on it at said election?—A. I could not tell exactly whether it was or not; I don't know whether I voted on that tax or not, but I voted at that election.

Q. Do you not know that that tax was paid some time during the year 1876, while the Centennial Exhibition was in progress?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. I think it was paid since that.

Q. Was it paid long enough before the Presidential election to entitle you to a vote at said election?—A. I cannot tell you; I don't know.

Q. Can you swear that it was not paid more than one month before that election?—A. I cannot.

Q. Then can you swear that it was paid less than two years before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. If you stated in reply to a former question that you did pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, were you or were you not mistaken?—A. I can't tell whether I did or did not.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-eight, going on twenty-nine.

(Counsel for contestant, reserving particularly the right to move to strike out the testimony of this witness now sworn, for the reasons set forth in the objection to him testifying, before the committee of Congress who shall hear the cause; and for the further reason that witness is known in this county under the name of William McGwin, of the taking of whose testimony contestant has also had no notice, as required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings in contested rights for seats in the Congress of the United States.)

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your home in Spring Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, on the 28th day of February and on the 1st day of March, and did your family reside there at that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you not called by many in Osceola, McGwin?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you not commonly known by that name in Osceola?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you believe that you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878, which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot tell for sure.

Q. Do you think you paid these taxes, or that they were paid for you, after the Presidential election of 1876, at which Tilden and Hayes were candidates?—A. I don't know whether they were or not.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt for these taxes at home?—A. I think I have.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Osceola Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a member of the election board for said borough at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What position did you hold on it?—A. Inspector.

Q. Were you or not the minority inspector?—A. Yes, sir; according to the vote generally.

Q. What is the politics of the judge and the other inspector of said election board?

(Counsel for contestant objects, because the answer of the witness must be based upon what he has heard, and therefore it is hearsay and incompetent as evidence.)

A. The judge's name is Patrick Gallagher, and he is a Democrat. The inspector's name was E. J. Duffy, and he was also a Democrat. I am a Republican.

Q. Who was the judge elected for said election?

(Counsel for contestant objects and protests to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn, so far as the same relates to any frauds or any irregularities of the election of November 5, 1878, in Osceola Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and also to anything which may be intended to show that the election officers were not properly elected, sworn, and qualified to perform their respective duties as officers of the election in said borough in said election, for the reason that the contestee, Seth H. Yocum, has not, in his answer to the notice served upon him by Hon. A. G. Curtin, that his right to a seat as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States does not allege or charge that any frauds or irregularities were committed in said borough at said election, and for the further reason that he does not in said answer allege that the officers in said borough of said election were not legally and regularly elected and properly sworn to perform their duties respectively as officers of the election of November 5, 1878, in the borough of Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, as required under the constitution and laws of said State.)

A. George Boalich.

Q. Was he present when the board was organized?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was any election held by the voters present for judge?

(Counsel for contestant objects, for the reason that the records and returns of said election on file in the office of the prothonotary are the best evidence and can be had; and counsel further renews the objection to witness testifying as to anything relating to the organization of the election board who held the election in Osceola Borough on November 5, 1878, for the reasons set forth fully in said objection.)

A. The inspectors and judge were present; there were no voters present.

Q. By whose request did Patrick Gallagher act as judge?

(Objected to for the same reason as before, and because it is hearsay.)

A. At my request.

Q. When and how was Gallagher selected as judge?—A. It was a few days before the election, as we were about to appoint a judge, and he proposed Robert Laushe, and I supposed he would rather have a Democrat on, and chose Mr. Gallagher. At the time we were going to appoint the judge I was talking to Mr. Duffy about it, and my conversation was with him.

Q. Was Laushe, who Duffy, the other inspector, proposed, also a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how many days before the election was it that you and Duffy agreed upon Gallagher as judge?—A. If I ain't mistaken it was on the Saturday before the election.

Q. Did either you or Mr. Duffy notify Gallagher thereof, and did he agree to serve?—A. Mr. Duffy notified him and he agreed to serve.

Q. Was that all that was done until the morning of the election in the matter, and did he agree to serve?—A. Yes, sir; and he did not object.

Q. Did he appear on the morning of the election in pursuance of an arrangement with the inspectors?—A. No, sir; Mr. Duffy went for him; I supposed he had notified him before, but he had not; he then went for him and he came.

Q. Who administered the oath to Gallagher, the judge just elected?

(Objected to for the same reasons as in the objections to witness testifying, and because it is not the best evidence, the returns of said election being on file and can be had.)

A. E. J. Duffy, the inspector.

Q. Who administered the oaths to the balance of the board?—A. Patrick Gallagher, the judge.

Q. What was done with the ballot-box after the ballots were counted?

(Counsel for contestant objects, for the reasons stated in former objections to witness testifying, and for the further reason that it is immaterial what was done with the ballot-box after the count was made, as no recount of the votes polled at said election in said borough has been ordered, and therefore it is immaterial what was done with the ballot-box, and the evidence will be irrelevant.)

A. It was left in the election house till the next morning, and I was informed the boxes were there, so I took them down to the nearest justice of the peace.

Q. Were you informed that it was the duty of the minority inspector to take the ballot-box to the office of a justice of the peace, and did you do it as such the next morning as stated?—A. Knowing that the other inspector was not there, I did it; I was not informed that way though.

Q. Was the ballot-box left in the election house that night unguarded?—A. I believe so.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was E. J. Duffy, who you said notified Pat. Gallagher that you wanted him for judge at the election of November 5, 1878, at Osceola Borough, an inspector, and a member of the majority party in said borough?—A. He notified him, and he was a member of the majority party as inspector.

Q. Was it upon your request and upon Duffy's approval that Pat. Gallagher was made judge at said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did not yourself and E. J. Duffy receive the same number of votes for the positions of inspectors of said election?—A. Yes, sir; we both had the same number of votes.

Q. By whom did you say Gallagher was sworn to perform the duties of judge of said election?—A. E. J. Duffy, inspector. I requested Mr. Duffy to do it, because he was a better reader than I am, and I had not my glasses with me at the time.

Q. You were present then, were you, when Gallagher was sworn?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the vote cast at said election correctly counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate made and signed by the election officers after the vote was counted, and posted up on the election house for the information of the public?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were returns of the election showing the correct number of votes received by each candidate made and inclosed in envelopes containing an unsealed return sheet, one list of voters, tally-paper, and oaths of election officers?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was one of those envelopes given to the judge of said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was one of those envelopes, together with the ballots, registry, and other papers, placed in the ballot-box and sealed up?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At whose house was the election held?—A. The Osceola House, kept by Meto Hoyt.

Q. What is the politics of Meto Hoyt?—A. A Republican.

Q. What time did you leave the election house and on what day?—A. At ten or half past ten on the day of the election.

Re-examined:

Q. What was done with the envelope for the minority inspector?—A. E. J. Duffy took it.

Recross-examined:

Q. Was the ballot-box in the same condition when you got it that it was when you left it on the evening of the election?—A. Yes, sir; it was; the seal was unbroken.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-eight years of age.

Q. Did you vote in Osceola Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes; for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I did.

Q. When and to whom?—A. I paid it May 18, 1878, to David Hamilton, collector.

Q. Have you a receipt for it, and will you produce it?—A. I have, and will.

Q. Did you pay that tax in money, and on the day of the date of that receipt?—A. I did, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Was that the only State or county tax you paid within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir,

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of your State and county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month and within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I have.

Q. Will you read it?

Witness reads receipt:

“OSCEOLA, May 18th, 1878.

“Received of J. O. Richards, eighty-four cents, State and county, for 1876.

D. HAMILTON, Col.”

Q. Was the money which you paid D. Hamilton, collector, on the 18th day of May, 1878, and for which the above receipt was given you, for State and county taxes?—A. That is what he called it, and what I considered I was paying, and he had his duplicate there to show it.

Q. Was D. Hamilton collector of State and county taxes for Osceola Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for 1878?—A. Well I was always under that impression, that he was collecting taxes in 1878, finishing his duplicate for 1876.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. I will be 48 in next May.

Q. Did you vote in Decatur Township at the election of November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom?—A. Can't remember, but I got the receipt two days after I paid it. I paid it to Levi Goss, collector.

Q. Will you read the receipt or hand it to the notary to copy?

Witness hands the receipt to notary, which reads as follows:

“DECATUR TOWNSHIP,
“Clearfield County, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1877.

“Mr. LEWIS PLUBELL: You are hereby notified that your State and county tax for the year 1876 is $—.57 cts., tax for 187— is $—, tax for 187— is $—, tax for 187— is $—. You are required to pay the above amount to ——— at my residence, in said township, within ten days.

“LEVI GOSS,
Collector.

“Received payment in full.

“LEVI GOSS, Col.

“Return this bill and receipt for signature.”

Q. When was this tax paid?—A. This tax was paid in January, 1877.

Q. In this receipt the month and the year appear to have been written by different ink and by a different hand from the day of the month and the balance of the writing in it. Can you explain this?—A. I sent my tax in in January, 1877, by mail to the Blue Ball, to Mr. Goss, and then about a week or a few days I got the receipt back by mail. The receipt is just the same now as it was when I received it.

Q. Is that the only State or county tax you paid within those two years?—A. No, sir; I am only behind on my 1878 tax.

Q. To whom did you pay any other State or county taxes, and when?—A. I paid for the last four years my tax to Goss. I paid every year up to 1878 to Goss. This is the latest tax I have.

Q. Did you not pay all the other State or county taxes prior to the Presidential election?—A. I have paid all my taxes but for the year 1878. I have all the receipts at home. If this is not the right one, I have it at home.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. To whom did you pay your 1876 State and county tax?—A. To Levi Goss, collector for Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. To whom did you pay your State and county taxes for 1877?—A. To Levi Goss, collector.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you the receipt for the payment of 1877 taxes at home?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Might it not have been in January, 1878, you paid your 1877 tax?—A. Yes, sir; that was the time I paid it last year.

Q. Then I understand you to say you paid your State and county tax for 1877 about January, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

DICKSON VERTZ sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Burnside Township, Clearfield, County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What is your age?—A. Forty-five years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Burnside Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. I don't know whether I can tell that.

Q. Did you or did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Well, I thought I did, but I did not look at my hand.

Q. Who did you intend to vote for for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. Daniel McCracken handed me my ticket.

Q. Was he or was he not a Democrat?—A. Well, I always considered him a Democrat.

Q. How long did he give you the ticket before you voted it?—A. I told him to fill me out a Curtin ticket right quick; I was in a hurry. He made out a ticket, and Daniel reached it to me. I just walked and put my ticket in, and did not look at it.

Q. You say you thought you voted for Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you think so yet?—A. Yes, sir; that is my opinion.

Q. What kind of tickets was Daniel McCracken giving out that day; Democratic or Republican?—A. I was not there long enough to see him giving out any.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax during the year 1876?

(Objected to for the reason that it is wholly immaterial whether the witness had paid any tax prior to the Presidential election of 1876; that the only proper question under the law as it now stands is, "Has he paid a State or county tax within two years, and more than thirty days, that was assessed at least sixty days prior to November 5, 1878?")

A. I don't remember of paying any in 1876.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. I satisfied the collector, James Somerville, by giving him Horace Patchin for the taxes.

Q. When did you satisfy the collector, as you say?—A. It was along some time last winter; I can't tell exactly; this winter a year ago, I mean. I think it was along about the middle of the winter.

Q. Who was present, if anybody?—A. Daniel Fulton was in the store at the time, and some others, and Mr. Somerville.

Q. Do you know whether Patchin paid those taxes to Somerville?—A. Nothing but what Somerville tell me.

Q. Outside of that arrangement have you paid any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Not that I remember of.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was Somerville at the election-house when you voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is he or is he not the collector, and a Republican in politics?—A. He is the collector, and a Republican.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For what reason?—A. For non-payment of taxes.

Q. Did the election board inquire about the payment of your taxes, and did they or not ask anything of the collector?—A. Yes, sir; Somerville came up before the board and acknowledged that Horace Patchin had assumed my taxes; he said he looked to Patchin for them, and if he could not get them from Patchin he expected to pay them himself.

Q. Was it after this inquiry or before it that you voted?—A. It was after Somerville was called they took my vote.

Re-examined :

Q. How long before you voted did you conclude to vote for Curtin?—A. After I heard he was out for office.

Q. Do you mean to swear that you intended from the time Curtin came out for office as Congressman you intended to support him?—A. Yes, sir; it was my calculation to vote for him.

Q. Who were you working for prior to the election, and at that time?—A. Daniel McCracken.

Q. Did or did not Daniel McCracken ask you to go to the polls?—A. I let on to him I did not allow to go, and he still insisted on me going.

Q. What did he say to you when he insisted on your going?—A. He said sooner than I would not go he would pay me for my afternoon's work.

Q. How much time did you lose by going to the election?—A. I did not go back to McCracken's to my work until next morning. I lost a half a day, having quit my work at noon of the day of election.

Q. When was it that McCracken agreed to pay you for your half day if you would go to the election and vote?—A. On the forenoon of the election-day; he told me that several times in the forenoon.

Q. Did you then agree to go to the election?—A. Not till after I started to go to the election; I told him I was going after I started.

Q. It was the understanding, then, that you were to be paid for your half day that you were at the election voting?—A. I made no calculations on getting any pay for the afternoon; I considered it a joke between us; I made no calculations on getting anything.

Q. Did you agree to go to the election until after McCracken had agreed to pay you for the half day?—A. I talked about going all along until the day of election; I then said I thought I would not go, and he made me the offer of my time.

Q. Did you on that day agree to go until after he made you that offer?—A. I did not agree to him at all to go.

Q. Did you go till after he made you that offer?—A. No, sir; not till after.

Q. Do you keep a time-book of your time that you worked for McCracken?—A. Yes, sir; but I have not got it along.

Q. How do you mark your time in that book?—A. I mark the day of the month.

Q. And how do you distinguish between a day's work and a half-day's work?—A. I put down one-half day down, and one day for a day's work.

Q. Which have you marked for November 5, 1878?—A. I marked a half-day's work.

Q. When did you make that mark?—A. The evening of the election, when I went home.

Q. Did you or not, then or since, intend to hold McCracken for the pay or ask him for the pay of the other half-day?—A. No, sir.

Q. What candidate did McCracken speak about voting for when he urged you to go to the election?—A. Mr. Bennett.

Q. And who else?—A. I don't know as there was anybody else.

Q. Who did he advocate for Congress, Curtin or Yocum?—A. Well, he told me he did not like either one, but who he voted for I can't say.

Q. Which did he express a preference for?—A. I don't know but what he talked in favor of Curtin.

Q. Did he not talk in favor of Curtin?—A. I believe he did talk a little in favor of Curtin.

Q. Did he not speak to you about voting for Curtin?—A. I don't know as he ever asked me to vote for Curtin.

Q. Did you hear any little commercial transaction between Daniel McCracken and Elijah O'Dell concerning the pasturing of a calf providing he (O'Dell) would go to the election and vote for certain persons?

(Objected to the witness answering that question unless he can testify whether the calf was a bull calf or not, and whether the pasture was good, and the quantity of pasture the calf could eat.)

A. Yes; I heard some conversation to that effect.

Q. Please detail that conversation as near as you can recollect it, stating first the time and place where the parties were together.—A. We were in the woods making timber in Burnside Township, about a week or so before the election. Daniel McCracken was electioneering for Bennett, the Democratic candidate for the legislature, and Elijah O'Dell was against him. Daniel McCracken told him (O'Dell) if he went to the election and voted for Bennett he would not charge him anything for the pasture of his calf.

Q. Do you recollect of his speaking of other candidates besides Bennett?—A. Not on the calf question, I believe.

Q. Did he not speak of the Democratic ticket?—A. There was nothing particular said about that; he was satisfied before that O'Dell would vote the Democratic ticket, only he was an enemy of Bennett's.

Q. Was not O'Dell opposed to Curtin as well as Bennett?—A. Well, I have heard him say he did not like Curtin, but he was going to vote for him.

Q. Do you swear that you did not hear McCracken say anything to O'Dell, either in the calf conversation or in any other conversation at any other time, about O'Dell voting for Curtin?—A. Why, we had several conversations about the election and voting for Curtin. McCracken, he was a Bennett man, and they were arguing with him more for fun than anything else.

Q. Did you ever hear McCracken talk in favor of Curtin to O'Dell at any time?—A. Well, I have heard him talk in favor of him; that is, that he would vote the whole Democratic ticket.

And further sayeth not.

DANIEL McCracken affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Burnside Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What is your age?—A. Thirty-five.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Burnside Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. I guess I voted for Curtin; I won't swear to that positive.

Q. Is that your opinion and belief?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you mean that you feel satisfied in your own mind, and are yet not so positive as to swear to it absolutely?—A. That don't suit me altogether, for I am not clear on the subject. I guess, by all accounts, I voted for Curtin.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Why, I believe not, according to the returns here.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax, as nearly as you can recollect?—A. In 1876; I think I paid it to the treasurer of Clearfield County at Burnside.

Q. About how early in the year was it?—A. In July or June, I believe, of 1876.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you sure that it was not in June or July, 1877, that you paid this tax?—A. It was not in 1877; as to the months I am not sure.

Re-examined:

Q. What treasurer did you pay those taxes to, and were they not paid in legal time; that is, one month or more before the Presidential election of November, 1876?—A. It was in the forepart of the season, sometime in harvest, over one month before that election. I think David McGaughey was treasurer.

And further sayeth not.

D. W. CRACKEN recalled and affirmed.

Question. State whether you offered pay any of the men who were were working for you, or any other men, for their time if they would go to the election of November 5, 1878, and vote for certain candidates.

(Question objected to, unless the answer be confined and limited to what is material in this case, and at the proper time will ask such parts as are not material to this issue to be excluded.)

Answer. I did tell certain parties that I would allow their full day. They were Elijah O'Dell and Dixon Vertz.

Q. How did you come to make this agreement with them?—A. Because they were working for me, and they could not put in their full day and go to the election, and they did not want to lose their time, particularly O'Dell.

Q. Who were these parties to vote for under this agreement?—A. There was no positive agreement made about the Congressional ticket; there was nothing said on the subject of the candidate for Congress.

Q. Who was the positive agreement made as to?
(Objected to as wholly immaterial in this contest.)

A. It was in regard to the candidate for assembly.

Q. Did you or did you not agree to pay them for their time if they went to that election and voted for Bennett, the Democratic candidate for the legislature?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you or not, at any time, say anything to these parties with whom you made this agreement, either at the time the agreement was made or at any other time, about their voting for Curtin?—A. Not to the best of my recollection.

Q. Did you offer any money to Dickson Vertz, Elijah O'Dell, or any other persons, to vote for any particular candidate or candidates?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you receive any money from Dr. Bennett, W. W. Barclay, Nathan Arnold, or any other person or persons, during the campaign of 1878, to use for election purposes, or for any purpose connected with that campaign?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you, some days before the election, agree with Elijah O'Dell, in the presence of Dickson Vertz, that if he would go to the election and vote for certain candidates that you would not charge him anything for pasturing his calf?—A. I was not charging him anything any way. Yes; that was the talk.

Q. What was said by you in that conversation, and what by O'Dell?—A. O'Dell wanted a little more for going to the election than his day's pay. I told him there was nothing in it for me to give him any more. He had left a calf at my place. He had no place to keep it at home. I had never thought of charging him anything for its keep anyhow. Then he said, if you don't charge me anything for that calf I will go; and I told him all right, I won't charge you anything.

JAMES SOMERVILLE sworn.

Question. Are you the collector of Burnside Township of the State and county taxes for 1875, 1876, 1877, and 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Dixon Vertz ever pay you any State and county taxes; and, if so, when?—A. Dixon Vertz paid me 21 cents State and county taxes for 1875 some time in 1876. I could not say what time in 1876.

Q. Can you remember if it was within two years of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot.

Q. What is your best recollection as to whether it was before that time or after?—A. I cannot say.

Q. What is your best recollection as to whether it was within two years of that election or before?—A. I could not say.

Q. Have you any recollection as to whether it was before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I could not say. He just paid them to me, and I marked them on the book paid.

Q. What time in 1876 were those 1865 taxes mostly paid?—A. They were paid along in the summer. I settled the duplicate that winter.

Q. Is it not likely, then, that Vertz paid those taxes earlier than the 1st of November, 1876?—A. It is likely. I cannot say.

Q. State whether Vertz himself paid you any other State or county taxes at any time.—A. For the taxes of 1876 and 1877 I was down to Burnside, and Mr. Horace Patchin told me (that was in January, 1878) that he had got Mr. Vertz's raft at the island and sold it on time, and he said he would pay all Mr. Vertz's taxes. He made me count the taxes up. Then I went away and saw Mr. Vertz that evening. He said I should stay some place that night, and he would go down with me to see Patchin in the morning. Mr. Vertz and I went down, and Mr. Vertz went and talked to Mr. Patchin himself, and then Mr. Patchin came over to me and said I will pay all of Vertz's taxes. When Mr. Patchin told me, I was writing a receipt for Daniel Fulton's taxes.

Q. Did either Patchin or Vertz or any one else ever pay those taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever mark them paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever agree to mark them paid?—A. No, sir; I did not mark anything paid till they were paid.

Q. Did you mark all the other taxes paid on your duplicate which were paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you usually give a receipt?—A. No, sir; sometimes I did, sometimes I did not.

Q. Did you give a receipt for those taxes to Dixon Vertz?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever consider these taxes paid by anybody to you?—A. No, sir; not to me. I supposed they were paid by Vertz to Patchin. I supposed this from what Mr. Patchin said about the raft.

Q. Was Vertz's vote challenged when he offered to vote on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you state to the board that his taxes were paid, or did you simply make a statement of the arrangement between you and him as to Patchin paying his taxes which you have already related?—A. Yes, sir; I made the same statement I have made now. I did not tell them they were paid.

Cross-examined:

Q. What State and county taxes of Dixon Vertz's were covered by this arrangement?—A. His State and county, school, and poor tax for 1876 and 1877.

Q. Have you or not settled those duplicates and paid over the moneys into the county treasury including these taxes of Vertz or a part of them?—A. Yes, sir; the State and county of 1876 and 1877. I paid over and settled the duplicates, including his.

Q. What was the politics of the majority of the election board in Burnside Township?—A. One of the inspectors was a Republican, but at the election he was a Greenbacker. The other was a Democrat. The judge was a Republican out and out.

Q. State, if you can, the politics of Horace Patchin at that election.—A. I think he was a Hoyt man for governor. I don't know about the rest.

Q. From the time the arrangement about Vertz's taxes you have testified about to the day of the November election of 1878, how many times did you ask Dixon Vertz to pay you his State and county tax for the years 1876 and 1877?—A. I did not see Dixon Vertz after that till the day of the election.

Q. About what time in the year 1877 did you settle the duplicate of 1877, including Vertz's tax?—A. I settled the duplicate of 1877, including Vertz's, in January, 1878.

Q. Was it on the faith of this arrangement which you have given that you did not ask Vertz for his State and county tax and paid them into the county treasury yourself?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. You do not think that Patchin's politics had anything to do with his failure to pay these taxes, do you?—A. No, sir.

Question. Did you vote at the election district of Chest Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding that election paid a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At what time, to whom, and how did you pay that tax?—A. I paid it in June, 1878, to Austin Curry. He had a rafting-ground from me last winter and owed me $5 for it, and about the 1st of June I asked him if he would let that go on my tax. He said yes; it would save him paying me the money.

Q. Did he give you a receipt or mark it paid on his duplicate?—A.

No, sir; he did not give me a receipt. I don't know whether he marked it paid on the duplicate or not.

Q. Was that the only tax you had paid, or arranged to pay, within two years preceding that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. You reside at Chest Township, this county, do you, and what is your age?—A. I do reside there; my age is 47.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was Austin Curry, with whom you made this arrangement, collector of State and county taxes for Chest Township, at the time you speak of, about the 1st of June, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it for taxes that were on his duplicate that this arrangement was made?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. What year's tax was he collecting?—A. The year 1877.

Question. Were you one of the clerks of the election in the district of New Washington Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—Answer. I was.

Q. Who swore the voters as to their qualifications at that election?—A. I did.

Q. Were there any persons voted at that election whose names were not on the registry list?—A. I think there was; I am positive there was.

Q. What was required of such persons by the board?—A. We required them to bring a citizen who would vouch for their residence in the district for the legal time.

Q. Was that all that was required of them?—A. The oath of the voter, as well as the citizen's, was taken.

Q. Were those oaths administered by you as well as in the case of registry voters?—A. They were; I think no registered voters were questioned on oath.

Q. Were these oaths reduced to writing?—A. They were.

Q. Were the papers containing these oaths put in the ballot-box, or forwarded with the returns to Clearfield?—A. I do not know.

Q. Do you know Wm. Mehaffey, formerly a resident of New Washington Borough?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he vote at that election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how he voted?—A. I am not certain, but I am almost positive.

Q. How did he vote, and before stating how he voted, state what reasons you have for believing he so voted?

(Object to the witness testifying to anything that partakes of the nature of hearsay, and require the witness to confine his testimony to that which he knows by the ballot itself and not what any one else told him.)

A. The reason I have, in a small election district like ours we generally count noses and pretend to know nearly how every man votes, and we never had any difficulty in our own mind in placing his vote where I think it was put. He had always been a Democrat.

Q. From these circumstances can you tell how he voted?—A. According to the best of my knowledge and belief he voted for Curtin.

(Objected to as incompetent testimony, Wm. Mehaffey being a resident of the county and within reach of process, and notice having been served that he would be called himself; the testimony itself being conjecture.)

Q. State whether Wm. Mehaffey was a resident of New Washington election district on November 5, 1878, when he voted there.—A. He did not have his family there.

Q. How long before that election had he moved with his family out of that election district?—A. I can't state positively, but I think three or four weeks; it might have been longer.

Q. What did he take with him when he moved?—A. I don't know what all he took, but he took most of his household furniture and utensils.

Q. Had he or not been sold out by the sheriff when he moved?—A. I think he had; I am not certain when; I know he was sold out before the election; my opinion is he was sold out before he moved.

Q. To what election district did he move?—A. Bell Township.

Q. Had he any business in New Washington that he was carrying on after the time he moved?—A. He had not.

Q. What was the only business that he had or carried on after that date?—A. To my knowledge he had no business except in Bell Township.

Q. How far is it from New Washington to Bell Township where he moved?—A. About five miles and a half.

Cross-examined:

Q. What was your politics at the November election of 1878?—A. I voted the Republican State ticket.

Q. Was the election in the New Washington Borough district conducted honestly, fairly, legally and impartially to the best of your knowledge and understanding?—A. We thought so, with the exception of Wm. Mehaffey's vote. There were doubts among some about his vote; there was none about any of the others.

Q. How many persons voted in the district that were not registered?—A. Two, I think.

Q. Give their names, if you think you can?—A. T. D. Garnett and G. W. Koontzman were the men.

Q. What, as far as you know, was the politics of these two persons? (Objected to as incompetent if the objection made by the counsel who cross-examines to like questions have any force or effect in them.)

A. Mr. Garnett was a Republican and Mr. Kuntzman a Democrat.

Q. What has Wm. Mehaffey been doing in Bell Township since three or four weeks before the November election, or the time which you say he left New Washington?—A. He has been making square timber, and I think logging some.

Q. Do you know who for?—A. I don't know whether he is jobbing for more than one party or not, but I know he is working for James W. McGee and Frank Mehaffey.

Q. Is his contract finished and work done?—A. I don't think it is.

Q. Can you testify that Wm. Mehaffey went to Bell Township to make that his place of residence for any other purpose than while he was making timber and cutting logs as you have stated?—A. I cannot.

Q. Was he assessed and registered in New Washington Borough?—A. I think he was; I am pretty sure of it.

Q. Do you know where his family staid while in Bell Township?—A. I don't know who owns the property, but he lived at what is called the Fulmer place, near Chess Falls in Bell Township.

Re-examined :

Q. Where has Mehaffey resided since the election?—A. At the same place in Bell Township.

Q. He has resided there about five months, then, has he?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the place of business of James W. McGee and Frank Mehaffey and the place to which Wm. Mehaffey would go for his supplies for them?—A. James McGee's place of business is Chest P. O., and Wm. Mehaffey's is Mehaffey P. O., in Bell Township. I don't know where he gets his supplies; he does not get any in New Washington that I know of.

Q. How long before he voted had Mr. Mehaffey been in the borough?—A. He came up that day, I think, to vote from Bell Township.

Recross-examined :

Q. Is this the man called (Smiley) Bill Mehaffey, or Wm. Mehaffey (Smiley)?—A. No, sir.

(Contestant by counsel reserves any legal exceptions he may have or it may appear that he has to want of proper notice as to Wm. Mehaffey.)

And further saith not.

Question. What township do you reside in in Clearfield County?—Answer. Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you known Wm. Mehaffey, who moved from New Washington Borough into Bell Township?—A. About eighteen years.

Q. About what time did he move from New Washington Borough to Bell Township?—A. Less than sixty days before the election; he was not in time to vote in our township. I think about forty days.

Q. Did he try to vote at the election in Bell Township on November 5, 1878?—A. I think not.

Q. Has he resided in Bell Township ever since then?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is his place of business and of getting supplies?—A. His place of business is the mouth of Laurel Run in Bell Township, and he gets his supplies from Frank and James Mehaffey, in said township.

Q. Has he had any business whatever in New Washington Borough since he moved from there into Bell Township?—A. Not to the best of my knowledge.

Q. How often does he go over there, so far as you know?—A. Well, very seldom; he has to pass my place; I have not seen him go often; he might go without me seeing him; his business seems to be all in Bell Township.

Adjourned at 5.35 p. m. to meet at 1 o'clock p. m. March 11, 1879.

REUBEN WEIGHT sworn.

It is hereby agreed that this witness, Reuben Weight, and any other witnesses that may be called on this 11th day of March, A. D. 1879, and examined before the hour of 10 o'clock p. m., of whom notice has heretofore been given to counsel for contestant, shall be examined and their testimony taken with the same effect as if due and regular notice thereof had been given to contestant or his counsel as required by act of Congress.

J. F. SNYDER,
For Contestant.
THOS. H. MURRAY,
Counsel for Contestee.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 42 years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Graham Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot be positive about that. I paid part of my taxes to William Hoover after the election. There was some taxes back, I don't know which, I did not take any receipts. I cannot be positive if I paid any State or county tax within that time.

Q. How much did you pay Hoover after the election?—A. I paid him ten dollars.

Q. How many years did that cover?—A. My taxes are about fifteen or sixteen dollars a year.

Q. How much was back when you paid him the ten dollars?—A. There was ten dollars back yet.

Q. That was after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State when you last remember of paying any State or county tax before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I think I paid the last last fall two years ago to Peter Kepple; I won't be positive.

Q. What time last fall two years ago did you pay State or county tax to Kepple?—A. It was in the fore part of the spring; I had done some plowing for him, and he paid my taxes.

Q. You mean last spring two years ago, instead of last fall two years ago, then, do you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was not that in the spring of 1876; last spring being the spring of 1878; and was it not the centennial year?—A. I don't recollect any more; I cannot say positively.

Q. Well, you recollect that it was two years ago last spring, do you not?—A. Yes, sir; it was some time in the fore part of the summer.

Q. Was it not in the fore part of the summer before the Presidential election when Hayes and Tilden were candidates?—A. Indeed I could not say.

Q. That was the last State or county tax that you recollect of paying? (Objected to as leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. State who Kepple was to pay the taxes to; what collector?—A. He was collecting taxes himself at that time.

Q. Was he collecting State and county taxes?—Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you not pay other taxes than those you have mentioned within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I paid some taxes along, but I did not take any receipts.

Q. To whom did you pay these other taxes?—A. I paid some to an Evans (Josiah Evans).

Q. When did you pay the taxes to Josiah Evans?—A. This last summer a year ago.

Q. Did you take his receipt for the same?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was Josiah Evans constable of Graham Township at the time you paid these taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Josiah Evans, at the time you paid the taxes to him, collector of State and county taxes for Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. I could not tell you that.

Q. Did you pay him all the taxes he had against you at that time?—A. No, sir; there was some back.

Q. How much did you pay him?—A. I think I paid him something like three dollars.

Q. If Josiah Evans was collector of State and county taxes when you paid him, do you not think that the tax you paid him might possibly be a State and county tax?

(Objected to as highly improper in form, as not being cross-examination, and because the witness has already sworn that he has no recollection of having paid any State or county tax since that which he paid to Kepple two years ago last spring.)

A. I could not say; it might be that, of course.

Q. Is it because you did not take a receipt from Josiah Evans for the taxes you paid him that you cannot say positively whether you have paid a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it in 1877 that you paid these taxes to Josiah Evans, collector and constable of Graham Township?

(Objected to because witness has already sworn that he has no knowledge of Evans being constable. Objection withdrawn.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. If the taxes you paid Josiah Evans were State or county taxes were they paid within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and were they assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot tell about the assessing. They were paid within two years, but I can't say whether they were State and county; they were paid more than one month before the election.

Q. Did you read your ticket before you voted it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.
And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. I live in Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is forty-three years last November.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you paid any State or county tax within two years preceding that election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom had you paid those taxes?—A. William Hoover.

Q. When did you pay William Hoover any State or county taxes within two years preceding that election?—A. I pay my taxes every year. I could not tell the time—the day—you know.

Q. I don't want the day or even the month, but do want you to say, as nearly as you can, when you paid William Hoover any State or county taxes within two years preceding that election?—A. I paid him my taxes last summer.

Q. What time last summer did you pay those taxes?—A. In the spring like.

Q. What other time did you pay him any State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. The year before.

Q. What time of the year before, as near as you can tell?—A. We generally pay our taxes in the spring after rafting.

Q. Was that the only State or county taxes that you paid him within two years that you can remember?—A. I paid my taxes all the time since I was twenty-one.

Q. Do you remember paying any other State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, except that which you have sworn to as having been paid last spring, 1878, and the spring before, 1877?—A. No, sir; I can't tell just when or to whom I paid it.

Q. Have you any recollection of paying any other State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. I paid all my taxes along. No, sir; I have not paid any others.

Q. Then I understand you to say that you have no recollection of having paid any other State or county tax during the two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, except what you paid to Hoover in the spring of 1877, and what you paid to him in the spring of 1878.—A. That is all I paid during that time.

Q. When you speak of William Hoover, do you mean William W. Hoover, the collector?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. Is he constable, and how long has he been so?—A. He has been constable for two years.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878.—A. No, sir; never in my life.

Q. You believe, then, do you, that you have paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you receipts for the two payments of taxes to which you refer?—A. I have them at home.

Q. Can you swear positively, without seeing those receipts, what different kinds of taxes were included in them, or whether they included State or county tax or not?—A. Well, I paid all my tax—State, county, poor, and school tax.

Q. Did they include road tax?—A. Yes, sir.
And further saith not.

Question. Did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress, and were you an active supporter of his in the election district of Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you receive any money during the campaign of 1878 to be used for election purposes in Morris Township?—A. I received some money for the purpose of getting out the vote—I think $10—with the instruction to do the best I could to get all the voters out.

Q. Did you or not pay any taxes on the election day of November 5, 1878, or within thirty days of that time; and, if so, to whom and for what voters?—A. I did not pay any taxes within thirty days that I know of. I paid some taxes for men that were working for me, but that was all, and these were paid more than thirty days before the election.

Q. Who were those men?—A. For the last two or three years I have paid taxes for some of the men working for me, and I always charge them with it. I paid Charles Levi's two years, James Fleck one year, Joseph Rothrock, jr., and Joseph Rothrock, sr.; the Rothrocks were not working for me, but I owed them for feed and they asked me to pay them for them. I think I paid Cornelius Devinney's tax, but I am not positive.

Q. Did you, within thirty days of that election, receive any tax receipts from Hollenback, the collector, for any taxes or for any voters in that district?—A. No, sir; I think I did not.

Q. Did you have the collector's duplicate a few days before the election of November 5, 1878; and, if so, for what purpose?—A. I did not have his duplicate, but I looked it over with him for the purpose of seeing whether the taxes of a few men were paid.

Q. Did you not examine it for the purpose of paying any that might not be paid?—A. No, sir; my view was for what I have stated.

Q. Have you seen the ballot-box since the election?—A. No, sir; I have heard of it, but never seen it.

Q. Have you any knowledge, either direct or indirect, of either it or any of its contents having been seen or examined, or been in the custody of any one since the election, except the judge of election and the nearest justice of the peace?

(Objected to for the reason that anything relating to the custody of the ballot-box in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, after the votes were counted on November 5, 1878, of the general election held on that day, is immaterial and irrelevant because no recount of the votes cast at the election of November 5, 1878, in said township of Morris, has been ordered.)

A. All the knowledge I have I received from others; some one told me, I think it was Peter Moyer, that Mr. Murray had ordered the ballot-box moved to Squire Raymond's, although that is not the nearest justice of the peace; and I think he told me that one of the inspectors had taken it down there.

Q. Whose custody was it in at the time you got that information?—

A. I never knew where it was. I asked Peter Moyer whether it was left with him, and he said it was. I think Peter Moyer said, "I suppose they wanted to go through it."

(Object to this part of the answer of witness as to the declarations of Moyer, for the reason it is not an answer to the question, but a voluntary statement of the witness of the alleged declarations of a partisan supporter of contestant.)

A. Peter Moyer seemed to be under the impression he was the proper person to keep the ballot-box, and I told him I thought the proper person was the nearest justice of the peace. Moyer said he supposed the reason they sent it down to Raymond's was that they could, by giving Raymond a little whisky, get to see into it whenever they wanted.

(Objected to because it is a voluntary statement of the witness, who admits he was an active supporter of contestant, of the alleged declarations of another active supporter of contestant, and not in any sense an answer to the question which has been put to this sworn witness. This objection made by counsel for contestee.)

Q. Do you know who had charge of the ballot-box from the time of the election until it was ordered into the hands of a justice of the peace?

(Objected to for the reason that it is immaterial in whose custody the ballot-box was after the ballots that were cast in Morris Township and counted at the election on the 5th of November, 1878, since no recount of such vote of the votes cast on November 5, 1878, had been ordered.)

A. I only know what Peter Moyer told me, that it had been left with him.

Q. Was he a justice of the peace?—A. No, sir.

Q. What were his politics?—A. He was a Democrat.

Q. Did you not state to him that he was not entitled to the custody of the ballot-box, or something to that effect?—A. I did something to that effect; I told him I thought it ought to be left with the nearest justice of the peace.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was Peter Moyer, in whose custody the ballot-box in question was placed, the judge of the election of Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, of November 5, 1878?—A. He was.

Q. Were you indebted to the men for whom you have testified you paid taxes last fall at the time you paid them, and were the men charged with the amounts you paid for them?—A. To the best of my knowledge, I believe I owed them all.

Q. These taxes were paid upon their request, were they—that is, upon the request of the person for whom they were paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was the nearest justice of the peace to the election house in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Clark Crowell.

Q. How far from said election house did 'Squire Raymond live on November 5, 1878?—A. About six miles, I think they call it.

Re-examined:

Q. Where did Crowell live?—A. In Morrisdale Mines.

Q. What is the distance from the place where the election was held to the Morrisdale Mines?—A. About five miles and a quarter or five and a half.

Q. Do you state upon oath that it is not over five and a half miles from the place where the election was held to Morrisdale Mines?—A. I do, to the best of my knowledge, but I never measured it.

Q. Does Crowell live at that part of Morrisdale Mines settlement or town nearest to or farthest from the place where the election was held?—A. At that time he lived in the half of Morrisdale nearest to the election-polls.

Q. How far from the nearest houses from Kylertown at the election time?—A. At that time I think he lived where I stated; at the end nearest Kylertown. I don't know exactly when he moved.

Q. Do you state upon oath that A. W. Raymond, justice of the peace, lived at that time as much as six miles from the place where the election was held?—A. I consider it six miles; it is called six miles. I never measured it.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. Isaiah Hoover, Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did or did you not move into Morris Township to work about ten days before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you say you moved into Morris Township do you not mean that you moved from Morris Township into Graham Township about ten days before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does not Isaiah Hoover live in Graham Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then when you said Isaiah Hoover lived in Morris Township you meant to say, did you not, that he lived in Graham Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Then you moved out of Morris Township into Graham Township about ten days before November 5, 1878, and then came back into Morris Township and voted on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What township did you live in before you went to Isaiah Hoover's?—A. Morris Township.

Q. What township does Isaiah Hoover live in?—A. Graham Township.

Q. How long had you lived in Morris Township before you moved to Graham Township?—A. About sixteen years.

Q. How long was it before the election that you moved from Morris Township into Graham Township?—A. About ten days.

Q. Have you been living at Isaiah Hoover's ever since the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long do you expect to live there?—A. I don't know.

Q. Do you expect to stay there for some time yet?—A. I don't know.

Q. Who gave you your ticket on the day of the election which you voted?—A. Peter Huffman.

Q. Who did Peter Huffman tell you he wanted you to vote for?

(Objected to because it is a leading and improper question, for by the question it is assumed that Peter Huffman told the witness he wanted him to vote for some particular candidate, of which no evidence has been produced to show that such was the case.)

A. Andy Curtin.

Q. Did he say he would give you anything or would do anything for you if you would vote for Andy Curtin?—A. No, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-one on last July.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you vote on age at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where does your father live?—A. In Morris Township, Cooper settlement.

Q. Did you not make your home with your father, in Morris Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was your home from the 9th day of July, 1878, when you were 21 years old, until after the election of November 5, 1878?

(This question is objected to for the reason that it is unfair to the witness in that it is calculated to confuse him as to dates, he having already sworn that his home was with his father up till ten days before the election of November 5, 1878, and that he then moved to Isaiah Hoover's, in Graham Township where he has since lived.)

A. In Morris Township.

Q. Do you consider your father's house in Morris Township your home to-day?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you working for Hoover by the month or by the day?—A. By the month.

Q. When you quit working for Hoover, where do you intend to go to as your home?—A. I don't know; in the Township with pap.

Q. Do you mean that you intend to return to your father's house in Morris Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you going back to your father's house in Morris Township when you leave Hoover's?—A. No, sir.

Q. What do you mean when you say you were going in the township with pap?—A. Graham Township.

Q. Where is your pap?—A. In Morris Township sick.

Q. Did he read your ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you did not see Andy Curtin's name on it, did you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you are not certain that you did vote for Curtin, are you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you know you voted for Curtin?—A. Somebody told me.

Q. Where do you get your washing done?—A. At Hoover's.

Q. Did you vote at any other place on November 5, 1878, than in Morris Township?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Have not you made your home at Isaiah Hoover's in Graham Township since you moved there ten days before the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you not had your washing done at Isaiah Hoover's?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote the ticket that Peter Huffman gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it not Peter Huffman who told you that you voted for Curtin, or was it not?—A. Somebody told me.

Q. Was it or was it not Huffman?—A. No, sir; somebody else.

Q. When Huffman gave you the ticket which you voted, did he not tell you to vote for Curtin?—A. No, sir; he did not say anything.

Q. When was it that he told you to vote for Curtin?—A. Last fall.

Q. How long was it before he gave you the ticket?—A. About three months or so.

Q. Who went with you, after Peter Huffman gave you the ticket, to the window to vote?—A. Peter Huffman himself went up to the window.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Kylertown, Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Do you know anything about your brother, Jacob Sancroft, offering anything or giving anything to George Hart, jr., for voting for Andrew G. Curtin or for voting the Democratic ticket at the election in Morris Township on November 5, 1878?

(Objected to for the reason that Jacob Sancroft is a competent witness and his testimony can be had, and the testimony of the witness is therefore hearsay; and for the further reason that in his answer to notice of contest served upon him by A. G. Curtin that his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States would be contested, the contestee, Seth H. Yocum, did not charge or allege that any purchased votes had been cast for contestant in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; the question is therefore immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you say to any one that you knew anything on that subject?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you live in Kylertown?—A. I do, sir.

Q. Was a ballot-box brought to your house or to the house where you live by any person at any time since the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you say to any one that you knew anything about a ballot-box having been brought there or examined by any one?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not say to Wm. L. Merrell, or any one else, that some persons had had the ballot-box at your place and had examined it there, and that no one would have known anything about it if it had not been for that big-mouthed Jim Stewart?—A. Part of that he said; whenever he saw me on the street he would say you will have to go to Clearfield. I said I was satisfied to go; if the ballot-box was there I was satisfied to go; it was all in a joke. Every time he saw me on the street he said something about the ballot-box. "How is the ballot-box?" he said. I told him it was all right. Then he said, "Now, my lady, you know all about it," and I says, "Murder will out."

Q. Did you or did you not mention Stewart's name?—A. I did not.

Q. Do you mean to swear, then, that you did not say to Merrell that the ballot-box had been at your house or had been examined there by any one?—A. I do swear it was never there, and I never said any thing to Merrell about the ballot-box being there.

Q. Do you mean to swear that you have no knowledge in any way, direct or indirect, of the ballot-box being there or examined by any one?—A. It was never in our house, and it was never examined in our house.

Q. Did you ever hear O. L. Schoonover, J. L. Stewart, Adam Moyer, Peter Moyer, Hollenback the collector, or either of them or any one else say that they had examined the ballot-box or knew of it being examined?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did O. L. Schoonover say anything to you about your testimony, or what your testimony would be at this hearing?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

MARCH 12, 1879—8 o'clock a. m.

A. G. SHOPE sworn.

Question. What township do you reside in?—Answer. Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State if you are one of the inspectors of the election held in the election district of Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878.—A. I was.

Q. State whether there was a copy of the registry list before the board on that day.—A. There was.

Q. Which one of either of the inspectors had charge of that registry list?—A. I had.

Q. Did you or not check off the persons' names as they voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were the ballots or tickets numbered?—A. Yes, sir; they were all numbered.

Q. When a person's name was not on the registry what was required of them?—A. They were sworn.

Q. Was he or was he not required to sign and swear to a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit?—A. He was.

Q. If he was over twenty-two years of age was he or was he not required to produce another person to make oath with him as to his residence within the district?—A. There was none of that kind came before the board.

Q. State if the board had a copy of the election law before them.—
A. They had.

Q. Was or was not that election conducted fairly, honestly, and in accordance with the law, in so far as you know?—A. To the best of my knowledge it was.

Q. Do you think that any member of the board desired or intended to do anything else than his duty as a sworn officer, in accordance with the election law as he understood the law and that duty?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness is incompetent to judge what the desires or intentions of the other members of the board were, the other members of the board being competent witnesses and the best evidence; and for the further reason that it is assumed by the question that witness has testified that the board was sworn, whilst he has not so testified; the question is therefore an improper one.)

A. I think not.

Q. Was there a minority inspector?—A. There was not.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were the judge, the two inspectors, and the two clerks of the election board of Girard Township present when the board was organized?—

A. They were.

Q. Were or were not the members of said board sworn by George W. Stever, justice of the peace, and by no one else?—A. They were.

Q. Did you read the copy of the election law which you had at said election?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Was it read by any member of the board?—A. Yes, sir; it was read by the justice, G. W. Stever.

Q. What did you do with the registry list which was in your hands when a person voted; that is, what marks did you put upon it?—A. I did not put any marks on it.

Q. When a person offered to vote whose name was not on the registry, just state all you required him to do.—A. He was to be sworn.

Q. Did any naturalized citizens vote at said election in Girard Township?—A. There was.

Q. What time were the polls opened on the morning of November 5, 1878?—A. About seven o'clock.

Q. Were the doors of the election-house open, and had outsiders access to the room in which the election was held?—A. They had, just as usual, the doors were always open.

Q. Were not a great number of persons in the room in which the ballot-boxes were during the entire day and evening, and until the vote was counted?—A. Well, there were, there had to be; it was all in one room. There were not so many when the vote was counted.

Q. Were there not outsiders in the room when the vote was counted?—
A. Yes, sir; some.

Q. Then you say, do you not, that the door of the room in which the ballot-boxes were placed at said election was open, and persons not members of the election-board could come in and go out at their pleasure?—A. They did as usual.

Q. How did you vote—what ticket—I mean?—A. The Greenback ticket, for Yocum.

Re-examined:

Q. When you say the door was open and persons were in as usual, do you mean that the door stood open, or was unlocked, simply?—A. I mean it was unlocked; it did not stand open.

Q. When you speak of "as usual" do you mean as in other elections at that place?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were there many persons in the room at one time during the day?—A. Well, not a great many.

Q. Were these persons near the stove to warm themselves, or were they near the ballot-box and so as to interfere with the officers in discharging their duties?—A. If out of place the constable took care of them.

Q. Did any one interfere with the officers or with the ballot-box in any way?—A. No, sir.

Q. When a person voted whose name was on the registry list did you or not put a dot or mark of some kind opposite his name on the registry list to show that he voted?—A. His name was taken and his vote was numbered, and that was sufficient.

Q. Were you and the other inspector who acted at that election elected as inspectors at the preceding township election by a tie vote; that is, did you each receive the same number of votes?—A. Yes, sir; each received the same number.

Recross-examined:

Q. Were you a candidate for the office of inspector of election in Girard Township on the Democratic or Republican ticket at the township election of 1878 held in February of last year?—A. I was the Republican candidate.

Q. Then you were elected as the Republican inspector, were you?—A. I was.

Q. Was not the Republican party at the time you were elected inspector the minority party in Girard Township?—A. Yes, sir; the Republicans were in the minority.

Re-examined:

Q. Was not the other inspector who was elected with you and the judge both Democrats?—A. Yes, sir; they were.

Q. Then you were the only Republican officer of that board which held that election on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Was one of the clerks a Republican?—A. Yes, sir.
And further saith not.

Question. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did, sir.

Q. Who to?—A. Jacob Dimeling.

Q. Where was Jacob Dimeling when you paid him?—A. At Philipsburg.

Q. Did you pay him in money?—A. I gave him a check on the bank for the money.

Q. Do you know whether that check was paid?—A. I never saw it paid, but I know it is paid.

Q. When did you give him that check?—A. The 7th of June, 1878.

Q. When did you get your receipt?—A. I did not get a receipt till last Monday a week. I did not think it necessary. I supposed the check would be receipt enough.

Q. You did not get this receipt, then, until about the time you were subpoenaed to come to this hearing?—A. No, sir; a few days before; I had heard there was a subpoena for me before I got the receipt.

Q. Did you see Dimeling write the receipt?—A. I believe I did.

Q. When did he write it?—A. He wrote it last Monday a week and he dated it back to the day I paid the taxes, which was the 7th of June, 1878.

Q. How did Dimeling fix the date when you had paid the tax?—A. I think he had it marked down. I kept a memorandum of the day myself, and I told him.

Q. When was that check paid, as near as you can tell?—A. It was handed in the same day I gave it.

Q. When was it paid?—A. It was not my own. It was a check of Christ Munson's. I can't tell when it was paid. I suppose it was paid more than thirty days before the election.

Q. What was the amount of the check?—A. As near as I can recollect, it was $56.88.

Q. What was the amount of the taxes?—A. Eight dollars.

Q. What are Dimeling's politics?

(Objected to as immaterial.)

A. He is a Democrat, I believe.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Boggs Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined :

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I have, twice.

Q. At what other time than the one mentioned and to whom else did you pay a State or county tax?—A. I don't remember what time, but it was to Jacob Dimeling I paid it.

Q. Did you pay the other taxes you mentioned to Jacob Dimeling within two years, and more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Was it in 1877 or 1878 you paid this other State or county tax to Jacob Dimeling?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Was Jacob Dimeling collector of State and county taxes for Boggs Township at the times when you paid him the State or county taxes you have just testified you paid him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you receive a receipt from him for the State and county taxes paid him on June 7, 1878; and, if so, will you read it?—A. Yes, sir.

[Witness hands receipt to notary, which reads as follows:]

“BOGGS, Jun. the 7th, 1878.

“Received of Thomas Beers eight dollars and three cents, being his county tax for the year eighteen seventy-five.

“JACOB DIMELING, Col.”

Q. Have you been a citizen of the United States for at least one month before November 5, 1878, and have you resided in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one year preceding November 5, 1878, and have you resided in the election district of Boggs Township, Clearfield County, in which you voted at the election of November 5, 1878, for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. I have. I was born on the place I live on, and have lived there sixty years.

And further saith not.

Agreement.

It is hereby agreed, this 12th of March, 1879, that the objection to the witness called as Joseph Radiker, and whose testimony shows his correct name is Joseph Redinger, be withdrawn, and the testimony stand with the same effect as if the notice served on contestant had given his correct name.

D. L. KREBS,
Of Counsel.

JACOB HUFFMAN affirmed.

Question. Are you the collector of Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. For 1877 I was.

Q. You mean you was the collector of State and county taxes for the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir; also school and poor.

Q. How long were you collecting—that is, when did you get the duplicate for State and county taxes, and when did you quit collecting those taxes, or have you quit yet?—A. I got it in 1877; I think about the latter part of June or the early part of July of that year.

Q. Have you quit collecting yet?—A. I have settled up with the commissioners for my duplicate, and I hold the parties that had not paid their taxes which I paid in for them.

Q. So you are still collecting?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is there any other man by the name of Huffman who is collector, or has been collector, of Huston Township except yourself that you know of?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you know a man named Elliott McCracken, who formerly lived in Huston Township, and now lives in Sandy or Brady Township, this county?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether he ever paid you any State or county tax.—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he ever pay you any other kind of taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever meet him between Newel's place and Burns's place, in Huston Township, along the road, and have a conversation with him in reference to taxes?—A. Yes, sir; I can't say it was between Newel's and Burns's. I met him between David Burkey's and Andy Guthrie's places.

Q. Would it or would it not be between Newel's and Burns's also?—A. No, sir.

Q. When was it that you met him as stated?—A. That is more than I can tell; it was in 1877.

Q. About what time of year?—A. Along in the fall.

Q. How did you come to meet him and what was the conversation?—

A. I was out serving some papers and collecting taxes, and I turned in by Washburn's and went through by David Burkey's on the ridge road. I met him making shingles for Mr. Lucien Bird. I told him that I thought I had some tax against him. I looked over my duplicate and seen his name was not on; therefore I did not get any.

Q. Was he or had he been charged with any crime?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant and can have no bearing whatever on the cause in which the testimony is now being heard; and it is further objected to for the reason that unless Elliott McCracken has been duly convicted of any crime the presumption of the law is that he is innocent of any charges that may have been made against him; and for the further reason that if he has been convicted of any crime the records are the best evidence of his conviction; and it is wholly immaterial whether any charges were made against him or not, and such charges, if made, are irrelevant in the contested-election case in which testimony is now being taken.)

A. I don't know what you would call it. Mr. Lucien Bird had a warrant out against him for making shingles on Reading and Fisher's land, and when I went out of office I returned this warrant with the rest of my papers to George C. Ricker, constable of Huston Township now, and how they fixed it I cannot tell, but he never was arrested for it.

Q. State if you had any conversation with him in reference to his son's taxes.—A. I can't tell whether I had or not. I had William McCracken, one of his sons, on one of my school duplicates for 15 cents.

Q. Is it paid or not?—A. I don't think it is.

Q. Did you know a man of the name of C. H. Farner, who worked at Winterburn's, in Huston Township?—A. Not to my knowledge; his name seems familiar to me, too.

Q. Did any man of that name ever pay you any State or county taxes?—A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Q. Did any one ever pay taxes for such a man?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you your duplicate of State and county taxes with you, including all the names of persons against whom you held or from whom you collected any State or county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is the name of either Elliott McCracken or C. H. Farner on any of such duplicates?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was the place you met Elliott McCracken in Huston Township in the fall of 1877, on a road or path that would lead to either Newel's or Burns's in Huston Township?—A. Yes, sir; a man could cross-cut through any place there into Newel's or Burns's, but it was not on the direct road to Newel's.

Q. Do you swear that Elliott McCracken did not pay you a State or county tax at the time you met him in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have any other State or county taxes for collection than those for 1877?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear that he had paid a State or county tax to Sylvester Hunt, collector of Huston Township?

(Objected to as not cross-examination, and also because the declarations of Hunt would not be evidence—not the declarations of any other third party.)

A. Yes, sir; I heard Mr. Hunt say that Johnny Young told him—that is, Hunt—that Mr. McCracken had paid him his State and county taxes in the corn-field, about corn-hoeing time; the taxes were for the year 1876.

And further saith not.

J. W. HOLLENBACK sworn.

Question. Are you collector of Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. I am, sir.

Q. State what time you paid over the taxes on your duplicate to the county treasury.—A. I think it was on the 23d September, 1878.

Q. Did you pay the taxes of James Thompson, of Morris Township, over along with the other taxes?—A. I did, sir.

Q. What taxes were they—assessed for what year?—A. Assessed for 1877.

Q. Did you state to anyone that there were five or six Democratic voters who had not paid their taxes in legal time to vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I stated to Mr. Krebs that there were four or five Democratic voters who had not paid their taxes to me in time.

Q. Will you give us their names?—A. James Thompson, D. F. Kyler, T. C. Kyler, John Keen, and Jacob Raymond.

Q. Are these the only persons that you know of?—A. They are.

Q. Do you know of their having paid taxes to any one else?—A. I do not.

Q. Did you not say to someone else that there were five or six Democratic voters, such as you named?—A. I believe I did say so to someone else, that there were four or five or six such.

Q. Can you name any more now than you have named?—A. I cannot.

Q. When you paid over those State and county taxes for the year 1877, on or about the 23d of September, 1878, as you have stated, did you mark on your duplicate the taxes paid for each man whose taxes you thus paid over to the county treasurer?—A. Yes, sir; I marked them paid right opposite their names.

Cross-examined:

Q. When you say you marked each man's taxes paid on the duplicate, do you not mean that when each man paid you his taxes you marked them paid on the duplicate?—A. When I marked them paid on the duplicate I considered them paid by me to the county treasurer until they paid me. "I considered it paid."

(This latter part of the answer is put down upon the decision of the notary, and was not heard by the amanuensis. This refers to the part of the answer underlined.)

Q. How were the taxes of James Thompson, of Morris Township, paid to you; were they or were they not paid you by an order on your father?—A. They were not paid to me at all, yet.

Q. Then I understand you to say that the State and county taxes against James Thompson for 1877 are still unpaid?—A. They are still unpaid to me.

Q. You were not requested, were you, to pay the taxes of James Thompson for him, and they were not, were they, paid to the county treasurer upon any such request?

(Objected to as highly improper in form, in that it is designed to suggest to the mind of the witness the answer desired by counsel for contestant.)

A. The taxes were never paid to me by James Thompson. I paid the taxes to the treasurer out of my own pocket when I settled up the duplicate. The treasurer called on me to come and settle.

Q. Then when you paid the taxes of James Thompson to the county treasurer in your settlement with him they were paid, were they not, in the balance found to be due from you as collector of State and county taxes for Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, to the county treasurer?

(Objected to as improper in form, in that it is so framed as to suggest to the mind of the witness the particular answer desired by counsel for contestant.)

A. I have had no settlement with James Thompson. They were paid then.

Q. When you paid the taxes of James Thompson to the county treasurer, did you pay them to said treasurer as part of the balance found due from you as collector of State and county taxes for Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, to the county treasurer, did you not?

(Objected to for the same reason as before, and also for the reason has already sworn distinctly and positively that he did on or about September 23, 1878, pay over to the county treasurer the taxes of James Thompson.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did you pay the taxes of James Thompson to the county treasurer?—A. Because when they notified me to come and settle, I thought, of course, it had to be done, and I had spoken to Mr. Thompson about his tax, and he said he could not just pay it then. So I thought I would pay it for him, knowing, of course, or thought, that he would pay them back to me.

Q. Has James Thompson ever paid the State and county taxes you paid for him back to you, or do you still hold him for said taxes?—A. He has not, and I still hold him for them.

Re-examined :

Q. These were State and county taxes, were they not?—A. They were.

Q. Did you on the 23d of September, 1878, pay over the State and county taxes for the year 1877 for all the taxables in Morris Township, or for only a portion of them?—A. I paid the whole balance that was against me on that day; I paid my duplicate off entirely.

Q. What are your politics?—A. Democratic, sir.

Q. Do you remember of the day of election of November 5, 1878, or at any other time, saying to James Thompson, "Jimmy, if I had known that you had gone back on us, and had not voted for Curtin, I would not have paid your tax," or words to that effect?—A. I believe I did say something of that kind. I was fooled in the man; I thought he was a Democrat, but I was mistaken.

Q. Did you or did you not give to C. C. Crowell, justice of the peace, any tax receipts within thirty days of the election, or on the day of the election?—A. I did not, sir.

(Counsel for contestant objects and protests to the examination of the witness now sworn, for the reason that contestant or his counsel has not had such notice of the taking of his testimony as is required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings wherein the right to seats in the Congress of the United States are contested.)

Question. Did you notify Thomas H. Murray, counsel for contestee, that the ballot-box for the election district of Morris Township was not in the hands of the nearest justice of the peace after the election of November 5, 1878, and what reply did he make?

Answer. Yes, sir, I did; and he wrote me to have the nearest justice of the peace to take charge of the ballot-box.

Q. Have you that letter here or at home; and did you know that you would be called as a witness until after you came here, and after O. L. Schoonover was sworn as a witness in this case?—A. I have that letter at home; but I did not know I would be called as a witness until after Schoonover was sworn, and after I came here.

Q. Did that letter say anything about any particular justice of the peace?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has the letter from Thomas Murray in his possession, and the letter would therefore be the best evidence of its contents, and can be had.)

A. It did not.

Q. Which is the nearest justice to the election house, A. W. Raymond or C. C. Crowell?—A. A. W. Raymond.

Q. How far does each live from the election house?—A. A. W. Raymond lives about $5\frac{1}{4}$ miles, Crowell lives about $5\frac{1}{2}$ miles, from the election house.

Q. How long have you known the roads from both points from having lived there, and do you live in Kylertown where the election was held?—A. For twenty-five years; I have lived there at Kylertown for fourteen years.

Cross-examined:

Q. Who was the nearest justice of the peace at the time you informed Mr. Murray about the custody of the ballot-box?—A. A. W. Raymond.

Q. Are you positive that A. W. Raymond is the justice of the peace living nearest the place where the election was held in Morris Township?—A. I am, from the distances I know of from the roads being measured.

Q. Is it not called 6 miles to where Raymond lives?—A. I never heard it called so.

Q. Is it not called $5\frac{1}{4}$ miles to Morrisdale Mines, where Crowell lives?—A. I never heard it called that.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you been postmaster at Kylertownⁿ for a great number of years, and as such have you reported to the department the distances as stated?—A. Yes, sir; I have been postmaster for fourteen years; I have reported the distance to Morrisdale Mines, and to Grain Lick, a quarter of a mile from Raymond's.

Recross-examined:

Q. Who took the ballot-box to A. W. Raymond's?—A. I can't swear, only that Raymond told me that he did.

Q. Did you tell Raymond to go and get it?—A. I did write and tell him, both.

And further saith not.

WILLIAM MCCARTNEY THOMPSON sworn:

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. I live in Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and am forty-two.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Girard Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you yourself paid a State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. State whether you can swear from your own knowledge that any State or county tax was paid for you within two years preceding that election.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you swear from your own knowledge, apart from what any person told you, that any State or county tax was paid for you within two years preceding that election?—A. Nothing further than the collector and Robert Stewart told me it was paid.

Q. Can you swear from your own knowledge it was paid?—A. Well, I could not tell you any further than Mr. Stewart told me he had paid them, and John Carr told me that they were paid.

Q. How long before the election was it that Stewart told you he had paid them?—A. He told me he had paid it so they could not keep me out of my vote; I could not say how many days before the election.

Q. Was it as long as a month before the election?—A. I could not say whether it was or was not.

Q. What is Stewart's politics?—A. A Democrat, I believe.

Q. When did you first speak to Stewart about paying your taxes?—A. I spoke to him before the primary election in September, 1878.

Q. Did he or not afterwards tell you that he had forgotten to pay them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long was it afterwards?—A. I could not say; only a short time, though.

Q. According to the best of your recollection, was it as long as a month afterwards?—A. No, sir; I don't think it was.

Q. Then, after he said he had forgotten to pay the taxes, what did he tell you the next time he spoke to you about it?—A. He said he had paid them in time for me to vote.

Q. What time was it that Carr told you he had got the taxes?—A. At the election of November 5, '78.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States for more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you resided in the State of Pennsylvania for one year or more immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you resided in the election district of Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, when you voted, for more than two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Three years in March.

Q. Have you yourself, or has any one for you and upon your request, paid, within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, a State or county tax, which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom have you been working for the last three years?—A. Robert Stewart, the most; I am a mechanic and work every place, but at his place most.

Q. By whom were your State and county taxes paid in 1877?—A. Robert Stewart.

Q. By whom were your State and county taxes paid in 1878?—A. Robert Stewart.

Q. When Robert Stewart paid your State and county taxes in 1877 were you working for him, and did he charge you with the amount of taxes he paid for you?—A. He told me he had, but I have never settled with him.

Q. When Robert Stewart paid your State and county taxes in 1878 for you, did he tell you he had done so and had charged you with them?

(This question and all preceding questions are objected to by counsel for contestee for the reason that they are improper in form to such an extent as to amount to an abuse of the right of examination of witnesses, in that they are all so framed by counsel for contestant as to put in the mouth of a witness who has sworn that he voted for contestant the desired answers, and further, for the reason that they are hearsay and not cross-examination.)

A. Yes, sir; he told me he had done so, and I told him to charge me with them; I was working for him at that time.

Q. Who was the collector of State and county taxes for Girard Township in 1877?—A. John Carr; he was constable and collector.

Q. Who was collector for State and county taxes of Girard Township in 1878?—A. John Carr.

Q. Did John Carr, or did he not, tell you that your State and county taxes for 1877 and 1878 had been paid to him by Robert Stewart?—A. Yes, sir, he did; he told me they were paid.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you mean to swear that you or Stewart either paid any State or county tax during the year 1877?—A. I could not say more than to the best of my knowledge from what Stewart and Carr told me.

Q. Outside of what Stewart or Carr told you, can you swear that you paid, or that any one paid for you, a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I could not; I could not say I saw the money paid.

Recross-examined :

Q. Was Robert Stewart, who told you that your taxes were paid, the man you spoke of as Stewart in your former answer?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the John Carr you speak of the collector?—A. Yes, sir; and constable of Girard Township.

JOHN L. LIGHTNER sworn :

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided there?—A. Ever since I was born; about twenty-eight years.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you resided in Beccaria Township for at least one whole year immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you resided in this State during that time?—A. Yes, sir; and county too.

Q. For how long before November 5, 1878, have you continuously resided in said township of Beccaria?—A. About eight months, I think.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. The last tax I paid was September 7, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. To Jackson Kinkaid, collector.

Q. Where were you and Kinkaid when you paid such tax?—A. I was in John G. Glasgow's store, in Glen Hope, Beccaria Township.

Q. Who was present when you paid it?—A. I don't know that there was anybody.

Q. How much did you pay him?—A. The amount on his duplicate of State and county tax of 29 cents, I believe.

Q. Did you take his receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is the receipt?—A. I have it with me.

Q. When did J. Kinkaid give you your receipt?—A. The same day it is dated, the 7th September.

Q. When did you last see J. Kinkaid?—A. I can't give you the day exact; I have seen him several times.

Q. What does the name George W. Waring on the back of your receipt mean?—A. It don't mean anything. I wrote it on myself as a memorandum. He is official court reporter of Blair County; I was getting some shorthand copies.

Q. When did you last see G. W. Waring?—A. I think it was about the 1st of November; some time before the election.

Q. Where did Kinkead get the paper upon which your receipt is written?—A. I can't exactly say; I think he tore it off some old letter, or out of some old book.

Q. Whose name also is written on that receipt?—A. As near as I can read it, it is J. Blake Walters.

Q. Then you resided all the time in Beccaria Township, for the whole two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. With whom were you living?—A. I make my home with my father when I am at home.

Q. Who did you make your home with for all of said two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. With my father.

Q. Who were you working for during said two months?—A. My father.

Q. Except the tax you paid Kinkead had you paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know whether I did or not; I think I did, but I have no receipts; his duplicates don't show.

Q. To whom did you pay such other State or county tax within said two years, if you paid any?—A. It would be to Mr. Kinkead, if I paid it.

Q. All the State and county taxes which you had paid within two years preceding November 5, 1878, you paid to J. Kincaid?—A. Yes, sir; all State and county taxes, 1877 and 1878, or part of them I was not in the township; all I paid for those years I paid Kinkead.

Q. How do you know that the taxes you say you paid Kinkead on September 7, 1878, are not marked paid on his duplicate?—A. I was told by a man who examined his duplicate, who had a receipt and his tax was not marked; he then went with his receipt to Mr. Kinkead and made him mark it out on his duplicate.

Q. Were not your taxes marked exonerated on Kinkead's duplicate?—A. I can't say; I did not see his duplicate myself; he came to me last fall, on the 7th September, the day on the receipt; said he had a little State and county tax against me; I asked him how much it was; he said it was 29 cents; so I paid him the money and took his receipt.

Q. Have you not heard that your taxes were marked exonerated on Kincaid's duplicate?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Beccaria Township at the general election of November 5, 1878, and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did; for Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. Is this the receipt which you got from Kinkead, the collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Witness reads receipt, as follows:

“SEPTEMBER 7TH, 1878.

“Rec'd of J. L. Litner twenty-nine cts., being his county tax for the year 1876.

“J. KINKIAD,

MILTON L. OWENS affirmed:

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. I am twenty-three.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. My father paid it for me.

Q. When did your father pay a State or county tax for you?—A. Shortly before the election.

Q. Did or did not your father pay your State or county tax on November 5, 1878, the day of the general election?—A. I think he did the day I voted, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Did or did not your father tell you that he had paid your State or county tax on the election day of November 5, 1878?—A. He said my taxes were all right.

Q. Who did your father pay those taxes to?—A. Levi Goss.

Q. Did you see your father pay those taxes to Levi Goss?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you not know that your State or county taxes were not paid to Levi Goss before the election day of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to because the question is so framed as to put the answer desired by the counsel for contestee in the mouth of the witness; it is therefore leading and an improper one, and calculated to mislead the witness.)

A. No, sir; they were not.

Q. Then your State or county taxes were paid to Levi Goss, the collector, on the election day of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, before November 5, 1878, ever paid any State or county taxes?—A. I cannot answer the question, for about three years ago I paid taxes, but I don't know what they were.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax, or was any other State or county tax paid for you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote at Decatur Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you see your father pay your taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did or did not your father tell you that he had paid your State and county taxes to Levi Goss before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge on what day your father paid your taxes?—A. I reckon he paid it that day; I did not see him pay it.

Q. What time of the day did you vote?—A. Between nine and ten, some place.

Q. How long before you voted did you read your ticket?—A. I cannot answer that; they gave it to me and I went up, and I had it a long time before I voted; I don't know how long.

Q. Who gave it to you?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you put it in your pocket after you got it?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you read the ticket after it was given you?—A. I read part it; I just looked over the ticket.

Q. Was the name of Hoyt upon it for governor?—A. No, sir.

Q. Whose name was on it for governor?—A. Dill.

Q. Then you say you did not read your ticket?—A. I did not just read it; I knowed what I voted. I voted the whole Democratic ticket.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of your taxes?—A. No, sir; but I can swear to them.

Re-examined :

Q. You are sure, are you, that you voted for Curtin?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were you born?—A. Second day of May, 1855.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Ferguson Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. I will be 24 in April next.

Q. Did you vote in Ferguson Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was your wife living on the election day of November 5, 1878?—A. Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did she go to Knox Township to live?—A. On the 11th of October, 1878.

Q. Did she continue to reside in Knox Township from the 11th of October, 1878, until after the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At whose house did she make her home during that time?—A. Jacob Madley's.

Q. Did you work in Knox Township during part of the time from October 11 until after the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you live with your wife at Madley's during a part of that time?—A. I was there off and on when I was not doing anything.

Q. Did you make your home there when you were not at work; there with your wife?—A. I was there, of course.

Q. What business were you engaged in?—A. A carpenter.

Q. For or under whom were you working?—A. Samuel Tobias.

Q. What kind of work were you engaged in, in building or repairing?—A. In building.

Q. Building what?—A. A house.

Q. Whose house were you building and where is it located?—A. John May's, I think, in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you engaged in building that house in Knox Township after October 11, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was it finished?—A. It is not finished yet.

Q. When did you go to work on that house in Knox Township?—A. I think I went to work in October some time.

Q. Did you continue there until after the election?—A. I think I did.

Q. How far is it from where you are working in Knox to where your wife lived at Madley's?—A. I don't know exactly; I think about three miles.

Q. While you were working at May's house, did you not go home and stay with your wife nearly every night?—A. I did not.

Q. About how many nights in the week did you go to Madley's to stay?—A. I don't think I was there any except at the end of the week.

Q. Did you not go there every Saturday and remain until the following Monday?—A. I don't know that I did every Saturday; I was there occasionally.

Q. With whom did you live and board before your wife went to live in Knox Township?—A. Samuel Tobias of Ferguson Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How far did Samuel Tobias live from where you were building the house from May's?—A. About $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles, I suppose.

Q. How long have you resided in Clearfield County?—A. Since the 15th of March, 1878.

Q. Had you ever lived in Clearfield County before that?—A. No, sir.

Q. When were you married?—A. I think in August, 1878.

Q. When did you go to house-keeping?—A. About December, I think.

Q. Where?—A. In Ferguson Township.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was or was not Ferguson Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, the place in which you made and intended to make your home for at least two months before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long has Ferguson Township been your home?—A. It has been ever since the 15th of last March until this time, with the exception of a few weeks, probably a month or two, that I staid in Knox Township.

Q. Did or did not yourself and your family board whilst you were in Knox Township?—A. Yes, sir; we stayed there with another family.

Q. Then I understand you to say that you have not left Ferguson Township at any time with the intention of not returning thereto and making it your home?—A. I did not.

Q. Whilst you were working in Knox Township, did you or did you not consider Ferguson Township your home?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. It was not.

Q. Did you vote in any other election district at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

ISAIAH HOOVER sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Do you know John Rupley, jr.?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where does he now live?—A. He is living with me in Graham Township.

Q. When did he come to live at your place?—A. I think he was there about 20 or 21 days before the election.

Q. Are you or not sure that he came to live with you within a month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No; I am not sure; I can't tell exactly; about three weeks, I guess.

Q. Are you satisfied it was not as much as a month before the election that he came to live with you?—A. Yes; I am satisfied it was not.

Q. Has he been living with you ever since?—A. Yes; he has been there ever since.

Q. Did he, during all that time, board at your house and get his washing done also at your house in Graham Township?—A. Yes; he got one shirt washed, I believe; he got it all done that he had whilst there.

Q. Has he ever since he came to your house got his boarding and washing done there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where John Rupley, jr., voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He said he voted at Morris Township.

Q. Did he or not tell you he voted for Curtin?

(Objected to for the reason that John Rupley, jr., has been called by contestee and his testimony taken, and it is the best evidence of how he voted, and the evidence of the witness now sworn will be hearsay.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is John Rupley, jr., working for himself and lifting his own wages?

—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is Rupeley a married man?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with Peter Hoover and Peter Huffman?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above question and the answer of witness thereto for the reason that it is immaterial and irrelevant to the cause in which question is now being taken.)

A. I ain't acquainted with Peter Hoover but am with Peter Huffman.

Q. Is or is not Peter Huffman a member of the Democratic party, and was he not an active worker in the interests of that cause, and especially for Curtin for Congress at the last general election?

(Objected to for the same reasons as in the objection to preceding question.)

A. I could not say.

Cross-examined:

Q. In what township was John Rupley, jr's., home?—A. Morris Township, I suppose, as near as I can tell.

Q. In what township did his father live for more than two months preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was John Rupley, jr., employed by you by the month or by the day or what bargain had you between you?—A. I paid him for splitting hoops by the bundle and boarded him.

Q. Then while he was with you and working for you you boarded him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did John Rupley, jr., ever go from your home in Graham Township to his home in Morris Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he or did he not frequently go there?—A. He did not go very often.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him since he was here testifying in this cause a few days ago in reference to his going home? and, if so, state what he said.

(Objected to as not cross-examination, and hearsay and immaterial.)

A. As near as I can tell, when he came home he told me something about that; he told me he wanted to know whether he was going to live there always or not, and he said that he did not know that; he said he told you he did not know.

Q. Does not the answer you have just given relate to what he testified to when here a few days ago?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not have some conversation with him in reference to his going home to Morris Township in a few days? and, if so, state what he said.—A. No; not since he was up here.

Q. Did you or did you not ask him whether he was going home on Sunday?—A. Yes, sir; I asked him that this morning when I started from home.

Q. What did he say?

(Objected to as not cross-examination, immaterial, and hearsay.)

A. He said he did not know yet.

Q. Whenever he spoke of home did he not speak of his father's home in Morris Township as his home?—A. Yes, sir; when he spoke of home it was always of his father's in Morris Township.

Q. Had Rupley any definite contract for making any certain quantity of hoop straps?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long had he worn the shirt which was washed at your place, I mean the one he had on when he came there?—A. I can't tell how long he had had it on.

Q. Was not this the first washing he had after he came there to work for you?—A. It was the first, except he had a pair of socks.

Q. Is not John Rupley, jr., very easily led away in conversation?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does he not frequently answer questions at first and then change his answer upon a repetition of the question?—A. He might in a mistake by not remembering.

Q. Then John Rupley, jr., never made any arrangement with you, did he, by which he was to make your house his permanent home?—A. No, sir.

Q. From his conversation and his actions generally did you not, and do you not still, believe that his home was with his father in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the time of the election of November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestee objects to witness testifying to his belief or to anything but facts.)

A. I believe so.

Q. Has he not always called his father's house in Morris Township, Clearfield County, his home?—A. That is what he called it when I heard him call it anything.

Re-examined.

Q. Did Rupley ever want to make your house his permanent home?—A. He never said he did.

Q. Did he not get all the washing he had done done at your house after he came there three weeks before the election?—A. All that I know of.

Q. Is not Rupley's father a pauper on Morris Township?—A. Yes; he is.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you or did you not agree to give Rupley so much per bunch for making straps, and board and washing included?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you collector of State and county taxes for Graham Township, and how long have you been, and for what years?—A. Yes, sir; I am collector. I collected part of 1875 and all of 1876 and 1877.

Q. Who was the first collector of State and county tax for 1875 in that township?—A. Josiah M. Evans.

Q. Did you succeed him as collector of those taxes, and when was it?—A. In the spring of 1876.

Q. Did Josiah M. Evans collect any State and county taxes after the spring of 1876?—A. No, sir; he had no right to.

Q. Did you collect all of the State and county taxes for 1875 that were collected after you got the duplicate in the spring of 1876?—A. I did.

Q. Do you know Reuben Wright, of Graham Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Reuben Wright pay any State and county taxes to you, and, if so, when?—A. In the spring of 1876 he paid me the State and county tax of 1875.

Q. Was that tax on the duplicate that Josiah M. Evans had?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he ever pay you any State or county tax after the spring of 1876?—A. Not until last fall on the election day of November 5, 1878; he then paid $10 on a bill of school and poor and State and county amounting to $25.

Q. Did he pay you any State and county tax between the spring of 1876 and the election day of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. State whether James Moyer paid you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878.—A. He paid me tax; I could not say whether it was State or county, or what it was.

Q. State when he paid you, and how much he paid you within two years preceding November 5, 1878.—A. He paid me $1 school tax in the summer of 1876—it was for 1874; then this spring a year ago he gave me a poor order of $10, which I credited on the tax I then had against him, which was State and county, school and poor, for the years 1874, '75, '76, '77, and '78; the whole amount against him was over $20.

Q. Did he pay you any other tax of any other kind within two years?—A. I think he paid me $2 last fall before the election; it was less than thirty days before the election.

Q. Did you credit that generally on his tax, the same as before?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether you gave him any receipt for the payment of any tax which he paid within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878.—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you give him a notice of the amount of his taxes as you give and send to all tax-payers, with a blank receipt written under it; and, if so, how did you mark the credit?—A. I did give him notice with blank receipt, as stated; I marked the credit on the end of the notice first, $1, then $10, then $2.

Q. The $1 was paid over two years before the election of November 5, 1878, was it not?—A. It was paid in the spring of 1876, on school tax for 1874.

Q. When was the $10 paid?—A. The $10 was paid in the spring of 1878, generally, on all his taxes.

Q. They were the only taxes he paid you except the $2 at the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Cyrus Hall, of Graham Township, pay any State or county tax, or did any one for him, or at his request, pay such tax within two years and over one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; in the spring of 1878 Morris Dunlap told me that Cyrus Hall was in our township again and for me to fix his State and county tax. I was coming to Clearfield on the 4th of June; I marked his tax paid on the duplicate and paid it with some others to the county treasurer.

Q. Did not Hall make the same request of you?—A. No; I had not seen Hall. In July, 1878, I told Morris Dunlap that I had paid Hall taxes.

Q. Did Warren P. Hoover pay you a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; he paid me in April, 1878.

Q. Did John A. Hoover within two years and within one month pay you a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir; at the first Monday of June, 1878.

Q. Have each of the taxes paid by these three persons been assessed above two months before the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What were the politics of Peter Huffman during the campaign of 1878?—A. A strong Curtin man. I mean Peter Huffman, of Morris Township.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you mark upon your duplicates the dates at which persons pay you their taxes?—A. Very seldom; there may be one or two places.

Q. Do you make entries of the dates upon any other book or memorandum if you make none upon your duplicate?—A. No, sir.

Q. How many names of persons assessed with taxes were there upon your duplicate for each of the years 1875, 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. Something over 100 on each.

Q. Was all of the taxes on the duplicate of 1875 that came to your hands paid by the 1st of June, 1876?—A. No, sir; not all.

Q. What proportion of the amount or number of persons had paid?—A. I could not tell that without looking at the duplicate.

Q. What proportion of persons on the duplicate of 1876 had paid their taxes on the 1st of June, 1877?—A. I can't say without referring to my receipts from the county commissioners.

Q. Could you tell what proportion of the persons assessed on your duplicates of 1877 and 1878 have paid their taxes to this time without referring to the books?—A. I did not have 1878 duplicate. I could not tell what proportion I had. There was $77 back previous to the election.

Q. How much was James Moyer's State and county tax for either of the years 1875, 1876, or 1877?—A. I could not mind that. I think it was $1.80, State and county for one year. The next it was up as high as $2.

Q. Did his State and county tax for 1875, 1876, and 1877 amount to as much as $10 in all those years?—A. No, sir; I don't think it did.

Q. Did you make any memorandum or entry of the date at which Reuben Weight paid you tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make any memorandum or entry of the date at which W. P. Hoover paid you his tax?—A. The way I know, I fix the time by circumstances. I made no memorandum.

Q. Do you fix the time of the payment by John A. Hoover in the same way as you do W. P. Hoover?—A. Yes, sir; at the school settlement.

Q. When did Cyrus Hall repay you the tax you fixed assessed against him?—A. It is not paid yet.

Q. Where was Cyrus Hall living at the time you fixed the tax, as you state?—A. He was living with his mother in Graham Township.

Q. How long had he been out of the township?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. I could not tell.

Q. Do you know when he returned of your own knowledge?—A. I think some time in the spring of 1878.

Q. Do you know of persons voting in Graham Township who had not paid taxes within two years, and more than thirty days before the election other than Reuben Weight, who you say had not paid taxes in that time?

(This question objected to, for the reason it is not cross-examination, and also objected to for the further reason that it is calculated to lead to hearsay testimony, and the witness should be confined to his own personal knowledge of persons who had not paid tax.)

A. I believe there is a couple yet.

Q. How many are there?—A. I think there are two yet.

Q. Are there not more than two that you know of?—A. No, sir; I don't think there is.

Q. Who are the two that you know of?—A. James Nailen and Peter N. Lansberry.

Q. Are you sure there are not others?

(Objected to for the reason it is unfair to the witness.)

A. Not to the best of my knowledge; there are none.

Q. Were there taxes paid for persons in your township and to you by others than the persons against whom the tax was assessed?—A. No, sir.

Q. How many were there who had not paid taxes more than a month before the 5th of November, 1878, nor for two years, but who paid within thirty days and voted?—A. I don't think I collected any tax from the 1st of January, 1878, to the day of election, except $2.

Re-examined:

Q. What were the politics of Peter N. Lansberry and James Nailen at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I could not tell; they were badly mixed up; they had been Democrats.

Q. Did you subpoena them?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who did?—A. They were away from home; they were not subpoenaed.

Q. Do you know there was a subpoena out for them?—A. I knew there was for Nailen. I did not know there was one for Peter Lansberry.

Q. Were they or were they not counted among the Curtin voters?—A. Most of them say they did. For my part, they never told me.

Q. How did you credit taxes where they were paid without direction as to credit?—A. I would credit it to the oldest duplicate. The warrants that were dead I would credit to first.

Q. Did James Moyer pay you enough within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, to pay the taxes of any one year?—A. Yes, sir; I think he has. I don't think it amounts to $10.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Clearfield Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How near do you reside to the residence of Jacob Gearheart, a former resident and citizen of Bloom Township?—A. About 200 feet.

Q. When did Jacob Gearheart move himself, his wife, and family, and his goods and chattels, from Bloom Township to Clearfield Borough?—A. On the 4th of November, 1878.

Q. Were you present when the wagons containing these articles arrived in Clearfield Borough, and at his present residence, on November 4, 1878?—A. Yes; I was at my own residence, and saw them.

Q. What persons were there, and how many wagon-loads of stuff?—A. There was himself, his wife, and child, two teamsters, and two wagon-loads of household goods.

Q. What time of day did they arrive?—A. About noon, as near as I can tell.

Q. When were the wagons unloaded?—A. The same afternoon.

Q. Was it or was it not a complete flitting, as far as you could see?—A. I think so.

Q. Have these articles all there that day unloaded and remained there ever since?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What, if anything, did Jake Gearheart bring there afterwards?—A. He brought hay and fodder for his cattle.

Q. Has he or has he not resided at that house with his family, in the borough of Clearfield and made it his home, ever since he arrived there that day?—A. Yes, sir; he has.

Q. Has he or has he not kept there a house of ill-fame?—A. I have heard so.

Q. Is not that the general report in the community?—A. I can't say whether it is general; I hear it a great many places.

Q. How long have you known Jacob Gearheart?—A. Twenty years.

Q. What has been his reputation for truth and veracity?—A. I never heard it questioned.

Q. How long have you lived near to him?—A. Only since November 4, 1878.

Q. How far did you live from him when he lived in Bloom Township?—A. At least eleven miles.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you know where Mr. Jacob Gearheart staid Monday night, November 4, 1878?—A. I do not.

Q. You do not know, then, whether, he returned to Bloom Township with the teams, or staid here?—A. I do not.

Q. Did Mr. Gearheart call the house to order, and proceed to business that night?—A. I could not say; she and the child staid there that night.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is twenty-eight years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you less than one month before that election pay a State or county tax to John G. O'Dell, collector of Bell Township?—A. I did less than a month; the receipt was dated back to October 1.

Q. Who dated back the receipt?—A. O'Dell did it, I suppose; I did not see him do it; I told him to do that, so that I could vote.

Q. Had you or had you not, paid any other State or County tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I had not, according to my memory; I can't recollect of any.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did you live for two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. One year in Bell Township, Jefferson County; then I moved back to Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Had you paid any taxes in Jefferson County?—A. I can't recollect whether I did or not.

Q. Had you lived in Clearfield County before going to Jefferson County?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who gave it to you?—A. Robert Mehaffey.

Q. Did he read it to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who did read it to you?—A. No person; he put it up and told me it was all right.

Q. Do you testify you voted for Curtin because Mehaffey told you the ticket was all right?—A. No, sir; I wanted to vote that ticket, and I knew that he was the right man.

Re-examined:

Q. What are Robert Mehaffey's politics?—A. As far as that is concerned, I do not know.

Q. Who was he in favor of for Congress, Curtin or Yocum?—A. Curtin.

Q. Did he work for Curtin?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you tell him what ticket you wanted to vote for Congress, and that you voted for Curtin?—A. Yes, sir, I did; and that I wanted to vote for Curtin.

Q. When he handed you the ticket, did he or did he not tell you that ticket was all right?—A. Yes, sir; he told me it was all right.

Q. Did you vote the ticket he handed you?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Were you collector of Chest Township, and for what years?—Answer. Yes, sir; for 1877, and also a portion of Wood's duplicate for 1876, State and county taxes.

Q. Did you or did you not make an agreement with Jacob Pennington, jr., by which his State and county taxes were to be paid by your indebtedness to him for bank-leave?—A. I don't recollect of having that conversation.

Q. Did you mark his taxes paid on the duplicate?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you owe Jacob Pennington, jr., for bank-leave when you were collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much?—A. Five dollars; that's what he told me it would be.

Q. For what year?—A. For 1877.

Q. Do you testify that you had no conversation with him, or that you do not recollect of any?—A. The conversation I had with Pennington was about the price of the rafting ground; that was in the summer of 1878.

Q. Can you now say where the conversation occurred?—A. I don't believe I can.

Q. Do you swear that you did not have a conversation with Pennington in which he spoke to you about crediting this bank leave upon his tax?—A. I don't recollect of such a one. I only remember of his talking about the price.

Question. Have you the registry-lists of the following election districts before you, viz, Clearfield Borough, Newburgh Borough, and Wallacetown Borough, Bell Township, Chest Township, Jordan Township, Knox Township, Lawrence Township, and Penn Township?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you made copies of the said registry-lists for the said election districts, and are they true, correct, and compared copies as made and compared by you?—A. I made all the copies but Lawrence Township, and compared all of them.

Q. Who made the copy for Lawrence Township?—A. W. V. Wright.

Q. Did he make it in your presence and under your direction?—A. Yes, sir; and I compared the copy.

Q. Are you satisfied that all of the said copies are true and correct copies and that they contain in each instance all the names upon the June and September registry-lists for the year 1878 (and no more), as they remain on file in the commissioners' office; and, if so, are you satisfied of this from your own personal inspection and comparison of the copies with the said originals?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For what year are these registry-lists copies of which have thus been made by you?—A. For the year 1878.

Q. Are they those in use at the time of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. There were copies of these originals made and sent to each election district about the last of October, 1878.

Q. What is your position or office?—A. Commissioners' clerk for Clearfield County.

Cross-examined :

Q. Do these copies show what names belong to the June registry, and what to the September registry, and how is the distinction marked on the copies?—A. The September registry is carried in the back of the book, and headed on the top "September registry."

And further saith not.

Counsel for contestee offers in evidence copies of registry-lists identified by witness and marked as follows, to wit: Clearfield Borough, marked Exhibit I; Wallaceton Borough, Exhibit J; Newburg Borough, Exhibit K; Bell Township, Exhibit L; Chest Township, Exhibit M; Jordan Township, Exhibit N; Knox Township, Exhibit O; Lawrence Township, Exhibit P; Penn Township, Exhibit Q.

Adjourned at 11.30 a. m. to meet at 2.30 p. m., March 18, 1879.

J. W. CARLILE affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Luthersburg, Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you one of the inspectors of the election held in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on November 5, 1878, and were you present during that election day as such inspector?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Are you acquainted with all the voters in Brady Township named Frederick Knorr?—A. I am.

Q. Did any person named Fred'k Knorr vote at said election?—A. That is a question I am not positive of; but I believe one did; but I can't say positive.

Q. If a Frederick Knorr did vote at said election, what Frederick Knorr was it?—A. Frederick Knorr, jr., son of Frederick Knorr.

Q. Was there only one Frederick Knorr in Brady Township on November 5, 1878, who is the son of Fred. Knorr?—A. There is only one Fred'k Knorr who is the son of a Frederick Knorr.

Q. How many voters are there in Brady Township named Frederick Knorr, or persons old enough to vote named Frederick Knorr?—A. There are two Frederick Knorrs, Frederick Knorr, jr., and sr., who are old enough to vote.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you in conducting the election of November 5, 1878, endeavor to do so carefully and according to law?—A. Yes, sir; we did.

Q. Did you have charge of the registry-list any part of the day?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have charge of it during the forenoon of the day?—A. I think not entire; we changed off, that is myself and the other inspector, to relieve ourselves. I did the main part of the checking, in fact nearly all.

Q. Have you spoken to Frederick Knorr, jr., since the election about his voting?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who served the subpoena on you?—A. My brother, J. W. Carlile.

Q. Was any other name on the subpoena?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Fred'k Knorr's, jr., name one?—A. I believe it was. I would not say positive.

Q. Is Fred. Knorr, jr., here?—A. I have not seen him; I think not.

Q. Do you now believe from the knowledge you have that Fred'k Knorr, jr., voted on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I believe he did: as I said before, I can't say positive.

And further saith not.

J. M. CARLILE recalled and reaffirmed.

Question. Do you know Ellis Miles of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he and his family reside on the day of election of November 5, 1878?—A. He and his wife removed to Union Township, this county, before that election.

Q. Was he or was he not a resident of Union Township on November 5, 1878?—A. He had moved there.

Q. How long, as nearly as you can tell, had he moved to Union Township before that election?—A. In the neighborhood of from two to four weeks.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you know what he went there for?—A. He went there to live; he came and got my wagon to haul some potatoes, and said he was moving, or had moved.

Re-examined:

Q. Did he vote in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir, he did.

Q. Do you know what ticket he voted?—A. No, I don't, but I suppose it was the Democrat ticket; the whole family are Democrats, and I never knew him to vote anything else.

ELLIS MILES affirmed.

Question. Where do you live?—Answer. About three miles from Luthersburg, in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the general election in Brady Township held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you vote for Curtin or Yocum?—A. I didn't vote for Yocum, but I don't know whether I voted for Curtin or not.

Q. Who gave you the ticket that you voted?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Where did you get your ticket?—A. I got it in Luthersburg somewhere. I don't remember where.

Q. Are you a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you got your ticket which you voted, did you ask for a Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. As well as you can recollect, who gave you your ticket?—A. I can't say who.

Q. Was it either Charles Schweem or Daniel Goodlander?—A. I suppose it was one of them, but I can't tell which.

Q. Did you not get from either Goodlander or Schweem the ticket you voted?—A. I believe I did.

Q. After you got the ticket, did you read it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Curtin's name for Congress on that ticket which you voted?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Was the ticket you voted the ticket which either Goodlander or Schweem gave you?—A. I believe it was.

Q. Are Goodlander and Schweem both Democrats?—A. I don't know.

Q. Do you swear that you do not know that Daniel Goodlander is a Democrat, and also Charles Schweem?—A. I don't know that Charles Schweem is, but Goodlander I believe is.

Q. After you got the ticket you voted, how many names did you scratch off that ticket?—A. I don't know that I scratched any off.

Q. Did you scratch any off, or did you vote it without any scratching?—A. I don't remember whether I did or not; I opened it up to see whether it suited me or not.

Q. Where was you when you looked at your ticket?—A. On William Schweem's porch, I believe, which was at the election house.

Q. After reading your ticket did you at once go and vote the ticket you examined?—A. No, sir.

Q. How soon after?—A. I don't remember how soon.

Q. As near as you can tell?—A. Between a half hour and an hour, I suppose.

Q. After you got the ticket what did you do with it until you voted it?—A. I had it in my pocket from the time I left Schweem's porch until I voted.

Q. Did you change the ticket from the time you got it until you voted it in anyway?—A. I changed it in no way that I know of, but I opened it up and looked at it and put it in my pocket.

Q. Did you write or mark anything on the ticket before you voted it?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did you not vote, to the best of your knowledge, the Democratic ticket in full?—A. Well, I can't say whether I did or not.

Q. Who did you vote for for governor?—A. I can't say.

Q. Who did you vote for for anything?—A. I don't remember—I have a very short memory.

Q. Did you intend to vote the Democratic ticket, or did you not?
(Objected to as incompetent evidence.)

A. Yes, sir, I did, and always will.

Q. Did or did you not intend to vote for Andrew G. Curtin?

(Objected to as incompetent evidence.)

A. I don't remember whether I did or not.

Q. If Andrew G. Curtin's name was on the Democratic ticket for Congress did you not vote for him?—A. Well, if I did not scratch it out, or it was not scratched out, I did; there were several there that scratched it out.

Q. Did you scratch Curtin's name off your ticket?—A. I don't know whether it was off or not; I don't know that it was on.

Q. You say you read your ticket; was it a Democratic ticket?—A. It was.

Q. Was Curtin's name on the ticket when you read it?—A. I don't know that.

Q. Did you vote the whole straight Democratic ticket?—A. Well, I don't know whether it was all on there or not.

Q. Did you open up your ticket and read it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote for the Democratic candidates for treasurer and county commissioners?—A. To the best of my memory, I did.

Q. Was there any name scratched on the ticket you voted, which ticket had on the names of the candidates for treasurer and commissioner?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Were there any scratched when you looked at the ticket?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. Did you scratch any off?—A. I don't think I did.

Q. After you got the ticket from Goodlander or Schweem did anybody else have it till you voted?—A. After I got the ticket they did not.

Q. To the best of your knowledge and recollection, did you not vote for Curtin for Congress?—A. To the best of my knowledge I can't say who it was.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you and your wife and family reside in October, 1878?—A. In Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. In October, 1878, was Union Township the residence and home of yourself and wife?—A. Yes, sir, Union township.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you go to Union Township to remain there or to stay there for a short time?—A. I went to stay two months.

Q. What did you go for?—A. Well, it was getting cool and I moved out until I could get it repaired—my house was very cool.

Q. Did you offer to vote in Union Township?—A. No, sir, I did not; I was not up there at the time, only three or four nights all the time.

Q. Where were you and what were you doing while your wife was in Union Township?—A. I was in Brady Township working for my father.

Q. How many days were you out of Brady Township altogether?—A. To the best of my knowledge not over five or six in the two months.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you move all your household goods, yourself and family, back into Brady Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you move back into Brady Township?—A. I was up there in Union two months lacking a few days.

Q. Whose house were you living in in Union Township, in October, 1878?—A. Levi Dressler's.

Q. For how long a time did you rent the house from Dressler?—A. I had no set time. I did not rent it at all.

Q. Was your wife living in Dressler's house in Union Township during October, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far from Dressler's house were you working in October, 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge it is about nine miles.

Q. How often did you go home to your wife while you lived there?—A. Every two weeks.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you go to Union Township to make that your future residence or only while you were repairing the house you spoke of?—A. I went just until I could get another place to go into.

Q. Did you move all your household goods to Union Township or only part?—A. Only part.

Re-examined:

Q. What goods did you move into Union Township?—A. Two stoves, two beds, one table, part of my chairs, no carpets, some cooking utensils, just what we needed, dishes, &c.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-four on April 16, 1879.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township on the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. How many persons who are old enough to vote by the name of Frederick Knorr were there in Brady Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Only two that I know of.

Q. Who are they?—A. Myself and my father.

Q. Was it your father who was called as a witness at the hearing in Du Bois about two weeks ago?—A. I don't know. I know he was over there.

Q. Did your father tell you he was going there to testify or had been there and testified?—A. He told me when he got home that he had been there to testify.

Q. Do you swear that you did not vote at Luthersburg in Brady Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What are your politics?—A. That I don't know till I vote.

Q. Would you have voted for Curtin or for Yocum for Congress if you had voted on November 5, 1878?

(Objected to as an improper question.)

A. I would have inquired who was the best man for my first vote.

Q. Do you swear that you never voted in your life?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Going on 26. I reside in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Pike Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When had you last paid a State or county tax before that election?—A. In 1876.

Q. What time in 1876, as near as you can tell, and have you a receipt for the payment of that tax?—A. Yes, sir; I have a receipt; here it is. It was the 6th of October, 1876, it was dated.

Q. You had not paid any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, had you?—A. No, sir; I had not.

Cross-examined:

Q. Had you paid any tax since the 6th of October, 1876?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had anybody for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who did you get your ticket from that you voted?—A. Cortes Bloom.

Q. Did you read it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whose name was on it for the legislature?—A. I know, but I can't name him.

Q. Whose name was on for judge?—A. Can't remember that.

Q. Whose name was on for governor?—A. I have forgotten.

Q. Did you read your entire ticket through?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you at the time Bloom gave you the ticket?—A. Up above the tavern, between Notestime's and the election-house.

Q. Had you been in the hotel of Notestime with Cortes Bloom?—A. No, sir; not then.

Q. Had you been there with Bloom and taken by him to a room that he had a key of, and got whisky or beer there that day?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not cross-examination.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before he gave you the ticket you voted?—A. It was after I voted, two hours.

Q. Who was named on your ticket for county treasurer?—A. William Bloom, I think.

Q. Who did you vote for for county commissioners?—A. I can't just remember that.

Q. How many parts or pieces were there of your ticket?—A. There was two pieces.

Q. What were they; what offices?—A. I can't just think.

Q. If you cannot remember any other name on your ticket, how do you remember you voted for Curtin?—A. I did know all the names on the ticket, but it has been so long past I can't remember any more.

Q. What fixes your memory on the one name you remember?—A. I don't know hardly what; I just kept his name, because it was easier kept than the rest.

Q. Who were the other candidates against Curtin, and was there more than one?—A. Yocum; that is all I remember.

Re-examined.

Q. Was not Cortes Bloom a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he or was he not working for Curtin at that election, if you know?—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Were the other candidates who were on the ticket he gave you Democratic or Republican candidates?—A. They were Democratic.

Q. Was it Hoyt or Dill that was on for governor?—A. I can't say.

Q. If Dill was the Democratic candidate, was not his name on that ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was there or was there not a good deal of talk at that election, and since that election, about Curtin and Yocum as candidates for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; there was.

Q. Is or is not this the reason why Curtin's name and Yocum's name were impressed on your mind, and is not this the reason you can remember better for whom you voted for Congress, than the other candidates on the ticket?—A. Yes, sir; that is the reason.

And further saith not.

Q. Who was the candidate you voted for for commissioner of the county?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. Did you intend to vote the Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you swear that you voted for all the Democratic candidates, if you do not remember how many parts there were to your ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I can.

Q. To whom did you last pay a State and county tax?—A. To A. M. Draucker, in Luthersburg.

Q. Have you a receipt with you?—A. No, sir; I never got a receipt.

Q. Have you lived more than two years continuously before the 5th of November, 1878, in Brady Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did the collector of State and county tax demand taxes from you?—

A. He did two years ago last fall, the fall the sheriff was elected.

Q. Have you been asked for taxes since that time?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. When you speak of being asked for taxes two years ago last fall, does that refer to the taxes which you say you paid about two months before the general election of November, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the man who made up your ticket and gave it to you a Democrat or Republican?—A. A Democrat.

Q. What kind of a ticket did you tell him you wanted, if you spoke of any kind?—A. A Democratic ticket—a Democratic hand clear through.

Q. Was that what you got and voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is the Brady Township in which you voted on November 5, 1878, in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Adjourned at 8 o'clock p. m. to meet at 11 o'clock a. m., March 20, 1879, at the Continental Hotel, in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

STACY T. BOWMAN sworn.

Question. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. On which side of the original line between Woodward and Boggs Townships did you live on November 5, 1878?—A. The original line runs right through the place. I live on the Boggs Township side of that line.

Q. Do you live on the same side of that line that Milton Hampton does?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you live nearer to the line of, or farther from it, than Milton Hampton?—A. A little farther, I suppose, or about the same.

Q. Was the house you lived in on November 5, 1878, on the Boggs side of the original township line?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long had you lived in that house?—A. About two years.

Q. Is the township line referred to well marked in any way?—A. I never saw any, but we know well enough where it is. There is a road there.

Q. What road is that, and is it not known as the Clearfield bridge road?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is or is not the Clearfield bridge road much traveled and used for a long time?—A. Yes, sir; it has been used a good while.

Q. Has it been much traveled?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know of any change having been made in that township line for school purposes by which a portion of Boggs Township was thrown into Woodward Township for school purposes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long ago was that change made?—A. That is more than I can tell you. I suppose about eight years.

Q. Do you know how many tracts were thus changed to Woodward Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know anything about the change except what you have been told by others?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you live before you lived in that house where you lived on November 5, 1878?—A. I lived on the other side of the line, in Woodward Township.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you assessed and registered in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you not been informed by people in that locality that a change was made in a township line between Boggs and Woodward, about thirty years ago or more, by which certain tracts of land were thrown into Woodward Township and taxed there for State and county as well as for all other purposes?

(Objected to as hearsay, and as not cross-examination.)

A. I heard that of the farm on which I live, but not about any other.

Q. Was not that portion of Boggs Township, or the farm upon which you lived last November, annexed to Woodward for election and all other purposes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is this property a part of the Hampton property where you live or does it join it?—A. It is all one.

Q. If that property was annexed to Woodward Township as stated, you lived in Woodward Township, and had a right to vote there, had you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been acquainted with any persons living on that Hampton tract or farm?—A. Sixteen years.

Q. Have not those persons living on the property you lived on last November always voted in Woodward Township?

(Objected to unless the witness can answer from his own personal knowledge.)

A. Yes, sir, they have; I know that.

Q. Do you know whether or not that property has always been assessed for all purposes in Woodward Township?—A. Well, it has been as far back as I can mind or have heard people talk about it.

Q. Did you vote or attempt to vote on the 5th of November, 1878, in any other election district besides Woodward Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you registered in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you know anything about this other change which you speak of having been made about thirty years ago except what you have heard from others?—A. No, sir.

Q. That change only affected the place on which you live, did it not?—A. That is the only place I know; I don't know how many more.

Q. Before that change, and apart from that change, the place on which you live was in Boggs Township, was it not?—A. I guess it was.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. In October, I think; I have the receipt in my pocket.

(Witness produced receipt dated October 4, 1878, signed by J. G. Higgins, constable.)

Q. Do you swear that you paid those taxes on the date of that receipt, October 4, 1878?—A. The receipt shows it; of course I paid it on that day.

Q. Do you swear that you did not settle those taxes at a later date than the receipt calls for?—A. It was dated back one year, and it was Berry Chase got me to do it to vote for Yocum.

Q. When did you get the receipt dated October 4, 1878?—A. I got that October 4, 1878.

Q. Do you mean to swear that Asbury Chase got you to date back this or any other receipt to vote for Yocum?—A. I hardly know what to answer. It is best not to answer it at all.

Q. We insist upon an answer to this question, and want you to say upon oath whether you meant to swear what you did when you said Asbury Chase got you to date back this receipt to vote for Yocum; and if you did not mean to swear to that, what did you mean?—A. I mean it was dated back, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Do you mean to swear that the receipt dated October 4, 1878, to which you have referred, was dated back?—A. I paid the tax for 1876 in 1878.

Q. Do you mean to swear that the receipt dated October 4, 1878, was dated back?—A. Would paying a tax of 1876 in 1878 be dating it back? If so, it was dated back.

Q. Did you pay that tax on the day the receipt was dated?—A. Yes, sir; on that day, the 4th of October.

Q. Was there any other date put on the receipt, or did any one request you to put any other date on the receipt besides October 4, 1878?—A. No.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. I live in Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am forty-seven years old.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I am not positive.

Q. What is your best recollection?—A. When at the election I did not know when I had paid tax, and from what the collector has told me since I don't think I had paid any within two years.

Q. That is, you mean that you do not think you paid any within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; that is what I mean.

Cross-examined:

Q. To whom did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. Jackson Kinkead, collector.

Q. How long has Jackson Kinkead been collector of State and county taxes?—A. I don't know.

Q. Where were you and Kinkead when you paid him the last tax?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. What season of the year was it, if you can remember?—A. I don't remember anything about it.

Q. Was it after the Presidential election of 1876?

(Objected to, because the witness has already sworn that he does not think he paid any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and also as leading.)

A. I don't recollect.

Q. Did you get a receipt for the tax?—A. No, sir; I very seldom take receipts.

Q. Were you not of the belief at the election of November 5, 1878, that you had paid tax within two years?

(Objected to, because the witness has already sworn that he was entirely ignorant at that time he paid tax.)

A. I was not fully under the impression that I had paid tax; my mind was not fully settled on that.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was Kinkead at the place where the election was held while you were there?—A. I saw him near the house a short time after I voted.

Q. Did he then tell you you had not paid tax in time to entitle you to vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did he tell you?—A. About one hour ago, standing over on the corner.

Q. How did he say he knew you had not paid?—A. He said I had not paid a certain year, and that year would throw it back of the time.

Q. What year did he tell you you had not paid?—A. I don't remember whether he mentioned the year or not.

Q. Was that the first time your attention was called to your alleged non-payment of taxes?—A. Yes, sir; that was the first time.

Q. What is Kinkead's politics?—A. I believe he is a Republican.

Q. How long have you lived in Beccarea Township?—A. About eleven years.

Q. Did you live there the two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was you born in the State?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What property do you own, real or personal, or both?—A. I have a hundred acres of land, a team of horses, some cows, and a lot of personal property; if I had my debts paid I would own them.

Q. Have you paid taxes to anybody else besides Kinkead, and to whom?—A. I have, but I don't recollect who the collectors were.

Q. How long have you been living on this 100 acres of land?—A. About eleven years.

Q. Has it been assessed to you during that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not you were registered?—A. I am not positive; I think I was.

Re-examined:

Q. When Kinkead spoke to you about your not having paid tax, did he say you had not paid tax in a certain year, or did he say you had not paid tax since a certain year?—A. I am not positive which.

Q. Did he mention the year or simply mention the time, and fix it by some other circumstance?—A. He opened the duplicate, but I can't remember what he did say.

Q. Did he or not say in substance that you had not paid any State or county tax for more than two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did say that in substance.

Q. The last tax you paid was to him, was it not?—A. I think it was, I feel confident.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you see him mark your tax paid at the time you paid it?—
A. I think not.

Q. If Kinkead had not told you that you had not paid tax within two years, and you had been asked whether you did or not, could you have answered the question?—A. Not positively.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and my age is 45 years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When had you last paid your State or county tax?—A. Well, the last I mind of was in 1876.

Q. What time in 1876, as near as you can tell?—A. Sometime in October, about the middle of it.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you take a receipt?—A. Yes, sir; but I have not got it.

Q. On what property have you been assessed within the last two years?—A. George Groom's property.

Q. How much is there of it?—A. Two hundred and eleven acres, I believe.

Q. Do you pay the taxes on that property?—A. Yes, sir; I pay them.

Q. To whom have you paid tax on that property?—A. Jackson Kinkead.

Q. How long have you lived in Beccaria Township immediately preceding the election of November, 1878?—A. I came there in 1845.

Q. Were you registered in Beccaria Township?—A. I expect I was; I don't know.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was Kinkead at the election house when you were there?—A. I can't say whether he was or not.

Q. To whom else besides Kinkead have you paid State and county taxes?—A. I can't tell you that; to whoever was collector before him.

Q. At what place did you last pay Kinkead?—A. On my porch at home.

Q. Has he since that time when you paid him on your porch asked you for tax?—A. I don't believe he has that I know of.

Q. Did you ever pay Kinkead State or county taxes for which you took no receipt?—A. He never gave me any receipt.

Q. Who gave you the receipt which you have or had and which you spoke of a little while ago?—A. John G. Glasgow gave it to me from Kinkead.

Q. Do you know William Ball, and has he lived in Beccaria Township, and how long?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. Yes, sir; I know him; he has lived in Beccaria a year or more.

Q. How much tax did you pay Kinkead at your home at the time you spoke of?—A. Eight or ten dollars; I forget exactly.

Q. What arrangement had you with George Groom in regard to the payment of taxes assessed on the property on which you live?—A. He told me to go on the place and pay the taxes, and keep it up; he is my father.

Re-examined:

Q. Does your father own that place?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is it not assessed in his name and to him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then when you were asked if this property was assessed to you did you mean it was?—A. I meant it was assessed to George Groom: And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is about 56.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. I think I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I gave my boy some money to go down and pay his own taxes and mine; he came back and told me it was all right; and then I examined the duplicate afterwards to see how much was back, and there was some money credited, and my wife she sent some money too, and then there was no credit there for me, and I don't know whether it was all applied to his and my wife's or not, but that was all we had credit for; I had no credit for mine at all; it was only a short time ago that I was looking at the duplicate. I did not see how it was paid or anything.

Q. You don't know whether it was paid or not?—A. No, sir; I did not pay it; I don't know; he did not take any receipt.

Q. You have seen from the duplicate that you have no credit for the payment of that tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has not the collector also told you that it was not paid?—A. I think maybe he did.

Q. Have you paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; not to my knowledge.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you give your son enough money to pay your own State or county tax?—A. Well, I don't know; I don't remember how much money I gave him or how much the tax was at that time. I did not know, I mean, at that time how much the tax was.

Q. What is your son's name to whom you gave this money?—A. Martin Christian D. Patterson.

Q. When was it that you gave him this money to pay his own and your taxes?—A. I don't know whether I can tell you or not; it was some time previous to the time when there was some talk that your taxes must be paid thirty days before the election.

Q. Was this more than thirty days before the election?—A. I think it was if I remember right.

Q. To whom were these taxes to be paid?—A. Jackson Kinkead, collector.

Q. Was the money sent by you with your son for the reason that you wanted to pay them so you could vote?—A. That was one reason, and because I owed them and would have them to pay anyhow.

Q. Can you tell for what year those taxes were assessed?—A. I ain't sure whether they were 1876 or 1877. I owed on both duplicates.

Q. When or how long before that time at which you sent the money by your son was it that you had paid any State or county tax?—A. I don't know whether I can say that. I think about the time the treasurer was around; I generally paid my taxes to him.

Q. Who was the treasurer that you last paid tax to?—A. I think Wilson was his name. I ain't sure.

Q. When your son received the money from you, what did you say about what tax was to be paid by it?—A. I don't remember that I mentioned what tax. I intended it for State and county tax.

Q. Was it to pay your own tax or somebody else's?—A. I don't know that I told him who, but I intended it for my own.

Q. What did your son say when he returned?

(Objected to as hearsay.)

A. If I remember right, he said it was all right.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. Not that I remember of. I don't think it was.

Q. How long had you lived in Beccaria Township immediately prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. In the neighborhood of nine or ten years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Well, I generally do; but I am not certain whether I did that one or not; but I think I did.

Q. From whom did you get it?—A. I think it was William Dotts.

Q. Was the money you sent your own or your wife's?—A. The boy and me had some, and he took it down.

Q. Then it was not her money to be applied to pay the taxes upon her property?—A. Not at that time. There was money sent at another time to pay on her property. She sent that herself.

Q. Do each of you own real estate?—A. The real estate belongs to my wife. I pay on personal property.

Q. What personal property were you assessed with upon which this tax was due?—A. A horse and a cow. I had a wagon, but they did not assess it. I don't know whether the cow was assessable or not.

Q. Can you not give us an idea of the amount of money you sent by your son?—A. I don't think it was over a dollar. I ain't sure.

Re-examined:

Q. When did that horse die, as near as you can tell?—A. About two years before the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Do you know, or did you know at the time you sent the money, how much the tax was?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. You had paid no other tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I think I paid all my taxes up to the present duplicate in Mr. Kinkead's hands.

Q. Had you paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I think not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am forty-two this spring.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When had you last paid a State or county tax?—A. I can't tell whether it was in 1876 or 1877. Some time that winter.

Q. Was it before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I can't tell whether it was before or after for certain.

Q. What is your recollection?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. To whom did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. To Jackson Kinkead.

Q. Can you tell what year you last paid tax in?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. Can you tell whether you paid any State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot tell.

Cross-examined:

Q. You think it was some time during the winter of 1876 and 1877 that you paid the State and county tax already referred to to Jackson Kinkead?

(Objected to for the reason that the question assumes that the witness has sworn to what he has not sworn to, he not having testified as stated in this question.)

A. Yes; that is correct.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you swear what winter it was you paid that tax?—A. I could not swear what winter it was; it was some time in 1876 or 1877.

Q. Do you remember what month of the year you paid those taxes?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. Was it in the first months or the last months of the year?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. You were asked the question whether you had paid the tax in the winter of 1876 and 1877; your answer was, "That is correct"; do you mean to say that it was in the winter of 1876-'77, or that it was in the winter of one of those two years?—A. It was 1876 or 1877, one of those two years.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I was twenty-four on the 12th of November last.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Well, I can't tell you exactly who it was; I could not be certain.

Q. Did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin or for Seth H. Yocum; which one of the two, according to the best of your knowledge and recollection?—A. It was Curtin, I guess, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Where did you get your ticket?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. I don't remember who.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. I don't know whether I did or not; I generally do; I think I did.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. I only have a receipt for October 6, 1876; but there was tax paid by John G. Glasgow or my father to Samuel Hegarty for me.

Q. When was the tax paid for which you have a receipt dated October 6, 1876; was it paid on that day?—A. I suppose so, or it would not be dated that day; my recollection is it was paid on that day. Glasgow paid that tax when I was away; so I cannot be sure, either.

Q. When did you get that receipt?—A. I think I got it the day before the election of 1876; the receipt was from Jackson Kinkead.

Q. Was that the payment of tax on which you voted at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. It was.

Q. Do you believe it was paid in time to enable you to vote; that is, at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir; I believe it was paid the last day before the thirty days before the election of 1876.

Q. When was this tax paid to Samuel Hegarty by Glasgow or your father, if you know?—A. I don't remember; and I don't know it was paid at all.

Q. If paid at all, was it before or after this other payment of tax on October 6, 1876?—A. It was after.

Q. You don't know when, or whether it was paid at all or not?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote the Democratic or Republican ticket at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I don't remember; it was not a full ticket, either Republican or Democratic.

Q. Who did you intend or want to vote for for Congress, Curtin or Yocum?—A. I wanted to vote for the best man; I don't know which; I suppose, though, it was Curtin.

Q. Did you or did you not think you were voting for Curtin?—A. I cannot remember; it has been so long ago I don't remember what it was at the time.

Q. I understand you to swear that according to your best knowledge and recollection you think you voted for Curtin?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has already sworn that he does not know for whom he voted for Congress; the question is therefore unfair to the witness, it assuming that he has not so answered it.)

A. I do.

Q. What are your father's politics?—A. They are Democratic, I think; he changes sometimes.

Q. Did he vote the Democratic or Republican ticket at the election of November 5, 1878, according to the best of your knowledge?

(Objected to as hearsay, and for the reason his father is living and would be a competent witness, and can be produced if required.)

A. I don't know anything about it.

Cross-examined :

Q. You cannot swear positively for whom you voted for Congress at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. It may have been for Seth H. Yocum, may it not?—A. Yes, sir; it may have been.

Re-examined :

Q. Do you think it is likely that you voted for Yocum?—A. No, sir; I don't think it is.

Cross-examined :

Q. There is a probability, however, that you voted for Seth H. Yocum, is there not?—A. Well, I don't know.

Re-examined :

Q. Do you swear that there is any probability that you voted for Yocum?

(Objected to, for the reason the witness has already answered the question.)

A. Well, it might be that I voted for Yocum.

Q. Have you any reason to believe that you voted for Yocum?—A. No, sir; I have no reason to believe that I voted for Yocum or Curtin either.

Q. Which one of the two do you answer upon oath that you believe that you voted for?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has been asked, and answered that "he could not tell exactly which one.")

A. Well, I believe I voted for Curtin, according to the best of my knowledge.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is forty-three, past.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. To whom did you last pay any State or county tax?—A. To John G. Glasgow.

Q. Was he to pay the collector?—A. He did pay the collector.

Q. What collector?—A. Jackson Kinkead.

Q. Do you know when he paid him of your own knowledge?—A. No; I don't know anything about that.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did or did you not pay a State or county tax in 1877 for the year

1876, to the best of your knowledge?—A. To the best of my knowledge it was paid by Glasgow in 1877.

Q. You paid Mr. Glasgow, did you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or did you not believe that when you voted at the general election of November 5, 1878, that you had paid a State or county tax within the time required by law, and at least one month before said election?—A. Kinkead came to me and told me my taxes were paid. Glasgow also came to me and told me my taxes were paid, and I was entitled to a vote.

Q. Was your vote challenged, or was there any objection made by the board to receiving your vote at said election?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Was the payment of the 1876 tax by Glasgow, which you say in cross-examination you think was paid in 1877, the same payment of tax to which you referred in your examination-in-chief as the last State or county tax you had paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that (if paid within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878) the only State or county tax that you had paid within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir. I paid other State and county tax within two years, which would entitle me to vote.

Q. To whom did you pay any other State or county tax?—A. G. W. Caldwell, the doctor.

Q. Was he collector of State and county tax?—A. Yes, sir; I think he was.

Q. Do you not know that Dr. Caldwell was the district treasurer of Beccaria Township, who collected the school and poor tax, and that he had nothing to do with collection of State and county taxes?—A. I think he had. I know he has collected State and county taxes, but I do not know whether it was within the two years or not.

Q. Then you do not swear that you paid Dr. Caldwell any State or county taxes within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, do you?—A. I do, if he was collector. I think he was. They have no taxes back of 1876. They don't let people live in Clearfield County long without paying taxes. Somebody must have got them.

Q. Do you swear that you paid Dr. Caldwell any State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I don't think I did, to Dr. Caldwell.

Q. Did you, within those two years, pay a State or county tax to any one else, except the tax of 1876, which you think Glasgow paid in 1877?—A. No; I don't think I did.

Q. Then I understand you to state that with the exception of the 1876 tax, which you think Glasgow paid in 1877 to Kinkead, you paid no other State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, that you remember of?

(Objected to, for the reason that the witness has already answered the question when he stated that he may have paid a State or county tax to Dr. Caldwell.)

A. In paying my taxes I never take a receipt; sometimes I pay State, county, and school altogether; I don't remember of paying any tax; I might have paid it; I cannot answer that question definitely.

Q. If you did pay any other State or county tax during those two years, to whom did you pay it?—A. I can't recollect that.

Q. Who collected the State and county tax during the three years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I can't tell you that, exactly.

Q. Have you any recollection of paying any other State or county tax during the two years preceding November 5, 1878, than that paid by Glasgow, which you think was paid in 1877?

(Objected to, as the witness has repeatedly answered the question already.)

A. I answer that I have paid tax, but I cannot swear it was State or county tax.

Q. To whom did you pay the other tax during those two years?—A. Jackson Kinkead and Caldwell both, but what it was I cannot tell you.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you own any real estate, and, if so, how much, and where situated?—A. I don't now.

Q. Have you within the last two preceding years been the owner of any real estate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is it situated?—A. In Beccaria Township, Clearfield county, Pennsylvania.

Q. To whom was this real estate assessed during the period within the last two years, while you were the owner?—A. It was assessed to me.

Q. By whom were the taxes paid upon this property during this period?—A. By me.

Q. Why can you not tell how these taxes were paid, and when?—A. Because sometimes I would give the collector $10, and tell him to credit it on my taxes, and sometimes I would give him an order on a man for five or ten dollars.

Q. Do you usually take a receipt when you pay your taxes?—A. No, sir; I never took a receipt in my life.

Q. Has Jackson Kinkead told you within the last two years, immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878, that your taxes were paid?—A. Yes, sir; my State and county taxes.

Q. Was this some time during the year 1877 or 1878?—A. It was, I think, during 1877, and for the year 1877, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. If Dr. Caldwell was collector of State and county taxes, may you not have paid State and county taxes during 1877 or 1878 that were assessed two or more years preceding that time?—A. I may have paid it to him.

Re-examined:

Q. What time during the year 1877 did Kinkead tell you your taxes were paid?—A. If I remember right it was on the day of the election.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. To whom did you last pay any State or county tax?—A. To Jackson Kinkead.

Cross-examined:

Q. You are usually known as Sides Shoff?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you known by any other name?—A. I sign my name S. C. Shoff.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax which was assessed more than two months and paid at least one month before the election of November 5, 1878, and within two years of said election?—A. I paid a tax in 1876, some time in October. The next tax, it appears, Kinkead has not credited me with it. He got some corn from me, $10 worth. He was to give me a school order for it, but did not; so I told him to credit it on my State and county taxes, and he agreed; that is, he said he would try and do that.

Q. During what year did he make this arrangement with you?—A. He made this arrangement in the summer of 1877.

Re-examined:

Q. Did not Kinkead say that he would credit this corn on your taxes if he could?—A. Yes; I will tell you he said this: "I will leave this stand back. I will try and credit this on those taxes." My idea was, and until lately, that it was so credited.

Recross-examined:

Q. Jackson Kinkead is the collector of State and county taxes for the township in which you live, is he not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you of the opinion, until lately, that the bargain had been closed and the taxes paid at the time of the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

WHITFIELD EDDY sworn.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is forty-one years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In England.

Q. When were you naturalized?—A. Four years ago last September.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you, your wife, and family resided in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the last two years or more?—A. Seven years we have resided there.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that in the Woodward Township election district, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to because it is a question of privilege, and the witness need or need not answer, at his pleasure.)

Counsel for contestee protests against this objection, first, because if a question of privilege, it avails only the witness and cannot be urged by contestant; second, because counsel for contestant, in the examination conducted during the development of contestant's case in chief, while attempting to prove illegal votes cast for contestee, upon a witness's refusal to testify, alleging as the ground thereof that he could not be compelled to testify for whom he voted until his vote was proven illegal, solemnly stated, and requested the notary public to take such solemn statement in writing and place it upon the record as a part of the proceedings in this case, that it was his opinion that under the law governing such cases the witness was compelled to testify, and thereupon requested William Radebaugh, the notary public before whom that examination was and this examination is conducted, to instruct the witness to answer, which instruction was given, and the witness answered, notwithstanding his first expressed determination not to answer.)

A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. To whom did you pay said State and county tax, and when?—A. Mr. Thomas Henderson, August 27, 1878.

Q. Was Thomas Henderson the collector of State and county taxes for Woodward Township?—A. I understand so, or else I would not have paid it to him.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did you say you were born?—A. England.

Q. How long have you lived in this country?—A. Ten years come June.

Q. How long have you lived in Pennsylvania?—A. Eight years.

Q. How long have you lived in the Woodward election district?—A. seven years come next May.

Q. Did you pay the State and county tax alluded to in your previous answer yourself?—A. Yes.

Q. How do you know you paid it on the 27th day of August, 1878?—A. I have the proof by the receipt.

Q. Have you the receipt with you?—A. Yes.

Q. Look at the dates of those receipts and tell me what they are?—A. August 27, 1878; signed, Thos. Henderson. I have also another receipt from the county treasurer for State and county taxes which I paid, dated May 21, 1877; signed, D. McGaughery, county treasurer.

Q. Have you your naturalization papers with you?—A. Yes, sir; here they are (witness produces them).

Q. Did you show this certificate of naturalization to the election officers of the Woodward election district when you offered to vote on the 5th of November last?—A. No.

Re-examined:

Q. Was your name on the registry-list?—A. Yes.

Q. Had you resided in the election district of Woodward continuously with your family for over six years preceding that election?—A. No.

Q. How long had you resided in Woodward district continuously with your family immediately preceding that election?—A. Five years.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No.

Q. Were you well known to the officers of the election board?—A. Yes.

Recross-examined:

Q. Had you voted in the Woodward election district five consecutive years after obtaining your papers of naturalization?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know your name was upon the list of voters of the Woodward election district—I mean on the registry-list?—A. Just through the collector, when I paid the State and county tax.

Re-examined:

Q. Will you look on the back of your naturalization certificate and say what you find indorsed there?—A. Yes; and I find indorsed “voted at Woodward November 5, 1878.”

Q. From this indorsement, do you not now think that you did produce your naturalization papers at the election of November 5, 1878, or do you think you did not?—A. Yes; when I come to consider, I presented his with my tax-receipt.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is 55 on September 7 last.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you, your wife and family, or not, resided in Woodward Township continuously for the last two years or more?—A. Yes, sir; for seven years.

Q. Had you or not paid a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878, and at least one month preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I paid it.

Q. To whom and when did you pay such tax?—A. To Joseph Higgins, in July, 1878.

Q. Did you or did you not vote in said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Counsel for contestant requests counsel for contestee to state the purpose for which the last above-mentioned question is asked, as the legality of witness’s vote has not been called in question.

Counsel for contestee asks the question and asks an answer.

Counsel for contestant objects to the question, because it is an improper one, which counsel has no right to ask or witness to answer until it shall have been first proven that witness’s vote was illegal, which has not been done in this case.)

A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. From whom did you get your ticket on the day of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. From John M. Chase.

Q. Did you read your ticket carefully before voting it?—A. Yes, sir. I asked Mr. Chase for a ticket and then I looked over it.

Q. Who was on the ticket for sheriff?

(Objected to, because there was no such candidate. Question withdrawn.)

Q. Who was upon the ticket for member of the legislature?—A. I told Mr. Chase I wanted to vote for Yocum, and he gave me a ticket; then I looked on the ticket and saw Yocum's name was on it.

Q. Who was upon your ticket for county commissioner?—A. I told Mr. Chase I wanted a ticket. I wanted to vote for Yocum, and did not care for the balance of the ticket. He gave me a ticket, and I saw Yocum's name on it, and I did not look at the balance.

Q. Was Yocum's name written or printed on the ticket?—A. It was printed on it.

Q. Did you get a receipt when you paid your tax as July, 1878?—A. I did not.

Q. How do you fix the time when you paid your tax as July, 1878?—A. Why, Joseph Higgins came to our place for tax, and I was mowing.

Q. Was Joseph Higgins the tax collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you vote the ticket which Chase gave you, which ticket had Yocum's name on it for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in the election district of Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Counsel for contestant requests counsel for contestee to state the purpose for which the above question is asked.

In reply to which, counsel for contestee stated that the purpose is to sustain the facts alleged in contestee's answer and counter-charges served upon contestant in that part of said answer and counter-charges which relates to Decatur Township election district, Clearfield County Pennsylvania. Counsel for contestant objects to this line of examination, because contestant's notice of contest contains no charge against the legality of witness's vote, and until it shall have been proven that witness's vote was illegally cast it is improper, and one which counsel for contestee should not ask nor witness answer.

Counsel for contestee protests against this objection, and also objection of like character to like question asked the witness A. J. Goss, for the reasons stated in protest to like objection in the examination of Whitfield Eddy.)

A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax, and to whom?—A. On the 13th of September, 1878, to P. B. Zentmyre; I have here a receipt dated September 13, 1878, for that tax, signed by Levi Goss, collector.

Q. Who gave you that receipt?—A. E. P. Zentmyre, the man to whom I paid the tax.

Q. Was P. B. Zentmyre the collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know when these taxes were paid to Levi Goss, the collector, or whether they were paid to him at all?

(Objected to, because the receipt produced by witness is the best evidence as to the payment of witness's taxes.)

A. I don't know.

Cross-examined:

Q. Who is P. B. Zentmyre?—A. Superintendent of the Moshannon Coal Company.

Q. Were you in his employ on the 13th of September, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long had you been in his employ previous to that time?—A. I can't tell you exactly; over three years.

Q. Is Mr. Zentmyre in the habit of paying the taxes of his employés, taking receipts in their names, and settling for the same with his men at the regular pay-day?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you authorize P. B. Zentmyre to pay your taxes?—A. He said, Charley, I have a tax-receipt for you, do you want to pay it? I said yes, sir; and I paid it then the day he spoke to me about it.

Q. What was the date you paid Mr. Zentmyre the tax, and received from him the receipt?—A. The 13th of September, 1878.

Q. Then you had paid a State or county tax within two years, or more than one month prior to the 5th day of November last?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Had you paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, except that paid Zentmyre as stated?—A. No, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. At the time you got the receipt from Mr. Zentmyre did you know that Levi Goss was collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township?—A. No, sir; not till after I got the receipt.

Q. Were you satisfied more than one month before the 5th of November, 1878, that Levi Goss, whose receipt you held, was collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township?—A. Yes, certainly.

Re-examined:

Q. When did you first learn that Levi Goss was collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township?—A. When I got his receipt.

Q. Had you any other knowledge of it except his name on the receipt?—A. No, sir; not exactly.

And further saith not.

JOHN KELLER sworn.

Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness for the reason that contestee's notice of the examination of witnesses at the Centennial Hotel in the borough of Houtzdale does not contain witness's name.

Counsel for contestee answers this objection by stating that full and complete notice was given of John Kelley, and that and the name of the witness are idem sonans, and sufficient notice under the act of Congress.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and am 35 years old in June.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to because this is a question of privilege, and the witness may either answer or decline to answer as he may see fit.

Counsel for contestee protests against this objection for same reasons as stated in protest to like objection to like question asked Whitfield Eddy.)

A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. I have the receipt; it is dated October 2, 1878, and signed by Levi Goss, collector.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. To P. B. Zentmyre.

Q. Did you pay him on the day that receipt is dated?—A. I think so.

Q. Had you paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I believe I did.

Q. When and to whom?—A. I paid it to Levi Goss; I cannot tell when, but think it was within two years.

Q. Was it before or after the Presidential election of 1876, when Tilden and Hayes were candidates?—A. I think it was before.

Q. About how long before?—A. Indeed I could not tell; it must have been over thirty days, though.

Q. Was it paid in legal time to vote at that election of 1876?—A. I think it was.

Q. Was it the payment of tax upon which you voted at that Presidential election?—A. I think it was.

Q. Have you paid any other State or county tax since that tax except what you paid P. B. Zentmyre as stated?—A. I don't think I did.

Q. Was P. B. Zentmyre the collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township when you paid him these taxes on October 2, 1878?—A. He was not collector, but the collector left the receipts with him to collect.

Q. Do you know when your tax was paid by him to the collector, Levi Goss, or whether they were paid at all to Levi Goss?

(Objected to because the receipt produced by the witness on the stand, dated October 2, 1878, and signed by Levi Goss, collector, is the best evidence of both the time and the payment of the tax.)

A. I could not tell when it was paid, more than he said on Saturday when he subpoenaed me that he had got tax from P. B. Zentmyre for me.

Q. Do you mean last Saturday?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Outside of that statement made by Goss last Saturday, have you any knowledge as to whether those taxes were paid him at any time?—

A. The way he talked they ought to be; outside of that I have not.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant proceeds to cross-examine, reserving all legal exceptions to the sufficiency of the notice of the examination of witness, the notice of the examination of John Kelley so completely disguising the identity of John Keller as to deprive contestant of that legal notice guaranteed him by the act of Congress governing contested elections.)

Q. Who is P. B. Zentmyre?—A. Superintendent of the Moshannon Coal Company.

Q. Are you in his employ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay P. B. Zentmyre the amount of tax named in the receipt now in your possession and produced by you upon the stand, and if so, when?—A. I paid him on the 2d of October, 1878, when it is dated.

Q. When you paid P. B. Zentmyre and received said receipt, did you know that Levi Goss was the collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you had paid a State and county tax within two years and more than one month prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I think so.

Q. Don't you know that you paid such tax?—A. I think I did. It has been so long I can't tell for sure.

Re-examined:

Q. Was P. B. Zentmyre a Democrat or a Republican?—A. I guess he was a Democrat.

Q. Can you swear that the taxes paid Zentmyre were paid him by you on October 2, 1878, the date of the receipt?

(Objected to because the witness has answered the question before.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you sure you paid him that day?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see Zentmyre write the date on that receipt when you paid him the tax, or was the receipt dated as well as written and signed by Goss before that?—A. I did not see him put the date on the receipt he gave me, and that is all I know about it.

Q. Had he the receipt before you paid him the tax?—A. I could not tell you that.

Q. Did he hand you the receipt before you paid him the money, or at the same time?—A. About the same time.

Q. Where were you when you paid him the money?—A. It was in the post-office.

Q. Did he tell you he had the receipt before you paid him the money?—A. Yes, sir; he told me he had the receipt for my tax there.

Q. Was Levi Goss there that day?—A. I could not tell you that; he might have been there.

Q. Have you any recollection of seeing him there that day?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. How far did Levi Goss live from that place?—A. That's more than I can tell you. I don't know where he lives.

Q. When Zentmyre handed you this receipt, had he in his possession other receipts signed and dated by Levi Goss?—A. I think he had; there were some others got their receipts that same day.

Q. What day of the week was it you paid Zentmyre?—A. I think it was on Saturday.

Q. What makes you think it was Saturday?—A. Because it was pay-day.

Q. What time of the month does pay-day come?—A. The nearest Saturday to the 15th.

Q. Are you, then, not mistaken when you swear that you paid this tax to Zentmyre on the 2d day of October, 1878?—A. I think not.

Q. About what day of the month was pay-day in October last?—A. I could not tell you that. It comes the nearest Saturday to the 15th.

Q. Could that have been October 2, 1878?—A. It could have been and it might not have been. Some days pay-day comes on the 15th and sometimes a day or two over either way.

Q. You have sworn that you paid this tax to Zentmyre on Saturday; the receipt is dated October 2, which was Wednesday; are you not, then, mistaken in saying you paid it on the date of the receipt?—A. I don't know; not that I know of.

Q. Here is an almanac for the year 1878; will you please consult it, and state what day in October was pay-day? (Witness consults almanac.)—A. Pay-day came in October on Saturday, the 12th.

Q. Was not October 12th, 1878, the day you paid Zentmyre that tax?—A. It must have been according to that.

Q. Were you not, then, innocently mistaken in saying you paid it on October 2, 1878, and were you not misled by the date on the receipt given you by Zentmyre?—A. I must have been, I guess.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was not Zentmyre the agent of Levi Goss, the tax-collector of Decatur Township, for the collection of the taxes of the men employed in the Moshannon mines?—A. Not that I know of he was not.

Q. Are you certain you paid Zentmyre your tax on Saturday?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 49.

Q. Where were you born?—A. England.

Q. Have you been naturalized?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because it is not competent to prove naturalization by parol proof; witness must either produce certificate of naturalization or a certified copy of record of the court in which he was naturalized.)

A. Yes.

Q. When?—A. I don't remember; I can't tell.

(Counsel for contestant objects to any and all questions for the proving of naturalization by parol proof.)

Q. About how many years ago?—A. I don't know; I can't remember; I can produce the papers if necessary; it was over five years ago.

Q. Were you or not naturalized more than five years before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I was certainly.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, your wife and family reside in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for more than one year preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you paid such tax at least one month before November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months before?—A. I don't know exactly; I paid my 1878 taxes before I paid my 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt and will you give date of payment from your receipt of your State and county tax for 1878?—A. Yes, sir; January 24, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay such tax?—A. Thomas Henderson, collector.

Q. Had you voted in Woodward Township for five years and more preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you naturalized; in what court?—A. In Huntingdon County.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where were you born?—A. England.

Q. How long have you lived in this country?—A. I came to this country in 1863.

Q. How long have you resided in Pennsylvania?—A. Sixteen years.

Q. How long have you resided in Clearfield County?—A. Five years.

Q. How long had you resided in the election district of Woodward Township previous to November 5, 1878?—A. Two years.

Q. Have you your naturalization papers with you?—A. Yes, sir; (naturalization papers produced.)

Q. Did you show this certificate of naturalization to the election officers of Woodward Township when you offered your vote on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to because it is an improper question which counsel for contestee has no right to ask or witness to answer.)

A. I don't know the names of all I voted for; for Congress I voted for Yocum.

Q. Had you voted before in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you produced your naturalization papers before to the election board of Woodward Township?—A. I could not say; I don't know; I had to part of the board previous to the election.

Q. Were the election board or any of them acquainted with you, and did they not know or did they that you had been naturalized?—A. Yes, they did know it.

Recross-examined:

Q. Had you for five consecutive years voted in the election district of Woodward Township, and did you each time you voted produce before the proper election officers your certificate of naturalization as required by law?—A. No, sir; I did not vote five years in succession; I did not so produce the papers; I think not.

Q. Was your vote challenged on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you interrogated by the election board as to whether you were naturalized or not?—A. I was sworn as to my taxes, not as to my naturalization papers; I was called in by the board and sworn as to my taxes; there were no questions asked me about my naturalization papers.

Re-examined:

Q. I understand you to say, do or do I not, that the board knew that you were naturalized and you were simply required to make proof of payment of taxes?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because witness has just sworn that he did not produce his certificate of naturalization before the board, and therefore they could have no legal knowledge as an election board of witness's naturalization, the knowledge of the board as individuals not being available as competent proof of witness's naturalization.)

A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined :

Q. From whom did you get your ticket on the day of election, November 5, 1878?—A. John Trueman.

Q. Is John Trueman a Democrat, Republican, or National Greenbacker?—A. A Republican.

Q. Did you read your ticket carefully before voting it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for county commissioner?—A. I don't remember his name.

Q. For whom did you vote for county treasurer?—A. I don't remember.

Q. For whom did you vote for member of the assembly?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Have you had any conversation with any person, either before or since you were subpoenaed as a witness in this case, in relation to how you had voted for Congress?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you ever told any person before coming here upon the witness stand that you had voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, I have said that I voted for Yocum.

Q. How do you know you voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. For this reason, that the biggest contest was between those parties, make me remember it, and I could read the ticket for myself.

And further saith not.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Adams County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, your wife and family, resided in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir, I had; I paid about $115 about the 15th of last September.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election.

(Objected to because it is an improper question and one which counsel for contestee should not ask nor witness answer.)

A. If my memory serves me right it was for Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you or are you not certain that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I am certain I did.

Q. Are you or not well acquainted with localities and distances in said Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were or were not William Luther and J. M. Lehman justices of the peace for and residing in Woodward Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; they were.

Q. At whose house was the election held in Woodward Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Thomas Henderson's, in a stone house of his on his lot.

Q. How far did William Luther then live from Thomas Henderson's, the election place?—A. Three miles.

Q. How far did J. M. Lehman then live from Henderson's, the election place?—A. One mile and a half.

Q. Had you or had you not also paid State or county taxes during the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was the tax you paid Thomas Henderson, collector of Woodward Township, a personal tax or a tax on real property?—A. On real property.

Q. To whom did you pay your tax for 1877?—A. John Malee, in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was John Malee tax collector?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time in the year 1877 did you pay your State and county tax to John Malee?—A. About June court, 1877, just before court.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am fifty-nine years old.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Wales.

Q. Have you or have you not been naturalized?

(Objected to because it is not competent to establish witness's naturalization by parol proof; witness must either produce certificate of naturalization or certified copy of record from the court that granted his naturalization.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were you naturalized?

(Objected to for the reasons given above.)

A. Fifteen years ago.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived in said Woodward Township?—A. Six years.

Q. Had you, your wife and family, resided in the election district of Woodward continually for one whole year and more immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you pay it, and to whom?—A. I paid it (tax-receipt produced by witness), of which the following is a copy:

“WOODWARD Tp., April 3, 1878.

“Received of Thomas M. Williams one dollar and five cts. State and county tax for the year 1877.

“J. G. HIGGINS, Col.”

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or did you not vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress at said election?

(Objected to as the question is an improper one, and counsel for contestee has no right to ask or witness to answer it.)

A. Yes, sir: I did vote for Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Who did you get your ticket from that you voted?—A. Thomas Davis.

Q. Was or was not Thomas Davis on said election day working for Yocum and giving out Yocum tickets?—A. Umph! Umph! Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Did you or not vote the ticket that Thomas Davis gave you?—A. Yes; I did.

Q. Did or did you not ask Thomas Davis for a Yocum ticket for Congress?—A. No; I did not ask him.

Q. Did you or did you not want to get a Yocum ticket to vote?—A. I just go up to vote and take them from my own notion. Yes, sir; I want' to vote for Yocum.

Q. For how many years have you been voting in said Woodward Township?—A. About five or six years.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you your naturalization papers with you?—A. Yes, sir; but I forgot to bring them. I have them at home. I had them at the polls when I voted for Yocum and had to show them.

Q. You say you got the ticket you voted on November 5th from Thomas Davis; did you read it carefully before voting?—A. I got the ticket from Davis, but I cannot read.

Q. Then you don't know of your own knowledge whether you voted for Yocum for Congress or not?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you a Democrat or a Republican?—A. A Republican.

Q. Did Thomas Davis tell you that the ticket he gave you was a Yocum ticket?—A. No; he did not.

Q. Did you ask Thomas Davis for a Yocum ticket?—A. No, sir; I did not. He gave me the ticket and told me to vote it. He told me to-day it was a Yocum ticket.

Q. Is that all the knowledge you have of voting for Yocum, what Thomas Davis told you?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Then do you or do you not always vote the Republican ticket?—A. Always, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I was 56 last February.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Wales.

Q. Have you been naturalized?

(Objected to all questions looking to the proof of witness' naturalization, unless he first produces his papers or certificate of naturalization or a certified copy of record from the court from which he was naturalized.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how long ago was you naturalized?—A. About fifteen years.

Q. When?—A. Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, on the 10th of August, 1864.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year, and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How often have you voted in said Woodward Township?—A. I guess I have voted there about four times.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces receipt, dated September 23, 1878, for State and county tax for 1878, paid to Thomas Henderson, collector.)

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in the election district of said Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not vote at said election for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?

(Question objected to because it is improper, and one that counsel for contestee has no right to ask or witness to answer, and also because, if counsel for contestee insists upon answering such improper question, the form of it should be, "For whom did you vote for Congress?")

A. Yes, sir; I voted the Republican ticket; I guess his name was on it, but I could not swear to it.

Q. Did you or not vote the whole straight Republican ticket at said election?—A. Yes, sir; I voted it.

Q. From whom did you get your ticket that you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. From John Trueman.

Q. Did you or not intend to vote for Yocum for Congress, and do you or not, to the best of your knowledge, believe that you voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. I intended to vote the Republican ticket. I believe I voted for Yocum if his name was on the Republican ticket.

Q. After you got the full straight Republican ticket, did you scratch or not any name or names off of it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then, to the best of your knowledge, did you or not vote the whole full Republican ticket on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you show your naturalization certificate to the election officers of the Woodward election district when you offered your vote on the 5th of November last?—A. No, sir; they asked me for it, but I did not have it along with me. I had shown it then several times before that.

Q. Had you voted for five consecutive elections in the election district of Woodward Township prior to the one held on the 5th of November last; and, if so, did you each and every time produce before the proper election officers your certificate of naturalization?—A. I could not say that I did vote the five consecutive elections before that, and I don't believe I did produce the papers every time; I could not say how many times.

Q. Was not Seth H. Yocum the National Greenback candidate for Congress at the election held at Woodward Township on the 5th of November last?—A. I could not answer that question.

Q. Do you not know that he was not the Republican candidate for Congress at said election?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. You say you voted the Republican ticket at that election; then, if Seth H. Yocum was not the Republican candidate for Congress, is it not more than likely that you did not vote for him?

(Objected to as improper in form, as assuming that to be a fact which is well known to not be the fact, to wit, that Seth H. Yocum was not the Republican candidate for Congress; as argumentative; as not cross-examination, and as unfair to the witness for the reasons stated, and as immaterial, Seth H. Yocum's name for Congress having been printed upon both the Republican and Greenback tickets as candidate for Congress upon each.)

Counsel for contestant answers that witness has sworn that he voted the Republican ticket, and that if Seth H. Yocum was the Republican candidate for Congress he thinks he voted for him. The question objected to is proper, because Seth H. Yocum was not the Republican candidate for Congress; that there was no Republican candidate for Congress; that Seth H. Yocum's name was not printed upon all the Republican tickets, and that therefore witness cannot swear that he voted for Seth H. Yocum.)

A. Well, I did vote the Republican ticket, to the best of my knowledge; if his name was on the Republican ticket I did vote for him, and if it was not on it I did not vote for him.

Q. Then you cannot swear positively that you did vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress on the 5th of November last?—A. I cannot swear that I voted anything but the Republican ticket, not for any particular person on it.

Re-examined :

Q. Have you always voted the Republican ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you been voting on your naturalization papers since you got them in August, 1864?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived in said Woodward Township?—A. I have lived there over four years.

Q. Did you vote the ticket entire on November 5, 1878, that John Trueman gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many times have you voted on your naturalization papers, as near as you can tell?—A. I have voted on them, I guess, ten times.

Q. Were you not acquainted with the election board of Woodward Township at the election of November 5, 1878, and did they, or not, well know that you was a naturalized citizen?—A. I was acquainted with the biggest part of them, and they knew that I was naturalized.

Recross-examined :

Q. Had you voted in the election district of Woodward Township for five years prior to the 5th of November last; and, if so, did you each time produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. I don't think I did vote as many times as that, and I did not show my papers every time.

Re-examined :

Q. How long have you lived in Woodward Township?—A. Over four years. I came there in February, 1874, I think.

Q. Have you voted in Woodward Township at every fall election since you came there?—A. Yes, sir; I believe I have.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I was twenty-four on the 29th of January, 1879.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you resided in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Not for a whole year, I had not.

Q. Had you resided in said Woodward Township continuously for at least two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes; as near as I can tell.

Q. Have you always resided in the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not, within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, pay a State or county tax; and if so, to whom, and when?—A. Yes, sir, I did; my father paid it for me; here is the receipt. Receipt is dated October 1, 1877, for State and county tax for the year 1877, and signed by J. G. Higgins.

Q. Was J. G. Higgins collector of State and county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is or is not your father, by your instructions or directions, in the habit of paying your taxes?—A. He paid them, and that is about the first State and county tax I paid; he also worked my road tax out too.

Q. Do I not understand you that he paid a State and county tax to Higgins by your direction?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not you get your receipt for State and county taxes paid to said Higgins from your father about October 1, 1877, or within a few days thereafter?—A. I don't recollect when I got it; it was after, I think, a few days; I am not sure, though.

Q. Did you not get the receipt from your father sometime after October 1, and in the year 1877?—A. I got it in the year 1877.

Q. At the time you got the receipt, did you or not know that J. G. Higgins was the collector?—A. I know he was the collector.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or did you not at said election vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?

(Objected to because the question is an improper one, which counsel for contestee should not ask nor witness answer; also, if counsel for contestee insists upon answering such improper question, the form of it should be, "For whom did you vote for Congress?")

A. I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you any other tax receipt for State or county tax except the one produced by you upon the stand?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you yourself ever pay either a State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you or not vote on the tax receipt which you have presented and shown, at the general election in Woodward Township held in November, 1877?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you vote in November, 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I voted in that year.

Q. Did or did not the taxes which were paid Higgins entitle you to a vote in November, 1877?

(Objected to because the question asks the witness his opinion of the legality of his payment of tax.)

A. No, sir; I believe not.

Q. Did you or not pay yourself, to Higgins, 50 cents for your State and county tax?—A. Yes, sir; I believe I did, one night at the big meeting.

Q. Did you or not pay Higgins said tax of 50 cents at a church meeting some time during the winter of 1876?

(Objected to because it suggests to the witness the answer, and endeavors to lead him to say he paid the tax in the winter of 1876, when he the witness swears that he does not know when he paid it.)

A. No, sir; it was not in the winter at all.

Q. Was or was it not paid after the middle of November, 1876?

(Objected to because the counsel is trying to lead witness to swear to that which is not within his own knowledge; the proper question for counsel to ask witness would be, "State as near as you can what time in the year 1876 you paid this tax.")

A. I don't recollect what time it was paid; it was sometime in the fall, I don't know what month.

Q. Was or was it not paid after the Presidential election of 1876?

(Objected to because witness has already sworn that he does not know what month his tax was paid, and it is only another effort of counsel to compel the witness to swear to that which he does not know to be true.

Counsel for contestee protests against making any such statements under the cover of an objection so called, the question being fair, and proper, and material.)

A. It was paid before the Presidential election of 1876.

Recross-examined:

Q. State as near as you can what time in the fall of 1876 you paid the above-mentioned tax.—A. I can't tell you; but it was before the Presidential election of 1876, and I got a vote on it then.

Q. Did you authorize your father to pay the tax the receipt for which you have in your possession and exhibited on the stand?—A. Yes, sir, I did; he don't do such business without I tell him to.

Q. When did you pay your father the amount of tax called for by said receipt?—A. I never paid him the amount; I paid him money along; I never paid him the tax yet.

Q. Do you know, of your own knowledge, whether J. G. Higgins, the tax collector for Woodward Township, ever received the amount of tax named in receipt now in your possession and produced by you on the stand?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. How do you know he did?—A. Because he told me he got it from my father.

Re-examined:

Q. When did Higgins tell you that your father had paid your tax?—A. I don't recollect when it was. He told me my tax was paid, and I sent and told him I wanted a receipt before the date in the receipt.

Q. Did or did you not within a few months after your father paid Higgins your 1877 tax, pay to your father sufficient money for said taxes?—A. Yes, sir; I have done it.

Recross-examined:

Q. When did you get this receipt?—A. A short time after it was dated.

Q. From whom did you get it?—A. I got it at home; it was sent to me there, and I got it there.

Q. Was the money you paid your father after you got this receipt intended by you as a payment to him of the tax he paid for you?—A. Well, I don't know; I did not tell him what to do with it; he could do as he pleased with it.

Q. When you gave your father money, at any time, did you tell him that any part of it was to be applied to the payment of your taxes, the amount of which your father had advanced for you?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Re-examined:

Q. After your father paid your taxes for you, in accordance with your direction, did he hold these taxes against you?—A. No, sir, he did not; he never holds anything against me that I get from him.

Q. When you paid him the money did you pay it to him on account of this indebtedness?—A. If he wanted me to pay him for it he might take it for that; if not, he could do as he pleased; he never charges me for anything I get from him.

Q. Did you pay him enough money to cover these taxes?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Did you pay it to him more than one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I gave him money so many times I gave him enough to cover it before that time.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I was 21 years old on the 2d of September, 1878.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Philadelphia, Pa.

Q. How long have you resided in Pennsylvania?—A. I have been in Pennsylvania most all the time since I was born.

Q. How long had you resided continuously in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. About four years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township,

Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to for the same reason as that given in objection to the same question to preceding witnesses.)

A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you or did you not vote on age at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where do your father and mother live?—A. In Woodward Township.

Q. Do your father and mother keep a record of the births, deaths, and marriages that occur in their family?—A. No, sir; I believe not.

Q. Have they any record in which the day of your birth is recorded?—A. I could not say that.

Q. What year were you born?—A. In 1857.

Q. Upon what month and day?—A. On September 2.

Q. Who told you you were born on the 2d of September, 1857?—A. My father and mother often told me.

Q. You said in your direct examination that you had voted on age at the general election held November 5, 1878, for Woodward Township; what proof of your age did you make to the election board on that day?—A. I swore I was of age.

Q. Did you subscribe a partly written and partly printed affidavit to which you were sworn setting forth that you were between 21 and under 22 years of age, that you had resided in the election district of Woodward Township at least two months prior to the 5th day of November, 1878, that you were a citizen of the United States and of this commonwealth and that you had resided in said commonwealth at least one year immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you produce a citizen of Woodward Township, who was also a legally qualified voter of said township, who swore that he had known you two months and upwards, and that you had resided, to his knowledge, in the election district of Woodward Township at least two months last preceding the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you take any one before the board holding the election for Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878, who swore that you were over 21 and under 22 years of age?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then all the proof you made to the board holding the election for Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878, was your own unsupported oath of your right to vote on age?

(Objected to as argumentative and unfair to the witness.)

A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Were you well known to the election board?—A. They knew me. I don't suppose they knew I was of age, though, before I swore to it.

Q. Did they know your father well?—A. There was one man there knew him for some time; there might have been more; I am a single man.

And further saith not.

HENRY SALSURY sworn :

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is between 40 and 50, I think.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you the ticket you voted?—A. Theodore Van Dusen.

Q. Was it a Republican, Democratic, or what kind of a ticket?—A. It was a full, straight Republican ticket.

Q. If Seth H. Yocum was the Republican candidate for Congress, did you vote for him at that election?—A. Yes, sir; if he was the candidate I voted for him, for I voted the full ticket.

Q. Was or was not Theodore Van Dusen, who gave you the ticket you voted, an active supporter of Seth H. Yocum for Congress at that election?—A. I believe he was—I never asked the man—as far as I know.

Q. How long have you resided in Woodward Township?—A. I believe it will be three years in April.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, did you and your family continuously reside in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. We have lived together all the time since I came there, about three years in April next.

Q. Had you, within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and more than one month before said election, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months before that election; and, if so, when, and to whom?—A. Yes; I had. I paid Henderson, in 1878, my State and county taxes, and paid them to him I cannot tell when—what time of year it was; in the fall some time. The year before that (1877) I paid my State and county taxes to Joseph Higgins, who was then collector for Woodward Township.

Q. How long was it before the fall election of 1877?—A. I can't exactly tell.

Q. About how long was it before the election of November, 1877, and was it during the fall or the summer of that year, that you paid these taxes to Higgins?—A. I believe it was about Christmas time.

Q. Christmas of what year?—A. Of 1877, I think.

Q. It was then after the election of November, 1877, was it not?

(Objected to because it is too leading.)

A. It was before it. It is the last election I refer to, when Yocum and Hoyt were running.

Q. Then when you said you paid Higgins before the election of November, 1877, did you or did you not mean that it was before the election of November 5, 1878, when Yocum and Curtin were candidates?—A. Yes; that is what I meant.

Q. Was it the Christmas before that election, when Curtin and Yocum were candidates, that you paid these taxes to Higgins, according to the best of your recollection?—A. I believe it was.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Ireland.

Q. How long have you been in Pennsylvania?—A. I have been here about twenty-five years.

Q. Are you naturalized?

(Objected to because it is not competent to prove witness's naturalization by parol proof; witness must either produce his certificate of naturalization or a certified copy of record from the court in which he was naturalized.)

A. I have got my first papers, and last, too.

Q. Were you naturalized?

(Objected to any and all questions looking to the proof of witness's naturalization other than in the manner and form prescribed by law.)

A. I could not say.

Q. Was it more than one year ago?—A. Yes, sir; more than twenty since.

Q. I understand you to say that you were naturalized more than twenty years ago?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you naturalized?

(Objected to for the same reasons given before.)

A. In Norristown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you voted on your naturalization papers ever since you were naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At how many elections in Woodward Township did you vote on them?—A. I could not exactly say whether it was two or three.

Q. Was your vote challenged or questioned at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; it was not; but at the Presidential election it was, and I handed my papers and tax-receipts in.

Q. Was your name on the registry list for Woodward Township for 1878?—A. I could not say, indeed.

Cross-examined:

Q. Who was the Republican candidate for Congress at the election held for Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I don't know.

Q. Do you not know that there was no Republican candidate for Congress at that election?—A. I could not tell you whether there was or not.

Q. Did you go to Mr. Vandusen for your ticket on that day?—A. I was there in the store, and he handed me a ticket after asking me if I had voted.

Q. Did you tell Mr. Vandusen that you wanted to vote for Seth H. Yocum, the National Greenback candidate for Congress?

(Objected to as unfair to the witness, and also because Seth H. Yocum was the Republican as well as the Greenback candidate for Congress.)

Counsel for contestant desires to make the statement on record that Seth H. Yocum was the national Greenback candidate for Congress; that he neither on the 5th of November, 1878, or at any other time, was he the candidate of the Republican party of the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania; that there was no Republican candidate for Congress in said district at said election; that the conferees who were the official representatives of said Republican party in said twentieth Congressional district, met for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of Congress, but adjourned without action, and that statements of counsel for Seth H. Yocum, who answers to the contestee in this case, that he was the Republican candidate for Congress in the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania on the 5th of November, 1878, are untrue in fact, and are calculated and intended to mislead illiterate and ignorant witnesses on the stand.

To which counsel for contestee states all of the foregoing statements by counsel for contestant is untrue in fact, and so palpably so as to be incapable of misleading any one.)

A. I did not.

Q. Then you don't know whether you voted for Seth H. Yocum or not?—A. I told you I voted a full ticket.

Q. Then you don't know whether you voted for S. H. Yocum or not?—A. If he was on the ticket I voted for him.

Q. Have you your naturalization papers with you?—A. Not on me, they are in the house.

Q. Had you your naturalization certificate with you at the election held on the 5th of November, 1878, and did you show it to the proper officers holding the election for Woodward Township on that day?—A. I had it with me, but they did not ask for it and I did not show it.

Q. How often have you voted in the election district of Woodward Township?—A. I believe, three times.

Q. How often were you required to produce before the board your certificate of naturalization?—A. Only once.

Q. Were you asked by the election board of Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878, when you offered to vote, whether you had within two years, and more than one month next preceding said 5th day of November, paid either a State or county tax?—A. No, sir; they asked me no question of the kind.

Q. Then you were not required by the said election board to produce any proof of your legal qualifications as a voter?—A. They did not.

Q. When did you pay a State or county tax for 1876?—A. I cannot tell you for sure.

Q. When did you pay your State or county tax for 1877?—A. I could not exactly tell; I have not the receipt with me.

Q. When did you pay your State and county tax for 1878?—A. I could not tell.

Q. Will you swear positively that you had paid either a State or county tax within two years, and more than one month prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and where did you first file the declaration of your intention to become a citizen of the United States?—A. In Norristown; I can't tell when.

Q. How long after filing such declaration did you receive your final certificate of naturalization?—A. I believe it was between five and six years from when I filed my first papers till I got my last in Pottsville.

Q. Did you receive your final certificate of naturalization from the court of common pleas for Schuylkill County, or were they granted you by the mayor of the city of Pottsville?

(Objected to as highly improper, unfair to the witness, and used for the purpose of misleading him in his testimony.)

A. Granted by the court at Pottsville.

Re-examined:

Q. Were you well acquainted with the officers who held the election in Woodward district on November 5, 1878?—A. I believe I would not know a man if they would come in here.

Q. Was Joseph G. Higgins or Thomas Henderson present at that election when you voted?—A. Henderson is a man I never knew till he came for the tax last fall, and Higgins I did not see there at all.

Recross-examined:

Q. What time in the fall of 1878 was it that Thomas Henderson called on you for your tax?—A. I can't exactly tell.

Q. Was it more than one month before the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes; I believe it was.

Q. Are you sure it was more than one month?—A. No; I am not sure

Q. Was the election board of Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878, composed of the same gentlemen as the election board who held the election for that township on the 7th day of November, 1876, to whom you say you showed your certificate of naturalization?—

A. I could not tell you; I did not know a man of them.

Re-examined :

Q. In answer to the last question when you said you did not know a man of them, who did you refer to?—A. I did not know none of them.

Q. Do you know whether the officers who held the election in 1876 knew you, or knew whether you had been naturalized?—A. I could not say.

Q. Do you know whether the officers who held the election on November 5, 1878, knew you or not, or knew whether you were naturalized?—

A. I could not tell you whether they did or not.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am twenty-eight years old.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. Single.

Q. How long did you live continuously in the borough of Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. About six years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to for same reason as contained in former objection to same question.)

A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I did, sir.

Q. When and to whom did you pay said tax?—A. To Pat Dugan, collector, some time in September; I can't exactly tell when; it was in sufficient time, however, to allow me to vote.

Q. Was it more than one month or less than one month before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. It was more than one month.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did Dugan give you a receipt at the time you paid your taxes?—
A. He did.

Q. Have you that receipt with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where is it?—A. It is in my office.

Q. Will you produce it?—A. I will. (Receipt produced by witness.)

Q. You said in your examination-in-chief you had paid a State or county tax to Pat Dugan, collector of taxes for Houtzdale Borough, in September, 1878. Look at that receipt, and tell me the date of it.—A. Witness takes receipt and reads as follows, viz: "October 1, 1878." I said in my examination-in-chief "I think in September."

Q. In whose handwriting is the receipt produced by you?—A. In my own.

Q. State whether it is usual with Mr. Dugan to get other parties to write his receipts for him.

(Objected to as not cross-examination and as immaterial.)

A. I do not know.

Q. Did you pay Pat Dugan this tax on the day and date marked on that receipt?—A. I did, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation since you have been subpoenaed in this case, and before you came upon the witness-stand, in relation to whom you had voted for for Congress on the 5th of November last?—

A. I had.

Q. Have you told any one that you were not quite certain for whom you had voted for Congress at that election?—A. I did.

Q. Who did you tell?—A. I told Mr. Murray.

Q. What did Mr. Murray say to you when you told him about your doubts upon that subject?—A. He told me I need not hesitate to tell him, as he was interested for Yocum.

Q. What was the cause of your expressing such doubts to Mr. Murray?—A. Because I could not answer, just at the moment he asked me the question, without thinking.

Q. Did Mr. Murray assist your memory by telling you the names of the candidates for Congress?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any doubts now as to whom you voted for for Congress?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long is it since you expressed this doubt to Mr. Murray?—A. Near about an hour ago.

Q. What has occurred in that brief space of time to change your doubts into certainty?—A. Nothing, any more than when thinking the name came right to me.

Q. Was Mr. Yocum's name written or printed upon the ticket you voted?—A. Printed, if I recollect right.

Q. Could you have told one hour ago whether the name of Mr. Yocum was written or printed upon your ticket?—A. Just as easily then as now.

Q. Was not that about the time at which you had some serious doubts as to whether you voted for Mr. Yocum at all or not?—A. Yes; just for the moment.

Re-examined:

Q. Did your doubt arise from your inability at the moment to recall the name or your failure to know how you voted?—A. From my inability to recall the name.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness, first, because we have not had legal and sufficient notice.)

Witness withdrawn, and it is agreed that witness shall be sworn and his testimony taken on Monday the 24th or Tuesday the 25th days of March, 1879, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 12 p. m., with same effect as if due and regular notice thereof had been served upon contestant. This agreement made March 21, 1879, for the reason that the notice already served named the witness T. T. Davis instead of T. D. Davis.

GEO. R. BARRETT, JR.,
Of Counsel for Contestant.

THOS H. MURRAY,
For Contestee.

J. B. HAMILTON sworn.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is forty years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in said Houtzdale Borough continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—

A. I did.

Q. Have you ever been married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you, within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—A. I did.

Q. To whom and when?—A. To John Malee. I finished paying it in September, 1878.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Houtzdale Borough at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to because the question is an improper one which counsel should not ask or witness answer.)

A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. When did you pay the State or county tax referred to to Malee? and state more fully than you did before when you first paid to him the payment which you afterwards completed as stated.—A. I think, as near as I can tell, in June, 1878, I made one payment; July, 1878, another; and finished paying in full in September, 1878, and received my receipt.

Q. Did it take all these three payments to complete the whole State and county tax which he had against you?—A. It did not; but he called on me a couple of times when I was short of money. These three payments cleared up all my tax in full; it took all these three payments to complete the payment of the whole State and county tax he had against me. I at first misunderstood the question.

Q. Can you state what year's tax that was?—A. I could not be positive, but I might have been in arrears some for 1877.

Cross-examined:

Q. How much tax did you owe Mr. Malee altogether; that is, how much did you pay him in the three times you mentioned in your direct examination?—A. My receipt called for $3.50 I am sure.

Q. How much did you pay him the first time?—A. A dollar and a half.

Q. How much did you pay him the second time?—A. One dollar.

Q. How much did you pay him the third and last time?—A. One dollar.

Q. Was this all personal tax?—A. No, sir; it was part on my real estate, and part on my personal property.

Q. How much of it was personal tax and how much on your real property?—A. I could not tell you, sir.

Q. Are you quite sure that any part of this tax was a personal tax?—A. I could not tell you sure.

Q. Have you the receipt given you by Mr. Malee?—A. I have not, sir.

Q. What has become of the receipt?—A. I have mislaid it somehow.

Q. Can you state from your recollection of the contents of the receipt whether it purported to be a receipt for State and county tax or not?—A. It did; I read it.

Q. Did it say anything else but that the collector has received from you $3.50 for State and county tax?—A. Nothing, but in full.

Q. When did you pay the tax upon your property in the borough of Houtzdale for the year 1877?—A. I cannot recollect the time exactly.

Q. When did you pay the tax upon your property in the borough of Houtzdale for the year 1878?—A. I finished paying it in September.

Q. You have just stated that the tax you finished paying in September, 1878, was your State and county tax; did you then make separate payments to the number of three each, for both your State and county tax and the tax upon your property?—A. I did.

Q. Did you get two receipts from the collector for such separate payments?—A. No, sir; one.

Q. How do you reconcile this answer with the one you made to a former question, in which you stated that the receipt given you by the collector was for State and county taxes only?—A. I don't think I made that statement; did I?

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is 26 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. England.

Q. Have you been naturalized or not?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because his certificate of naturalization is the best evidence, and parol proof cannot be given to establish the fact it is sought to establish until it shall have been shown that his certificate of naturalization has been lost or destroyed.)

A. I voted on age on the strength of father's papers.

Q. Was your father naturalized?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the reason that the certificate of his father's naturalization is the best evidence, and the fact sought to be established by the testimony of the witness cannot be established by parol proof until it shall have been shown that his father's certificate of naturalization, which is the best evidence, on the records of the court from which such certificate was issued, have been lost or destroyed.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When?

(Objected to for same reasons as in objection to preceding question.)

A. In 1872.

Q. Was you or not under twenty-one years of age when your father was naturalized?—A. Yes, sir; I was under twenty-one years.

Q. When you say “you voted on age, on the strength of your father’s papers,” do you not mean that being under twenty-one years when your father was naturalized you have since voted on the strength of his papers?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the witness has testified that he voted at the election of November 5, 1878, on age, on the strength of his father’s papers, and because the question is leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you and your wife resided in the election district of said Houtzdale Borough continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No; I was married on election day.

Q. Have you so resided yourself?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the election district of said Houtzdale Borough continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir; there is the receipt.

Q. When and to whom did you pay such State and county tax?—A. May 31, 1878, to D. McGaughey, county Treasurer.

Q. Was McGaughey treasurer of Clearfield County when such tax was paid to him?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and the answer thereto because it is not the best evidence.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Houtzdale Borough at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you pay a State or county tax yourself, personally?—

A. I can’t say I ever did personally.

Q. Then you did not, did you, pay the State and county taxes for which you have a receipt dated May 31, 1878, yourself to Treasurer McGaughey?—A. No, sir.

Q. When were you born?—A. In 1852, December 6.

Re-examined:

Q. At what age did you come to this country?—A. I landed here in July, 1866.

Q. Who paid your tax for you for which you had the receipt dated May 31, 1878?—A. Father.

Q. Does your father reside in this vicinity, and if so, how long?—A. He resides here and has since 1871.

Q. Did you direct or authorize your father to pay those taxes for you, and did you pay your father or settle with him for it?—A. I directed him and settled with him for it; he always pays our taxes.

Recross-examined:

Q. When did you direct him to pay these taxes which he paid to McGaughey on May 31, 1878?—A. He does this work for us all the time; it is always understood that he is to pay our taxes in time every time they come due; we notify him every year to pay them for us in time.

Q. When did you settle with your father for the taxes he paid McGaughey on the 31st of May, 1878?—A. He is settled with always; sometimes he is settled with before and sometimes afterwards.

Q. Then you have never had any particular settlement with him in reference to these taxes which he paid for you on May 31, 1878, have you?—A. No.

Re-examined:

Q. I understand you to say that you notify your father each year to settle your taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you so notify him in 1878, and before he paid these taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you settle your taxes with your other accounts and dealings with him from year to year?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Was your father indebted to you on May 31, 1878, the time when he paid these taxes for you?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Can you say exactly how your accounts stood and which way the balance stood at that time or not?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason witness has already answered, and because it is leading.)

A. No, sir.

JESSE DIGGINS affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is about 38 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you and your wife resided in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when?—A. To David McGaughey, the county treasurer in 1876 and 1877, and I think I paid in 1878 to Thomas Henderson.

Q. Did you vote in the said election district of Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?

(Objected to as the question is an improper one, and one which counsel ought not to ask nor witness answer.)

A. Yocum; I mean Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you with you the receipts of County Treasurer McGaughey for the tax you say you paid him for the years 1876 and 1877?—A. No, sir; they are at home—in my safe at the office at home.

Q. Have you any other tax-receipt for any other year with you?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. Have you paid any other tax except the tax you say you paid David McGaughey, treasurer of Clearfield County, for either of the years 1876, 1877, or 1878? I mean State or county tax.—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you take an active part in the election of Congressman on the 5th of November last?

(Objected to as immaterial and not cross-examination.)

A. I tried to induce every one to vote for Seth H. Yocum that I could.

Q. Did you receive any money from any source whatever to use for the purpose of securing votes for Seth H. Yocum at that election?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Houtzdale Borough; my age is between 22 and 23 years.

Q. When were you 22?—A. On the 15th of last August.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Houtzdale Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you resided in said borough of Houtzdale continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did your father pay for you by your direction a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878, and at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election in the election district of Houtzdale Borough on November 5, 1878?

(Objected to for the same reason as that urged in the case of Jesse Diggins.)

A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Cross-examined:

Q. When were you born?—A. On the 10th day of August, 1856.

Q. Did you authorize your father to pay the tax for you in September, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Was the tax which your father paid for you, assessed at least two months before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I am about 38 years old.

Q. Where were you born?—A. England.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

(Question objected to because it is not competent to establish the naturalization of witness by parol proof; witness must either produce the papers or a certified copy of record from the court from which it was issued.)

Q. When and where?—A. In Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the 28th of September, 1874.

Q. Have you your naturalization certificate with you?—A. Yes, sir.
(Witness examines naturalization papers.)

Q. By whom is said certificate signed, and is the seal of the court of Clearfield County attached thereto?—A. A. C. Tate, prothonotary, and the seal of the court is attached to it.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax; and, if so, to whom and when?—A. Yes, sir; to Joseph J. Higgins; my 1877 tax I paid in September, but I have no receipt for that; my 1876 tax was also paid.

Q. Do you or not mean that you paid your State or county tax assessed for the year 1877 to Higgins in September, 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of said Woodward Township; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; and for Seth H. Yocum for Congress.

Q. On November 5, 1878, did you or not give to Edward Lloyd, sr., a ticket upon which was Seth H. Yocum's name for Congress?—A. I did.

Q. Did you or not distribute and give to a number of persons Yocum tickets for Congress?—A. I did, sir.

Q. Did you or not distribute or give to any person or persons any tickets for Congress except Yocum tickets?—A. No, sir, not one; they were all Yocum tickets I distributed.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have you resided in the election district of Woodward Township?—A. Since 1873.

Q. How often had you voted in the election district of Woodward Township upon the certificate of naturalization granted you by the court of common pleas of Clearfield County prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I voted in 1875 and every poll since.

Q. Did you on the 5th of November last, when you proffered your vote to the proper officers holding the election for Woodward Township, produce before them your certificate of naturalization?—A. No, sir; I was not asked for them.

Q. Were you asked by said election board whether you had within two years and more than one month prior to said 5th day of November, 1878, paid either a State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then the election board required of you no proof that you were a properly qualified elector and entitled to vote in the election district of Woodward Township?—A. They knew me there at that board, every one of them.

Q. Did they know that you had paid a State or county tax in the manner and form prescribed by law?—A. I believe they did; they had challenged my receipt in the spring, and it was justified by Higgins then.

Q. Had you for five years consecutively voted and exhibited when offering to vote your certificate of naturalization to the proper election officers holding elections for the election district of Woodward Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Edward Lloyd, sr., vote the ticket you say you gave him on the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; I believe he did.

Q. Did you see him vote it?—A. Yes, sir; he voted the ticket I gave him.

Q. Did you go directly to the polls with Edward Lloyd, sr., after giving him his ticket, and did you see him vote that ticket?—A. I did not go directly with him because there was a crowd at the window. I kept my eye on him and saw him put it in.

Q. If he had so desired, could he not have substituted another ticket for the one you gave him without your knowing it?—A. No, sir; I don't think he could; the ticket was bent a little at the side.

Q. Did the ticket he put in the window have the peculiar curve you describe?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Were you or not well acquainted with the election board, and did they or not well know that you were a naturalized citizen?—A. Yes, sir; I was acquainted with them and they knew I was a naturalized citizen.

CHRIST. FREDERICK sworn.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; aged forty-seven years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to for the same reasons as those urged against former questions of like character to preceding witnesses.)

A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax during the year 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay that tax before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I am satisfied that I paid it before the Presidential election of 1876.

Q. Did you pay it long enough before that election to entitle you to vote at that election?

(Question objected to because it does not appear that witness had not paid other tax within the two years immediately preceding the election of 1876, which would have entitled him to vote at that election.)

A. I think I did.

Q. Do you or do you not mean that you paid it at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you next pay any State or county tax?—A. The day of the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To Saml. Hegarty, collector of Beccaria Township.

Q. Then you had not paid any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, had you?

(Objected to because the question is leading.)

A. No, sir; I paid my taxes for two years in succession to Andy Malholm; the third year I did not know who the collector was. He never came near me until after I moved out of the township. That is the reason I had not paid within two years.

(Counsel for contestant proceeds to cross-examine witness while objecting to all the testimony of witness given in chief, for the reason that when counsel for contestee had asked witness for whom he had voted for Congress, and counsel for contestant had objected to the question for the same reason as that urged against similar questions in former objections, viz, that the question is improper until it shall have been first shown that the witness's vote was illegal, which had not been done, witness asked counsel for contestee whether he must answer said question, and before counsel for contestant could interpose, counsel for contestee improperly told witness that he must answer the question.

Counsel for contestee protests against the foregoing statement under cover of objection, as incorrect and unfair, for the reason that the witness has at no time expressed any objection or unwillingness to testify for whom he voted for Congress, but was instructed by notary to not answer until the question was written down, and when such question was written down the witness said "Must I answer?" meaning thereby, is it now time for me to answer, and nothing more than this was meant in the statement of the witness referred to in the foregoing objection. Also, for the further reason that this and all like objections by counsel for contestant are made for the purpose and with the intent to improperly influence witnesses, and to embarrass and delay counsel for contestee in developing their case under their rights in contested-election cases; the counsel for contestant having solemnly placed on record, while making out their case in chief, their opinion of the law, that a witness in like case was bound to answer, and having demanded of the same notary that a witness who had positively placed upon record his refusal to answer for like reason be instructed to answer.

Counsel for contestant, in reply to counsel for contestee, says that in regard to the question of whether a witness can be compelled to say for whom he voted for Congress, before his vote shall have been proven illegal, believes, after consulting the authorities and the other counsel connected with contestant's side of the case, that no witness under the laws of Pennsylvania can be compelled to testify for whom he voted for Congress until his vote shall have first been shown to have been illegal. Any other course tends to destroy the constitutional secrecy of the ballot, and is obnoxious and contrary to the statute laws of Pennsylvania.)

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you know you voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—

A. Because I had the ticket with his name on.

Q. Who did you get your ticket from?—A. Samuel Hegarty.

Q. Did you read it carefully before voting?—A. Yes, sir; I never voted a ticket yet without reading it.

Q. Who did you vote for for State senator?—A. I can't tell you now.

Q. Who did you vote for for county treasurer?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. Who did you vote for for county commissioner?—A. I don't remember.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I was twenty-five last 18th day of November.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in the year 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Before.

Q. Was it paid long enough before that election to enable you to vote upon that payment of tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you or do you not mean that it was paid at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

(Objected to as leading.)

Q. When did you next pay a State or county tax?—A. In 1878; last fall, on the day of the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Then you had not paid any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, had you?—A. Not that I mind of.

Q. Do you recollect or no of paying any State or county tax from the time you paid the tax which you think was over one month before the Presidential election of 1876, until you paid the tax on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I don't recollect now; I don't mind of any.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin or for Seth H. Yocum for Congress: which one of the two?

(Objected to because it is a question of privilege and the witness need not answer unless he sees fit so to do.)

Counsel for contestant, under the illegal ruling of the notary, who rules that the witness is bound to answer the question, instructs the witness not to answer said question, the counsel being G. R. Barrett, jr.

Counsel for contestee instructs the notary public to instruct the witness what to do.

Notary instructs the witness to answer.)

A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. How do you know you voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—

A. It was on the ticket.

Q. How do you know it was on the ticket?—A. I saw it on the ticket.

Q. Who was on your ticket for State senator?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. Who was on your ticket for county treasurer?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. Who was on your ticket for county commissioner?—A. I don't mind.

Q. Have you not told different parties since you were subpoenaed in this case before coming upon the witness-stand that you did not know for whom you voted for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878?—

A. Well, I might have told some of them that; but I generally tell the truth when I am on the stand.

Re-examined:

Q. Did any one try to get you to say or think that you did not know for whom you voted for Congress?—A. There was a man asked me out there and I told him I did not know for sure.

Q. Was there, or was there not, a good deal of talk about Curtin and Yocum at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Not very much that I heard.

Q. Did you vote for Philip Dotts or Lucien Bird for county treasurer; which one of the two?—A. Philip Dotts.

Q. Did you vote for S. Woods Caldwell or Cyrus T. Alexander for State senator?—A. I don't mind.

Q. What have been your politics, Democrat or Republican?—A. Democrat.

Q. Are you a son of Christ. Frederick, the last witness?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What have been his politics heretofore, Democrat or Republican?—A. Democrat.

Q. Do you know G. W. DeWalt, of Beccaria Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he at any time pay you any State or county tax; and, if not, what kind of tax did he pay you, and when?—A. He never paid me any State or county taxes until the 20th day of March, 1879, the State and county tax for the year 1878. He never paid me any directly himself; Mr. Glasgow or his father paid me some school tax, paid some for him.

Q. Did he ever pay you any kind of tax, or did any one ever pay you any kind of tax for him, except the school tax paid for him by Glasgow or his father, and the State and county tax for 1878, which he paid you March 20, 1879?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was or was not George W. DeWalt one of the inspectors of Beccaria Township who conducted the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I can't answer that question squarely; I think he was.

Q. What have been his politics heretofore, so far as you know?—A. So far as I know, I have understood it to be Democratic.

Q. What are the politics of his father and family, so far as you know? (Objected to as improper, immaterial, and irrelevant.)

A. I don't know, only from my understanding; I think they are Democratic.

Q. How long have you lived in Beccaria Township?—A. About 46 years.

Q. Who had charge of the duplicates and collection of State and county taxes immediately before you in Beccaria Township, and how long had such person charge of the duplicates, as nearly as you can tell?—A. Jackson Kinkead; and he had had the duplicates for at least 2 years.

Q. Did Peter Resil, of Beccaria Township, at any time pay you any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did John Burke, of Beccaria Township, at any time pay you any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. For what year were you collector of State and county taxes for Beccaria Township?—A. For 1878.

Q. Then you don't know whether or not George W. DeWalt, Peter Resil, or John Burke paid State or county tax for either the years of 1876 or 1877?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. You were questioned as to the politics of George W. DeWalt; were there not a number of Democrats in Beccaria Township who acted with the Greenback party at the November election of 1878?—A. I don't know that there was; not that I know of; there might have been, but I don't know; I think they stuck close to their party.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Gulich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 24 last June.

Q. How long had you been out of the State of Pennsylvania for some time before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I left on the 4th day of March, 1878, and came back on the 5th day of August, 1878.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. I was married on the 3d day of August last.

Q. What were you doing while away, and in what State were you?—A. I was working on a farm in the States of Wisconsin and Illinois.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Gulich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to because it is a privileged question, and the witness need not answer unless he sees fit so to do).

A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you, within two years preceding that election, paid a State or county tax?—A. I did. I have the receipt in my pocket now, dated September 12, 1878, from the collector of Gulich Township.

Q. Did you pay that tax on that day called for in the receipt?—A. As far as I know, except he dated it wrong.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you leave Pennsylvania March, 1878, with the intention of acquiring a residence in any other State?—A. No, sir; I only went on a visit.

Q. Then you had no intention of acquiring any other home in any other State except the State of Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you left Pennsylvania March, 1878, was it merely on a visit and with the intention of still retaining your residence in Pennsylvania?

(Objected to because the question evinces a purpose to mislead and contradict the witness inasmuch as he has already testified that he was out of the State working on a farm or farms.)

A. It was when I left; I did not know just when I should come back, but I was to come back before long.

Q. Did you ever vote or try to vote in any other State except Pennsylvania?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you always consider Gulich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, as your home?—A. Well, I have; I have been there for the last ten years.

Q. Did you ever leave it with the intention of making a home elsewhere?—A. I never have yet.

Q. Then your absence from Pennsylvania was merely a visit while you were away last summer?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you now consider and have for the last ten years considered Gulich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, as your home, and you have not in that time had a home elsewhere?—A. I have not, only when I was away, unless you consider that a home. I worked on a farm, then I did not consider that my home. I took nothing at all away with me.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, my parents tell me.

Q. Had you lived in Pennsylvania at least one year, and in the election district of Gulich Township for at least two months, prior to the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; it was always my home. I was in Pennsylvania for one year with the exception of the five months.

Q. Had you lived in Pennsylvania at least one year, and in the election district of Gulich Township for at least two months, prior to the 5th of November last?—A. Yes, sir; I never was out of the State only those five months in my life.

Q. You mean the five months you were away on a visit?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years and more than one month prior to the 5th of November, 1878, paid either a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined :

Q. Did you receive pay for the farming and work you did while West?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you with strangers, or among friends or relatives?—A. I worked for strangers; I first went to my relatives.

Q. Was not your home in the West during the five months you were there?—A. I did not calculate to call it my home only while I was there.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you take your trip out West for the purpose of seeing the country and your relatives?—A. I did.

(Counsel for contestant objects to all the foregoing testimony given by the witness, and named on the record as Aaron Osborne, whereas the witness swears that his name is Aaron Osman, of whose examination contestant has had no notice.)

Q. By what name are you generally known in Gulich Township?—A. Some calls me Osborne, and some calls me Osman, just as you have it; Osman is the right name.

Q. Are you not frequently called and known by the name of Aaron Osborne?—A. I don't know there is any difference; I am called as much by one name as the other.

Q. Is not your name written as often by other persons Aaron Osborne, as Aaron Osman?—A. Sometimes I get a letter Osman and sometimes Osborne.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 23 past.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you receive from any person shortly before that election a tax receipt; and, if so, when, and from whom?

(Objected to. Objection withdrawn.)

A. I did; from Matt. McAteer, on the day of the election.

Q. Had you paid the tax called for by that receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you paid any State or county tax within two years preceding that election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; the voting I did before was on age.

Q. Did you ever pay a State or county tax?—A. I did; I got a tax receipt from Mr. Henderson before the last township election of February, 1879.

Q. Did you ever pay any State or county tax before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did not.

Q. Do you know when that receipt which Matt. McAteer gave you was written?—A. My name was put on it the day of the election.

Q. Where was it; that is, at what place was your name put on?—A. At the election poll, near the election house.

Q. Who put it on?

(Objected to as improper, and should not be asked or answered.)

A. That I don't believe I can swear to.

Q. Who, according to the best of your knowledge, put your name upon that tax receipt?—A. Mr. Matt. McAteer.

Q. What date was on that receipt when you got it?—A. I can't say.

Q. Where is that receipt?—A. I destroyed it.

Q. When did you destroy it?—A. I can't tell the exact time.

Q. About what time?—A. About the time this trouble about this contested-election arose, or shortly after.

Q. Did any one speak to you in reference to destroying this receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was it?—A. Matt. McAteer.

Q. When?—A. About the time this contested-election matter was going on.

Q. About how many days ago?—A. To the best of my knowledge, it is more than a month.

Q. What did Matt. McAteer say to you on that subject?

(Question objected, because it asks witness to state the declarations of a third party, which is hearsay evidence and not competent.)

A. I would rather you would get Matt. McAteer to answer that question; I don't like to turn informer.

(Witness asks notary whether he is compelled to answer the question. Notary directs witness to answer it.)

He simply said to destroy the receipt, or something to that effect.

Q. What reason did he give for having you destroy that receipt?—A. He gave none, and I asked for none.

Q. How long after he asked you to destroy it did you destroy it?—A. To the best of my knowledge, about two or three weeks after.

Q. Did you not destroy it since you were subpoenaed as a witness in this case?—A. No, sir; I was subpoenaed this morning.

Q. When did you first learn that you would be called as a witness in this case?—A. When those parties were going to Clearfield; that is, the witnesses in this contest.

Q. How long ago was it?—A. I guess near two months.

Q. Was it not before the time that Matt. McAteer told you to destroy that receipt?

(Objected to because it is too leading.)

A. I believe I have sworn that before.

Q. Did you not learn that you were to be a witness in this case before Matt. McAteer told you to destroy that receipt?—A. To the best of my knowledge, I believe not.

Q. Did you not destroy the receipt since you first learned that you were to be a witness in this case?

(Objected to because witness has already sworn that he did not. Counsel for contestee protests against this statement under cover of this objection, for the reason that it is untrue.)

A. I can't swear that I did.

Q. Did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878, for Andrew G. Curtin or for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?

(Objected to, because witness may either answer the question or decline to answer the question as he pleases, as it is a question of privilege.

Witness asks notary whether he is obliged to answer the question.

Notary instructs witness to answer; and, further, that he refuses at his peril.)

A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant gives notice to counsel for contestee that after the unjust, unfair, and flagrantly illegal ruling of the commissioner, which appears as a part of the record in this case, which ruling was the result of the advice given commissioner by counsel for contestee, that hereafter all witnesses called before said commissioner will be examined against the protest of contestant's counsel; also, that Andrew G. Curtin, the contestant in this case, will, at the earliest practicable moment, in pursuance of his right under the act of Congress, nominate a commissioner to act in conjunction with the commissioner now taking testimony, William Radebaugh, because contestant's counsel truly believe that said William Radebaugh is controlled in his decisions by counsel for contestee, to the detriment and injury of contestant's case, and they also believe that it would be impossible to get the testimony of witnesses on record before William Radebaugh in that fair, free, and untrammelled manner that is a part of the spirit of the laws governing contested elections. This notice is given by G. R. Barrett, jr., and J. F. Snyder, attorneys).

Re-examined:

Q. Was Matt. McAteer a Democrat or a Republican?

(Objected to because witness could not possibly tell the feelings of Matt. McAteer).

A. I have heard that he was a Democrat; I never asked him anything about his politics.

Q. Who was he in favor of for Congress, Curtin or Yocum?—A. To the best of my knowledge he was in favor of the straight-out Democratic ticket.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live and what is your age?—Answer. Lloyds-ville, Cambria County, Pennsylvania; I am going on 27 years old.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held in the election district of Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election held in November, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not, or some one for you, pay a State or county tax at the September court in 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you, since September, 1876, paid a State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you agreed or not with Pat. Dugan, a collector of State and county tax, to pay it, and do you still intend to pay Dugan such tax?—A. If my vote is good, I will, and if it is not, I won't.

Q. When did you get a receipt from Dugan for State and county tax?—A. The day of the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of said Houtzdale Borough?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At said election of November 5, 1878, did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin or for Seth H. Yocum for Congress—that is, which of the two?—

A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined.

Q. Is Patrick Dugan a tax collector for Houtzdale Borough?—A. All I know he is a constable, but I don't know about collector.

Q. Did you have an agreement with him about your tax?—A. I said I would pay him the taxes providing he did not get paid.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. In 1876 I got my papers and my first vote, and I got my receipt for my State and county tax from Mr. McAteer, and last election, in November, I got a receipt from Dugan.

Q. How do you know you voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Because I read his name on the ticket.

Question. Have you been collector of State and county taxes for Beccaria Township, Pennsylvania, and, if so, for what years and when did you first get the duplicates and collection of said taxes?—Answer. I have been collector for the years 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, and 1877. I first got the duplicates in the fall of 1873—that is, the first one.

Q. Have you had charge of the collection of State and county taxes for that township ever since, until Samuel Hegarty became collector, in the fall of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has Dr. Caldwell, during that time, collected any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did William Ball pay you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; William Ball has not paid me any State or county taxes since the year 1875.

Q. Did John Burke pay you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He paid me State and county taxes in the year 1876; I don't believe I could fix the time at all; he paid it some time in that year for that year.

Q. State the time as nearly as you can, according to your own best recollection.—A. I think it was along some time in the forepart of 1877, because if it was paid after the 1877 duplicate came into my hands he would probably have paid both.

Q. Did George W. De Walt pay you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He paid me in 1876, but not in 1877.

Q. What is your best recollection as to the time he paid it?—A. He paid it some time in 1876; in the after part, some time in the fall.

Q. Did Peter Risel pay you any State or county taxes within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. He paid me in 1876, or John G. Glasgow paid it for him; that was the last night in order to be thirty days before the Presidential election.

Q. It was, then, in the first part of October, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has he paid you any State or county tax since?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Thomas Groom, jr., pay you any of his State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Thomas Groom, jr., paid me his tax in 1876, along in the fall, some time after the Presidential election of 1876.

Q. Are you clear whether it was before or after the Presidential election?—A. I don't like to say that matter positive, because I'm not certain.

Q. Did you give him a receipt?—A. I think not; not that I recollect of.

Q. Was that the only State or county tax he paid you that fall?—A. Yes; that was all.

Q. Was that his tax for the year 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that the last of his State or county tax that he paid?—A. That is the last of his own individual tax.

Q. Did he since then pay State or county tax for his father?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he since then pay you any State or county tax; and, if so, who was it for?—A. No, sir; but before that time he paid State and county tax for his father, George Groom, sr.

Q. How long before did he pay his father's tax?—A. It was some time last summer, and it was applied back to the 1875 duplicate.

Q. Then you mean to say that he paid his father's tax since the time he paid his own tax, do you not?—A. Yes, sir; I misunderstood the question before.

Q. Did he request you to apply that payment last summer to his father's tax, and did you so apply it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you not now remember that the tax which he paid in the fall of 1876, his own tax, was paid in time to enable him to vote at the Presidential election, and paid by John G. Glasgow with other taxes paid for other parties and for the same purpose?—A. Yes, sir; that was the time that ninety cents was paid; I remember the time, now you recall it to my recollection.

Q. Then you were mistaken, were you not, in saying that you thought it was paid after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes; I was mistaken.

Q. Was that tax that Glasgow paid for him in time to vote at the Presidential election of 1876 the last of his State or county tax which he paid?—A. Yes; that was the last.

Q. Did S. C. Schoff, known as Sides Schoff, pay you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Just state what occurred between you and him when you got ten bushels of corn from him, and what was said by you about it and his tax.—A. He asked me or said he would let me have the corn and wanted me to answer it on his taxes. I told him I would do so if I possibly could. I have never given him credit for it on his taxes.

Q. Why? Was it or not because you were unable to do so?—A. That was the cause of it, sir.

Q. There was, then, no positive agreement between you and him that you should credit the amount due him for said corn upon his State and county taxes, was there?—A. No, sir; there was no positive agreement.

Q. Did you ever agree to mark his taxes paid, or ever mark them paid, or give him credit in any way?—A. I have no recollection of anything of the kind, and I have never marked them paid.

Q. Was the only arrangement the one you have stated?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What are George W. De Walt's politics?

(Objected to because George De Walt himself was a witness, and he is the best evidence.)

A. A Democrat.

Q. Is he not well known to be such in Beccaria Township?—A. Yes, sir; he was raised a Democrat, and always been one.

Q. Was he not the Democratic inspector who acted as such at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Beccaria Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he not an active supporter of Andrew G. Curtin?—A. I suppose he was; I would not say positive.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did Lawson Shrock pay his State and county tax for 1877? (Objected to as not cross-examination and as immaterial.)

A. He paid that since the election of November 5, 1878; I have a positive recollection of that.

Q. Did Sides Shoff deliver to you the ten bushels of corn you spoke about in your examination-in-chief?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time did you have the conversation with Sides Shoff in relation to his giving you ten bushels of corn, the price of which he wanted you to apply to the payment of his taxes?—A. I don't remember the time; it was some time in 1876, after corn-husking.

Q. Did you tell him that you would give him credit for the price of the corn on his taxes?—A. I told him I would give him the credit for the corn on his taxes if I possibly could.

Q. Do you owe him for the corn yet?—A. Yes.

Re-examined:

Q. What time in the fall of 1876, as near as you can tell, did you have this conversation with him, and was it before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I am not positive whether it was before or after.

Q. What is your best recollection?—A. I think it was after the election. And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is fifty-nine years.

Q. Where was you born.—A. In the State of Ohio, in 1820.

Q. Are you married?—A. I am.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. We did; we have been there since 1852.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within the two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you well acquainted with the township line between Woodward and Boggs Townships, at the point where Stacy T. Bowman and Milton H. Hampton reside?—A. I am.

Q. How long have you known it?—A. I have known it there ever since there was a township line between Boggs and Woodward.

Q. On which side of that line did Stacy T. Bowman and Milton H. Hampton live on November 5, 1878, and in what township?—A. On the north side of the line, in Boggs Township.

Q. Have you ever known of any change in that line except for school purposes?—A. I have not; there are four or five tracts struck off Boggs into Woodward for school purposes, but I know of no other change.

Q. Do not these men themselves claim to reside in Boggs Township?—A. I could not say that I know they reside in Boggs.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant having been absent from the room when the preceding questions were asked witness in reference to the line between Boggs and Woodward Townships, at the point where Stacy Bowman and Milton H. Hampton resides, now objects to the question of counsel for contestee, and the answers of the witness thereto, for the reason that the records on file in the office of the prothonotary of Clearfield County are the best evidence of any change in the township line, and also of the purpose for which the lands upon which Stacy Bowman and Milton Hampton reside was annexed and made a part of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and parol evidence is not admissible or competent to prove the fact it is sought to prove by this witness until it shall have been shown that said records have been lost or destroyed, and parol evidence is not competent until it shall have been shown that all documentary proof has been lost or destroyed.)

Q. Does Milton Hampton live on what is known as the Philip Fisher farm, or on a farm taken from a tract of land known as the Philip Fisher tract?—A. I don't know the name of the tract, but it belonged to Philip Fisher.

Q. You do not pretend to say, do you, that the Philip Fisher farm was not annexed to Woodward Township for all purposes whatever before you came into the county?—A. I don't know anything about that; I know his buildings were in Woodward Township; they don't live in Fisher's buildings.

Re-examined:

Q. Do not Bowman and Hampton live across the line from the Fisher place from where Philip Fisher lived?—A. They do.

Q. Did not Fisher always live in Woodward Township, and on the Woodward Township side of that line?—A. Yes, sir; and died there.

Cross-examined:

Q. Does not Stacy Bowman and Milton Hampton live on the Philip Fisher farm?—A. Milton Hampton lives on the old improvement that was connected with the Fisher farm; Mr. Bowman moved still further into Boggs Township here, and I can't tell whether it belongs to that tract or not.

Q. Did you receive, or do you know of any moneys having been sent into Woodward Township to be used in the interest of Seth H. Yocum at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I never did, and don't know of a dollar.

Re-examined:

Q. Are not the Stacy Bowman and Milton Hampton improvements distinct from the Philip Fisher farm, and separated from the farm by the township line?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question for the reason the township line has not been established by the best evidence.)

A. They were separated from where Philip Fisher lived.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 46 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. England.

Q. At what age did you come to this country?—A. About eleven years old.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized?—A. No, sir; it was not necessary for me; father was naturalized.

Q. Why not?—A. Because I was under age when we came to this country; and then my father was naturalized.

Q. About how old were you when your father was naturalized?—A. I can't tell exactly; my father got naturalized as soon after he came to the country as he could.

Q. Your father would be naturalized, then, about five years after you got here, would he not?—A. He was naturalized as soon as he could lawfully be. I was young then, and don't remember much about it; father was here some time before I came.

Q. Do you remember whether it was before or after you got here that your father was naturalized?

(Objected to, because it is not proper to establish the naturalization of witness's father other than by the production of his father's certificate of naturalization from the court from which he was naturalized.)

A. I believe it was after, as near as I can remember.

Q. Was it a short or long time after?—A. A short time; there were several boys of us, and some of them was of age at the time father was naturalized; they got naturalized then, and the rest did not.

Q. Was it not because you were under age when your father was naturalized, that you were never naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you voted in Woodward Township?—A. Twenty years or more since I commenced to vote, and have voted ever since at every general election in Woodward Township.

Q. How long did you live continuously in Woodward Township immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I have lived there continuously for over twenty years.

Q. Are you married, and, if so, how long did your wife and family live there with you?—A. Yes, I am married; my wife and family have lived there with me for 22 years.

Q. Had you, within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir; here are my receipts paid to county treasurer June 20, 1877, and also receipt from Thomas Henderson for tax paid last summer; receipt has no date.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; for Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Is Woodward Township in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. At what part in the United States did your father land when he came from England?—A. Philadelphia.

Q. In what year?—A. I can't tell you what year. I was young.

Q. What part did you land at when you came to this country?—A. Philadelphia.

Q. What year was that?—A. I can't tell you exactly.

Q. How long was it after your father came?—A. I can't tell you; I think it was a year or more.

Q. Where in Pennsylvania was your father naturalized?—A. In Delaware County.

Q. Did he declare his intentions of becoming a citizen in Delaware County?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Did he get his final certificate of naturalization in Delaware County?—A. Yes, sir; in Old Chester.

Q. In what year did he obtain his final naturalization papers?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. How old were you at that time?—A. I was about twelve years of age, I suppose; a little over a year after I came here.

Q. Have you your father's naturalization papers in your possession?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you had them?—A. I have had them for twenty years, I know. I got them when he died, and he has been dead that long.

Q. What year did you first vote?—A. I voted for Buchanan for President first.

Q. Where did you vote?—A. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What proof of your father's naturalization were you required to make at that time?—A. To show father's papers.

Q. How often since that did you show your father's papers?—A. I have not shown them for a long time. I did take them several years.

Re-examined :

Q. What was your father's name?—A. Matthew Stott.
And further saith not.

MILLARD A. SHOFF sworn.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is twenty-three on the 10th of last September.

Q. Did you live in Woodward Township on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long before that election did you and your wife and children move out of that township before the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Twenty-nine days.

Q. To what township did you go?—A. To Knox Township.

Q. How far is it from the place where you lived in Woodward to where you moved to in Knox Township?—A. About five miles, I think.

Q. When did you move from Knox Township back to Woodward Township?—A. I made a mistake the other night. I moved back on the 28th of January, 1879.

Q. When you left the township had you a house of your own or a rented house?—A. A rented house.

Q. Where in Woodward Township was that house?—A. At the village of Amesville.

Q. To what place in Woodward Township did you locate when you moved back on the 28th of January, 1879?—A. At Madera or Puseyville, about two miles from Amesville.

Q. When you went away from Amesville you gave up your house at that place, did you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you rent a house at Madera when you went there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you rent that house at Madera?—A. In January, 1879, a few days before I moved there.

Q. Did you leave any of your goods in Woodward Township when you left there twenty-nine days before the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was it?—A. A couple of chairs, a churn, and some other small items.

Q. Can you name any other item?—A. I can't think just now.

Q. The rest of your goods you took with you, did you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What kind of a house were you living in when in Knox?—A. A dwelling house.

Q. What business did you do or carry on while in Knox?—A. I made timber and boarded men for Samuel Bush. I worked by the day and boarded his men for him.

Q. Where did you get your supplies during that time?—A. Part in Clearfield Borough and part in Houtzdale Borough.

Q. From the time you left Woodward Township until you returned from Knox Township did you do or carry on any business in Woodward Township?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. How often were you in Woodward Township during that four months?—A. About twelve times, I suppose.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township election district, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election, Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum, which one of the two?

(Objected to because it is a question of privilege which witness need not answer until it shall have been first shown that his vote was illegal, which has not been done in the case.)

A. I decline to answer that question.

(Notary public desires to state that witness did not refuse to answer until he had been instructed and advised by G. R. Barrett, jr., that the answering the question was a matter of privilege, and he could decline or answer said question as he thought fit. This instruction was given witness after notary had instructed him to answer the question.)

Q. What ticket did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878; Republican or Democratic?

(Objected to because this is only another form of asking the witness for whom he voted for Congress, which witness has already declined to answer.)

A. I decline to answer this question.

Q. Who gave you your ticket that you voted at that election?

(Objected to as another endeavor on the part of counsel to ascertain for whom witness voted for Congress, which the witness has already twice declined to answer.)

A. I decline to answer that question.

(Counsel for contestee protests against the counsel for contestant's course in advising and urging witnesses for contestee to not answer questions asked them, for the following reasons, to wit, for the reasons already stated in like protest to like objections and efforts to improperly influence witnesses in preceding examination and; also, as appears by the record of contestant's case in chief, contestant's counsel solemnly declared the law to be that a witness in like case was bound to answer whether his vote was proven legal or illegal, which record is as follows:

"February 11, 1879.—Benjamin Barr sworn.

"Q. Did you vote in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

"Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Is my vote illegal? I don't think I am bound to tell unless it is.

"(Counsel for contestant states this to be his position on the law in contested elections in reference to the testimony of witnesses: The counsel says he is of the opinion that no witness can, under the constitution and laws of this State and of the United States and under the rulings of the courts thereof, withhold his testimony in answer to the above question, or any other question of like nature, in proceeding or investigations of contested elections.)

"Whereupon the notary public instructed the witness to answer the question, which was done after the question being again asked:

"Q. For whom did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, for Congress, which said election is now being contested and investigated?—A. Well, I voted for Seth H. Yocum.”

Counsel for contestee having stated his reasons for protesting against the interference and efforts of contestant's counsel to improperly influence the witness, proceeds with his examination of witness.

Counsel for contestant objects to the above so-called extract from the testimony of Benjamin Barr, who was called and whose testimony was taken on part of the contestant, for the following reasons: First, for the reason that in the examination of Christ. Frederick, a witness called and examined on the part of the contestee, counsel for contestant then stated, in an objection or reply to a statement made by counsel for contestee, in substance as follows: “That no man or witness under the laws of Pennsylvania can be compelled to testify for whom he voted for Congress until his vote shall first have been shown to have been illegal, and that any other course tends to destroy the constitutional secrecy of the ballot, and is contrary to the statute laws of Pennsylvania.”

Counsel for contestant, after having given the subject further consideration, and after having carefully and diligently examined the laws of the United States and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the rulings and construction placed upon said laws by both the Federal and the State courts, and after consulting other counsel, all state as their opinion in reference to whether a witness can be compelled to disclose for whom he voted, viz, that no witness can be asked, or compelled to disclose, how he voted until it shall have been first shown that he was an illegal voter.

Counsel for contestant further state that in the case of Benjamin Barr, witness for contestant, no compulsory process was used in order to compel him to disclose how he voted.

Counsel for contestee says the foregoing explanation has its proper exposition in the fact that it is made by J. F. Snyder, who also conducted for contestant the examination of Benjamin Barr, just quoted from the record.)

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878, which election is contested and now being investigated?

(Objected to, because the same question has already been asked witness, and he, in the exercise of what he conceives to be his right under the law, has declined to answer.)

A. I would not answer it a while ago, and I am not going to answer it now.

Q. Do you decline to answer that question?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you or not been advised to not answer that question by persons outside of this room?

(Objected to as irrelevant and immaterial, it making no difference what advice witness has received on this subject, he having a perfect right to confer with counsel as to whether he is compelled to answer the question or not.)

A. No; I was told I could do as I pleased about answering the question.

Q. By whom were you so told?—A. By Mr. Patterson.

Q. Do you mean W. H. Patterson, the attorney-at-law of Houtzdale, who has his office or had his office in the same building with Matt. McAteer, the Democratic justice of the peace of Houtzdale?—A. I don't know where the man had his office, and I don't know whether that is his first name or not.

Q. Was the man who told you that a Democratic lawyer of Houtzdale?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he not advise you to not answer?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Did you tell him for whom you voted for Congress?—A. I don't remember whether I did or not.

Q. Do you state on oath that you don't remember telling Patterson for whom you voted for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I do state so on oath, because you asked me the question once and I told you.

Q. Did William Tucker, of Clearfield, talk to you at any time in reference to your testimony in this case?—A. Yes, sir; I believe he did.

Q. How long ago?—A. Friday evening, when I was here in town.

Q. What did he say?—A. Well, he said a good many things; well, about all he said to me was that I could do as I pleased about telling who I voted for for Congress.

Q. Was that all that he said to you?—A. I think that was all bearing on this case.

Q. Is William Tucker a lawyer?—A. I don't know whether he is or not.

Q. Which side of this fight has Tucker been fighting on?—A. Curtin's side.

Q. Which side of this fight is Patterson acting on?—A. Curtin's side, I believe.

Cross-examined:

Q. When you left Woodward Township and moved into Knox Township, did you go there for the purpose of remaining there permanently?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you consider Woodward Township your home?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. How long have you lived in Woodward Township?—A. About twenty-three years, except the time I was in Knox Township.

Q. What was your purpose in moving into Knox Township?—A. To board some men for Samuel Bush and make timber.

Q. Did you intend moving back into Woodward Township as soon as you finished your work for Bush?

(Objected to as putting a desired answer in the mouth of a witness who has already sworn that he has been tampered with by parties in the interests of contestant.)

A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Had you any intention of losing your residence in Woodward Township and acquiring a new one in Knox?

(Objected to because it is a question of law the witness is asked to decide.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have part of your household goods in Woodward Township when you left there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years and more than one month prior to the 5th day of November last paid either a State or county tax?—A. I paid my tax some time in the summer of 1878.

Q. Did you vote any place else in November last, except in Woodward Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you offer to vote any place else except in Woodward Township?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Then you considered Woodward Township your home and legal residence on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. You have testified that Mr. Patterson spoke to you in relation to answering the question of "for whom you voted for for Congress." Did he not tell you that you were not compelled to answer such a question until it should have been first proven that your vote was illegal?

(Objected to as putting a desired answer in the mouth of a witness whose own testimony shows that he has been tampered with, and for the further reason that he has already sworn that Patterson without any such qualification had told him he need not tell for whom he voted for Congress.)

A. Yes, sir; he told me I could do as I pleased about answering the question.

Q. Did you have any conversation with any one connected with the contestee in relation to the subject-matter of your testimony before you came upon the witness stand?—A. No; I believe not, without Asbury Chase is.

Q. Don't you know that Asbury Chase is here as one of the counsel for contestee?—A. No, sir; I did not know it.

Q. What did Mr. Chase say to you?—A. He told me I had better answer the questions asked me this forenoon, or they would send me to Pittsburg.

Re-examined:

Q. When you left that house at Amesville and moved to Knox Township, when did you intend to return to Woodward Township?—A. As soon as the job was done I was working at.

Q. Did you intend to return to that house?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you first make an arrangement for a house in Woodward, after leaving there to go to Knox?—A. A few days before I moved from Knox to Woodward.

And further saith not.

Q. Is that the man (pointing to Millard A. Shoff)?—A. No, sir; that is not the man.

Q. Did he have any conversation with you?—A. No, sir.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am twenty-three last January.

Q. How long did you live in Woodward Township continuously, immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. About twenty-two years—a little over; I was born and raised there.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. Single.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir; here is my receipt from Thomas Henderson, collector, dated September 30, 1878; I paid the tax on the day called for in the receipt.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Yes, sir; I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Do you know Millard A. Shoff, a witness called in this room a few minutes ago; and, if so, how long have you known him?—A. No, sir; I don't know him in particular; I had no conversation with him until to-day.

Q. Do you know him now?—A. By sight, that is all; I know him so as to recognize him, and know who he is.

Q. Had he any conversation with you between the time the hearing in this room adjourned for dinner, and the time the investigation began after dinner?—A. Yes, sir; he had.

Q. Did he in that conversation say for whom he voted for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878; and, if so, for whom did he say he voted?

(Objected to because Millard A. Shoff's assertions to a miscellaneous crowd, of which witness might have been one, is not competent proof of how or for whom he voted for Congress.)

A. He did not say for Congress, he said he voted for Curtin.

Q. How did he come to say this, and state herein particularly the conversation on that point?—A. I asked him there in the bar-room what they was going to do with him; he said he did not know hardly what; I said to him, "Who did you vote for?" and he kind of laughed and said, "Curtin."

Q. Did he say this to you individually or to a crowd?—A. No, sir; not to a crowd; he was talking to me individually.

Q. Did he say this in a low tone or a loud tone of voice?—A. Just common talk.

Q. Do you know what his politics are, or did he tell you?—A. No, sir; I don't know, and he did not tell me.

Q. What persons was he with mostly, during the adjournment for dinner; Curtin's friends or Yocum's?—A. I know not.

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you know the man with whom you had the conversation just described was Millard A. Shoff?—A. By hearing different men talk to him and call him by name.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with him before?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you in the habit of asking impertinent questions of people you don't know?—A. Not often; just through conversation I happened to talk to him.

Q. Did you ever see Millard A. Shoff before to-day?—A. Not that I remember of.

Q. How many Millard A. Shoffs are there in Woodward Township?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. Is it not possible that there are two Millard A. Shoffs in Woodward Township?—A. I can't tell you that.

Q. To whom did you communicate the remarkable conversation you have detailed on the witness stand?—A. To no one until here on the witness stand.

Q. Do you say upon your oath that you told no one of this conversation until you repeated it upon the witness stand?—A. I did not understand you; I made a mistake. I told it to a cousin of mine, Daniel J. Kline, and to Mr. Murray, and to W. A. Chase.

Re-examined:

Q. Is this man (pointing to Millard A. Shoff, the witness examined a few minutes ago) the man with whom you had that conversation?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is he the man who told you he voted for Curtin?—A. Yes, sir. And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 62.

Q. Are you a married man, and how long have you and your family resided in Woodward Township, continuously, immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir, I am married; we came there in 1852, and have resided there continuously ever since; about twenty-eight years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In State of Maine.

Q. Had you, within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before that election?—A. I think I did.

Q. Fix the time as nearly as you can when you last paid a State or county tax?—A. We pay all along; I paid some last summer to John M. Chase.

Q. What other tax did you pay within two years, and to whom?—A. To Joseph G. Higgins.

Q. Was Joseph G. Higgins collector of State and county taxes?—A. Yes, sir; that is what he claimed to be.

Q. Did you pay such tax to him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What year did you pay him such tax?—A. 1877, I think; I had to pay him double; I paid to the treasurer at Clearfield, and then I had to pay it here.

Q. What time in the year 1877 did you pay Higgins that State and county tax?—A. I could not say.

Q. You can fix the year as 1877?—A. Yes, sir; if I had known you wanted it I could have brought the receipt.

Q. Have you the receipt at home?—A. Yes, sir; no, I will recall that, I paid this tax twice, and in order to have it rectified I gave both the receipts to Squire Shaw, of Houtzdale, and Shaw has left the county, so I cannot get the receipts now.

Q. What real estate are you the owner of?—A. None, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What ticket did you vote?—A. The Republican ticket throughout.

Q. Did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin or for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I voted for Yocum, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you pay all the tax Higgins, the collector, had on his duplicate against you?—A. I paid all he presented and took his receipt.

Q. How do you know it was a State or county tax you paid?—A. He told me so. I don't want to be too minute on those questions; I can't remember, it is too long.

Q. To whom did you pay your school and poor tax for the year 1877?—A. I can't recollect; but I think it was settled by the way of Chase, if settled at all; I think there is some tax due there yet.

Q. Are you sure you paid Higgins all your State and county tax for 1877?—A. I think I did.

Q. You say you paid Mr. Chase some tax last summer; what tax was it?—A. I think it was school and poor tax.

Q. Was Mr. Chase a tax-collector?—A. Well, I think he was; he received the taxes anyhow.

Q. Was he the collector of State and county tax for Woodward Township for the year 1878?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you pay him any State or county tax last summer?—A. No, sir; I did not pay Mr. Chase any State or county tax.

Q. I understand, then, that the only State and county tax you had paid within two years and more than thirty days prior to the 5th day of November last was that which you think you paid to J. G. Higgins and the county treasurer?—A. I paid them both and took receipts for them, and handed them to Shaw.

Q. Was not that in the year 1876?—A. I think it was 1877.

Q. Will you swear positively it was in 1877?—A. No, sir; but I think it was in 1877.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you know if your name was on the registry-list of Woodward Township for 1878?—A. I don't know, but I suppose it was.

Q. According to your best recollection you paid that tax to Higgins and the county treasurer in the year 1877, did you not?—A. I think so.

Q. Who manages that real estate and pays the taxes on it?—A. I do.

Q. Where is that real estate situated?—A. In Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Who is the collector?—A. Alfred Wise is the constable and collector of State and county tax.

Q. In whose name is that real estate assessed?—A. I don't know.

Q. State whether you paid or any one paid State or county tax for you on that real estate in Knox Township?—A. My son paid it last summer.

Q. To whom did he pay it?—A. To Wise, the collector.

Q. Did he pay it by your direction?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that seated land?—A. Yes, sir; 80 acres are cleared and about 70 acres timber land.

Q. Who farms and manages that land?—A. I have done, it or had it done by my direction.

Q. What is your son's name who paid those taxes?—A. W. W. Joy. And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am 26 past.

Q. Were you born in Pennsylvania, and did you reside for over two months continuously immediately preceding November 5, 1878, in the election district of Woodward Township?—A. I have.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. Married.

Q. Did your family reside with you continuously for at least two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I was back and forward to a place out there in Knox Township.

Q. Where was your residence and home?—A. In Woodward Township.

Q. Did your family continue in Woodward while you were out there?—A. I went out to work sometimes on Monday and sometimes in the middle of the week; sometimes my wife went with me to the shanty to cook and sometimes she did not; but my home and residence was all the time in Woodward Township. I returned to Woodward Township every Saturday night.

Q. Were you and your wife at home on Saturday night and Sunday of each week?—A. Yes, sir; generally.

Q. Was that the mode of doing during the two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Pennsylvania for more than one year immediately preceding that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom did you pay that tax?—A. I paid one tax; I could not say whether it was State or county, it was one or the other, to Jesse Williams, I think about two years ago last month, or in February, 1877.

Q. Was Williams collector of State and county taxes?—A. He was justice of the peace and he had duplicates to collect.

Q. Do you know for what township he had the duplicates to collect?—A. It must have been Woodward Township or he could not have had any against me.

Q. Do you know whose duplicate he was collecting?—A. I can't say I think it was Higgins's first.

Q. May it not have been John Malee's duplicate?—A. It might have been.

Q. Who was the collector of Woodward before J. G. Higgins?—A. I can't tell you his name.

Q. What year's tax was it you paid Williams?—A. I don't think he was collector; he might have been collector before, though; I can't tell you what year's tax, I have not the receipt with me.

Q. Was it an old tax or a new one when you paid it?—A. It might have been a year and a half old; I don't think it was older.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax within two years, and if so, to whom?—A. I paid the 25 cents tax; I am certain it was within two years. I can't remember his name, but I think he was subcollector.

Q. Was it a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was that paid?—A. In March, 1877, I think.

Q. For whom did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878, for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. This place or property you speak of in Knox Township, where you worked, to whom is it assessed?—A. It is assessed to W. H. Joy, my father.

Q. Does he or does he not have the management and control of that property?—A. He did not last year altogether. My father has managed it part of the time and part of the time I have.

Q. Has or has not your father the general direction and supervision of that property?—A. He has had only partly.

Q. Did you by his direction or not pay for him a State or county tax upon that property within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I paid a tax then; I can't say whether he just directed me to pay it or not; as a general thing when a collector came to me and presented a tax against my father I generally paid it.

Q. When did you pay a State or county tax upon that property for your father?—A. Last summer, to Alfred Wise, constable and collector of Knox Township.

Q. How long had that property been assessed in your father's name?—A. I can't say the exact time. The first few years it was assessed to my mother after she bought it; the duplicates came out after that assessing it to my father.

Q. Did your father or you for him always pay the State or county tax on that property?—A. My father and I always paid the State and county taxes for my mother.

Q. What do you mean by saying you paid it for her?—A. The property belongs to her, I mean, and was assessed to my father.

Q. Who attended from year to year to the payment of the tax on that property?—A. My father, generally.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you and your wife keep house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you keeping house during the two months prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then when you went over into Knox Township with your wife you closed up your house, did you?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you fix February, 1877, as the time you paid Squire Williams a State or county tax?—A. By the receipt I have at home.

Q. What is the date of that receipt?—A. It is dated 1877, but I can't tell you the month exactly.

Q. Are you sure it is dated 1877?—A. Very certain.

Q. Is the title to the property you have testified about in Knox Township in your mother?—A. Yes, sir; it is in mother's name.

Q. Then it always should be assessed in the name of your mother, should it not?

(Objected to because witness's father has sworn that he, the father, had the management of the property, and attended to the payment of the taxes on it.)

A. I will have to apply to some of you lawyers who know more about it.

Q. Are you certain the tax you paid on the Knox Township property was a State or county tax, and a tax on the land?

(Objected to because the latter part of the question is inserted to entrap the witness; there is no objection to asking the witness what kind of tax it was.)

A. State and county tax.

Q. Did you get a receipt for the tax?—A. Not yet, I have not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and am sixty-six years old.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Wales.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces his certificate, dated September 4, 1848, signed by C. M. Straub, with the seal of the court of Schuylkill County attached.)

Q. Were you naturalized on September 4, 1848?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you and your wife resided in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been living in said Woodward Township?—A. A little over four years.

Q. Had you within two years preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces receipt dated September 26, 1878, for his State and county tax for 1877, signed by J. G. Higgins, per Home.)

Q. Did you pay said tax on September 25, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you certain you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined :

(Counsel for contestant proceeds to cross-examine while objecting to all that part of witness's testimony taken previous to the question "had you within two years and more and one month before the election of November, 1878, paid a State or county tax," because all the testimony of witness taken prior to said question was taken in the absence of contestant's counsel.)

Q. How long have you lived in the election district of Woodward Township?—A. About four years.

Q. How often have you voted in the election district of Woodward Township?—A. Every election since I have been there.

Q. Did you exhibit to the election officers of Woodward Township at the election held November 5, 1878, the certificate of naturalization produced by you on the witness' stand?—A. No, I don't think I did. I had exhibited them before, and they knew me; they did not ask me for them.

Q. From whom did you get the tax receipt produced by you upon the stand?—A. From Constable Higgins.

Q. Did Higgins himself give you the receipt?—A. No, sir; from Mr. Home, who was helping Higgins.

Q. Was Seth H. Yocum's name written or printed upon the ticket you voted?—A. Printed.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I am thirty-two years old.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did your wife reside in the election district of Houtzdale Borough continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. When were you married?—A. In 1869.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in said Houtzdale Borough continuously for the two months and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; we resided in Woodward Township during that time.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when did you pay such tax?—A. I paid it to John Malee, collector, some time during the summer of 1878, probably two or three months before the election; might be a little more, might be a little less.

Q. Are you certain you paid Malee such tax at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in the election district of said Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the two months and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At said election of November 5, 1878, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you certain?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Who did you pay this tax to for which you hold this receipt?—A. To John Malee.

Q. Did you pay the tax yourself?—A. Yes, sir; that is, I paid it this way. There is a man living in a house of mine and he paid my taxes and he deducted the amount from the rent.

Q. Did you rent the house you speak of to the tenant with the understanding that he was to pay you so much rent and all taxes on that property?—A. I rented it with the understanding that all taxes he paid should be deducted from the rent.

Q. When did you settle with your tenant for the rent of your house?—A. It was customary and I did settle with him on the 20th of each month.

Q. When did he give you the receipt; your tenant, I mean?—A. In August, 1878.

Re-examined:

Q. Had you paid other State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I am not positive whether I have or not. And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is between 21 and 22; I was 21 on July 24, 1878.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Wales.

Q. How old were you when you came to the United States?—A. About nine years of age.

Q. Did your father come with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did your father come to this country?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. Where was your father born?—A. In England.

Q. Has your father been naturalized?

(Objected to because witness should produce his father's certificate of naturalization or a certified copy of record from the court in which he was naturalized, which is the best and only competent proof of his father's naturalization.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how many years ago?—A. I don't know; about 10 or 12 years, I guess.

Q. Have you frequently seen his naturalization papers or certificate of citizenship, and did you see it shortly before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did your father come to this country?—A. About ten or twelve years ago, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. At what point in the United States did he land?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you come over with him?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long after he came over did you come?—A. I don't know.

Q. Who brought you over?—A. My mother.

Q. Where was your father when you came over?—A. In Broadtop, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. In what year was that?—A. I don't mind.

Q. In what State was your father naturalized?—A. In Pennsylvania.

Q. In what part of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania was he naturalized?—A. I ain't certain, but I think in Huntingdon County.

Q. In what county in Pennsylvania did he declare his intentions to become a citizen of the United States?—A. In Huntingdon County, I think. I am not certain.

Q. In what county in Pennsylvania did he receive his final certificate of naturalization?—A. In Huntingdon County, I think; I am not certain.

Q. You say you have frequently seen your father's naturalization papers. Do you know the difference between the first papers, or declaration of intentions, and the last papers, or final certificate of naturalization?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then, if you have seen his papers, you don't know whether it was the declaration of intention or the final certificate of naturalization?—

A. No; I could not tell, but I have heard him say they were his full citizen papers.

Q. Where does your father reside?—A. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did he reside on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. Woodward Township.

Q. Did he go with you to the polls in the election district of Woodward Township, and by producing his certificate of citizenship before the board holding the election for said district, claim for you the citizenship acquired by you by his naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he take with him his papers and show them to the board?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were you born?—A. In 1857, July 24.

Q. Who told you you were born on the 24th of July, 1857?—A. I saw the family record.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am between twenty-four and twenty-five years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Decatur Township, now Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married, and, if so, did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir, I am married; and we resided in Woodward Township for that time.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom?—A. In 1877, to Joseph Higgins.

Q. Are you not sure it was a State and county tax you paid Higgins in 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I am sure.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Yocum, I believe.

Q. Did you not vote at said election for Seth H. Yocum for Congress or was it for A. G. Curtin; which of the two?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. About what time in 1877 did you pay Higgins said tax?—A. Some time in the spring. I calculated to get a receipt, but never did it.

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you fix the spring of 1877 as the time you paid your tax?—A. I don't know, but I remember meeting Joseph Higgins and paying him at that time.

Q. How do you know it was 1877?—A. Joseph Higgins told me it was the 1877 tax, I think, but I am not sure.

Q. Might it not have been in 1876 that you paid Higgins that tax?—

A. I paid some in 1876, but I don't know what it was. I paid them in 1877, that is the reason it was not 1876.

Q. Do you say upon your oath that you paid this tax to Higgins in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you your ticket on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Hiram Nuttenburger and Mr. Deafenbaugh, they gave me my ticket.

Q. How many tickets did they give you?—A. They both had tickets of the same kind.

Q. Did you read your ticket carefully before voting it?—A. No, sir; I saw Yocum on it.

Q. Can you read?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In South Wales, sir.

Q. How long ago did you come to the United States?—A. Fourteen years ago this month.

Q. Have you been naturalized, and, if so, where is your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir. The certificate of naturalization is at my home.

(Counsel for contestant objects to all attempts to prove witness' naturalization save by the production of his certificate of citizenship or a certified copy of record from the court that granted his naturalization.)

Q. When and where were you naturalized?

(Objected to because it is not competent—the naturalization of witness by parol proof.)

A. About last summer, at Clearfield, at May court of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; for five years.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I did, sir; every time the collector called for it.

Q. To whom and when did you pay said tax?—A. I paid the last State and county tax to Thomas Henderson about two or three months before the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you presented your vote at said election did you also show to the board your certificate of citizenship?—A. I did, sir.

Q. Did the election board examine it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. After such examination did they receive your vote?—A. They did, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Mr. Yocum, sir.

Q. Do you mean Seth H. Yocum?—A. I do, sir.

Q. Are you certain?—A. I know it.

Cross-examined :

Q. Where did you first declare your intentions of becoming a citizen?—A. Wellsborough, Tioga County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When?—A. About eleven years ago, sir.

Q. When did you obtain your second papers?—A. Last summer, in the Clearfield court.

Q. Were you naturalized in open court?—A. I was, sir.

Q. Who were your witnesses?—A. David Letz and 'Squire Woodin.

Q. Did you get a receipt for the taxes you paid Henderson?—A. I did, sir.

Q. Where is that receipt?—A. It is at home.

Q. What is the date of that receipt?—I cannot remember.

Q. Was it dated 1876, 1877, or 1878?

(Objected to, because witness has already testified that he paid Henderson such tax about two months or more before November 5, 1878.)

A. In 1878.

Q. Are you sure you paid that tax before the 5th of October, 1878?—

A. Yes, sir; I can swear to it.

Q. How do you know you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—

A. Because I had faith in him more than I had for Curtin.

Q. Did you carefully read your ticket on the 5th of November last before voting it?—A. I did.

Q. What was on your ticket?—A. Nothing, only I was voting for him for Congress to make good laws for us.

Q. For what other officers did you vote for besides Congress?—A. I voted the whole Republican ticket.

Q. Can you read?—A. Yes, sir; I can in Welsh.

Q. Was the ticket you voted on November 5, 1878, printed in Welsh?—

A. It was not.

Q. Then you did not read the ticket you voted on that day?—A. I did.

Q. Can you read English?—A. I can when I have some time to spell it.

Q. Did you take time to spell out the name on your ticket?—A. I had a man who was a good reader, a Welshman, read it off for me.

Q. Then it was by this man reading it off for you you know for whom you voted?—A. Certainly.

Q. Then you do not know of your own knowledge that you voted for Seth H. Yocum, but only what the man read to you from the ticket?—A. I did; I read it myself.

Q. Have you been drinking since you came here to-day?—A. Not enough to hurt me.

Q. How many drinks have you had this afternoon and evening?—A. It don't make any difference as long as I paid for it.

Q. Do you consider yourself sober enough to understand the solemnity of an oath?—A. I do, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. From whom did you get your ticket you voted at said election?—A. I got it from Diffenbaugh.

Q. Was Diffenbaugh a Curtin or a Yocum man?—A. An old Republican, and for Yocum.

Q. Did you and the man you spoke of, or did you not, read over your ticket together?—Yes, sir; I had good faith in him.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I suppose I am over seventy years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Connaught, in Ireland.

Q. Have you been naturalized, and will you produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produced certificate of citizenship, dated February 16, 1847, signed J. F. Donaldson, prothonotary, Tioga County, State of Pennsylvania. The papers are old and torn, and the seal of the court cannot be distinguished.)

Q. Were you naturalized in open court on the day of date mentioned in your certificate, viz, February 16, 1847?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you been voting since 1847?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of Woodward Township, continuously, for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I have.

(Witness produces receipt dated September 28, 1878, for his State and county tax for 1877, signed by J. G. Higgins, per Howe.)

Q. Did you pay said tax on September 28, 1878, the date of the receipt?—A. My woman paid it. I was in the mines. To the best of my opinion, she paid it then.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What ticket did you vote?—A. The Greenback ticket all through; but whose name was on it I don't know.

Q. Who gave you the ticket you voted?—A. Morris Barnes or Michael O'Shea, one or the other, I am not certain which; but I think it was Morris Barnes.

Q. Were Morris Barnes and Michael O'Shea both working for and handing out Greenback tickets on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; one of them, Barnes, was running for commissioner on the Greenback ticket.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you vote for any one for Congress on November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is forty-seven years last February.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Wales.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of citizenship?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of citizenship dated August 29, 1873, signed by Espy M. Alsop, prothonotary, to which is attached or impressed thereon the seal of the court of common pleas of Bedford County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Were you naturalized on August 29, 1873, in open court of Bedford County?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; and more.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt, dated August 26, 1878, for his county and State taxes for the year 1878, signed by Thomas Henderson, collector.)

Q. Was Thomas Henderson collector of State and county taxes, and did you pay such tax to him on August 26, 1878, the date of your receipt?—A. Yes, sir; he was collector, and I paid the money on the day I got the receipt as it is dated.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Yocum.

Q. Did you read your ticket, and are you certain you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I did read it, and I am certain I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined :

Q. Where did you first declare your intention of becoming a citizen of the United States?—A. In Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you lived in Woodward Township?—A. I will be in Woodward Township four years next May.

Q. How often have you voted in Woodward Township?—A. I have voted every time since February 15, 1876.

Q. Did you exhibit to the election officers of Woodward Township on the 5th day of November last the certificate of naturalization produced by you on the stand?—A. No, sir; I did not show them. They did not ask for them. I voted on my receipt for taxes.

Re-examined :

Q. Did the election board, or any one of them, on November 5, 1878, know the fact that you were a naturalized citizen?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is twenty-six or twenty-seven years to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In South Wales.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of citizenship dated September 23, 1872, and signed by A. C. Tate, prothonotary, and to which is attached the seal of the court of common pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Were you naturalized in open court on September 23, 1872, the date of your certificate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how old were you when you first arrived in the United States?—A. About seventeen or eighteen; somewhere along there.

Q. When did your father come to this country, that is, how long ago?—A. About two or three years before Lincoln was shot he came here.

Q. Were you not under eighteen years of age when you came to this country?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Are you married; and, if so, did you and your wife reside in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I am married, and we resided there for more than a year before November 5, 1878.

Q. Had you within two years preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt for State and county taxes dated March 25, 1879, signed by J. G. Higgins, collector.)

Q. Did you or not pay to some person (whose name you cannot recollect) a State or county tax some time during the summer of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you or not other receipts for taxes within the last two years preceding November 5, 1878?

(Question objected to because it leaves the inference that the receipts of witness are receipts for State and county tax, whereas the receipts in witness's possession, and produced by him upon the stand, are receipts for poor and school-board tax and not State and county tax.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you paid J. G. Higgins, collector, a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you pay him?—A. Last summer; the summer of 1878.

Q. When did Higgins give you your receipt for State and county taxes which you paid him in the summer of 1878?—A. To-day.

(Witness produces receipt signed by J. G. Higgins, dated March 25, 1879, for his State and county tax for the year 1877.)

Q. Did you or not pay Higgins said State and county taxes called for in receipt (dated March 25, 1879) some time in the summer of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you did not get any receipt for the same until to-day?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you or not on to-day ask J. G. Higgins for a receipt for said taxes (State and county) which you had paid him in the summer of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not J. G. Higgins say to you that you had paid him said taxes in the summer of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did not Higgins date your receipt at time of payment last summer?—A. I did not ask him. I am pretty poor about knowing anything about receipts like that.

Q. Then do you swear that the receipt of J. G. Higgins for State and county taxes, which receipt is dated March 25, 1879, was received by you to-day, and that the taxes were paid by you to Higgins in the summer of 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is or is not J. G. Higgins a Democrat?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. When were you born?—A. I can't answer that question.

Q. What year did you come to this country?—A. I can't answer that question.

Q. If you don't know when you were born, or when you came to this country, how do you know that you came here under eighteen years of age?—A. I have to take my father's word for it. I am no scholar myself and can't keep any account of such things.

Q. How long have you lived in Woodward Township?—A. I guess about five years.

Q. How often have you voted in Woodward Township?—A. I have voted three times.

Q. Did you show your papers to the board each time you voted, and did you show them on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who paid the tax spoken of in your examination-in-chief to Higgins, the collector?—A. I paid it myself.

Q. Are you sure it was in last summer?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir.

Q. If you can't read, and did not read your ticket on the 5th of November, 1878, how do you know you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I got another person to read it for me; the man who gave me the ticket read it to me.

Q. Who gave you the ticket?—A. Michael O'Shea.

Q. Then you do not know of your own knowledge that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress, but only from what Michael O'Shea read to you from the ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Q. Where were you born?—A. South Wales.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of citizenship?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produced certificate of naturalization, dated 7th of June, 1875, signed by Eli Bloom, prothonotary, having the seal of the court of common pleas of Clearfield County thereto attached, and which certificate is indorsed, "Voted November 5, 1878," dated February 18, 1879.)

Q. Were you naturalized in open court on June 7, 1875, the date of your certificate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt, dated September 22, 1877, for his State and county tax for the years 1876 and 1877, which receipt is signed by J. G. Higgins.)

Q. Was J. G. Higgins collector of such taxes, and did you pay him the same, on September 22, 1877, the date of your receipt?—A. Yes, sir; he was, and I paid on the date of the receipt.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum and the Republican ticket.

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted, and was Seth H. Yocum's name for Congress upon the ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you voted on November 5, 1878, did you present your certificate of citizenship to the election board, and did they mark thereon "Voted November 5, 1878"?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; going on 58 since January last.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Ireland.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir; I have my papers but left them at home.

Q. About how long is it since you were naturalized?

(Objected to because it is not competent to establish witness's naturalization by parol proof; witness must either produce his certificate of naturalization or a certified copy of record of the court in which he was naturalized.)

A. I think it was in 1856.

Q. Have you been voting since 1856?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax that was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay such tax, and when?—A. To Joseph Higgins, collector, in September 1878, for 1877 taxes; I paid other taxes for 1878.

Q. Did you or not also pay a State or county tax in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress upon the ticket you voted November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you resided in said Woodward Township?—A. Four years next May.

Q. Where were you naturalized?

(Objected to because witness's certificate of naturalization or a certified copy of record are the only competent proof of his naturalization.)

A. Hollidaysburg, Blair County.

Cross-examined:

Q. Is your name M. B. Barrow or M. P. Barrow?—A. M. P. Barron, sir.

Q. Are you not sometimes called M. P. Barrow?—A. I was once, by the Clearfield Citizen, but I rectified it. I was a candidate for commissioner on the Greenback ticket.

Q. Does the name of M. P. Beerron appear upon the poll-lists of persons who voted at the general election held for Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you see the list, and where?—A. I did not see it; I thought it was the ticket you meant.

Q. Where did you declare your intention of becoming a citizen of the United States?—A. Hollidaysburg, Blair County.

Q. Where were you finally naturalized?—A. Hollidaysburg, sir.

Q. In what year did you declare your intentions?—A. In 1854.

Q. What year did you arrive in this country?—A. 1847.

Q. Have you any receipt for State and county taxes paid by you within two years and more than thirty days prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I have, sir; at home.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you on November 5, 1878, distribute and hand to voters tickets which had the name of Seth H. Yocum on for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you give to any person any ticket with Curtin's name on for Congress?—A. No, sir.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in the village of Houtzdale. My age is 48 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In England.

Q. Were you ever naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your naturalization papers?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of naturalization dated 18th of September, 1868, signed Albert Yeomans, judge of the probate court of Trumbull County, of the State of Ohio, and having thereon the seal of the said court, and having thereon indorsed, "Voted November 5, 1878.")

Q. Had you, within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When, as nearly as you can tell, and to whom, did you pay that tax?—A. I paid it to Joseph Higgins, constable and collector of Woodward Township. I paid it, as near as I can recollect, in the first week of September, 1878; I am sure it was the first week of September, 1878.

Q. Are you a married man, and have you and your family resided continuously for the one whole year or more in the election district of Woodward Township immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I am married, and has resided for one whole year as stated.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin or for Seth H. Yocum for Congress; which one of the two?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of that tax to Higgins?—A. No, sir; I lost it somehow.

Cross-examined:

Q. The certificate of naturalization produced by you is a duplicate, I see, and so marked; what became of the original?—A. I lost the original and got it renewed.

Q. When was it lost?—A. About four years ago.

Q. When did you get the duplicate?—A. Last summer.

Q. Where did you declare your intentions of becoming a citizen?—A. At Pittsburgh.

Q. What proof of your declaration of intention did the probate judge of Trumbull County, Ohio, require you to make before granting you a final certificate of naturalization?—A. I had to take a witness along with me, and showed my first papers.

Q. Are you sure you paid Joseph Higgins, collector, a State or county tax in September, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you fix the time as being in September?—A. I know from the time I paid the tax before the election; I am certain I was in due time.

Q. Did you carefully read the ticket you voted on the 5th of November last before putting it in the box?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you sure the name of Seth H. Yocum was on the ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

It is hereby agreed that this witness shall be examined and his testimony taken as though due and regular notice thereof had been served upon contestant or his counsel. This agreement made this 25th day of March, 1879.

GEO. R. BARRETT, JR.,
For Contestant.
THOS. H. MURRAY,
For Contestee.

Question. Were you one of the inspectors who held the general election of November 5, 1878, in the election district of Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—Answer. I was.

Q. Do you know of affidavits which were taken and subscribed by some of the voters at that election having been deposited in the ballot-box after the vote was counted off?—A. Yes, sir; there were.

Q. What finally became of them, if you can tell?—A. The affidavits put in the ballot-box were destroyed in the spring of 1879, at the election.

Q. As a member of that board had you a good opportunity of observing whether that election was fairly, honestly, and lawfully conducted?—A. I certainly had, and I believe it was so conducted.

Q. What is your age?—A. I am fifty-one.

Q. How long have you lived in Clearfield County?—A. I have been here four years and almost one month. I was born in Pennsylvania.

Q. How did that election compare in respect to fairness and honesty and legality, so far as you could judge, with other elections which you have witnessed in Houtzdale Borough or elsewhere?—A. I believe it was as fairly held as any board I ever was on, and I have been on election boards a good many times.

Cross-examined:

Q. When an unregistered voter offered his vote did you require him to first subscribe and swear to a partly printed and partly written affidavit, and also require him to produce a legally qualified voter of the same election district who also subscribed and swore to a partly printed and partly written affidavit?—A. I can hardly tell you for the reason there were very few, I think not over two or three, that were not on the registry list. I know there were affidavits made out there of different kinds, but I don't know whether any were made out for the non-registered voters.

Q. When persons presented themselves to offer to vote on age, did you require them to subscribe and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit, and to produce a legally qualified voter who also subscribed and swore to a partly written and partly printed affidavit?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When persons offered to vote who had paid taxes in the time and manner prescribed by law, did you require them to subscribe and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit when they had no receipt setting forth with sufficient certainty when the tax was paid, the collector to whom it was paid, and the time when it was assessed?—A. No, sir; the tax-collectors were there and if the parties had not receipts they brought the tax-collectors up, who satisfied the board their taxes were paid.

Q. Did one of the election-board have the registry-list of voters of Houtzdale Borough, and did he as each person voted put opposite his name the letter V?

(Objected to because the law does not require such designation of those who voted.)

A. Not all of them; I marked some, but not all.

Q. Did one of the election officers receive from voters their tickets and put upon each ticket as received a number corresponding to the voter's number on the poll-list kept by the clerks?—A. No, sir; he received the tickets, but they were not numbered.

Q. Did the board require all persons who were naturalized and who offered to vote to produce their naturalization papers, except where the persons so offering to vote had voted in Houtzdale Borough for five consecutive years?—A. We required all persons to produce their naturalization papers unless some member of the board had seen them produce their papers on former occasions.

Re-examined :

Q. What were your politics on November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress at said election?

(Objected to because it is a question of privilege and witness need not answer unless he wishes.)

A. I am a Democrat and voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Were you subpoenaed on the part of the contestant, and did you testify when so subpoenaed at Clearfield?—A. I was subpoenaed and testified for contestant.

Q. When on the stand and so testifying, were you asked any questions by contestant's counsel touching the conduct or legality of the election held in Houtzdale Borough on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I don't think I was.

Q. How did it occur that you did not number the ballots; was it an oversight or intentional?—A. We forgot to do it at first. The way that occurred the other inspectors objected to Morris Leveright's vote being taken and he was called in and affidavits were made out and he signed and subscribed them; and during the delay caused by this we took the votes and forgot to number them, and, having forgotten to number those, we could not correctly number the others.

Q. Is Morris Leveright a Curtin or a Yocum voter?—A. I believe he voted for Yocum; I know he is an active Republican.

Q. How long had he been voting in Houtzdale?—A. He has been voting here for four years and more, ever since I came here.

Q. Is Morris Leveright one of the best known voters in Houtzdale Borough?—A. He is one of the best known men here in Houtzdale Borough.

Q. Was the inspector who refused to allow Leveright to vote a Curtin or Yocum voter?—A. I believe he voted for Yocum.

And further saith not.

HARRY C. POWLEY sworn.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am twenty-five years old.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In the State of Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir, I was.

Q. When were you married?—A. On September 19, 1878.

Q. Has your wife died since then?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and did you while married reside in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for the one full year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Where is your receipt for the payment of your tax?—A. I threwed it away; it had been written with a pencil, and it had got worn off, all except the print, and I thought it was not good and threw it away.

Q. To whom did you pay such tax, and when?—A. To Thomas Henderson, in August of 1878.

Q. Did you in August, 1878, by direction of your brother, Jeremiah Powley, pay to Thomas Henderson his State and county tax?—A. Yes, sir; I paid his at his direction.

Q. Did you vote in said election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did your brother, Jeremiah Powley, tell you to pay his tax for him?—A. He did; yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is between twenty-two and twenty-three.

Q. When were you twenty-two years old?—A. Last September.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not in August, 1878, direct and authorize your brother, H. C. Powley, to pay your State and county taxes to Thomas Henderson, the collector?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did your brother bring you a receipt for the payment of the same?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is your receipt?—A. I have destroyed part of it by carrying it around, and I burned the balance as useless.

Q. Did you receive that receipt, and did you pay the money some time in August, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I don't mind the name any more; I forget.

Q. Was or was it not Seth H. Yocum that you voted for for Congress?—A. Yes, sir, it was.

Q. Did you or not vote the whole Republican ticket?—A. Yes, sir, as far as I know I voted it straight out.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then do you or not swear that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir, I do.

And further saith not.

GEO. R. BARRETT, Jr.,

For Contestant.

THOS H. MURRAY,

For Contestee.

Question. Did you collect any State or county tax during the year 1877?—Answer. I did.

Q. What year's tax was it?—A. The year 1875.

Q. Whose duplicate had you?—A. I think it was Myles' or George Quin's. Wooden has the duplicate in charge now.

Q. Had Miles and George Quin been collectors of State or county taxes for Woodward Township?—A. Quin had been; I could not say certain about Miles.

Q. Did W. W. Joy, of Woodward Township, pay you any State or county taxes during the year 1877?—A. He did.

Q. What time of the year was it, as near as you can tell, and state how you fix the time?—A. By referring to my papers I find that on the 7th day of August, 1877, I remitted the first taxes I collected, and on the 25th day of September, 1877, I think it was between that time that Joy paid me the tax. I think I remitted the last I collected in September, 1877. I think it was between August 7, 1877, and September 25, 1877, that W. W. Joy paid me these taxes.

Q. Did W. H. Joy, the father of W. W. Joy, pay you any State or county taxes during the year 1877?—A. He did.

Q. About what time did he pay you State and county taxes in the year 1877?—A. I think he and his son paid their taxes about the same time.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you sure this was in the year 1877?—A. I am.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax last fall of 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Who did you pay it to?—A. Pat Dugan.

Q. How long before the election of November 5, 1878, did you pay Dugan this tax?—A. I don't remember exactly how long; it was paid in due time to vote.

Q. Are you sure you paid Dugan that tax one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. I am.

Q. Did you get a receipt at the time you paid it?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you get a receipt at any other time for the tax?—A. I did.

Q. When did you get the receipt?—A. I can't remember.

Q. Was the receipt dated back when you got it so as to cover all contingencies?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay the tax on the date in the receipt just produced by you on the witness stand?—A. Yes; and before the date of the receipt.

Q. How many days before the election of November 5, 1878, did you get this receipt from Dugan?—A. I don't remember the date.

Q. Was it one day, five days, or one day?—A. I received it less than thirty days before the election; I can't fix the exact date.

Q. Why did you not get the receipt when you paid the tax?—A. The reason why I did not get a receipt was this: Dugan owed me a bill and I saw him and he agreed to pay my taxes, and I agreed if he would do so I would receipt his account in full.

Q. When did you have this conversation with Dugan?—A. I don't remember the time, but it was more than a month before the election.

Q. When did you give Dugan a receipt in full of the account you had against him?—A. I don't remember whether I gave him a receipt or not at the time.

Q. How much did Dugan owe you?—A. I think it was $2.50.

Q. Look at that receipt and tell me how much it calls for?—A. Fifty cents.

Q. Did you agree to give Pat Dugan a receipt in full for the $2.50 he owed you in consideration of his paying for you the amount called for by your receipt?—A. I did.

Q. In other words, you agreed to give him $2.50 for 50 cents?—A. I agreed to give him the account of $2.50 for the 50 cents tax.

Q. When did Pat Dugan mark your taxes paid upon his duplicate; when you had the conversation alluded to or when he gave you the receipt?—A. I don't know whether he ever marked them paid or not.

Re-examined:

Q. Fix the time, according to your best recollection, when that conversation between you and Dugan occurred.—A. It was about the time the names were entered on the September registry. The reason I fix it at that time is because I had trouble about getting registered. I went up on the last day for registering, found my name was not on, and had it put on, and it was either on that day or within a week of it that Dugan and I had the conversation.

Q. Was it the understanding and agreement between you and Pat Dugan, at that time, that the tax and the account should be offset, the one against the other, then or at some future time?—A. I considered it, and he did, I believe, consider it settled at that time.

Q. Did he then agree to give you a receipt for the taxes?—A. He did.

Q. Did you ask him for the receipt afterwards, before he gave it to you?—A. I did.

Q. What did he say?—A. He gave to me; that was all.

Q. What was that account of $2.50 against Pat Dugan worth?—A. It was worth 50 cents to me. I did not consider it worth more than that or I would not have made it.

Q. When you say the receipt was dated back, do you mean that it was in fact dated back, or that you received it on a later date than appears on the face of the receipt?—A. I received it after it was dated. I did not know it made any difference, as I thought my taxes were paid in time.

Q. Have you any knowledge that it was really dated back at all, that is, that it was written on a later date than appears on the face of it?—

A. I have not.

And further saith not.

Counsel for Contestee.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—A. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 35.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Virginia.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, your wife, and family reside in the election district of said Woodward Township, continuously, for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt?—A. No, sir; when I paid the tax to Joseph Higgins he had no blanks with him, and therefore did not give me any receipt.

Q. As near as you could tell, when did you pay said Joseph Higgins said tax?—A. About Christmas of 1876, a few days before or after, I am not positive which.

Q. Was Joseph Higgins collector of State and county taxes for Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At said election for whom did you vote for Congress—Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum, which of the two?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you or not read your ticket, and are you certain you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I read my ticket, and I am sure I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you locate the time you paid Higgins the tax as being near Christmas of 1876?—A. We were sledding and hauling on snow the day I paid it.

Q. How do you know it was the year 1876?—A. Because I saw the tax marked on the duplicate, 1876.

Question. Are you the M. P. Barron who testified in this case yesterday?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you now your certificate of citizenship with you?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of citizenship, dated August 2, 1856, signed by Jos. Baldrige, prothonotary, to which is attached the seal of the court of common pleas of Blair County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Were you naturalized in open court on August 2, 1856?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did you declare your intention of becoming a citizen?—A. At Hollidaysburg, Blair County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long prior to the 28th day of July, 1856?—A. I could not exactly tell you; whatever the law required; I suppose about two years, I guess.

Q. Did you produce before the court of Blair County your first papers of declaration of intention, and also two witnesses to vouch for your residence?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you spell your name?—A. M-a-u-r-i-c-e B-a-r-r-o-n.

Q. Who added the "P" between Maurice and Barron in the body of this certificate?—A. I did.

Q. When did you add this "P"?—A. I can't exactly tell you now.

Q. Look at this name and tell me how it was written by the prothonotary of Blair County.—A. Maurice Barron.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above-mentioned certificate being received as proof of M. P. Barron's naturalization, the certificate produced being evidence only of the naturalization of Maurice Barron, this witness acknowledging on his oath that he without authority of law changed the certificate by the insertion of matter not put in the certificate by the prothonotary of Blair County, and not in certificate when the seal of the court of common pleas of Blair County was attached thereto.)

Re-examined:

Q. Are you the Maurice Baron who was naturalized in said court of Blair County on August 2, 1856?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is the certificate of your naturalization which you have produced your certificate which you received from said prothonotary of Blair County?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is not Maurice Baron and also Maurice Barron both written in the certificate produced by you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then is it not simply a clerical error?

(Objected to because it asks the witness to give his opinion upon a point of law.)

A. I suppose it must be.

Q. Are you the man called for in said certificate?—A. I am, sir, really.

Q. What was your purpose in adding the P between Maurice and Baron, and also between Maurice and Barron?—A. I put it in so that my name would appear in full.

Q. Are you married; and, if so, when?—A. Yes, sir; in July, 1878.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Wales.

Q. How old were you when you came to the United States?—A. About four years old.

Q. Has your father been naturalized, and, if so, when?—A. Yes, sir; about twelve or thirteen years ago; I can't tell within a few years; you have his testimony here on the subject.

Q. Are you a son of Edward Lloyd, sr., who has testified in this case?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you (and after marriage with your wife) reside in the election district of Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878, resided in the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in said Woodward Township continuously for the two months and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt dated September 22, 1877, for his State and county tax for the year 1877, signed Joseph Higgins.)

Q. Was Joseph Higgins collector of State and county taxes for Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay Joseph Higgins the said tax upon September 22, 1877, the date mentioned in the receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election-district of said Woodward Township at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Question. Where do you live, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. My age is thirty-nine.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In England.

Q. Were you ever naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

(Certificate of citizenship produced by witness, dated 16th of September, 1876, signed by R. W. Singer, prothonotary, and having the seal of the court of common pleas of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, attached thereto, and having indorsed on the back thereof, "Voted November 7, 1876.")

Q. Were you naturalized in open court September 16, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, with your wife, reside in the election-district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote for Seth H. Yocum or Andrew G. Curtin for Congress; which one of the two?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. No, sir; but there was a friend that gave me the ticket, and I did depend on him that it was a Republican ticket.

Q. Who gave you the ticket you voted?—A. Thomas D. Davis.

Q. Did you pay John Brown, sr., collector of State and county taxes, the said taxes in June, 1877, the date of the receipt produced?—A. I did not pay him, but my wife did pay him. I gave her the money and directed her to pay him. I was at work in the pit, and she had the receipt for me when I came home.

Q. Where—in what county of Pennsylvania was said tax paid to Brown?—A. In Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Cross-examined:

Q. Then you don't know of your own knowledge whether you voted for Yocum or not?—A. I know no more than I depend on this man; he told me it was the Republican ticket.

Q. As the Republicans had no candidate for Congress, might it not have been a Republican ticket without any name upon it for Congress, for all you know?—A. Yes, sir; I could not read it.

JOSEPH G. HIGGINS sworn.

Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness, because contestant has had no notice whatever that he would be examined, either on this or any other date, thus depriving the contestant of his right under the law to one full day's notice and time to reach the place where the examination was to take place. Counsel for contestant protests against the examination of this witness as an abuse of contestee's power, and as a wanton and inexcusable disregard of both the law and the contestant's rights.

Question. Were you called as a witness on the part of contestant?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. For how many days have you been at this place where testimony is being taken during the present week?—A. This is the third day, I believe.

Q. Are the counsel present who cross-examine for contestant acquainted with you?—A. I can't say that he is.

Q. Have they spoken to you during the present week, and do they know that you were the collector of Woodward Township?

(Objected to, because the counsel for contestant who is conducting and has charge of the examination of witnesses before the commissioner now taking witness's testimony does not now or never did know the witness, and that he never, to his knowledge, spoke to the witness upon any subject whatever, and did not know until within ten minutes of the time he was called that he was to be a witness in this case.)

A. I wish you would tell me who you mean by they, then I will tell you.

Q. I mean either George R. Barrett, jr., who made the foregoing objection, or J. F. Snyder, who is now present in this room, and was when you were called, and when the objection was made, and W. H. Patterson, who has not been present thus far, each of them being counsel for contestant; have they or either of them, and which one, spoken to you during the week, and do they know you as the collector of Woodward Township?

(Objected to, because witness is and has been in the employ of the contestant in this case as the confidential adviser and assistant of contestant's counsel, and all the communication had between witness and contestant's counsel are in their nature privileged communications, which the witness need not divulge.)

A. They have both spoken to me, Mr. Patterson and Mr. Snyder, and I suppose they know I am collector of Woodward Township.

Q. Did you after the election of November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township, deliver the ballot box which had been used at that election to William Luther, of Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whose direction did you deliver it?—A. William Luther's.

Q. What day and what time of day did William Luther tell you to deliver that ballot box to him, and what did he say when he told you to deliver it to him?—A. I could not tell you what day it was. I can't tell you the day of the week or month it was; some time after the election. I saw him about it in the morning early some time. He said he wanted me to get the ballot box and give it to him; that I was going to get into trouble about the ballot box. He told me that Wallace and Krebs had told him to get me to bring the ballot box to him (Squire Luther.) Wallace and Krebs never said anything to me about it personally either before or since the election.

Q. Can you say what papers, if any, you looked at with Luther when you delivered the ballot box to him?—A. Yes, sir; I can say. The list of voters, I think.

Q. What was the purpose of looking at that paper?—A. Squire Luther said that John Wilson had told him that he had voted, and he asked me if I knew whether he had or not. I told him I thought he had not. He looked at the list then, and neither he or I could find his name on it.

Q. Why did you not look at any other papers in the ballot-box?—A. I don't know the reason why; I had no object whatever. I don't know the reason he had, or what idea he had about it.

Q. Did William Luther then, or at any other time, say anything to you about intending to examine the papers in that ballot-box for any purpose, and, if so, what purpose, and what did he say?—A. No, sir; he did not then or afterwards or at any time say anything about it.

Q. Were the other papers (the ballots and other returns) in the same subdivision of the ballot-box as the list of voters?—A. There were some other papers in there, but I could not tell what they were. I don't think the ballots were in the same box; I would not be certain.

Q. Were the other subdivisions of the ballot-box examined by you or by Luther in your presence?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were they closed or open?—A. They were all closed but that one in which the list of voters was.

Q. Can you say whether they were sealed or not?—A. I cannot say.

Q. Can you not say whether the ballots (that is, the string of ballots) was in the same subdivision with the list of voters?—A. I can't say; I did not see them either there or any other place.

Q. Are you the collector of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for State and county taxes?—A. I am, for 1876 and 1877.

Q. Do you remember of Andrew Gleason having paid you any State or county taxes for other parties, and, if so, what time did he so pay you as nearly as you can recollect?—A. I don't think Andrew Gleason ever paid me any himself; his clerks paid me some for other parties in his store; I cannot fix the time; I kept no account of it.

Q. Is there not any circumstance, or some election, that you can say it was either before or after?—A. He paid me several taxes in the store, but to the best of my recollection they did not pay me any after the fall election of 1876—the Presidential election of 1876.

Q. Did Jerry O'Neal ever pay you any State or county tax?—A. I don't think he did himself.

Q. If he paid any, was it not paid by Gleason or his clerks?—A. I think it was.

Q. Did you on the 25th March, 1879 (yesterday), give to Edward Lloyd, jr., and William Lloyd a receipt each for the payment of State or county taxes?—A. Yes, I gave them receipts as stated.

Q. Did they pay you any tax at the time you gave them the receipts?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did they claim to have paid you State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; they claimed they had.

Q. Did you say to them that there were so many Lloyds up there that you might have received their taxes and omitted to mark them paid, or anything to that effect?—A. No, sir, I did not; they stated that to me, though.

Q. What did you say when they said that?—A. I said it was strange that I did not mark it paid on the duplicate. I asked them if I had the duplicate along with me. That was one of them; the other one was marked paid already.

Q. Can you say which one had been marked paid before, Edward or William?—A. Edward Lloyd, jr., was not marked paid, the other was.

Q. If both these men swear they paid you taxes, as they claimed to you, within two years preceding that election, are you prepared to say whether they did or not?—A. I would not say that William did not, but I never would swear that the other one did.

Q. Do I understand you to say that William Luther personally ordered you to deliver to him that ballot-box?—A. Yes, sir; that is correct.

Q. Did you receive a note from him, or from any one else, and from whom, before he gave you that order personally?—A. My woman handed me a note from William Luther the night before I saw him personally.

Q. Where is that note now?—A. I don't know; I think I gave it to the children to play with. It is lost or destroyed.

Q. What was on the note, as nearly as you can recollect?—A. About the amount of it was, I was to get the ballot-box and bring it to his place.

Q. Did he say anything about your delivering it at daylight the next morning?—A. He did not say anything, whether it should be daylight or dark or when it was.

Q. Did he not say anything about who he had orders from; and, if so, who?—A. It did not.

Cross-examined:

Adjourned at 1 o'clock p. m. to meet at 1.45 o'clock p. m. same day.

Q. Where were the ballot-boxes used by the election officers on the 5th of November, 1878, deposited?—A. They were left at the election house.

Q. With whom were they left?—A. Squire Laymon had charge of it.

Q. Where did Squire Laymon live, with reference to the election house; how far from there?—A. I would think about three miles.

Q. Do you mean to say that Squire Laymon had charge of the ballot-boxes, but left them in the building where the election was held?

(Objected to in that it is leading and in an attempt to put a desired answer in the mouth of the witness contradictory of his whole testimony.)

A. Yes, sir; I had some business that I had to attend to that night. I asked Squire Laymon to take charge of the ballot-box. He said he would if the board was agreed to it. That is all that I know about it, except that the ballot-boxes were left in the election house.

Q. Was the building in which the election was held occupied or unoccupied?—A. Unoccupied. It was a storehouse.

Q. Then, when you told Squire Laymon to take charge of the boxes he did not take them with him and keep them in his possession?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. How long after the 5th day of November, 1878, was it that you repaired to the election house at the suggestion of Squire Luther for the purpose of getting the boxes?—A. It was some time after; I suppose two weeks or more.

Q. Then the boxes remained in an unoccupied house in no one's custody from the time of the November election, 1878, until you took them away?—A. To the best of my knowledge, they did.

Q. Is William Luther, who told you to get the boxes and bring them to his house, a resident of Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir; he is one of the justices of the peace of Woodward Township.

Q. Are you a constable in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you a constable on the 5th day of November last and on the day that you took the ballot-box from the election house to Squire Luther's?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Did you see any impropriety in William Luther, a commissioned justice of the peace of Woodward Township, asking you, the constable of Woodward Township, to take the ballot-boxes from the unoccupied building in which they had been left to his house?—A. No, sir; if I had I would not have meddled with it.

Q. On the other hand, did you not think it right and proper that the boxes should be taken from a place where they were exposed to the manipulation of interested parties to a place of safety?

(Objected to in that it, like nearly all the other questions asked upon cross-examination of this witness, is a flagrant attempt to put a desired answer in the mouth of a witness who contestant's counsel states on the record is the confidential adviser with contestant's counsel, and for the further reason that it assumes facts to be proved of which there is an utter absence of proof, and for these reasons is an abuse of the privilege of cross-examination.)

Counsel for contestant makes answer that this is contestee's own witness forced upon the witness-stand in violation of law and an utter disregard of contestant's rights under the act of Congress governing contested election, and that the cross-examination of contestant's counsel is perfectly proper and assumes no facts that are not in existence.)

A. I did think it was right, or I would not have taken them.

Q. Was there any attempt at secrecy made by you in getting the boxes into Squire Luther's house?—A. No, sir; I went in broad daylight.

Q. Did you understand from Squire Luther in any conversation you may have had with him, or from the note you received from him, that you were to go about getting the boxes in a secret or clandestine manner?—A. No, sir; I did not think there was to be any secrecy about it. I went and asked Thomas Henderson for them.

Q. Was there, to your knowledge, any recount of the vote of Woodward Township ordered?—A. Not that ever I heard of.

Q. When parties charged with tax upon your duplicate pay you their tax do you mark it paid upon your duplicate?—A. I certainly do.

Q. Was Edward Lloyd's tax for 1877 marked paid upon your duplicate?—A. No, sir; I gave him a receipt for it yesterday.

Q. Although you gave him the receipt yesterday, do you think he had paid his tax?—A. I think one of them did and the other did not.

Q. Have you not been employed by some of the gentlemen representing the contestee in this case to get their witnesses here for them?—A. I believe I notified a couple that Mr. Murray told me to (Joseph Alexander and William O'Hara). I had no subpoena.

Q. Is the Mr. Murray you speak of as employing you to perform these services the gentleman now present as counsel for contestee?—A. I believe he is.

Re-examined:

Q. Did Mr. Murray or anyone else for contestee employ you as confidential adviser?—A. No, sir.

Q. How far did William Luther live from the place where the election was held November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township, at the time you delivered him the ballot-box?—A. I think they call it three miles.

Q. On whose place and near whose house was the election-house in Woodward Township?—A. Thomas Henderson's place, and in his store-house.

Q. What were Thomas Henderson's politics on November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know, sir.

Q. What has he always been considered, Democrat or Republican?—A. A Democrat.

Q. What has Luther always been considered, Democrat or Republican?—A. I don't know.

Q. What are your politics, Democrat or Republican?—A. I am a Democrat.

Q. Do you swear that Edward Lloyd, jr., did not pay you his tax, as he claimed?—A. No, sir; I don't swear he did not, but I don't think he did.

Recross-examined:

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Andrew G. Curtin, I believe.

And further saith not.

J. G. HIGGINS.

GEORGE W. QUINN affirmed.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness because contestant was notified his examination would take place upon the 27th day of March, A. D. 1879.)

Question. Were you the judge of election held in Woodward Township election district on November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that election honestly, fairly, and legally conducted, so far as you know or could observe?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know of any interference of any person or persons outside of the board during the time you received votes or counted off, or at any other time?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you require of persons whose names were not on the registry-list before voting that they swear to and subscribe a partly written and partly printed affidavit as to residence and payment of tax, and that they produce another witness, who also swore to and subscribed a partly written and partly printed affidavit that the person offering to vote was a citizen resident for at least two months within the district which witness was a qualified elector in that district?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were these affidavits deposited after you counted off?—A. They were deposited in the ballot-box, I believe.

Q. They were not then forwarded with the returns to Clearfield?—A. I think not.

Q. Did you require of persons born out of the United States before voting that they produce their naturalization papers?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. If there were any cases in which you did not so require them, why was it?—A. It was in cases where they had shown their papers before.

Q. Do you mean or not that it was cases where the board or some members of it had seen their papers produced at preceding election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were the ballots numbered as received by a number corresponding in each case with the number opposite the name of the voter on the list of voters?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were the persons who voted on age required to sign and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit as to their age, and to produce a qualified elector of the district who also was required to sign and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit as to the citizenship of the voter, his residence for one year in the State and for two months in the district, immediately preceding said election?—A. No, sir; I believe not.

Q. Did you require of such persons that they make oath to their age, citizenship, and residence in the district?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were such affidavits in writing, sworn to and subscribed to by the voter?—A. No, sir; such affidavits were taken orally.

Q. When a voter had lost or failed to produce his tax-receipt, what proof did you require of him of his payment of tax?—A. We required the collector to state whether he had paid the tax or not.

Q. Who were the collectors present?—A. Joseph G. Higgins and Thomas Henderson.

Q. What were their politics, Democrats or Republicans?—A. Democrats.

Q. If any doubt existed as to payment of tax, did you or not require the voter to make oath?—A. Yes, sir; we received no vote when we were not satisfied that his tax had been paid.

Q. Had you been on election boards before?—A. Yes; three different times.

Q. How did this election in Woodward district, in respect to fairness, honesty, and legality, compare with other elections where you have been on the board and which you have witnessed?—A. It was the same as the other elections were conducted that I was on.

Q. Were you well acquainted with the other officers of the board?—A. Not very well acquainted with them.

Q. Do you think that any member of the board, either the judge or either of the inspectors, willfully and intentionally violated the law in the conduct of that election?

(Objected to because the witness is not competent to testify to the intentions of the two inspectors.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Are you a native-born citizen?—A. Yes; I was born in Pennsylvania.

Q. What is your age?—A. I am in my thirty-ninth year.

Q. What were your politics on November 5, 1878?—A. A Democrat.

Q. Why was the ballot-box left in the election house?—A. It has always been left there on other elections.

Q. Was the box and the house in which it was left well secured before leaving it there?—A. The house was locked, but the man used the house for his pleasure.

Q. What were Henderson's politics?—A. A Democrat, I believe.

Q. At whose request or suggestion was the ballot-box left there?—A. I can't just remember about leaving the box there. There was some one spoke about taking the box away, but Squire Lehman, I think, opposed it.

Q. Did not Lehman, the justice of the peace, propose that the ballot-box be delivered to him?—A. He mentioned about taking the ballot-box to a justice.

Q. And who opposed that?—A. I believe I said myself the box had always been left there. I misunderstood the question when I said Squire Lehman opposed taking the box away. It was Squire Lehman spoke about it being delivered to the nearest justice.

Q. What did Lehman say about it?—A. He said the law required it to be left with the nearest justice.

Cross-examined:

Q. What duties did you perform as judge of the election board in Woodward Township during the holding of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I kept the registry.

Q. What did the minority inspector do?—A. He put the tickets in the box.

Q. What did the majority inspector do?—A. He received the tickets.

Q. Who numbered the tickets?—A. The majority inspector.

Q. As each name was announced at the window did you refer to the registry-list to ascertain if their names were thereon?—A. Not in all cases.

Q. As each person voted did you mark the letter V opposite their names upon the registry-list?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who assigned the majority and minority inspectors—one to the duty of taking in the tickets at the window and numbering them, and the other to putting them into the box?—A. We agreed to it among ourselves.

Q. How many persons voted the day of said election whose names were not upon the registry-list?—A. I cannot remember; I suppose about ten or twelve; there may have been more or some less.

Q. Were each of these persons whose names were not upon the registry-list required to subscribe and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit setting forth their legal qualifications as voters and produce a legally qualified voter of the district to vouch for them?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were persons who desired to vote on age required to subscribe and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit setting forth that they were citizens of the United States and of this commonwealth; that they had resided in that election district for at least two months prior to the 5th day of November, 1878; that they were at least twenty-one and not more than twenty-two years of age?—A. They were required to be sworn but not to sign the affidavit.

Q. Did you also require such parties voting on age to bring with them before the board a legally qualified voter of said election district and require him to subscribe and swear to a partly written and partly printed affidavit setting forth that he knew the person so wishing to vote, and that he had resided in said election district of Woodward Township for at least two months prior to November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; we received their vote on the strength of one oath.

Q. Did you in all cases require persons who were not born in this country, but who claimed the rights of citizenship under papers of naturalization, to produce before the election board their final certificate of naturalization, excepting where they had voted in Woodward Township for five consecutive years?—A. Yes, sir; I believe that all who did not produce their papers were known by the board and their papers seen before.

Q. What time did you open the polls in the morning?—A. At 7 o'clock a. m.

Q. What time did you close in the evening?—A. At 7 o'clock p. m.

Q. Were the election officers sworn?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who administered the oaths?—A. The justice of the peace, Squire Lehman.

Q. Were any other persons permitted in the room when the election was being held, except the members of the board?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who were in the room beside the members of the board?—A. I don't know who all was in; there were different ones back and forward.

Q. Were people coming in and going out of the room all through the day and evening?—A. Yes, sir; up to near the close of the election.

Q. Were parties who were not members of the board present in the room while the vote was being counted off?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time did you finish counting off the vote?—A. I think it was nearly four in the morning after the election.

Q. Did persons who were not members of the board assist in counting off either by tallying or by performing any other work incident to the count?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you, as judge, thoroughly conversant with the law regulating the conduct of elections under the law and the new constitution?—A. I can't say I was thoroughly acquainted with it; I had the law there and knew something about it.

Q. If you had the law with you and were conversant with it, why did you hold the election for Woodward Township on the 5th of November, 1878, in violation of its plainest provisions?—A. We were not aware that we violated it.

Re-examined:

Q. When persons were not on the registry-list, was proof required of their qualifications as voters?—A. Yes, sir; they were asked, and their own oath was taken.

Q. Did you refer to the registry-list in all cases except as to those persons whom you knew were on the list and were qualified voters?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did any person or persons that were in the election-room interfere in any way with the duties of the election-board or touch or handle the tickets in any way, or touch or disturb the ballot-box?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is forty-eight years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In South Wales.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of citizenship?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of naturalization dated August 10, 1864, signed by W. C. Wagoner, prothonotary, to which is attached the seal of the court of Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Were you in open court of Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, naturalized on August 10, 1864?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you produce said certificate of naturalization that the notary may copy the indorsements thereon?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produced certificate, upon which the following indorsements appear: "Amos Evans. October 8, 1872. Voted November 7, 1876. Voted at Woodward November 5, 1878.")

Q. Was Amos Evans one of the election-board at the polls where you voted October 8, 1872?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you and your wife resided in Pennsylvania continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878, and had you with your wife resided in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the two months and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt dated Stonerstown, Pa., November 22, 1877. County tax in full for the year 1877, signed by N. Hyssong, J. P. Stonerstown is in Bedford County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Was N. Hyssong a collector of county taxes, and did you pay him said taxes on November 22, 1877, the date of your receipt?—A. He was collector, and I paid him the money and got the receipt upon the day it is dated.

Q. Did you vote in said election district of Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

DENNIS WHITE sworn.

Question. Where do you live and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is fifty-three or fifty-four.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Ireland.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of naturalization, that is a certificate of the record from the prothonotary of Centre County, as follows: Among the records of the court of common pleas of Centre County of April term, A. D. 1854, in the book for record of naturalization, it is thus recorded, to wit: "No. 2. Dennis White, a native of Ireland, sworn and admitted as a citizen of the United States, March 21, 1854." The above is certified to by John Moran, prothonotary, October 10, 1871. Seal of court of Centre County attached to certificate.)

Q. Had you lost your certificate of naturalization?—A. I considered I had when I wrote to get this, but found it afterward.

Q. Were you, in the open court of Centre County, Pennsylvania, naturalized on March 21, 1854?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, with your wife, resided in Pennsylvania continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878, and in the election district of Houtzdale Borough for the two months and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt dated — for county tax for the year 1877, signed by John Auckerman, collector.)

Q. In what county did you pay said tax?—A. In Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was John Auckerman collector of State and county taxes, and did you pay him the taxes called for in your receipt in the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir; he was, and I paid them in 1877.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Houtzdale Borough at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Were you present at the election-polls of Houtzdale Borough at 7 a. m. on November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know if I was present exactly at seven. I was there shortly afterwards, anyhow.

Q. Were you appointed one of the inspectors to hold the election in said Houtzdale Borough, and if so, by whom?—A. No, sir; I was appointed judge by Philip McDermott, majority inspector.

Q. Did you serve as judge of said election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Why not?—A. There was an objection made that I was not long enough in the place, by Squire McAteer.

Q. Was Squire McAteer and Frank Bolger present that morning?—A. The squire and Bolger were there.

Q. What are the politics of McAteer and Bolger?—A. I consider they are Democrats.

Q. Did McAteer raise considerable disturbance?—A. Yes; he had a great deal to say.

Q. Did he threaten or offer to take the ballot-box away from the polls?—A. Yes; he allowed he would take possession of them.

Q. Did or did not McAteer pick up the ballot-box and attempt to take it out of the room?—A. He had his hands on it, but whether he was determined to take it out of the room I could not say.

Q. After eight o'clock was an election board organized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. From McAteer's conduct and talk, what was his evident purpose in objecting to your appointment and delaying the organization of the board?

(Objected to because the question asked witness to give an opinion as to the purpose of another man when it is only competent for him to state the facts as they actually occurred, and to leave the discovery of the intention and purposes of the parties concerned to the committee of Congress that will consider this case.)

A. I considered that he did not wish the Greenbackers to have a majority on the board, and my opinion was he wanted to delay the organizing of the board until after eight o'clock. I expressed my opinion to that effect at that time and told them to appoint some other man in my place if that would satisfy them.

Q. Was the election board after eight o'clock organized with a Republican judge, a Democratic inspector, and a Greenback inspector?—A. I can't say in regard to their politics, but they all appeared to be satisfied.

Q. Then you did not insist on acting as judge, but told them to get some one else?—A. Yes, sir; I did not insist. I told them I did not care about the office.

Q. Were you present during most of said election day, or part of it, at the polls?—A. Yes; I was there from the time they began voting until night, except when I went to dinner.

Q. Being there all the time, from your knowledge and observation was not the election held fairly and honestly and quietly?

(Objected to because witness not being a member of the board nor being conversant with the acts of the election officers inside is not competent to give an opinion as to the legality or illegality of the election.)

A. To the best of my knowledge it was.

Cross-examined:

Q. You say you procured the certified copy of record produced by you on the stand while under the impression that your papers were lost, but that you afterwards found them; where are those papers now?—A. They are at the house.

(Counsel for contestant at this point expressly reserves the right to move the committee of Congress considering this case to reject the testimony of witness because the proof of his naturalization is not the best proof that he can adduce, a certified copy of record only being evidence after it has been conclusively shown that the original evidence of witness's naturalization was either lost or destroyed.)

Q. Who was minority inspector of the election board of Houtzdale Borough, on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I don't know who was minority inspector; I did not know the man; Philip McDermott was the majority inspector.

Q. Was Philip McDermott a Democrat, or a Republican, or a Greenbacker?—A. A Greenbacker to the best of my knowledge.

Q. What would the minority inspector's politics necessarily be if the Democrats had a majority in Houtzdale Borough?—A. I don't know the law in regard to that.

Q. If you had been allowed to serve as judge of the election would it not have given the control of the board to the Greenbackers?—A. Yes, sir; but I would have acted impartially.

Q. How long had you resided in Houtzdale Borough before the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I moved into Houtzdale Borough about the 8th or 9th of August, 1878.

Q. Were you personally acquainted with Squire McAteer and Frank Bolger?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know that McAteer is a justice of the peace of Houtzdale Borough?—A. I can't say that he was. I considered he was.

Q. Who was appointed judge after your name was withdrawn?—A. Mr. McNamara was one of the inspectors; James Moore was appointed judge after 8 o'clock.

Q. What was James Moore's politics?—A. I don't know.

Q. Were you a property-holder in Westmoreland County in 1877?—A. Yes, sir; and also in Clearfield County.

Q. What property did you own in Westmoreland County in 1877?—A. A house and lot.

Q. Were your county taxes on that property for the year 1877 $5.83?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live and what is your age?—Answer. Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; am forty-eight years old.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In England.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized. And, if so, produce your certificate of citizenship.—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces certificate of naturalization dated September 23, 1878, signed by Eli Bloom, prothonotary, and to which is attached the seal of the court of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Were you naturalized in open court in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on September 23, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you with your wife resided in the State of Pennsylvania continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878, and in the election district of said Decatur Township continuously for the two months and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is the following indorsement on your certificate of citizenship, viz: "November 5, 1878," and does that refer to voting on that day?—A. Yes, sir; I suppose it does; my boy took this to the polls.

Q. Did your son vote before you and did he present your certificate of citizenship upon which the election board wrote "November 5, 1878?"—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then when you voted November 5, 1878, the election board knew the fact that you were naturalized, because your boy had presented your certificate when he voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces receipt dated September 25, 18—, for his State and county tax for the year 1877, signed by Levi Goss, collector.)

Q. Was Levi Goss collector of State and county taxes, and did you pay him said taxes on September 25, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township at the general election held there November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; my age is 42 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In England.

Q. Have you been naturalized? and, if so, produce your certificate of naturalization.—A. Yes, sir; I have my father's papers, and vote on them.

Q. How old were you when you came to the United States from England?—A. From four to six years old.

Q. Did your father come to this country with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where, as near as you can tell, was your father naturalized?—A. About 1848, in the State of Pennsylvania, Schuylkill County.

Q. Are you married; and, if so, did you and your wife reside in the said election district of Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I am married, and we resided as stated.

Q. Had you, within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State and county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when did you pay it?—A. To Joseph Higgins, collector of State and county taxes, about August, 1877.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you in your possession your father's certificate of naturalization?—A. I have it at home, but not here. I did not know it was needed.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the testimony of witness in so far as it relates to his father's naturalization, it not being competent for him to establish his father's naturalization by parol proof, a certified copy of record, or his father's original certificate of naturalization, being the best evidence.)

Q. Are you sure you paid Joseph Higgins a State or county tax in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you know you paid him in 1877?—A. Because I know it was the year before last.

Q. Did he give you a receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is that receipt?—A. It is either lost or torn up.

Re-examined:

Q. How often have you voted on your father's certificate?—A. Since about 1861.

Q. How often have you voted in said Woodward Township?—A. I have been voting there for four years.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and where?—A. Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in the fall of 1872.

Q. Where is your certificate of naturalization?—A. At home. I did not bring it with me because I did not know it to be necessary.

(Counsel for contestant objects for the same reasons as objection urged against the testimony of Thomas Partridge.)

Q. Were you naturalized in open court in Clearfield County in the fall of 1872?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married; and, if so, did you and your wife reside in the election district of Decatur Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; and we resided in the district during that time.

Q. Do you own real estate in Osceola Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF THE CONTESTEE.

In the matter of the contested election in the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania for a seat to represent said district in the House of Representatives of the United States of America in the Forty-sixth Congress.

Depositions of witnesses before Wm. Radebaugh, a notary public of the State of Pennsylvania, a resident of the town of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, at the Pennfield Hotel, in the village of Pennfield, Township of Huston, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania on the part of Hon. Seth H. Yocum, contestee, on the 28th day of March, A. D. 1879, commencing at 8 o'clock a. m.

T. W. LETTS sworn.

(Counsel for contestant objects and protests to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn for the reason that the contestant or his counsel have not had such notice of the taking of the testimony of this witness at this time and place as is required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings wherein the right to seats in the United States Congress are contested. Counsel for contestant expressly reserve the right to move the committee of Congress who shall hear this case to strike out the testimony of this witness for the reasons above stated.)

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. State of New York, in 1838.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you with your wife and family reside in Huston Township,

Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month prior to November 5, 1878, and have you any receipts for the same; and, if so, produce them?—A. Yes, sir; I did. My receipts are locked up in a tin trunk and I have lost the key.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the right to all legal exceptions to the testimony of the witness and expressly reserving the right to move the committee of Congress to strike out the testimony of witness for the reasons set forth in the objections to his testifying, now proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Did you read the ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Can you remember any of the names that were upon that ticket?—A. Yes; some of them.

Q. Will you mention some of them?—A. Kratzer, of Clearfield, for one.

Q. Who was on that ticket for governor?—A. Mason.

Q. When and to whom did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I think I paid it to Sylvester Hunt some time during the summer of 1877.

Q. Are you certain the tax you paid Sylvester Hunt was a State or county tax?—A. I am certain it was a State and county tax.

Q. Upon what property was that tax assessed?—A. Property belonging to me (real estate) in Pennfield.

Q. Are you positive you paid Sylvester Hunt a State and county tax in the year 1877?—A. I am.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. It never was challenged.

Re-examined:

Q. Are you sure you paid a State and county tax in 1877?

Question withdrawn.

Recross-examined;

Q. Was this the only State and county tax you paid within said two years?—A. I am not positive that it is.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one whole year immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State and county tax within two years preceding said election which was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Can you remember any names that were upon that ticket?—A. I remember of Mr. Bird's name being on the ticket.

Q. Can you remember any other name?—A. I cannot.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of the State and county tax which you say you paid within said two years?—A. I have, for 1878; also for 1877, but have not got it with me.

Q. When was the 1878 tax paid—that is, on what day and month?—A. I can't say without looking at the receipt.

Q. Without looking at the receipt, about what time was it paid?—A. I think about September.

Q. About what time in September?—A. I could not say what time exactly.

Q. Were these taxes paid at the time of the date of the receipt?—A. They were.

Q. Did you see the receipt written, and was the date written upon that receipt the day and month and year upon which you paid said taxes?—A. I did, and it was paid that day.

Q. Was it paid in money and by yourself?—A. It was.

Q. When you offered to vote on November 5, 1878, was your vote challenged?—A. Mr. Towns asked me if I had a receipt, and I showed it to him. I was not challenged.

Q. Were you required to make a partly printed and partly written affidavit, before your vote was received, as to your residence and the payment of your taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. On what day of the week were these taxes paid, which you say were paid about September, 1878?—A. I could not tell.

Q. Do you think it was on Saturday?—A. I could not say.

Re-examined:

Q. Will you produce the receipt which you have with you for payment of State and county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Witness produces receipt, which reads as follows:

“PEMFIELD, PA., Oct. 5th, 1878.

“Received of Henry Rogers $\frac{26}{100}$ dollars, county & State tax for 1878.

“J. H. ROSENKRANS.”

Q. Was J. H. Rosenkrans collector of State and county taxes for Huston Township for the year 1878?—A. Yes; he was.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of said tax and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir; I have, and will produce it. (Witness produces receipt, dated July 27, 1877, for his State and county tax for 1877, assessed on his property situate in the township of Union, signed D. McGaughey, treasurer.)

Re-examined:

Q. The receipt which you have produced is for the taxes of "Geo. Fitzcharles"; is that your name?—A. No, sir; Fitzgerald is my name.

Q. Is there any man of the name of George Fitzcharles in Union Township?—A. No, sir.

Re-cross:

Q. Did you pay your State and county tax for the year 1877 to David McGaughey, treasurer of Clearfield County, on the 27th of July, 1877, and did you receive from him the receipt which you have in your hands for the payment of the same?—A. I paid it to Henry Whitehead, and he gave me the receipt.

Q. You paid it to Henry Whitehead, did you, and asked him to pay it to treasurer McGaughey?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you receive the receipt which you now have in your hands from Henry Whitehead, who you directed to pay these taxes for you, and did he say he had paid them and that this was the receipt for the same?—A. He left it with my wife at my house.

Q. Did he ever tell you he had paid your State and county taxes to treasurer McGaughey for the year 1877 and any other years?—A. No; he never did.

Re-examined:

Q. All you know about it is that you gave the money to Whitehead and that he afterwards left this receipt with the name of "George Fitzcharles" with your wife at your house?—A. I never gave him the money for this tax; I worked for him on unseated land tax and he paid this from that work.

Q. Did you know anything about his paying it until you saw this receipt which he left at your house?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever authorize or request him to pay this tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you do so before he actually paid it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Might there not have been a man of the name of Fitzcharles living in Union Township and you not know it?—A. There might have been, sir; there is not to my knowledge.

Q. Other than this tax which Whitehead paid, did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878, or was any other such tax paid for you?—A. Eighteen hundred and seventy-eight was paid by the same man.

Q. When was that tax paid of 1878?—A. It was paid so as to save the 5 per cent.

And further saith not.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of Ira Cline, of Union Township, for the same reasons as those set forth in the objections to the taking of the testimony of T. W. Litts, and making the same reservations.)

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I was twenty-two on January 24, 1879.

Q. Then you were born, were you or not, on January 24, 1857?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you born?—A. State of Pennsylvania, Clearfield County.

Q. Did you reside in the election district of said Union Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Union Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At said election did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum for Congress; which of the two?

(Objected to, because it is leading.)

A. Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket that you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you cannot swear positively, can you, that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I did not read my ticket.

Q. Then can you swear positively that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress on November 5, 1878?—A. I could not when I did not read my ticket.

Q. When you voted on November 5, 1878, were you required to make an affidavit as to your age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that affidavit a written or a printed affidavit?—A. Yes, sir; there was printing on it.

Q. By whom were you sworn when you made this affidavit?—A. Mr. Whitehead.

Q. Was Mr. Whitehead a member of the election board of Union Township?—A. I suppose so. He belonged to the township.

Q. Where did you live on October 1, 1878?—A. At home, in Union Township.

Re-examined:

Q. Was Mr. Whitehead in the election-room when you were sworn?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. May he not have prepared the affidavit and some one else sworn you to it?—A. Mr. Whitehead swore me. I don't know who made the paper out.

Q. Are you certain that it was Mr. Whitehead who swore you to the paper?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. From whom did you get the ticket that you voted November 5, 1878?—A. From John Keisickle.

Q. Was John Keisickle a Yocum man?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. That is what he said.

Q. Was he not working for Yocum?

(Objected to as leading.)

A. He was not electioneering for him. He gave me my ticket.

Q. What are your politics?—A. I am a Greenbacker.

Q. Was not Keisickle a Greenbacker?—A. He said he was.

And further saith not.

IRA CLINE.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I am 45 years of age.

Q. Where were you born?—A. State of Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the State of Pennsylvania continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I have only been married since the 18th of September last.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania during that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir; I have paid all that was required of me.

Q. To whom, and when?—A. To Jacob Huffman; some time in September, 1878.

Q. Are you certain you paid a State or county tax some time in September, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I will be qualified to that.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Huston Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket before you voted?—A. No, sir.

Q. What are your politics?—A. Democratic, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I believe it was Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. From Hiram Woodward.

Q. Was Hiram Woodward an active worker for Andrew G. Curtin and the whole Democratic ticket on November 5, 1878?—A. I never asked him about that, sir; he took an interest the same as I took for the Democratic party.

Q. Did you vote the ticket which Hiram Woodward gave you at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States for one month and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for one year, and within the election district of Huston Township for at least two months, immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were the members of the election board of Huston Township who held the election of November 5, 1878, personally acquainted with you?—A. Yes, sir; I worked for one of them.

And further saith not.

(Counsel for contestant objects and protests to the taking of testimony of this witness now sworn for the reason that contestant has not received such notice of the taking of the testimony of this witness now sworn as is required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings for contested rights to seats in the Congress of the United States, and counsel for contestant expressly reserves the right to move the committee of Congress who shall hear the case to strike out the testimony of witness for the reason stated in the foregoing objections to his testifying.)

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I paid my tax for 1877 to Jacob Huffman.

Q. When did you pay that tax to Huffman?—A. It was before the election of 1877, in time to secure my vote at that election.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of taxes?—A. Jacob Huffman gave me a receipt, but I lost it.

Q. For what year was the tax assessed that you paid to Huffman?—A. For the year 1877. I have also a tax receipt for 1876, from Liberty Township, Centre County.

Q. Was the tax you paid to Huffman the only State or county tax you paid within two years?—A. Yes, sir; I went to Mr. Rosenkurtz to pay my tax this year and he had none against me.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding November 5, 1878, and in Huston Township, Clearfield County, for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Huston Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving all rights and privileges relative to the testimony of this witness, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. When you offered to vote at Huston Township, on November 5, 1878, were you required by the election board in said township to make an affidavit that you had resided in said district for at least two months immediately preceding said election, and that you had paid a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding said election, which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I was not asked to make affidavit; I showed my receipt that I was a regular voter.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided there?—A. Twenty-four years.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in Huston Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Are you acquainted with Johnson Horn, Ed. Crans, John Callahan, George Major, J. P. Sullivan, Henry Weymoth, Patrick Flynn, Davidson Blackwell, George Newell, D. Newell, and Albert Newell, all now or lately of Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is their politics, Democratic or Republican?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the persons' names in the preceding question are the best evidence of what their politics are, and for the further reason that the witness cannot possibly know, of his own knowledge, what their politics are, and his answer must depend upon what others have told him, and is therefore also hearsay; and counsel for contestant further objects to this question and the answer of witness thereto, for the reason that the contestee has not made witnesses out of the said parties, and has, by his own negligence, permitted the best evidence to remain unheard.)

A. Democratic.

Q. Are you well acquainted with the citizens of Huston Township?

(Objected to, because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. A good many of them.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you, before your vote was received at the election of November 5, 1878, required to make an affidavit by the said election board of Huston Township, in which you made proof of your residence and of the payment of your taxes within the time required by law?—A. No, sir.

WM. RADEBAUGH,
Notary Public.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA,
Clearfield County, ss :

I, William Radebaugh, notary public in and for the said State and county, before whom depositions of the above-named witnesses were taken, do hereby certify that said witnesses were duly qualified and examined at the times and places as stated in the caption to those depositions, and subscribed their names to their respective depositions in my presence; and that the questions and answers in said depositions were taken down by me truly and correctly as they fell from the lips of the respective counsel and witnesses.

And I do further certify that the erasures and interlineations made therein, and particularly set forth on pages 828 to 838 inclusive, were made by me on the lines and pages therein noted before the respective depositions in which they were made were signed by the witnesses.

Witness my hand and notarial seal this 18th day of April, A. D. 1879.

Notary Public.

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF THE CONTESTEE.

In the matter of the contested election in the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, for a seat to represent said district in the House of Representatives of the United States of America in the Forty-sixth Congress.

Depositions of witnesses taken before John W. Scott, a notary public of the State of Pennsylvania, a resident of the borough of Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, at the court-house in the borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the part of Hon. Seth H. Yocum, contestee, on the 26th day of March, A. D. 1879, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m.

S. SNYDER BLOOM sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. Well, I think, if I remember right, En. Bloom and I sat down together; he cut the tickets out for me, and I think I doubled them up myself.

Q. Do you know how many tickets Enos Bloom cut out and gave you?—A. No, I believe not.

Q. Did you fold them up as he handed them to you?—A. I don't remember whether I folded them up one by one, or whether I kept them until I got all of them.

Q. Did you vote the tickets which you thus folded up?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. After folding them, did you open and look at them before voting?—A. No, sir; not as I remember of.

Q. Can you now tell how many tickets you voted?—A. No, I can't; I thought I had the full hand.

Q. For whom did you vote at that election for Congress?—A. For Curtin, I believe, the Democratic candidate; I forget the two men's names.

Q. Did you vote for A. G. Curtin, the Democratic candidate for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how many tickets did Enos Bloom have when he gave you yours?—A. Well, I believe he had—you know how they are stamped—a sheet of them, and cut the tickets out.

Q. Did he have but one sheet of tickets there; and, if not, about how many sheets did he have?—A. Well, I don't remember whether he had any more or not.

Q. What kind of tickets did he have; Democratic or Republican?—A. Democratic tickets.

Q. Was he or not working in the interest of Curtin, at that election?—A. That is something I cannot tell you. I had him with me to tell me who was running at the election.

Q. What is Enos Bloom's politics?—A. Democratic, I believe.

Q. Are you sure you folded all the tickets you voted?—A. I think I did.

Q. Might not Enos Bloom have folded some of them?—A. Not as I remember of.

Q. I understand you to say, then, that Enos Bloom cut these tickets out, and that you think you folded them yourself, and did not afterward look at them. Is that correct?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you swear how many tickets you voted for Curtin?—A. I was expecting to vote for one.

Q. Did you only intend to vote one ticket for him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you swear that you did not vote two?—A. I didn't know it if I did.

Q. Can you tell how many separate tickets you voted at that election?—A. I didn't count them.

Q. Which of the inspectors read your tickets?—A. I handed them in at the window; I supposed the board would attend to them.

Q. When did you pay a State and county tax?—A. I haven't paid any.

Q. When were you born?—A. I don't remember the year; it was the 26th of September.

Q. Was it as far back as 1854?—A. I don't hardly think it was.

Q. How old are you now?—A. Well, according to the family record, I'll be twenty-three the 26th day of September.

Q. Do you mean you will be twenty-three years of age on the 26th day of September, 1879?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever pay a State or county tax?—A. No, sir; I didn't.

Cross-examined by Mr. O. L. KREBS :

Q. Did you offer to pay a State or county tax more than thirty days before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When the collector of State or county taxes came from Clearfield to your township, did you offer to him to pay tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Clearfield County.

Q. Did you reside in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, more than two months immediately preceding the November election of 1878?—A. Yes, sir; ever since I was a small chap.

Q. When you speak of your tickets, do you refer to the State, judiciary, and county ticket?—A. I hardly understand that.

Q. Was your ticket cut apart, and, if so, into how many parts?—A. It was; I believe it was cut apart, but I did not count them.

Q. Did you vote more than once for any candidate?—A. No, sir; not as I know of.

And further saith not.

SAMUEL SNYDER BLOOM.

And now, March 26, 1879, at 1 o'clock p. m., examination resumed.

Previous witness, S. S. BLOOM, sworn.

Question. Are you the witness who was examined just before adjournment?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your name in full?—A. Samuel Snyder Bloom.

Q. Did you vote in Knox Township at the general election in November 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not, at said election, in November, 1877, vote on age?—A. I voted on age.

And further saith not.

No cross-examination.

CURTIS BLOOM produced and affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. When I voted, I lived in Knox Township.

Q. Did you vote in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at the election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. How many tickets did you vote?—A. I just voted the one hand.

Q. Was the ticket you voted all in one piece?—A. I thought they was.

Q. Are you sure you only voted one ticket for Curtin?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote the whole Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you think you did not vote more than one ticket?—A. No, sir; I don't think I did.

Q. Did you read your ticket before voting?—A. Yes, I guess I did.

Q. Did you vote the regular printed ticket?—A. I think so.

Q. And you think you voted the whole Democratic ticket—that is, all together in one ticket?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you, within two years preceding said election of 1878, November 5, pay a State or county tax?—A. I never paid any tax for myself.

Q. Was any State or county tax paid for you within those two years?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years; if so, under what arrangement?—A. No; I didn't pay any tax.

Q. How old are you?—A. I will be 22 on the 5th day of April, 1879.

Q. Did you vote on age at the general election November 5, 1878?—A. I voted on age.

Q. Did you live in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you live one year immediately before the said election in the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you not remember that your ticket or full hand, as you call it, was made up of State ticket, judiciary, and county, and sheep-law tickets?—A. I remember of voting against the sheep law.

Q. What do you say as to the balance of the question?—A. I voted State, judiciary, county, and against the sheep law.

Q. Who folded your ticket?—A. My brother, Enos Bloom.

Q. Was it in parts or not when it was folded?—A. It was all together, I think.

Q. Did you open it after he gave it to you?—A. I just read it; he folded it, and I went and handed it in.

Q. How old is your brother, Enos Bloom?—A. He must be thirty-four or five.

Re-examined :

Q. Did you vote the sheep-law ticket with and attached to the balance of your ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I voted them all together.

And further saith not.

CURTIS BLOOM.

JAMES NAILEN sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Graham Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Graham Township at the election November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. Andrew Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I can't answer, because it was in such shape I can't tell what tax it was.

Q. To whom did you pay any tax within those two years?—A. William Hoover.

Q. Do you mean W. W. Hoover, collector of taxes for Graham Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much money did you pay him, and when?—A. Three dollars. On or about the 15th of November, 1877.

Q. Did Hoover have against you taxes both for 1876 and '77?—A. I understand so.

Q. What different kind of taxes did he have against you?—A. School-tax, and State and county tax.

Q. For the payment of what year's tax was this $3 paid?—A. 1876 tax.

Q. What did the 1876 tax which he had against you amount to?—A. Three dollars and one cent.

Q. Did you ever pay your taxes or the taxes he had against you for the year 1877?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you a statement from the collector of those taxes, and will you hand it to the notary to copy?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces statement which reads as follows :

“Mr. JAMES NAILEN :

“SIR: You are indebted to W. W. Hoover, tax-collector for Graham Township, for tax, as follows :

“School, for 1877.....	$1 83
“ “ 1876.....	1 00
“State and county for 1877.....	2 49
“ “ “ “ 1876.....	2 01
Total	$7 33

“Collector.

“Return for signature.”

Endorsed on the back in lead-pencil, as follows: “Paid on the within three dollars ($3⁰⁰/₁₀₀).”

Q. Other than this tax which you paid to W. W. Hoover, did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was this $3 indorsed on this statement the $3 which you referred as paid to Hoover?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Against whom were the taxes for 1876 which you paid assessed?—A. Really, I don't know; but was told within this last week by W. W. Hoover, the collector, that they were assessed against Leon Coudriet.

Q. Don't you know that those taxes of 1876 were against Leon Coudriet?—A. Not positively; I couldn't swear to it. If I could swear to another man's words, I suppose I could.

Q. Were those taxes assessed—those taxes of 1876—against you or against Mr. Coudriet?—A. I gave my testimony on that. I didn't know who the tax was assessed to.

Q. How long have you lived in Graham Township?—A. Since September, 1875.

Q. Where did you live before that?—A. In Morris Township.

Cross-examined:

Q. On whose property did you live in Graham Township in 1876?—A. A property I bought by article from Leon Coudriet.

Q. What is the date of your article with Coudriet?—A. March 10, 1876.

Q. Were not the taxes of 1876 assessed after the date of your article with Coudriet?—A. That I don't know.

Q. Were the taxes you paid for 1876 assessed on the property you bought by article from Coudriet?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Tioga County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you live in Graham Township continuously from September, 1875, to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. When did you move onto this property you purchased from Coudriet by article?—A. About the latter end of March, 1876.

Q. Are you sure it was in March of that year?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you pay this $3 tax believing it to be against you?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

JOHN W. SCOTT,
Notary Public.

JOHN P. OWEN affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you one of the clerks at the election of November 5, 1878, in said township?—A. Yes, sir.

(Counsel objects to this witness testifying at this time because no sufficient notice has been given that he would be called.)

Q. Were outsiders permitted to come in and go out of the room in which the election was held both during the day and while the votes were being counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how many would be in at a time?—A. I couldn't answer that. Sometimes there would be about 25, sometimes 30 or 40 were in.

Q. Was the election held in the school-house at Turkey Hill?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. While the votes were being counted, who took the ballots from the box?—A. Mr. George Robins.

Q. Was or was he not the Democratic inspector?—A. Yes, sir; I believe he was.

Q. Who was the minority inspector and who was judge of the election?—A. Lewis Robins was judge and Thomas H. Lord was the minority inspector.

Q. Were all of the votes counted that Robins, the inspector, took from the ballot-box?—A. All that was read off was.

Q. Were all the ballots read off that were taken from the ballot-box?—A. I couldn't say that they were.

Q. What relation was the Democratic inspector to the judge?—A. The inspector was the father of the judge.

Q. In counting the votes which of the inspectors took the ballots from the box?—A. Mr. George Robins.

Q. Were any ballots taken from the box by him that were not read off and counted, if you know?—A. At one time I saw him take tickets out of the box, and in taking tickets out of the box, and in taking them apart, a ticket or two fell. I told him to take care. He said his eyes were so bad he couldn't see well by candle-light, or something that way.

Q. Did he look at these tickets after taking them out of the box?—A. I couldn't tell you; he had them in his fingers taking them apart.

Q. Where was Lord, the minority inspector, at the time this ticket or tickets were dropped?—A. He was lighting his pipe at the desk.

Q. Was he in a position at that time to see what was going on at the ballot-box?—A. If his mind had been directed he might have known what was going on. If he had known what was going on he might have noticed it.

Q. How many ballots do you think were dropped to the floor?—A. I didn't see any tickets dropped to the floor.

Q. How many did you see drop from Robins's hand and were not counted?—A. I couldn't tell whether they were not counted or not, or whether he picked them up or not; I didn't notice.

Q. Did you call his attention to it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he then pick up the tickets or look to see if he dropped them?—A. I turned my attention to my tally, and didn't observe what he done.

Q. Was the ballot-box kept guarded during the entire day?—A. I couldn't say that it was.

Q. What was done with it by the election board while at their supper?—A. It was taken to Mr. Robins, where they went to supper.

Q. Was this done through the approval of all the board; if not, who objected to it?—A. No, sir; the minority inspector, Thomas H. Lord, objected to it, and myself.

Q. Was the box sealed or secured in any way before being taken from the election house?—A. No.

Q. How far did Mr. Robins live from the election house?—A. About sixty rods, I suppose.

Q. Where was the ballot-box while you were at supper?—A. Sitting in the room.

Q. Was it in the same room in which you had your supper?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did all of the members of the election board, including the clerks, take their supper at the same time and place?—A. I believe they did; all but one.

Q. Who was that, and where did he take his supper?—A. Thomas H. Lord. He took his supper at the election house.

Q. About how many persons were in the room in which the ballot-box was while you were at supper?—A. Hugar's family; Peter Erhard. There was some others there, but I don't remember who they were.

Q. Was this box left unsecured and away from the election board during the whole time they were at supper?—A. As far as I know, it was left there in the room while we were eating supper.

Q. Might not persons have put tickets into this ballot-box while the board were taking their supper without their knowledge?—A. Well, I suppose they could. The box was sitting in the room.

Q. Might not the box have been taken from the room and the board not known it?—A. I believe it could have been.

Q. About how many persons were in the room with the ballot-box, as near as you can tell?—A. About six or seven, or more than that. There was a good bit of confusion and laughing and talking, but I paid no attention as to how many there was.

Q. What is the politics of Peter Erhard, whom you have named as being in the room with the ballot-box?—A. Democratic, I believe.

Q. What is the politics of the Hugar family that you have named?—A. Francis Hugar is a Democrat, and his wife is too. She is a daughter of Mr. Robins.

Q. Then all the election board left the election-house with the ballot-box except Lord, the minority inspector, and the box was removed against his protest?—A. Lord went with us to Robins's, but I can't say whether he staid with the box or not; I rather think not. It was taken away against his protest.

Q. Don't you know that Lord did not go into Robins's house at all, but returned and took his supper at the election-house?—A. We all started in a crowd with the ballot-box. Mr. Robins took the box into the room and set it down. They said supper was ready and we passed right in and sat down. I didn't think of the ballot-box until I had my supper. They said it wasn't lawful to remove the ballot-box from the school-house. They allowed it didn't make any difference as long as it wasn't disturbed. That was about all that was said.

Q. That conversation occurred, did it, on the way to Robins's?—A. No, sir. It was on the way from Robins's back to the school-house.

Q. When you got to Robins's house did not Mr. Robins's invite Lord, minority inspector, in to supper, and did he not refuse, and go back to the school-house and not go into Robins's house at all?—A. He refused, yes, sir, to go in to supper. He had supper along; he wouldn't pay 25 cents and carry back home what he had in the basket.

Q. Did not Lord go back to the school-house without going into Robins's house at all?—A. I couldn't tell you that.

Q. Where did you first see him after supper?—A. Caught up to him on the road between Robins's house and barn.

Q. Had he not then been back to the school-house and eaten his supper from his basket?—A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Who took the ballot-box after the votes were counted, and where was it taken to?—A. The minority inspector took it to his own house.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving a general objection to all that part of the foregoing testimony of such things as are immaterial and to such other things as might have transpired, but of which there is no evidence, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Was the election held at Turkey Hill school-house on the 5th of November, 1878, for Knox Township, conducted fairly and according to the best understanding the election officers had of the law?—A. I believe it was—only going to supper. They talked over that part of it when we wanted to go to dinner. The board consulted among themselves and said the law wouldn't allow it.

Q. Do you know of any other intentional violation of the election law other than taking the ballot-box along to supper?—A. No, sir; not intentionally.

Q. Was it before the polls closed that you went to supper?—A. No, sir; it was after.

Q. Do you swear that Mr. Robins, the inspector, dropped any tickets for the purpose of perpetrating a fraud, or do you believe it was accidental?—A. No, sir; I couldn't swear that he dropped them to perpetrate a fraud.

Q. Can you say that the ticket or tickets dropped by him as you describe were not picked up and regularly counted as the law requires?—A. I couldn't swear that they was or was not.

Q. Give, as near as you can recollect, what Lord said when the balance of the board took the ballot-box along to supper.—A. He said it was contrary to law, and it might upset the election.

Q. How many elections have you attended at Turkey Hill school-house?—A. Attended all the elections held there for seventeen years.

Q. Was the election of last November the first one that the school-house doors were not kept closed?—A. The doors were never closed since I attended the elections.

Q. Did the persons who came into and remained in the house during the time of the election, and the count after the election was going on, interfere with the election board, and prevent, in any way, a fair and free election on that day, or a fair count?—A. No, sir.

Q. How far is it to the nearest house from the place where the election was held?—A. Sixty rods, I suppose.

Q. How far to the next nearest?—A. About 80 rods.

Q. How far to the next nearest?—A. About 90 rods.

Q. How many houses are there within half a mile of this school house?—A. About seven.

Q. Are they all private dwelling houses?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, on opening the ballot-box, when you began to count, find the papers therein disturbed?—A. No, sir; I didn't open it.

Q. If any person had attempted to interfere with the ballot, would not he have been compelled either to take the ballot-box out of the room into which you had put it while you were at supper, or have done so in presence of at least five persons?—A. I couldn't answer that question. The box was not sealed.

Q. Did you catch up to Lord, as you mentioned, while he was going in the direction of the election house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how long were you at the supper table?—A. Less than half an hour; while we eat a good supper.

Q. Are Lewis C. Robins, the judge of that election, and George Robins, his father, reputable citizens of Knox Township?—A. The judge of the election is a man of good character. Some say the old man is a man of bad character.

Q. What do you people say of George Robins, as to his character?—A. They say Mr. Robins has been caught in a trap once, and sinking boards under water until the flood was away, taking ropes and one thing or another, carrying shingles into the laurel, carrying spikes and nails in his overcoat pocket out of stores. He carried corn away, they said, from William A. Reed's shanty, carried away grindstone and cookstove and sold it. They said he carried it out of the house with fire in it and bread in the oven. I have heard of things since I have been a little boy.

Q. Are these things you mention hearsay, or do you speak from your own knowledge?—A. Hearsay.

Q. Did the number of ballots counted correspond with the amount of votes as taken down while the election was going on?—A. I don't think it did come out altogether right.

Q. Were the ballots numbered as received?—A. Yes, sir; but they were not correct.

Q. What was wrong?—A. There was some numbered twice, the same number.

Q. Was there anything else that you remember of?—A. No, sir, I believe not.

Q. Who numbered the ballots?—A. Mr. George Robins. He received the tickets.

Q. Who put them in the box?—A. The judge of election, Lewis C. Robins.

Q. What did Lord do?—A. Marked the register.

Re-examined:

Q. Then all the tickets were received, and put into the ballot-box by George and Lewis C. Robins, both of whom were Democrats?—A. Yes, sir, I believe so.

Q. You have stated that you could not swear that George Robins dropped the tickets spoken of for the purpose of perpetrating a fraud. Judging from what you saw, what is your opinion on that subject?—A. No, sir; I couldn't state that he dropped them for a fraud. Sometimes I thought he was fumbling them around for the purpose of letting them drop, and sometimes I didn't.

Q. About how many tickets were there in the ballot-box that you saw, that were duplicates, that is where two contained the same number?—A. I think there were two that were marked 131; I couldn't be positive.

Q. Might there not have been a number more thus marked, that were not discovered?—A. Yes, sir, there might have been; I couldn't say that there was or wasn't.

Q. Were there not tickets in that ballot-box that were not numbered at all?—A. I believe there were two tickets that were doubled into one. When we came to count off, there was some talk about it, and we threw one away.

Q. Is or is not the reputation of George Robins for honesty and integrity, in the community where he lives, very bad?—A. It is a little shaky, I guess.

Q. In going from the election house up to Robins's to supper, did all the members of the board walk together, or were they separated any distance?—A. Well, it was dark, and they were all in a crowd together. The constable and several others were along.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Knox Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many times did you vote?—A. Once.

Q. If your name appears twice upon the list of voters, is it or not a mistake?—A. It's a mistake if it's there twice.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Yocum.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years of said election, preceding said election, that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. I was born in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, in 1840.

Q. Did you reside in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one whole year preceding said election November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel reserving the right to except to the sufficiency of notice and any other matter, proceeds.)

Q. How many persons by the name of Coder live in Knox Township that vote?—A. Two.

Q. When did you last pay State or county tax?—A. In September, 1878.

Q. To whom?—A. Alford C. White.

Q. How much?—A. Twenty-six cents, I think it was. He gave me no receipt.

Q. When did he give you a receipt?—A. He gave me no receipt at all.

Q. How long before that had you paid any tax?—A. It was on June 22, 1877—State and county.

Q. To whom?—A. Daniel Sloppy.

March 27, 1878, at 8 o'clock a. m. examination resumed.

FRED. MILLER sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Brady Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andrew Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. I couldn't say I paid State tax, but I paid county tax, because the receipt shows it.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. I paid the tax to John Jemison, constable of Brady Township.

Q. Was the tax you thus paid to John Jemison the only tax you paid within said two years?—A. I think it was. I paid it for 1877.

Q. Don't you know that the money you paid to Jemison was merely for your school and poor tax?—A. I paid him the money and told him to take my tax out of it.

Q. Did you not merely tell him to take your school and poor tax out of it?—A. No, sir; I told him to take my taxes out of it.

Q. Did you say anything to him about taking your State and county tax out of it?—A. No; I didn't mention anything.

Q. Did not Jemison tell you that he credited the money he paid you to your school and poor tax only?—A. No; he didn't. He didn't say anything about that.

Q. Do you swear that you paid Jemison a State or county tax?—A. No; I can't do that. I wouldn't swear that I paid it, or that I didn't pay it.

Q. When did you pay this tax to Jemison that you speak of?—A. I paid it last fall.

Q. Did you pay it in money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay it as much as thirty days before the election?—A. I can't say that.

Q. Don't you know that it was less than thirty days before the election?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. Have you the receipt which you referred to and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much was your school tax for 1877?—A. I can't tell you that.

Q. Give us the amount of it as near as you can tell.—A. I can't tell you. I can't guess at it. I gave him a ten-dollar bill and asked him to take my taxes out.

Q. About how much was your poor tax for that year?—A. I think he said 55 cents. I hain't sure, but think that's what it was.

Q. Do you know how much your State and county tax was for that year?—A. No; I don't.

Q. When did you get this receipt from Jemison?—A. The same day I paid him the money.

Q. Did you get it from him before or after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I think it was before the election.

Q. Can you swear that it was before the election?—A. No; I won't do that, because I am not sure.

Q. Was it on the day of the election?—A. I can't tell you. No, sir; I can't tell you.

Q. Where was Jemison when he gave you this receipt?—A. At When's Luthersburg.

Q. Don't you know that you got this receipt after the election and since you were subpoenaed as a witness here?—A. No, sir; that ain't so.

Q. Do you mean that it isn't so, that it wasn't after the election you got this receipt?—A. No; I mean that I didn't get it after I was subpoenaed here.

Q. Did you not pay this money to Jemison within three days, either before or after the election?—A. I can't tell you that; I can't recollect any more.

Q. Did you pay it on the day of any political meeting in Brady Township?—A. It seems to me there was a kind of gathering there, but I can't say positive what it was.

Q. Don't you know that it was on the same day that a Democratic meeting was held at Du Bois, at which several speakers from Clearfield were present?—A. I can't tell you any more about that.

Q. Don't you think you paid it on that day, which was the day before the election?—A. I can't tell you. I know that when I paid it there was a crowd there that day, but it wasn't election day.

Q. Did you attend a Democratic political meeting on the day before the election?—A. I attended the meeting, but I can't say it was the day before the election. I saw Mr. Krebs there. He was one of the speakers.

Q. Now, was it not on that day you paid these taxes to Jemison?—A. I can't say positive it was; can't do it.

Q. Can you say positively that it was not on that day?—A. No; I cannot.

Q. Did you say anything to Jemison about dating your receipt back so as to entitle you to a vote?—A. No, sir; nothing of the kind; I never asked a man to do that.

Q. Until you got this receipt from Jemison, were you not of the opinion you had no right to vote, and did you not say so?—A. I didn't say anything of the kind; I didn't think so.

Q. Can you not say whether or not you paid this tax on the day of a political meeting?—A. I told you before I can't say it.

Q. Did Jemison write this receipt in your presence?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you know that you paid this money to Jemison within one month before that election?—A. No, I don't know.

Q. Don't you know that you paid it to him after the time was up for payment of taxes to vote on?—A. I didn't know anything about that.

Q. Whom did you get the money from that you paid Jemison?—A. I got that money from my wife. She got it from home.

Q. Did you make any entry or memorandum of the time when you got the money?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know anything about whether or not Jemison dated that receipt back?—A. I can't tell you that, because I can't read it; I don't think he'd do the like of that.

Q. Do you know what date is in that receipt?—A. No, sir, I don't; couldn't read it.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. In Germany; I think in 1839.

Q. Are you naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces the papers.)

Q. Have you the papers with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Is this the receipt you showed to Mr. Gordon in your examination?—A. Yes, sir.

Counsel for contestant reads the receipt, which is as follows:

“Received Sep. 14th, 1878, from Fred Miller, three and $\frac{81}{100}$ poor, county, and school tax for 1877.

“ $3\frac{81}{100}$.”

“J. JIMESON, Col.”

Q. How long have you lived in Brady Township continuously up to November 5, 1878; for how many years?—A. About nine years, that is right along.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Brady Township.

Q. How old are you?—A. Going on twenty-four; will be twenty-four in October.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878, pay a State or county tax?—A. No, sir; I believe not.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Are you not sure you did not pay a State or county tax within those two years?—I am sure I didn't.

(Contestant, by counsel, respectfully declines to cross-examine the witness, and asks the committee who shall hear the cause to strike out the whole testimony of this witness, for the reason assigned against his examination.)

On account of the foregoing objections, counsel for contestee reserve the right to recall this witness at a future time, under the notice given.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

(Contestant, by counsel, objects to the taking of the testimony of this witness, for the reason that no sufficient notice was served that he would be called as a witness; the notice served being not sufficient and not such as required by act of Congress.)

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in June, 1852.

Q. Are you married or were you ever married?—A. I was married last fall, in September.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately before the election of November 5, 1878, and in Decatur Township for more than two months preceding that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, at November election, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir. I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, expressly reserving all right to except to the foregoing testimony, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. To whom did you last pay tax, and what kind of tax was it?—A. Levi Goss. State and county tax.

Q. When was it?—A. 21st day of May, 1878.

Q. Where was it paid?—A. At my residence in Decatur Township.

Q. Was the receipt by which you fix the date written by Goss in your presence?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you get the receipt?—A. Twenty-first of May, 1878.

Q. How much tax did you pay at that time—State and county?—A. Forty-two cents.

Q. For what year was it assessed?—A. For 1877.

Q. When, before that, did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. July 26, 1877.

Q. To whom?—A. Levi Goss.

Q. For what year was it assessed?—A. Eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

Q. How much?—A. Twenty-five cents.

Q. Have you resided anywhere else than in Decatur Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. I picked it up myself.

Q. Who did you vote for for governor?—A. Hoyt.

Q. Did the election board require you to make any proof whatever of your right to vote?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

ISAIAH COPLIN produced and sworn.

(Contestant by counsel makes the same objection and reservation to witness called as was made to preceding witness.)

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, in March, 1829.

Q. Did you with your wife and family reside in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding that election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district in Decatur Township at the said election, November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted for Yocum.

(Contestant, reserving all legal exceptions, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. When did you move to Decatur Township?—A. I moved there in the fall of 1866.

Q. Have you resided in Decatur Township all the time since 1866?—A. I did until the third day of January, 1879, when I moved out.

Q. Had you not yourself moved to Centre County the fall preceding January, 1879?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you pay a State or county tax?—A. I can't just remember the time.

(Refers to receipt; receipt produced, dated February 16, 1878.)

Q. When did you get that receipt, or what purports to be a receipt?—A. February, 1878.

Q. Is not that paper which bears date February 16, 1878, a statement of the amount of your taxes?—A. I took it as a receipt.

Q. Can you not answer whether it is a statement of your taxes, with Goss's name as collector printed on that part of the paper which has the date of the paper?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you get the statement?—A. I got it when I paid the tax.

Q. Where was this tax paid?—A. They were paid at my house in Decatur Township.

Q. Was the statement given you then, at that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you not received this statement some time before you paid the tax?—A. I think not this one.

Q. How long before February, 1878, was it that you last paid State and county tax?—A. I can't tell you; can show receipts; I have paid taxes to the best of my knowledge up to 1878.

Q. Did the election board require you to sign any affidavit or make any proof of your right to vote?—A. No; they only asked me for the receipt.

Re-examined:

Q. You stated you had paid tax every year up to 1878; did you not mean up to and including 1878?—A. Yes; I included 1878.

Q. Is there not also under the statement which you have produced, dated February 16, 1878, a receipt in full for the taxes mentioned therein, including State and county taxes mentioned therein, signed by Goss, the collector, in writing?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay the taxes at the time and on the date mentioned in that statement?—A. I did.

Q. Did you also pay a State or county tax in the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket before you voted?—A. Yes; I believe I did.

Q. Can you say positively that you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir. And further saith not.

Question. Had you within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—Answer. Yes; I paid them within that time.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. I think I paid them in April, 1877, between the 12th and 17th, 1877, to Jacob Dimeling.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you reside in Boggs Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, more than two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you live one year in the State immediately preceding the election?—A. Yes, sir; I was never out of the State.

Q. Were you born in the United States?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Do I understand you to swear that you were in Boggs Township for the two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I was; I moved into Boggs Township on the 19th of August, 1878.

(This witness is now recalled by contestee in order to relieve the taking of his testimony from any objection on account of the want of sufficient notice, he having been kept for that purpose, and notice that he would be recalled having been given, in that counsel for contestee noted upon the record, when he was called before, that he reserved the right to recall this witness at a future time, under the notice already given.

Contestant, by counsel, respectfully protests against the recall and re-examination of the witness, for the reasons assigned against his former examination.)

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-four in October.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding that election of November 5, 1878, paid any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—A. Curtin. I mean Andrew G. Curtin.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Boggs Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and I think I will be 30 the 8th day of April next; was born in 1849.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Boggs Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you last pay any State or county tax?—A. I think in 1875.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878, paid any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at the general election November 5, 1878?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read and carefully examine your ticket before voting?—A. No, sir; I didn't.

Q. What part, if any of it, did you read?—A. I don't recollect of reading any of it; there was a man that I was well acquainted with who gave me the ticket.

Q. Did you see Andrew G. Curtin's name named on that ticket?—A. I don't recollect as I did; I thought it was right and I put it in.

Q. Is it because you got your ticket from a Democrat that you suppose it was a Curtin ticket?—A. Yes.

Q. Can you swear in any other way or from any other knowledge you have, except from the person from whom you got your ticket, that you voted for Curtin?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember whether or not there were less votes cast for Curtin in Boggs Township than for Dill, Democratic candidate for governor?

(Question objected to by counsel for contestee, because incompetent in that it is not the best evidence and not cross-examination.)

A. No, I don't.

Q. Do not the returns show, and don't you know that a number of Democrats in that Township voted the Greenback ticket?

(Objected to for same reason as to last question.)

A. I don't know anything about the returns. I don't know as I can say that a number of Democrats voted the Greenback ticket or not.

Re-examined:

Q. Who gave you that ticket that you voted November 5, 1878?—A. I think Jacob Dimeling gave me the ticket.

Q. Was Jacob Dimeling a Democrat, or a Republican, or a Greenbacker?—A. He was a Democrat.

Q. Was he favorable or unfavorable to the Greenback party?—A. He was unfavorable to the Greenback party.

Q. Did he say anything to you, or you say anything to him, when you got the ticket you voted, as to the kind of ticket; and, if so, what was said?

(Objected to as incompetent and immaterial.)

A. There was something said, but I don't just recollect what it was any more. I think he said that ticket was all right.

Q. Had he given you your tickets at preceding elections?—A. Yes he had given me tickets before.

Q. Has he not usually given you your tickets at other elections?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What ticket did you want to vote on November 5, 1878—Democratic, or Republican, or Greenback?—A. Democratic ticket; I always voted that.

Q. From what you know of Jacob Dimeling and his politics, do you think there was any danger of his giving you a Yocum ticket?

(Objected to as immaterial.)

A. No, sir; I don't think there was.

Q. Are you not pretty well satisfied you voted for Curtin for Congress at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Can you, without having read your ticket, swear that you voted for Congress at all?—A. I put a ticket in, anyhow. Of course, I didn't read the ticket; that's what it was intended for. No; I don't believe I can without having read it.

Q. Can you swear that Dimeling voted for Curtin for Congress?—A. No, sir; I can't. Didn't see him vote.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you any doubt in your own mind as to whether you voted for Curtin for Congress?—A. No, sir; I have no doubt. I had confidence in Dimeling that he gave me the right ticket.

Q. Who did Jacob Dimeling advocate or favor for Congress, Curtin or Yocum?

(Objected to because immaterial and as furnishing no evidence whatever of how the witness voted, and as incompetent.)

A. About all I know about that, I heard him and Johnny Chuse have an argument at the election, and Johnny is a Greenbacker. Dimeling was talking up the Democratic side, near as I can tell.

P. B. MILLER affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. I reside in Boggs Township; am fifty-three years old.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Boggs Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding that election paid any State or county tax?—A. That's a question I can't answer positively. I have paid tax in that time. As regards that, there is tax against me that I haven't paid. Mr. Dimeling was treasurer of Boggs Township. He presented a bill of tax against me. I didn't ask him for what year. I supposed it wasn't necessary. I paid all the amount with the exception of a few cents. Don't remember what it was.

Q. When was that, near as you can tell?—A. I can't tell, positively, what time, whether it was in the spring, the winter, or in the fall.

Q. What year did you pay that tax in?—A. I wouldn't be positive whether it was last spring a year or last fall a year ago.

Q. Was it in the year 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. I think it was in 1877; I wouldn't be positive.

Q. Do you know what kind of tax it was?—A. He told me it was State and county and other taxes, and I paid him seven dollars and something; paid him some tax since.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

No cross-examination.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Decatur Township.

Q. What is your age?—A. Thirty-seven years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you a married man?—A. I am.

Q. Did you and your family reside for one whole year or more immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, continuously in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding that election paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I had.

Q. When and to whom, and will you produce the receipts?—A. March 27, 1877, to Levi Goss, collector for Decatur Township, and July 4, 1878, to same collector. (Receipts produced according.)

Q. Did you pay each of these taxes on the days called for in these receipts?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did vote in that election district at that election, and voted for Yocum for Congress.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your name upon the registry list of voters for Decatur Township for the year 1878?—A. I don't know. I didn't look.

Q. Was your vote objected to for the reason that your name was not upon such registry list?—A. It was not objected to.

Q. Were you required by the election-board of said district to make any proof of your qualifications as a voter?—A. I was not.

Re-examined:

Q. How long had you resided in that district?—A. Since 1874.

Q. Were you well known to the election-board?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Did you produce your tax receipt when you voted?—A. I did.

And further saith not.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Blair County, or Huntingdon, it was then.

Q. How long have you resided in Decatur Township, this county?—
I have been there about five years.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your family reside continuously for the one whole year or more immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Had you within two years preceding that election paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months, and was paid at least one month preceding said election; and will you produce your receipts?—A. Yes, sir; I did. (Witness produces receipt, dated August 17, 1878, from Levi Goss, collector.)

Q. Did you pay the tax called for in that receipt on the day the receipt is dated or not?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your name upon the registry-list of voters for Decatur Township for the year 1878?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. I couldn't say; it should have been; the register was at my house; I mean the assessor.

Q. Was he there for the purpose of assessing you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. And when?—A. Either in February or March, 1878.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Decatur Township, and my age is 30 years past.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, the one whole year or more immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax, which was assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces a receipt from Levi Goss, collector, dated April 17, 1878.)

Q. Did you pay that tax on the day that receipt is dated?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote for Seth H. Yocum or Andrew G. Curtin for Congress—which one of the two?—A. I voted for Yocum for Congress at that election.

Cross-examined:

Q. When were you born?—A. About 1849.

Q. Did you read your ticket carefully before voting on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. I reside in Decatur Township, and my age is 44 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Ireland.

Q. At what age did you come to the United States, as near as you can tell?—A. Something over ten years.

Q. Did your father come with you; and, if not, how long before or after did he come?—A. He came two or three years before me.

Q. Was your father ever naturalized?

(Objected to because it is not competent to establish naturalization of witness's father by parol proof, the best evidence being the final certificate of his father's naturalization, or a certified copy of record of the court in which he was naturalized, if the certificate be lost or destroyed.)

A. Yes, sir, he was; in Huntingdon, Pa.

Q. About how old were you when your father was naturalized?—A. Between 17 and 18, sir, near as I can say.

Q. Had your father his final and complete papers of naturalization before you were 21 years of age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever see his naturalization certificate?—A. Yes, sir; lots of times.

Q. What took place when you voted on age—between the ages of 21 and 22?—A. They asked me at the board whether I was Shannon's son, and asked him if I was his boy.

Q. Were the papers—naturalization certificate—then produced by him or not?—A. Yes, sir; they were, and examined by the board, and I voted on them.

Q. Have you or not voted by virtue of that naturalization certificate ever since?—A. Yes, sir; all but once, in the Army. I voted then on the right of a soldier.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your family reside continuously for the one whole year or more immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes; for ten years.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which had been assessed at least two months and was paid at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. In April, 1878, and to Levi Goss.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. For Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did your father declare his intentions to become a citizen of the United States?—A. In Huntingdon Town, I believe.

Q. Did you ever see the certificate he received when he declared his intentions?—A. I saw his first papers.

Q. In what year did he make such declarations?—A. I don't know what year it was.

Q. In what year was he finally naturalized?—A. I can't tell the year. I was between 17 and 18 when he got his papers out, and now I am going on 45.

Q. In what year were you 21 years of age?—A. I can't tell you that either; can't tell you when I was born.

Q. If you don't know when you were born, how do you know you were between 17 and 18 years of age when your father was naturalized?—A. I know it from a dispute at the polls.

Q. Was not Levi Goss the collector of school and poor tax for Decatur Township for the years 1877 and 1878?—A. I don't know; but I know that I paid them to him.

Q. Did you get a receipt for the payment of tax made in April, 1878?—A. He sent the receipt by mail to Osceola, but I didn't get it.

Q. How do you know that he applied any portion of the money you sent him to the payment of your State or county tax?—A. I know that when my vote was challenged at the polls, that he got up and said that he had received my taxes—that my taxes were paid.

Q. Did you carefully read your ticket before voting it on the 5th of November last?—A. I did, sir.

Q. What was the name upon your ticket for Congress?—A. Yocum.

Q. Who did you vote for for State senator?—A. I don't know that I voted for any one; but I voted for Yocum.

Q. Were there any other names?—A. Yes, there were other names, but don't remember them.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you vote for Dill, Hoyt, or Mason for governor?—A. I believe it was Hoyt.

Recross-examination:

Q. Was Hoyt the Labor candidate for governor?—A. That I don't know.

Question. Where do you reside and, what is your age?—Answer. In Bogg's Township, and am 52 years old.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. November 5th, 1878.

(Witness produces receipt from Isaac Beish, constable, dated November 5, 1878, for State and county tax for the years 1876 and 1877. Also receipt from Isaac Beish, constable, dated February 19, 1874, for State, county, school, building, poor, and cash road tax for the year 1873. Also receipt from Isaac Beish, dated June 11, 1875, for State, county, and poor tax for the year 1874.)

Q. When did you last pay Jacob Dimeling any tax?—A. In the year 1876—don't remember the month.

Q. What month, as near as you can recollect?—A. I think it was in August.

Q. What kind of tax was that?—A. School and poor, I think.

Q. What other tax, if any, have you paid since that you paid Dimeling, outside of any of these receipts you have produced?—A. David Mease was the next one I paid.

Q. When did you pay him, as near as you can recollect?—A. Some-time after Dimeling, and not very long.

Q. Was it as much as a month after Dimeling, according to your best recollection?—A. I couldn't say, but it was not very long.

Q. What kind of tax did you pay Mease?—A. To the best of my knowledge, it was school and poor tax.

Q. Since that tax you paid Mease, did you pay any tax outside of what is called for by any of these receipts you have produced?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Boggs Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you the ticket you voted at that election?—A. Jacob Dimeling.

Q. What was Jacob Dimeling's politics?—A. A Democrat as long as I knew him.

Q. How long have you known him?—A. To best of my knowledge, ten years.

Q. Have you been well acquainted with him during that time or not?—A. I have known him as a neighbor for that length of time.

Q. How near have you lived to him during that time?—A. About a half a mile, more or less.

Q. Who has generally given you your tickets when you have voted during that time?—A. Jacob Dimeling. Don't know of any other man that ever gave me a ticket.

Q. Did you vote for Seth H. Yocum or for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress on November 5, 1878; which one of the two, if either?

(Objected to as improper in form. The question should be, "For whom did you vote for Congress"?)

Question withdrawn, and following question asked: "For whom did you vote for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878"?

A. That's more than I know. I'm almost ashamed of it; but, of course, the intention was to vote for Curtin.

Q. What was your politics, and what has been your politics during the last ten years, and at the times Jacob Dimeling has furnished you your tickets?

(Objected to, because you "can't most always tell" from what a man's politics was how he voted or what tickets he gave out to his neighbors on the 5th of November, 1878.)

A. Democrat.

Q. Have you not always been a Democrat?—A. No, not always; have been a Democrat for about ten years.

Q. Which one of the candidates for Congress, Curtin or Yocum, was Jacob Dimeling favorable to, if he was favorable to either?

(Objected to because the question asks the witness to give his opinion as to the political intentions of another, and is immaterial.)

A. That's more than I can tell. Of course I think he would go for Curtin.

Q. Did you think there was any danger of getting a Yocum ticket from him?

(Objected to for the reason that it is a matter of no consequence what he might have thought upon that subject.)

A. If I thought so, I wouldn't have took it.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you own real estate in Boggs Township, Clearfield County?—

A. I own and a half an acre of land.

Q. Have you not paid up all your State and county tax from 1873 and including the year 1877?—A. I have, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Can you tell whether or not you have a receipt for your State and county tax assessed for the year 1875?—A. I can't tell that.

Q. Can you tell to whom you paid your State and county tax, assessed for 1875?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember whether or not you paid any tax on the day of the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I can't say any more than what receipts I have to show for 1876 and 1877.

Q. Are you not satisfied in your own mind that you have paid your State and county tax assessed for that year 1875?—A. I am.

Q. Did you look for the receipt for the payment of that year's taxes?—A. I did, last night, till I was tired, and couldn't find it.

Question. What is your position?—Answer. Commissioners' clerk.

Q. For what county?—A. Clearfield.

Q. Have you before you the registry list of voters for the election districts of Ferguson and Greenwood Townships as they are filed in the commissioners' office for the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you made copies of these registry lists?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have those copies been carefully and thoroughly compared by you with their respective originals?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are these copies true, exact, and correct copies of the original registry list of voters for 1878 for the election districts of Ferguson and Greenwood as you have found the originals on file in the commissioner's office?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you yourself make and compare the papers which you say you have before you?—A. I made the copies and compared them with the originals.

Q. How did you make the comparisons?—A. I copied a page at a time, and compared the originals as I went along.

Q. How are they marked so as to distinguish between the June and the September registers?—A. September registry is entered in the back of the book, and headed "September registry."

(Counsel for contestee now offers in evidence the sworn copies of the registry lists for Ferguson and Greenwood election districts of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the year 1878, which have been identified by the witness, and are marked as follows: Copy of registry list of Ferguson Township, Exhibit A; copy of registry list of Greenwood Township, Exhibit B.

A. M. BLOOM sworn.

Question. What is your position?—Answer. Deputy prothonotary of Clearfield County.

Q. Are the returns of the several election districts composed of the townships and boroughs of Clearfield County for the general election of November 5, 1878, filed in the prothonotary's office of Clearfield County?—A. They are.

Q. Have you before you such returns as full as they are of file in said office for the election districts of Clearfield Borough, Newbury Borough, Osceola Borough, Wallacetown Borough and Beccaria, Bell, Bloom, Boggs, Brady, Chest, Ferguson, Greenwood, Jordan, Knox, Lawrence, Penn, and Pike Townships for the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. I have.

Q. Who is the prothonotary of Clearfield County?—A. Eli Bloom, my father.

Q. Have you, under his direction and supervision, made copies of the lists of voters, oaths of officers of election, and affidavits of non-registered voters for each of the said election districts, from the original returns on file and now before you?—A. I have, sir.

Q. If there are any instances in which you have not, since you were last sworn, made copies of any of the original papers named for the said districts, state why they were not made.—A. There are instances where I did not make copies, because they were made before, or where there were none on file.

Q. Will you state for which one of the said districts you had already made copies of the oaths of officers, as filed, and which had already been offered in evidence on part of contestee, and also the districts, if any, in which you have found that no oaths of officers are returned or filed among the districts named?—A. For Newbury and Wallacetown Boroughs, Bell, Bloom, Boggs, Chest, and Knox Townships, and there are no oaths of officers on file in the said office for Chest Township.

Q. Will you state in which one of the districts named you had already made copies of the lists of voters which had been offered in evidence on the part of the contestant, if any?—A. Osceola Borough, Brady and Pike Townships.

Q. Will you state in which one of the districts named, if any, you find no affidavits returned or filed of non-registered voters?—A. Clearfield, Newbury, Osceola, Wallacetown Boroughs, and Bell, Bloom, Boggs, Chest, Ferguson, Jordan, Lawrence, Penn, and Pike Townships.

Q. Are the copies which you say you made from the originals for the districts named, now before you, and do they include the lists of voters, oaths of officers of election, and affidavits for non-registered voters for each of the districts named, with the exceptions which you have stated?—A. Yes, sir; they do.

Q. Is there a certificate attached to the copies for each of the districts named, signed by your father, the prothonotary?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you compare these copies yourself, and if not, who was employed to make the comparison of these copies with the originals or to assist you in doing so?—A. I did not compare them. Mr. Frank A. Fleming was employed to compare them.

Q. Did he compare them under your direction and supervision, and under the direction and supervision of your father, the prothonotary?—A. I got him to compare them for me.

Q. Was the comparison, as well as the making of these copies, under the general supervision of your father, the prothonotary?

(Objected to as leading in form. The question should be, How was the comparison made, and how were these papers made?)

A. It was done by his knowledge and consent, and by his direction.

Q. Do you believe these copies to be true, faithful, and exact copies of the originals or not?—A. I do.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you make the copies yourself?—A. I did.

Q. Did you compare them with the originals afterwards?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your father present and directing and taking part in any comparisons made of them with the originals?—A. No, sir; he was not that I know of.

Q. Did you take part in comparing them with the originals?—A. No, sir; only when I was making them.

Q. Have they been in your possession continually since made by you and certified?—A. They have been in the office, I believe, until last night.

Q. Were these copies in your possession continuously from the time each one was finished until last night?—A. I think they were, or were in the office.

Q. When, this morning, did they again come to your possession?—A. About an hour and a half ago.

Q. When were the certificates attached and signed?—A. Just as they were made out and finished.

Q. Were they attached and signed before any comparisons were made?—A. Yes, sir; before there was any comparison made by Mr. Fleming.

Re examined :

Q. Did you compare these copies with the originals while making them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your comparison while making them and before they were certified and independent of any comparison made by Mr. Fleming, sufficient to satisfy you in your own mind that these copies are correct?—A. It was.

Q. Will you look at the original of Brady election district before you, and also Beccaria, Greenwood, and Knox Townships election before you, and say how many affidavits of non-registered voters have been returned and filed from each of said districts, with the number of affidavits of each form for said districts?—A. In Beccaria district, there are two double affidavits—forms Nos. 1 and 2; there are six single affidavits, form No. 4. In Brady Township there are 22 double affidavits, forms Nos. 1 and 2; 3 single affidavits, form No. 3; 19 single affidavits, form No. 4. In Greenwood district there are 3 single affidavits, form No. 4, and 2 double affidavits, forms Nos. 1 and 2. In Knox Township there are 4 single affidavits, of which 2 are form No. 1, and 2 are form No. 4.

Recross-examined :

Q. Did you make any other comparison of these copies with the originals except such as you necessarily made or would make in endeavoring to make a copy of any other papers?—A. I had the originals before me, and that is all the comparison I made.

Q. In these several districts in which you made copies of papers, are there not in each of them papers on file of which you have not made copies?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then these copies are not full copies, nor taken with those made before in these districts—exemplifications of all the papers on file in those districts?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined :

Q. Are there any lists of voters, oaths of officers of election, or affidavits of non-registered voters in the original returns or on file from any of the districts named, or any papers of like character of which you have not made a copy and which are not already in evidence or about to be offered in evidence?—A. No, sir; there are not.

Q. Had any one outside of your office custody or possession of these copies which you have identified that you know of, except Mr. Fleming?—A. No one, unless it was Mr. Murray. I believe he had.

Adjourned at 12.30 p. m., March 29, 1879, to meet at 1.30 p. m. same day.

And now, at 1.30 p. m., March 29, 1879, examination resumed.

Q. Who returned these copies to you this morning?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did Mr. Murray call your attention to any corrections to be made in these copies?—A. It was Mr. Fleming who did this, and I remember now that it was he who returned these copies this morning.

Q. State what that correction was.—A. It was where I had erased and interlined. He asked that my father's initials be placed opposite each line erased or interlined.

Q. Do you know who called Mr. Fleming's attention to this?—A. No, sir; I do not. I believe he said that Mr. Murray had.

Q. Were you registered?—A. I can't tell.

Cross-examined:

Q. How much money did you pay Goss for taxes at the time you say you last paid him State and county taxes?—A. I can't tell you exactly, but I suppose about $1.60 or $1.70, as near as I can tell.

Q. What other taxes did you pay Goss at the same time?—A. School tax, poor tax, road tax; believe that is all.

Q. Did you receive from Goss a receipt for these other taxes?—A. No, sir; didn't pay the other taxes to him.

Q. What do you mean, then, when you say you paid them at the same time?—A. I said about the same time.

Q. Who were those other taxes paid to?—A. They were paid to Reams; I don't recollect whether my school tax was paid to Reams or not.

Q. Did you pay Reams at different times and take different receipts?—A. I am not certain whether I paid to Reams or to Goss; I took different receipts.

Q. On what property did you pay or were you assessed with State and county tax?—A. On cattle, I think two cows.

Q. Was there anything else assessed with State and county taxes except two cows?—A. I think not.

Q. Do you swear that you paid over a dollar of State and county tax in October, 1877, on those two cows?—A. I told you before I didn't know how much tax I paid.

Q. Were these cows Jerseys or Alderneys, or only common cattle?—A. They were common cattle.

Q. Do you know how much they were valued by the assessor?—A. I suppose—I can't tell you.

Q. Can you tell whether they were over four years old?—A. I think one was over four years old; the other, I guess, wasn't.

Q. Don't you know that cows under four years of age are not assessed?—A. I don't know anything about that; wouldn't say they were under or over four years.

And further saith not.

BENJAMIN F. KEPHART sworn.

Question. Did you vote in the election district of Decatur Township; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress at that election?—Answer. I did; and I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When had you last paid a State or county tax before that election?—A. In the spring of 1877, or the latter part of that winter; in February or thereabouts.

Q. Had you paid it in work or in money?—A. It was in work I paid it. If I had collected it, it would have been paid in money.

Q. When did you do the first of the work?—A. First of the work I commenced in harvest, 1876, and the last of it was in the spring of 1877, to Jacob Dimeling, collector.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did Jacob Dimeling offer in the spring of '77 to mark your taxes paid?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Were you born in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and reside in said township all your lifetime?—A. Yes, sir.

LEVI GOSS produced and sworn.

Question. Do you know Lafayette Graham, a witness called to-day?—

Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, as collector of taxes, State and county, for Decatur Township, receive from him any State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878; and if so, at what time?—

A. Yes, sir, I did; in the fall of 1877; in October.

Q. Do you know Charles Baker, of Decatur Township, and John Kellar, of Decatur Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were their taxes paid to you with reference to the election of November 5, 1878?—A. On that election-day.

Q. Was that the only tax you had received from them, or either of them, within two years preceding that date?—A. It was.

Q. How did John Kellar's name appear on your duplicate; that is, how was it written, and upon all the tax-books you had seen?—A. His name was written "Kelley" on the 1878 duplicate, and in the other duplicate, for the year 1877, it was "Kelly."

Q. How is he generally known in Decatur Township; that is, by what name?—A. John Kelley is what I always heard him called. I never knew that he claimed his name not to be John Kelley until the time I subpoenaed him as a witness to Houtzdale, when he said, "My name is not John Kelley; it is John Kellar." I received a postal card from Mr. P. B. Zentmyre some time before the election, and he mentioned this man's name upon it as John Kelley.

Q. What did that postal card relate to, and when, with reference to the election, did you receive it?—A. The postal card read in this way: "Will you please send me receipts for Charles Baker, John Kelley, George Jones," and some others, from four to six in all, "and I will get their taxes." I received this card over a month before the election. I was agreed to this arrangement, as I wanted the taxes, and accordingly forwarded the receipts next day.

Q. Was P. B. Zentmyre the employer of these men?—A. He was the superintendent of the mine where they were employed.

Q. Do you know a man by the name of J. M. Kephart, in Decatur Township; and if so, by what name is he generally known in that township?—A. I don't know a man by the name of J. M. Kephart, but I do know a man by the name of Milton Kephart, which I believe is his right name.

Q. Do you know what his politics is?

(Objected to as hearsay.)

A. No, I don't.

Q. Do you know Benjamin Kephart, of Decatur Township, a witness called to-day?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you subpoena him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What, if anything, did he say to you in reference to the payment of his tax or the time when he had paid it?

(Objected to as immaterial what Benjamin Kephart said, when he was not under oath.)

A. When I subpoenaed him, he said I wonder what they want with me. I said, did you pay any tax before you moved over here from Boggs Township? He said, yes, I paid Jake Dimeling some, the collector of Boggs Township, the summer before I moved over. I worked for him, and the last work I did, that was to square up the tax. My boy cut buckwheat for him in September of that year.

Q. What year did he mean?—A. 1876.

Q. Was the summer of 1876 the summer before he moved over from Boggs to Decatur Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who has had the collection of State and county taxes in Decatur Township, and for what years?—A. From 1875 up to the present time I have had the books—that is, for the years of 1875 to 1878 inclusive.

Q. Do you know a man in Decatur Township by the name of Bernard Foley?—A. I don't know a man by the name of Bernard Foley. I know a man by the name of Bryan Foley, whose name appears on the September registry.

Q. Is there any other man of like name in the township?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. How long have you lived in Decatur Township?—A. All my lifetime, except five years, and I am forty-two years old.

Q. Do you know the following-named persons in Decatur township: A. G. Steimer, J. M. Hasson, Wm. Hughes, David S. Hughes, D. E. Gearhart, E. G. Gearhart, Harvey Ammerman, W. E. Wagoner, Charles Test, Jeremiah McClarran, and Edward Hughes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is their politics?

(Objected to as immaterial and the testimony not competent, for the reason that the witness cannot testify how these parties, or any of them, may have voted on the 5th of November, 1878, unless he examined their ballots, either before or since they were cast, and that the testimony at best can only be hearsay, if the witness can testify to anything.)

A. They are Democrats, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Are not some of them very active Democrats?

(Objected to for the same reason as before.)

A. They are.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you send the receipts you mentioned of John Kelley or Kellar, George Jones, Charles Baker, to P. B. Zentmyer, signed by you, more than thirty days before the election, under an arrangement that he was responsible to you for the taxes, or would be, or would collect from the men in due time and pay over the money to you?—A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Did he not on the day of the election, the first time he saw you after this arrangement, pay over the money, or did the men themselves pay you?—A. P. B. Zentmyer paid it to me. It was paid the first time I saw him after the arrangement.

Q. Was not Robert Ditzworth and James M. Clark's taxes paid under this same arrangement, and were not their receipts sent to Mr. Zentmyer at the same time with those you have already mentioned, and were not all these men working at Moshannon mines, where Mr. Zentmyer is superintendent?—A. I did send these receipts at the same time, and I believe these men worked at that mine, although I can't say so positively.

Q. When, to the best of your knowledge, did Benjamin Kephart move into Decatur Township?—A. About the last of October or first of November, to the best of my knowledge, 1876.

Q. Do you know whether or not he worked for Jacob Dimeling during the winter of 1876 and the spring of 1877?—A. He worked some during that winter, to the best of my knowledge.

Re-examined:

Q. Was the arrangement between you and Zentmyer that you would look to him personally for these taxes, or that he was to collect the tax and pay over to you?—A. When he sent the postal card and I sent the receipt, the way I understood it, he was to collect the tax for me.

A. M. BLOOM recalled.

Question. Will you state whether you are familiar with the records in the prothonotary's office of Clearfield County?—Answer. I am.

Q. State with what papers and in what record books the petitions and applications for changes of township lines are kept and the proceedings thereof recorded?—A. They are kept with the road papers and the proceedings are recorded in the quarter sessions dockets from 1822 to 1863; from 1863 to the present time in the road docket.

Q. Prior to 1863, were not the proceedings in road cases recorded in the quarter sessions dockets?—A. Yes, sir; and since 1863 they are recorded in the road docket.

Q. Have you been requested by the counsel for contestee to make search in these record-books from 1822, when Clearfield County was first organized for judicial purposes up to the present time, for the record of a proceeding changing the township line between Boggs Township and Woodward Township, said county, upon the application of Philip Fisher or any one else?—A. I have.

Q. Have you all of these record books before you from 1822 up?—A. I have.

Q. Have you made the search requested; and, if so, who assisted you, how did you make it, and what do you find?—A. I have made such search, and was assisted by Frank Fleming. I made the search by leafing each docket, page by page, and examining the contents carefully from 1822 up to the present time, and find no record of any such proceeding.

Cross-examined:

Q. Might not such an application have been made and the order asked for granted, and the proper proceedings had thereunder, and the same not been recorded in any of the records to which your attention has been directed?—A. It is possible, but hardly probable.

Q. How long have you been deputy prothonotary?—A. Something over three years.

Q. How many times since you have been such have you been required to make examinations of records or papers of a character similar to this one in question, where such applications were made, back to a period of from twenty to forty years?—A. I don't know that I have ever been requested before this time.

Re-examined:

Q. Which one, your father, the prothonotary, or you, the deputy, attends to the searches made, and which is most familiar with the records?—A. I attend to making more re-searches; I don't know which is most familiar with the records, if there is any difference.

Question. What is your business generally?—Answer. Clerking; I do writing; whatever I can get to do.

Q. Have you been employed at different times by the prothonotary of Clearfield County to copy, index, or search records for him?—A. I have, frequently.

Q. State briefly some of the work you have heretofore done under such employment.—A. About three years ago I assorted and refiled all the papers in the prothonotary's office, from 1837 up to that time. Since that time I have indexed several of the old dockets, among them the quarter sessions docket, from 1822 to 1838. That docket is here in the room, and I have done other work of like character.

Q. Were you employed by the prothonotary lately to compare copies of election returns for the following election districts of Clearfield County: Clearfield, Newbury, Osceola, and Wallaceton Boroughs, and Beccaria, Bell, Bloom, Boggs, Brady, Chest, Ferguson, Greenwood, Jordan, Knox, Lawrence, Penn, and Pike Townships, with their respective originals, as filed in the prothonotary's office and produced here in this room before the commissioner?—A. I was.

Q. Have you heard the testimony of Mr. A. M. Bloom relating to these copies and originals, and have you the same copies which he testified to making before you, and are they the same copies which you were employed to compare with their originals?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you make the comparison, and how did you make it, and what did you find?—A. I made the comparison by reading both the originals and the copies, word for word, and found the copies to be correct.

Q. What do you say, then, are these copies true, correct, and copies of their respective originals?—A. I believe they are.

Q. What do they include for each of the said districts?—A. They include for each of the districts named the lists of voters, the oaths of election officers, and the affidavits of non-registered voters, except in instances where one or more of the returns had already been copied and offered in evidence, or where the originals were not on file in the prothonotary's office.

Q. Who had the custody of these papers during the time you were making the comparison, and until Mr. Bloom brought them before the commissioner this morning?—A. I had the custody of them all the time that they were out of the prothonotary's office.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do the copies you compared contain copies of all the affidavits of persons voting on age as well as non-registered voters in all of the several districts named, as they are on file with the originals of said districts?—A. Yes, sir.

Counsel for contestee now offers the sworn copies of returns identified by the witnesses A. M. Bloom and Frank A. Fleming:

Exhibit C, consisting of the papers as identified for Clearfield Borough.

Exhibit D, consisting of the papers as identified for Newbury Borough.

Exhibit E, consisting of the papers as identified for Osceola Borough.

Exhibit F, consisting of the papers as identified for Wallacetown Borough.

Exhibit G, consisting of the papers as identified for Beccaria Township.

Exhibit H, consisting of the papers as identified for Bell Township.

Exhibit I, consisting of the papers as identified for Bloom Township.

Exhibit J, consisting of the papers as identified for Boggs Township.

Exhibit K, consisting of the papers as identified for Brady Township.

Exhibit L, consisting of the papers as identified for Chest Township.

Exhibit M, consisting of the papers as identified for Ferguson Township.

Exhibit N, consisting of the papers as identified for Greenwood Township.

Exhibit O, consisting of the papers as identified for Jordan Township.

Exhibit P, consisting of the papers as identified for Knox Township.

Exhibit Q, consisting of the papers as identified for Lawrence Township.

Exhibit R, consisting of the papers as identified for Penn Township.

Exhibit S, consisting of the papers as identified for Pike Township.

Objected to by contestant for the reason that the papers as identified are not full, complete, and entire exemplifications of all the papers returned in the several named districts as on file in the prothonotary's office as returned by the proper officers under the election law, and as being the returns for the election of the said districts.

Counsel for contestee now offers notices of examination of witnesses at the court-house in the borough of Clearfield, in the county of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, between the 20th day of February and the 29th day of March, 1879, inclusive, marked Exhibit T, and consisting of notices, numbers 1 to 41 inclusive.

Also, notices of examinations of witnesses at Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, between the 17th and 29th days of March, 1879, inclusive, marked Exhibit V, consisting of notices Nos. 1 to 26, inclusive.

Also, notices of examination of witnesses at Pennfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, between the 27th and 29th days of March, 1879, inclusive, marked exhibit W, consisting of notices 1 to 4, inclusive.

Counsel for contestee also gives notice that he will file with one of the commissioners, John W. Scott or William Radebaugh, esqs., his subpœna for witness, as follows :

Subpœnas for witnesses at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, marked Exhibit X, and consisting of subpœnas Nos. 1 to 21, inclusive.

Also subpœnas for witnesses at Du Bois, Pennsylvania, marked Exhibit Y, consisting of subpœnas Nos. 1 to 3, inclusive.

Also subpœnas for witnesses at Houtzdale, Pennsylvania, marked Exhibit Z, consisting of subpœnas Nos. 1 to 20, inclusive.

Also subpœnas for witnesses at Penfield, Pennsylvania, marked Exhibit A A, consisting of subpœnas Nos. 1 to 3.

At 6.30 p. m., March 29, 1879, adjourned until 8 o'clock p. m., March 29, 1879.

Eight o'clock p. m., March 29, 1879, examination resumed.

FRANK FLEMING re-examined:

Question. When on the stand before I forgot to ask you whether you assisted A. M. Bloom in making search for the record of a proceeding to change the township line between Boggs and Woodward Townships, Clearfield County. Will you now state if you did assist in making such search?—Answer. I did.

Q. What records did you search, where did you begin and end, and what did you find?—A. We searched the records from 1822 up to the present time; quarter sessions dockets from 1822 up to 1863, in which such proceedings were then recorded, and then began with road docket for the year 1863 and searched them up to the present time, and found no record of any such proceedings therein.

Q. State how you searched these books. Did you rely on the indexes, or leaf the books page by page and in that way examine the contents?—A. We did not rely upon the indexes, but searched them page by page; leafed them over, and in that way examined them.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you or the deputy prothonotary who assisted in this search examine any of the other records than those you have named?—A. None but what I have named.

Re-examined:

Q. Will you state whether the books you searched are now before you, and if so, what books are they?—A. They are, and are as follows:

(1.) Quarter sessions docket No. 1, October sessions, 1822, to December sessions, 1837.

(2.) Quarter sessions docket No. 2, January term, 1838, to November, 1846.

(3.) Quarter sessions docket No. 3, February sessions to September sessions, 1862.

(4.) Road docket from 1863 to 1871.

(5.) Road docket from January term, 1872, to March term, 1879.

Re-cross-examined:

Q. Are there not a very large number of other records and papers in the prothonotary's office that you did not examine?—A. There are.

Re-re-examined:

Q. Are there any such pertaining to changes of township lines that you know of that you have not examined?—A. No; we examined all the records we could find relating to the changes of township lines.

Clearfield County, ss:

I, John W. Scott, a notary public in and for the said State and county, before whom the depositions of the above-named witnesses were taken, do hereby certify that said witnesses were duly qualified and examined at the times and place as stated in the caption to these depositions, and subscribed their names to their respective depositions in my presence, and that the questions and answers in said depositions were taken down by me, truly and correctly, as they fell from the lips of the respective counsel and witnesses. And I do further certify that the erasures and interlineations made therein, and particularly set forth on pages 113, 114, 115, 116, and 117, were made by me, on the lines and pages therein noted, before the respective depositions in which they were made were signed by the witnesses.

Witness my hand and notarial seal this 29th day of March, 1879.

Minority Inspector.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS.

I, George Gallaher, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector; and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein, to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

GEORGE W. GALLAHER,

Inspector of the Election District composed of the ——— of ———, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and ——— this 5th day of Nov., 1878, before me.

—————,
Judge.

I, Geo. Merritt, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector; and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

GEO. G. MERRITT,

Inspector of the Election District composed of the ——— of ———, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and ——— this 5th day of Nov., 1878, before me.

—————,
Judge.

OATHS OF CLERKS.

I, John Beish, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JOHN BEISH,

Clerk of the Election District composed of the _____ of _____, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and _____ this 5th day of Nov., 1878, before me.

Judge.

I, Alexander Wiser, do swear that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

ALEXANDER WISER,

Clerk of the Election District composed of the _____ of _____, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and _____ this 5th day of Nov., 1878, before me.

JOHN LITTLE,

Judge.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA,

County of Clearfield, ss:

I, Eli Bloom, prothonotary of the court of common pleas of county and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the oaths of judge, inspectors, and clerks for the election district of Boggs Township, for the general election of the 5th November, 1878, as the same remains on file in my office.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of said court, at Clearfield, this 18th day of February, 1879.

EXHIBIT S.

Assessor's oath under the registry law.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY, ss :

You, Geo. W. Shimel, do affirm that you will support the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of this commonwealth; that you will, as register of your election district, use your utmost diligence to discover, ascertain, and register the names of all qualified voters therein who are, by the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote; that you will proceed to strike from the list the name of every person whom you know to have died or removed from the district since the last assessment, or whose death or removal from the same may be made known to you, and to add to the same the name of any qualified voter whom you know to have moved into the same since the last assessment, or whose removal into the same shall be made known to you, and also the names of all who shall make claim to you to be qualified voters therein; and that you will visit every dwelling-house in your district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on your list has died or removed therefrom, and if so, to strike the same therefrom; after which you will proceed to make out a list in alphabetical order of all freemen above twenty-one years of age claiming to be qualified voters of your district; and that you will perform your duty as register with honesty and fidelity, according to the laws of this commonwealth, without fear, favor or affection, hatred, malice or ill-will.

GEO. W. SHIMEL,
Assessor.

Oaths of election officers.

OATH OF JUDGE.

I, N. C. Farwell, do affirm that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying out the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; and that I will use my best endeavor to prevent any fraud, deceit, or abuse in carrying on the same, by citizens qualified to vote or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will, in all things, truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

N. C. FARWELL,
Judge of the Election District composed of the Township of Pike, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and ———, this — day of ———, 187—, before me.

I, R. J. Shaffner, do swear that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

R. J. SHAFFNER,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township of Lawrence, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.
J. A. McBRIDE, Judge.

I, L. C. Bloom, do swear that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of voters that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

L. C. BLOOM,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township of Lawrence, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.
J. A. McBRIDE, Judge.

Oaths of election officers.

OATH OF JUDGE.

I, John A. McBride, do swear that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying out the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; and that I will use my best endeavor to prevent any fraud, deceit, or abuse in carrying on the same, by citizens qualified to vote or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will, in all things, truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

J. A. McBRIDE,
Judge of the Election District composed of the Township of Lawrence, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5 day of November, 1878, before me.
A. P. MOORE,
Minority Inspector.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS.

I, Thomas McPherson, do swear that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election ; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

THOMAS McPHERSON,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Lawrence, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5 day of November, 1878, before me.

J. A. McBRIDE,
Judge.

I, A. P. Moore, do swear that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law ; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities ; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

A. P. MOORE,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Lawrence, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5 day of November, 1878, before me.

J. A. McBRIDE,

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA,

County of Clearfield, ss :

I, Eli Bloom, prothonotary of the court of common pleas of county and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that the foregoing pages contain a true and correct copy of the list of voters and the affidavits of unregistered voters as they remain on file in said office for Knox Township.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of said court, at Clearfield, this 15th March, 1879.

ELI BLOOM, Prothonotary.

EXHIBIT O.

Oaths of election officers.

OATH OF JUDGE.

I, John Patterson, do sw'ar a'firm that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying out the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; and that I will use my best endeavor to prevent any fraud, deceit, or abuse in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will, in all things, truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JOHN PATTERSON,
Judge of the Election District composed of the ——— of ———, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and swearing this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.

JOHN McCRACKEN,
Minority Inspector.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS.

I, John McCracken, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid; but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JOHN McCRACKEN,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the ——— of ———, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and swearing this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.

JOHN PATTERSON,
Judge.

I, Joseph McNeal, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid; but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JOSEPH McNEAL,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the ——— of ———, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and swearing this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.

JOHN PATTERSON,
Judge.

OATHS OF CLERKS.

I, A. W. Young, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how an elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

A. W. YOUNG,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the ——— of ———, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and a'firm' this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.

JOHN PATTERSON,
Judge.

I, Sylvester Wimer, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how an elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

SYLVESTER WIMER,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township of Jordan, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and ——— this fifth day of November, 1878, before me.

JOHN PATTERSON,
Judge.

List of voters.

One copy, together with the tally-paper, list of voters, triplicate return sheet, and oaths of judges, inspectors, and clerks, to be put into the ballot-box; and one copy of each of these papers is to be put into an envelope, sealed up, and addressed to the prothonotary at Clearfield.

We, the subscribers, judge and inspectors of an election held at the school-house, in the township of Jordon, in the county of Clearfield and commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November (being the fifth day), A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, for the election district composed of the township of Jordon, in and for said county, certify the following to be a correct list of voters at this poll.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this fifth day of November, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

JOHN PATTERSON, [L. S.]
Judge of Elections.

County of Clearfield, ss:

I, D. H. Kester, being duly sworn, say that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, I was born on the 31st day of August, A. D. 1852, in Columbia County, State of Pennsylvania; that I am and have been a citizen of the United States for one month, and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania; that I have resided in said last-mentioned State for one year last past, and in this election district for two months last past; and that I have not removed into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that I have paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed two months and paid one month before this election, which tax was assessed on the —— day of ——, 1877, in the —— of Greenwood, in the county of Clearfield, in the State of Pennsylvania, and was paid on the —— day of ——, 1877, to A. H. Newcomer, collector of taxes for said township, * who gave me a receipt therefor, which has since been lost or destroyed.

D. H. KESTER.

Sworn and subscribed this 5th day of November, 1878, before me.

Oaths of election officers.

OATH OF JUDGE.

I, ———, do affirm that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying out the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; and that I will use my best endeavor to prevent any fraud, deceit, or abuse in carrying on the same, by citizens qualified to vote or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will, in all things, truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required so to do as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

GEORGE MICHAELS,

Judge of the Election District composed of the Township of Ferguson, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of November, 1878, before me.

A. D. FERGUSON,

Minority Inspector.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS.

I, ———, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

A. D. FERGUSON,

Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Ferguson, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of November, 1878, before me.

GEORGE MICHAELS, Judge.

* N. B.—The words in italic can be erased when not applicable.

I, — — — —, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JAMES J. DILLEN,

*Inspector of the Election District composed
Township of Ferguson, in the County of Clearfield.*

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of November, 1878, before me.

GEORGE MICHAELS, Judge.

OATHS OF CLERKS.

I, — — — —, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

A. J. SMITH,

*Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township
of Ferguson, in the County of Clearfield.*

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of November, 1878, before me.

GEORGE MICHAELS, Judge.

I, — — — —, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JAMES FERGUSON,

*Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township
of Ferguson, in the County of Clearfield.*

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of November, 1878, before me.

GEORGE MICHAELS, Judge.

EXHIBIT I.

Oaths of election officers.

OATH OF JUDGE.

I, George Korb, do swear that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying out the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; and that I will use my best endeavor to prevent any fraud, deceit, or abuse in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

GEORGE F. KORB,
Judge of the Election District composed of the Township of Bloom, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn to this 5th day of Nov., 1878, before me.

Minority Inspector.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS.

I, George L. Smith, do swear that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law;

nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Bloom, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn to this 5th day of Nov., 1878, before me.

Judge.

I, John Thomas, do swear that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JOHN THOMAS,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Bloom, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn to this 5th day of Nov., 187-, before me.

Oaths of election officers.

OATH OF JUDGE.

I, Henry A. Wright, do affirm that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying out the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; and that I will use my best endeavor to prevent any fraud, deceit or abuse in carrying on the same, by citizens qualified to vote or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will, in all things, truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding."

H. A. WRIGHT,
Judge of the Election District composed of the Township of Beccaria, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and affirmed this fifth day of Nov., 1878, before me.

EDM'D WILLIAMS,
Minor Inspector.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS.

I, George W. DeWalt, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector; and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

GEO. DEWALT,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Beccaria in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and affirmed this fifth day of Nov., 1878, before me.

H. A. WRIGHT, Judge.

I, Edmond Williams, do affirm that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector; and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

EDM. WILLIAMS,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the Township of Beccaria, in the county of Clearfield.

Subscribed and affirmed, this fifth day of Nov., 1878, before me.

H. A. WRIGHT, Judge.

OATHS OF CLERKS.

I, S. H. Hurdman, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

HOWARD HURDMAN,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township of Beccaria, in the county of Clearfield.

Subscribed and affirmed, this fifth day of Nov., 1878, before me.

H. A. WRIGHT, Judge.

I, Geo. W. Rex, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

GEO. W. REX,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Township of Beccaria, in the county of Clearfield.

Subscribed and affirmed, this fifth day of Nov., 1878, before me.

H. A. WRIGHT, Judge.

Watson, do swear that I will duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector; and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law; nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

JAMES E. WATSON,
Inspector of the Election District composed of the Boro' of Clearfield, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of September, 1878, before me.

A. W. WALTERS,
Judge.

OATHS OF CLERKS.

I, L. H. Ale, do affirm that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

L. H. ALE,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Boro' of Clearfield, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and affirmed this 5th day of September, 1878, before me.

A. W. WALTERS,
Judge.

I, B. F. Cooper, do swear that I will, as a clerk, impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of judgment and ability; that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election; and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

B. F. COOPER,
Clerk of the Election District composed of the Boro' of Clearfield, in the County of Clearfield.

Subscribed and sworn this 5th day of September, 1878, before me.

A. W. WALTERS,
Judge.

JNO. W. HOWE, Clerk.

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF THE CONTESTEE.

In the matter of the contested election in the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, for a seat to represent said district in the House of Representatives of the United States of America, in the Forty-sixth Congress.

Depositions of witnesses taken before W. N. Prothero, a notary public of the State of Pennsylvania, a resident of the town of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, at the court-house in the borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the part of Hon. Seth H. Yocum, contestee, on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1879.

TIM REILEY sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Curwinsville Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

(Counsel for contestant object to the taking of the testimony of the witness now sworn, so far as the same relates to frauds or irregularities in the election in Curwinsville Borough at the general election held on November 5th, 1878, for the reason that in the answer of the contestee to the notice of contest served upon him by Hon. A. G. Curtin, that he would contest his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, there are no specifications or allegations of fraud or irregularities at said election in Curwinsville Borough, and no allegation or charges were made that illegal votes were cast for contestant at said election in said borough.)

Q. Do you reside in Curwinsville Borough, or Pike Township, immediately outside of Curwinsville Borough?—A. I reside in Pike Township, about four rods outside of the borough line.

Q. Did you vote in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Curtin.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Ireland.

Q. When?—A. Twenty-eight years ago next March.

Q. How old were you when you came to the United States?—A. About twenty-two or twenty-three years of age when I came to the country.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the reason that, in his answer to notice of contest, contestee does not allege that any unnaturalized persons voted at said election for contestant in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Penn.)

A. No.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No.

Q. Have you within two years paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I paid tax last fall.

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, because it is not cross-examination.)

Re-examined:

Q. To whom did you yourself pay tax last fall?—A. Constable Bloom.

Q. When did you get your receipt, and from whom did you get it?—A. I got it a few days after I paid the tax, from Mr. Bloom.

Q. When, as near as you can tell, did you pay the tax to Bloom?—A. I paid it right away after the primary election.

Q. Have you that receipt with you?—A. No, I have not. I lost it.

Q. Did you yourself pay that tax in money to Bloom, or did not some one else pay it for you?—A. I did not put the money in his hands myself, but left the money at my house with my wife. I was present when my woman brought the money out and paid it to him.

Q. When was this tax paid by your wife, giving date and month, as near as you can tell?—A. It was paid just after primary election. I can't give the date.

Q. Did Arnold Bloom have anything to do or say about your taxes?—A. I don't know him.

Recross-examined :

A. If the primary election was in September, 1878, were your taxes paid in that month?—A. I think the taxes were paid in the latter end of that month.

Re-examined :

Q. Did you get your tax-receipt at the time your wife paid the tax?—A. No, sir; not right away when the tax was paid.

Q. Where were you and Bloom when he gave you the receipt?—A. I was at work, and he left the receipt with my wife.

Q. Did you see Bloom, the collector, give the receipt to your wife?—A. No.

Q. Can you swear that it was the Bloom the collector who left that receipt with your wife?—A. I can swear it was Constable Bloom that left the receipt with my wife.

Q. When did your wife, giving date, give you the receipt?—A. I received the receipt the evening I came home from work. I don't remember the date.

Q. Was this not about the time of the general election of November 5th, 1878?—A. It was away before the general election.

Q. How long before the election?—A. You can guess it yourselves as well as I can; the tax had been paid right after the primary election.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—No; I only paid the last State and county tax.

Recross-examined :

Q. Did you read your ticket before voting?—A. No; I did not.

Q. Then how do you know for whom you voted at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Curtin.

Q. How do you know you did?—A. I got the ticket to vote for him, is all I know.

Q. You depend, then, do you, upon what others told you, for your knowledge of whom you voted for Congress?—A. Yes, I do.

Re-examined :

Q. From whom did you get the ticket that you voted?—A. I can't tell his name.

Q. Did you ask for a Democratic ticket?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you receive the ticket you asked for, and did you vote it?—A. Yes.

Recross-examined :

Q. Do you know that you received a Democratic ticket?—A. I asked for it and I expect I got it.

Q. Do you know that the person from whom you got your ticket was not a Republican and working for Yocum?—A. I don't know.

Re-examined :

Q. Was not the person who gave you the ticket a Democrat?—A. Yes; I expect he was.

Recross-examined :

Q. Do you know he was a Democrat?—A. I couldn't swear to it. And further saith not.

JOSEPH ADELSPERGER sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. I reside in White Settlement, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Is or is not what is known as the White Settlement in Pike Township?—A. It is in Pike Township.

Q. How old are you?—A. Twenty-seven the 29th day of July, 1879.

Q. When did you come into the State of Pennsylvania to reside?—A. The 6th or 7th day of last May.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before election of November 5, 1878, and which was paid within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Mr. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket which you voted at the November election in Pike Township?—A. I didn't read it full. I didn't look all over it. I saw it was a Democratic ticket. I merely put Mr. Norris's name in place of one of the other commissioners.

Q. Were you born in Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you resided in the State previous to last May?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you ever voted in the State before November last at any general election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you first come to Pennsylvania?—A. I can't be certain about the date, but think it was in 1873.

Q. Did you remain in the State for one whole year, or was your home in the State for one whole year?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you paid any State or poll tax within two years preceding November 5, 1878, in this State, or in any other State?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where?—A. At Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When?—A. It was the fall that Mr. Wallace run on the ticket.

Q. Was it after the Presidential election of 1876, when Tilden and Hayes were candidates for the Presidency?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you pay tax in this or any other State after that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you reside in this State at least six months before the election of November 5, 1878, and when you say you came into this State on May the 6th or 7th, 1878, do you not mean that you arrived in Clearfield County at that date?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, because the question indicates a purpose to mislead the witness, because he has already testified that he did not come into this State until May 6 or 7, 1878.

Objection or statement of counsel for contestee is objected to for the reason that it seeks to answer the question for the witness, and is placed in the form of an objection for a mere pretext.)

A. I mean that I arrived in Clearfield County at that date.

Q. How long before you arrived in Clearfield County did you arrive in this State?—A. I arrived in this State on the 5th of May, 1878.

Q. Did you remain in the State from that time until after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you asked to produce a tax-receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your name, if you know, upon the registry of voters for 1878, in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, because it is not the best evidence.)

A. I don't know if it was or no.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since 1875 or before?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay any such tax in State of Pennsylvania since 1875?—A. My memory is not good enough to recollect. It was the fall that Mr. Wallace ran for the senate.

Q. Did you vote for Mr. Wallace the fall that you paid that tax, and was that the last State or county tax that you paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long were you out of this State, immediately prior to May 6 or 7, 1878?—A. I left this State in January, 1875. I returned on the 5th of May, 1878.

Q. Where was you from January, 1875, to May, 1878? I mean what State was you in?—A. In the State of Maryland.

Q. Did you see Curtin's name on the ticket you voted November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you reside in Pike Township at least two months before the election of November 5, 1878; that is, Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you ever notified that your taxes were unpaid?—A. No, sir.

Q. Would you have paid the same had you known they were unpaid?—A. Yes, sir.

And further said he not.

JOHN T. STAGE affirmed.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Pike Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Curtin.

Q. Have you, within two years preceding said election, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you pay such tax?—A. I paid my tax before the Presidential election.

Q. Did you pay it long enough before the said Presidential election to give you a right to vote at that election?—A. I had my tax paid up to that time all but 50 cents. A receipt was handed me for the 50 cents by a friend that said that would entitle me to a vote. I went down the day this receipt was given to pay it, and when I got there I met the man who paid it, and he gave me the receipt.

Q. Was not that tax paid before the time had expired which would give you a right to vote at Presidential election of 1876, upon payment of taxes in due time?—A. I got a notice that the taxes would have to be paid at a certain time, or I would not get a vote.

Q. Was that tax paid in time to give you a vote in November, 1876, and did you not vote on such payment of taxes at said election of 1876?

—A. Why, of course, I voted on said taxes.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since that time?—A. I ain't prepared to say. I paid some tax—I paid some of it; I don't know how much.

Q. What taxes did you pay within two years immediately preceding the general election of 1878, and to whom?—A. I paid part of my school tax to M. L. C. Evans, and about the rest of the tax I am not prepared to say.

Q. Did you pay any of your State and county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. Did you pay any taxes to David McGaughey, county treasurer, in either of the years of 1876, 1877, or 1878?—A. I don't recollect whether I did or did not.

Q. After thinking the matter over, don't you recollect that you did not pay any taxes for those years to McGaughey?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because the question is leading and unfair to the witness.)

A. I paid it to somebody; that is, I paid to Jo. A. Dale.

Q. When in 1876 you paid your State and county taxes, did not that pay all such taxes up to and including that year?—A. It paid up to the Presidential election.

Q. Have you at any time since 1876 paid any State or county taxes to Lewis I. Bloom, the collector?—A. I think not.

Now, 12.15 p. m., adjourned to 1 o'clock p. m. of this day.

Now, 1.15 p. m., examination resumed, and witness JOHN T. STAGE on the stand:

Q. Was the tax which you paid in the fall of 1876 the last State or county tax which you have paid?—A. That is the last I paid in full.

Q. To whom have you paid since that time any State or county tax, or part of such tax?—A. I don't know that I paid it to any person, that is State or county tax.

Q. Are or are you not certain that you did not pay to Louis J. Bloom, the collector, any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I am not positive; he was talking to me about the tax, and whether I paid him any or not I don't know.

Q. That is your best recollection as to paying these taxes to Bloom, and do you think you did or did not?—A. I know I didn't pay it all.

Q. Did or did you not meet and talk with Arnold Bloom just before you voted; and, if so, what was said?—A. Well, about what was said, he asked who I was going to vote for. I told him I was going to vote for Curtin. Then he said, "If that is the way you're voting, come along to the window, and there will be no trouble, as there is some trouble about your tax." That was about all the conversation we had.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom say that you could not vote because of non-payment of taxes, but if you would vote for Curtin he would see that he got your vote, and did you not reply to him that you intended to vote, if you voted at all, for Curtin?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question for the reason that it is leading, and that counsel by his question assumes that the witness has testified that Arnold Bloom came to him and said that if he would vote for Curtin he would see that he would get his vote, whilst the witness has testified that Arnold Bloom asked him how he was going to vote, to which the witness replied that he was going to vote for Curtin, to which Bloom said, "Come along to the window and there will be no trouble.")

A. I told you all that I could recollect that was said, as near as I could mind.

Q. Did Arnold Bloom walk with you to the window when you voted, and what did he do?—A. I told you what he said; done nothing more than nod his head.

Q. Did he or did he not nod his head in the direction of the window where the election board was sitting?—A. That is what I meant, he nodded towards the board.

Q. Did the board of election or any of them ask you any questions as to your right to vote?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you registered as a voter in Pike Township, Clearfield County, for the year 1878, if you know?—A. I expect I was; I didn't see it on paper.

Q. How long have you resided in Pike Township?—A. Ever since 1822 or 1823.

Q. Have you been a voter at the general elections for a number of years past?—A. Never missed but two elections since I was old enough to vote.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. I voted at all these, I think.

Q. Did any one pay your taxes for you within two years preceeding 5th November, 1878?—A. Coates Evans paid a tax for me, but whether it was within that time or not, I don't know.

Q. To whom did he pay it?—A. He paid it to some one of the collectors at Curwinsville. I don't recollect who.

Q. Might it have been paid to the county treasurer or Lewis J. Bloom?—A. County treasurer, I think.

Q. Did you pay any tax in 1877?—A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. Are you certain you did not?—A. No, I am not.

Q. Did you pay any tax in 1876, and after the Presidential election at which Tilden & Hayes were candidates for the Presidency?—A. My tax was all paid up till the last Presidential election.

Q. Did you not yourself or some one for you pay taxes in 1878?—A. I paid part of my school-tax.

Q. Did you not pay other taxes?—A. I am not positive whether I did or not.

Q. Were not your taxes paid to Lewis J. Bloom by some one for you?—A. I hope they are paid, but I never heard of it.

Q. Might you not have paid your State and county taxes or made arrangements to pay them to Lewis J. Bloom at the time you had a conversation with him of which you speak in your direct examination?—A. I am not positive I ever paid him anything.

Q. Did you not pay either a State or county tax after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I am not positive whether I did or not.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, I think not.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. I expect I did or I wouldn't have known who I was voting for.

Q. Did you go to Lewis J. Bloom or did you say to him, at least one month before the election, that you was ready to pay your tax?—A. Have not any recollection of it at all.

Q. Did he ever say to you anything about the payment of your taxes?

—A. I think I told him, I am not certain, that I would be able to pay my tax again the election; he said it would be all right, or something to that purpose.

Q. Did he say to you that your tax had been arranged by some one?—

A. He did not.

Q. Did you ever refuse or say that you would not pay your State or county tax?—A. I never did to my recollection.

Re-examined :

Q. Were or were not the taxes which you have stated that Coates Evans paid for you paid some time before the last Presidential election?

—A. I am not able to say.

Q. How did Coates Evans come to pay your taxes?—A. I suppose that he owed me at the time.

Q. Cannot you fix near the time, and was it not in 1875 or before the time.

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because the question is leading and calculated to mislead the witness.)

A. I don't recollect the time at all when it was.

Q. What is your best recollection; was it or not in 1875 or prior thereto?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that witness has already testified that he cannot recollect the time.)

A. I don't recollect.

And further saith not.

THOMAS J. FROW sworn:

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Curwinsville, Clearfield County.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of this witness now sworn, relative to any frauds or irregularities at the general election of November 5, 1878, in the borough of Curwinsville, for the reason that in his answer to the notice of contest served upon him by A. G. Curtin, that his right to a seat as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, in the Forty-sixth Congress of United States, would be contested, contestee made no charges or allegations of frauds in the election in the borough of Curwinsville, county aforesaid.

Counsel for contestee objects to the foregoing statement which is made under the cover of an objection, and is a frivolous pretext, and made for the purpose of delay, because no offer has yet been made to prove by this witness that there were any frauds or irregularities in Curwinsville.

Counsel for contestant deny the truthfulness of the foregoing objection or statement of counsel for contestee.)

Q. Did you reside there on November 5, 1878, and did you vote at the general election held that day?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Is the place of election for Pike Township in Curwinsville Borough, and was it so November 5, 1878?—A. It is and was.

Q. Did you or did you not have any conversation with Lewis J. Bloom, the collector of State and county taxes for Pike Township, within thirty days preceding the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I did not.

Q. Do or do you not know of taxes being paid or assumed to Lewis J. Bloom, collector, by Arnold Bloom?—A. I do not.

Q. Do or do you not know of taxes being assumed or paid for persons who were expected to vote for Curtin by any one?—A. I do not.

Q. Did you or did you not say to or in the presence of Hon. John Patton that some taxes for voters in Pike Township had been assumed by you or some one else to your knowledge, or words to that effect?—

A. As to my knowledge, I know nothing at all about it. General Patton was in the store of J. C. Wright & Co. in Curwinsville one day; we had a talk in regard to the making out tax receipts for Wm. C. Arnold on the day before the election. General Patton said that these taxes had been assumed thirty days before the election, and I remarked to him that Arnold Bloom had come to me some time before the election, probably two months, not less than two months, with a list of the Democratic voters of Pike Township who had not paid their taxes. I advised him to send the list to Mr. Test, who is chairman of the county committee. It is probable that I did tell General Patton that I had heard Arnold Bloom say that he had assumed payment of some taxes to Lewis J. Bloom. This conversation is to the best of my recollection.

Q. Did or did you not say to Patton in substance that some taxes for Democratic voters had been assumed in the same way as W. C. Arnold had assumed taxes for Republican voters?—A. I have stated in the conversation already testified to all that I remember.

Q. Do you or do you not know through Arnold Bloom or any one else of taxes having been paid for Democratic voters within thirty days preceding election of November 5, 1878?—A. How can I know a thing through another man?

Q. Did you hear of any such taxes having been paid?

(Objected to because it is hearsay.)

A. I think Arnold Bloom told me that he had assumed some taxes.

Q. Have you any knowledge or have you heard any person say that taxes for Democratic voters had been paid less than thirty days prior to said election?—A. I have not.

Q. When, and was it within thirty days of said election that Arnold Bloom told you he had assumed taxes?—A. I don't remember.

Q. What is your best recollection?—A. My recollection is that it was after the election.

Q. Do you know Olmstead Lewis, of Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I know a colored man who goes by the name of Olmstead Lewis.

Q. Did you or did you not, within a short time prior to the election of November 5, 1878, offer or agree to give said Olmstead Lewis a bed-quilt or hap if he would vote the Democratic ticket at said election?—

A. I did not; he pretended to be a Democrat before said election, and it would be folly in me to buy a man to vote the ticket of his choice.

Q. Prior to said election had not said Lewis been known as a Republican?—A. I know nothing about it except what he told me and other Democrats and Republicans.

Q. Did he (Lewis) say to you before said election that he had been a Republican?—A. He told me that he had, but never intended to vote that ticket again.

Q. Did or did not Olmstead Lewis receive a bed-quilt or hap from you a few days (or a short time) after the said election?—A. He did not.

Q. Did he receive such quilt or hap from any one in the store of J. C. Wright & Co., in which store you are engaged?—A. Mr. Wright told me some time after the election that he had gotten a hap from him. I knew nothing about it until I had understood that Wm. C. Arnold had him make a deposition before Squire Barr, in which he stated that he had received a hap from me for voting the Democratic ticket.

Q. Did or did not said Lewis pay for said quilt or hap, and is or is not he charged with it on the books of J. C. Wright & Co.?—A. I think he has not paid for it, and it is not charged on the books of J. C. Wright & Co. to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Do you or do you not know John Appleton of Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes; I know him.

Q. Was he in the store of J. C. Wright & Co. in Curwinsville on the day of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I do not remember, but think not.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom, in said store, in your presence, on November 5, 1878, say to said John Appleton in substance as follows: "Appleton, if you will vote the Democratic ticket we will give you $3 worth of goods out of J. C. Wright & Co.'s store and $1 in cash"?—A. I remember of no conversation of the kind.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom then say to you in substance as follows: "We will do it, won't we Frow?" and to which you replied, "Yes; we will do it"?—Ans. I am positive there was no such conversation occurred.

Q. How much money did you receive, if any, during last fall for campaign purposes?—A. Not one cent.

Q. Were you in the borough of Curwinsville on Sunday, February 16, 1879?—A. Very probable that I was.

Q. Did you on that day see John W. Wrigley, of Clearfield Borough, in Curwinsville?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I do not remember whether that was the day or not. I seen him one Sabbath in February.

Q. Did or did not you and said John W. Wrigley on some Sunday of this month go to the depot and telegraph office in Curwinsville Borough?—A. We did not, nor have we been at the telegraph office in the borough of Curwinsville together since the election.

Q. Were you in the said telegraph office on any Sunday of this month?—A. I was not.

Cross-examined:

Q. Will you please explain, as far as you can, how Olmstead Lewis came to get the hap from the store of J. C. Wright & Co.?—A. When I heard that Olmstead Lewis had made an affidavit stating that I had given him a hap for voting the Democratic ticket, I told him that I had a notion of having him arrested for perjury. I said to him that he had never gotten a hap from this store. He said that he had, that he had gotten one from Mr. Wright the day after the election. I then spoke to Mr. Wright about it. Mr. Wright told me that Lewis had come into the store the day after the election and asked him whether Arnold Bloom had left him a credit $3. He told him that he had not. The next day Olmstead Lewis came into the store again and told him he was to get a hap, and he, Mr. Wright, supposed that he was getting it on the credit of Arnold Bloom. This was the first I knew of him getting the hap.

Q. Then you never gave him a hat, did you?—A. I did not.

Q. Has Olmstead Lewis ever made an affidavit in which he stated that you did not give him a hat for his vote for A. G. Curtin, or something to that effect?

(Objected to, because it is not cross-examination.)

A. He did make an affidavit of that kind before John D. Thompson, justice of the peace.

Q. Did you hear a conversation between W. C. Arnold and Arnold Bloom, wherein W. C. Arnold said that Arnold Bloom's testimony taken by the notary in the Curtin vs. Yocum contest was correct, except as to one thing that was not material, namely as to the dispatch?—A. W. C. Arnold, on the evening of the day or the preceding evening, in which Arnold Bloom gave his testimony in the Curtin and Yocum contest, stated in the presence of Arnold Bloom, Ignitius Thompson, and I think Stephen Graff and myself, that Arnold Bloom's testimony was correct, with the exception of one statement, which he said, if he would call his attention to, he would remember was incorrect; he did not state what that was, but I inferred that it was not a very material objection; he also at the same time stated that the affidavits of Lewis J. Bloom and Cortes Bloom were incorrect.

Q. Whom did Olmstead Lewis tell you had gotten him to make an affidavit in which he said he had received the hap referred to from you?

—A. I do not remember; he told me it was made in the office of Wm. C. Arnold.

Q. He told you it was untrue, did he, and that his affidavit made in W. C. Arnold's office was false?—A. He did.

Q. Did you ever hear any one say that any person had paid W. D. Irwin $150, or any amount of money, to further the interest of Seth H. Yocum, or the Republican party of Clearfield County.

(Objected to, because it is not cross-examination and hearsay.)

A. W. D. Irwin told me himself that he had gotten a sum of money—I don't remember how much—for the necessary expenditure during the election.

Q. From whom did he say he received it?—A. I think that he told me that he got in the bank.

Q. Do you mean Curwinsville Bank?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you hear anything of Wm. C. Arnold receiving money to further the interests of Yocum or the Republican party in this county, and if so, from whom did you hear he received it?—A. I have heard that he received it from various parties.

Re examined:

Q. Did or did not W. C. Arnold say that Arnold Bloom's testimony was correct in general, and that he, W. C. Arnold, would like to have been present to cross-examine him?—A. He did.

And further saith not.

OLMSTEAD LEWIS sworn:

Question. Do you or do you not reside in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and did you not reside there on November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Pike Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at the said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Have you paid State or County tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir, I don't think I have.

Q. How old are you?—A. I am thirty years old, as near as I can tell.

Q. Did or did not Thomas J. Frow, shortly before said election, say to you that he would give you a bed-quilt or hap if you would vote the Democratic ticket on November 5, 1878?

(Objected to because the question is leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom, shortly before said election, say to you that if you would vote the Democratic ticket he would give you $2 in money?—A. Yes, sir; he said so.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom, a few days after the election, say to you that he had not the $2 with him, but would pay you some time again?—A. Yes, sir; he said so.

Q. When you signed or made your mark to a paper which Thomas J. Frow wrote, did or did you not know what was written in the paper, and was it read to you by John D. Thompson, justice of the peace, or any one else?

(Objected to by counsel for the contestant for the reason that the counsel assumes by the question that the witness has testified that T. J. Frow wrote a paper or affidavit which he, the witness, signed, whilst he has not so testified, and because the contestant has made T. J. Frow a witness, and therefore cannot contradict him under the laws and rules controlling evidence in contested-election cases as well as in civil and criminal proceedings.)

A. He read it to me; that is, J. D. Thompson. I did not know what was in it until he read it to me.

Q. Did Thomas J. Frow write the paper or affidavit which you signed, and where were you and Frow when it was written?—A. We were upstairs in his room over the bank in Curwinsville. Frow wrote the paper.

Q. Can you read writing?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was any one present when Frow wrote the paper or affidavit except Frow and yourself?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did you come to go up into Frow's room?—A. I was in his store, and he asked me to take a bucket of coal up into his room, and he had paper, ink, and pen with him. He sets down to the table and commences writing.

Q. Did or did not Thomas J. Frow swear at you because he said you had made an affidavit about the hap; that is, about his giving you a hap?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Did or did not Thomas J. Frow at that time call you "a God dam fool"?

(Objected to as leading and immaterial and irrelevant to the matter of the contest for a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States as Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania.)

A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Did or did he not so frighten and scare you that you did not know what was in the paper when you signed or made your mark to it?—

A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Do you or do you not know what was in the paper that Frow wrote?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. When you made the affidavit in the office of W. C. Arnold, was or was it not made by your own offer, and was it not slowly and carefully read to you by Wm. Bard, justice of the peace, who swore you to the paper?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

Q. Did W. C. Arnold ever ask you to come to his office and make an affidavit?—A. No, sir; he never did.

Q. Would you or would you not have signed the paper which Frow wrote if he had not frightened and scared you into it?—A. No, sir; I never would.

Q. Were you afraid of Frow after he had sworn at you and cursed you?—A. I was at that time.

Q. Did or did not Frow write this paper without asking you questions or saying what he was writing in it, and then ask you to go into Thompson's and swear to it?—A. He never asked me any questions when he was writing it. He asked me to go into Thompson's and swear to it.

Q. How had you always voted before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I have always voted the Republican ticket until last fall.

Now, 6.30 p. m., adjourned to 7.15 p. m. of this day.

Now, 7.25 p. m. February 25, 1878, examination resumed.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. In October, 1876, in Pittston.

Cross-examined:

Q. Is this the last tax you have paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has any person paid a State or county tax for you since that time?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did not some one pay your tax to Lewis J. Bloom for you in 1878?—A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Q. When do you say you paid your last State and county tax?—A. I paid my State and county tax in October, 1876.

Q. Where?—A. In Pittston, Luzerne County.

Q. To whom?—A. I paid it to the officer; I forget his name.

Q. How long have you been a Democrat?—A. I never was a Democrat.

Q. Did you not tell Captain Frow before the election last fall that you had always been a Republican but that you had voted your last Republican ticket?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you tell any one so?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you not tell Captain Frow that you were going to vote the Democratic ticket last fall?—A. I did; yes, sir.

Q. Did you not tell him that you would not vote the Republican ticket again?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you read your ticket which you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know you voted for Curtin?—A. Because I received my ticket from a Democrat.

Q. How do you know it had the name Curtin on it?—A. Of course I could not swear to it.

Q. Are you a colored man?

(Objected to because not cross-examination and immaterial.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You voted for the man, did you not, for whom you wanted to vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say, do you, that you received the hat or quilt you spoke of in your direct examination from T. J. Frow?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Who asked you to go to the office of W. C. Arnold and make the affidavit you have spoken of in your direct examination?—A. Nobody.

Q. How did you come to go there to make it?—A. I didn't come there to make it; I had some business with him, transacted with him a year ago; I came in the office where he was, and, as far as I know—I want to tell the truth—and I think he asked me about this hap business, and he asked me where I got this hap, and I went on and I told him how I got this hap, and I told him that that hap went towards my voting the Democratic ticket, and of course that was my business in there towards that affidavit.

Q. How did he know you got that hap?—A. Because it was talked all over the town about it, and of course he couldn't help hearing of it.

Q. Did you ever tell any one before this that you had gotten this hap?—A. Yes, sir; of course.

Q. To whom did you tell it?—A. I don't just remember who I told.

Q. Can you not name some one whom you told about it?—A. Why, no, sir; I cannot just remember of the names of the persons I told of it.

Q. Can't you remember some of them?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you remember one of them?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you sure that you got a hap or quilt, and can you remember that you got it?—A. I did not get a quilt, but I got a hap.

Q. Did you get this hap in the morning or in the afternoon?—A. It was in the evening.

Q. Was it the day before the election you got it?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, because it confines the witness to one date, and because the witness has already testified that he got the hap several days after the election.)

Counsel for contestant objects to the objection or statement just made by counsel for contestee for the reason that it is simply a suggestion made under the pretext of an objection, and is therefore unfair and improper.)

A. No, sir.

Q. When was it?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee because witness has already stated that he received the hap several days after the election.)

Counsel for contestant objects to the objection just made by counsel for contestee for the reason that it is nothing more than a suggestion, and it is attempted evidently to put an answer in the witness's mouth; and further, it is objected to because the statement made in the objection by counsel for contestee is incorrect, and the witness has not yet testified as to when he received the hap, and therefore the objection is a mere pretext.)

A. I received it several days after the election.

Q. Was it three days or four days, or five days, or more or less, after the election that you received it?—A. It was three days after the election that I received the hap.

Q. You are positive, are you, that it was three days?—A. No, sir; I am not positive.

Q. Was it least three days ago?—A. As near as I can get at it it was about three days.

Q. Can you not swear positively that it was three days after the election that you got this hap?—A. No, sir.

Q. Why was it that you could not answer this question when it was first put to you?—A. Because I had to study, and I wanted to tell the truth.

Q. Did not what was said by Mr. Arnold in his conversation and in the objection help you to refresh your memory and fix the time when you received this hap?—A. In what way, sir?

Q. In his objection he said that you had already testified that you received this hap several days after the election. Now, was it not this, that is, what he said, that led you to remember that you received the hat three days after the election and not the day before the election?—

A. No, sir.

Q. Are you certain of this?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did Mr. Arnold say to you the night you made the affidavit in his office?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Was it at night that you were in his office?—A. It was in day that I was in his office.

Q. Did you make the affidavit there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Before what officer did you make it?—A. Squire Bard.

Q. Was Bard there when you went there?—A. He was not there when I went there.

Q. Was it John P. Bard?—A. Justice of the peace, whoever he is.

Q. Who sent for him?—A. I do not know.

Q. Do you know whether or not Mr. Arnold sent for him?—A. I do not know.

Q. Did Mr. Arnold write your affidavit and then read it to you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did Mr. Arnold say to you after you had made the affidavit?—A. Nothing, sir.

Q. Then you went to Mr. Arnold's office, did you, and told him that you had received a hap for voting the Democratic ticket and wanted to make an affidavit as to whom you had received it from, and also for what you received it, and then left the office without having any further conversation with him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your memory is perfectly clear on this, is it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you certain that T. J. Frow said he would give you this hap if you would vote the Democratic ticket on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You cannot be mistaken as to this, can you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Is this the only affidavit you made in reference to this hap and this transaction?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not also make an affidavit in which you stated in substance that T. J. Frow did not promise the hap in question for your vote for the Democratic candidates?

(Objected to because witness has already testified that he did not know what was in the affidavit that Frow got him to make.)

A. Why he promised me the hap? No, sir; I did not make such affidavit.

Q. What did you say in that affidavit to Frow?—A. I do not remember, because he did not read the affidavit and did not question me on it.

Q. Did not Squire Thompson read the affidavit to you when he swore you to it?—A. He did, sir.

Q. Who was in Squire Thompson's office when you were sworn; and if you were not sworn there, who was present when you was sworn?—A. Was not sworn in Thompson's office. Frow and Thompson were present when I was sworn, I am certain.

Q. Where was this affidavit that you swore to before Thompson, written?—A. Up in Frow's room; where he roomed.

Q. What did Frow say to you?—A. He said nothing to me when he was writing the affidavit.

Q. What did he say to you before he wrote it?—A. He went on to cursing and swearing; and from that he told me to take a scuttle of coal up to his room; with his pen and ink and paper, up to his room, where he went to writing this affidavit, and questioned me not.

Q. What did you do?—A. I was standing in his room by the stove, while he was writing this affidavit.

Q. He did not leave the room, did he, until you both left?—A. I came down from his room and he came after me in a little bit.

Q. He did not leave the room, did he, until you had left it?—A. No, sir.

Q. You and Mr. Frow, then, were in the room alone, were you, until you left?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was not the affidavit you made in reference to Mr. Frow, and sworn to before J. D. Thompson, justice of the peace, true?—A. I didn't make any affidavit; he made it himself.

Q. J. D. Thompson read it to you, did he not, and swore you to it, and you made your mark to the signature that was written on it?—A. He did; but I didn't understand it at the time, less I would not have done it.

Q. Why didn't you tell him that you did not understand it?—A. Because I did not think of it.

Q. Have you ever seen that affidavit, or heard it read since you saw it made?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. When did you first come to think of what you had sworn to?—A. O, I could not tell just now.

Q. As near as you can tell?—A. So long a time ago I could not remember now any more.

Q. What made you think of this?—A. I don't know what made me think of it.

Q. Did Mr. Frow hand you the paper which he had written?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see Mr. Frow that evening or that day after you had made that affidavit?—A. I made no affidavit, and didn't see him next day either.

Q. Did you see Mr. Frow after you left his room—that is, after he had written this paper?—A. He told me to go down from his room into Thompson's store and told me to stay there till he come.

Q. You are not very easily frightened, are you?—A. It is owing to how I feel.

Q. Well, how did you feel when this affidavit was made?—A. I felt all over.

Q. When are you easily frightened, when you feel all over or in part?—A. It is owing to where I am laying according to how I feel.

Q. Well, how do you feel when you are standing by the stove?

(Objected to by counsel for contester, because a number of the preceding questions and this one are immaterial, irrelevant, extremely frivolous, and indicate that they are asked for the purpose of delay.)

A. Feel warm, like anybody else.

Q. When you feel warm like anybody else, are you easily frightened; and, if so, were you frightened that night or that day?—A. I was so frightened then.

Q. What frightened you then?—A. When a man curses at a body, and he did not know what for, and saying that I was a damned fool.

Q. That was all he said to you was it?—A. Yes, sir; and went on with his affidavit writing.

Q. Was the ticket you voted on November 5, 1878, read to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever receive any money from Arnold Bloom?—A. No, sir.

Q. You say you cannot read, do you?—A. No, sir; I cannot read.

Q. You knew what you were doing, did you not, when you swore to this affidavit before J. D. Thompson?—A. I did not; I did not understand it.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax after the general election of 1876, at which Tilden and Hayes were candidates for the Presidency?—A. No, sir.

And now—10.30 p. m., February 25, 1879—adjourned until 8 a. m. February 26, 1879.

And now—8.45 a. m., February 26, 1879—cross-examination of Olmstead Lewis resumed.

Q. What hotel did you stop at last night?—A. Shaw House.

Q. When did you make the affidavit (as near as you can tell) in which you charged T. J. Frow with having given you a bed hap for your vote?—A. I do not know.

Q. Was it before or after the election that you made the affidavit before Bard?—A. After the election.

Q. About how long after the election?—A. I do not know.

Q. Was it about December 28, 1878, that you made the affidavit before Bard?—A. I do not know.

Q. Do you think it was on Christmas?—A. I do not know.

Q. Was it on the election day, or the day after, or when was it?—A. I do not know.

Q. Now, can't you remember the month that you made this affidavit?—A. I do not know, sir.

Q. Can you remember about what month and in what year was it?—A. I do not know sir.

Q. Now, do you not remember that you was walking along the street past the office of Wm. Bard, esq., in Curwinsville, and was called in by Wm. C. Arnold, and whilst there made the affidavit against Frow?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you not also frightened when you made that affidavit?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did not William C. Arnold ask you how you voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you tell him?—A. A Democratic ticket.

Q. Did you not, some time before the election, go to the store of J. C. Wright & Co. and ask T. J. Frow to trust you to a hap, as your family was in need of bed-covering?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before the election was this?—A. I don't remember any more.

Q. Was it more than a week?—A. I do not know.

Q. Do you think it was?—A. I do not know.

Q. What did you tell Mr. Frow when you got the hap from him?—A. I do not know.

Q. Did you tell him anything?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was there not a charge made against you after the last election by a number of persons in Curwinsville that you had stolen some boards or lumber?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, because it is incompetent, immaterial, and irrelevant, and the witness has no right to be asked or answer such a question.)

Counsel for contestant think the question entirely proper, because it will be followed by other evidence which will show the immediate connection with the transactions referred to in the direct, as well as the cross-examination of witness.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Are you certain of this?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was not such a charge made against you, and did not William C. Arnold, chairman of the Republican county committee, boast, after the election, that he would have you in the penitentiary before six months?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not tell some persons that you had been charged by the leaders of the Republican party in Curwinsville with having stolen boards or lumber, and was not this charge made against you after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not tell persons that W. C. Arnold said he would have you in the penitentiary before six months?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not hear that he had said so?

Q. Did you not hear that you were charged with stealing boards, or anything, after the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What were you charged with having stolen?—A. Boards.

Q. Who was prosecuting this charge against you; that is, what attorney?—A. Mr. Arnold.

Q. Do you mean William C. Arnold?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is this the other business you had at Mr. Arnold's office, and on which you went to see him the day you made this affidavit before Bard?—A. No, sir.

Q. What was this other business?—A. 'Twas business betwixt him and I about a year ago, as I told you before.

Q. Can you not remember what this business was?—A. No, sir.

Q. Now, did not Mr. W. C. Arnold say something to you about the charge against you for stealing boards the day you made your affidavit before Bard?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did any person else who was in the office of W. C. Arnold say anything to you about the charge made against you for stealing boards?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did any one speak to you before you went to the office of Mr. Arnold, in reference to your having stolen boards?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you certain of this?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear that Wm. C. Arnold had said that he would have you in the penitentiary before six months for stealing these boards?—A. No, sir; I did not. You will have that by heart after while if you keep on.

Q. How does it come that you were never prosecuted for stealing the boards that you say you were charged with stealing?—A. Because I agreed to settle it.

Q. Have you ever settled it?—A. No, sir.

Q. With whom did you promise to settle it?—A. I promised to pay the prosecutor for the boards.

Q. Have you ever paid him?—A. No, sir; I have not paid him.

Q. Did you not say that you were not promised or given a hap by F. J. Frow for voting a Democratic ticket at the election of November 5th, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you certain that you did not say so, and also swear that he had not done so?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not swear before John D. Thompson, justice of the peace in Curwinsville, after the election of November 5, 1878, and after you made the affidavit before William Bard, that T. J. Frow had neither promised or given you a hap or other valuable things for voting the Democratic ticket?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined :

Q. If you swore before Thompson that Frow did not give you a hap for voting, did you know what was in the paper you swore to?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you a poor man, and was your family in great need of this hap?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were these boards when you got them, which you were charged with stealing?—A. He hauled them out of the river.

Q. Were they not drift boards and lying on the bank of the river?—A. They were drift boards.

Q. When you took them had they not been lying along the river for some time, and did you not think they were drift, without an owner?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. After you were arrested who went your bail?

(Objected to as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. Thomas J. Frow.

Q. When you told T. J. Frow last fall that you would vote the Democratic ticket, was it or was it not because he had offered to give you a hap for so voting, and because Arnold Bloom had agreed to give you two dollars?

(Objected to because it is immaterial, irrelevant, and leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you the ticket which you voted November 5, 1878?—A. Arnold Bloom.

Q. Did he not say it was a Democratic ticket and a Curtin ticket?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because the question is leading, and a suggested answer under the pretext of an objection.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not W. C. Arnold ever say to you or promise to you that you would not be prosecuted for taking the boards if you would make the affidavit about Frow giving you the hop?—No, sir; he did not say any such a word.

Q. Have you ever talked to him about the boards?—A. No; he never talked to me nor I to him about the boards.

Recross-examined :

Q. When you went to Frow last fall and told him that you would vote the Democratic ticket, did you not tell him so because he had gone your bail on the charge of stealing boards?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who made the information against you for stealing boards?—A. Christ Frankhouser.

Q. For whom did he work then?—A. I do not know where he was working.

Q. Did Arnold Bloom say anything to you when he gave you your ticket?—A. He did.

Q. Are you certain he said it had Curtin's name on it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he read it to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you talked to Edward Livingston or any person else about your testimony in this case since you were subpoenaed?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you certain you did not?—A. I am certain I did not.

Q. Did you talk to any person last night or this morning in reference to your testimony?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you have any conversation with any person now in this room?—A. No, sir; I had not.

And further saith not.

Attest:
[SEAL.]

W. N. PROTHERO,
Notary Public.

JOHN APPLETON, sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. I live in Pike Township.

Q. Did you reside in Pike Township on November 5, 1878, and did you vote at the election held that day in Pike Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know Arnold Bloom?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom say to you on said election day, in substance as follows: "Appleton, if you will vote the Democratic ticket we will give you $3 worth of goods out of J. C. Wright & Co.'s store and $1 in money"?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because the question is leading and is so framed as to suggest an answer to the witness, and is therefore an improper question.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not Arnold Bloom then turn and say to Thomas J. Frow, "We will do it, won't we, Frow," and to which Frow replied "Yes, we will do it"?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination:

Q. Who was present at this conversation?—A. Not any one.

Q. Where did it occur?—A. At the school-house at Curwinsville.

Q. Was there no one near?—A. No, sir.

Q. What time of day was it?—A. It was in the forenoon.

Q. Is this school-house the voting place?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How near the window was this?—A. It was down on the pavement.

Q. How near the window?—A. I can't say how far.

Q. Can't you approximate in feet?—A. Must have been fifty feet, as near as I can tell.

Q. Was this conversation in an ordinary tone of voice or was it in a whisper?—A. In a quiet voice.

Q. What do you mean by that?—A. Not talking loud or in a whisper.

Q. Well, what did you do?—A. I walked off to the fence to Mr. Hancock.

Q. How far was he from Bloom and Frow?—A. Ten or fifteen feet from Bloom. Frow was not there then.

Q. Did you walk away as soon as this conversation occurred?—A. From Bloom up to Hancock.

Q. Where was Frow?—A. He was in his store.

Q. How is the store from the school-house?—A. Near a quarter of a mile. I have no idea.

Q. Can you give an idea in rods—how many?—A. I expect near ten rods. I never stepped it.

Q. What street was the school-house on where Pike Township votes, or is that the school-house to which you refer?—A. I don't know the name of the street; it is the school-house where they vote.

Q. Where did you say this conversation occurred between you and Bloom and Frow ?—A. On the pavement by the school-house. Frow was not there.

Q. Did you not swear that when Arnold Bloom said to you, "Appleton, if you will vote the Democratic ticket we will give you three dollars' worth of goods out of J. C. Wright & Co.'s store and one dollar in money, that Bloom turned to Frow and said "We will do it, won't we, Frow ?"—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not just swear that this conversation occurred on the pavement near the school-house ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not swear just now that when Bloom said this, you went over to where Hancock was standing ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not say, in answer to my question, that when you went to Hancock, Frow was in the store ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time of day did you vote that day ?—A. Between ten and eleven o'clock.

Q. How long after this conversation occurred ?—A. Why, about half an hour.

Q. Where did you go from Hancock, before you voted ?—A. I went down to Dale's store.

Q. How far is that from the school-house ?—A. Nine or ten rods.

Q. Where is the school-house in reference to the bank ?—A. I expect it's not much further than Frow's store ; bank joins Frow's store.

Q. Where did you first see Frow that day ?—A. I was up to Frow's store in the morning.

Q. How long before this talk that you speak of ?—A. I expect it was an hour.

Q. How soon after that did you see Frow again ?—A. I expect about half an hour.

Q. Where was he ?—A. In the store.

Q. How long after that was it until you saw him again ?—A. Half an hour from the first time till I saw him the last time.

Q. Where was he then ?—A. The last time, in the store.

Q. Where did you see Frow that day, except in the store ?—A. No place but in the store.

Q. Who did you first tell this conversation to ?—A. Kinnesson Hancock.

Q. When ?—A. That day—election-day.

Q. Did you tell him as soon as you went to him, at the fence, or near the school house, where you said you left Bloom and went to him ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who else did you tell ?—A. No one, as I recollect of.

Q. Have you told it to anybody but Hancock ?—A. Not as I recollect of.

And now, 12.10 p. m., adjourned to 1 o'clock p. m., February 26, 1879.

And now, 1.20 p. m., cross examination continued.

Q. What is Kin. Hancock's politics ?—A. Republican.

Q. Can you now recollect whether you told anybody else but him what Bloom and Frow said to you ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who served the subpoena on you to appear in this case ?—A. I can't mind his name.

Q. Where does he live ?—A. I think in Curwinsville.

Q. What does he do ?—A. I can't tell you what he follows.

Q. Don't you know him ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is his name ?—A. Vorice Clark. I studied a good bit before I could think of his name.

Q. How long have you known Clark?—A. I have known him, I expect, for twenty years.

Q. You could not think of his name when I asked you the first time?—A. No, sir; I couldn't till I studied about it.

Q. When was this subpoena served on you?—A. Last Thursday evening.

Q. What did he say when he served it on you?—A. Well, he said for me to appear down here Tuesday or Wednesday. That is all that I can recollect of.

Q. Do you know Edward Livingston?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you never talk to him about this?—A. Not as I recollect of, at all.

Q. How near do you live to Curwinsville?—A. I suppose the nighest way is a mile and a quarter.

Q. Don't you go there at least once every week?—A. I scarcely ever go there once a month.

Q. How many times have you been in Curwinsville since the election of November, 1878?—A. No more than once or twice.

Q. Where were you when you were there?—A. The last time I was there I was in Mr. Arnold's store; about four weeks ago.

Q. Samuel Arnold's store?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you fix the time?—A. I was out at my sister's, and came in and stopped there.

Q. Anything else by which you fix the time?—A. Number of weeks since I was there is all I know.

Q. Who all did you see there and talk to?—A. I don't mind all who were there. My sister's son was there.

Q. Can't you remember anybody else?—A. No, sir.

Q. Is that the only time you can remember of being in Curwinsville since the election?—A. I think I was there once before.

Q. Where was you then?—A. Down at the Corner Store, as far as I can recollect.

Q. What did Kin. Hancock say, when you told him about this conversation with Frow and Bloom?—A. Why he said to vote the same ticket I always had voted.

Q. What else did he say?—A. He said he wouldn't be bothered voting the other ticket.

Q. What else did he say?—A. I don't mind if he said much of anything else about it.

Q. What did he say about money?—A. Didn't say anything about money at all.

Q. What did he say about your getting something for your vote?—A. He says it's all right enough. And I said I wasn't big fool enough to get anything for my vote.

Q. Do you swear that that is all Hancock said to you about your vote?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did anybody speak to you about your testimony before you were sworn this morning?—A. No, sir.

Q. Will you just repeat, please, what Bloom and Frow said to you?—A. Bloom said he would give me a dollar in money and three dollars in things out of the store; that was all that was said in Frow's store. I had no conversation with Frow at all. Nothing more.

Q. Is that what you told Kin. Hancock?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Frow standing by when Bloom said this, or what was he doing?—A. No, sir; Frow was not.

Q. Where was Frow?—A. Frow was back and Bloom called him up and says he, "Will you do that," and he says, "Yes, sir," and walked away.

Q. Where did Frow come from when you called him?—A. From back along the counter; we was up at the door.

Q. Do you swear, Frow heard, what Bloom said to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. When Frow said yes, sir, in answer to Bloom, do you swear that it had anything to do with what you and Bloom had been talking about?—A. No, sir, I can't swear to that.

Q. This conversation was in the store?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where was it?—A. The conversation between Bloom and me was down at the school-house.

Q. Was that where Bloom asked Frow if he would do that and Frow answered yes?—A. No, sir; he asked him that up in the store.

Q. Did you not swear twice this forenoon that this conversation between you and Frow and Bloom occurred on the pavement at the school-house?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not but a few minutes ago, when I asked you to repeat what Bloom and Frow said to you, use this language: "Bloom said he would give me $1 in money and $3 out of the store." That was all that was said and that you had no conversation with Frow at all?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long was it after the conversation with Bloom until you told Hancock?—A. Between five and ten minutes.

Q. How many different times did Bloom say this to you?—A. Two or three times.

Q. Did not or did Bloom use the same language to you in all his conversation on this subject?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then if you swore this morning that Bloom then turned and said to Frow, "We will do it; won't we, Frow?" and Frow replied, "Yes, we will do it," you swore to more than Frow said at any time.—A. No, sir.

Q. At how many different places did Bloom turn to Frow and say "We will do it; won't we, Frow?"—A. Only the once in the store.

Q. Did I not ask you this morning where this conversation occurred, and did you not answer, "At the school-house in Curwinsville"?—A. Yes, sir, at the school-house, between Bloom and me.

Q. Did you not swear just a moment ago that what Frow said when Bloom called him was "Yes, sir;" and walked away?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how W. C. Arnold, who examined you this morning, got the exact words that you swear were used in that conversation, and no others?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Were you at Mr. Murray's office since you came to town?—A. No, sir; Murray is a man I ain't acquainted with.

Q. Did any body speak to you and ask you what you knew since you came here and before you were sworn?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you talked to Arnold, Bloom, or T. J. Frow since the election?—A. No sir.

Q. Did you see Frow after the conversation as you say took place between you and Bloom in the store that day?—A. I did not see Frow after that; that day I went home.

Q. What time of day did you start home?—A. Between eleven and twelve o'clock.

Q. How long was it after you was in the store?—A. About half an hour.

Q. How long after the conversation?—A. About half an hour after the last conversation.

Q. How many conversations did you have with Frow on this subject ?

—A. Not any.

Q. Then do you know what Frow referred to when he said "Yes, sir," in answer to Bloom's question ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you mean or wish any body to understand that T. J. Frow attempted to buy or influence your vote.—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he attempt to buy or influence your vote ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Arnold Bloom speak to you as you stated more than once.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he use exactly the same language, and make the same offer both times, or every time ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he name the store out of which you were to have the goods ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was that ?—A. The day of the election.

Q. Where ?—A. On the pavement there by the school-house.

Q. Why did you not then give the name of the place you were to get these goods in answer to my repeated questions as to what Bloom said to you ?—A. Question was not asked me where I was to get the goods (before dinner).

Q. Will you now just repeat what Bloom said to you on the pavement near the school-house ?—A. He said "I will give you $1 in money and $3 out of the store."

Q. Now, is that Bloom's language, just as he spoke to you ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he buy or influence your vote ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did anybody else do so ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you, before or since the election of November, 1878, receive any money or other thing of value from anybody for your vote ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who did you vote for ?—A. Yocum.

Q. Who else ?—A. I did not read the ticket, for I am no scholar.

Q. When did you last pay a State and county tax ?—A. I gave to Mr. Hancock last summer to pay them for me. I was working for him.

Q. Have you paid a State and county tax within two years before the 5th of November, 1878, other than this Hancock arrangement ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who did you pay it to ?—A. Lewis Bloom.

Q. When ?—A. Last summer, and last summer a year.

Q. Do you say you paid them direct to Bloom in the summer of 1877 ?

—A. I told Mr. Hancock before Mr. Bloom to pay it.

Q. Have you got Mr. Bloom's receipt ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any receipts from Bloom for payment of taxes within two years ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has Hancock gotten or shown you Bloom's receipt for your taxes ?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined :

Q. Do you mean, when you said you paid your taxes for 1877 and 1878, that you gave Hancock the money, which he paid to Bloom, the collector, for you ?—A. No, sir; I didn't give him the money; I was working for him.

Q. Did Hancock take money that he owed you and pay said taxes for you at your request ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see Hancock pay Bloom, the collector, your State and county taxes in the summer of 1877 ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Hancock pay said taxes in the summer of 1877, and did you not vote at the election of November, 1877, on those taxes ?—A. No, sir; not for two years before the last election.

Q. Did Hancock pay your taxes, State and county, to Bloom, the collector, in the summer of 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you voted, did you not see Lewis I. Bloom, the collector, at the polls?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was Arnold Bloom there?—A. No, sir.

Q. Is not T. J. Frow engaged in the store of J. C. Wright & Co.?—A. He has a store of his own.

Q. Where is this store you call Frow's store?—A. I believe it is between Thompson's and the bank, Curwinsville, Pa.

Q. Did not Arnold Bloom meet you on election day and ask you to go along with him to Frow's store?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you and Arnold Bloom together, and also T. J. Frow, in Frow's store, on the morning of the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then your conversation was with Arnold Bloom, was it not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How near was Frow to you and Bloom when Bloom offered you the goods and money to vote the Democratic ticket?—A. I suppose he was within two or three feet of us. When Bloom offered me the goods in the first place, Frow was not near us.

Q. Do I understand you to say that at one time in the store that Frow was within two or three feet of you and Bloom when Bloom made you the offer?—A. Yes, sir; he asked Frow if he would do that, and he said yes.

Q. Was Frow at work when you and Bloom were talking, or was he simply standing not far from you and Bloom?—A. He was standing at the stove and we was at the door, and he called him.

Q. When Frow came up to you and Bloom and said "Yes; we will do it," did you not understand that he agreed to do what Bloom had offered you.—A. Yes, sir; he said he would give me the goods out of the store.

Q. Were you in Frow's store twice on election day?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then I understand you, do I not, that you had the conversation with Bloom alone at the school-house, and another conversation with Bloom in Frow's store while Frow was standing at the stove?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the offer of goods and money made if you would vote the Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You stated in cross-examination that you started home about one half hour after you left Frow's store; now do you not mean that you started home about one-half hour after you voted?—A. After I left Frow's store in about half an hour I started home.

Q. Then Arnold Bloom made you the offer at the polls first, and then afterwards you and he went to Frow's store, when the offer was repeated?—A. When I first went into the town he made me the offer; then we had the conversation at the school-house; then I went down into town, and he came down; went to Frow's store; then he asked Frow, and Frow says "yes."

Q. Did you understand that the three dollars worth of store goods were to come from Frow's store?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you not swear since dinner as follows, in answer to this question: "Do you swear that Frow heard what Bloom said to you?—Answer. No, sir." And was that not your testimony?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you come to swear, then, in answer to Mr. Arnold's question about this matter (that you understood Frow agreed to do what Bloom had offered you), when you said in answer to my question that you did not know whether Frow heard you and Bloom talk?—A. Bloom told me before they went up they would give me $1 in money and $3 worth out of the store, and he called Frow, and he asked Frow if he would do that, and Frow says "yes."

Q. Now where was this?—A. At the school-house.

Q. How many conversations did you and Bloom have at the school-house?—A. One.

Q. You swore Hancock paid your taxes; how do you know he paid them?—A. Why, he said he paid them.

Q. Do you know anything else about it except what Hancock said?—A. No, sir; I know Lewis I. Bloom; he said that I was all right; that I could vote.

Q. When was this?—A. A while before the election.

Q. How long before the election?—A. I expect it was a month.

Q. Where was it?—A. At my place.

(Before the testimony is signed contestant, by counsel, objects to the whole of the foregoing testimony of this witness, for the reason that no notice was served that he would be called, and that this fact was observed until after cross-examination had been begun since the adjournment for noon; that contestant will move before the committee to strike out the whole of the testimony for that reason and a further reason that there are no specifications or allegations in contestee's answer upon which this testimony is in any way material or relevant, and that this fact could only be known after the testimony of the witness was closed.)

7 p. m.—Having appeared at the rooms from which we adjourned, and no witness or counsel appearing, and having waited till 7.50 p. m., adjourned till 8 o'clock a. m. February 27, 1879.

And now, 11.20 a. m., February 27, 1879, examination resumed.

ELIAS DONEY affirmed:

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. At Rockton, Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the election polls of Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom?—A. To J. B. Clauser, the collector.

Q. When did you pay it?—A. I paid it in the fall sometime.

Q. Was it in the fall of 1876?—A. Yes, sir; I think it was.

Q. Did you pay that tax in due time to vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I don't recollect that any more.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you voted in 1876, were you not asked by the election board whether you had paid your State and county tax for the year 1876, and at least one month before the general election of 1876?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long before the election of November, 1876, had you paid your State or county tax for 1876?—A. I don't remember any more.

Q. Was it about one, two, or three months before, or more or less?—A. I think it was about two months before, anyhow.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since about two months before the election of 1876?—A. I think I did.

Q. Will you produce any receipt or receipts for such payment of taxes?—A. Yes; that is the only receipt I have [and witness produces receipt, the following of which is a copy:]

“ROCKTON, Oct. the 28, 1878.

“Received of Elias Doney one dollar and fifty-eight cents, being his State and county tax for the year 1877.

“$1.58.

“JACOB HESS, Col.,

“Per J. H. BRUBAKER.

Q. Have you paid any other State or county tax since about two months preceding the general election of November, 1876, except the tax the receipt of which you have produced, which receipt is dated October 28, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I have paid all the tax up till 1877.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax for the year 1878?—A. No, sir; I have not paid it yet.

Q. Then, I understand you that you paid your State and county taxes for the year 1876 about two months before the election of November, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then, do I understand you that you paid your State and county taxes for the year 1877 on October 28, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects to question, for the reason that it assumes that the witness has sworn that he paid his State and county taxes for the year 1877 on the 28th day of October, 1878, the date of the receipt which has been copied in his testimony, whilst the witness has not so testified and has not sworn to the date at which he paid his taxes; and the question is, therefore, leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

And now, 12.15 p. m., adjourned till 1 p. m. of same day.

And now, 1.15 p. m., February 27, 1879, examination resumed.

ELIAS DONEY'S examination proceeded with:

Q. Have you paid any other State or county taxes since what you paid about two months before the general election of November, 1876, except what you paid on October 28, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Have you not paid other taxes since the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay them?—A. Jacob Brubaker.

Q. Was Jacob Brubaker the collector?—A. No, sir; Jacob Hess was the collector.

Q. Did you pay any other taxes than those you paid Brubaker?—A. Why, of course I did.

Q. To whom did you pay them?—A. I paid some to J. B. Olausen.

Q. When?—A. I think it was in the year 1876.

Q. Was it after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Well, that I can't mind.

Q. Might it not have been after that election?—A. Well, it might or might not; I can't say.

Q. Was any other taxes paid by you than those you have mentioned, or by any other one for you?—A. In what time?

Q. I mean after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. No, sir; not more than what is mentioned.

Q. Now, did you not pay a tax in the fall of 1877 to J. B. Clauser?—A. No, sir.

Q. If J. B. Clauser was collector of State and county taxes and did not receive a duplicate until after the 1st of November, 1876, might you not have paid him the tax you speak of to him after the Presidential election of 1876?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, because the question evinces a purpose to mislead the witness, inasmuch as the witness has already testified that he paid his State and county taxes to J. B. Clauser, the collector, about two months before the election of November, 1876.)

A. Why, if he received the duplicate after that time I paid him after that time.

Q. Did you have notice from Clauser that he had taxes against you before you paid it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before you paid it; was it one or two months, or more?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Do you think it was as much as thirty days?—A. I cannot tell you that.

Q. Did you not pay a tax to Clauser during 1877 or 1878?—A. No; I paid that to Jacob Brubaker.

Q. Did you pay a tax to J. B. Clauser at any time during the year 1877?—A. Why, I don't remember any more.

Q. Might you have paid him such tax?—A. Why, I may have and I may not.

Q. Did you pay a tax to J. B. Clauser or any person else at any time during the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom?—A. To J. Brubaker. You've had that question asked three times already.

Q. In what month did you pay them to J. Brubaker?—A. October 28.

Q. Was this the only tax you paid during the year 1878?—A. State and county tax.

Q. Did you get your receipt the same day you paid your taxes to Brubaker?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Might not the tax you paid to J. B. Clauser in 1876 have been your State and county taxes for 1875?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were your taxes for 1878 paid for you or by you?—A. No, sir; they are not paid yet.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom?—A. By John A. Brubaker and Nathan Lyons.

Q. What were you required to do that you might get your vote in?—A. I was qualified that I paid tax within two years; that is, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Then you believed and swore, did you, that you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes; to the best of my knowledge.

Q. And you now swear, do you not, that to the best of your knowledge you did pay a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee because the question is leading and indicates a purpose to mislead and contradict the witness, inasmuch as the witness has already testified that he paid J. B. Clauser his State and county taxes about two months before the election of November, 1876, and paid no such taxes since until he paid Brubaker on October 28, 1878.)

A. Yes.

Q. Who required you to make this affidavit before the election board?—A. Why, I don't mind any more who.

Q. Was it one of the election officers?—A. Yes; I think it was.

Q. After this affidavit was made, was your vote received?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. How old are you?—A. I am thirty-nine years, lacking a few days of forty years; the 20th of next month I'll be forty.

Q. Do you now swear that you paid a State or county tax at least one month before and within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. You have got that answer down there already twice.

Q. Did or did you not pay Clauser, the collector, your State and county taxes for the year 1876 about two months before the general election of November, 1876?—A. Well, I cannot recollect exact.

Q. About how long before the election of November, 1876, as near as you can tell?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has not sworn positively that he did pay his State and county taxes to Clauser before the election of November, 1876. The question is therefore leading and unfair to the witness, and it is attempted in this, as well as in other questions which have been asked him by counsel for contestee, to mislead the witness.)

A. Well, I cannot recollect as to what time it was.

Q. When the question was asked you by me, "Was it about one, two, or three months before, or more or less," did you not answer in reply, "I think it was about two months before, anyhow?"

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above question for the reason that counsel for contestee by his question assumes that the witness swore that he paid his State and county taxes about two months before the election of November, 1876, whilst the witness did not swear that he had paid his taxes before the election of 1876; but in answer to the leading and suggestive question quoted by the counsel, by which it was assumed that he had paid his taxes before said election, he made the answer referred to by counsel in his question. The question is therefore unfair to the witness.)

A. I don't mind any more how I did answer then.

Q. Whom did you pay your State and county taxes to for the year 1876?—A. I paid it to James Clauser, or, rather, to his woman.

Q. Where was Mrs. Clauser when you paid her the tax?—A. Why, she was home in the house.

Q. What time of day was it when you paid it to her?—A. It was in the evening some time; I don't recollect the hour.

Q. Where had you been before you went to her house to pay the tax?—A. I don't know any more where I was.

Q. Did you get a receipt from her?—A. No, sir.

Q. How much did you pay her?—A. I paid her what the duplicate called for.

Q. How much did the duplicate call for?—A. I can't tell you any more.

Q. Was it in the spring, summer, or fall or winter of 1876?—A. It was in the fall some time.

Q. Was it in September?—A. I can't recollect any more.

Q. Was it in October, as near as you can tell?

(Objected to for the reason that witness has already sworn that he cannot recollect the time; that is, the month he paid said taxes.)

A. I can't mind any more just what month it was; I know it was some time in the fall.

Q. In what month in 1876 was the Presidential election held?—A. I think it was November the 5th.

Q. Did you vote at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Clauser, the collector, present at the election of November, 1876?—A. Yes, I think he was.

Q. Did or did not Clauser say at said election of 1876, when you voted, that you had paid your taxes for 1876 in time, and had a right to vote?

(Objected to for the reason that witness has already stated that he was not questioned as to payment of his taxes in 1876 at the general election.)

A. No, he did not.

Q. What were you working at in September, 1876?—A. I don't remember any more what I was working at.

Q. Where and for whom were you working at the time of the election of 1876?—A. I was working in Union Township; I can't remember for whom.

Q. Are you a farmer?—A. I am not particular a farmer; I work sometimes at it.

Q. Was there snow on the ground when you paid Mrs. Clauser the taxes?—A. I don't recollect any more.

Q. Did you pay her the taxes before the election of November, 1876?—A. I don't remember any more.

Q. What is your best recollection; was it before or after the election of November, 1876?—A. I cannot tell you whether it was after or before.

Q. Have you not already sworn that it was two months anyhow?—A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. When you paid the tax to Mrs. Clauser, who was present?—A. James Clauser's son was present.

Q. At that time were the roads muddy?—A. I don't remember whether they was or not.

Q. When you voted in November, 1878, who swore you as to your payment of taxes within two years?—A. Henry Whitehead.

Q. Then you swore when you voted that you had paid your taxes to Clauser within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to for the reason that the question assumes that the witness has testified that he swore before the election board on November 5, 1878, that he paid his State and county tax to J. B. Clauser within two years preceding said election, whilst witness has not so testified; and the question is therefore calculated to mislead him and is consequently an improper question.)

A. Yes; to the best of my knowledge.

Q. You swear now, that is to-day, that you don't recollect when in the fall of 1876 you paid the taxes to Clauser. Now, have you forgotten since you voted in November, 1878?—A. You're trying to catch me up on saying things, then turn around and get me to say something else.

Q. Why did you swear when you voted in November, 1878, as to paying the taxes to Clauser within two years preceding that time?—A. Because I thought I did pay them.

Q. Do you swear now that you paid Clauser taxes within those two years?—A. To the best of my knowledge; couldn't swear positive.

Q. You swore a short time ago that you could not tell whether it was before or after the election of 1876, and now you swear that it was after the election (in substance) of November, 1876. Will you explain?—A. Well, you got me kind of mixed up in there.

Q. When you offered to vote at election of November 5, 1878, did you not first offer to vote on the Brubaker tax receipt, which is dated October 28, 1878?—A. Well, they asked me whether I paid tax within two years. I told them I had and I had a receipt.

Q. What receipt did you show, and was it not the receipt of Brubaker, dated October 28, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote the Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did the board refuse to allow you to vote on the Brubaker receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then, after they so refused, did you not swear that you had paid Clauser within two years?—A. I was qualified that I paid tax within two years.

Q. To whom?—A. They did not ask me who to.

Q. When you so swore, whom did you mean you had paid taxes to?—A. Well, to Clauser, he was collector at the time.

Q. Do you now swear that you paid Clauser the taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, I swear, but not just positive; to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Has or has not the counsel for contestant bothered and confused you since your examination in-chief?—A. Why, I think they both kind of both ered me.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did you refuse absolutely to pay any State and county tax of which you had notice?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was the State and county tax which you think was paid within two years paid more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878? I do not refer to the tax paid to Brubaker?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

JOHN L. KELLY affirmed:

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Lumber City, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. In Lumber City Boro'.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. How old are you?—A. Thirty-two against the 16th of next August.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I have.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. John P. Hile.

Q. When did you pay it?—A. between the first and middle of April, 1878.

Q. Did you get a receipt?—A. I did not.

Q. Where did you pay it?—A. I paid it at John P. Hile's.

Q. Did you pay it in money?—A. I did not.

Q. How did you pay it?—A. I paid it in work.

Q. When did you do the work?—A. I done part of it in January, and the rest of it in April.

Q. When did you settle with John P. Hile for the work done?—A. In April.

Q. How much did he owe you then?—A. Forty-three cents.

Q. How much was your tax?—A. Five dollars and forty-three cents.

Q. Why did you not take a receipt?—A. Because it was late in the evening and he said he would give it to me some time again.

Q. Are you sure it was State and county tax?—A. I am; and school.

Q. How much was your school-tax?—A. I can't just remember now.

Q. About how much?—A. I said before that I did not know.

Q. If you cannot remember exactly, tell us as near as you can how much your school-tax was?—A. Between $1 and $1.50, I suppose.

Q. For what year was the State and county tax that you settled with Hile out of your work?—A. 1876 and 1877.

Q. How much was your State and county tax for each of those years?—A. I can't tell you the exact amount.

Q. Tell me as near as you can for each year?—A. Near two dollars a year.

Q. When did you settle with John P. Hile?—A. In April.

Q. Had John P. Hile his duplicates present when you settled with him in April?—A. No, sir.

Q. How then was the amount of your taxes ascertained?—A. We had counted them up before.

Q. Where did you settle?—A. In John P. Hile's house.

Q. Did Hile have his books there, and was your work credited on his books and your taxes charged at that time?—A. Hile did not have his books there.

Q. Have you ever gotten a receipt from Hile for your State and county taxes?—A. I have not.

Q. Are the taxes, that is, State and county, marked paid on Hile's duplicate?—A. I could not say; he said he would mark them paid.

Q. Have you since April, 1878, seen Hile in reference to having these taxes marked paid?—A. I have.

Q. When?—A. The day of election in November, 1878.

Q. Did he say on November 5, 1878, that he would mark them paid?—A. He did.

Q. Did or did not Hile say the same thing about A. A. Kelly's tax on that day; that is, November 5, 1878?

(Objected to because it was hearsay.)

A. I did not hear him.

Q. Did you hear that Hile did say so?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because it is hearsay and John P. Hile is a competent witness and his testimony can be had.)

A. I did.

Q. Who told you that Hile did say so?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant because it is immaterial, hearsay, and irrelevant.)

A. My father for one, John J. Sterling; that is all, I believe.

(The above question and answer is further objected to for the reason that A. A. Kelly is now before Wm. Radebaugh, notary public, and his testimony is being taken in the matter of the contest of A. G. Curtin for the right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States, as Representative for the Twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, and is a competent witness in all matters in the relation to the payment of his taxes to John P. Hile.)

Q. Did your brother, A. A. Kelly ever tell you so?—A. Yes, he did.

Q. Was it before or after you voted that John P. Hile told you that he would mark your taxes paid?—A. It was before and after.

Q. How long after you voted did he tell you this?—A. 'Twas the same day.

Q. How did he come to tell you?—A. My vote was challenged; we was talking about it; he said it never would be challenged again on account of that tax for it had been legally paid.

Q. How long before you voted was it that John P. Hile said your taxes were paid, or that he would mark them paid?—A. The April before.

Q. Did John P. Hile say to you only once on election day that he would mark the taxes paid, and was that not after you voted?—A. No, sir; he told me twice on election day.

Q. Did he on election day tell you this at all until after you voted?—A. He did.

Q. Was it between the time your vote was challenged and the time you voted that he first told you that he would mark your taxes paid?—

A. Well, it was between the time my vote was challenged and time I voted on that day.

Q. Have you settled with John P. Hile since the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I have not.

Q. Did you settle with him between April, 1878, and the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. At what time?—A. In April, between the 1st and middle of April.

Q. Have you had any settlement or dealings with John P. Hile since that settlement in April?—A. I thrashed rye one day; he gave me wheat to pay for it.

Q. At that settlement, in April, which one came out in debt?—A. John Hile.

Q. How much?—A. Forty-three cents.

Q. Had he other tax against you beside State and county tax?—A. He had. School tax; about $2 each year State and county; and $1 to $1.50 school tax.

Q. Has there been any dealings between John P. Hile and you since the April settlement, except the thrashing which you have referred to?—A. There has not.

Q. Was the 43 cents which he owed you paid you yet?—A. It is not.

Q. Do you pay any tax on real estate?—A. I do this year.

Q. Was any of your State and county taxes which you paid Hile taxes on real estate?—A. It was not.

Q. What made up your State and county taxes for the years 1876 and 1877, which you say amounted to about $4?—A. Well, it was personal property.

Q. Have your taxes, which you say Hile agreed to mark paid, ever been marked paid on his duplicate?—A. I could not say.

Q. Why did you not get a receipt from Hile when you talked to him about taxes on election day?—A. At home he said he couldn't write, and his girls were at school.

Q. What is the politics of John P. Hile?—A. He has formerly been a Democrat.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was John P. Hile, the man to whom you paid your State and county taxes in April, 1878, collector of State and county taxes for the years 1876 and 1877 for Lumber City Boro', Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. He was.

Q. Were the taxes he had against you, I mean State and county taxes for the year 1876 and 1877, taken into the settlement which you had with him in April, 1878?—A. They was.

Q. After you had settled with him, or at the time you settled with him, did he not say he would mark all the taxes he had against you up to that time paid?—A. He did.

Q. Did he after April, 1878, and before the election day ever say to you that your State and county taxes for 1876 and 1877 were paid?—A. No ; he did not.

Q. Did he ever ask you to pay those taxes after your settlement in April, 1878?—A. He did not.

Q. Did he not say to you on the day of the election in November, 1878, that he had marked your taxes for 1876 and 1877 paid, or that they were paid more than one month before said election?—A. He did not say he had marked them paid, but he said the taxes were paid ; he said they were paid more than a month before the election, or three or four times as long before.

Q. When your vote was challenged, was it challenged on account of non-payment of taxes, and did not John P. Hile say to the election board that your "taxes had been paid more than a month, or more than three or four times as long before said election," at which you voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. My vote was challenged on account of taxes ; he said my taxes were paid one month, or three or four before.

Q. He said this to the election board, did he, or in their hearing?—A. He did.

Q. Was it after he made this statement to the board, I mean to the election board, that your vote was received?—A. It was.

Q. Was John P. Hile, during the month of April, 1878, and at the time of your settlement with him, a cripple, and unable to write?—A. He was.

Q. Was he not from that time and until November 5, 1878, a cripple, and unable to write?—A. He was, and is yet.

Q. Was John P. Hile, collector of State and county taxes for the years 1876 and 1877 for the borough of Lumber City, State and county aforesaid, indebted to you when he agreed to mark your State and county taxes for years 1876 and 1877 paid?—A. He was.

Re-examination :

Q. Was it, or was it not, in the evening when you settled with John P. Hile in April, 1878, and were there not in Hile's house at that time some of his family who could write?—A. It was in the evening, about dusk, that we made the final settlement. There was some of the family there that could write in the evening ; but he said not to bother that evening ; that we could fix it some time again.

And further saith not.

JOHN L. KELLY.

Depositions of witnesses taken before W. N. Prothero, a notary public of the State of Pennsylvania, a resident of the town of Du Bois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, at the office of John Du Bois (old office), in depot building of railroad company, at Du Bois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the part of Hon. Seth H. Yocum, contestee, on the 3d day of March, A. D. 1879, commencing at 1.10 p. m.

JOSEPH JACOBS sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Du Bois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Luthersburg, Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted the straight-out Democratic ticket.

Q. Did or did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax, and to whom?—A. I forget the date. I have the receipt at home; paid it to Isaac Wilson, collector of Bradford Township, some time last summer.

Q. Did you reside in Bradford Township last summer?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did you come to pay Isaac Wilson your tax?—A. On property situated in Bradford Township.

Q. What kind of tax did you pay to Isaac Wilson?—A. State and county.

Q. When did you pay it, as near as you can tell?—A. I can't recollect.

Q. To what other person have you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I think I paid tax to Matthew Caldwell, in Bradford Township.

Q. When?—A. I can't tell until I look over my receipts.

Q. When did you move to Brady Township?—A. I think it was two years the 1st of this month.

Q. Have you ever paid any State or county taxes that were assessed in Brady Township?—A. I have not.

Q. How old are you?—A. I will be forty-six in June.

Q. Where did you pay Matthew Caldwell your taxes?—A. All the taxes that I have paid I paid in Bradford Township.

Q. Are you certain that you paid Matthew Caldwell a State or county tax?—A. I don't recollect whether I paid it to him or the treasurer, or to whom I paid the taxes to.

Q. Where did you pay Isaac Wilson a State or county tax?—A. In Bradford Township.

Q. Have you a property in Bradford Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who lives on it?—A. A man by name of Hudson Mason.

Q. What rent does he pay you for this property in Bradford Township?—A. I let him have the rent for fixing up the fences and what repairs were needed about the house.

Q. Who was to pay the taxes?—A. He was to pay me money enough to pay the taxes.

Q. Was or was it not a part of your agreement when he rented the property that Hudson Mason should pay the State and county taxes?—A. He was to pay me the amount of the taxes or send me a receipt for the taxes paid.

Q. Who paid the taxes in Bradford Township to Isaac Wilson; that is, was it Hudson Mason or did you pay them yourself in money?—A. Hudson Mason sent a letter to me with a receipt in it.

Q. Who paid the taxes to Matthew Caldwell?—A. Well, I don't know. I would not be positive about the taxes to Matthew Caldwell.

Q. Then you cannot swear that any taxes were paid to Matthew Caldwell at all?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then the taxes paid by Mason to Isaac Wilson were a part of the consideration of the rent of your property to Mason?—A. Consider, of course, the taxes.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was the property in Bradford Township assessed in your name?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time last summer, as near as you can tell, were these taxes paid, as near as you can tell, in the way you have stated?—A. In the latter part of the summer of 1878.

Q. Was it before the 1st of October, 1878?—A. It must have been before that.

Q. Did you show your receipt to the election board?—A. I did not.

Q. If Mason had not sent you a receipt for the taxes, would he, under your arrangement, have been required to pay you that much rent in money?—A. He would or leave the property.

Q. Did you reside in Brady Township more than two months before the election of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the State one year before the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you a native born?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you and your wife resided together for the last year?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you voted in Brady Township, on November 5, 1878, was your vote challenged or questioned by the board in any way?—A. It was not.

And further saith not.

JOS. JACOBS.

JOHN C. HARWICK sworn.

Question. What is your age, and where do you reside?—Answer. I will be 31 years of age next May; live in Du Bois City, Sandy Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State if you voted in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. State if you had paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month before said election.—A. I don't know without seeing Jamison's duplicate.

Q. When did you last pay State or county tax outside of what you paid Jamison?—A. Here it is; I have a receipt dated May 31, 1876, for seven $\frac{28}{100}$ dollars, State and county tax for 1874 and 1875, paid John McClelland, at Clearfield, Pennsylvania.

Q. State if that is the last State or county tax you paid except what you paid Jamison, the collector.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When do you think you paid Jamison a State or county tax?—A. Well, I don't know that.

Q. Was it before or after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know, indeed.

Q. Can you swear that you paid Jamison any State or county tax within two years preceding that election of November 5, 1878?—A. Of course, I can't swear to it.

Q. Can you say on your oath that you think you paid him any State or county tax within two years preceding that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you not say on your oath that you did not pay Jamison any State or county tax within two years preceding that election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I cannot.

Q. Where was you when you paid Jamison any tax, State or county?—A. I do not know exactly, in the shop or where. He collected taxes from me several times.

Q. Do you mean to swear that you paid Jamison State or county taxes several times?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know, or do you swear, that you ever paid him State or county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of such taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you pay him State or county taxes more than once?—A. I don't know.

Q. When did you move to Brady Township?—A. October 29, 1876.

Q. When, as near as you can tell, did you pay Jamison a State or county tax?—A. I don't know.

Q. Was it before or after the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I don't know.

Q. How much money did you pay Jamison for your State and county tax?—A. I don't know.

Q. Can't you tell whether it was before or after the election of November 5, 1878, that you paid Jamison a State or county tax?—A. I may have paid him a tax before and since. I know I have paid him poor tax.

Q. Did you pay Jamison any State or county taxes at any time in money?—A. I don't know that exactly.

Q. How did you pay Jamison State or county taxes?—A. I paid him some in work.

Q. Did you pay him any in money?—A. I don't know.

Q. When did you do the work?—A. I don't know.

Q. What kind of work?—A. Repairs on harness.

Q. Did you ever settle with Jamison for this work or for taxes?—A. He always settled with me for the work.

Q. Did he pay you?—A. He gave me credit on my taxes.

Q. What amount of work have you done for Jamison since you have been in Brady Township?—A. I can't tell you that.

Q. Did you charge Jamison with the work that you did on your books?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know that your work was credited by Jamison on your taxes?—A. I judge that he credited me because that was the understanding.

Q. Then you can't tell how much your taxes were or how much work you did for Jamison?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examination :

Q. Do you own any real estate in Brady Township, or do you pay taxes on any real estate?—A. I have real estate in Brady Township.

Q. Have you not some idea of the amount of work you did for Jamison?—A. Something in the neighborhood of a dollar, close on to that.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. At the time you did work for Jamison, state what arrangement, if any, there was about him marking your taxes paid, or state what arrangement there was as to how you were to pay your taxes.—A. There was no particular arrangement how I was to pay it.

Q. What taxes—I mean for what years was Jamison collecting?—A. I don't know.

Q. Have you resided in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, continuously since the 29th of October, 1876, to this time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you American born?—A. Yes, sir.

Re examined :

Q. When did you last do work for Jamison?—A. I don't know that. I done some work since New Year's, I think.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. I live in Brady, or Sandy Township it is now, and am forty-six years old.

Q. Did you vote in Brady Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At said election did or did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I voted for Curtin.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax, and did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I paid summer a year ago to Huffman, a collector of Huston Township, on the road between Newell's and Burns's.

Q. What kind of tax did you pay?—A. State and county.

Q. How much did you pay him?—A. Twenty-two cents.

Q. Did you get a receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you paid any other State or county taxes except what you paid Huffman within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you, your family, and your wife resided in Brady Township?—A. A year ago the 20th of January I moved here.

Q. When you paid Huffman this tax had he his duplicate with him, and did you see his duplicate?—A. He had his duplicate with him. Yes, sir; I saw his duplicate.

Q. Was he, Huffman, collector of school or poor or road tax?—A. That I could not tell you; he asked me for no tax but State and county.

Cross-examined :

Q. Do you know where, in Huston Township, this man you call Huffman lived?—A. He lived in Penfield.

Q. Is not his name Sylvester Hunt instead of Huffman?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know Hunt?—A. Yes, sir; I know Mr. Hunt when I see him.

Q. Are you American born?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Du Bois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. Am fifty-six years old.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. In Luthersburg, Brady Township.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress, and did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I voted for Curtin.

Q. Did you at least one month before the general election of November, 1876, pay a State or county tax?—A. I paid a tax. I can't tell whether it was a month before it was or not.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax for the year 1876 during the year 1876, and in legal time to vote at the general election of November, 1876?—A. Certainly I did.

Q. When since 1876 have you paid a State or county tax?—A. I paid the last tax in the fall of 1877.

Q. To whom did you pay your State and county tax of 1877?—A. James Thompson paid my tax. I cannot tell who the collector was.

Q. Excepting the State and county taxes you paid in 1876, and the State and county tax which Thompson paid in 1877, have you paid any other taxes, State and county, since the fall of 1876?—A. Not as I know of.

Cross-examined:

Q. How did James Thompson come to pay tax of 1877 for you?—A. I was working for him, and he agreed to pay my taxes; he always paid my taxes.

Q. Did he tell you that he had paid your State and county tax for the year 1877?—A. That's what I understood him last fall.

Q. Had you lived one year in the State, and more than two months in the election district of Brady Township prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Reside in Du Bois, Sandy Township; my age is twenty-seven years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew Curtin.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. In 1876.

Q. Was it before or after the Presidential election of November, 1876?—A. Before.

Q. How long was it before that election, as nearly as you can tell?—A. Couldn't say positively, but think it was three or four weeks.

Q. Are you positive it was over two weeks before that election?—A. I think I am. I might safely say yes.

Q. It was before the 5th of November, then, 1876?—A. Yes, sir; I know that.

Q. You had not paid a State or county tax, then, within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you know whether or not any other person had paid State or county tax for you since 1876?—A. They did not. I pay my own tax.

Q. Why did you not pay a State or county tax within two years prior to said election, and more than thirty days before it?—A. Did not know who to pay it to unless it was Jamison, and he didn't ask me for it.

Q. You think, then, you hadn't paid any tax within two years of the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt for the last tax you paid?—A. I have not with me.

Q. Who did you pay the last tax to?—A. Kuntz, proprietor of City Hotel.

Q. Do you know the date of the receipt?—A. I can't say positive. I think it was October 3 or September 3, 1876.

Q. Are you sure it was 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived here?—A. Four years in June next.

Q. Where was Kuntz when you paid him this tax?—A. Right where he is now, at the City Hotel.

Q. Was he tax-collector?—A. I believe that Draucker was constable and collector; he gave Kuntz authority to collect.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Could not say; but I know it was a Curtin ticket.

Q. Who did you get it from?—A. Julius Turpe; he's a Democrat, every inch of him, as far as I know.

Q. Can you say whether or not you read your ticket?—A. I can't say whether I read it, but I know I looked at it.

Q. If you did not read your ticket can you swear positively that Curtin's name was on it?—A. Do know that I could swear that. I wouldn't want to swear to a lie, but I know that would not be a lie to swear to that.

Q. Your purpose was to vote for Curtin?—A. Yes, sir; the straight Democratic ticket.

Q. And you think you did so without being able to swear positively that you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was Turpe when you got your ticket from him?—A. In Dr. Means' office, in Luthersburg.

Q. Can you swear that you saw Curtin's name on the ticket you put in election window?—A. I cannot positive that I saw Curtin's name; but it was a Democratic ticket.

Re-examined:

Q. Is or is not Dr. Means a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was or was not his office a kind of Democratic headquarters for the distribution of tickets for that election?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

And further saith not.

Question. What is your age, and where do you reside?—Answer. I was forty-eight the 26th of last September. I live out on this side of West Liberty, in Sandy Township.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not vote at said election for Andrew G. Curtin?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in the year 1876, and at what time in that year?—A. Yes, sir. August 12, 1876.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax in 1876?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax yourself in 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. I paid it to the constable; he levied on my property and was going to sell it.

Q. Did he sell it?—A. He did sell it, and I took out a man to bid it in.

Q. Who bid it in?—A. Augustus Heverling.

Q. Then you paid the tax to Haverling, did you not?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. How much was your State and county tax for the year 1877?—A. Forty-eight cents. I mean sixty-two cents.

Q. What property was levied on to pay your taxes by constable?—A. There was a scap of bees and a pair of twin sleds and some corn fodder.

Q. When was the property sold?—A. I think it was some time in April, 1877.

Q. How long after the property was sold did you redeem the property from Heverling?—A. I redeemed right away; two or three days afterward, as near as I could tell.

Q. How much did you pay Heverling for the property?—A. Well, that I can hardly tell you; the tax was all together, and I can hardly tell how much it was.

Q. About how much, as near as you can tell?—A. I think it was something over six dollars.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax since August, 1876, except the tax that was paid by the sale of your property in 1877?—A. No, sir; that was the last I paid.

Cross-examined:

Q. Had you lived one year in the State and more than sixty days in the election district of Brady prior to that immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I never lived any place else.

Q. Are you an American-born?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the levy and sale of the personal property you have mentioned for State and county as well as other taxes?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

Re-examined:

Q. Then, I understand you, that your property was levied on and sold for your taxes of 1877; that the property was bid in by Augustus Heverling, and you redeemed the property a few days afterwards from Heverling by paying him?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did or did not Heverling at your request buy in that property for the amount of taxes against it, or what arrangement was there with Heverling about buying it?—A. Yes, sir; I had. I thought the property would be sold for little or nothing, and I got him to buy it in.

And further saith not.

Q. Did or did you not vote at said election for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I did.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. In 1877.

Q. When in 1877?—A. I paid it on the election-day.

Q. Did you vote on that tax at the general election of November, 1877?—A. I don't mind whether I voted on it or not.

Q. Whom did you pay the tax to?—A. A. M. Draucker.

Q. When did you get your receipt from Draucker, if you got any at all?—A. I got it on the election evening of 1877; my father brought it in.

Q. Then your father paid the tax and brought you the receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you got the receipt that evening was that the first you knew of your father having paid the tax?—A. I knowed he was going to pay them. I sent the money with him.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have you lived in Brady Township prior to the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I have lived in it all the days of my life; was born in it.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Had you within two years preceding that election paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when did you pay that tax?—A. Austin Curry, the 21st of last March.

Q. Have you a receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is your receipt signed by Austin Curry, or anybody else?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was Austin Curry a tax-collector, and was you working for him?—A. He was tax-collector; I was not working for him.

Q. How much was your tax you paid him?—A. Seventy-nine cents.

Q. In what township did you pay these taxes to Curry and in what township were they assessed?—A. Chest Township.

Q. When these taxes were assessed or paid, did you own any real estate or personal property?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What property were you assessed with?—A. A piece of land in Chest Township.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife live in Brady Township for the two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is the tax you said you paid Curry the only State or county tax which you paid within the two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross examined :

Q. Did you pay Curry the tax in money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the receipt which you have shown here, and which is not signed, given you by Curry at the time you paid him the money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you born and have you lived in the State all your life?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you live and what is your age?— Answer. I live in Brady Township. I think I will be 35 years of age the 19th of next May.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you or did you not vote for A. G. Curtin at said election?—A. I could not tell you voted for; Jesse Lyons, of Brady Township, he made out my ticket.

Q. Did you not vote the Democratic ticket?—A. I voted it as far as I know.

Q. Did you or did you not intend to vote the Democratic ticket and for Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I intended to vote it.

Q. Did you not tell Jesse Lyons what ticket you wanted?—A. No, sir; I didn't tell him what ticket I wanted.

Q. Where was Jesse Lyons when he gave you the ticket?—A. He was in Bill Schwen's bar-room.

Q. Is not he, Jesse Lyons, a Democrat, and also Wm. Schwen a Democrat?—A. I could not tell you whether they're Democrats or not.

Q. When Jesse Lyons gave you that ticket did you not understand you were getting a Democratic ticket?—A. Why, I took it as a Democratic ticket.

Q. Did you vote the ticket he gave you?—A. Yes, sir; I voted the ticket he gave me.

Q. Was not the election held in Wm. Schwen's building?—A. Yes, sir; it was held in his building.

Q. Did you not intend to vote for the Democratic candidate for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I intended to.

Q. If Curtin was the Democratic candidate for Congress, is he not the man you intended to vote for and that you understood you was voting for when you got that ticket and voted it?—A. Yes, I understood when I got that ticket that I was voting for him.

Q. Do you not now believe that you did vote for him?—A. Well, sir, I believe I voted for him.

Q. What kind of tickets was Jesse Lyons dealing out that day?—A. Why, he was dealing out Democratic tickets.

Q. When you asked him to make up your ticket, did you apprehend any danger of getting a Republican ticket from that source?—A. I didn't ask him to make up my ticket. I was not any ways afraid of getting a Republican ticket from him.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county, tax as nearly as you can tell?—A. I paid my last State and county tax to-day.

Q. To whom?—A. To Jamison, collector.

Q. When did you before pay the last State or county tax, as nearly as you can tell?—A. It was in 1876.

Q. About how long was it before the Presidential of 1876?—A. I couldn't have any idea.

Q. Can you not say if it was one or two or three months before that election?—A. No, sir; I could not tell whether it was one month or two or three.

Q. Was it not some weeks before that Presidential election of 1876?—A. I told you I could not tell you.

Q. To whom did you pay that State or county tax which you paid in 1876?—A. I could not tell you who I paid the tax to.

Q. Did you pay it yourself or have some one to pay it for you?—A. I don't recollect whether I paid it myself or whether Martin Watts, of Ferguson Township, this county, paid it for me.

Q. What is your best recollection as to whether you paid it or whether Watts paid it?—A. I was working then for Mr. Watts, and he still paid my tax for me.

Q. Did he not pay that tax for you which was paid in 1876?—A. I could not tell whether he paid it or whether I paid it myself.

Q. Whether paid by him or yourself, was it not paid in legal time for you to vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I think it was paid in time to vote at that election.

Q. Was or was not that the last State or county tax which you have paid until the tax you paid to-day?—A. That's the last county or State tax that I paid till I paid that to-day.

Q. What year's tax was it that you paid in 1876?—A. I could not tell you what year's tax.

Q. Was it or not the State or county tax for 1876, if you recollect?—A. I could not recollect.

Q. When did you leave Ferguson Township to come to this township?—A. It will be two years ago this spring. When I moved from Ferguson Township I moved into what is now Sandy (then Brady), and remained until some time after the election of November 5, 1878, when I moved out of what is now Sandy into what is now Brady. The township line of Brady has been changed since the election of November 5, 1878, by the creation of a new township, called Sandy. I did reside in the election district of Brady at the time of the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Was or was not the tax that you paid in 1876 in Ferguson Township paid to the collector of Ferguson Township?—A. It was paid to the collector; don't remember his name.

Q. Did you vote in Ferguson Township, this county, at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or not then vote upon the payment of taxes which you have spoken of as being made by either you or Watt in 1876?—A. I think I voted on them taxes.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you pay State and county tax for 1875?—A. Yes, sir; I paid tax every year I lived down there at the river.

Q. May you not, then, have voted in November, 1876, upon the State and county tax paid for 1875?—A. No; I think it was on the 1876.

Q. Could you not have voted at the election in 1876 upon your tax of 1875, which you paid in 1875?

(Objected to because it is not a question what the witness could vote on, but what he did vote on.)

A. I don't understand the question.

Q. Did you not pay tax on the day of the election in November, 1876?—A. Why, I paid some on the day of election. I can't recollect what tax they were.

Q. Was that on the day of the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I can't recollect whether it was that day, but I suppose it was the Presidential election.

Q. Was it not at the election held in the fall of 1876?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. Could not recollect.

Q. Was it not tax assessed for the year 1876?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. Do you know when you paid your taxes for 1875?—A. I do not know when.

Q. Do you know whether or not you owed or had unpaid any taxes at the time you left Ferguson Township?—A. There one year's tax I didn't pay down there for 1877.

Q. Did you read your ticket before you voted?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you open it at all after it was handed to you before you stuck it in?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you swear positively for whom you voted last fall?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you born in this State, and did you live in it one year immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Sandy Township; am thirty-five years old as near as I can tell.

Q. Did you reside in Brady Township during the two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania during the one whole year or more immediately preceding the said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you born in the United States?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you offer to vote at the election polls of Brady Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you offer and desire to vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you ready and willing before said election board of Brady Township, when you offered to vote November 5, 1878, to make proof of your qualifications as a voter?

(Objected to for the reason that the question is improper in form.

The witness should be asked what proof he did produce of his right to vote in said district; that the question is leading and suggestive.)

A. Yes, sir; Mr. Fuller was there.

Q. Was Mr. Fuller there to make necessary proof of your qualifications as a voter?

(Objected to as leading and improper.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not the election board of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, refuse to take your vote?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you come into Brady Township?—A. It has been three or four years, anyhow.

Q. Have you lived in Brady Township continuously ever since?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you registered or your name on the registry list of voters in Brady Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make and sign an affidavit that you had lived in the United States and the State of Pennsylvania one year and more than sixty days immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878, in Brady Township; and did you also in any such affidavit set out that you had not moved into the election district of Brady for the purpose of voting?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have Mr. Fuller, or any other person, make and sign an affidavit that they knew that you were a citizen of the United States, that you had lived at least one year in this State, and more than sixty days in the election district of Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. I don't know as I did.

Q. Did any other person do so?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ask the election officers to give you any blank affidavits to fill up and sign and be sworn to by yourself and a witness with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did the election officers say to you when your vote was challenged?—A. They objected to my vote, asked me whether I paid any poll tax; that's all I remember.

Q. Did you show them a tax receipt for taxes paid within two years before the election, and paid more than thirty days before the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you call the collector to prove you had paid taxes in time to entitle you to vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make and sign any affidavit that you had paid tax in time to entitle you to vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ask the board of election officers to give you a blank affidavit to be filled up and signed by you, proving a payment of State and county tax which would entitle you to a vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was the collector to whom you paid the State and county tax at the election house in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the day of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you not a receipt for that payment of tax?—A. No, sir; not there, I hadn't.

Q. To whom did you pay that State and county tax?—A. Benjamin Haugh; February 9, 1878; seventy cents county and State tax for 1877.

Q. Did not the election officers, when your vote was challenged, tell you that you must make proof of your payment of tax, and your residence, because your name was not on the registry list?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined :

Q. Who challenged your vote ?—A. Mr. Geo. C. Kirk, judge of election.

Q. What did you do then ?—A. I dropped it then.

Q. What question did they ask you in reference to the payment of your tax ?—A. He asked me if I had ever paid any poll tax. I never heard of such a thing as poll tax before, and I answered no.

Q. Did they ask you if you had paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election ?—A. I think they did, if I remember.

Q. What was your reply to that question ?—A. I told them that I had.

Q. Did you tell them where you had paid these taxes and when ?—A. I told them where I had paid them, and that I had paid them within two years, and I told them the time as nearly as I could.

Q. Do you know what reason they gave for rejecting your vote ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did they offer you or furnish you any blank affidavit, or fill up any blank affidavit for you to swear to or sign ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did they inform you that it was necessary to subscribe and swear to a written affidavit as to your payment of tax and residence ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did they or not speak to you on the subject of a written affidavit, or say anything to you about it ?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you told them that you had paid a State or county tax within two years, did they ask you to be sworn to it ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you offer to be qualified to the payment of the State and county tax within two years and more than one month before that election ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did they ask you to be sworn to the payment of a poll-tax within two years ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you ready to be sworn to the payment of a State and county tax within two years, and more than one month before that election, and were you then willing to be so sworn ?—A. I was there for to be sworn.

Q. Had you or not gone into the election-room for that purpose ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who went with you into the room ?—A. Mr. Freeman Fuller.

Q. Is not Mr. Fuller a Republican ?—A. I never asked him his politics, but suppose he is, believe him to be such.

Q. How long had Mr. Fuller known you to be a resident of Brady Township ?—A. For a year and a half before the election.

Q. How near did you and him live together during that year and a half ?—A. I boarded with him during the latter half of the time.

Q. You had then been boarding with him about nine months preceding that election in Brady Township ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it or not because he knew you so well and knew so well of your residence in the district that he went in the election-room with you when your vote was questioned ?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined :

Q. Do you swear that you asked Kirk, or any other member of the election-board, to swear you or Mr. Fuller ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did Mr. Kirk refuse to swear either yourself or Mr. Fuller ?—A. I don't know as he did.

Q. Did you read your ticket before going to the window ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see Mr. Yocum's name on the ticket ?—A. Yes, sir ; I did.

Q. Was you in the room where the ballot-box was, and did you see it?
—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. After you had stated to the board that you had paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before that election, what, if anything, did they say about your right to vote?—A. They said I had no right to vote.

Q. Did you drop the matter, or go away or give up your claim to a right to vote until they had said that?—A. No, sir.

Q. When they said that, what did you do?—A. I dropped it.

Q. Did they vote very rapidly at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long was it after they said you had no right to vote until they commenced to receive other votes?—A. Don't remember; a short time.

Re-cross-examined:

Q. Where was the tax assessed that you have Ben Haugh's receipt for?
—A. In Winslow Township, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you get the receipt?—A. I got the receipt this morning.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge when the tax it calls for was paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you any knowledge of the payment of other tax within two years, when you was before the election board at Luthersburg?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and where had you paid other State and county tax?—A. I never paid any myself any other where.

Q. Have you a receipt for that, and when did you get it?—A. I have no other receipt.

Q. Who did you direct to pay your tax?—A. Mrs. Salada, who is renting my property and paying taxes for the rent.

Q. How long has she been doing so?—A. Have not got the date, but it is for the last year.

Q. Does the receipt which you have from Ben Haugh say that Mrs. Salada paid that 70 cents?—A. No, sir; I don't know as it does.

Q. Does it not say who it was received from?—A. It says, "Received from John Con."

Q. Did you have an arrangement with John Con to pay your tax?—A. No, sir; he was living with her and he paid it for her.

Q. When did Ben Haugh write that receipt; don't you know?—A. I don't know.

Q. Didn't you see Ben Haugh this morning?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who did you get it from?—A. Mrs. Salada.

Q. How far does she live from here?—A. About three miles and a half, the place where my property is.

Re-examined:

Q. Did Mrs. Salada know that you were going for that receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Had you knowledge from her that the payment of these taxes was made more than a month before the election of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that payment by her in accordance with the previous contract between you and her, respecting this property which you say is three and a half miles off?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you not satisfied that the receipt for these taxes is genuine, and was written by the collector at the date it bears, and was delivered by him at about the time the taxes were paid?—A. Yes; I am satisfied that it was.

Q. Have you any statement of any other taxes paid by Mrs. Salada, under the same contract and in the same way, within two years and over one month preceding that election?—A. Yes, sir. Here it is: State and county tax, 38 cents; school, 32 cents; total, 70 cents.

Q. When did you get that statement?—A. This morning.

Q. When did you learn or have knowledge of her having paid these taxes?—A. This morning is the first I ever knew of it.

Q. When did she inform you that she had paid these last taxes?—A. Before the election, of course.

Q. Was it over thirty days before the election?—A. Yes.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Sandy Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I am thirty years old.

Q. Did you vote in Brady Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not, at said election, vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election, and at least one month before said election?—A. I would not be able to tell you that exactly. I have got receipts.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November, 1876?—A. Yes, I believe I did.

Q. When did you pay your tax in 1876; that is, how long before the Presidential election, as near as you can tell?—A. Couldn't tell; I suppose it was about two months.

Q. Whom did you pay your State and county tax to for 1876?—A. Why, Draucker, I think it was.

Q. You paid him that tax, then, about two months before the election of 1876—I mean November, 1876?—A. Yes; as near as I remember.

Q. Did you, on January 31, 1879, pay J. Jamison, collector, your county taxes for the years 1877 and 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. With the exception of the taxes, State and county, which you paid Draucker, about two months before the November election of 1876, and the taxes you paid Jamison on January 31, 1879, have you paid any other State and county taxes during the years 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you not get a receipt from Draucker, collector, in April, 1878, and is not this the receipt?—A. I don't remember when I got it.

Q. Have you not a receipt which reads as follows:

“Rec'd April 22, 1878, of David Shaffer all back tax up to date.

(Signed)

“A. M. DRAUCKER.”

A. That is all the receipt I have.

Q. Did you pay J. Jamison this twelve dollars and twenty-four cents all in one payment?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before you paid Jamison this tax was it that you paid Draucker, if you can tell?—A. I could not tell exactly.

Q. Can you tell whether or not you paid tax each year between 1875 and January, 1879?—A. I don't think did pay any.

Q. Do you know whether you paid any tax since 1874?—A. I can't mind anything about it.

Q. Can you tell anything about when you paid Draucker tax?—A. No; I could not.

Q. Do you know for what years Draucker was collecting State and county tax?—A. I suppose he was collecting for 1875 and 1876.

Q. Can you read and write?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you not read printing?—A. Not very well.

Q. Can't you read some?—A. Not very much. I can make out a few words.

Q. Did you read the ticket you had before giving it to the election board?—A. No; but I had it read.

Q. Who by?—A. L. S. Gingerich.

Q. Who did you vote for for governor?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you vote for Hoyt or Dill for governor?—A. For Dill.

Q. How do you know?—A. It was on my ticket I stuck in.

Q. Do you remember any of the other candidates that you voted for at that election?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Can you name the candidate for Congress?—A. No; I believe not.

Q. Where was you when Gingerich gave you the ticket?—A. Out at the election.

Re-examined:

Q. Is Ginerich, who gave you the ticket you voted, a Democrat, and did you vote the whole straight Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Q. Have you ever been naturalized?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. November 5, 1878.

Q. Have you within two years preceding November 5, 1878, to the best of your recollection, paid any State or county tax?—A. I would not like to say about that.

Q. Will you state as nearly as you can, according to the best of your recollection and belief, whether you had or had not?—A. I would not like to say; if you had the tax collector's book it would tell you.

Q. What is your recollection as to whether the last payment you made before the 5th of November, 1878, was before or after the Presidential election of 1876?—A. My recollection is it was before the Presidential election of 1876.

Q. What is your recollection as to whether it was paid in time to vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. My recollection is it was.

Q. Was your vote challenged at that election?—A. No; I don't think it was.

Q. Did your father come to this country with you when you came?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did he remain?—A. He is here yet.

Q. Where does your father live?—A. In Massachusetts.

Q. Has he ever been naturalized that you know of?—A. I could not say whether he has or not.

Q. Was he naturalized the last talk you had with him?—A. I don't recollect of ever talking to him on the subject.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where does your father live now?—A. Bondsville, Hampden County, Massachusetts.

Q. What is his first name?—A. Daniel.

Q. Do you know of his voting any time since he came to this country?—A. I have not been down there for the last twelve or thirteen years, only on a visit.

Q. Was your taxes all paid up but the tax you paid Jamison?—A. I never had anybody ask me for any but him and Draucker and other collectors.

Q. Did you get any receipts from any of the other collectors other than Jamison?—A. Yes, sir; I got receipts.

Q. Have you any of those receipts with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know the dates of any of them?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you those receipts at home?—A. No; I don't think I have.

Q. How long have you lived in Brady election district?—A. About eight or nine years.

Q. To how many different collectors have you paid State and county tax in Brady Township?—A. I could not say; don't remember their names. I think I paid once to a man by the name of Corb; I would not be positive.

Q. Have you not paid all the taxes, State and county included, that you were asked for?—A. Yes, sir; with the exception of this fall. He asked me yesterday; I told him I would pay him another time.

Q. Do you remember what tax it was you were asked for yesterday and who asked you?—A. Mr. Jamison; and there was two different kinds of tax. One was poor tax. Didn't have no money, and said I would pay him some other time.

Q. Do you remember for what years the taxes were assessed?—A. For 1878.

Q. When did you pay, if you remember, your taxes for 1877?—A. Don't think I paid any; don't think I was assessed that year, that is, to the best of my recollection.

Q. Where was Draucker when you last paid him tax?—A. I don't remember where; either here or Luthersburg.

Q. Were you in Luthersburg prior to the Presidential election in November, 1876; and, if so, as near as you can tell how long before the election was it?—A. I was in there many a time before that election; could not say the date.

Q. Did your business call you there in 1876, during the months of August, September or October?—A. I never had any business there; went there when I had mind to, in them months.

Q. Can you recollect whether or not you were in Luthersburg during either of those months in 1876? Is there any way you can tell?—A. I would not say whether I was there in them months or not.

Q. Have you anything to show, or anything by which your memory is refreshed as to when or where you paid tax to Draucker?—A. I could give no dates. I have paid tax to him in this place, and my recollection is I have paid tax to him in Luthersburg.

Q. Can you say, with any degree of positiveness, when you paid Draucker?—A. No, I could not say.

Q. Had you paid a State and county tax within two years before the Presidential election to any other collector but Draucker or Jamison?—A. I stated before that I could not recollect anything about that with any degree of positiveness.

Q. May you not have paid a State and county tax to Draucker after the Presidential election?—A. I don't recollect anything about that.

Q. How do you recollect when you last paid State and county tax other than the receipt you have from Jamison?—A. Suppose I would meet you on the road, I would recollect that. I can recollect paying tax to him more than once, but cannot fix the time.

Q. Do you know whether or not you paid Draucker tax on the day of the Presidential election or since?—A. I could not give any dates.

Re-examined:

Q. According to your recollection, who did you pay the tax to on which you voted at the Presidential election?—A. My recollection is I paid them to Draucker.

Q. That was in the year 1876, and is it not your recollection that that was your State and county taxes for 1876?—A. I don't recollect whether it was for 1876 or not.

Q. Have you any recollection of being called on for State and county taxes for the year 1876, since then?—A. I can't recollect whether I was or not; if I was, I paid them.

And further saith not.

JOHN W. RICKARD affirmed.

(Contestant by counsel objects to this witness testifying for the reason that no notice was given that he would be called.

Counsel for contestee answers this by stating that notice was given that John Rickert would be called, and that the names are idem sonans, and that no other person of like name resides at the place given in said notice as the residence of said witness.)

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Du-Bois, Sandy Township. I am between the age of thirty-one and thirty-two years.

Q. Are you known by the name of John Rickard, or is it John W. Rickard, that you are generally called in the community?—A. I have been called John Rickard and John W. Rickard both.

Q. Do you know of anybody else of the same name, or of like name, in Sandy Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. State if you voted in the election district of Brady Township, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. The 10th of October, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. John Jamison, constable.

Q. State if according to the best of your recollection you had paid any other State or county tax within two years preceding the general election of November 5, 1878.—A. I don't know; to the best of my recollection the last time I paid my tax before that was to David McGaughey, the county treasurer, as near the time as I can remember was in June, 1876.

Q. Where did you see Mr. McGaughey when you paid him that tax?—A. At D. E. Brubaker's store, at Rockton, Union Township.

Q. What was he doing then, or what business was he engaged in?—A. He was collecting tax.

Q. State whether or not he was going over the county in his usual trip to collect taxes.—A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Was or was not that the payment of tax upon which you voted at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I believe it was.

Q. Was not that the last State or county tax which you paid until the tax you paid on the 10th of October, 1878?—A. That is the last I remember of.

Q. Do you remember whether it was warm weather when you paid that tax?—A. I could not, but I believe it was.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was there any cold weather that June?—A. I do not remember.

Q. Was you living in Union Township at that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you the following year?—A. I was part of the time in this county and part of the time in Clarion County.

Q. When did you come into Brady Township?—A. In August, 1877.

Q. Have you lived in what was Brady Township from that time to the present?—A. Yes, sir; my family was here.

Q. Was this your residence or that of your family since August, 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay any other taxes in the years 1876, 1877, and 1878, except what you have spoken of, if you remember?—A. Nothing but school tax for the same township aforesaid.

Q. You paid no taxes then while in Clarion County?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you examine your ticket before you thrust it in?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you scrutinize it with jealous care to see if Curtin's name was there?—A. Why, of course.

Q. Are you careful always to know whether you exercise properly the great American franchise of voting?—A. I do.

Q. How long before you got your receipt did you pay your due proportion of money towards paying the public expenses?—A. I got the receipt the same time I paid the taxes.

And further saith not.

And now, 9 o'clock a. m. March 5, 1879, examination resumed.

W. D. YOAS produced and affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Brady Township is where I have been living; age, twenty-five.

Q. Did you vote at the general election in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote; that is, did or did you not vote the Democratic ticket at said election?—A. I voted the Democratic ticket as far as I know.

Q. From whom did you receive the ticket you voted at said election?—A. I can't answer that.

Q. Where was you when you got the ticket?—A. I got tickets at a couple of places.

Q. At what places?—A. I think I got one at Seyler's. I believe I got one at Eddinger's or Bill Schwens'; I am not certain.

Q. Did you vote the ticket you got at one of those places?—A. I voted part of each.

Q. Are Syler, Eddinger, and Schwens all Democrats?—A. They are as far as I know.

Q. Are you living in Brady Township now?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you and your wife reside on November 5, 1878?—A. Brady Township.

Q. Had you and your wife resided there for some time before the election of November 5, 1878, and if so, how long?—A. I have resided there for twenty-five years. I was not married at the time of that election.

Q. Where do you reside now?—A. I reside in Jefferson County.

Q. With whom did you reside and where for the whole two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. With my mother and in Brady Township.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election held November, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, in 1876, pay a State or county tax in legal time to vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I did to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since then to Jamison, the collector, or anybody else?—A. Not as I recollect.

Cross-examined :

Q. Who did you pay the last tax to?—A. A. M. Draucker.

Q. Where?—A. At Shindley's blacksmith shop.

Q. Did you get a receipt for it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you it with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you fix the time when it was paid?—A. I don't fix the time exactly.

Q. Can you tell when, about, in 1876, Draucker got his duplicates?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know whether he got them before the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. What time of year was it when you paid the tax, if you can tell?—A. Why, it was in the summer he met me with the buggy.

Q. Was it as early as June or July?—A. I do not know.

Q. May it have been as late as November?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you fix the time?—A. I left for the Centennial in October, and came back the day before or of the election, and it was paid before that time.

Q. Have you paid any tax since then?—A. Not as I know of.

Q. Do you know whether or not your tax was paid to the county treasurer, along with the taxes of your property, when he was around on his tour through the county collecting taxes for 1877 or 1878?—A. I think not.

Q. Can you say positively whether it was or not?—A. I can't answer any better than I did.

And further saith not.

W. D. YOAS.

GEORGE SHUGART affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Troutville, Brady Township; age, thirty-five years.

Q. Did you vote in Brady Township at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not at said election vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election of November, 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in 1876; and, if so, about how long before the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I would not be positive I voted at the election.

Q. Did you pay, in 1876, a State or county tax in legal time to give you a vote at the Presidential election of 1876?

(Objected to as leading, improper in form, and suggestive, the witness having stated he did not know.)

A. I was under the impression that I did, or they would not let me vote.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since you paid such tax as stated?—A. No, sir; I paid no tax since then.

Q. Do you remember where the collector was when you paid him the tax in 1876?—A. If I did pay it I paid it at Luthersburg.

Q. Who was the collector?—A. A. M. Draucker.

Q. Was it in summer weather when you paid it to him?—A. I could not say.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since the Presidential election of November, 1876, that you recollect of?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you pay a State and county tax in 1875?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You think that you paid Draucker in 1876 a tax?—A. That is what I thought still.

Q. Was not Draucker still collecting taxes of 1876 after the Presidential election, and on in the spring of 1877?—A. By what I heard the other day he is collecting yet.

Q. Have you anything by which you can positively fix the time in 1876 when you paid Draucker a tax?—A. Not here, unless I could do that by his duplicate.

Q. Don't you know that a State and county tax paid in 1875 gave you the right to vote at the Presidential election in 1876 without your having paid any tax in 1876 before the Presidential election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What makes you think, then, that you paid tax in 1876, in legal time to vote at the Presidential election, and what do you call legal time?—A. At the Presidential election I knew I was a legal voter. I had reference to the last fall election, when I said they would not let me vote if I was not a legal voter—at the governor's election.

Q. Are you not of the belief now that you had paid a State and county tax some time within two years before last fall's election for governor?—A. I could not say.

Q. Did you not know before you went to the election house that to entitle you to a vote you must have paid a State or county tax within two years before the election?—A. I felt under the impression at that time that I had—I did not know.

Q. Had you any purpose to vote illegally at that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you get your ticket for that election?—A. At Luthersburg, at Harvey Eddinger's.

Q. How long before you voted?—A. Perhaps an hour or so.

Q. How many tickets did you have about you in that hour?—A. The one kind; I could not remember how many.

Q. How long before you voted did you open your ticket and examine it?—A. We went there and took our own tickets; there was four or five of us. I selected my tickets as usual. I took out my ticket and examined it about an hour before I voted.

Q. How many parts of your ticket was there?—A. The State, judiciary, and county. I think that is all.

Q. Did you read your ticket, and was it cut when you got it, or did you cut it?—A. I cut the ticket and made it out myself.

Q. Did you cut it out of the sheet on which it was printed?—A. I think they was cut in strips, and I cut them through different parts.

Q. Did you read the ticket before or after you cut it apart, and how much of it did you read?—A. I looked over the tickets all after I had them cut.

Q. Was there not some mixed tickets at Luthersburg?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. You think, then, you voted the full Democratic ticket?—A. I voted the full Democratic ticket.

And further saith not.

GEORGE SHUGART.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; age, 62 years.

Q. Did you vote at the general election in Brady Township, held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not vote at said election for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I did vote for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in 1876; and if so, when?—A. I did, some time in July, 1876.

Q. Have you paid any other State or county tax since July, 1876?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you positive that you voted for Curtin?—A. Certainly I am.

Q. Why have you not paid State or county tax for either 1877 or 1878?—A. Well, times are pretty hard, and it's hard to get money.

Q. Did you fix the date of your last payment of State and county tax from the receipt you got?—A. No; I did not know the exact date; it was some time in July.

Q. To whom was it paid?—A. Draucker.

Q. For what year did you pay Draucker the tax, July, 1876?—A. For 1875 and 1876.

Q. How much tax, if you remember, did you pay him at that time?—A. Well, I can't just say how much. I suppose in the neighborhood of ten or twelve dollars.

Q. Do you own real estate and personal property?—A. I do.

Q. What arrangements have you with the collectors that they do not collect your State and county tax?—A. I have no arrangements at all whatever.

Q. To whom did you pay tax last prior to the time you say you paid Draucker?—A. I don't just recollect who was collector before Draucker.

Q. Did you ever pay to the treasurer as he went around collecting?—A. Yes, sir; I could not tell the time; have the receipts at home.

Q. Do you remember what treasurer you last paid to?—A. The one before McGaughey.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. In Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; age, thirty-seven years.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held in said Brady Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not vote at said election for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I did.

Q. Then you voted at said election for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in the year 1876?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Was or was it not in the summer of 1876?—A. It was; I suppose July is as near as I could tell.

Q. Had you paid any other State or county tax between July, 1876, and November 6, 1878?—A. I did not.

Cross-examined:

Q. Who did you pay the tax to in July, 1876?—A. To Draucker.

Q. Where?—A. At Luthersburg.

Q. For what year was the tax assessed?—A. I don't know.

Q. How do you know it was in July, 1876?—A. I know that's when I paid him anyway.

Q. Do you own property—real and personal?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you any arrangement with the collector about your taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know what ticket you voted?—A. I seen the ticket, of course, I voted.

Q. What reason have you for thinking you voted the Democratic ticket?—A. There ain't much reason about that; I never voted anything else.

Q. How long before you voted did you read or make up your ticket?—A. That would be pretty hard to answer correctly; not very long.

Q. Did you read the whole ticket through carefully?—A. I did.

Q. Can you swear positively that Curtin's name was on the ticket you voted?—A. I can positively.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you go to Jefferson County to live there and make that your residence, or only to work there?—A. I went there to work.

Q. Did you make your home and reside with your father in Brady Township?—A. No, sir; I made my home in Brady Township, but did not reside with my father.

Q. Did you have your home in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, during the months of July, August, September, October, November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at any other election poll or district than Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you consider that your legal residence and home in July, August, September, October and November, 1878, was in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?

(Objected to as leading and asking the witness to decide a question of law.)

A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. During the said months were you not in Jefferson County, working and boarding during more than four-fifths of the time?—A. During the week I worked, and went home on Sunday, with exception of one Sunday.

Q. How much a week did you pay for your boarding while working in Jefferson County?—A. Did not pay anything; was paid so much a day and boarded.

Q. Where did you board on Sundays when you came back into Clearfield County?—A. I boarded with my brother.

Q. How much did you pay your brother for boarding with him on Sundays?—A. Did not have any bargain what I was to pay him.

Q. Did you pay him anything?—A. I give him a little money once in awhile; bought him some things.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Troutville, Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; age, thirty-five years.

Q. Did you vote at the election district of Brady Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. State whether you paid your State and county taxes for 1876.—A. As near as I can tell, I paid them some time in June, 1876.

Q. When did you pay your State and county taxes for 1877 and 1878?—A. In December, 1878.

Q. Did you or did you not pay any State or county tax from the time, as you say, about June, 1876, until the time you paid in December, 1878?—A. I thought I had, but it seems I had a place rented and they was to pay all cash tax and I was to work out all the road tax, mine and theirs.

Q. Did they pay the tax?—A. They fetched receipts and give me; I have those receipts at home.

Q. Do you know when those receipts were dated?—A. I think they were August, 1877.

Q. When you paid your State and county taxes for 1876 did you pay all the State and county taxes that were then against you?—A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. When you paid your taxes in 1876 did that include the State and county taxes for 1876?—A. So far as I know it did; it was all the tax that come against me.

Q. When you paid your taxes in December, 1878, did you not pay all the State and county taxes which came against you since what you paid in June, 1876?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Then these receipts which were given you by the parties who you rented the property from were for other kinds of taxes than State and county, were they not?

(Objected to, the question being improper in form and leading, and should be, what taxes were those receipts given in payment of?)

Question withdrawn.

Q. What kind of taxes did those receipts which you got from the parties from whom you rented call for?—A. I can't tell you; I could not read them.

Q. Can you say, according to the best of your recollection, whether they were State or county taxes, or some other kind of taxes?—A. To the best of my recollection they would be State and county.

Q. On what property did you pay taxes to Jamison in December, 1878?—A. On old Jacob Kuntze's lot, I believe.

Q. Whose name was this property that you rented assessed in?—A. Christiana Ogden.

Q. Was it owned by Christiana Ogden?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your arrangement with her was, as I understand it, that you were to work out the road taxes and she was to pay the cash taxes on that property?—A. Yes, sir; hers and mine.

Q. What property had you?—A. I had one cow and household property, is all I had.

Q. Did she pay any State or county tax except what was assessed in her own name?—A. I cannot tell.

Q. Did you pay any State or county taxes from the summer of 1876 until December, 1878?—A. No; there was none come against me.

Q. For what years were the taxes that you paid in December, 1878?—A. For 1877 and 1878.

Q. For what year was the tax you paid in 1876?—A. 1876.

Q. When you paid the 1876 tax did you owe any other State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any other property?—A. Nothing but three sheep, that's all.

Q. When you paid in 1876 did you not pay whatever tax was assessed upon that property?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. When you paid in December, 1878, for the years 1877 and 1878, did you not pay whatever tax was assessed upon that property for those two years, 1877 and 1878?—A. Yes, sir, I did, it seems.

Q. What other property did you pay taxes on when you paid in December, 1878?—A. That's all the property I have of my own.

Q. What did I understand you to say about the Kuntz property; did you also pay tax on it?—A. No; I paid no tax for it; I just lived there. When I said I paid tax there, I only lived there.

Q. Did you or did you not, in December, 1878, pay the taxes which Christiana Ogden was to pay?—A. It seems that I did.

Q. So far as you know, had she paid any State or county tax for you except upon the property assessed in her own name and which you had rented from her?—A. I can't tell you as she had.

Q. According to the best of your knowledge, had she or had she not?—A. According to my knowledge she had, provided they had not brought them in; they fetch up hadn't; they had no tax against me.

Q. Do you know whether she had paid tax on any of your property or paid any of your individual taxes?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. Are you a married man?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how long did you and your family reside in Brady Township prior to the election of November, 1878?—A. About nine years.

Cross-examined:

Q. You were out your road-tax and Mrs. Ogden's road-tax, and she was to pay her cash taxes and your cash taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. She gave you receipts for payment of taxes in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you know what kind of taxes Mrs. Cristena Ogden paid?—A. No, I could not say. I could not read them.

Q. Do you know whether she paid any of your State or county taxes?—A. I do not know.

Q. Where are those receipts?—A. They are at home.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. I reside in Luthersburg, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; am 34 years of age; Luthersburg is in Brady Township.

Q. Did you vote at the general election in Brady Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay your State and county taxes in 1876 in legal time to vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you paid any State or county taxes since then?—A. That is a question I could not hardly answer.

Q. Have you paid J. Jamison, collector, your State or county taxes for either of the years 1877 or 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. To the best of your recollection, have you paid any State or county taxes since you paid those in legal time to vote in November, 1876?—A. Yes. I paid taxes since. I suppose it was State or county. I paid the collector; he ought to give me credit. I gave him the money; he said he would put it on the books.

Q. To whom have you paid any State and county taxes since what you say you have paid in 1876?—A. To Draucker.

Q. When did you pay Draucker?—A. I cannot tell you the exact time. I paid him some. The last I paid him, I think, was the latter part of September, 1878.

Q. What kind of taxes did you pay Draucker in September, 1878?—A. I answered that question once. I told you I paid him taxes—State or county.

Q. How much did you pay Draucker in September, 1878?—A. I cannot tell positive to that; to the best of my knowledge it was $20.

Q. Was the $20 you paid Draucker in September, 1878, for State and county taxes?—A. It was just as I answered before.

Q. Was the $20 for State and county taxes?—A. As a matter of course, it was for State and county taxes.

Q. Have you paid any other State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, except the taxes you say you paid Draucker?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you born in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For how many years, continuously, up to the 5th of November, 1878, did you live in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Lived there all my life.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. I reside beyond Luthersburg, Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; age, 38 years.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Brady Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election of November, 1876?—A. No, sir.

Q. When in 1876 did you pay a State or county tax?—A. I don't know that I paid a State and county tax in 1876.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. I don't know.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since 1875 or before that?—A. Yes, I have. Don't know that I have since; I have before.

Q. To whom did you last pay a State or county tax, and where and when?—A. I don't know the name of the person. I know when I paid it. I paid it in Centerville, Elk County, Pennsylvania, in 1875, as near as I can tell.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have you lived in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. About ten months.

Q. How long have you been in the county?—A. Two years.

Q. Have you not paid a State and county tax since you have been in the county of Clearfield?—A. No.

Q. Has any one paid tax, State or county, for you since you have been in the county?—A. Not that I am sure of.

Q. Were you informed by any one that a tax—State or county—had been paid for you?—A. Yes.

Q. Who by?—A. Charles Deering.

Q. Was you informed at what time this tax was paid?—A. It was charged to me about two years ago.

Q. Was it taken out of your wages or money due you?—A. I understood the tax was charged to me, but whether—I don't remember it in my account when I settled.

Q. Where was Deering, and was you working for him or was he collector?—A. He was foreman, at Winterburn, this county, for Chas. Blanchard.

Q. Were you working for Charles Blanchard, and at what?—A. Different—building a mill and working in the woods.

Q. When was this settlement between you and Charles Blanchard, or the man who was acting for him?—A. February or March, 1877.

Q. Did you live in Brady Township for two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know in what township the taxes that Deering claimed to have paid were assessed?—A. Huston.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you swear that Charles Deering ever paid any State or county tax for you?—A. No.

Q. Did you ever tell Charles Deering to pay such taxes for you?—A. No.

Q. Did Deering ever give you any receipt for such taxes?—A. Not that I remember of.

Q. Do you swear that Deering, or any one else, ever charged such tax against you?—A. I understood that we was assessed at the boarding-house, and Mr. Deering was to pay our tax.

Q. Did you ever authorize or direct Mr. Deering to pay those taxes?—A. It was understood between Mr. Deering and us that he was to pay our taxes in that way.

Q. Do you swear that there was such an understanding between Deering and you?—A. I don't know whether it was directly between Deering and me; he asked us all together.

Q. Were you working under Deering during the summer and fall of 1876?—A. I worked under Deering part of 1876; from the first of the year till some time in April.

Q. When was the assessment made that you testify to?—A. 'Twas in the spring of 1876, I think.

Q. Did Deering say to you, or the crew, that your taxes had been paid, or would be paid, during the spring or summer of 1876?—A. I don't know that he said to me, but that was the understanding.

Q. Was it not the purpose to be assessed and have your taxes paid, so that you could vote at the general election of 1876, being the Presidential election?—A. No.

Q. What was the purpose of being assessed in the spring of 1876, then?—A. I don't know, only that the assessor came there to assess us.

Q. At what time in 1876 was the arrangement made with Deering to pay the taxes?—A. It was February or March we were assessed; it was at that time he asked us about paying the taxes. The assessor and him made the arrangement.

Q. Did Deering inform you or the crew, in the spring of 1876, that he had arranged or paid them?—A. I don't know that he paid them then.

Q. If the taxes were paid, when did you do the work for Deering out of which the money was taken to pay the taxes?—A. Eighteen hundred and seventy-five and eighteen hundred and seventy-six; that is, up to about April, 1876.

Q. If the taxes were paid by Deering, when in 1876 were they to have been paid?—A. I don't know that.

Q. After April, 1876, did you do any work for Deering?—A. I worked for Blanchard after that, but Deering was not there.

Q. When did you after April, 1876; did you again go to work for Blanchard?—A. I had not quit work.

Q. Did you settle with Deering or Blanchard in the spring or summer of 1876?—A. No.

Q. Did your settlement in 1877 (that is, February or March of that year) cover your transactions and business and accounts with Deering or Blanchard for the spring of 1876?—A. Eighteen hundred and seventy-seven was our final settlement. This settlement included the settlement for work of 1876.

Q. Who settled with you in 1877?—A. J. Dorr.

Q. When did Deering quit as foreman for Blanchard?—A. Along the 1st of April, 1876.

Q. When did you last see Mr. Deering?—A. Within a week or two of April 1, 1876.

Q. When did Deering tell you that your taxes had been paid?—A. I don't know that he told me that.

Q. Where did Deering go when he left this county in 1876; that is, April, 1876?—A. I don't know.

Q. Have you seen or heard of Deering being in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, since about April 1, 1876?—A. I am not sure of that; I have not seen him.

Q. Have you any knowledge as to when these taxes were paid, if ever paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any knowledge that they were ever paid by Deering or any one else?—A. No.

Q. Had you any arrangement to pay them with any one else but Deering?—A. No.

Q. Do you know of Deering having been in that township (Huston) since about the first of April, 1876?—A. I don't.

Q. If Deering ever did pay those taxes, is it not likely that he paid them before he left there?—A. I don't know that.

Q. How long did you work there during the year 1877?—A. Until February or March.

JOHN THOMAS sworn.

Question. Have you ever resided in Bloom Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the last ten years or more, continuously?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been acquainted with Jacob Gearheart?—A. Something like five or six years.

Q. Where does he and his family now reside?—A. I believe in or near Clearfield Borough.

Q. Did he vote in the election district of Bloom Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know what ticket he voted, and did you, as judge of that election, see his ticket as he voted?—A. I was judge of that election. I saw his ticket as he voted. I mean I was inspector of said election. It was the Democratic ticket out and out.

Q. Was Jacob Gearhart at the time of that election a resident of Bloom Township election district, where he voted?—A. Well, he had moved away. Everything was away but a little straw and a little bit of hay. On the day of the election he came back from Clearfield and voted. He swore that him and his wife went to visit to his brother's. I didn't want to give him a vote; the other officers allowed he had a right to his vote.

Q. Was the other inspector and judge Democrats or Republicans?—A. Democrats.

Q. How long before the election had Jacob Gearheart and his wife moved from the township?—A. He left on Monday, the day before the election.

Q. What did they take with them?—A. Cows and beds; his—everything about the house.

Q. Do you know who hauled them away?—A. Mr. George Bloom.

Q. Did Jacob Gearheart own any property in Bloom Township?—A. No.

Q. Whose house did he live in in Bloom Township up till the Monday before the election?—A. In my house, about a mile from where I live.

Q. When did he first tell you he was going to move away?—A. About two months before the election.

Q. When did he then say he would move away?—A. In a week or ten days.

Q. When did he afterwards tell you he would move away?—A. He did not tell me at all.

Q. When did you next know of his moving away?—A. Well, he tried to get away and not pay his rent, and I watched him, and made him pay his rent up till that time; that is, the Monday, the 4th, before the election. He gave me the key of the house the day he left, the Monday before the election.

Q. Had he any rights whatever in that house after that day?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he claim any rights in that house after that day?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you got the key of the house, what did you do?—A. I stuck it in my pocket and took it home.

Q. Did he tell you whether he had locked the house?—A. No, sir, he did not.

Q. Who had charge of the house after that date?—A. Myself.

Q. What is the reputation of Jacob Gearheart for truth and veracity, good or bad?—A. There is no truth in him.

Q. Is that the name that he has borne in the community since you have known him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What kind of a house does he and his wife keep, in reference to virtue and chastity?—A. As bad as they could—a house of ill-fame.

Q. What is your age, and how long have you lived in Bloom Township?—A. Sixty, 18th of June next; lived in Bloom Township eighteen or twenty years; in the county all my life.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did the election officers open and examine the ticket Gearheart handed in?—A. I reckon.

Q. Did they do so at the time when he voted?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you read it?—A. No, sir, I didn't read it.

Q. Don't you know that all of Gearheart's goods were in Bloom Township on the day of the election?—A. No, sir; they was not.

Q. Don't you know that George Bloom did not unload his goods, but hauled them back into the township on the day of the election?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know they kept a house of ill-fame?—A. That is an easy matter to know.

Q. Was you there to see?—A. No; I was not.

Q. Was there any other objection to Gearheart's vote except the one you spoke of?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Was it not common report in the neighborhood that his house was a house of ill-fame?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Q. When you went away on 5th of January, 1877, did you take your family with you ?—A. Yes, sir ; I did.

Q. Did they remain with you till the 5th of April, 1878 ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What were you doing during that time, and where were you located ?—A. Worked on a farm ; had a farm rented ; Huron County, Ohio.

Q. When did you rent that farm ?—A. My brother-in-law rented it for me, and in October, 1877.

Q. Where did you live from January, 1877, till October, 1877, and how ?—A. I lived at my brother-in-law's ; I staid with him.

Q. What did you work at ?—A. I did not work at anything.

Q. How did you come to go to Ohio in January, 1877 ?—A. I rented my farm out, and he rented one out there for me.

Q. Who did you rent your farm here to ?—A. To David Shields.

Q. For how long a time did you rent it to him ?—A. Three years.

Q. The time is not up yet, is it ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has you or David Shields now possession of that property ; which one ?—A. Shields is living on it yet.

Q. Did you own any other real estate in Pennsylvania when you went to Ohio in January, 1877 ?—A. No ; I did not.

Q. Do you own any other real estate in Pennsylvania now beside that ?—A. No ; I don't.

Q. For how long a time was that property in Ohio rented, which was, you say, rented by your brother-in-law in January, 1877 ?—A. For one year.

Q. How did you come to leave in the middle of the year, or before the time was up for which that property was rented ?—A. Because I could not get possession until spring.

Q. Did you leave Ohio sooner than you intended to when you went there ?—A. No, sir ; I did not.

Q. Where have you lived since your return to Pennsylvania ?—A. On Reuben Moore's property ; Brady Township.

Q. When did you make the bargain for that property of Moore's ?—A. It was made February, 1878, by Geo. Leilich.

Q. When did you tell Geo. Leilich to make that bargain ?—A. It was in November or December of 1877.

Q. How did you come to make that arrangement in November or December of 1877, when a place had been rented for you in October, 1877; for one year?—A. So I had a house to move in when I came back.

Q. When that place was rented in October, 1877, for one year, how did you expect to stay then in Ohio?—A. I did not expect to stay any longer than my year was up.

Q. Did you stay till your year was up?—A. Of course I did.

Q. How could you have staid a year when you returned the next April?—A. It was in October, 1876, I meant. It was rented in fall, and I did not get out till the January following.

Q. Did you vote while in Ohio?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Where were you naturalized?—A. Was naturalized in Clearfield Town.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you live in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and own property and own real estate there for some years before you went to Ohio?—A. Yes, sir; a good many years before I went.

Q. Are you sure you got back here on or about the 5th of April, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, continuously from the 5th of April, 1878 to the day of the November election in 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you pay any tax in Ohio?—A. Yes, I did; State and county. And further saith not.

Question. Do you reside in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and did you vote in that election district at the general election of November, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you or did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress at said election?—A. Yes, sir, I did vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

Q. When, where, and to whom did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. To McGaughey, treasurer, at Luthersburgh, June 14, 1878.

Q. Where was you born?—A. Here in Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. Forty-five years old.

Q. Where did you live a year ago?—A. In Ohio.

Q. Was your family with you there?—A. Yes.

Q. When did you go to Ohio, and when did you return?—A. I returned last April, 1878, I can't tell exactly, I was a little over three years out there.

Q. Did your family go with you when you went, and return with you when you returned?—A. Yes.

Q. What did you go west for?—A. To make a living.

Q. Did you intend to make your home there when you started?—A. No.

Q. What were you doing while there?—A. Farming.

Q. Had you a farm rented?—A. Yes.

Q. For how long a time?—A. For one year.

Q. Did you have any real estate here?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you do with it when you were gone?—A. I had it rented.

Q. For how long a time had you it rented?—A. For one year.

Q. Did you take possession of it on your return?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you intend to return to Pennsylvania when you went to Ohio?—A. Yes.

Q. What time did you intend to return when you went to Ohio?—A. I had no particular time set.

Q. Did you know whether you would return at all with your family if you lived?—A. That's pretty hard to tell.

Cross-examined :

Q. What day in April, 1878, did you return to Brady Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. On 23d of April, 1878.

Q. Did you live in Clearfield County, Brady Township, Pennsylvania, from the 23d of April, 1878, to the 5th of November, 1878, the election day?—A. Yes, sir; I did live there all the time.

And further saith not.

ALEX. SHAY sworn.

Question. Were you at Luthersburg on November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you in Dr. Spackman's office when James L. Hebble came in, and during the time he was in did you and Andrew Pentz, senior, have a talk with him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was said about his ticket?—A. 'Twas me that called them in. I asked him if he had a hand to vote; he said he had not, but make me out one; I asked him what he wanted made; he said, just the same kind of a hand as I always voted, you know, except, says he, I am going to vote for Andrew G. Curtin; I said, "All right, James, I will not dictate in that respect; I know the feeling that prevails between you soldiers towards Andrew Curtin." That's about all the conversation we had.

Q. Did Andrew Pentz, senior, say to him, Hebble, or to any one in his presence, anything about the payment of Alleman Ellinger's tax, or about there being too many to pay taxes for, or anything of that kind?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Did Alliman Ellinger vote at that election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did a man named Wm. F. Shannon vote at that election in Brady Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him vote?—A. I did not; he told me he did; he told me that it was his legal place of voting.

Q. Where did you see him when he told you?—A. At Luthersburg, where the election was held in Brady Township; "Mr. Shannon, I hope you have not come from Armstrong County here to vote"; he said he did, because it was his legal place of voting, he thought; "I did not want to lose my vote," he said.

Q. What, if anything, did he say about whom he voted for for Congress?—A. He said he thought this was a very important election, because this Greenback party, he thought, ought to be defeated; he asked me how I was in regard politics this fall ; I told him I was solid Republican as I always was.

Q. What had he always been so long as you had known him in politics?—A. Always voted the Democratic out and out.

Q. How long had you known him?—A. I think it's about five years since he first taught school in our township.

Q. How long was it before the election of November, 1878, that he left the township?—A. Some time in the neighborhood of July 1, 1878.

Q. Had he been back in the township or resided in the township of Brady from that time till the election?—A. No, sir; not unless it was back on a visit, and I think he was not back at all.

Q. Where did he live during that time?—A. Am not positive whether in Armstrong County or away at school.

Q. Are you satisfied that he voted for Curtin from what you knew of his politics and from what he told you that day.—A. Yes, sir, I am satisfied of that, for I know he would not touch a Greenbacker.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was Dr. Spackman's office a place where the leading Republicans of Brady Township congregated on the November election day.—A. It was no more than any other place where they had Republican tickets.

Q. Do you swear that you did not hear any one on that day in Dr. Spackman's office say anything about payment of Alliman Ellinger's tax, or do you swear there was nothing said on that subject?—A. There was nothing said there on that subject at that time, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Did you not there on that day have money that had been given you for the purpose of paying tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not say to any one that you had been given money for the purposes of election?—A. No, sir; I did not for election purpose.

Q. Did you say anything of that kind?—A. No, sir; to no living soul.

Q. Do you swear that W. F. Shannon voted for Curtin?—A. To the best of my knowledge he did, because he was such an opponent of the Greenback ticket.

Q. Did you pay a State and county tax within two years, and more than thirty days before the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Undoubtedly; I pay my taxes every year.

And further saith not.

Question. Are you the collector of Brady Township, and for what years and for what taxes?—Answer. I am, for 1877 and 1878; and for State and county.

Q. Do you recollect of Hugh Strayer paying you his State and county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and also did D. Barefield pay his taxes within the same time and the same kind of taxes?—A. Barefield and Strayer's taxes are both paid.

Q. Were they paid more than one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I can't state positively, but I think they were. McHughs paid Strayer's tax; and I think they were paid on time. Strayer's I know was paid on time, and I think Barefield's was paid before that.

Q. Do you know John C. Harwick of Du Bois, Sandy Township?—A. I do.

Q. When did he first pay you any State or county taxes, either in money or work?—A. Must be near two months since.

Q. Did he pay you any State or county taxes either in money or work, or in any other way, prior to the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did not.

Q. Did W. K. Irvin pay you any State or county taxes prior to the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did not.

Q. Did Isaac Ogden, or any one for him, pay you any State or county taxes prior to November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I had the two years' tax against him for 1877 and 1878, which his woman paid for him not longer ago than December, 1878.

Q. How was the property which Isaac Ogden rented from Christiana Ogden assessed?—A. In the name of Ogden, George, heirs.

Q. Did Christiana Ogden ever pay you any taxes for Isaac?—A. She did not for the last two years, because he was assessed in his own name individually for the last two years.

Q. Was he not assessed in that way for more than two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He was assessed in 1876, when the 1877 tax was laid, and up until this time in that way.

Q. Did Christiana Ogden or any one else pay you any State or county taxes for him within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any recollection of D. B. Shealds paying you any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I can't recollect of him paying me any; yet I would not say that he didn't.

Q. Have you any recollection of his paying you any during the year 1877?—A. I can't remember.

Q. Did you know W. F. Shannon?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. How long was it before the election of November 5, 1878, that you know of his being in Brady Township the last time?—A. I think he went away along in April or May, 1878, at the close of his school.

Q. From that time till the election, where was he, so far as you know?—A. I understood him he was going to school in Dayton, Armstrong County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you know of his voting at the said election in Brady Township?—A. I don't, but he told me the day before that he was there to vote; don't know his politics, but he professed to be a Democrat.

Q. What, if anything, did David Snyder tell you last Monday as to whether or not he had paid any State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He said to me that he had not paid tax, and he said he would lose his vote, for he had not paid tax within two years. He said he would lose his vote.

Cross-examined:

Q. About how many names are there on each of your duplicates for 1877 and 1878?—A. They each must have had more than three hundred names on when I got them. I would not say positively. I think there was about 700 names on the 1878 duplicate.

And further saith not.

Question. Did you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, pay a State or county tax which was paid at least one month before said election?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. When and where did you pay that?—A. In Penn Township, in the fall of 1871.

Q. To whom?—A. To Wall.

Q. What kind of tax was it?—A. County and State.

Q. Had you paid any other county or State tax before said election within two years?—A. Yes, sir; in Brady Township; my partner and I paid it. I paid it in spring of 1877—it may have been of 1876—to Arthur Draucker. I have lost my receipt for payment of Penn Township tax. I had one.

Adjourned March 6, 1879, at 3 p. m., to meet at Clearfield, Pa., at 10 o'clock a. m., March 7, 1879, at the court-house in said borough.

Depositions of witness taken before W. N. Prothero, a notary public of the town of Du Bois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and resident of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, at the court-house in the borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the part of Hon. Seth H. Yocum, contestee, on the 7th day of March, A. D. 1879.

ALFRED STEVENS affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—A. Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a member of the election board of Chest Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; clerk for C. T. Moore, inspector.

Q. Who else composed the board?—A. John McGarvy, of Anthony, was judge, Democrat, I believe; Charles Moore, Democrat, inspector, and Jacob Schroll, Republican, inspector; clerks, Alfred Stevens, Democratic, and Samuel McLaughlin; I could not say whether is Democrat or Republican.

Q. Who administered the oaths to the board?—A. I think the minority inspector swore the judge, and then the judge rather got mixed in it, then I took the paper and administered the oaths to myself and the other clerk. Then there was some of the parties there that objected to that, and then the judge he took the form and administered the oath to me, but whether he did to the other clerk I would not be able to say.

Q. What was done with the ballot-box after the votes were counted? (Objected to for the reason that it is immaterial what was done with the ballot-box after the votes were counted because no recount has been ordered of the votes cast at the election of November 5, 1878, in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; the evidence would therefore be immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I could not say; I left, I believe, before the ballot-box was taken away.

Q. Where parties claimed the right to vote and whose votes were challenged or whose names were not upon the registry-list, were they required to make and sign any affidavit?—A. There was no affidavits made out to my knowledge; it was the judge's business. I don't know whether the judge did so or not; he did not, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Were any such affidavits put into the envelope to be given to the judge to return to Clearfield?—A. I could not say.

Q. Were the affidavits that were administered to the election officers reduced to writing, signed, and executed as required by law?—A. There was none of the forms sent in the bundle, that I could find. The board was sworn in by the oaths—the old ones that remained in the box.

Q. Were not these old affidavits merely read over to the parties swearing, and they sworn in that way, without any of them being signed?—A. They were not signed, because they were signed before.

Q. Did the judge or either of the inspectors or clerks sign any affidavit?—A. Not at that time, not to the best of my knowledge—I did not.

Q. Were parties in the election house with the board during the day and while the vote was being counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was or was not the house open and did not outsiders go in and out at their pleasure during the day and while the vote was being counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how many outsiders would be in at one time?—A. I could not say as to that; sometimes a good many and sometimes not so many.

Q. Were there as many as twenty-five or thirty at any one time?—A. I suppose there were.

Q. Were not outside parties in during all or nearly all the time?—A. Pretty much, I believe.

Q. Was the ballot-box at any time left unguarded?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Were any additions or alterations made by the board in registry list of voters?—A. I could not say; there might have been one or two added; I am not positive.

Q. Was the registry examined as voters presented themselves in order to ascertain if they were on the registry?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were names tallied off the registry-list as the votes were received?—A. To the best of my knowledge it was done by the inspector.

Q. Were parties who claim the right to vote by reason of being naturalized citizens required to produce their papers?—A. I think there was none objected to on that account.

Q. Did any naturalized citizens vote at that election?—A. I could not say; there might have been one or two; I am not positive.

Q. Did any show their papers?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Were the ballots numbered as received?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Were you present when the board was organized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was John McGarvy, of Anthony, elected as judge of election in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he sworn on the 5th of November, 1878, by the minority inspector of election of said township?—A. I believe so; yes, sir.

Q. Was Jacob Schroll and C. T. Moore elected inspectors of elections in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was yourself and Samuel McLaughlin appointed clerks at the general election of November 5, 1878, in said township?—A. I was chosen by Moore; don't know as to McLaughlin.

Q. Were you sworn to perform your duty as said clerk by John McGarvy, judge of the election of said township?—A. Yes, sir; if he did not make any mistakes.

Q. Were the inspectors not also sworn by him?—A. I think so.

Q. Was not the other clerk, Samuel McLaughlin, also sworn by him?

—A. I could not say as to that.

Q. Was there any interference or meddling with the ballot-box by outsiders?—A. I think not.

Q. Was there any interference whatever by outsiders?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Were there at the most more than one or two persons whose names were not upon the registry that voted, or were there any persons voted whose names were not upon the registry-list?—A. I think there was two young voters, but whether any others or not I could not say; I meant their first vote.

Q. Did these two persons vote on age?—A. I think so.

Q. Did they produce the proofs of their age required by law?—A. I could not say.

Q. Then you do not know whether they were sworn or not?—A. I think the one was, I could not say as to the other; I paid so little attention.

Q. As soon as the vote was counted, was a brief statement, showing the number of votes received by each candidate, made and signed by the election officers and posted upon the door of the election house for the information of the public?—A. I could not say.

Q. Do you say that it was not done?—A. I could not say as to that, whether it was or was not done.

Q. Was the vote as soon as counted publicly and fully declared from the election house by a constable or any member of the board?—A. Why, I think not by a constable or any member of the board, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Were the citizens present made acquainted with the result of the election?—A. Yes, sir; I think they were, for they were there and could see it.

Q. Were the votes cast at the election of November 5, 1878, correctly counted, and was the number of votes received by each candidate ascertained by the election officers?—A. I think they was.

Q. Was a return showing the number of votes cast for each candidate at said election inclosed in an envelope and sealed, together with one list of voters and a tally paper, and was such envelope given to the judge of election?—A. There was, to the best of my knowledge.

And further saith not.

JACOB SCHROLL affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you the minority inspector at the election of November 5, 1878, for Chest Township?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. By whom were the members of the election board sworn?—A. The judge was sworn by the minority inspector, the rest of the board was sworn by the judge.

Q. Were any affidavits written out and signed by any of the election officers?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were or were not these oaths administered orally?—A. We had an old oath form—the old oath form in the ballot box we used.

Q. Were not the old oaths used at previous election used and read from in administering these oaths?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What became of those old oaths?—A. They was left in the ballot box.

Q. Were they signed by any of this election board?—A. I think not.

Q. Were any affidavits filled out and signed by any persons whose votes were challenged, or whose names were not upon the registry?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did any persons vote at that election whose names were not on the registry list or were challenged?—A. There was a couple of men voted that were not on the registry list.

Q. Did any persons vote by virtue of being naturalized citizens, and, if so, were they required to produce their papers?—A. There was one voted that had voted there for five years, and he was registered and had showed his naturalization papers at previous elections.

Q. Were or were not persons permitted to go in and out of the room in which the election was held at their pleasure during the entire time on the election day, and while the vote was being counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how many persons were in at any one time?—A. Must have been twenty-five or thirty, or perhaps more.

Q. Was or was not the room filled with outsiders most of the time?—A. There was outsiders in most all the time.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was you a member of the election board who held the election in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on November 5, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. What position did you occupy on the board?—A. Minority inspector.

Q. Did you as minority inspector swear John McGarvy, of Anthony, judge (elected) of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. You say, do you, that yourself, C. T. Moore, inspectors, and Alfred Stevens and Samuel McLaughlin, clerks of said election of said township of Chest, were sworn to perform their respective duties by John McGarvy, of Anthony, judge of said election in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why were not the partly-printed and partly-written affidavits of the officers of the election of November 5, 1878, in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, not made and returned as required by law?—A. I don't know as there was any there; would not swear that there was or was not.

Q. Were not the clerks unable to find such affidavits among the papers forwarded by the commissioners?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it not because no blank forms were furnished that such affidavits were not filled out and returned with the other returns of said election, as required by the several acts of the assembly?—A. I suppose so.

Q. Were any persons whose names were not upon the registry of voters of said township of Chest at the general election of November 5, 1878, permitted to vote?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did not these persons vote upon age and after satisfying the board that they were legal voters?—A. One of them did.

Q. When the polls were closed, were the votes which were cast at said election for the several candidates correctly counted?—A. To the best of my knowledge.

Q. After the vote was counted, was a brief statement made, showing the votes received by each candidate, and posted up on the door of the election-house for the information of the public?—A. There was none posted up on the election-house door.

Q. Was the result of the election made known to the citizens present when the count was completed?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was a return, showing the number of votes received by each candidate, together with one list of voters and a tally-sheet, inclosed in an envelope and given to the judge of said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was an envelope, containing a return of the number of votes received by each candidate, together with a list of voters and a tally-sheet, inclosed in an envelope and given to you, as minority inspector of said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the election board in any way interfered with, or was the ballot-box in any way disturbed or meddled with by any persons not members of the election board at the said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were the votes, when received from the window, numbered and placed in the ballot-box, and did they remain there till they were taken out to be counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had the naturalized citizen who voted at said election in Chest Township voted there for more than five years preceding said election, and had he shown his certificate of citizenship at any of said elections?—A. Don't know whether it is over, but it is five years any way.

Q. Were there, so far as you know, any frauds committed at said election in said township of Chest?—A. I don't know of any.

Q. Were you duly elected as an inspector of election in Chest Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then I understand that you were the Republican inspector at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

JAMES MOTT affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in said township at the election of November 5, 1878; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir. I voted for A. G. Curtin.

Q. How old are you?—A. Between 25 and 26 years of age.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Could not say whether it was inside of two years, but it was in 1876.

Q. Was the tax you paid in 1876 the one that you voted upon at the Presidential election of that year?—Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. To the county treasurer.

Q. Where?—A. At Burnside.

Q. Did you pay it to the county treasurer when he was on his trip through the county collecting State and county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it not paid then in the fore part of the year 1876, and before the unpaid State and county were placed in the hands of a constable for collection?—A. I could not say whether it was the fore part or after part; don't know what time he was around.

Q. Have you a receipt for that tax?—A. No, sir; I lost it in moving.

Q. When did you move?—A. In the spring of 1877.

Q. Did you pay that tax as much as two months before the Presidential election of 1876?—A. I could not say, for I forget what month he was around.

Q. Did you go to the election, intending to vote, last fall?—A. No, sir.

Q. Why did you not intend to vote?—A. I thought they would not leave me vote on account of not being registered.

Q. Other than the tax you paid in 1876, did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. If you paid that tax in 1876 to the county treasurer, do you not know that it was more than two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

Q. Then you did not pay any State or county tax within those two years?—A. No, sir; I didn't.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. They wanted to know if I had paid taxes within two years. I told them I had; but it was a mistake in me.

And further saith not.

DAVID MOTT affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. Thirty years old to-day.

Q. Did you vote at the election in Bell Township at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir. I voted at said election for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax within two years preceding said election to any collector of such taxes?—A. James McGee paid it for me.

Q. For what year was that tax assessed?—A. For 1876.

Q. Have you a receipt for said tax, and will you read it?—A. Yes, sir.

“SEPT. 17, 1875.

“Rec'd of David Mott sixty-one cents, State and county tax for 1875.

(Signed)

“W. H. ROSS, Col.”

I am mistaken. That was the wrong receipt. The one I had reference to reads as follows:

“JULY the 6TH, 1877.

“Received of J. W. McGee three dollars and eighty-six cents for the use of David Mott, being his State and county and school tax for 1876.

“WM. H. ROSS, Col.”

Q. Where did you get this receipt?—A. From James McGhee.

Q. Did you pay him the amount of those taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you request him to pay them for you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not they are marked paid on the collector's duplicate?—A. I don't know.

Q. Have you any other evidence of their payment than that McGhee gave you this receipt?—A. I have not.

Q. Can you then swear positively that those taxes were paid?—A. Yes, sir; I can.

Q. Had you paid any other State or county taxes within two years preceding said election other than those McGhee paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you yourself, or has any one at your request, paid a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. I have not, if I understand it right.

Q. Have you, or has any person at your request, paid a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was this tax assessed at least two months before that election?—A. Yes sir.

Q. Was it paid at least one month before that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. In what township was it assessed and paid?—A. Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was William H. Ross collector of State and county taxes for the year 1876 for Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he ever say anything to you about these taxes after Mr. McGhee paid them for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; it was not.

And further saith not.

WILLIAM ODELL sworn.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; 60 years of age.

Q. Did you vote in Bell Township at the election of November 5, 1878; and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted there, and voted for Curtin for Congress.

Q. Did you yourself pay any State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, to any collector of such taxes?—A. I left the money at home with my wife for her to pay it.

Q. When was that?—A. About last June, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge whether or not she paid it?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. Did you see her pay it?—A. No, I didn't; if I had seen her pay it I would have paid it myself.

Q. How much money did you leave with your wife?—A. I left $2 at that time.

Q. To whom did you direct her to pay it?—A. To John G. Odell, my son.

Q. When did your wife pay the $2, in money, to your son John?—A. It was June, 1878, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Are you sure that money was paid to him before the first of July, 1878?—A. I am not sure of it; I think it was before the 1st of July, 1878.

Q. Did you not state, in answer to a former question, that you had left that money with your wife either in the months of May or June, 1878?—A. I state that, sir; but I cannot say whether it was May or June.

Q. As near as you can tell, how long was it after you had paid this money to your wife till she paid it to your son John?—A. It was not over a week, I think, anyhow.

Q. You stated that you paid this $2 to your wife just before leaving home. Will you now state where you went, and how long you remained away, as near as you can tell?—A. Don't mind where I went. I was away working at different places. I was away a week.

Q. Had your wife paid this $2 to your son before you got home?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you not positive that you were away in the month of June some time?—A. Yes, sir; I was away in June.

Q. Then are you not also certain that your wife paid this money to your son in the month of June?—A. No, sir; I am not certain.

Q. Are you not certain it was paid in May or June?—A. I am certain it was paid in May or June.

Q. Was your son, John G. Odell, collector of State and county taxes for the year 1878 in Bell Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the amount of your State and county taxes on his duplicate for that year?—A. I don't know what it was.

Q. Don't you know that it was more than $2?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Did you ever see his duplicate and the amount of taxes therein opposite your name?—A. No, sir; I never seen it till to day.

Q. When you saw it to-day, what was the amount of taxes against you for that year?—A. Two dollars and eighteen cents, as near as I can say.

Q. What other taxes was your son collecting?—A. He was collecting school-tax, too.

Q. Are you sure your wife did not pay this $2 on the school-tax which your son had against you?—A. I was not sure at the time.

Q. Are you sure now?—A. I am sure now she paid it on the school-tax; that was not the intention.

Q. Then your State and county taxes were not paid for that year?—A. It appears so.

Q. Do not your State and county taxes remain unpaid on your son's duplicate now, and he not look to you for them now?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you then paid any State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Cross examined:

Q. Has any one paid a State or county tax for you or at your request within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted?—A. Yes, sir, I did. I always read my own ticket.

Q. Were you present at the election-house at noon on the day of the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I was there at 12 o'clock.

Q. What was the names of the inspectors on the election board?

(Counsel for contestee objects to this question and to all other questions that may be asked the witness to which his attention was not called in the examination in-chief.)

A. William Odell and D. W. Logan, and John Baker, judge.

Q. Did Logan remain all day?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who was appointed to fill his place, and why did he leave?—A. Wm. Mahaffy (Smyly), son of Robert, filled his place. Logan went home in case of sickness.

Q. Were any Republicans requested to fill his place, and did they refuse to do so?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom was the ballot-box delivered?—A. To Henry Breath, justice of the peace.

Re-examined:

Q. Who was selected in Logan's place?—A. William Mahaffy.

Q. What is his politics?—A. Democrat.

Q. How was he selected?—A. He was taken up and then the judge swore him in.

Q. By whom was he selected?—A. That is more than I can tell you. I think it was H. L. Henderson that selected him, but I am not sure.

Q. Was he selected by a person outside of the election board?—A. That is a hard thing to answer.

Q. After Logan withdrew and Mahaffy was sworn in in his stead was or was not the judge and both of the inspectors Democrats?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Logan the minority inspector?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time of day was it this change occurred?—A. I suppose it was two or three o'clock, as near as I could judge.

Q. Were you the Democratic inspector elected?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was the ballot-box taken to the office of Esquire Breath?—A. The next day after the election. I don't mind whether it was in the morning or afternoon that I took it up myself.

Q. Where was it from the time the votes were counted till the time you took it to Squire Breath's?—A. It was in my house shut up.

Q. Was the ballot-box sealed and secured by red tape when the ballots were counted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it taken home by you as majority inspector?—A. I was not minority inspector, but I had to take it home because Logan was not there.

Q. You was majority inspector?—A. Yes; I was majority inspector.

Q. When Logan withdrew from the board was any election held by the voters present for a successor?—A. No, sir.

Q. As I understand it Mahaffy was selected by some persons outside of the election board?—A. Yes, sir; of course. But the board had a selection, too; we could not get any one else to serve.

Q. Who administered the oath to the election-board in the morning when you were organized?—A. Logan, the minority inspector, administered the oath to the judge and the judge administered the oath to the rest of us.

Q. When persons claimed the right to vote whose names were not on the registry list, or who had been challenged for any cause, were they required to make and sign any affidavit?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were those affidavits returned with the election papers to the prothonotary's office?—A. I don't know, but learn since I came here to-day that they were not.

Q. Were persons who claimed the right to vote by reason of being naturalized required to produce their papers?—A. I don't think there was any of that kind there—there was some there but they have been voters for over five years.

Q. As persons voted were their ballots numbered and their names checked or marked in the registry-list?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined :

Q. Was H. L. Henderson, who selected William Mahaffy for inspector, a Republican?—A. Yes; he was.

Q. Was the selection of William Mahaffy for inspector to fill the vacancy which occurred by the sudden withdrawal of D. W. Logan, minority inspector, approved by yourself and by the other members of the board, and by the Republicans present?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was not, was it, until after you failed to get a Republican to fill said vacancy that William Mahaffy was chosen?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were the votes which were cast at the election of November 5, 1878, correctly counted and were the number of votes cast for each candidate ascertained?—A. I think they was.

Q. Was a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate made and posted up at the election house for the information of the public?—A. No, sir; it was not posted up, for somebody stole it before we could get it up.

Q. Was the result of the election made known to the citizens present?—A. It was made known to what was there.

Re-re-examined :

Q. Why did Logan have to go away on election day and have a successor appointed?—A. On account of the sickness of his wife.

And further saith not.

JOHN G. ODELL sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you collector of State and county taxes for the year 1878, for Bell Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was the duplicate placed in your hands?—A. Duplicate received by me September 5, 1878.

Q. Were you ever collector of State and county taxes before September, 1878?—A. I was not.

Q. Have you your duplicate with you, and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Examine your duplicate and see if the State and county taxes of William Odell for the year 1878 are paid; that is, marked paid.—A. They are not marked paid. My father paid $2 of tax intended for to pay his State and county tax, and was under the impression at the time of the election, November 5, 1878, that his State and county taxes were paid to me, and through a mistake I applied it to the school tax instead of the State and county.

Q. Did your mother pay those $2 to you in money?—A. Yes, she did, for the use of my father.

Q. Did you credit them as payment on his school tax?
(Objected to as immaterial.)

A. I credited on the school tax, of course, for 1877.

Q. What is the amount of your father's State and county tax on the duplicate?—A. My father's State and county tax on my duplicate for 1878 is $2.18.

Q. Were any State and county taxes paid to you within one month preceding the election of November 5, 1878; and, if so, by whom?—A. Yes, sir; from Milton Sheasby and John F. Lee. I am mistaken; these taxes were paid before the 1st of October, 1878. Alexander Hartle-road paid me his State and county tax on November 5, 1878, and Henry Fairbanks paid his on same day; E. B. Baird paid his on same day; Christian Miller paid his same day; Hiram McClinsey paid his on same day; Frederick Rupart paid 44 cents on his tax same day; M. L. Snyder paid his October 16, 1878; Jesse Weaver paid his tax November 5, 1878; Andrew Walls paid his tax on November 5, 1878; and also John Webster paid his on November 5, 1878.

Q. Did you give receipts for these taxes paid on November 5, 1878, the day of election?—A. I am under the impression that I gave all receipts that paid me on that day.

Q. Were the receipts dated on that day?—A. Yes, sir; to the best of my recollection.

Q. Were any of them dated back to a time more than one month before the election?—A. No, sir; none.

Q. Were any of them issued with the dates blank?—A. Not that I know of; if so, I done it by mistake.

Q. Did you ever give McClinsey such a receipt?—A. No, sir; unless I did it by an oversight.

Q. Had you not on election day (November 5, 1878) some eleven or less tax receipts in your possession without dates or dated back one month before the election?—A. No, sir; I never dated a receipt back. I had quite a number with blank dates. I could not say how many.

Q. Did not H. L. Henderson see or did you not show to him such receipts?—A. No, sir; I never showed him any receipts. To the best of my knowledge he never saw them.

Q. What is your politics?—A. My politics are Democratic.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did your father ever say to you that when he gave the two dollars to your mother for you that he intended it as a payment on his State and county taxes for 1878, and that he was under the impression that you had a duplicate for the collection of the same at the time the money was paid?

(Objected to because it is hearsay.)

A. Yes, sir, and was angry at me for not crediting it on the State and county tax duplicate.

Q. Do you know whether or not your father has always paid his State and county taxes in past years?—A. He has always paid his State and county tax as far as I know, except on the duplicate in question.

Q. Were you not accustomed, and do you not yet carry receipts all written out, excepting the date, the names of the persons, and the amount of taxes paid, and without your signature thereto for convenience in giving receipts when the taxes are paid?—A. I have always did that since I carried the duplicate.

Q. Do you always when you give receipts date them and give them the date at which the taxes are paid?—A. Yes, sir, always.

Q. Then if any receipts were given by you for State and county taxes without dates were they given by mistake and without your knowledge?—A. They were.

Q. Were any receipts given by you intentionally that might deceive the election board as to the time when the taxes were paid?—A. There is one receipt that was intended to deceive the election board.

Q. Will you look at your duplicate and give the date when William McClinsey's State and county taxes are paid?—A. I will. It was paid on the 4th of October, 1878.

Q. When are Hugh McClinsey's State and county taxes marked paid?—A. Same date, October 4, 1878.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you swear that your father William Odell paid his State and county taxes for the year 1877 and 1878 and 1876?—A. 1877, I know nothing about more than the collector told me they were paid.

Q. What collector told you?—A. William H. Ross.

Q. Where is he now?—A. I cannot say.

Q. What did he go away for as currently reported?—A. The report in our neighborhood is that he ran away because he had collected nearly all the tax and failed to pay it over to the treasurer.

Q. What is the politics of William H. Ross?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. As near as I can tell for the last few years he has been a Democrat, a Modoc, a Junior Son, and, for all I know, a Greenbacker.

Q. Do you swear that Hugh McClinsey and William McClinsey paid you their State and county taxes on October 4, 1878?—A. I do not.

Q. When did they pay you?—A. They paid me some time after I had paid the tax for them. I can't say positively when it was they paid me tax.

Q. Did you not give them tax receipts on November 5, 1878, and were they not written on that day and dated October 4, 1878?—A. I gave them receipts on November 5, 1878, but had paid their taxes out of my own pocket previous to October 5 on account of my being unable because of circumstances in my family keeping me from calling on them for the tax according to a previous agreement with them.

Q. What day did you write those receipts?—A. On the same day there dated. I believe October 4, 1878.

Q. What day did you pay their taxes?—A. The same day their receipts are dated on.

Q. Who did you pay them to?—A. I paid them into the State and county funds on that day.

Q. Do you remember of about nine tax receipts that were in your duplicate on the morning of election drawn up and dated?—A. There was not nine receipts of that kind.

Q. Were there any number of them—I mean loose receipts?—A. I suppose there were them I mentioned before.

Q. Do you swear that neither on day of election nor at any other time within thirty days of that you did not draw receipts and put a date on them prior to the day you wrote the receipts or filled them out? In other words, did you not antedate a tax receipt or tax receipts?—A. I don't swear any such thing. I did antedate a tax receipt.

Q. Was there only one case in which you did that?—A. There was only one case, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Can you answer positively?—A. I can't answer positively. My impression is there is only one.

Q. You have already sworn, I believe, that there was one case in which you date back a tax receipt with intent to deceive the election board, have you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whose receipt was that?—A. It was Jack Ramalay's.

Q. How is that marked on your duplicate as to when it was paid?—A. It is marked October 1, 1878.

Q. When was it paid, in point of fact?—A. I don't clearly recollect the exact time, but think it was paid about three days after the 5th of October.

Q. You are sure it was paid after October 5, 1878?—A. I am.

Q. Was not the entry in your duplicate of October 1, 1878, made with the same intent as that with which you put the date on the receipt?—A. Yes, sir; in that case.

Q. What was the politics of Jackson Remalia?—A. I know nothing about his politics at that time.

Q. What had been his politics before?—A. I believe he had been a Democrat, but not sure. I asked no questions about his politics.

Q. What have been his politics since, if you know?—A. I know nothing about his politics since nor how he voted at the fall election.

Q. Do you know whether he voted at the fall election?—A. I do not know.

Q. Does he reside in Bell Township?—A. I believe Remalia resides in Bell Township.

Q. Do you know of Remalia's paying any other State or county taxes within two years of November 5, 1878, except that referred to?

(Objected to, because it is hearsay.)

A. I don't know anything about any other tax.

Q. Were the $2 paid by your father through your mother credited by you on State and county taxes, or on school taxes?—A. There was $2 paid to me by my mother for the use of my father, intended, according to their words, to be applied to his State and county. I credited them on his school tax for 1877.

Q. When did you first learn from either your father or mother that they were intended to be applied to State or county taxes?—A. I can't say positively, but I believe it was pretty soon after I got the State and county duplicate.

Q. How long after that as nearly as you can recollect?—A. It might of been two weeks and it might of been two months.

Q. Do you swear that it was before the 5th of October, 1878?—A. I do not; but I am under the impression it was.

Q. Your father's school-tax for 1877 are paid by them $2, are they not, at least to that amount, and so marked on your duplicate?—A. I credited my father with the $2 on the school-tax of 1877.

Q. Are his State and county taxes paid, or any portion of them, or so marked on your duplicate?—A. His State and county taxes are not marked paid.

Q. When did your mother pay these $2 taxes?—A. I am not positive as to the date. It was either June or July, I think.

Q. Did you get the money from your mother before you got the duplicate for the State and county taxes?—A. I got the money, as near as I can tell, in June or July. I think it was before I got the duplicate.

Q. Do you swear it was before you got the duplicate?—A. I am under the impression it was.

Q. What kind of taxes were you collecting before you got your duplicate for State and county taxes?—A. I was collecting school-taxes.

Q. Did you see William and Hugh McClinsey or either of them between October 4 and November 5, 1878?—A. Not to the best of my recollection.

Q. When did you pay over the school-tax, including the $2 paid by your father through your mother?—A. I don't know whether I ever paid it in or not.

Q. What is the best of your recollection as to the time, or whether it was paid at all or not?—A. To the best of my recollection if it was ever paid in it was paid after it was paid to me.

Q. When did you last pay over any school money?—A. As near as I can recollect it was week before last.

Q. Did that include all then in your hands?—A. No, sir.

Q. When before that had you paid over school money?—A. I don't see how I can answer that question conscientiously, because I can't remember dates.

Cross examined:

Q. When in your direct examination the question "Do you swear that Hugh McClinsey and William McClinsey paid you their State and county taxes on October 4, 1878" was asked you, to which you answered "I do not," did you request to make an explanation in addition to that answer?—A. I demanded an opportunity to explain how the taxes were paid.

(Witness did not ask to make any explanation after answering question until it was suggested to witness by counsel for contestant.—W. N. PROTHERO, notary public.)

Q. Did you not desire to make an explanation and had you an opportunity to be permitted to make the same?—A. I did desire to make an explanation and had no opportunity, for the reason that the committee was thrown into confusion just at that time. That is as near as I can tell it.

Q. Did you not desire to make that explanation before contestant's counsel made the suggestion that you should be permitted to do so?—A. I did.

Q. Did anything contestant's counsel said to you lead you to ask to be permitted to make such explanation, or did you ask to make it because you desired to do so of your own accord?—A. No, sir; I desired to do so of my own accord.

Q. Will you now make the explanation that you desired to make at that time in relation to the payment of Hugh McClinsey's and William McClinsey's taxes (State and county taxes)?—A. The explanation I wanted to make is this: At the time I received the State and county duplicate I canvassed the township, notified the tax payers of the taxes charged against them on the duplicate of 1878, and promised to call before the time expired for paying taxes to vote on at the November election of 1878, and circumstances not permitting me to fulfill that promise, I paid William McClinsey's and Hugh McClinsey's State and county taxes out of my own pocket on the 4th day of October, 1878, and carried them receipts until I saw them. At the same time the Messrs. McClinsey's was voting or going to vote against candidates that I was using my influence for, and I knew at the same time that they were going to vote against them candidates. I believe that is all the statement I have to make on that point.

Q. Did you keep the money which you received on your duplicate for State and county taxes separate from your own individual funds?—A. I did.

Q. Did you on the 4th day of October, 1878, take out of your individual funds the amount of Hugh McClinsey's State and county taxes for 1878, and also the amount of William McClinsey's State and county taxes for 1878, and put these amounts in the roll containing the moneys collected on duplicate of State and county taxes for 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Did you then mark Hugh McClinsey's State and county tax for 1878, and also William McClinsey's State and county tax for 1878, paid on your duplicate for the collection of State and county taxes for 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Did you then write the receipts for the payment of the State and county taxes of William McClinsey and of Hugh McClinsey for the year 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Then I understand you to say, do I, that you took the amount of William McClinsey's State and county taxes for 1878, and also the amount of Hugh McClinsey's State and county taxes for 1878, out of your individual moneys and placed the same with the money received on your duplicate for the collection of State and county taxes for the year 1878, and also wrote the receipts which you gave on the day of the election to William McClinsey and Hugh McClinsey on the 4th of October, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Did you on the 4th of October, 1878, become responsible to the commissioners of Clearfield County for the State and county taxes of Hugh McClinsey and William McClinsey for the year 1878, and were they so marked on your duplicate?—A. I considered myself responsible to the commissioners for the amount of their taxes.

Q. Did Hugh McClinsey and William McClinsey send you word before the 4th day of October, 1878, that they had the money to pay you their State and county taxes which you had for collection?—A. They did not, but told me personally they would have their taxes ready when I called again.

Q. Did you agree to call for their money before the time expired for the payment of State and county taxes so that they could vote on the same at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did so agree.

Q. Was it in pursuance of this agreement and because of your being unable to call for their money that you paid the same out of your individual money, and marked the same paid in your duplicate?—A. It was.

Q. Was it in pursuance of that agreement and by reason of your having had their taxes (State and county) on the 4th day of October, 1878, that you wrote and gave to them, William McClinsey and Hugh McClinsey, receipts for their State and county taxes for 1878?—A. It was.

Q. Were you collector of State and county taxes for Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were told, were you not, by the collector that your father's State and county taxes for 1877 were paid?—A. I was.

9.26 a. m., March 8, 1879, examination resumed.

Re-examined:

Q. How far do Hugh and William McClinsey live from you?—A. Ten miles, as near as I can tell.

Q. Did Hugh or William McClinsey authorize you to pay their taxes?—A. They never said anything to me about paying their taxes.

Q. Have they yet paid you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When, as near as you can tell?—A. On the 5th day of November, 1878, they paid me the money that I had paid for them.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did William McClinsey and Hugh McClinsey approve of the payment of the State and county taxes for 1878 which you made for them?—A. They did, and sent me word that they would pay me the first time they saw me.

Re-examined :

Q. Are not Hugh and William McClinsey Democrats?—A. I knew them to be Democrats at one time. I couldn't to them at present. And further saith not.

MELVILLE JOHNSON sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the general election in Decatur Township on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did you not vote at said election for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. That's more than I can tell you; something like over three years ago.

Q. Will or will you not be twenty-three years old in June, 1879?—A. I tell you I can't tell you that.

Q. Has or has not your mother told you that you were past twenty-two years of age when you voted on November 5, 1878?

(Objected to, for the reason that the age of the witness cannot be established by the declarations of an unsworn party; his mother, residing in the county of Clearfield, being a competent witness.)

A. No, sir, she has not; she told me when I came home from the election; she asked me what I voted on. I told her I voted on age. She asked me how old, and I said between twenty-one and twenty-two. She said she guessed I was mistaken, for she thought I was about twenty-two then.

Q. To the best of your knowledge, were you not past twenty-two years of age on November 5, 1878?—A. I judge I was.

Q. About how many years ago were you married?—A. Four years the 8th of last June.

Q. In what township and county did you pay the State and county tax over three years ago?—A. In Centre County, Rush Township, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax since that you paid over three years ago?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Cross-examined :

Q. When did you last pay a State and county tax?—A. Something over three years ago.

Q. Who to?—A. I don't recollect who the tax-collector was.

Q. Do you know in what year you were born?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. What information have you as to your age, except this statement of the talk with your mother on last November election-day?—A. I judge I was over twenty-two.

Q. Have your father and mother any record of your birth?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you made any inquiry of any person, besides your mother, as to your age?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. Have you talked to her about it since November election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has she in any way fixed the year in which you were born?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you under the belief on election-day that you were right in voting on age?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you think when you voted you were between twenty-one and twenty-two?—A. I had it in my mind that I was a little over twenty-two.

Q. When—that is, how long before you voted did you read your ticket?—A. Did not read it at all; can't read.

Q. Who did you get it from?—A. Steve Test.

Q. Where was he when you got the ticket?—A. In the school-house where election was held.

Q. Whose name was on the ticket you voted for the office of governor?—A. I don't know nothing about that.

Q. Whose name was on for judge?—A. I don't know that.

Q. Whose name was on for legislature?—A. I don't know that.

Q. How many parts were there of the ballot or ticket you put in or voted?—A. I don't mind how many.

Q. Was the ticket folded or unfolded when it was given you?—A. Folded.

Q. How do you know Curtin's name was on the ticket when you cannot remember any other name on the ticket?—A. Steve Test told me.

Q. Then you do not testify from your own knowledge of what is on the ticket, but only from what Test told you?—A. That's all.

Q. Did you after Test gave you that ticket ask any one to read it for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you swear now from your own knowledge how you voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. I thought you swore a few moments ago that you only testified from what you were told?—A. I did.

Q. How does it come that you do not know for whom you voted for governor?—A. Because they did not tell me.

Q. Have you any knowledge of how you voted, except what some one told you?—A. No, sir.

Q. What was said to you at the time you got the ticket?—A. Not anything at all that I know of.

Q. Did not the man who gave you the ticket say anything to you at that time?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Did he or not tell you who was on for governor and who for the other officers named?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Did he or not say anything about who was on the ticket?—A. No, sir; he said it was a Democratic ticket was all he said.

Q. Is that all you know about the ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. I live in Wallaceton Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; am twenty-seven years old last February.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay any State or county taxes in 1876 on or before October 1, 1876?

(Objected to as immaterial, for the reason that, under the law as it now stands in Pennsylvania, the question is, has the witness paid a State or county tax within two years and more than one month before November 5, 1878?)

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you last pay a State or county tax?—A. In 1877; in the fall some time.

Q. To whom did you pay such tax?—A. To Levi Goss.

Q. Where does Levi Goss live?—A. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you pay Goss?—A. I paid him on Weizer and Bender's lumber yard in Decatur Township.

Q. Did you take a receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is the receipt?—A. I lost it, I think; I could not find it when I started.

Q. What kind of tax did you pay Levi Goss in the fall of 1877?—A. State and county.

Q. Was not Levi Goss collecting other taxes than State and county?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. How much money did you pay him?—A. Fifty cents.

Q. When was you married?—A. I was married about seven years ago; was twenty years old when I was married.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. In Wallaceton Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election of November 5, 1878, for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Except the taxes you say you paid Goss in 1877, had you paid any other State or county taxes within the two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the borough of Wallaceton for at least two months immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you come to pay taxes to Goss, the collector of Decatur Township?—A. I lived in Decatur Township in 1877.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was you born in the State and lived in it one whole year preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes sir; I was born in the State and never lived out of the State.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. I live now in Bell Township.

Q. Where did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted in New Washington Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for Curtin; I suppose I voted the straightout Democratic ticket.

Q. Don't you know that you voted for Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes.

Q. Where was your family on the day of election of November 5, 1878?—A. In Bell Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did they go there?—A. I think I moved there the 17th of September, 1878.

Q. How much of a family have you got?—A. I have a wife and four children living.

Q. How long did you and your family reside in Bell Township after moving there on September 17, 1878?—A. I still live there.

Q. Are you keeping house there still?—A. You might call it keeping house or keeping shanty.

Q. What business are you engaged in there?—A. Cutting round logs and making square timber.

Q. For whom?—A. James McGhee and Frank Mahaffy.

Q. How long do you expect to remain there?—A. That's pretty hard to answer. I expect to return home as soon as we have one flood to get off down the river.

Q. Before moving to Bell Township did you live in your own or a rented house?—A. My property was sold by the sheriff last fall as my property.

Q. What time in the fall was it sold?—A. Some time before I moved; I don't just remember.

Q. Did you take all your household goods with you?—A. No, sir; I did not; my furniture is all at home.

Q. Is that property there yet?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who owns the property now?—A. Jas. R. McMurray.

Q. Has any one got it rented from him so far as you know?—A. No; I hold possession of the house, and have the privilege of selling the property and satisfying him.

Q. Has he given you the right to redeem it?

(Objected to, because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. He has given me this privilege of staying there; and, if I have a chance, to make the money out of the property by selling it and paying him.

Q. Under your arrangement with McMurray, the owner of the property, have you the right to move back into it at any time?—A. Why certainly; me or some of my family. We are back there every week or so since I left.

Q. When do you expect to move back there?—A. My family might go back there while I am down the river.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where was the permanent home of yourself and family on the 5th of November, 1878, and for more than two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. In New Washington Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. What is your occupation?—A. Lumbering, jobbing.

Q. Have you in past years lived in New Washington Borough and made that place the home of yourself and family, and if so for about how many years?—A. I have lived there myself for about thirty-four or thirty-five years, ever since I can recollect. I have been something over fourteen years. I was married there and lived there ever since.

Q. Have you always voted in New Washington Borough, Clearfield

County, Pennsylvania?—A. Always; I never was assessed or paid taxes any place else.

Q. Have you been in the habit of taking jobs and removing your family to your camp in past years and remaining there until you would complete your job and then return to your home as soon as the same was completed?—A. I did last year, 1877, move my family to the camp and returned home in the spring. I moved to camp on September 17, 1878, and intend removing to my home in New Washington in the spring of 1879.

Q. When you left your home in New Washington in September, 1878, did you leave it with the intention of making a home for yourself elsewhere?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you, when you moved your family in September, 1878, from your home in New Washington to your camp, remove them there simply to board yourself and men during the continuance of your job, on completion of which you would return to New Washington, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you moved your goods, or the portion of them you did move, from New Washington Borough, did you take more than what was necessary for the purpose of boarding yourself and your men in your shanty in Bell Township?—A. Just what I could get along with in camp.

Q. Where did you leave the balance of your household goods?—A. Locked up in the house at home, in New Washington Borough.

Q. Did you have possession of the house from the time you moved, and do you still have possession of the house in which you left balance of your goods in New Washington Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, when you removed therefrom in September, 1878?—A. I did; and have yet.

Q. Then I understand you to say, do I, that your permanent residence for more than two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, was in New Washington Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir, of course; I never had any other residence.

Q. When you removed from your home in September, 1878, you intended simply to be absent until you would complete the job of work which you had taken in Bell Township; and you removed your family to Bell Township that you might board yourself and men, did you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you intend to remove your family back to your home in New Washington Borough as soon as your job is in a condition in which you can leave it?—A. I do.

Re-examined:

Q. How soon after the sheriff's sale of your property did you move to Bell Township?—A. It might of been a couple of months.

Q. Have you any contract with McMurray, the purchaser, in regard to the property?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. Verbally I have; I have no written contract.

Q. Did he ever give you notice to quit possession after the sheriff sale?—A. He did not; he told me to stay there and use it as my own.

And further saith not.

Now, March 10, 1879, it is agreed between counsel for contestant and contestee that the testimony of the witness now sworn be taken now with same effect as if due and sufficient notice had been given as required by the act of Congress.

J. F. SNYDER,
Of Counsel for Contestant.
CYRUS GORDON,
For Contestee.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Bloom Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you move into Bloom Township with your family?—A. The 25th of October, 1878.

Q. Did you move your family there with the intention of making that your permanent home?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you take with you the greater part of your goods?—A. I did; I took four loads; that was the greater part of them.

Q. Have they resided there ever since?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you move from, and who owned the house you lived in before moving?—A. I moved from Belleville, Greenwood Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I lived in the house belonging to estate of David Bell, deceased.

Q. When did your lease for said house expire?—A. The 25th of October, 1878, the day I moved my family from there.

Q. Where did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. In Greenwood Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. For whom did you vote, at said election, for Congress?—A. Andy Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you remain, yourself, in Greenwood Township till after November 5, 1878—the day of general election?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Why did you remove your family on October 25, 1878, from Greenwood Township?—A. Because my time had expired for which I had the house, and the weather was getting bad.

Q. When did you take the last load of goods away?—A. On the 5th of November—the day of election.

Q. Did you not remain in Greenwood Township until the day of election that you might vote there?—A. Yes, sir; that is what I remained there for.

Q. Had you gained a residence in Bloom Township before November 5, 1878?—A. No; I had not.

Q. Did you vote any place else on November 5, 1878, than in Greenwood Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Re-examined;

Q. With whom did you board after moving away from Greenwood Township?—A. David Young.

Q. Did you not make your home with your family and visit them frequently after moving, October 25, 1878, and before the election?—A. I was just out over one Sunday. Went to get a change of clothes. My family did my washing.

Q. Have you and your family resided in Bloom Township ever since the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; we have.

Q. What were you doing in Greenwood Township just before the election?—A. Making square timber.

Q. Were you engaged in that work at the time you moved and until the day of the election?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Did you continue at the same work after the election?—A. No, sir; I finished the Saturday before the election.

Q. What were you doing between Saturday and the time you voted?—A. Well, I went home on Saturday night, and came back on Monday with a team. I staid all night in Belleville. Voted next morning, and then went home with a load of my goods.

And further saith not.

THOMAS A. SMITH.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Jordan Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in said township at the general election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote at said election, for Congress?—A. I voted in Jordan Township. I voted for Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. I was twenty-one last August.

Q. Have you with you your family Bible?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Examine it and see when you were born.—A. I cannot read.

(Witness produces Bible, and the following entry is copied therefrom :
"David V. Curry was born August the 12th, 1857.")

Cross-examined :

Q. When you voted at the general election on November 5, 1878, did you vote on age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you sworn by the election board, and by them asked your age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket before voting?—A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you collector of State and county taxes for Decatur Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For how many years back have you been collector of such taxes for Decatur Township?—A. I have been from 1873 or 1874 continuously up to the present time.

Q. Do you know Wm. Williams, sen'r?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he pay a State or county tax to you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878? and, if so, state the time as near as you can.—A. Yes, sir; to the best of my knowledge it was in January, 1877.

Q. Do you know Jerry Sankey, and did he pay you a State and county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; he did; he paid it at the spring election of 1877.

Q. Did Benj. Barr and Wm. Moffatt pay State and county taxes to you within two years preceding the said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes; they did.

Q. Did Abram Hummell pay any State or county tax to you within two years preceding the said election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did not, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Do you or do you not know that Abram Hummell did not pay any such tax within those two years?—A. I do know that he did not; he was never assessed in any State or county book that came into my hands; there was a Henry Hummell assessed in my book for 1877, and Abram Hummell moved out of Decatur Township some time in July of 1877, and the State and county tax-book did not come into my hands for 1877 until after the 9th of August, 1877.

Q. Is the name of Abram Hummell on any of your State and county duplicates?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you in 1877 a collector of any other taxes?—A. Yes, sir; school taxes.

Q. Did Abram Hummel in that year pay you any school tax?—A. No, sir; the name of Abram Hummel don't appear on my school-tax book.

Q. Did P. B. Zentmeyer pay you any State or county taxes on election day, November 5, 1878; and, if so, for how many persons?

(Objected to as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. He did. I cannot tell you positively for how many persons; from four to six persons.

Q. Had you sent any tax receipts to Zentmeyer before that with the dates left blank?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many?—A. From four to six.

Q. Were those receipts for the persons for whom he paid the taxes on day of election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Cannot you give their names?—A. I cannot all.

Q. Have you your duplicates with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know what dates Zentmeyer filled into those receipts?—A. I do not.

Q. Were the taxes Zentmeyer paid you on day of election the only State and county taxes he paid you after October 5, 1878, and before the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the politics of P. B. Zentmeyer.

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. Democrat.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did not Abram Hummel pay you 50 cents State and county taxes in the fall of 1877, in Weisser and Bender's lumberyard in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and you not give him a receipt for it, and was not this his registry tax?—A. No, sir; not as I have any knowledge of. Never gave him a receipt that I have any knowledge of.

Q. Then he may have paid you such a tax and you may have forgotten of his paying you the same?—A. No, sir; I don't think that he could.

Q. When William Williams paid you taxes, did you not give him a statement of the same, or had you not given him a statement before he paid them?—A. Yes, sir; I gave him a statement some two or three different times.

Q. Had you not other taxes against William Williams beside State and county?—A. Yes, sir. School tax.

Q. Has William Williams paid you his State, county, and school taxes within two years preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. He has not paid me any school tax within two years.

Q. Will the statement which you gave William Williams show what taxes he paid you within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I don't think it would, but the receipt would show.

Re-examined:

Q. Did Milton Owens ever pay to you any State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was it paid, and did he pay it himself?—A. It was paid on the day of the election, November 5, 1878, by his father.

Q. Was that the only State and county tax he ever paid you or that was paid by any other person for him?—A. Yes, sir; that was the only one that was paid to me.

Q. How long has Milton Owens resided in Decatur Township?—A. He has been there for five or six years immediately preceding the election of November, 1878.

Q. Has he lived there continuously for those five or six years?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you well acquainted with him, and how far do you live from where he does?—A. Yes, sir; and I live about two miles from him.

Q. Did Milton Owens vote in Decatur Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I believe he did.

Q. What is his politics?

(Objected to for the reason that Milton Owens is a resident of Clearfield County, and of twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, and his testimony can be had, and he is therefore the best evidence, and for the further reason that the evidence is hearsay.)

A. Democrat, I believe.

Q. What was his age on November 5, 1878, as near as you can tell?

(Objected to as hearsay, as the party himself can be had, and it is therefore not the best evidence.)

A. As near as I can tell he was between twenty-two and twenty-three years of age.

And further saith not.

One o'clock p. m., March 11, 1879, examination resumed.

FRANK M. BURCH affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Jordan Township Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you present at the election in Jordan Township held November 5, 1878?—A. Part of the day and in the evening when they were counting off.

Q. What time in the day did you come there?—A. I was there two or three hours in the forenoon and about the same in the afternoon, and in the evening until they were done counting off.

Q. Were outsiders permitted to go in and out of the room in which the election was held during the day, and while the votes were being counted?—A. Yes, sir; they were.

Q. Were not persons permitted to go in and out at their pleasure?—A. They were.

Q. About how many persons would be in at one time?—A. Pretty hard to tell. Sometimes it would be full. I suppose there would be, maybe, thirty, and sometimes not so many—just as the excitement happened.

Q. Was not the room in which the election was held a public resort on that day?—A. I think it was. Everybody was allowed to run in and out.

Q. Were the ballots all numbered as they were received?—A. They were not.

Q. How many were received before they began numbering?—A. Well, it was either four or five. I am not positive which.

Q. Did they then begin to number them?—A. They did.

Q. When were the four or five first received numbered?—A. They tried to number them when they was counting off.

Q. When, in counting off, they came to a ballot that was not numbered, did they put a number upon it?—A. I think they numbered two of them, and they said they could not number the rest, for they couldn't tell how they voted, or who they belonged to.

Q. Were all persons who voted by virtue of being naturalized required to produce their papers?—A. I don't know if any was in the township but one, and he had been voting there for years.

Q. Were persons who claimed the right to vote, whose names were not on the registry list, or who had been challenged, required to make and sign any affidavit?—A. None, to my knowledge.

Q. Who comprised the election board, and what is the politics of each?—A. John Patterson was judge as a Democrat; inspector, John McCrackin, a Democrat; the other inspector was Joseph McNeel, a Republican; one clerk, Sylvester Weimer, a Democrat; and A. W. Young, a clerk, was Republican. I may be mistaken in the first name of Inspector McCrackin; it may be James or John.

Q. Was Joseph McNeel minority inspector?—A. He was.

Q. What was done with the ballot-box after the votes were counted?—A. I could not say for certain, but I think that Squire Wiemer took it up to his house.

Q. Was it sealed?—A. I could not say.

Q. Do you know Robert Biddle?—A. Yes, sir; I know him.

Q. Did he vote in Jordan Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did.

Q. For whom did he vote at said election for Congress, and how do you know?—A. I heard him say that he voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

Q. Did Biddle tell you before he voted that he intended to vote Curtin?—A. He did not.

Q. Did the said Robert Biddle reside in Jordan Township for two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I think not.

Q. Where did he reside before coming into the township of Jordan during those two months?—A. He was at young John Chase's, in Woodward Township.

Q. Was he a married man, and did he have any family?—A. No family, as far as I know, and was not married as I know of.

Q. How long before the election was it that he came into Jordan Township?—A. I think it was about twenty days.

Q. With whom did he live from that to the election?—A. Wm. T. Bloom.

Q. Before coming into Jordan Township, as stated, had he been making his home at John Chase's, in Woodward Township?—A. That is the way I heard the story, about his living there.

Q. Do you know Robert Patterson, and did he vote in Jordan Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did, and I know him.

Q. For whom did he vote at said election for Congress, and from what source did you derive your knowledge?—A. I heard him say he did.

Q. Did he tell you before he voted that he intended to vote for Curtin?—A. No, sir; he told me afterwards that he had voted for Curtin.

Q. Did Robert Patterson reside in Jordan Township for two months or more, immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He did not.

Q. When during those two months did he come into the township?—A. I think it was forty-five or fifty days before the election.

Q. Where did he come from?—A. From John Withero's, in Knox Township.

Q. Had he been making his home at John Withero's, in Knox Township, before coming into Jordan Township, as stated?—A. He was working at John Withero's all summer and fall.

Q. Which Robert Patterson do you refer to?—A. John Patterson's son, Robert.

Q. Where is he now?—A. At his father's. The doctor, his physician, say he has the dropsy; they say the dropsy of the brain.

Q. Is he able to leave home, or could he be brought here to testify?—A. In my opinion he is not able to leave home. He is in bad condition and nearly blind.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you see anything done by the election board of Jordan Township fraudulently?—A. No, sir; I think not.

Q. Did not the board, in your opinion, conduct that election fairly and honestly, according to the best of their knowledge of the law?—A. Yes, sir, with the exception that they knew it was against the law to keep open doors.

Q. Did the persons—the outsiders, I mean—who went into the election room interfere in putting in or taking out, while the election was going on, any tickets or election papers?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Was anything of this kind done by such outsiders during the counting off?—A. No, sir; not to my knowledge.

Q. At how many elections in Jordan Township, general and local, have you been present?—A. Three, I think.

Q. Has not the election-house been open so that persons could go in and out at those elections, as well as at that one of November 5, 1878?—

A. All the elections that I have been at, with the exception of the last, that is this spring election, have been conducted the same way.

Q. The majority of the election board, as I understand you, was Democratic?—A. Yes.

Q. In counting off, did not the board throw out three Curtin tickets, because the sheep-law ticket, which was printed at the end of the county ticket, was not detached?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. Yes, sir; they did.

Q. Was it the first four or five ballots that were voted that were not numbered?—A. Yes, sir, it was the first four or five.

Q. From that time until the close of the polls were the ballots numbered?—A. I believe they were, sir.

Q. Who in that township voted that was a naturalized citizen?—A. Patrick McCardell is the only one I think of.

Q. Has he not lived and voted in that district of Jordan for over five years?—A. I think he has.

Q. How many persons voted at that election whose names were not on the registry?—A. Not any that I know of.

Q. Was Wiemer, who took the ballot-box after the election was over, a justice of the peace at the time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. After the board finished counting, was the result announced publicly?—A. Not according to law, if I understand the law. They stated who was elected; they read the names off, and the number of votes that each man received. They did not, to the best of my knowledge, put up a paper showing the result. I looked for it but could not find it.

Q. When did you look for it?—A. The next day after election.

Q. Where did Robert Biddell have his home prior to his going to John Chase's, jr.?—A. At Wm. T. Bloom's.

Q. What was he doing while at Chase's?—A. I heard he was gathering a root called ginseng.

Q. Do you know whether or not he changed at any time within three years past the place where he got his washing and mending done?—A. I don't know where he got his washing and mending done.

Q. Did not John Patterson, the father of Robert Patterson, who is sick, reside in Jordan Township ever since you have been there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is Robert Patterson a single man?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you not know that up to the time when you say he went to work for Withero, and since he came from there, he had his home at his father's?—A. Yes, sir; I believe he had.

Q. Do you know whether or not he voted on age and was sworn by the board?—A. I do not.

Q. What was he doing while at Withero's?—A. Farming, I think.

Q. By the day, month, or on the shares?—A. I could not say which.

Q. Do you know anything about his age?—A. I could not be positive in regard to his age; I think he is about twenty-three years of age; I don't know.

Q. Was you present when he voted?—A. I was not.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Jordan Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in said township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election?—A. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir; on June 13, 1877, to Captain McGaughey, county treasurer.

Q. Was that the only State or county tax you paid within those two years?—A. No, sir; I paid all my State and county taxes up to the present time.

Q. When did you pay any other State and county taxes?—A. In the years 1877 and 1878.

Q. What time in 1878, and to whom?—A. In the summer, to William T. Bloom.

Q. Have you a receipt to that payment of tax?—A. No, sir.

GEORGE R. HART, jr., sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Morris Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. For whom did you intend to vote when you went to the election?—A. Well, I couldn't say exactly what my intention was who I was going to vote for. I was going to see first how the election was going to run. They asked me there who I was going to vote for; I told them I had a notion to vote the Greenback ticket.

Q. Did you not intend to vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. That's what I have been telling you.

Q. Were any inducements held out to you to induce you to vote for Curtin?—A. Jack Sancroft said that if I would vote that ticket he would give me my dinner free.

Q. Did you agree to do so?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he give you a ticket to vote in pursuance of the arrangement he made with you, and did he go with you to the polls and see you vote it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he afterwards give you your dinner as he agreed to?—A. Yes, sir; he done so.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you sell your vote for your dinner?—A. Why, it is just as I have said; if you make that out selling a vote for my dinner, why, it's sold, I guess.

Q. Had you fully made up your mind how you was going to vote, and fully decided how you were going to vote before you saw Sancroft, or had you just been thinking about voting the Greenback ticket without having fully decided to do so?—A. I hadn't made up my mind as to how I was going to vote before I went to see Sancroft.

Q. Had you at any time before you saw Sancroft decided in your own mind how you was going to vote?—A. I said I was going to vote the Greenback ticket.

Q. When was that?—A. On election day.

Q. Had you your ticket at the time you said that—a Greenback ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you at that time know who was the candidates on the Greenback ticket for governor and Congress?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not go to the election intending to see how it was going, and then make up your mind and vote accordingly?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived in Morris Township?—A. I was born in Morris Township, and lived there ever since. I am about twenty-five years old now.

Q. Did or did not Sancroft give any other reason why you should not vote the Greenback ticket, than simply to say he would give you your dinner?—A. Jack Sancroft said that my father always voted the Democratic ticket, and I ought to vote the same; that is all that was said about that.

Q. Had or had not that as much or more to do with your voting the Democratic ticket as his saying he would give you your dinner?—A. I voted that way because he gave me my dinner.

Q. Had you fully decided to vote any other way?—A. I had not made up my mind altogether as to how I was going to vote.

Q. Did you know at that time that Seth H. Yocum's name was on the Greenback ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. You had not then at that time decided to vote for him?—A. I hadn't made up my mind who I was going to vote for.

Q. Was that a good dinner or only one of the ordinary kind?—A. The dinner was—if could have it every day that way I could stand it.

Re-examined.

Q. Would you not have voted the Greenback ticket had you not seen Sancroft?—A. Well, that would of been hard to tell for who I would of voted for.

Q. Were you a member of the Greenback Club in Morris Township, or did you attend any of its meetings?—A. No, sir; and I did not attend any of their meetings.

Q. When Sancroft approached you, did you tell him you intended to vote the Greenback ticket?—A. I told him I had a notion to vote the Greenback ticket.

Recross-examined:

Q. Had you before that election always voted the Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Morris Township at election of November, 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did; I voted for Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax for two years preceding the said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. I paid to Warren Hollenback in 1876 and 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt for your 1877 tax?—A. No; I have not, but Hollenback is here.

Q. Are you sure you do not live across the line and in Graham or Boggs Township?—A. I am assessed in Morris Township, and I live on the McCanally tract; it is assessed in Morris Township.

Q. Did you not say to Mr. Shimmel that you lived in Graham Township?—A. I never talked to Mr. Shimmel anything about, as I know of.

Q. Did you ever say to Clark Cone that your house was not in Morris Township, but was across the line, and either in Boggs or Graham Township?—A. No, sir; but he wanted me to swear possibly it might be over in Boggs or Graham.

Cross-examined:

Q. When was it that Cone wanted you to swear this?—A. Why, it was to-day.

Q. Since you came here?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was you born in the county?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your age?—A. About thirty, I think.

Q. Did you live in the State one year and in Morris Township for two months immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

W. E. DIVINEY produced and sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided in said Morris Township?—A. Twenty or twenty-one years.

Q. Were you one of the inspectors of Morris Township for the general election held November 5, 1875?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Was you present as one of the inspectors during the election on said day in Morris Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom was the election board sworn—that is, the election board of Morris Township which held the election of November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of this witness now sworn so far as the same relates to the swearing or qualifying of the election officers who held the election of November 5, 1878, in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for the reason that the contestee in his answer to notice of contest did not allege that said election board in said township of Morris were not duly and legally qualified and sworn to perform their respective duties as such officers, and the testimony is therefore irrelevant. Counsel for contestant reserves the right to withdraw this objection when the cause shall come on to be heard before the committee of Congress.)

A. Sworn by A. W. Raymond, justice of the peace of Morris Township.

Q. Were both the judge and both of the inspectors at said election sworn in by said justice of the peace, and by no one else?—A. Yes, sir; they were sworn in by him, and by no one else.

Q. You say that you was one of the inspectors; now please give the names of the judge and the other inspector.

(Objected to because it is not the best evidence; the returns of said election, being on file in the office of prothonotary of Clearfield County, are the best evidence of who was or was not officers in said township of Morris, at said election.)

A. Peter Moyer was judge and Joseph Raymond was the other inspector.

Q. Was the judge present at the said election all the time?—A. No, sir; he was not all the time; he was out a few times, but not to amount to anything; down to his store, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Did said election board have the registry list at the place of election, and were the names of the voters checked off as each man voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did any persons vote whose names were not on the registry list?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When they voted were these names added to the registry list?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were there any persons except the board and the clerks in the election room while the voting was going on and the votes being counted?—A. There was at different times.

Q. After the vote or ballots were counted, was the ballot-box sealed? (Objected to because it is immaterial what was done to or with the ballot-box after the votes were counted, since no recount of the votes cast at said election in said township had been ordered. The evidence is therefore immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Who took charge of the ballot-box after the ballots were counted? (Objected to for the same reason as in the preceding objection.)

A. Peter Moyer, the judge of election.

Q. For how long after the said election did Peter Moyer, the judge, have possession of the ballot-box of Morris Township?—A. I don't know exactly; I think it was some five or six weeks.

Q. What is the politics of Peter Moyer, the judge?—A. He is a Democrat.

Cross-examined:

Q. During the times that persons were in the room other than members of the election board were the election officers interfered with in any way in the performance of their duties or was the ballot-box meddled with by outsiders?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were all the members of the election board of Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, sworn and qualified by A. W. Raymond as justice of the peace in and for Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When persons whose names were not upon the registry offered to vote, did you require them to give you satisfactory evidence that they were qualified voters in said township of Morris before you received their votes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were the votes which were cast on November 5, 1878, in Morris Township correctly counted, and the number received by each candidate ascertained?—A. I think they were.

Q. As soon as the result of said election in said township was ascertained was such proclamation made of said result as to give it publicity?—A. Yes, sir. A brief statement showing the number of votes cast for each candidate was made and posted on the door of the election-house.

Q. Were you the minority inspector of said election in Morris Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When Peter Moyer, the judge, was absent from the election-house, was he absent for any length of time?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. About what time on November 5, 1878, were the election polls of Morris Township opened?—A. Pretty near eight o'clock in the morning.

Q. Was each member of the election board sworn in by Raymond, justice of the peace, about eight o'clock a. m., November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

JAMES P. FOLMER affirmed.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Morris Township at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted there, and for Mr. Curtin.

Q. When, in 1878, did you go to Centre County to work?—A. The 4th day of May.

Q. For whom?—A. J. C. Nason.

Q. Where did he live?—A. In Black Bear, Rush Township, Centre County, and at Bald Eagle Ridges (Pleasant Valley).

Q. When did you quit working for Nason and return to Morris Township?—A. I quit a while before the election; then I went back, worked again after the election a while for him.

Q. How long was it before the election that you came back?—A. Could not just say; it was two or three weeks, I expect.

Q. Was it as much as a month before?—A. It was about three weeks, I think, as near as I can tell.

Q. Don't you know it was less than a month before?—A. Yes; it was less than a month.

Q. Did you work for Nason, in Centre County, from the time you went there in May till you returned, a short time before the election?—

A. No, sir; I came back and worked for father, J. N. Fulmer.

Q. How long did you work for your father during that time?—A. I came back and worked a week or two still, and then back to Nason again.

Q. How many times did you thus return and work for your father a week?—A. Three times; and the fourth time I staid till after the election, and then went back to Nason's.

Q. Were you working for yourself, lifting your own wages, and supporting yourself during that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What kind of work was you engaged in with Nason?—A. I was hewing stringers, laying ties, and working on the tram-road.

Q. How soon after the election did you go back to Nason?—A. About a month and a half, as near as I can tell.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. I was twenty-seven the 4th day of last May.

Q. What part of the time you were with Nason were you at Bald Eagle Ridges?—A. After harvest I was there about three weeks, digging a well.

Q. Was that all the time you were at Bald Eagle Ridges?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far is it from where your father lives to where Nason lives?—A. I judge it's eight or nine miles; maybe ten.

Q. Did Nason board you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you registered as a citizen of Rush Township, and did you vote there at any time during the year 1878?—A. I was not registered that I know of; if they registered me they done it of their own accord. I voted at nomination; they called it caucus.

Q. Was it at the election of delegates of Democratic party?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not, before voting at said election, swear that you were a citizen of said township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not say that you were?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was not the election board told that you were a citizen by some one?—A. Not as I know of.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where was your house before and since the election of November 5, 1878?—A. With my father, in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you ever had, within two years past, your home anywhere else than with your father?—A. No, sir; I always counted it my home.

Q. Was you not regularly registered and assessed in Morris Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, at the November election of 1878, vote anywhere else than in Morris Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was you working for Nason in a lumber operation, except the time you dug a well for him?—A. Since I dug the well I have not been working in the lumber for him; I worked a few days on the farm.

And further saith not.

Question. Were you called yesterday as a witness?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you minority inspector in Morris Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were outsiders permitted to go in and out of the room where the election was held during the day, and while the votes were being counted off?—A. Yes, sir; they was in and out at times.

Q. About how many such persons would be in at one time?—A. There was one time probably a dozen in.

Q. Were they in most of the time?—A. No, sir; not except those with checkers, parties with window books.

Q. Persons were also present, were they, while the vote was being counted?—A. There were some.

Q. Who had charge of the registry, and by whom were the names checked off and others added?—A. John Hoover, the assessor.

Q. Was he a member of the board?—A. I think the assessor is a member of the board. I don't know. That's my opinion of the law.

Q. Was he there merely as assessor?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did any of the members of the election board or clerks hold any other offices?—A. One of the clerks, James Thompson, held the office of township clerk.

Q. Were any of them candidates at said election?—A. Yes, sir; the other clerk, John E. Hockenbury, was a candidate for county auditor on the Greenback ticket.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did persons other than the election board in any way, during the time ballots were being received or were being counted off, interfere by putting in or taking out any papers into or out of the ballot-box that night or that day?—A. No, sir.

Q. James Thompson, the clerk, who held the high and exalted position of township clerk, was a Republican or Greenback, was he not?—A. I think he voted the Greenback ticket.

Q. In conducting the election, were persons offered to vote whose names were not on the registry, were they required to be sworn as to their legal qualification, and to also produce a witness who was sworn as to their residence in Morris Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the election, to the best of the understanding of the board as to the election law as well as in other particulars, conducted legally, fairly, and honestly without respect to party?—A. I think it was.

Q. Did you pay other State or county taxes within those two years for which you have no receipts?—A. I don't know; I could not—don't mind.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long is it since you saw your father's certificate of citizenship?—A. I see part of it this week; I seen part of it yesterday; had a notion to brought it over, but it was torn.

Q. What was the date of it?—A. I don't know what's the date; think it was 1855; can't tell.

Q. Do you say that it was 1855, or that you can tell the date; which?—A. I think it is 1855; yes.

Q. How many years after your father came to this country until he was naturalized, if you can tell?—A. About five years till he got his naturalization papers.

Q. In what year and month were you born?—A. In December. I don't know exactly what year; I think 1835.

Q. How do you fix the time of your birth?—A. Why, I have got a paper, and its date is 22d of February, 1835.

Q. When did you look at that date last?—A. After I was called as a witness here for contestant.

Q. How old was your father when he was naturalized?—A. I don't know exactly; can't tell without stopping to count.

Q. What time in the fall, if you can tell, did you land in this country?—A. I think in September.

Q. Did the election board require you to produce your father's papers or be sworn?—A. Never; not in our township.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you been voting for more than five years immediately preceding the election of November, 1878, in Girard Township?—A. Yes, sir; I voted for six years straight along in this county.

Recross-examined:

Q. At how many of these elections during those six years did you produce before the election board either your father's papers or a certificate from the court here that your father was naturalized?—A. No; I never produced either of them.

And further saith not.

SIMON P. JURY affirmed.

Question. When and where were you born?—Answer. In Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; I was born in 1852, April 5.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Girard Township for more than one year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding the said election of November 5, 1878, that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you any receipt, and will you produce and read it?—A. Yes, sir; can't read it.

It read as follows:

“GIRARD TOWNSHIP, June 10, 1878.

“Received of Simon P. Jury the sum of 26 cents, being his State and county tax for 1877.

(Signed)

“JOHN R. CARR,
“Collector.”

Q. Are you the Simon P. Jury that was called and examined as a witness for contestant?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you get that tax-receipt?—A. That's something I can't tell you. It was left there for me at home.

Q. Can't you tell when it was left there for you?—A. I got it a week or two before I was up the other time testifying.

Q. Who brought it to your house, if you know?—A. John Carr.

Q. How long after the election was that?—A. It was in the last of December he brought it to me.

Q. Was you at home?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who told him to bring the receipt to your home?—A. Indeed I could not tell you that. He just fetched it.

Q. Did you ask him at any time to bring you this receipt?—A. No, sir; I didn't.

Q. Who paid this tax?—A. I did; paid it to him.

Q. When?—A. It was in June—about 9th or 10th—1878.

Q. Did you ask him for a receipt then?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did you pay it?—A. I paid it in money.

Q. Where?—A. At my father's.

Q. What did he say was his reason for bringing this receipt?—A. Well, indeed I could not tell you. He brought it before (awhile) I was subpoenaed here first.

Q. Had Carr his duplicate showing the amount of your taxes with him in June when you say you paid them?—A. No, sir; he had not, not as I seen.

Q. Had he them on a slip of paper?—A. No, sir.

Q. What was he doing there at your father's?—A. That's something I can't tell you.

Q. How did you come to pay the tax, and how did you know the amount?—A. He had asked me one time for it and I had not it along.

Q. How long before this time in June was it he asked you for them?—A. Some time about the middle of May.

Q. Did you ask him for a receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see him between the 9th and 10th of June and in December when you got this receipt?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. About how many times?—A. I seen him a good many times.

Q. Did you ever speak to him about a receipt for the taxes you paid in June?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. So far as you know, then, he sent you this receipt or left it at your house without being asked to do so?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Can't you fix the time when it was left there?—A. No, sir, I can't do it.

Q. How long was it before you came here to testify the first time?—A. I guess it was a week or two, as near as I can tell.

Q. Did you find this tax-receipt left at your house after a man had been to your house to subpoena you to appear and testify on part of the contestant?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many days after Mr. Walters was there with the subpoena until you found this receipt had been left?—A. The second day; that is the day after.

Q. How far does Carr, the collector, live from your house?—A. About a mile and a quarter.

Q. Was you sworn by the election board?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. No, sir; I was not.

Q. Was any proof of any kind required of you by the board before you voted?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Then this tax-receipt was left or brought to your house after you had been subpoenaed by contestant, and without your knowledge or direction?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. When, and to whom?—A. I always paid my tax to John Carr.

Q. Did you pay any State and county tax in the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Who to?—A. John Carr.

Q. Was or was not that your taxes of 1876?—A. They was for 1876.

Q. Have you any receipt for the State and county tax you paid in 1877?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. Did you ever have one, and what has become of it?—A. I never took a receipt, only this one.

Q. Do you know what time in 1877 you paid that tax?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Recross-examined:

Q. How much tax did you pay in 1877?—A. Either 24 or 25 cents. And further saith not.

WESLEY MCGOVERN sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When and where were you born?—A. In Girard Township; the 25th of December, 1855.

Q. Are you married?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you reside for one whole year and more in the State of Pennsylvania before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Girard Township for more than two months preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Have you any receipts for the payment of such taxes?—A. I have at home, mislaid some place.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you pay State and county tax, and to whom?—A. This spring—last spring, I mean to say; 1878; to the tax-collector of Girard Township. I mean to the county treasurer in Clearfield.

Q. What is your full name?—A. Sylvester McGovern.

Q. How old is your brother next younger than you?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. I can't tell you; somewhere about eighteen or nineteen years.

Q. Was you sworn by the election board before you voted?—A. No, but my father was there; they took his word for it for my age.

Q. Are you sure that you were not sworn?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did the board require you to sign any paper?—A. No.

Q. Is there any other family of the same name in your township beside your father?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you pay other State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, than those you paid to the county treasurer, in the spring of 1878?—A. Yes, in the spring of 1877.

Q. Do you not generally go by the name of Wess. McGovern, and frequently sign your name in that way?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When was you born?—A. I was born in 1849, October 12.

Q. Did you vote in Beccaria Township at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did vote on that day, and for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay any State or county taxes within two years preceding said election; when, to whom, and for what year was it assessed?—A. I did, on the 5th day of September, 1877, to Jackson Kinkead, and assessed for the year 1877; there was no tax assessed against me for the year 1876; my name was not on the duplicate.

Q. Have you paid your State and county taxes for the year 1878, and when?—A. I have, in February, 1879.

Q. The tax you paid to Kinkead in 1877 was the only State and county tax you paid within two years preceding said election?—A. What I paid to Kinkead was the only tax I paid within two years.

Q. Were you not exonerated from the payment of that tax prior to the 5th day of September, 1877?—A. I was, according to the duplicate.

Q. Did or did not Kinkead tell you, before you paid it, that it had been exonerated, and that he had no taxes against you?—A. He did not tell me he had no taxes against me; he told me he thought it was exonerated.

Q. Had he his duplicate with him when you paid him?—A. He had not.

Q. Have you since seen his duplicate of State and county taxes for 1877, and is your tax therein marked exonerated?—A. I have seen it. I think it was marked Ex.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you ask him about your tax at the time you paid it, or did he ask you?—A. I asked him.

Q. Did you know at that time that he was the collector of State and county taxes, and was that the reason you spoke to him on the subject?—A. I did, and that was the reason.

Q. Have you the receipt with you?—A. (Produced.) I have it.

“GLENHOPE, Sept. 5, 1877.

“Received from John Cavaner thirty-five cts., being his county & State tax for the year 1877.

“J. KINKEAD, Collector.”

Q. Did you live in Beccaria Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, two months immediately preceding the election of November, 1878, and one year in the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I did.

Q. Are you American born?—A. I am.

DENNIS FITZGIBBON sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In the borough of Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. I have got the receipt here. I can't read it.

Q. When did you pay this tax?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the witness has produced a receipt for the payment of his State and county taxes, which is the best evidence as to when the same was paid.)

A. I paid it when I got that receipt—that is the day I paid it.

Q. Did you pay this tax within a month preceding the election of November, 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question for the reason that the witness has already testified that he paid the taxes for which he produced a receipt more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878, and the question is such as shows an attempt on the part of the counsel to mislead the witness and to contradict him by his own testimony, which, since contestee has made Dennis Fitzgibbon his witness, is contrary to all rules governing evidence in either civil or criminal proceedings, under both United States and State laws.)

A. I kept no account of it at all. I met a man on the street on the Saturday night after the pay. I says "Come in, and I'll pay you that money; you have some State and county tax." As soon as I gave him the money he called me into the Jew's store, and he gave me a receipt.

Q. Was or was not that some time in the month of October last?

(Objected to for the reason that the receipt which has been produced by the witness shows when the taxes were paid, and is the best evidence.)

A. I have told you before as I know about it. I forgot the month.

Q. As near as you can tell, when did you pay that tax?—A. We got paid on Friday and I paid it on Saturday. It is in that receipt.

Q. How often are you paid?—A. Once a month.

Q. What time in the month?—A. Sometimes on the 18th, 20th, and 15th.

Q. What is your occupation, and for whom were you working in the fall of 1878?—A. I dig coal, and I work for the Franklin Company.

Q. Do they not always pay their men always on the Friday or Saturday after the 15th of the month?—A. No, sir; they just pay when they think fit.

Q. Did you pay this tax on the day after pay-day?—A. Yes, sir; on the Saturday following.

Q. Pay-day then was on Friday, and you paid the tax to Dugan on Saturday?—A. Yes, sir; just as I told you before.

Q. Was this tax which you paid to Dugan and called for in this receipt the only State or county tax you paid within two years preceding that election of November 5, 1878?—A. No; I have got another one.

Q. When was that paid?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To John Malee.

Q. Was that the tax you voted on at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. Yes, sir; I voted for Tilden on that.

Q. Did you pay that tax long enough before the Presidential election to entitle you to vote upon it at that election?—A. Yes, sir; and I have many a one of them. It's not the first, or second, or third, or fourth.

Q. Other than the tax which you paid Malee, which you voted on at the Presidential election for 1876, and the tax you paid Dugan called for in the receipt, did you pay any State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I paid my State and county tax every year. I pay a State and county tax every year.

Q. Who to?—A. To Malee twice.

Q. When?—A. I could not tell you. I could show you in five minutes.

Q. Have you receipts at home for the payment of these State and county taxes?—A. I have some of them, and some I have lost. I can swear to it that some of them I have lost.

Q. How many State or county taxes have you paid to Malee, and how many to Dugan?—A. Two to Malee; one to Dugan.

Q. Have you receipts at home for the two taxes you paid to Malee?—A. Yes; I know there's one. Could not tell you if there is any more—another one.

Q. How long would it take you to go home and get all the State and county tax receipts you have?—A. Twenty minutes.

Q. Will you go home and get those receipts and return and produce them?—A. I will go home and not come back. I refuse to come back. I have plenty of work at home. I have been here since eight o'clock this morning.

Q. Do you have any recollection as to when you paid this tax to Dugan, except that you paid it on a Saturday after a pay-day, which was on Friday?—A. That's all, as I told you before. I paid him on Saturday.

Q. Did you see Dugan write this receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he write it, and was any person present?—A. He wrote it in Liveright's store; could not tell you who was present; several people were present. I knew only one.

Q. Was or was not that tax paid for you by some other person?—A. No; I paid it myself, with my own hands.

Q. Can you either read or write?—A. Indeed I can't.

Q. Did you get this receipt the day you gave him the money?—A. Yes, sir. I gave him the money, and he gave the receipt same day.

Q. Do you know what date Dugan put in the receipt?—A. There's 1878 on it, they told me.

Q. What month and day are in it?—A. I could not tell you the month.

Q. Will you hand the receipt to the notary to copy?—A. Yes, sir.

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 19th.

“Rec'd of Dennis Fitzgibbon 76 cents, State and Co. tax for the year 1878.

“PATRICK DUGAN,
“Constable.”

Q. Was not pay-day at the Franklin Colliery during the year 1878 always on the Friday after the 15th day of the month?—A. They pay just when they please themselves.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was not the State and county taxes which you paid to Patrick Dugan and for which the receipt which has been copied by the notary was given you, paid to him in the year 1878?—A. I don't know; that will tell you.

Q. Was it last year you paid Dugan these taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was this receipt read to you at the time you paid Dugan your State and county taxes for the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir; when he wrote it he read it to me and said it was all right.

Q. Was not these taxes paid Dugan in time to give you a right to vote at the election of November 5, 1878, at which election Curtin was a candidate for Congress?—A. Yes, the tax was paid.

Q. Was the date which Dugan read you when he read you this receipt the month and the day of the month on which you paid him your State and county taxes?—A. Yes. I could not tell you. I could not read; he read it to me, and said it was all right.

Q. Did you or did you not pay a State or county tax about one year before you paid this tax to Dugan?—A. I did, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To John Malee.

Q. Was or was not this State or county tax which you paid to John Malee, paid him since the election at which Tilden was a candidate for President?—A. No. I didn't vote on that; it was after Tilden's election.

Q. Then, if Tilden was a candidate for President at the election of November 7, 1876, was the last State and county tax you paid to John Malee paid to him after that date?—A. I did not vote on that at all; yes, it was after that time a long time; Dan. McMonagal was constable and collector before that election.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. My vote was never challenged. I always had it up to the handle.

Re-examined:

Q. Where is your receipt for the taxes you paid John Malee?—A. There is one at home; don't know where the rest is.

Q. Which receipt is at home—the tax you paid Malee first or last?—
A. The very last one of all.

Q. You brought the Dugan receipt with you; now why did you not bring the Malee receipt along?—A. Why, I did not think I had any occasion for to fetch it.

Q. In what year did you last pay John Malee a State or county tax?—A. Indeed, I could not tell you; it's on the tax receipt.

Q. Have you such tax receipt at home?—A. Yes.

Q. About as near as you can tell how long was it before the election of November 5, 1878, when you voted for Curtin, that you paid Pat Dugan your taxes?—A. I could not tell you; this receipt will tell you.

Q. About how long?—A. I can't tell you; this receipt will show you; I can't read.

Q. Was it three months?—A. Can't tell you.

Q. Was it three days?—A. Yes, it was over three days.

Q. Was it three weeks?—A. I don't know.

Q. Was it two weeks?—A. Yes, sir; it was more than two weeks.

Q. Are you sure that it was more than two weeks before the 5th of November, 1878, the election day, that you paid Dugan the taxes?—A. Yes, sir; I am sure I paid it before two weeks before the election day; I'm sure and certain.

Q. Are you not sure, that it was more than three weeks before said election?—A. Yes I am sure I paid it more than three weeks before election day.

Q. Was it four weeks before?—A. I could not tell you.

Q. Can you swear that it was as much as four weeks before said election?—A. I can swear, if you read this—no I could not, but this receipt will tell.

Q. Do you know what date Dugan put on the receipt?—A. I know there is 1878; that is all I know.

Q. How long before an election must taxes be paid, if you know, to give a person a right to vote?—A. I heard it, but I forget it.

Q. What did you hear as to the time?—A. That a State and county tax must be paid so many days before the election.

Q. You say so many days, now how many?—A. Indeed I could not tell you.

Q. Do you know anything about when you paid this tax to Dugan, except that you paid it on a Saturday the day after a pay day of the Franklin Mines?—A. I don't know; that will tell you (showing receipt).

Q. Can you swear that Dugan put in that receipt the date on which you paid him?—A. I can swear that nobody else wrote any on it.

Q. Don't you know that you paid Dugan that tax on Saturday October 19, 1878, that that he dated it back to September 19, 1878?—A. I know that I paid him the tax on Saturday, and I know that there was nobody else ever left a pen on that.

Q. Don't you know that you paid Dugan on Saturday, October 19, 1878?—A. I know I paid it on Saturday, and I put that receipt in my pocket; I don't know nothing about, but I paid him on Saturday; I don't know what day or month it was.

Q. Your receipt is dated September 19. Do you swear that you paid it on that day?—A. I can swear that I paid it on Saturday, but I do not know what month.

Q. What season did you pay it in, spring, summer, fall, or winter?—A. I couldn't tell you that, but the evenings were getting short.

Q. Your receipt is dated September 19, while September 19, 1878, was Thursday, and you swear you paid it on Saturday; now can you swear you paid the money on September 19?—A. Yes, I paid it on Saturday; I could not tell either the day or the month.

Q. If September 19 comes on Thursday, and October 19 comes on Saturday, do you not think that it was October 19 that you paid Dugan?—A. I don't know, whether it was October or nothing, but it was Saturday I paid the money.

Q. Have you any means at home or elsewhere, of ascertaining what day of the month was pay day at Franklin Colliery, in September and October, of 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long since you were naturalized?—A. It was ten or eleven years.

Q. How often have you voted in Houtzdale Borough?—A. About five years.

Recross-examined:

Q. When you were subpoenaed to come here to testify were you subpoenaed to bring your tax receipts with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States for more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878, at which A. G. Curtin was a candidate for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Pennsylvania for one year immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Did you yourself pay a State or county tax within two years preceeding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was any tax receipt given to you on the day of the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom?—A. Between Patterson and Frank Bulger. I don't recollect which one.

Q. Do you mean W. H. Patterson, an attorney of Houtzdale Borough?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know anything about the payment of those taxes, except that they handed you the receipt?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. Do you know whether your taxes called for in this receipt have been paid by any one?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Did you ever authorize or request any person to pay them for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you the receipt that Patterson and Bulger gave you on the day of the election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you any objection to putting it in evidence and attaching it to the testimony now being taken?—A. I have no use for it, and permit it to go on the evidence.

Q. (Exhibit hereto attached, marked A, shown witness.) Is this the receipt given you by Patterson and Bulger?—A. Yes, sir.

The receipt reads as follows:

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 3rd, 1878.

Rec'd of Danl. Sault 50 cents State and county tax in full for 1878.

“PAT. DUGAN, Collector.”

Q. Was or was not this tax, if paid at all, paid on the day of or within a day or two of the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to unless the witness can answer of his own knowledge and without depending on what others told him as it would be hearsay.)

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you know anything about when that tax was paid?—A. No, sir.

Q. How old are you?—A. I was born in 1855, the 30th day of October.

Q. Have you ever yourself paid any State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know of any State or county tax ever having been paid for you other than the one called for in the receipt which you have produced?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—

A. Nothing more than they wanted to know whether I was a citizen.

Q. Did you read your ticket which you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you confirm payment of your State and county taxes for the year 1878 which were made for you?—A. I did not deny it; it was all right.

Q. When you received your receipt did you not say the payment was all right?—A. I did not say anything at all.

Q. Did you make any objections?—A. I made no objections to taking the receipt.

Q. Then you were satisfied, were you not, that your taxes had been paid for you?—A. I could not say whether they had been paid or not.

Q. When you received your receipt which was evidence that your taxes had been paid, did you not by taking the receipt affirm that payment had been made?—A. I don't know how to answer that.

Q. If somebody else paid the tax for you had you any objection to the payment so made?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Where were you when Patterson and Bulger gave you this receipt?—A. Down in the bank near the station at Houtzdale Borough.

Q. Was not Patterson's office in the bank building?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you not in Patterson's office when the receipt was given you, or where were you?—A. I was in Patterson's office.

Q. Who asked you to go into Patterson's office?—A. Nobody.

Q. Before they gave you the ticket did they or not ask you how you intended to vote?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question for the reason that it is assumed by the question that witness received a ticket and the ticket which he voted from the party who gave him the receipt, whilst witness has not so sworn, and the question is so framed as to mislead the witness and is leading.)

Question withdrawn.)

Q. I meant to ask you whether or not they asked you how you intended to vote before giving you the receipt?—A. I believe they did.

Q. Did you tell them that you intended to vote for Curtin, and did they then give you the receipt?—A. I hardly mind about that. I most forget how that was.

Q. Had you intended to try to vote on that day before you got this receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Why?—A. Because I had no receipt.

Q. Was it not because your taxes were not paid?—A. Yes, sir; that's the reason.

Q. Had you been to see the collector about the taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long before the said election of November 5, 1878?—A. About two weeks.

Q. Had they been paid then?—A. No, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. In England, on January 24, 1850.

Q. Are you naturalized, and if so, when did you get your certificate of naturalization?—A. I am; I got my certificate about the year 1877. I believe it was 1875; I am not certain.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you reside in the borough of Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes; I resided there during that time with my wife.

Q. Did you vote at the election in Houtzdale Borough, on November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. I did.

Cross-examined:

Q. When you offered to vote at the election of November 5, 1878, was your vote challenged?—A. I don't think it was.

Q. Were you required to make any proofs before voting?—A. Not more than my papers and tax receipts, which they were satisfied to take.

Re-examined:

Q. Were all the members of the election-board acquainted with you, if you know, and did they also know of your residence in the borough of Houtzdale for the required length of time?—A. I believe so.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir; my tax was all paid up that was due each year.

Q. Did you vote at said election, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; and for Mr. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long before you voted on November 5, 1878, did you read your ticket?—A. Probably two or three minutes.

Q. Did you pay these State and county taxes yourself?—A. Yes, sir; have receipts down at the store.

Question. When and where were you born?—Answer. I was born in Prussia, October 2, 1839.

Q. When did you come to this country?—A. I was about six months old when I left Prussia.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I did; and I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when?—A. To Thomas Henderson, Dugan, and John Malee.

Q. Have you any receipts, and will you produce them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay this tax to Thomas Henderson on August 24, 1878, the day the receipt bears date?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Were you ever naturalized?—A. No, sir; I always voted on father's papers and tax receipts.

Q. When was your father naturalized and where?—A. To the best of my opinion, he has been naturalized twenty-five or thirty years; maybe over that; at Ebensburgh, Cambria County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Is your father still living, and where does he reside?—A. Yes, sir; in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was or was not your father naturalized some time during the war of the rebellion?—A. No, sir; long before it.

Cross-examined:

Q. Your father was naturalized, was he not, before you became of age?—A. Yes, sir; I don't think I was ten years old when he was naturalized.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one year before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I have never put a foot in any other State.

Q. Did you reside in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for at least two months preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir; I have been there since December 16, 1875.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you any receipts for the payment of said taxes with you?—Yes, sir.

Q. Will you read them?

“Rec’d Houtzdale, Aug. 18th, 1877, of Philip Hartman, one dollar $\frac{31}{100}$, State and county tax for 1877.

“JOHN MALEE, Collector.”

Also another receipt, as follows:

“CLEARFIELD, PA., Aug. 24th, 1878.

“Rec’d of Philip Hartman the sum of $\frac{47}{100}$ dollars, being county and State tax for the year 1878, on his property situated and assessed in Woodward Township.

THOMAS HENDERSON, Collector.”

Another receipt, as follows:

“HOUTZDALE, Sept. 13.

Rec’d of Philip Hartman $1.31, State and county tax for the year 1878.

“PATRICK DUGAN, Collector.”

Q. Was the receipt which was given you by Patrick Dugan for the payment of $1.31, State and county tax for the year 1878, and which is dated September 13, paid on September 13, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; it was paid on September 13, 1878.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax yourself to a collector within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when?—To Thomas Henderson, the 18th October, 1878.

Q. Did you pay any other State or county tax within said two years to a collector?—A. I paid, but I didn’t pay it to a collector. I left it at Andy Gleason’s.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge whether he ever paid the tax?—A. I do not. When I went to the poll to vote they called out “It is a vote.” I don’t know who called out, but they took my vote.

Q. Was Gleason a collector of taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who did you pay him the money for?—A. For Higgins, the collector.

Q. Did you tell Gleason to pay Higgins the money you left him?—A. I told him "I will leave this money here for Higgins."

Q. Was that all you told him?—A. That was all.

Q. Don't you know that Higgins never got that money?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Do you know anything about whether he did or not?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Can you swear that he did?—A. No, sir; I could not swear.

Q. Have you any receipts for the taxes you paid to Henderson on October 18, 1878, and the money you paid to Gleason?—A. I have receipt for the money I paid to Henderson. I have not got any for that I paid to Gleason.

Q. Where is the Henderson receipt?—A. I left it at home.

Q. When did you pay the money to Gleason?—A. It was in 1877. I could not tell the month or date.

Cross-examined:

Q. The money you left with Gleason in 1877 to pay to Higgins, the collector, for your State and county taxes, was left there in compliance with a promise made to Higgins, was it not?—A. I did not tell him I would leave the money there. Another party and I was talking about paying our taxes; we did not know when to pay them. The party I was with said that Higgins would get it at Gleason's store if we left it there.

Q. Has Higgins, the collector, ever called on you to pay that State and county tax for which you left that money at Gleason's?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you gave that money to Gleason, did he not say he would give it to Higgins for you?—A. He said it would be all right.

Q. Was this tax left with Gleason before the November election of 1877?—A. I could not say.

Q. Was Higgins present when you voted?—A. I could not tell you; I was outside the window and they were in.

Q. Are you positive the tax you paid to Thomas Henderson on October 18, 1878—might it not have been September 18, 1878?—A. No, sir; it was October 18.

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. How much money did you leave with Gleason for Higgins?—A. Fifty cents.

Q. Did you ever get the money back from Gleason?—A. No, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did Gleason ever tell you he had paid Higgins the money you left with him to pay your State and county taxes?

(Objected to because it is hearsay.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at least two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; for nearly four years.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for at least one year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States for at least one month immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Was not the money that you paid to Gleason paid in 1876 and not in 1877, and was it not for the payment of the tax upon which you voted at the Presidential election?—A. I paid it in 1877.

Q. Did you pay to Gleason but once?—A. Only once.

Q. For what year's tax did you intend that money to pay?—A. For the year 1877.

Q. When did you pay your 1876 tax?—A. I could not tell you when.

Q. Was it in the year 1876?—A. I suppose, to the best of my knowledge, it was.

Q. Who did you pay that tax to?—A. I could not tell you who the man was.

Q. Since testifying about the payment of the money to Gleason to pay to Collector Higgins, have you examined into the matter and made inquiry as to the year you paid it; and, if so, what was it, and have you any correction to make in your testimony?—A. Yes, I have examined into it, and I find I was mistaken in paying my tax in 1877. I inquired about it, and found out that I paid it in 1876.

Q. Then you paid that money to Gleason in 1876 instead of 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was or was it not to pay your taxes for the year 1876?—A. It was.

Q. Was or was it not paid long enough before the general election of that year to entitle you to vote on it?—A. I voted on it.

Q. Was it not paid as much as a month before the Presidential election of November, 1876?—A. I could not say, but I voted on it.

Q. Did you then pay any State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, except the tax you paid Henderson October 18, 1878?—A. Not to my knowledge—1878 and 1876.

Q. Did you not pay the tax of 1876 prior to November 4, 1876?—A. I did; to my knowledge, I did before.

Q. You paid it long enough before the Presidential election, did you, to entitle you to vote at said election?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, for the reason that it assumes that the witness has sworn that he paid said taxes long enough before the Presidential election of 1876 to entitle him to a vote at said election, whilst witness has not so testified, but has testified that he has no knowledge of when said taxes were paid the collector by Gleason, with whom the money was left to pay the same. The question is so framed as to mislead the witness, and is leading.)

A. I suppose I did; I voted on it.

Cross-examined:

Q. To whom did you pay your State and county tax for the year 1877?—A. I don't know; I don't think I paid it.

Q. Did you not pay it to the county treasurer when he was in Woodward Township collecting taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long would it take you to bring a receipt you received from Henderson here?—A. An hour and a half.

Q. Your right to vote was not questioned, was it, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For A. G. Curtin.

Q. Was any tax receipt given you on the day of election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom?—A. The constable, Pat. Dugan.

Q. Did you pay him the taxes called for in that receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you last pay any State or county taxes?—A. In 1876.

Q. Was that the tax you voted upon at the Presidential election of that year?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it paid long enough before said election to entitle you to vote?—A. Six weeks previous to that election.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax, or was any such tax paid for you, between the time you paid your 1876 tax, which was six weeks before the election of that year, and the general election of 1878?—A. I did not pay any tax, and I don't know whether there was any paid for me.

Q. By whom was the tax paid called for in the receipt which Dugan gave you on the day of the general election of November, 1878, if you know?—A. Well, the receipt stated that I paid the tax, but I did not pay it.

Q. Do you know who paid it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you tell any one to pay it for you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you when Dugan gave you the receipt?—A. On the main street in Houtzdale Borough.

Q. Had you intended to vote on that day until after this receipt was given you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Why not?—A. Well, I had no tax receipt.

Q. Was it because you had no right to vote on account of non-payment of taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you with you the receipt which Dugan gave you?—A. No; I have got it in the house.

Cross examined :

Q. How long will it take you to get that receipt and bring it here?—A. About half an hour.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted at said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When the receipt was handed you by Dugan did you object to receiving it from him?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you affirmed and approved of the payment of your taxes which had been made for you?—A. I didn't see anybody paying it. I took the receipt and voted on it.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. To whom did you pay such taxes?—A. I paid to Mr. Higgins, and this year I gave it to Van Dusen, and told him to give it to the tax collector. I do not know him.

Q. What tax-collector did you tell Van Dusen to pay it to?—A. If I be right, I guess Henderson was his name.

Q. When was that tax paid to Henderson?—A. I don't know exactly any more.

Q. Was or was it not on the 7th or 8th of October, 1878?—A. I don't know any more.

Q. Have you any paper by which to tell when this tax was paid?—A. I gave it to you or I left it lay on the table.

Q. Was it paid within a month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. O, yes; O, yes. I guess he did not pay the money over at the time.

Q. When did you pay the money for tax to Higgins?—A. I don't mind any more.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of 1876?—A. Yes.

Q. Was or was it not before that election that you paid this tax to Higgins?—A. I think, if I be right, I paid to Higgins for three years.

Q. How long ago is it since you paid the last tax to Higgins?—A. I guess it was last at election time; about the time taxes ought to be paid.

Q. Do you say you paid a State and county tax in 1878 to Higgins and also to Henderson in the same year?—A. Yes.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Germany.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When were you born?—A. June 29, 1855.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I have a receipt when I paid it.

Q. Did you pay that tax on the date called for in that receipt?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. When did you pay it, and to whom?—A. On the 9th of October, 1878, to Thomas Henderson.

Q. Will you read the receipt?

“Oct. 9, 1878. Rec'd of George Walters one dollar and nineteen cents, being his State and county tax for 1878.

$1.19.

“THOMAS HENDERSON,
“Collector.”

Q. Was the tax you paid to Henderson on October 9, 1878, the only State or county tax you only paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket that you voted on November 5 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you not pay other taxes than that you paid Henderson within the last two years?—A. Yes, sir; I have paid other taxes.

Q. To whom?—A. To John K. Henderson.

Q. Were these the only other taxes you paid?—A. No, sir; I paid my road taxes to John K. Henderson. My poor tax, I didn't pay them myself. My brother-in-law, he paid them. My poor tax and school tax also was paid to Chase.

Q. When did you pay your State and county tax for 1877?—A. Did not pay any; did not vote.

Q. Was Thomas Henderson, to whom you paid the taxes for which the receipt you read was given you, collector of State and county taxes for the year 1878 for Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. As far as anything I know, he was.

Q. Have you resided in Pennsylvania for one year preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Woodward Township for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Were you required to produce your tax receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. After you produced your tax receipt was your vote received?—A. I didn't produce it. I meant in answer to the preceding question to say no, instead of yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. Could not exactly say ; am about sixty-four years.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes ; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. I voted for Andy Curtin.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election ; and, if so, to whom?—A. Yes ; I paid it to Pat Dugan.

Q. Was that the only State or county tax you paid within said two years?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you get that receipt when you paid Dugan the money?—A. I got the receipt and I paid him after. He gave me the receipt and I met him after and paid him.

Q. Did Dugan put in that the date upon which you paid him the money?—A. I don't know whether he did or not.

Q. Do you know whether or not Dugan dated back that receipt?—A. I do not know, indeed.

Q. Did you or not pay that tax to Dugan in money within one month before the election?—A. I paid it in money to him, but I did not take the date before or after.

Q. Don't you know that you paid Dugan in the month of October, 1878?—A. I don't know whether it was in the month of October or not ; I paid him. I did not take the date.

Q. Did you or not get the money with which to pay Dugan this tax from your son who works in the Franklin colliery?—A. No, sir ; I did not ; I always have money of my own.

Q. How long was it after Dugan gave you this receipt till you paid him the money?—A. I could not exactly say.

Q. Was it as much as two weeks?—A. I don't exactly say whether it was.

Q. To the best of your knowledge was it as much as two weeks?—A. Well, it might be two weeks to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Do you think it was as much as a month?—A. I don't know, indeed, sir.

Q. Give us the best of your recollection on the subject.—A. I have just told you I cannot bring myself to a recollection of it.

Q. Might it have been a month?—A. I can't say, indeed, sir.

Q. Did Dugan say anything to you when he gave you this receipt about his having dated it back in order to entitle you to a vote?—A. No, sir ; he did not.

Q. Did you say anything to him about that?—A. No, sir.

Q. Don't you know that you paid this tax after the time was up within which to pay taxes to vote on?—A. I know, sir.

Q. You paid it, then, did you, after the time was up for paying taxes to vote on?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. If this receipt is dated before the time was up to pay taxes to vote on, was it not dated back of the time you paid it?—A. I suppose this receipt will answer that.

Q. Will you hand the receipt which you have in your hand to the notary to be copied into the testimony?—A. Yes, I will. (It reads as follows:)

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 19th.

“Rec'd of John Coleman, fifty cents, State and Co. tax for the year 1878.

“PAT DUGAN, Constable.”

Q. Is this the receipt Dugan gave you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how long before the election taxes must be paid in order to vote?—A. I don't know whether it is thirty days or not.

Q. Has it not been your opinion that thirty days is the time?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question as well as to preceding question for the reason that the constitution and laws of Pennsylvania are the best evidence as to when a man shall pay his State and county taxes in order to entitle him to a vote at any general election in said State; the evidence of the witness is therefore not the best evidence and is hearsay.)

A. I hear the people saying that, but that is all I can tell about it.

Q. You have stated that you had paid this tax after the time was up for paying tax; did you or not mean that you paid them within thirty days before the election?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question because it is leading, and is so framed as to put in the mouth of the witness the answer desired by counsel for S. H. Yocum.)

A. I did not mean that.

Q. Did you intend to vote at the November election until Pat Dugan gave you this receipt?—A. I was not thinking about it at the time.

Q. Had you not before getting this receipt concluded you would not try to vote because your taxes were not paid?

(Counsel for A. G. Curtin, the contestant, objects to this question for the reason that it is so framed as to mislead the witness and to obtain the answer from him desired by counsel for Seth H. Yocum, and is therefore an improper question and leading and unfair to the witness.)

A. I had not made up my mind as to that effect.

Q. If Pat Dugan dated that receipt back, was it not against your wishes and without your knowledge?—A. I did not want him to date back.

Q. Do you know how long you paid this to Dugan after the time was up to pay taxes to vote on?—A. I do not know, sir.

Q. Do you think it was as much as two weeks after the time was up?—A. I think I answered that question before.

Q. Did any one tell you before the election when the time was up for paying taxes?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. In the receipt given you by Dugan the year has been omitted in the date. Now, were these State and county taxes paid him in the year 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you think he gave you this receipt a month before the election of November 5, 1878, at which Curtin was a candidate for Congress?—A. I thought so, sir, or I would not vote.

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States for more than one month immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and have you your papers with you?—A. I guess these will answer that question. (Witness produces certificate of naturalization dated 20th of October, 1873, from the circuit court of Maryland, bearing the seal of said court.)

Q. Did you reside in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one year immediately preceding said election?—

A. Yes, sir.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you?—A. I am between 33 and 34 years old, as near as I can tell.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Curtin, straight out Democratic ticket.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To Patrick Dugan.

Q. Was the tax you paid to Dugan the only State or county tax you paid within those two years?—A. I paid to John Malee; I paid State and county tax twice since I came here; that is all.

Q. When did you pay tax to John Malee?—A. I believe, as close as I can calculate, it was the year before this, the year 1878.

Q. Did you vote at the Presidential election of 1876?—A. No, sir; I was not long enough in this place.

Q. What year's tax did you pay to John Malee?—A. I believe it must of been for 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt for the tax you paid to Malee?—A. Yes, sir; I am mistaken. I have reference to Dugan's receipt; I tore up the Malee receipt.

Q. Are you sure the tax you paid to Malee was State and county, or might it not be some other kind of tax?—A. No, sir; it was State and county.

Q. As near as you can tell, what time in the year was it you paid Malee?—A. It was in the month of September; the date I cannot tell.

Q. How much did you pay him?—A. I don't remember, sir. It is so long back now.

Q. Did you get a receipt from Dugan the same time you gave him the money?—A. Yes, sir; as soon as he had the receipt written out, I had the money on the counter.

Q. Do you know whether or not the date put in that receipt was the day on which you paid him the money, and can you swear when you did pay him?—A. No, sir; I didn't remember. I didn't pay any attention to the day I received it from him.

Q. Do you know how long it was before the election you paid Dugan the money?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was it paid as much as a month before?—A. Well, I can't tell you, sir; I expected he would be in time, as he knew the money was ready for him when he came.

Q. How long was it after you paid Malee that you paid Dugan?—

A. Well, I believe it would be coming up to twelve months, as they come around every year.

Q. Did you not misunderstand the question when you answered before that you paid Malee in 1878 ?—A. I could not exactly say ; I tore up the receipt when I got the new one from Dugan. I say again that I got this receipt from Malee ; then this year I got one from Dugan.

Q. Did you pay both those taxes in the same year ?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined :

Q. Were you a citizen of the United States for at least one month before the election of November 5, 1878 ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for at least one year immediately preceding said election ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before said election ?—A. Yes, I did.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of any such taxes, and will you hand it to the notary to copy ?—A. Yes, sir.

“HOUTZDALE, Sep. 27th.

“Received of John Coleman 2.94 cents, State and county tax for the year 1878.

“PATRICK DUGAN, Constable.

Q. In this receipt just copied the year is omitted in the date ; was not this tax paid to Dugan in 1878 ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the State and county tax which you paid John Malee paid him the year before, or some months before, this tax you paid Dugan ?—A. I guess it would be coming up in twelve months.

Re-examined :

Q. Do you know whether or not Dugan dated that tax receipt back of the time you paid him the money ?—A. I do not, sir ; didn't pay any attention.

And further saith not.

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. I was born in Scotland. I am twenty-eight years old on the 17th day of last January.

Q. Are you naturalized, and if so, when were you?—A. I am naturalized. I got my naturalization papers about four years ago.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. Borough of Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you with your wife and family reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election, that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before the same?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at said election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted at said election, and voted for Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. When you voted at the election of November 5, 1878, were you required by the election board to produce your certificate of citizenship before voting?

(Objected to as not cross-examination.)

A. No, sir; they knowed I was a citizen before.

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. In South Wales, in 1828.

Q. Are you naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were you naturalized, and what is the date of your papers?—A. I was naturalized in 1868. My papers are dated on September 21, 1868.

Q. Have you your papers with you, and will you produce them for inspection?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces certificate for inspection.)

Q. Where do you reside?—A. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878, that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before the same?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at said election, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. I voted there and voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Will you produce your certificate of citizenship for the notary to copy?—A. Yes, sir; here it is. It reads as follows:

“UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

“Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, City of Scranton, ss:

“In the mayor’s court for the city of Scranton, for September term, anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

“William S. Edward, an alien and a native of Wales, having complied with all the acts of Congress respecting the naturalization of aliens, was sworn and admitted a citizen of the United States and of said commonwealth.

“In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said mayor’s court, at Scranton, this 21st day of September, A. D. 1868.

[SEAL.]

“D. RANKIN, Clerk,
“Pr. CHAS. H. WELLIS.”

[5-cent internal revenue stamp canceled.]

Q. Are there any indorsements upon the back of this certificate, which has just been copied?—A. Yes, sir. The following appears:

“Voted October 12, 1869”.

Q. Is this the only indorsement on the back of the same?—A. That is all I can see there.

Q. When and to whom did you pay the State and county taxes which you say you paid within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. October 4, 1878, to Patrick Dugan.

Q. Look at the receipt and see whether the year is omitted in the date of the same.—A. The year is not in the date.

Q. Is this the only State or county tax you have paid within those two years?—A. Yes, this is the only tax I paid.

Q. Did you pay the tax yourself, and in money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you get your receipt from Dugan?—A. I got it when I paid him.

Q. Did you see Dugan write it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read it after he wrote it, and at the time when you paid him the money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you swear that the date in said receipt is the date upon which you paid the taxes to Dugan?—A. As far as I know it is. I can’t be so particular as to be confident. I am confident it is.

Q. When you say you paid these taxes to Dugan more than one month before the election of November 5, 1878, now do you not rely upon the date in the receipt when you say you paid these taxes more than one month before said election for your knowledge of when you paid them?—A. I do rely upon the receipt, of course.

Q. Then, if this receipt was dated back by Dugan, are you not mistaken as to the exact date as to when you paid these taxes?—A. I paid my tax in time legally to vote.

Q. What do you mean when you say you paid your State and county taxes in time to be a legal voter?—A. I paid it more than thirty days before the election.

Re-examined :

Q. Do you or not mean in answer to your paying taxes in a legal time to vote, that you paid them more than a month before election?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, for the reason that the witness has already testified that he means by the expression "in time to make him a legal voter," more than thirty days. The question is therefore leading.)

A. I do.

Q. You have testified that you saw Dugan write this receipt; that he gave it to you the same time you paid him the money, and that you then read it. Will you now state whether the date put in it was the correct one and the one upon which you paid him the money?—A. I was satisfied at the time on the receipt—was correct when I read it.

Q. Had you seen notices in the paper, or elsewhere, as to when the time would be up for payment of taxes to vote at said election?—A. I seen several papers, election notices, as to the rules for elections.

Q. Do you mean election notices giving time when taxes would have to be paid to vote upon?—A. Yes; I mean that they gave me to understand that I would have to have them paid before the time specified.

Q. Did you pay these taxes before the time thus specified?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you read the receipt which you have for payment of taxes to Dugan?—A. I will. It reads as follows:

"Houtzdale, Oct. 4th. Rec'd of Wm. S. Edwards, fifty cts., State and co.; 50 cts. tax for the year 1878.

"PAT. DUGAN, Collector."

Q. In this receipt, is not the "50 cents" written at the lower left hand corner?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined :

Q. Is not the "50 cts." which you have just sworn are on the lower left hand corner of your receipt from Dugan, on the same line and immediately before the words, "tax for the year 1878"?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is there not an additional line upon which there is nothing written but the name of Pat. Dugan, collector, which is written upon the right hand half of said line, immediately under the words "50 cents tax for the year 1878"?—A. There is a line containing but "Pat. Dugan, collector."

Q. Is there not room enough on that line on the lower left corner to write "50 cents"?—A. There is.

Q. Do you know whether what you read in the papers in reference to when State and county taxes had to be paid in order to give a man a vote, was the law of this State of Pennsylvania?—A. I understood them so.

Q. You are not positive that it was the law of this State, are you?—
 A. As far as I know it is the law.
 And further saith not.

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. In Ireland. I am about 53 or 54 years old.

Q. Are you naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and where did you get your naturalization papers?—A. I got them in Bellefonte, Pa., in 1856 or 1857, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Where did you reside on election day of November 5, 1878?—A. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months before said election?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes.

Q. Have you receipts for the payment of such taxes?—A. Not with me; I have at the house.

Q. Where, to whom, and when were they paid, as near as you can tell?—A. In Latrobe, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. To John Aucherman. I don't remember the other man's name. I know that Aucherman was collector, but not sure either that he was collector for 1877 or not. I paid in 1877 and 1878.

Q. About what time in 1878 did you pay a State or county tax?—A. I disrecollect what month.

Q. Did you pay it before you came Houtzdale?—A. No; it was after that. I wrote to a man to pay it for me, to receive the rent, and pay the tax.

Q. Did he, after that, report that he had paid the tax, and did he send you the receipt?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you receive that receipt more than a month before the election of November, 1878?—A. I cannot say that; I don't recollect; it's dated more than a month before.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, I voted in the borough, and voted for Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did you live before you came to Houtzdale?—A. At Latrobe, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you leave Latrobe?—A. The 8th or 9th of August, 1878.

Q. Where did you move to from Westmoreland County?—A. To Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Do you live in Houtzdale Borough now?—A. No.

Q. Where do you live?—A. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you move into Woodward Township?—A. The 18th or 19th of December, 1878.

Q. Are you certain that it was in December, 1878, that you moved into Woodward Township?—A. Yes.

Q. When did your family come to Houtzdale Borough?—A. There was a portion of them there previous to the time I came there, and the remainder came when I came.

Q. When did you come?—A. The 9th or 10th, or in or about that time of August, 1878.

Q. Can you not fix positively the time when you came into the borough of Houtzdale?—A. I don't consider it was after the 10th of August, 1878.

Q. When did your family move from Houtzdale Borough into Woodward Township?—A. The 18th or 19th of December, 1878.

Q. When you moved into Houtzdale Borough, in 1878, did you intend to make it your permanent home?—A. Yes.

Q. You do not swear, do you, that the State and county taxes which you say were paid for you in Westmoreland County were paid more than one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I paid tax myself in 1877, which allowed me to vote.

Q. You do not swear, do you, that the taxes which you say were paid for you in Westmoreland County were paid more than one month before November 5, 1878?—A. It is specified in the tax receipt, to the best of my knowledge, that it was paid.

Q. Did you see the money paid?—A. No; I could not see from here to there.

Q. When did you receive the receipt you have just spoken of? Was it not about five days before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I can't exactly say what time it was.

Q. Now are you not certain that it was less than ten days before the election of November 5, 1878, that you received that receipt?—A. No; I am not certain, but I wrote to have the taxes paid in October.

Q. Was it not about the last of October you wrote to Westmoreland County, directed your taxes to be paid?—A. I disrecollect what time in the month it was; it was in October.

Q. Now was it not in the third or fourth week of October, 1878?—A. I consider not. I consider it was in the beginning of the month.

Q. Do you think it was as late as the 15th of the month?—A. I recollect right well that I wrote in time; that I could have it paid before the time was up for paying taxes to vote. I say I considered I wrote in time.

Q. Now give me, as near as you can, the day of the month in which you wrote in reference to your taxes in Westmoreland County?—A. The last answer is as near as I can go. I disrecollect the date.

And further saith not.

2 o'clock p. m., same day, March 19, 1879, examination resumed.

A. B. ASHTON produced and sworn.

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. I was born in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, November 4, 1849.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

☞ (Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness, now sworn, for the reason that contestant has not had notice that his testimony would be taken as is required by the act of Congress regulating proceedings in contested rights for seats in the Congress of the United States.)

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife and family reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878; and in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months preceding said election?—A. We did.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote at the said election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes; and I voted for Yocum.

Q. Are you or not generally known as Andrew Ashton?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is there any other person by the name of Andrew Ashton living in Houtzdale Borough?—A. No, sir; not as I know of.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the right to all legal exceptions, proceeds to examine.)

Q. What is your name?—A. Andrew B. Ashton.

Q. When did you pay the State and county taxes which you say you have paid within two years preceding November 5, 1878?—A. August 23, 1878.

Q. To whom?—A. Patrick Dugan.

Q. Where does your family reside?—A. Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County.

Q. How do you know this tax was assessed to you more than two months before said election?—A. I had been paying tax before, in former years, and supposed I would have to pay tax that year.

Q. Did you pay that tax yourself, and in money?—A. I did, and—yes, sir.

Q. Were you in Houtzdale yourself for two months immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Dugan give you the receipt which you have at the time you paid him your taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Dugan write this receipt, and did you see him write it?—A. Dugan requested me to write the receipt, and he signed it.

Q. Were you in Pennsylvania the whole of the year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Re examined:

Q. Was the tax you paid to Dugan the only tax you paid within those two years?—A. No, sir.

Q. To whom and when did you pay such other State or county tax?—A. I paid it to John Malee, constable—State and county tax for 1877. I could not find the receipt, but I paid it within the two years.

Q. Did you or not pay it some time in the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir. And further saith not.

Question. Where and when were you born?—Answer. Nottinghamshire, England, in 1819.

Q. Are you naturalized?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and where were you naturalized?—A. In Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in 1872, I think.

Q. Have you your papers with you, and will you produce them for inspection?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces naturalization papers.)

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you, with your wife and family, reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you receipts for such tax, and will you produce them?—A. Yes, sir; here it is.

Q. Will you hand it to the notary to copy into the testimony?—A. Yes, sir.

(Receipt produced, of which the following is a copy:)

“TREASURER’S OFFICE,
“Clearfield, Pa., May 31, 1878.

“Rec’d of Chas. Charlton the sum of one $\frac{95}{100}$ dollars, being county and State taxes for the year 1878, on his property situated and assessed in Houtzdale Borough.

“\$ One $\frac{95}{100}$.

“D. MCGUAGHEY,
“Treasurer.”

Q. Have you or not made a mistake in the receipt which you have produced, and have you another receipt, and will you produce it to be copied by the notary?—A. One of these receipts ought to be for Charles Charlton and the other for George Charlton.

(Witness produces receipt, of which the following is a copy:)

“TREASURER’S OFFICE,
“Clearfield, Pa., May 31, 1878.

“Rec’d of Geo. Charlton the sum of four $\frac{31}{100}$ doll’s, being county and State taxes for the year 1878, on his property situated and assessed in Houtzdale Borough.

“\$4 $\frac{31}{100}$.

“D. M’GAUGHEY,
“Treasurer.”

Q. Did you pay a State and county tax also in the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I have the receipts at home.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I did; I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Will you produce your naturalization papers and permit the notary to copy the indorsements on the back of the same?—A. Yes, sir

(Papers produced, and the following is a copy of all the indorsements on the back thereof:

“Certificate of citizenship of Geo. Charlton, 1872. Voted at Houtzdale, Feb. 17th, 1874.

“J. L. SHAW.

“JOHN BIGLEY.”

Q. What time of day was it when you voted on November 5, 1878?—
A. Some time in the afternoon, I believe.

Q. When you voted on November 5, 1878, did you produce your naturalization papers for the inspection of the board?—A. I think not, sir; I did my tax receipt.

Q. How long before you voted did you get your ticket?—A. I got it three or four hours before I voted.

Q. Did you read it when you got it?—A. No, sir; but I got a person to read it for me.

Q. Where was your ticket from the time you got it until you voted?—A. It was in my pocket, only that I took it out for one of my boys to read it.

Q. Had you not a number of tickets in your pocket?—A. I had three, but they was all Republican tickets.

Q. Did you read these tickets which you had in your pocket?—A. No, sir; I can't read.

Q. Then you cannot swear, can you, of your own knowledge, that the name of Yocum, for Congress, was on your ticket?—A. Not of my own knowledge, but I can swear that one of my boys read it to me.

Q. You cannot swear, can you, of your own knowledge that the other tickets which you had in your pocket were Republican tickets?—A. I can swear that my son tell'd me as they were Republican tickets.

Q. Then you depend, do you not, for your knowledge for whom you voted for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878, upon what others told you?—A. Upon what my son told me, not other people.

Re examined :

Q. What son?—A. John.

Q. Did you vote the ticket which he read to you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your son's politics?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. He is like myself; he is a Republican, and all my sons is.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough at each general election for more than five years immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I have voted at every general election ever since it was a borough.

Q. How long has that been?—A. I think it was in a borough in 1872.

Recross-examined :

Q. Did the election boards of Houtzdale Borough require you to produce your noturalization papers at five consecutive general elections?—
A. I could not say that; I think I have produced them till the last election or two.

MILTON HAMPTON sworn.

Question. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Andy Curtin.

Q. Do you know where the original lines between the townships of Boggs and Woodward in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, is located?—

A. Yes, sir; I have been told so.

Q. On which side of that line is the house in which you live located?—A. On the Boggs Township side.

Q. Is that the house in which you and your family lived on election day, November 5, 1878, and for several years before that?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you ever been told of the line between those townships being changed for any purposes at or near where you live?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were you told such change was made?—A. I cannot tell you how long it was ago—before I ever voted any.

Q. Do you know anything about it except what you have been told by others?—A. That's all.

Q. Is the original line between those townships well known and marked in any way?—A. Yes; the road is the line.

Q. What road do you refer to?—A. Clearfield bridge road.

Q. Is or is not the Clearfield bridge road a public road very much traveled and long in use?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is it not the principal road in that section of the country?—A. Yes, sir; leading to Clearfield Town.

Q. Was or was not the line between those townships changed some years ago for school purposes and part of Boggs Township thrown into Woodward?—A. So many tracts was thrown in.

Q. Do you reside on the Woodward side of the line thus changed for school purposes?—A. Yes, sir; I live on Woodward side.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you on your own farm?—A. I am living on my father's farm; it is called my father's farm.

Q. Where, if you know, was the line dividing Woodward and Boggs Townships on November 5, 1878, and was the farm you live on in Woodward Township at that time for election purposes?—A. Yes, sir. That is a question I can hardly answer.

Q. Was the farm upon which you lived on November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for election purposes at that date?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it assessed in Woodward Township?

(Objected to as not the best evidence.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were not the taxes on said farm paid in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived on this farm?—A. Twenty years.

Q. How long have the taxes on this farm been assessed and paid in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. About thirty years.

Q. How long has it been since you commenced paying all the taxes in Woodward Township on this farm?

(Counsel for contestee objects to this question and all that have or may be asked the witness as to assessments or payments of taxes for the reason that the records thereof are the best evidence and can be consulted and put in evidence if desired.)

A. About thirty some years.

Q. How long have you voted in Woodward Township?—A. At Lincoln's second election I voted my first vote—for McClellan.

Re-examined :

Q. You have testified that the house in which you live is upon the Boggs side of the original line between the two townships; will you now state on which side of the line are the barn and other buildings located?—

A. The barn is on the Woodward side.

Q. How long is it since the house you live in was built?—A. I can't tell you. It was built before we moved there.

And further saith not.

MILTON HAMPTON.

MILTON HAMPTON recalled and sworn.

Question. Does your father reside on the farm about which you have been testifying?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, because it is immaterial and irrevelant, and his father, or the person in reference to whom the question is asked, is a competent witness and the best evidence as to his residence.)

Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Does he reside in the mansion belonging to that property?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. On which side of the township line is the mansion-house located?—A. On the Woodward side—the old line of the township.

Q. About how long has your father resided there?—A. Since 1854; he moved there in 1854.

Q. Did he then own the whole property and farm it himself for a great many years?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why was it assessed in Woodward Township?—A. To save paying taxes in both townships.

Q. Was or was not it assessed in Woodward Township for the reason that the buildings were located on that side?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. They were located on the Woodward side, were they not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did your father always vote and pay taxes in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has or has not the taxes on that farm been assessed in Woodward Township ever since the mansion-house in which your father lived was erected?—A. Yes, and before.

Q. When was that house erected?—A. In 1866, I think.

Q. Then, as I understand it, the mansion-house belonging to this farm, in which your father, who owns it, resides, together with the barn and other outbuildings, are located on the Woodward side of the line of the two townships, while the house you live in is on the other side of the line; is it correct?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was or was not the property on the Boggs Township side of the line assessed in Woodward Township before the house you live in was built?—A. Yes, sir; it was to my knowledge.

Q. Is this farm on which your father and you live all one original tract of land?—A. I cannot tell you that.

Q. Do you know the name or number of the warrantee?—A. No, sir.

Q. You have testified about having heard of the township line at or near where you lived having been changed. Now, did you or not refer to the fact that a change was made in the assessment of the property, and that that part of the tract lying in Boggs Township was to be assessed thereafter in Woodward, the line, for that purpose, changing its course, so as to include the farm in Woodward?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the only change of line, is it not, that you know of, except the change for school purposes, as you have already stated?—A. Yes.

Q. You don't pretend to say, do you, that there was any other change from the original line except that?—A. That is all I know of.

Q. Was or was not that change made by the assessors in returning the property to the county commissioners?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was it not made by them with the approval and direction of your father, who was the owner of the property, together with the approval of the county commissioners?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was or was not the change made for the purposes stated by the court on the petition of those interested?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, because the petition which counsel by his question assumes was presented to the court praying for said change is the best evidence of the purposes for which such change was made.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was that done, as near as you can tell?—A. About thirty-four or thirty-five years ago.

Q. At whose instance was it done?—A. Philip Fisher's.

Q. Who was Philip Fisher, and was he the owner of the property at that time?—A. Yes, sir; he was the owner.

Q. Do you know who else was on that petition?—A. No, sir.

Q. You know nothing about this matter except what others have told you?—A. Except what my aunt told me.

Q. Except what your aunt told you. Do you know of its having been changed for election or any other purposes?—A. No.

Q. What is your father's name, and how far does he live from where you do?—A. Thomas Hampton, and about thirty rods.

Cross-examined :

Q. Was not that portion of Boggs Township in which the farm upon which you and your father lived and located annexed to Woodward Township for election and all other purposes whatever?—A. Where my father lived, it was not annexed; where I lived, it was.

Q. Was not the part of the farm upon which your father lives always in Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is not that part of the farm upon which you live in that part of Boggs Township which was annexed and made a part of Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir; it is.

Q. Then you live in Woodward Township, do you not, by virtue of this addition to said township?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. How long have you lived in Woodward Township; that is, in that part of Woodward Township which was taken from Boggs Township?—A. Eight years.

Q. Have you voted in Woodward Township during these eight years?—A. Yes; I have voted in Woodward Township.

Q. Is it not generally known that the farm you live on is in Woodward Township?—A. Yes.

Q. Has it or has it not been considered and regarded as a part of Woodward Township by the assessors, by the road supervisors, and by the commissioners of Clearfield County, and the people of both Boggs and Woodward Townships, as a part of Woodward Township as long back as you can remember?

(Objected to as incompetent, immaterial, and hearsay, and not the best evidence.)

A. Yes; it has been.

Q. How long ago was it annexed to Woodward Township?—A. About 34 or 35 years ago.

Re-examined:

Q. Where did you live before moving, eight years ago, to where you now live, as stated?—A. I lived with my father.

Q. Had you been living with him a great many years continuously?—A. Yes, sir; since I can remember.

Q. Does the change in line which you refer to affect any other property in Boggs Township than that upon which you live?—A. Not any, except for school purposes.

Q. Was not the change for school purposes made but a few years ago?—A. Yes; it was.

Q. Then, does the first change made affect any but your property?—A. That's all.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. I was born in Scotland. I am forty-two years of age, past.

Q. Are you a naturalized citizen?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you naturalized?—A. In Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

Q. About how long ago is it since you were naturalized?—A. Some time in 1866; could not tell the month.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Houtzdale Borough for more than two months immediately preceding that election?—A. Yes, sir; I have been in Pennsylvania since 1860. I have been in Houtzdale ever since it was a borough.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes. I paid my State and county tax inside of two years.

Q. Was that tax assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes. It was paid in 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt for that payment of tax, and will you produce and read it?—A. Yes, sir. (The receipt is as follows:)

“Received, Houtzdale, Sept. 22d, 1877, of George Smith two dollars & 36 ce'ts, State & county tax for 1877.

“JOHN MALEE,
“Collector.”

Q. Did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; and I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket that you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir, I did not; but I got it read for me.

Q. How do you know you voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. Because I kept a hold of it till I put it into the window.

Q. Do you not depend upon what others told you for your knowledge for whom you voted for for Congress?—A. No, sir. I made up my mind before I went to the election who I would vote for. Yes, sir; I depended on what he read. I know the heading of the ticket.

Q. If the person who read your ticket handed you a Curtin ticket, but read you the name of Yocum, now, did you not vote for Curtin?—A. No, sir; I never did vote for Curtin at that election.

Q. If the person who read your ticket gave you a ticket with the name of Curtin on it for Congress, did you not vote that ticket?—A. No, sir. We had a club formed here, and every man was posted in his ticket, and that they had no counterfeit tickets among them.

Q. How do you know you voted for Yocum?—A. We were a club formed, and were supposed to have no counterfeit tickets in our party.

Q. How can you swear you did vote for Yocum since you did not read your ticket?—A. Because they read it to me, and I kept a hold of it till I put it into the window.

Q. If the ticket they read to you had the name of Curtin on it, did you not vote for Curtin?—A. No, sir; it had no name of Curtin on it, or I would not voted it.

Q. Did you vote the ticket given you?—A. Yes, sir; I had above a hundred of the same tickets I voted.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you see any person on election day, November 5, 1878, having in his possession a number of tax receipts for distribution to Curtin voters?—A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Who was it?—A. Squire McAteer.

Q. About how many did he have?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, as well as to all the questions and answers in the redirect examination of this witness now sworn, for the reason that Squire McAteer is the most competent witness as to what his intentions were and as to the purposes for which he had any tax receipts if any he had, and is a competent witness, and his testimony can be had; and for the further reason that the testimony of the witness since, that he cannot read (as he has testified), must depend upon hearsay and what others told him, and is therefore incompetent as evidence.)

A. He had a fist full.

Q. What did McAteer say to you when you saw him with the fist full of tax receipts?—A. He says, “Smith,” he says, “where is McCormick?” pulling out a fist full of tax receipts; he says, “I have a tax receipt for McCormick," and dropped two of them; he had so many of them he couldn't hold them.

Q. What is Esquire McAteer's politics?—A. Democrat.

Q. Was he actively engaged at that election in the interest of Curtin for Congress?—A. It appears he was, for he fought with me all day.

Recross-examined:

Q. Now did not Esquire McAteer work against the Democratic ticket at the last election?—A. No, sir, he did not.

Q. Who did he work for; did he work for John McGraff, John Malee, and the rest of the Democratic ticket?—A. I could not tell you, but he didn't vote for a Republican or a Greenback; I know that much.

Re-reexamined:

Q. Were not McGraff and Malee, about whom you have just been questioned, candidates at the spring election of February of this year?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. In Ireland; about 1818 or 1819, to the best of my opinion.

Q. Are you a naturalized citizen?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you naturalized for more than a month preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Indeed I was, for more than twenty years.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, with your wife and family, and in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.
